To the Reader

From the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA

Motivated by love and respect for Scripture, the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA (NCC) hopes that you will find this New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition (NRSVue) suitable to inspire, inform, and guide daily living. The goal of the NRSVue is to offer a readable and accurate version of the Holy Bible to the global English-speaking community for public worship and personal study, for scholarship and study in classrooms, and for informing faith and action in response to God.

Together with religious leaders from diverse communities of faith, we join in the conviction that the Scriptures offer good news of God's love—wisdom to guide, hope to sustain, truth to empower, forgiveness to change, and peace to bless all of creation.

The NRSVue extends the New Revised Standard Version's (NRSV) purpose to deliver an accurate, readable, up-to-date, and inclusive version of the Bible. It also continues the work of offering a version as free as possible from the gender bias inherent in the English language, which can obscure earlier oral and written renditions. The NRSVue, like the NRSV, follows "in the tradition of the King James Bible, [introducing] such changes as are warranted on the basis of accuracy, clarity, euphony, and current English usage, . . . as literal as possible, as free as necessary" (NRSV's preface "To the Reader"). As also stated in the NRSV preface, the Bible's message "must not be disguised in phrases that are no longer clear or hidden under words that have changed or lost their meaning; it must be presented in language that is direct and plain and meaningful to people today."

Why an Update?

The NRSV has been called the most accurate of English-language translations, based on the available manuscript evidence, textual analysis, and philological understanding. In the more than thirty years since its first publication, hundreds of ancient manuscripts have been studied in exacting detail. The NRSVue is informed by the results of this research. Laboring through this material has deepened scholarly insight into Jewish and Christian sacred texts and advanced understanding of ancient languages. With new textual evidence, historical insights, and philological understandings (which include exploring the meanings of ancient texts in light of the cultures that produced them), the NRSVue brings greater precision in interpreting Scripture today. The goal of these practices has been to translate the ancient texts as accurately as possible while reflecting the cultural differences across time and conditions. Such a translation approach permitted the Editorial Committee to present the text as literally as possible and as freely as necessary.

The Update Process

The current updating process involves scores of scholars and leaders from multiple faith communities, inclusive of gender and ethnic identities, with the unwavering goal to render an accurate version of original source texts into the most current understandings of contemporary language and culture.

It is for this reason, too, that the NCC commissioned the Society of Biblical Literature (SBL), the leading international association of biblical scholars, to review and update the NRSV. The SBL's mandate and process were single-mindedly intended to ensure the currency and integrity of the NRSVue as the most up-to-date and reliable Bible for use and study in English-language religious communities and educational institutions.

A Final Word

Since its beginnings in the early 1950s, the NCC has supported the work of scholars who dedicate their lives to the study of the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures. Likewise, the NCC's steadfast aim has been to encourage readers to study the Scriptures so they will be inspired and informed in their faithful action to love God with their hearts, souls, minds, and strength and to love each other as God loves.

The communions of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA have undertaken this work as a sacred trust.

Preface to the NRSV Updated Edition

From the Society of Biblical Literature

Purpose of the Revision

First published in 1611, the King James Version slowly but steadily attained a well-deserved stature as the English language's "Authorized Version" of the Scriptures. At the same time, the scholarly foundation that produced the King James Version shifted as new manuscripts came to light and philological understandings improved. As a result of these scholarly advances, the Revised Standard Version was authorized to improve the translation, based on more evidence of the original texts and early translations of the Bible, the meanings of its original languages (Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek, as well as ancient translations into Arabic, Armenian, Coptic, Ethiopic, Georgian Greek, Syriac, and Latin), and changes to the English language itself. The forty years between the Revised Standard Version and the New Revised Standard Version likewise witnessed many developments in biblical scholarship, textual criticism, linguistics, and philology. The same has occurred over the last thirty years, including the publication of all the biblical texts discovered near the Dead Sea, and these developments warrant this update. As with its predecessors, the NRSVue can claim a well-known line from the 1611 preface to the King James Version: "We never thought from the beginning that we should need to make a new translation . . . but to make a good one better."

The National Council of Churches, which holds the copyright of the New Revised Standard Version, commissioned the Society of Biblical Literature to direct the NRSVue revision project thirty years after its original publication. The editors of this edition encourage readers to read the excellent prefaces to both the Revised Standard Version (1952) and the New Revised Standard Version (1989); some elements of the latter have been incorporated herein. This preface also outlines the process of the update and the mandate under which it was conducted.

Process of the Revision

The review managed by the Society of Biblical Literature included seven general editors and fifty-six book editors, with several general editors serving also as book editors. The general editors were divided into three teams: Old Testament (also known as the Hebrew Scriptures), Apocrypha (also known as the Deuterocanon), and the New Testament. In addition to the seven general editors, the National Council of Churches appointed two members of its Bible Translation and Utilization Advisory Committee to serve as liaisons to the committee of general editors appointed by the Society of Biblical Literature. Three members of the Society's staff participated in and managed the project.

Beginning in 2017, each book of the Bible was assigned to one or more book editors. Over the course of two years (2018–2019), the book editors submitted their proposed updates to the general editors. Each of the three teams of general editors met at least once a month for two years (2019–2020) to review and discuss the proposed updates submitted by the book editors. The accepted updates were submitted to the National Council of Churches in 2021 for its final review and approval of what is now the NRSVue.

The NRSVue presents approximately 12,000 substantive edits and 20,000 total changes, which include alterations in grammar and punctuation.

Like its predecessors, this NRSVue has relied on the best results of modern discovery and scholarship. The mandate primarily focused on two types of revisions: text-critical and philological. The New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition (NRSVue) is not a new translation. While some stylistic improvements have been made, these were reserved for instances where the translation was awkward, unclear, or inaccurate. Other changes involve matters of consistency, grammar and punctuation, and general improvements that render the translation and notes more consistent and uniform.

Text-Critical Revisions

The role of text criticism in Bible translation is to establish a base text from which to translate, a text reconstructed from the earliest versions in the original languages (Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek), as well as in ancient translations of the books of the Old Testament, Apocrypha, and New Testament. Translators rely on scholarly critical editions of the Bible for their work. A typical text-critical resource establishes a text based on scholarly judgment of the preferred reading among the readings available, with important alternative readings provided in a detailed apparatus. Scholars follow well-established rules in their effort to determine one preferred or superior reading from among others, though this remains both art and science. The challenge of establishing the Hebrew and Aramaic text of the Old Testament is different from the corresponding challenge in the New Testament. For the New Testament, a large number of Greek manuscripts exist, preserving many variant forms of the text. Some of them were copied only two or three centuries later than the original composition of the books. While the Dead Sea Scrolls dramatically improved the resources for Old Testament textual criticism, most translations, including the NRSVue, still rely especially on a standardized form of the text established many centuries after the books were written.

The goal of the text-critical review was to evaluate whether or not to modify the textual basis for the revision. To this end, the text underlying the New Revised Standard Version was examined in the light of all available evidence, making use of new data, perspectives, and scholarly resources. The review occasionally resulted in a change to the translation itself or to the textual notes that have been an integral feature of the New Revised Standard Version.

For the Old Testament, the team made use of the Biblia Hebraica Quinta (2004–) for those books published to date and the Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia (1977; ed. sec. emendata, 1983) for the remaining books. Both are editions of the Hebrew and Aramaic text as current early in the Christian era and fixed by Jewish scholars (the Masoretes) of the sixth to the ninth centuries. The vowel signs, which were added by the Masoretes, are accepted in the main, but where a more probable and convincing reading can be obtained by assuming different vowels, we adopted that reading. No notes are given in such cases because the vowel points are more recent and less reliably original than the consonants.

Departures from the consonantal text of the best manuscripts have been made only where it seems clear that errors in copying were introduced before the Masoretes standardized the Hebrew text. Most of the corrections adopted in the NRSVue are based on other ancient Hebrew manuscripts or on the ancient versions (translations into Greek, Aramaic, Syriac, and Latin), which were made prior to the time of the work of the Masoretes and which therefore may reflect earlier forms of the Hebrew text. In such instances a note specifies the manuscript, version, or versions attesting the correction and also gives a translation of the Masoretic Text.

Since the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Septuagint translation predate the Christian era, they present for certain books an earlier and more original version in the development of the texts. Each of the versions was considered authoritative by a community. This advance in textual scholarship is recent, however, so the NRSVue retains for its translation the version presented by the Masoretic Text, whether it attests the earlier, parallel, or later version. The differences between these major versions are larger than can be added to the notes.

The NRSVue uses double brackets in the Old Testament in the same way the New Revised Standard Version did in the New Testament: to enclose passages that are now regarded to be later additions to the text but that have been retained because of their evident antiquity and their importance in the textual tradition. In short, the text-critical basis for the Old Testament is an improved Masoretic Text, which was the goal of the New Revised Standard Version. The Masoretic Text has been given preference where there is no scholarly consensus in favor of another reading or where the arguments are equivocal.

The Revised Standard Version of the Bible containing both the Old and New Testaments was published in 1952; a translation of the Apocrypha in the Old Testament followed in 1957. In 1977, this collection was issued in an expanded edition containing three additional texts considered canonical by Eastern Orthodox communions (3 and 4 Maccabees and Psalm 151). Thereafter the Revised Standard Version gained the distinction of being officially authorized for use by all major Christian churches: Protestant, Anglican, Roman Catholic, and Eastern Orthodox. The translation of the Apocrypha, therefore, is not peripheral but of equal import as the translation of the Old Testament and the New Testament. Indeed, some of the deuterocanonical books were originally written in Hebrew or Aramaic and were considered sacred texts by the early Jewish communities who first transmitted them and the later Christians who preserved them.

The NRSVue includes a considerable number of changes to the Apocrypha. Because there is no single critical edition for the books in this collection, the team made use of a number of texts. For most books the basic Greek text used was the edition of the Septuagint prepared by Alfred Rahlfs (Stuttgart, 1935). For several books the more recent volumes of the Göttingen Septuagint project were utilized. A New English Translation of the Septuagint (Oxford, 2009) also served as a resource to compare translations and evaluate critical texts for individual books.

For the book of Tobit, the New Revised Standard Version relied on the shorter Greek manuscript tradition; the NRSVue translated the longer Greek tradition (preserved in Codex Sinaiticus), while taking the Qumran manuscripts and other ancient witnesses into account. For the three Additions to Daniel, the Committee continued to use the Greek version attributed to Theodotion. Ecclesiasticus has an especially challenging textual history. The team generally followed the Greek text of Joseph Ziegler (and the versification in the Prologue), while giving particular consideration to the earliest Hebrew manuscripts from the Dead Sea region, with occasional recourse to the Syriac. The versification of 1 Esdras now follows Robert Hanhart's edition (Göttingen, 1974), which also brings the book into conformity with its usage in the Eastern Orthodox tradition. The basic text adopted in rendering 2 Esdras is the Latin version given in Robert Weber's Biblia Sacra (Stuttgart, 1971), with consultation of the Latin texts of R. L. Bensly (1895) and Bruno Violet (1910), as well as by taking into account the Syriac, Ethiopic, Arabic, Armenian, and Georgian versions. Since the Additions to the Book of Esther are disjointed and unintelligible as they stand in most editions of the Apocrypha, we provide them with their original context by translating the entirety of Greek Esther from Hanhart's edition (Göttingen, 1983). The versification of the Letter of Jeremiah now conforms to Ziegler's edition (Göttingen, 1957, 1976). The Septuagint's Psalm 151 is an abbreviated version of the Hebrew composition found in the 11QPsalms^{a} scroll. While the Greek remains the basis for the translation, the team also consulted that scroll.

For the New Testament, the team based its work on three recent editions of the Greek New Testament: (1) The Greek New Testament, 5th revised edition (United Bible Societies, 2014); (2) The Greek New Testament: SBL Edition (Society of Biblical Literature and Logos Bible Software, 2010); and, (3) for Acts and the Catholic Letters, Novum Testamentum Graecum: Editio Critica Maior (Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 2013, 2017). Occasionally these editions differ in regard to text or punctuation; in such cases the team followed the reading best supported by a combination of both traditional and more recent approaches and considerations. As in the original NRSV, double brackets are used to enclose a few passages that are generally regarded to be later additions to the text but that have been retained because of their antiquity and importance in the textual tradition. Here and there in the notes the phrase "Other ancient authorities read" identifies alternative readings preserved by Greek manuscripts and early versions. In both Testaments, other possible translations of the text are indicated by the word "Or."

Textual criticism continues to evolve. Not only have additional manuscripts become available, but some of the goals and methodology have changed over the last several decades. This is more the case for reconstructing the books of the Old Testament and Apocrypha, but it is generally true for the entire enterprise. In the NRSVue, care was taken not to push too far ahead of the existing critical editions or to turn the translation itself and its notes into a critical edition. Nevertheless, a careful reader will notice in general a more generous use of the notes for alternative readings. The editors hope that this work will serve translators in the future.

Philological Revisions

Deciphering the meanings of the Bible's ancient languages involves a host of efforts: the study of the languages themselves, the comparative study of cognate languages from the ancient Near East and the Greco-Roman world, the disciplines of philology and linguistics, and the historical study of the social, cultural, and economic contexts in which the Bible was written. The NRSVue took special care not to use terms in ways that are historically or theologically anachronistic, though, as in every translation, anachronism is unavoidable.

The NRSVue continues and improves the effort to eliminate masculine-oriented language when it can be done without altering passages that reflect the historical situation of ancient patriarchal culture. This goal is to provide a historically accurate and acceptable rendering without using contrived English. Only occasionally has the pronoun "he" or "him" or other gendered language been retained in passages where the reference may have been to a woman as well as to a man, for example, in several legal texts in Leviticus and Deuteronomy. In such instances of formal, legal language, the options of either putting the passage in the plural or of introducing additional nouns to avoid masculine pronouns in English could easily obscure the historical background to and literary character of the original. In the vast majority of cases, however, inclusiveness has been attained by simple rephrasing or by introducing plural forms when this does not distort meaning.

The NRSVue also continues the well-established practice of using in the Old Testament the word LORD (or, in certain cases, GOD). This represents the traditional way that English versions render the Divine Name, the "Tetragrammaton" (see the notes on Exodus 3.14, 15), following the precedent of the ancient Greek and Latin translators and the long-established practice in the reading of the Hebrew Scriptures in the synagogue.

The Future of Revisions and a Virtue of This Translation

The NRSVue represents a base text that was produced from a variety of textual witnesses, a text that was not used by any one community but combines readings from several of them. This, however, may well be a model and a reminder to us today: it results in a text that can be used across both Jewish and Christian traditions and in all their diverse communities. Indeed, this model stretches back to 1611, the origin of this edition. The translators of the King James Version took into account all of the preceding English versions and owed something to each of them. In 1977 the Revised Standard Version incorporated books that permitted it to become officially authorized by all the major Christian churches, and the use of the Masoretic Text of the Hebrew Scriptures reflects the use of that text in synagogues.

Beginning with the Revised Standard Version Bible Committee, the translation teams became both ecumenical and interfaith. The process that produced this translation of the Bible represents an ideal and a virtue. It is a Bible produced by consensus that can be used among and across pluralistic communities in contexts both academic and religious.

In the future, new text-critical resources will become available, the methodology and goals of textual criticism may change, translation theory may evolve, and the need to reflect contemporary language will be constant. In short, efforts to update the translation of the Bible will continue. As they do, it is the hope of the Society of Biblical Literature that this translation will continue to be produced by a diverse team and for diverse readers.

Genesis

Genesis 1

SIX DAYS OF CREATION AND THE SABBATH

1 When God began to create[a] the heavens and the earth,* [2]the earth was complete chaos, and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God[b] swept over the face of the waters.* [3]Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.* [4]And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.* [5]God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.*

6 And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."* [7]So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so.* [8]God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

9 And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so.* [10]God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.* [11]Then God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it." And it was so.* [12]The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. [13]And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

14 And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years,* [15]and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth." And it was so. [16]God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars.* [17]God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, [18]to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.* [19]And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

20 And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." [21]So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good.* [22]God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."* [23]And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

24 And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind." And it was so. [25]God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind and the cattle of every kind and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.*

26 Then God said, "Let us make humans[c] in our image, according to our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over the cattle and over all the wild animals of the earth[d] and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."*

[27]So God created humans[e] in his image, in the image of God he created them;[f] male and female he created them.*

[28]God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth."* [29]God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food.* [30]And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so.* [31]God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.*

Genesis 2

1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished and all their multitude.* [2]On the sixth[g] day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done.* [3]So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.*

4 These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE CREATION

In the day that the LORD[h] God made the earth and the heavens, [5]when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no vegetation of the field had yet sprung up—for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground,* [6]but a stream would rise from the earth and water the whole face of the ground—[7]then the LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground[i] and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.* [8]And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed.* [9]Out of the ground the LORD God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.*

10 A river flows out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it divides and becomes four branches. [11]The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one that flows around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold, [12]and the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are there.*
[13]The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one that flows around the whole land of Cush. [14]The name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.*

15 The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. [16]And the LORD God commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden, [17]but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die."*

18 Then the LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner."* [19]So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air and brought them to the man to see what he would call them, and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.* [20]The man gave names to all cattle and to the birds of the air and to every animal of the field, but for the man[j] there was not found a helper as his partner. [21]So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.* [22]And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. [23]Then the man said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;

this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken."*

[24]Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.* [25]And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.*

Genesis 3

THE FIRST SIN AND ITS PUNISHMENT

1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God say, 'You shall not eat from any tree in the garden'?"* 2The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden, 3but God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.' "* 4But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not die,* 5for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God,[k] knowing good and evil." 6So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food and that it was a delight to the eyes and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate, and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate.* 7Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

8 They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.* 9But the LORD God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?" 10He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself."* 11He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" 12The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate."* 13Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate."* 14The LORD God said to the serpent,

"Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat

all the days of your life.*
15 I will put enmity between you and the woman and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel."* 16 To the woman he said, "I will make your pangs in childbirth exceedingly great;
in pain you shall bring forth children, yet your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you."* 17 And to the man[l] he said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree about which I commanded you,
'You shall not eat of it,' cursed is the ground because of you; in toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life;* 18 thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you; and you shall eat the plants of the field.*
19 By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken;
you are dust,
and to dust you shall return."*

20 The man named his wife Eve[m] because she was the mother of all living. 21 And the LORD God made garments of skins for the man[n] and for his wife and clothed them.

22 Then the LORD God said, "See, the humans have become like one of us, knowing good and evil, and now they might reach out their hands and take also from the tree of life and eat and live forever”* —[23]therefore the LORD God sent them forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which they were taken.* [24]He drove out the humans, and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the cherubim and a sword flaming and turning to guard the way to the tree of life.*

CAIN MURDERS ABEL

1 Now the man knew his wife Eve, and she conceived and bore Cain,[o] saying, "I have produced a man with the help of the LORD." [2]Next she bore his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain a tiller of the ground.* [3]In the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground,* [4]and Abel for his part brought of the firstlings of his flock, their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and his offering,* [5]but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.* [6]The LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen? [7]If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is lurking at the door; its desire is for you, but you must master it."

8 Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let us go out to the field."[p] And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.*
[9]Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He said, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?" [10]And the LORD said, "What have you done? Listen, your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground!* [11]And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. [12]When you till the ground, it will no longer yield to you its strength; you will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth."* [13]Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is greater than I can bear! [14]Today you have driven me away from the soil, and I shall be hidden from your face; I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and anyone who meets me may kill me."* [15]Then the LORD said to him, "Not so![q] Whoever kills Cain will suffer a sevenfold vengeance." And the LORD put a mark on Cain, so that no one who came upon him would kill him.* [16]Then Cain went away from the presence of the LORD and settled in the land of Nod,[r] east of Eden.

BEGINNINGS OF CIVILIZATION

17 Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch, and he built a city and named it Enoch after his son Enoch.* [18]To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael the father of Methushael, and Methushael the father of Lamech.* [19]Lamech took two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.
[20]Adah bore Jabal; he was the ancestor of those who live in tents and have livestock. [21]His brother's name was Jubal; he was the ancestor of all those who play the lyre and pipe. [22]Zillah bore Tubal-cain, who made all kinds of bronze and iron tools. The sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 Lamech said to his wives:

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice;
you wives of Lamech, listen to what I say: I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for striking me.*
[24]If Cain is avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy-sevenfold."*

25 Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth,[s] for she said, "God has appointed for me another child instead of Abel, because Cain killed him."* [26]To Seth also a son was born, and he named him Enosh. At that time people began to invoke the name of the LORD.*

Genesis 5

ADAM'S DESCENDANTS TO NOAH AND HIS SONS

1 This is the list of the descendants of Adam. When God created humans,[t] he made them[u] in the likeness of God.* [2]Male and female he created them, and he blessed them and called them humans[v] when they were created.*

3 When Adam had lived one hundred thirty years, he became the father of a son in his likeness, according to his image, and named him Seth.* [4]The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years, and he had other sons and daughters. [5]Thus all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred thirty years, and he died.*

6 When Seth had lived one hundred five years, he became the father of Enosh.* [7]Seth lived after the birth of Enosh eight hundred seven years and had other sons and daughters.* [8]Thus all the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years, and he died.

9 When Enosh had lived ninety years, he became the father of Kenan.
[10]Enosh lived after the birth of Kenan eight hundred fifteen years and had other sons and daughters. [11]Thus all the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years, and he died.*

12 When Kenan had lived seventy years, he became the father of Mahalalel.* [13]Kenan lived after the birth of Mahalalel eight hundred and forty years and had other sons and daughters. [14]Thus all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.

15 When Mahalalel had lived sixty-five years, he became the father of Jared.* [16]Mahalalel lived after the birth of Jared eight hundred thirty years and had other sons and daughters. [17]Thus all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years, and he died.

18 When Jared had lived one hundred sixty-two years he became the father of Enoch.* [19]Jared lived after the birth of Enoch eight hundred years and had other sons and daughters. [20]Thus all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years, and he died.

21 When Enoch had lived sixty-five years, he became the father of Methuselah.* [22]Enoch walked with God after the birth of Methuselah three hundred years and had other sons and daughters. [23]Thus all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years. [24]Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him.*

25 When Methuselah had lived one hundred eighty-seven years, he became the father of Lamech. [26]Methuselah lived after the birth of Lamech seven hundred eighty-two years and had other sons and daughters.* [27]Thus all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years, and he died.

28 When Lamech had lived one hundred eighty-two years, he became the father of a son; [29]he named him Noah, saying, "Out of the ground that the LORD has cursed this one shall bring us relief from our work and from the toil of our hands."* [30]Lamech lived after the birth of Noah five hundred ninety-five years and had other sons and daughters. [31]Thus all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy-seven years, and he died.

32 After Noah was five hundred years old, Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.*

Genesis 6

THE WICKEDNESS OF HUMANS

1 When people began to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters were born to them,* [2]the sons of God saw that they were fair, and they took wives for themselves of all that they chose.* [3]Then the LORD said, "My spirit shall not abide[w] in mortals forever, for they are flesh; their days shall be one hundred twenty years."* [4]The Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God went in to the daughters of humans, who bore children to them. These were the heroes that were of old, warriors of renown.

5 The LORD saw that the wickedness of humans was great in the earth and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually.* [6]And the LORD was sorry that he had made humans on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart.* [7]So the LORD said, "I will blot out from the earth the humans I have created—people together with animals and creeping things and birds of the air—for I am sorry that I have made them." [8]But Noah found favor in the sight of the LORD.*

NOAH PLEASES GOD

9 These are the descendants of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation; Noah walked with God.* [10]And Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.*

11 Now the earth was corrupt in God's sight, and the earth was filled with violence. [12]And God saw that the earth was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted its ways upon the earth.* [13]And God said to Noah, "I have determined to make an end of all flesh, for the earth is filled with violence because of them; now I am going to destroy them along with the earth.*
[14]Make yourself an ark of cypress[x] wood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and out with pitch.* [15]This is how you are to make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. [16]Make a roof[y] for the ark, and finish it to a cubit above, and put the door of the ark in its side; make it with lower, second, and third decks.

17For my part, I am going to bring a flood of waters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die.* 18But I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.* 19And of every living thing, of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.* 20Of the birds according to their kinds and of the animals according to their kinds, of every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every kind shall come in to you, to keep them alive.* 21Also take with you every kind of food that is eaten, and store it up, and it shall serve as food for you and for them." 22Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.*

THE GREAT FLOOD

1 Then the LORD said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before me in this generation.*
2 Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and its mate; and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and its mate;* 3 and seven pairs of the birds of the air also, male and female, to keep their kind alive on the face of all the earth. 4 For in seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and every living thing that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground." 5 And Noah did all that the LORD had commanded him.

6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came on the earth. 7 And Noah with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives went into the ark to escape the waters of the flood.* 8 Of clean animals and of animals that are not clean and of birds and of everything that creeps on the ground, 9 two and two, male and female, went into the ark with Noah, as God had commanded Noah. 10 And after seven days the waters of the flood came on the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the windows of the heavens were opened.* 12 The rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights.* 13 On the very same day Noah with his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons entered the ark,* 14 they and every wild animal of every kind and all domestic animals of every kind and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth and every bird of every kind.z 15 They went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life.* 16 And those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him, and the LORD shut him in.*

17 The flood continued forty days on the earth, and the waters increased and bore up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.* 18 The waters swelled and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the face of the waters.* 19The waters swelled so mightily on the earth that all the high mountains under the whole heaven were covered; 20the waters swelled above the mountains, covering them fifteen cubits deep. 21And all flesh died that moved on the earth, birds, domestic animals, wild animals, all swarming creatures that swarm on the earth, and all human beings;* 22everything on dry land in whose nostrils was the breath of life died.* 23He blotted out every living thing that was on the face of the ground, human beings and animals and creeping things and birds of the air; they were blotted out from the earth. Only Noah was left and those with him in the ark.* 24And the waters swelled on the earth for one hundred fifty days.*

THE FLOOD SUBSIDES

1 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and all the domestic animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind blow over the earth, and the waters subsided;* 2the fountains of the deep and the windows of the heavens were closed, the rain from the heavens was restrained,* 3and the waters gradually receded from the earth. At the end of one hundred fifty days the waters had abated,* 4and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.* 5The waters continued to abate until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.

6 At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made* 7and sent out the raven, and it went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth.* 8Then he sent out the dove from him to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground, 9but the dove found no place to set its foot, and it returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took it and brought it into the ark with him. 10He waited another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark, 11and the dove came back to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf; so Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth.* 12Then he waited another seven days and sent out the dove, and it did not return to him any more.

13 In the six hundred first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth, and Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked and saw that the face of the ground was drying.* 14In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. 15Then God said to Noah, 16"Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you.* 17Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh—birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth—so that they may abound on the earth and be fruitful and multiply on the earth."* 18So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives. [19]And every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the ark by families.

GOD'S PROMISE TO NOAH

20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar.* [21]And when the LORD smelled the pleasing odor, the LORD said in his heart, "I will never again curse the ground because of humans, for the inclination of the human heart is evil from youth; nor will I ever again destroy every living creature as I have done.*

[22]As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not cease."*

THE COVENANT WITH NOAH

1 God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.* [2]The fear and dread of you shall rest on every animal of the earth and on every bird of the air, on everything that creeps on the ground and on all the fish of the sea; into your hand they are delivered.
[3]Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you, and just as I gave you the green plants, I give you everything.* [4]Only, you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.* [5]For your own lifeblood I will surely require a reckoning: from every animal I will require it and from human beings, each one for the blood of another, I will require a reckoning for human life.*

[6]Whoever sheds the blood of a human, by a human shall that person's blood be shed, for in his own image God made humans.*

[7]"And you, be fruitful and multiply, abound on the earth and have dominion over[a] it."*

8 Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, [9]"As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you* [10]and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark.[b,] [11]I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth." [12]God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations:* [13]I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.* [14]When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, [15]I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.* [16]When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth."* 17God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

NOAH AND HIS SONS

18 The sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan.* 19These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was peopled.*

20 Noah, a man of the soil, was the first to plant a vineyard. 21He drank some of the wine and became drunk, and he lay uncovered in his tent. 22And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father and told his two brothers outside. 23Then Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.* 24When Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his youngest son had done to him, 25he said, "Cursed be Canaan; lowest of slaves shall he be to his brothers."*

26He also said,

"Blessed by the LORD my God be Shem, and let Canaan be his slave.*
27May God make space for Japheth,[c] and let him live in the tents of Shem, and let Canaan be his slave."*

28 After the flood Noah lived three hundred fifty years. 29All the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years, and he died.

Genesis 10

NATIONS DESCENDED FROM NOAH

1 These are the descendants of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth; children were born to them after the flood.

2 The descendants of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.* [3]The descendants of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. [4]The descendants of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim.[d] [5]From these the coastland peoples spread. These are the descendants of Japheth[e] in their lands, with their own language, by their families, in their nations.*

6 The descendants of Ham: Cush, Egypt, Put, and Canaan.* [7]The descendants of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The descendants of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. [8]Cush became the father of Nimrod; he was the first on earth to become a mighty warrior. [9]He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD."* [10]The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Akkad, and Calneh in the land of Shinar.* [11]From that land he went into Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth-ir, Calah, and [12]Resen between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city. [13]Egypt became the father of Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim,* [14]Pathrusim, Casluhim, from whom the Philistines come, and Caphtorim.

15 Canaan became the father of Sidon, his firstborn, and Heth* [16]and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites, [17]the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites, [18]the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. Afterward the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.* [19]And the territory of the Canaanites extended from Sidon in the direction of Gerar as far as Gaza and in the direction of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim as far as Lasha.* [20]These are the descendants of Ham, by their families, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

21 To Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the elder brother of Japheth, children were born. [22]The descendants of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram.* [23]The descendants of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.* [24]Arpachshad became the father of Shelah, and Shelah became the father of Eber.* [25]To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg,[f] for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Joktan.* [26]Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,* [27]Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, [28]Obal, Abimael, Sheba, [29]Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the descendants of Joktan. [30]The territory in which they lived extended from Mesha in the direction of Sephar, the hill country of the east. [31]These are the descendants of Shem, by their families, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

32 These are the families of Noah's sons, according to their genealogies, in their nations, and from these the nations spread abroad on the earth after the flood.*

Genesis 11

THE TOWER OF BABEL

1 Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. [2]And as they migrated from the east,[g] they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.* [3]And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and fire them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone and bitumen for mortar.
[4]Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."* [5]The LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built.* [6]And the LORD said, "Look, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them.* [7]Come, let us go down and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another's speech."* [8]So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city.* [9]Therefore it was called Babel,[h] because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth, and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.*

DESCENDANTS OF SHEM

10 These are the descendants of Shem. When Shem was one hundred years old, he became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood,* [11]and Shem lived after the birth of Arpachshad five hundred years and had other sons and daughters.

12 When Arpachshad had lived thirty-five years, he became the father of Shelah, [13]and Arpachshad lived after the birth of Shelah four hundred three years and had other sons and daughters.

14 When Shelah had lived thirty years, he became the father of Eber, [15]and Shelah lived after the birth of Eber four hundred three years and had other sons and daughters.

16 When Eber had lived thirty-four years, he became the father of Peleg, [17]and Eber lived after the birth of Peleg four hundred thirty years and had other sons and daughters.

18 When Peleg had lived thirty years, he became the father of Reu, [19]and Peleg lived after the birth of Reu two hundred nine years and had other sons and daughters.

20 When Reu had lived thirty-two years, he became the father of Serug, [21]and Reu lived after the birth of Serug two hundred seven years and had other sons and daughters.

22 When Serug had lived thirty years, he became the father of Nahor, [23]and Serug lived after the birth of Nahor two hundred years and had other sons and daughters.

24 When Nahor had lived twenty-nine years, he became the father of Terah, [25]and Nahor lived after the birth of Terah one hundred nineteen years and had other sons and daughters.

26 When Terah had lived seventy years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

DESCENDANTS OF TERAH

27 Now these are the descendants of Terah. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran, and Haran was the father of Lot. [28]Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.
[29]Abram and Nahor took wives; the name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah. She was the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and Iscah. [30]Now Sarai was barren; she had no child.*

31 Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot son of Haran and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they went out together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Canaan, but when they came to Haran, they settled there.* [32]The days of Terah were two hundred five years, and Terah died in Haran.

Genesis 12

THE CALL OF ABRAM

1 Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you.* [2]I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.* [3]I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."[i,*]

4 So Abram went, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him.
Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.* [5]Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot and all the possessions that they had gathered and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran, and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan,* [6]Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak[j] of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.* [7]Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.* [8]From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east, and there he built an altar to the LORD and invoked the name of the LORD.* [9]And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

ABRAM AND SARAI IN EGYPT

10 Now there was a famine in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to reside there as an alien, for the famine was severe in the land. [11]When he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "I know well that you are a woman beautiful in appearance, [12]and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife'; then they will kill me, but they will let you live.* [13]Say you are my sister, so that it may go well with me because of you and that my life may be spared on your account."* [14]When Abram entered Egypt the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful.
[15]When the officials of Pharaoh saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.* 16And for her sake he dealt well with Abram, and he had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female slaves, female donkeys, and camels.*

17 But the LORD afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.* 18So Pharaoh called Abram and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?* 19Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her for my wife? Now then, here is your wife, take her, and be gone." 20And Pharaoh gave his men orders concerning him, and they set him on the way with his wife and all that he had.*

Genesis 13

ABRAM AND LOT SEPARATE

1 So Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had and Lot with him, into the Negeb.*

2 Now Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. [3]He journeyed on by stages from the Negeb as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,* [4]to the place where he had made an altar at the first, and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.* [5]Now Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents, [6]and the land could not support both of them living together because their possessions were so great that they could not live together.
[7]Thus strife arose between the herders of Abram's livestock and the herders of Lot's livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites lived in the land.*

8 Then Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no strife between you and me and between your herders and my herders, for we are kindred.* [9]Is not the whole land before you? Separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right, or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left." [10]Lot looked about him and saw that the plain of the Jordan was well watered everywhere like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, in the direction of Zoar; this was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.* [11]So Lot chose for himself all the plain of the Jordan, and Lot journeyed eastward, and they separated from each other. [12]Abram settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot settled among the cities of the plain and moved his tent as far as Sodom.* [13]Now the people of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD.*

14 The LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, "Raise your eyes now, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward,* [15]for all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever.* [16]I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your offspring also can be counted.* [17]Rise up, walk through the length and the breadth of the land, for I will give it to you.”* 18So Abram moved his tent and came and settled by the oaks[k] of Mamre, which are at Hebron, and there he built an altar to the LORD.*

Genesis 14

LOT'S CAPTIVITY AND RESCUE

1 In the days of King Amraphel of Shinar, King Arioch of Ellasar, King Chedorlaomer of Elam, and King Tidal of Goiim,* 2these kings made war with King Bera of Sodom, King Birsha of Gomorrah, King Shinab of Admah, King Shemeber of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, that is, Zoar.*
3All these joined forces in the Valley of Siddim, that is, the Dead Sea.[1,] 4Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled. 5In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and subdued the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim, 6and the Horites in the hill country of Seir as far as El-paran on the edge of the wilderness;* 7then they turned back and came to En-mishpat, that is, Kadesh, and subdued all the country of the Amalekites and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar.*
8Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, that is, Zoar, went out, and they joined battle in the Valley of Siddim 9with King Chedorlaomer of Elam, King Tidal of Goiim, King Amraphel of Shinar, and King Arioch of Ellasar, four kings against five. 10Now the Valley of Siddim was full of bitumen pits, and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into them, and the rest fled to the hill country. 11So the enemy took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their provisions and went their way;* 12they also took Lot, the son of Abram's brother, who lived in Sodom, and his goods and departed.*

13 Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, who was living by the oaks[m] of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and of Aner; these were allies of Abram.* 14When Abram heard that his nephew had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, three hundred eighteen of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.* 15He divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and routed them and pursued them to Hobah, north of Damascus. 16Then he brought back all the goods and also brought back his nephew Lot with his goods and the women and the people.*

ABRAM BLESSED BY MELCHIZEDEK

17 After his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh, that is, the King's Valley.* 18And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High.n,* 19He blessed him and said, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High,o maker of heaven and earth,* 20and blessed be God Most High,p who has delivered your enemies into your hand!"

And Abram gave him one-tenth of everything.* 21Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, but take the goods for yourself." 22But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have sworn to Godq Most High,r maker of heaven and earth,* 23that I would not take a thread or a sandal strap or anything that is yours, so that you might not say, 'I have made Abram rich.'* 24I will take nothing but what the young men have eaten and the share of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their share."

Genesis 15

GOD'S COVENANT WITH ABRAM

1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great."* 2But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?"s,* 3And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, so a slave born in my house is to be my heir."* 4But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir."* 5He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be."* 6And he believed the LORD, and the LORDt reckoned it to him as righteousness.

7 Then he said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess."* 8But he said, "O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?"* 9He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." 10He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other, but he did not cut the birds in two.* 11And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

12 As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.* 13Then the LORDu said to Abram, "Know this for certain, that your offspring shall be aliens in a land that is not theirs and shall be slaves there, and they shall be oppressed for four hundred years,* 14but I will bring judgment on the nation that they serve, and afterward they shall come out with great possessions.* 15As for yourself, you shall go to your ancestors in peace; you shall be buried in a good old age.* 16And they shall come back here in the fourth generation, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete."*

17 When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces.* 18On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the River Euphrates,* 19the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, 20the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, 21the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.”

THE BIRTH OF ISHMAEL

1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had an Egyptian slave whose name was Hagar,* 2and Sarai said to Abram, "You see that the LORD has prevented me from bearing children; go in to my slave; it may be that I shall obtain children by her." And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.* 3So, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her slave, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife.* 4He went in to Hagar, and she conceived, and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress. 5Then Sarai said to Abram, "May the wrong done to me be on you! I gave my slave to your embrace, and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked on me with contempt. May the LORD judge between you and me!"* 6But Abram said to Sarai, "Your slave is in your power; do to her as you please." Then Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she ran away from her.

7 The angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur.* 8And he said, "Hagar, slave of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?" She said, "I am running away from my mistress Sarai." 9The angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit to her." 10The angel of the LORD also said to her, "I will so greatly multiply your offspring that they cannot be counted for multitude."* 11And the angel of the LORD said to her,

"Now you have conceived and shall bear a son; you shall call him Ishmael,[v] for the LORD has given heed to your affliction.*
12He shall be a wild ass of a man, with his hand against everyone, and everyone's hand against him, and he shall live at odds with all his kin."*

[13]So she named the LORD who spoke to her, "You are El-roi,"[w] for she said, "Have I really seen God and remained alive after seeing him?"[x,*] [14]Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi;[y] it lies between Kadesh and Bered.

15 Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.[*] [16]Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him[z] Ishmael.

Genesis 17

THE SIGN OF THE COVENANT

1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, "I am God Almighty;[a] walk before me, and be blameless.*
[2]And I will make my covenant between me and you and will make you exceedingly numerous."* [3]Then Abram fell on his face, and God said to him, [4]"As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations.* [5]No longer shall your name be Abram,[b] but your name shall be Abraham,[c] for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations.* [6]I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.* [7]I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you.*
[8]And I will give to you and to your offspring after you the land where you are now an alien, all the land of Canaan, for a perpetual holding, and I will be their God."*

9 God said to Abraham, "As for you, you shall keep my covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations. [10]This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your offspring after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised.* [11]You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.* [12]Throughout your generations every male among you shall be circumcised when he is eight days old, including the slave born in your house and the one bought with your money from any foreigner who is not of your offspring.* [13]Both the slave born in your house and the one bought with your money must be circumcised. So shall my covenant be in your flesh an everlasting covenant. [14]Any uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."*

15 God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. [16]I will bless her and also give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her."* [17]Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed and said to himself, "Can a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Can Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?"* [18]And Abraham said to God, "O that Ishmael might live in your sight!" [19]God said, "No, but your wife Sarah shall bear you a son, and you shall name him Isaac.[d] I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his offspring after him.* [20]As for Ishmael, I have heard you; I will bless him and make him fruitful and exceedingly numerous; he shall be the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.* [21]But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this season next year." [22]And when he had finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham.

23 Then Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the slaves born in his house or bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very day, as God had said to him.* [24]Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.* [25]And his son Ishmael was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. [26]That very day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised, [27]and all the men of his house, slaves born in the house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18

A SON PROMISED TO ABRAHAM AND SARAH

1 The LORD appeared to Abraham[e] by the oaks[f] of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day.* [2]He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them and bowed down to the ground.* [3]He said, "My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. [4]Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.* [5]Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on —since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said."* [6]And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah and said, "Make ready quickly three measures[g] of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes." [7]Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. [8]Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared and set it before them, and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.*

9 They said to him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" And he said, "There, in the tent." [10]Then one said, "I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him.* [11]Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.* [12]So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I be fruitful?"* [13]The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?' [14]Is anything too wonderful for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son."* [15]But Sarah denied, saying, "I did not laugh," for she was afraid. He said, "Yes, you did laugh."

JUDGMENT PRONOUNCED ON SODOM

16 Then the men set out from there, and they looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to set them on their way. [17]The LORD said, "Shall

I hide from Abraham what I am about to do, [18]seeing that Abraham shall become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?[h,] [19]No, for I have chosen[i] him, that he may charge his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring about for Abraham what he has promised him." [20]Then the LORD said, "How great is the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah and how very grave their sin!* [21]I must go down and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me, and if not, I will know."*

22 So the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the LORD.[j,] [23]Then Abraham came near and said, "Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? [24]Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will you then sweep away the place and not forgive it for the fifty righteous who are in it?* [25]Far be it from you to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?"* [26]And the LORD said, "If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will forgive the whole place for their sake." [27]Abraham answered, "Let me take it upon myself to speak to my lord, I who am but dust and ashes.* [28]Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?" And he said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there." [29]Again he spoke to him, "Suppose forty are found there." He answered, "For the sake of forty I will not do it." [30]Then he said, "Oh, do not let my lord be angry if I speak. Suppose thirty are found there." He answered, "I will not do it, if I find thirty there." [31]He said, "Let me take it upon myself to speak to my lord. Suppose twenty are found there." He answered, "For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it." [32]Then he said, "Oh, do not let my lord be angry if I speak just once more. Suppose ten are found there." He answered, "For the sake of ten I will not destroy it."* [33]And the LORD went his way, when he had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 19

THE DEPRAVITY OF SODOM

1 The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground.* [2]He said, "Please, my lords, turn aside to your servant's house and spend the night and wash your feet; then you can rise early and go on your way." They said, "No; we will spend the night in the square."* [3]But he urged them strongly, so they turned aside to him and entered his house, and he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.* [4]But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house, [5]and they called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, so that we may know them."* [6]Lot went out of the door to the men, shut the door after him,* [7]and said, "I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. [8]Look, I have two daughters who have not known a man; let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please; only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof."* [9]But they replied, "Stand back!" And they said, "This fellow came here as an alien, and he would play the judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them." Then they pressed hard against the man Lot and came near the door to break it down.* [10]But the men inside reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them and shut the door. [11]And they struck with blindness the men who were at the door of the house, both small and great, so that they were unable to find the door.*

SODOM AND GOMORRAH DESTROYED

12 Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you have in the city—bring them out of the place.* [13]For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it."* [14]So Lot went out and said to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, "Up, get out of this place, for the LORD is about to destroy the city." But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be jesting.*

15 When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Get up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or else you will be consumed in the punishment of the city."* [16]But he lingered, so the men seized him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him out and left him outside the city.* [17]When they had brought them outside, they[k] said, "Flee for your life; do not look back or stop anywhere in the plain; flee to the hills, or else you will be consumed."* [18]And Lot said to them, "Oh, no, my lords; [19]your servant has found favor with you, and you have shown me great kindness in saving my life, but I cannot flee to the hills, for fear the disaster will overtake me and I die. [20]Look, that city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me escape there—is it not a little one?—and my life will be saved!" [21]He said to him, "Very well, I grant you this favor too and will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken.* [22]Hurry, escape there, for I can do nothing until you arrive there." Therefore the city was called Zoar.[l] [23]The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven,* [25]and he overthrew those cities and all the plain and all the inhabitants of the cities and what grew on the ground.* [26]But Lot's wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.*

27 Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD,* [28]and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the plain and saw the smoke of the land going up like the smoke of a furnace.*

29 So it was that, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot had settled.*

THE SHAMEFUL ORIGIN OF MOAB AND AMMON

30 Now Lot went up out of Zoar and settled in the hills with his two daughters, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar, so he lived in a cave with his two daughters. [31]And the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man on earth to come in to us after the manner of all the world.* 32Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, so that we may preserve offspring through our father."* 33So they made their father drink wine that night, and the firstborn went in and lay with her father; he did not know when she lay down or when she rose. 34On the next day, the firstborn said to the younger, "Look, I lay last night with my father; let us make him drink wine tonight also; then you go in and lie with him, so that we may preserve offspring through our father." 35So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger rose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she rose. 36Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father. 37The firstborn bore a son and named him Moab;[m] he is the ancestor of the Moabites to this day. 38The younger also bore a son and named him Ben-ammi;[n] he is the ancestor of the Ammonites to this day.*

Genesis 20

ABRAHAM AND SARAH AT GERAR

1 From there Abraham journeyed toward the region of the Negeb and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While residing in Gerar as an alien,* 2 Abraham said of his wife Sarah, "She is my sister." And King Abimelech of Gerar sent and took Sarah.* 3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, "You are about to die because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a married woman."* 4 Now Abimelech had not approached her, so he said, "Lord, will you destroy an innocent people?
5 Did he not himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' I did this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands."* 6 Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart; furthermore, it was I who kept you from sinning against me. Therefore I did not let you touch her. 7 Now then, return the man's wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all that are yours."*

8 So Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his servants and told them all these things, and the men were very much afraid. 9 Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us?
How have I sinned against you, that you have brought such great guilt on me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that ought not to be done."* 10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What were you thinking, that you did this thing?" 11 Abraham said, "I did it because I thought, Surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.* 12 Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. 13 And when God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is the kindness you must do me: at every place to which we come, say of me, He is my brother.' "* 14 Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen and male and female slaves and gave them to Abraham and restored his wife Sarah to him.* 15 Abimelech said, "My land is before you; settle where it pleases you.”* 16To Sarah he said, “Look, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; it is your exoneration before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated.” 17Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and also healed his wife and female slaves so that they bore children.* 18For the LORD had closed fast all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.*

Genesis 21

THE BIRTH OF ISAAC

1 The LORD dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as he had promised.* [2]Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him.* [3]Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him.* [4]And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.* [5]Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.* [6]Now Sarah said, "God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me."* [7]And she said, "Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

HAGAR AND ISHMAEL SENT AWAY

8 The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. [9]But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac.[o,] [10]So she said to Abraham, "Cast out this slave woman with her son, for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac." [11]The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son.* [12]But God said to Abraham, "Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named for you.* [13]As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring."* [14]So Abraham rose early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. [16]Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot, for she said, "Do not let me look on the death of the child." And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. 17And God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.* 18Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him."* 19Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.*

20 God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness and became an expert with the bow.* 21He lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.*

ABRAHAM AND ABIMELECH MAKE A COVENANT

22 At that time Abimelech, with Phicol the commander of his army, said to Abraham, "God is with you in all that you do;* 23now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my posterity, but as I have dealt loyally with you, you will deal with me and with the land where you have resided as an alien." 24And Abraham said, "I swear it."

25 When Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized,* 26Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this; you did not tell me, and I have not heard of it until today." 27So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a covenant.* 28Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs of the flock. 29And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs that you have set apart?" 30He said, "These seven ewe lambs you shall accept from my hand in order that you may be a witness for me that I dug this well."* 31Therefore that place was called Beer-sheba,[p] because there both of them swore an oath.* 32When they had made a covenant at Beer-sheba, Abimelech, with Phicol the commander of his army, left and returned to the land of the Philistines. 33Abraham[q] planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba and there called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God.[r],* 34And Abraham resided as an alien many days in the land of the Philistines.

THE COMMAND TO SACRIFICE ISAAC

1 After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." [2]He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you."* [3]So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. [4]On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. [5]Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you." [6]Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. And the two of them walked on together.* [7]Isaac said to his father Abraham, "Father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"* [8]Abraham said, "God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." And the two of them walked on together.

9 When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar on top of the wood.* [10]Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill[s] his son. [11]But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." [12]He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."* [13]And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. [14]So Abraham called that place "The LORD will provide,"[t] as it is said to this day, "On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided."[u]

15 The angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven 16 and said, "By myself I have sworn, says the LORD: Because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son,* 17 I will indeed bless you, and I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of their enemies,* 18 and by your offspring shall all the nations of the earth gain blessing for themselves, because you have obeyed my voice."* 19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beer-sheba, and Abraham lived at Beer-sheba.

THE CHILDREN OF NAHOR

20 Now after these things it was told Abraham, "Milcah also has borne children to your brother Nahor: 21 Uz the firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram, 22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel." 23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.* 24 Moreover, his concubine, whose name was Reumah, bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

Genesis 23

SARAH'S DEATH AND BURIAL

1 Sarah lived one hundred twenty-seven years; this was the length of Sarah's life. [2]And Sarah died at Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.*
[3]Abraham rose up from beside his dead and said to the Hittites, [4]"I am a stranger and an alien residing among you; give me property among you for a burying place, so that I may bury my dead out of my sight."* [5]The Hittites answered Abraham, [6]"Hear us, my lord; you are a mighty prince among us.
Bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places; none of us will withhold from you any burial ground for burying your dead."* [7]Abraham rose and bowed to the Hittites, the people of the land. [8]He said to them, "If you are willing that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me and entreat for me Ephron son of Zohar,* [9]so that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns; it is at the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me in your presence as a possession for a burying place." [10]Now Ephron was sitting among the Hittites, and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the Hittites, of all who went in at the gate of his city,* [11]"No, my lord, hear me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it; in the presence of my people I give it to you; bury your dead."* [12]Then Abraham bowed down before the people of the land.
[13]He said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, "If you only will listen to me! I will give the price of the field; accept it from me, so that I may bury my dead there." [14]Ephron answered Abraham, [15]"My lord, listen to me; a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver—what is that between you and me? Bury your dead."* [16]Abraham agreed with Ephron, and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver that he had named in the hearing of the Hittites, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weights current among the merchants.*

17 So the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was to the east of Mamre, the field with the cave that was in it and all the trees that were in the field, throughout its whole area, passed* [18]to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the Hittites, in the presence of all who went in at the gate of his city. [19]After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah facing Mamre, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan. [20]The field and the cave that is in it passed from the Hittites into Abraham's possession as a burying place.

Genesis 24

THE MARRIAGE OF ISAAC AND REBEKAH

1 Now Abraham was old, advanced in years, and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.* [2]Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his house, who had charge of all that he had, "Put your hand under my thigh,* [3]and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live,* [4]but will go to my country and to my kindred and get a wife for my son Isaac."* [5]The servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman may not be willing to follow me to this land; must I then take your son back to the land from which you came?" [6]Abraham said to him, "See to it that you do not take my son back there. [7]The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my birth and who spoke to me and swore to me, 'To your offspring I will give this land,' he will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.* [8]But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this oath of mine; only you must not take my son back there." [9]So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.*

10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, taking all kinds of choice gifts from his master, and he set out and went to Aramnaharaim, to the city of Nahor.* [11]He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water; it was toward evening, the time when women go out to draw water.* [12]And he said, "O LORD, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today and show steadfast love to my master Abraham.* [13]I am standing here by the spring of water, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.* [14]Let the young woman to whom I shall say, 'Please offer your jar that I may drink,' and who shall say, 'Drink, and I will water your camels'—let her be the one whom you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I shall know that you have shown steadfast love to my master."*

15 Before he had finished speaking, there was Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, coming out with her water jar on her shoulder.* [16]The young woman was very fair to look upon, a virgin, whom no man had known. She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and came up.* [17]Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me sip a little water from your jar." [18]"Drink, my lord," she said and quickly lowered her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink.*
[19]When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw for your camels also, until they have finished drinking."* [20]So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough and ran again to the well to draw, and she drew for all his camels. [21]The man gazed at her in silence to learn whether or not the LORD had made his journey successful.*

22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold nose ring weighing a half shekel and two bracelets for her arms weighing ten gold shekels* [23]and said, "Tell me whose daughter you are. Is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?" [24]She said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor."* [25]She added, "We have plenty of straw and fodder and a place to spend the night." [26]The man bowed his head and worshiped the LORD* [27]and said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his steadfast love and his faithfulness toward my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the way to the house of my master's kin."*

28 Then the young woman ran and told her mother's household about these things. [29]Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban, and Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.* [30]As soon as he had seen the nose ring and the bracelets on his sister's arms and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, "Thus the man spoke to me," he went to the man, and there he was, standing by the camels at the spring. [31]He said, "Come in, O blessed of the LORD. Why do you stand outside when I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?"* [32]So the man came into the house, and Laban unloaded the camels and gave him straw and fodder for the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.*
[33]Then food was set before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told my errand." He said, "Speak on."

34 So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant. 35The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy; he has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female slaves, camels and donkeys.* 36And Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master when she was old, and he has given him all that he has.* 37My master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I live, 38but you shall go to my father’s house, to my kindred, and get a wife for my son.’* 39I said to my master, ‘Perhaps the woman will not follow me.’* 40But he said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you and make your way successful. You shall get a wife for my son from my kindred, from my father’s house.* 41Then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my kindred; even if they will not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.’*

42 “I came today to the spring and said, ‘O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if now you will only make successful the way I am going!* 43I am standing here by the spring of water; let the young woman who comes out to draw, to whom I shall say, “Please give me a little water from your jar to drink,”* 44and who will say to me, “Drink, and I will draw for your camels also”—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master’s son.’

45 “Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her water jar on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew. I said to her, ‘Please let me drink.’* 46She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I will also water your camels.’ So I drank, and she also watered the camels.* 47Then I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ She said, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him.’ So I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her arms.* 48Then I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way to obtain the daughter of my master’s kinsman for his son.*
49Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so that I may turn either to the right hand or to the left.”*

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, “The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you anything bad or good.* 51Look, Rebekah is before you, take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has spoken."

52 When Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself to the ground before the LORD.* [53]And the servant brought out jewelry of silver and of gold and garments and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave to her brother and to her mother costly ornaments.* [54]Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank, and they spent the night there. When they rose in the morning, he said, "Send me back to my master."* [55]Her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman remain with us a while, at least ten days; after that she may go." [56]But he said to them, "Do not delay me, since the LORD has made my journey successful; let me go that I may go to my master." [57]They said, "We will call the young woman and ask her." [58]And they called Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" She said, "I will." [59]So they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse along with Abraham's servant and his men.* [60]And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

"May you, our sister, become thousands of myriads; may your offspring gain possession of the gates of their foes."*

[61]Then Rebekah and her maids rose up, mounted the camels, and followed the man, and the servant took Rebekah and went his way.

62 Now Isaac had come from[v] Beer-lahai-roi and was settled in the Negeb.* [63]Isaac went out in the evening to walk[w] in the field, and, looking up, he saw camels coming.* [64]And Rebekah looked up, and when she saw Isaac, she slipped quickly from the camel [65]and said to the servant, "Who is the man over there, walking in the field to meet us?" The servant said, "It is my master." So she took her veil and covered herself. [66]And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. [67]Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent. He took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.*

ABRAHAM MARRIES KETURAH

1 Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah. [2]She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.* [3]Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim. [4]The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah. [5]Abraham gave all he had to Isaac.* [6]But to the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts, while he was still living, and he sent them away from his son Isaac, eastward to the east country.

THE DEATH OF ABRAHAM

7 This is the length of Abraham's life, one hundred seventy-five years. [8]Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, old and full of years, and was gathered to his people.* [9]His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite, east of Mamre, [10]the field that Abraham purchased from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah.* [11]After the death of Abraham, God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac settled at Beer-lahai-roi.*

ISHMAEL'S DESCENDANTS

12 These are the descendants of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's slave, bore to Abraham.* [13]These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, named in the order of their birth: Nebaioth, the firstborn of Ishmael; and Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,* [14]Mishma, Dumah, Massa, [15]Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. [16]These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their villages and by their encampments, twelve princes according to their tribes.* [17](This is the length of the life of Ishmael, one hundred thirty-seven years; he breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people.) [18]They settled from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt in the direction of Assyria; he settled down[x] alongside[y] all his people.*

THE BIRTH AND YOUTH OF ESAU AND JACOB

19 These are the descendants of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham was the father of Isaac, [20]and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah, daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddan-aram, sister of Laban the Aramean.* [21]Isaac prayed to the LORD for his wife because she was barren, and the LORD granted his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived.* [22]The children struggled together within her, and she said, "If it is to be this way, why do I live?"[z] So she went to inquire of the LORD. [23]And the LORD said to her,

"Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples born of you shall be divided;
the one shall be stronger than the other;
the elder shall serve the younger."*

[24]When her time to give birth was at hand, there were twins in her womb.
[25]The first came out red, all his body like a hairy mantle, so they named him Esau.* [26]Afterward his brother came out, with his hand gripping Esau's heel, so he was named Jacob.[a] Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.*

27 When the boys grew up, Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents.* [28]Isaac loved Esau because he was fond of game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

ESAU SELLS HIS BIRTHRIGHT

29 Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. [30]Esau said to Jacob, "Let me eat some of that red stuff, for I am famished!" (Therefore he was called Edom.[b]) [31]Jacob said, "First sell me your birthright." [32]Esau said, "I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?" [33]Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob.* [34]Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Genesis 26

ISAAC AND ABIMELECH

1 Now there was a famine in the land, besides the former famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Gerar, to King Abimelech of the Philistines.* [2]The LORD appeared to Isaac[c] and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; settle in the land that I shall show you.* [3]Reside in this land as an alien, and I will be with you and will bless you, for to you and to your descendants I will give all these lands, and I will fulfill the oath that I swore to your father Abraham.* [4]I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and will give to your offspring all these lands, and all the nations of the earth shall gain blessing for themselves through your offspring,* [5]because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

6 So Isaac settled in Gerar. [7]When the men of the place asked him about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say "my wife," thinking, "or else the men of the place might kill me for the sake of Rebekah, because she is attractive in appearance."* [8]When Isaac had been there a long time, King Abimelech of the Philistines looked out of a window and saw him fondling his wife Rebekah. [9]So Abimelech called for Isaac and said, "So she is your wife! Why, then, did you say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac said to him, "Because I thought I might die because of her." [10]Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us."* [11]So Abimelech warned all the people, saying, "Whoever touches this man or his wife shall be put to death."

12 Isaac sowed seed in that land and in the same year reaped a hundredfold. The LORD blessed him,* [13]and the man became rich; he prospered more and more until he became very wealthy. [14]He had possessions of flocks and herds and a great household, so that the Philistines envied him.* [15](Now the Philistines had stopped up and filled with earth all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the days of his father Abraham.)* 16And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us; you have become too powerful for us."

17 So Isaac departed from there and camped in the Wadi Gerar and settled there. 18Isaac dug again the wells of water that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham, and he gave them the names that his father had given them.* 19But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found there a well of spring water, 20the herders of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herders, saying, "The water is ours." So he called the well Esek,[d] because they contended with him. 21Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also, so he called it Sitnah.[e] 22He moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it, so he called it Rehoboth,[f] saying, "Now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land."*

23 From there he went up to Beer-sheba. 24And that very night the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham; do not be afraid, for I am with you and will bless you and make your offspring numerous for my servant Abraham's sake."* 25So he built an altar there, called on the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. And there Isaac's servants dug a well.*

26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army.* 27Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, seeing that you hate me and have sent me away from you?"* 28They said, "We see plainly that the LORD has been with you, so we say, let there be an oath between you and us, and let us make a covenant with you* 29so that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done to you nothing but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD." 30So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank. 31In the morning they rose early and exchanged oaths, and Isaac set them on their way, and they departed from him in peace.* 32That same day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well that they had dug and said to him, "We have found water!" 33He called it Shibah;[g] therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba[h] to this day.*

ESAU'S HITTITE WIVES

34 When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite and Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite,* 35and they made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.*

Genesis 27

ISAAC BLESSES JACOB

1 When Isaac was old and his eyes were dim so that he could not see, he called his elder son Esau and said to him, "My son," and he answered, "Here I am." [2]He said, "See, I am old; I do not know the day of my death.*
[3]Now then, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt game for me.* [4]Then prepare for me savory food, such as I like, and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die."*

5 Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game for his father,[i] [6]Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "I heard your father say to your brother Esau, [7]'Bring me game, and prepare for me savory food to eat, that I may bless you before the LORD before I die.' [8]Now therefore, my son, obey my word as I command you.*
[9]Go to the flock, and get me two choice kids, so that I may prepare from them savory food for your father, such as he likes, [10]and you shall take it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before he dies." [11]But Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, "Look, my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I am a man of smooth skin.* [12]Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be mocking him and bring a curse on myself and not a blessing."* [13]His mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my word, and go, get them for me."* [14]So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother prepared savory food, such as his father loved.
[15]Then Rebekah took the best garments of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob,* [16]and she put the skins of the kids on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.
[17]Then she handed the savory food and the bread that she had prepared to her son Jacob.

18 So he went in to his father and said, "My father," and he said, "Here I am; who are you, my son?" [19]Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me; now sit up and eat of my game, so that you may bless me."* [20]But Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?" He answered, "Because the LORD your God granted me success." [21]Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come near, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not."* [22]So Jacob went up to his father Isaac, who felt him and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." [23]He did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands, so he blessed him.* [24]He said, "Are you really my son Esau?" He answered, "I am." [25]Then he said, "Bring it to me, that I may eat of my son's game and bless you." So he brought it to him, and he ate, and he brought him wine, and he drank.* [26]Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come near and kiss me, my son." [27]So he came near and kissed him, and he smelled the smell of his garments and blessed him and said,

"Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.*
[28]May God give you of the dew of heaven and of the fatness of the earth and plenty of grain and wine.*
[29]Let peoples serve you and nations bow down to you.
Be lord over your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow down to you.
Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you!"*

ESAU'S LOST BLESSING

30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, when Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of his father Isaac, his brother Esau came in from his hunting. [31]He also prepared savory food and brought it to his father. And he said to his father, "Let my father sit up and eat of his son's game, so that you may bless me."* [32]His father Isaac said to him, "Who are you?" He answered, "I am your firstborn son, Esau."* [33]Then Isaac trembled violently and said, "Who was it then that hunted game and brought it to me, and I ate it all before you came, and I have blessed him?—yes, and blessed he shall be!"* [34]When Esau heard his father's words, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me, me also, father!"* 35But he said, "Your brother came deceitfully, and he has taken away your blessing." 36Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob?[j] For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and look, now he has taken away my blessing." Then he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"* 37Isaac answered Esau, "I have already made him your lord, and I have given him all his brothers as servants, and with grain and wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?"* 38Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, father? Bless me, me also, father!" And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.*

39 Then his father Isaac answered him:

"See, away from the fatness of the earth shall your home be and away from the dew of heaven on high.*
40By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother, but when you break loose,[k] you shall break his yoke from your neck."*

JACOB ESCAPES ESAU'S FURY

41 Now Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and Esau said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob."* 42But the words of her elder son Esau were told to Rebekah, so she sent and called her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you. 43Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran,* 44and stay with him a while, until your brother's fury turns away— 45until your brother's anger against you turns away, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send and bring you back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the Hittite women. If Jacob marries one of the Hittite women such as these, one of the women of the land, what good will my life be to me?"*

Genesis 28

1 Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and charged him, "You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women.* [2]Go at once to Paddan-aram to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father, and take as wife from there one of the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.* [3]May God Almighty[l] bless you and make you fruitful and numerous, that you may become a company of peoples.* [4]May he give to you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your offspring with you, so that you may take possession of the land where you now live as an alien, land that God gave to Abraham."* [5]Thus Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

ESAU MARRIES ISHMAEL'S DAUGHTER

6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram to take a wife from there and that as he blessed him he charged him, "You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women,"* [7]and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and gone to Paddan-aram. [8]So when Esau saw that the Canaanite women did not please his father Isaac,* [9]Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath daughter of Abraham's son Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.*

JACOB'S DREAM AT BETHEL

10 Jacob left Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. [11]He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place.
[12]And he dreamed that there was a stairway[m] set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.* [13]And the LORD stood beside him[n] and said, "I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring,* [14]and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and all the families of the earth shall be blessed[o] in you and in your offspring.* 15Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go and will bring you back to this land, for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."* 16Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place—and I did not know it!"* 17And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

18 So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it.* 19He called that place Bethel,[p] but the name of the city was Luz at the first.* 20Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me and will keep me in this way that I go and will give me bread to eat and clothing to wear,* 21so that I come again to my father's house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God,* 22and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be God's house, and of all that you give me I will surely give one-tenth to you."*

Genesis 29

JACOB MEETS RACHEL

1 Then Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the east.* [2]As he looked, he saw a well in the field and three flocks of sheep lying there beside it, for out of that well the flocks were watered. The stone on the well's mouth was large, [3]and when all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.

4 Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where do you come from?" They said, "We are from Haran."* [5]He said to them, "Do you know Laban son of Nahor?" They said, "We do."* [6]He said to them, "Is it well with him?"
"Yes," they replied, "and here is his daughter Rachel, coming with the sheep."* [7]He said, "Look, it is still broad daylight; it is not time for the animals to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go, pasture them." [8]But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and the stone is rolled from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep."

9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she kept them.* [10]Now when Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of his mother's brother Laban, and the sheep of his mother's brother Laban, Jacob went up and rolled the stone from the well's mouth and watered the flock of his mother's brother Laban.* [11]Then Jacob kissed Rachel and wept aloud. [12]And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's kinsman and that he was Rebekah's son, and she ran and told her father.*

13 When Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he ran to meet him; he embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house.
Jacob[q] told Laban all these things,* [14]and Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh!" And he stayed with him a month.*

JACOB MARRIES LABAN'S DAUGHTERS

15 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?" [16]Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. 17Leah's eyes were weak,[r] but Rachel was graceful and beautiful. 18Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."* 19Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me." 20So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of his love for her.

21 Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed."* 22So Laban gathered together all the people of the place and made a feast.* 23But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob, and he went in to her. 24(Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.) 25When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?" 26Laban said, "This is not done in our country—giving the younger before the firstborn. 27Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years."* 28Jacob did so and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife.
29(Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her maid.) 30So Jacob went in to Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. He served Laban[s] for another seven years.*

31 When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.* 32Leah conceived and bore a son, and she named him Reuben,[t] for she said, "Because the LORD has looked on my affliction, surely now my husband will love me."* 33She conceived again and bore a son and said, "Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, he has given me this son also," and she named him Simeon.[u] 34Again she conceived and bore a son and said, "Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons"; therefore he was named Levi.[v,] 35She conceived again and bore a son and said, "This time I will praise the LORD," therefore she named him Judah;[w] then she ceased bearing.

Genesis 30

1 When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, she envied her sister, and she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or I shall die!”* [2]Jacob became very angry with Rachel and said, “Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”* [3]Then she said, “Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear upon my knees and that I too may have children through her.”* [4]So she gave him her maid Bilhah as a wife, and Jacob went in to her.* [5]And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son. [6]Then Rachel said, “God has judged me and has also heard my voice and given me a son”; therefore she named him Dan.[x,] [7]Rachel’s maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son. [8]Then Rachel said, “With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister and have prevailed,” so she named him Naphtali.[y,]

9 When Leah saw that she had ceased bearing children, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.* [10]Then Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son. [11]And Leah said, “Good fortune!” So she named him Gad.[z] [12]Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son. [13]And Leah said, “Happy am I! For the women will call me happy,” so she named him Asher.[a,*]

14 In the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”* [15]But she said to her, “Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes also?” Rachel said, “Then he may lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”* [16]When Jacob came from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must come in to me, for I have hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” So he lay with her that night. [17]And God heeded Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son. [18]Leah said, “God has given me my hire because I gave my maid to my husband,” so she named him Issachar.[b] [19]And Leah conceived again, and she bore Jacob a sixth son. [20]Then Leah said, “God has endowed me with a good gift; now my husband will honor me, because I have borne him six sons," so she named him Zebulun.[c,*] 21Afterwards she bore a daughter and named her Dinah.

22 Then God remembered Rachel, and God heeded her and opened her womb.[] 23She conceived and bore a son and said, "God has taken away my reproach,"[] 24and she named him Joseph,[d] saying, "May the LORD add to me another son!"[*]

JACOB PROSPERS AT LABAN'S EXPENSE

25 When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own home and country.[] 26Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go, for you know very well the service I have given you." 27But Laban said to him, "If you will allow me to say so, I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you;[] 28name your wages, and I will give it."[] 29Jacob said to him, "You yourself know how I have served you and how your livestock have fared with me.[] 30For you had little before I came, and it has increased abundantly, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. But now when shall I provide for my own household also?"[] 31He said, "What shall I give you?" Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything; if you will do this for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it: 32let me pass through all your flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep and every black lamb and the spotted and speckled among the goats, and such shall be my wages.[] 33So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come to look into my wages with you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and black among the lambs, if found with me, shall be counted stolen."[*] 34Laban said, "Good! Let it be as you have said." 35But that day Laban removed the male goats that were striped and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white on it, and every lamb that was black and put them in charge of his sons, 36and he set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob was pasturing the rest of Laban's flock.

37 Then Jacob took fresh rods of poplar and almond and plane and peeled white streaks in them, exposing the white of the rods.[] 38He set the rods that he had peeled in front of the flocks in the troughs, that is, the watering places, where the flocks came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink, [39]the flocks bred in front of the rods, and so the flocks produced young that were striped, speckled, and spotted. [40]Jacob separated the lambs and set the faces of the flocks toward the striped and the completely black animals in the flock of Laban, and he put his own droves apart and did not put them with Laban's flock. [41]Whenever the stronger of the flock were breeding, Jacob laid the rods in the troughs before the eyes of the flock, that they might breed among the rods, [42]but for the feebler of the flock he did not lay them there, so the feebler were Laban's and the stronger Jacob's. [43]Thus the man grew exceedingly rich and had large flocks and male and female slaves and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31

JACOB FLEES WITH FAMILY AND FLOCKS

1 Now Jacob heard that the sons of Laban were saying, "Jacob has taken all that was our father's; he has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father." [2]And Jacob saw that Laban did not regard him as favorably as he did before. [3]Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your ancestors and to your kindred, and I will be with you."* [4]So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah into the field where his flock was [5]and said to them, "I see that your father does not regard me as favorably as he did before. But the God of my father has been with me.* [6]You know that I have served your father with all my strength, [7]yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not permit him to harm me.* [8]If he said, 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled, and if he said, 'The striped shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore striped.*
[9]Thus God has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.

10 "During the mating of the flock I once had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats that leaped upon the flock were striped, speckled, and mottled. [11]Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am!'* [12]And he said, 'Look up and see that all the goats that leap on the flock are striped, speckled, and mottled, for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. [13]I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and made a vow to me. Now leave this land at once and return to the land of your birth.' "* [14]Then Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there any portion or inheritance left to us in our father's house?* [15]Are we not regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and he has been using up the money given for us. [16]All the property that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children; now then, do whatever God has said to you."

17 So Jacob arose and set his children and his wives on camels, [18]and he drove away all his livestock, all the property that he had gained, the livestock in his possession that he had acquired in Paddan-aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole her father's household gods.* [20]And Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee. [21]So he fled with all that he had; starting out he crossed the Euphrates[e] and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead.*

LABAN OVERTAKES JACOB

22 On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled. [23]So he took his kinsfolk with him and pursued him for seven days until he caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.* [24]But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream by night and said to him, "Take heed that you say not a word to Jacob, either good or bad."*

25 Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his kinsfolk camped in the hill country of Gilead. [26]Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? You have deceived me and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword.* [27]Why did you flee secretly and deceive me and not tell me? I would have sent you away with mirth and songs, with tambourine and lyre.* [28]And why did you not permit me to kiss my sons and my daughters farewell? What you have done is foolish. [29]It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take heed that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.'* [30]Even though you had to go because you longed greatly for your father's house, why did you steal my gods?"* [31]Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force. [32]But anyone with whom you find your gods shall not live. In the presence of our kinsfolk, point out what I have that is yours, and take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.[f,*]

33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent and into the tent of the two maids, but he did not find them. And he went out of Leah's tent and entered Rachel's. [34]Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in the camel's saddle and sat on them. Laban felt all about in the tent but did not find them. [35]And she said to her father, "Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the way of women is upon me." So he searched but did not find the household gods.*

36 Then Jacob became angry and upbraided Laban. Jacob said to Laban, "What is my offense? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued me? [37]Although you have felt about through all my goods, what have you found of all your household goods? Set it here before my kinsfolk and your kinsfolk, so that they may decide between us two. [38]These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten the rams of your flocks. [39]That which was torn by wild beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it myself; of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.* [40]It was like this with me: by day the heat consumed me and the cold by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes. [41]These twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.* [42]If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear[g] of Isaac, had not been on my side, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God saw my affliction and the labor of my hands and rebuked you last night."*

LABAN AND JACOB MAKE A COVENANT

43 Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do today about these daughters of mine or about their children whom they have borne? [44]Come now, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me."* [45]So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.* [46]And Jacob said to his kinsfolk, "Gather stones," and they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there by the heap. [47]Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha,[h] but Jacob called it Galeed.[i] [48]Laban said, "This heap is a witness between you and me today." Therefore he called it Galeed* [49]and the pillar[j] Mizpah, for he said, "The LORD watch between you and me, when we are absent one from the other.* [50]If you ill-treat my daughters or if you take wives in addition to my daughters, though no one else is with us, remember that God is witness between you and me."

51 Then Laban said to Jacob, “See this heap and see the pillar, which I have set between you and me. 52This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you, and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. 53May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor[k] judge between us.” So Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac,* 54and Jacob offered a sacrifice on the height and called his kinsfolk to eat bread, and they ate bread and tarried all night in the hill country.

55 [l]Early in the morning Laban rose up and kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them; then he departed and returned home.*

Genesis 32

1 Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him; [2]when Jacob saw them he said, “This is God’s camp!” So he called that place Mahanaim.[m,*]

JACOB SENDS PRESENTS TO APPEASE ESAU

3 Jacob sent messengers before him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom,[] [4]instructing them, “Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob, ‘I have lived with Laban as an alien and stayed until now,[] [5]and I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, male and female slaves, and I have sent to tell my lord, in order that I may find favor in your sight.’ ”[*]

6 The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”[] [7]Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed, and he divided the people who were with him and the flocks and herds and camels into two companies,[] [8]thinking, “If Esau comes to the one company and destroys it, then the company that is left will escape.”

9 And Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O Lord who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will do you good,’[] [10]I am not worthy of the least of all the steadfast love and all the faithfulness that you have shown to your servant, for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan, and now I have become two companies.[] [11]Deliver me, please, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I am afraid of him; he may come and kill us all, the mothers with the children.[] [12]Yet you have said, ‘I will surely do you good and make your offspring as the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted because of their number.’ ”[]

13 So he spent that night there, and from what he had with him he took a present for his brother Esau,[] [14]two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, [15]thirty milch camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. [16]These he delivered into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass on ahead of me, and put a space between drove and drove." [17]He instructed the one in the lead, "When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, 'To whom do you belong? Where are you going? And whose are these ahead of you?' [18]then you shall say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob; they are a present sent to my lord Esau, and moreover he is behind us.' " [19]He likewise instructed the second and the third and all who followed the droves, "You shall say the same thing to Esau when you meet him, [20]and you shall say, 'Moreover your servant Jacob is behind us.' " For he thought, "I may appease him with the present that goes ahead of me, and afterwards I shall see his face; perhaps he will accept me." [21]So the present passed on ahead of him, and he himself spent that night in the camp.

JACOB WRESTLES AT PENIEL

22 The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.* [23]He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. [24]Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak.* [25]When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. [26]Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me."* [27]So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." [28]Then the man[n] said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel,[o] for you have striven with God and with humans[p] and have prevailed."* [29]Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him.* [30]So Jacob called the place Peniel,[q] saying, "For I have seen God face to face, yet my life is preserved."* [31]The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip. [32]Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the thigh muscle that is on the hip socket, because he struck Jacob on the hip socket at the thigh muscle.

Genesis 33

JACOB AND ESAU MEET

1 Now Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two maids.* 2He put the maids with their children in front, then Leah with her children, and Rachel and Joseph last of all. 3He himself went on ahead of them, bowing himself to the ground seven times, until he came near his brother.*

4 But Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.* 5When Esau looked up and saw the women and children, he said, "Who are these with you?" Jacob said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant."* 6Then the maids drew near, they and their children, and bowed down; 7Leah likewise and her children drew near and bowed down; and finally Joseph and Rachel drew near, and they bowed down. 8Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company that I met?" Jacob answered, "To find favor with my lord."* 9But Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself." 10Jacob said, "No, please; if I find favor with you, then accept my present from my hand, for truly to see your face is like seeing the face of God, since you have received me with such favor.* 11Please accept my gift that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me and because I have everything I want." So he urged him, and he took it.*

12 Then Esau said, "Let us journey on our way, and I will go alongside you." 13But Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are frail and that the flocks and herds, which are nursing, are a care to me, and if they are overdriven for one day, all the flocks will die. 14Let my lord pass on ahead of his servant, and I will lead on slowly, according to the pace of the cattle that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir."*

15 So Esau said, "Let me leave with you some of the people who are with me." But he said, "Why should my lord be so kind to me?"* 16So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir. 17But Jacob journeyed to Succoth[r] and built himself a house and made booths for his cattle; therefore the place is called Succoth.[*]

JACOB REACHES SHECHEM

18 Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, on his way from Paddan-aram, and he camped before the city.[] [19]And from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, he bought for one hundred pieces of money[s] the plot of land on which he had pitched his tent.[] [20]There he erected an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.[t]

Genesis 34

THE RAPE OF DINAH

1 Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the daughters of the region.* [2]When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the region, saw her, he seized her and lay with her by force. [3]And his soul was drawn to Dinah daughter of Jacob; he loved the young woman and spoke tenderly to her. [4]So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this girl to be my wife."*

5 Now Jacob heard that Shechem[u] had defiled his daughter Dinah, but his sons were with his cattle in the field, so Jacob held his peace until they came. [6]And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him, [7]just as the sons of Jacob came in from the field. When they heard of it, the men were indignant and very angry, because he had committed an outrage in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.*

8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The heart of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; please give her to him in marriage. [9]Make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. [10]You shall live with us, and the land shall be open to you; live and trade in it and get property in it."* [11]Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor with you, and whatever you say to me I will give. [12]Put the marriage present and gift as high as you like, and I will give whatever you ask me; only give me the young woman to be my wife."*

13 The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully because he had defiled their sister Dinah. [14]They said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us.* [15]Only on this condition will we consent to you: that you will become as we are and every male among you be circumcised. [16]Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will live among you and become one people. [17]But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone."

18 Their words pleased Hamor and Hamor's son Shechem. [19]And the young man did not delay to do the thing because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter. Now he was the most honored of all his family.* [20]So Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying, [21]"These people are friendly with us; let them live in the land and trade in it, for the land is large enough for them; let us take their daughters in marriage, and let us give them our daughters. [22]Only on this condition will they agree to live among us, to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised. [23]Will not their livestock, their property, and all their animals be ours? Only let us agree with them, and they will live among us." [24]And all who went out of the city gate heeded Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.*

DINAH'S BROTHERS AVENGE THEIR SISTER

25 On the third day, when they were still in pain, two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and came against the city unawares and killed all the males.* [26]They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the sword and took Dinah out of Shechem's house and went away. [27]And the other sons of Jacob came upon the slain and plundered the city because their sister had been defiled. [28]They took their flocks and their herds, their donkeys, and whatever was in the city and in the field. [29]All their wealth, all their little ones and their wives, all that was in the houses, they captured and made their prey. [30]Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me odious to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites; my numbers are few, and if they gather themselves against me and attack me, I shall be destroyed, both I and my household."* [31]But they said, "Should our sister be treated like a prostitute?"

Genesis 35

JACOB RETURNS TO BETHEL

1 God said to Jacob, “Arise, go up to Bethel, and settle there. Make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau.”* 2So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, “Put away the foreign gods that are among you, and purify yourselves, and change your clothes;* 3then come, let us go up to Bethel, that I may make an altar there to the God who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone.”* 4So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that they had and the rings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the oak that was near Shechem.*

5 As they journeyed, a terror from God fell upon the cities all around them, so that no one pursued them.* 6Jacob came to Luz, that is, Bethel, which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him,* 7and there he built an altar and called the place El-bethel,[v] because it was there that God had revealed himself to him when he fled from his brother.*
8And Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died, and she was buried under an oak below Bethel. So it was called Allon-bacuth.[w,] 9 God appeared to Jacob again when he came from Paddan-aram, and he blessed him. 10God said to him, “Your name is Jacob; no longer shall you be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name.” So he was called Israel.*

11God said to him, “I am God Almighty:[x] be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall come from you, and kings shall spring from you.* 12The land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac I will give to you, and I will give the land to your offspring after you.”* 13Then God went up from him at the place where he had spoken with him.* 14Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, and he poured out a drink offering on it and poured oil on it.* 15So Jacob called the place where God had spoken with him Bethel.*

THE BIRTH OF BENJAMIN AND THE DEATH OF RACHEL

16 Then they journeyed from Bethel, and when they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel was in childbirth, and she had hard labor. [17]When she was in her hard labor, the midwife said to her, "Do not be afraid, for now you have another son."* [18]As her soul was departing, for she was dying, she named him Ben-oni,[y] but his father called him Benjamin.[z] [19]And Rachel died, and she was buried on the way to Ephrath, that is, Bethlehem,* [20]and Jacob set up a pillar at her grave; it is the pillar of Rachel's tomb, which is there to this day.* [21]Israel journeyed on and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

22 While Israel lived in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Israel heard of it.

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve.* [23]The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob's firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun. [24]The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. [25]The sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maid: Dan and Naphtali. [26]The sons of Zilpah, Leah's maid: Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

THE DEATH OF ISAAC

27 Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had resided as aliens.* [28]Now the days of Isaac were one hundred eighty years. [29]And Isaac breathed his last; he died and was gathered to his people, old and full of days, and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.*

Genesis 36

ESAU'S DESCENDANTS

1 These are the descendants of Esau, that is, Edom.* [2]Esau took his wives from the Canaanites: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah daughter of Anah son[a] of Zibeon the Hivite,* [3]and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebaioth. [4]Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau; Basemath bore Reuel; [5]and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the members of his household, his cattle, all his livestock, and all the property he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and he moved to a land some distance from his brother Jacob.* [7]For their possessions were too great for them to live together; the land where they were staying could not support them because of their livestock.* [8]So Esau settled in the hill country of Seir; Esau is Edom.*

9 These are the descendants of Esau, ancestor of the Edomites, in the hill country of Seir. [10]These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Adah the wife of Esau; Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.* [11]The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. [12]Timna was a concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son; she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.* [13]These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife. [14]These were the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah, daughter of Anah son[b] of Zibeon; she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

Genesis 37

JOSEPH DREAMS OF GREATNESS

1 Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan.* 2These are the descendants of Jacob.

Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives, and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. 3Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children because he was the son of his old age, and he made him an ornamented robe.t,* 4But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.*

5 Once Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. 6He said to them, "Listen to this dream that I dreamed. 7There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright; then your sheaves gathered around it and bowed down to my sheaf."* 8His brothers said to him, "Are you indeed to reign over us? Are you indeed to have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more because of his dreams and his words.*

9 He had another dream and told it to his brothers, saying, "Look, I have had another dream: the sun, the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me." 10But when he told it to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him and said to him, "What kind of dream is this that you have had? Shall we indeed come, I and your mother and your brothers, and bow to the ground before you?"* 11So his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.*

JOSEPH IS SOLD BY HIS BROTHERS

12 Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem.
13And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." He answered, "Here I am." 14So he said to him, "Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock, and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron.

He came to Shechem,* 15and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, "What are you seeking?" 16"I am seeking my brothers," he said; "tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock." 17The man said, "They have gone away, for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.' " So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.* 18They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them they conspired to kill him.* 19They said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer. 20Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams." 21But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not take his life."* 22Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him"—that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father. 23So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the ornamented robe[u] that he wore, 24and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

25 Then they sat down to eat, and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt.* 26Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?* 27Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers agreed.* 28When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.*

29 When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not in the pit, he tore his clothes.* 30He returned to his brothers and said, "The boy is gone, and I, where can I turn?"* 31Then they took Joseph's robe, slaughtered a goat, and dipped the robe in the blood.* 32They had the ornamented robe[v] taken to their father, and they said, "This we have found; see now whether it is your son's robe or not." 33He recognized it and said, "It is my son's robe! A wild animal has devoured him; Joseph has surely been torn to pieces."* 34Then Jacob tore his garments and put sackcloth on his loins and mourned for his son many days.* 35All his sons and all his daughters sought to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted and said, “No, I shall go down to Sheol to my son, mourning.” Thus his father bewailed him.* 36Meanwhile the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh’s officials, the captain of the guard.*

Genesis 38

JUDAH AND TAMAR

1 It happened at that time that Judah went down from his brothers and settled near a certain Adullamite whose name was Hirah. [2]There Judah saw the daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua; he married her and went in to her. [3]She conceived and bore a son, and he named him Er.*
[4]Again she conceived and bore a son whom she named Onan. [5]Yet again she bore a son, and she named him Shelah. She[w] was in Chezib when she bore him. [6]Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn; her name was Tamar. [7]But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD put him to death.* [8]Then Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife and perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her; raise up offspring for your brother."* [9]But since Onan knew that the offspring would not be his, he spilled his semen on the ground whenever he went in to his brother's wife, so that he would not give offspring to his brother.* [10]What he did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD, and he put him to death also. [11]Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Remain a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up," for he feared that he too would die, like his brothers. So Tamar went to live in her father's house.*

12 In course of time the wife of Judah, Shua's daughter, died; when Judah's time of mourning was over,[x] he went up to Timnah to his sheepshearers, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.* [13]When Tamar was told, "Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep," [14]she put off her widow's garments, put on a veil, wrapped herself up, and sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. She saw that Shelah was grown up, yet she had not been given to him in marriage.*
[15]When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a prostitute, for she had covered her face. [16]He went over to her at the roadside and said, "Come, let me come in to you," for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.
She said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?" [17]He answered, "I will send you a kid from the flock." And she said, "Only if you give me a pledge until you send it."* [18]He said, "What pledge shall I give you?" She replied, "Your signet and your cord and the staff that is in your hand." So he gave them to her and went in to her, and she conceived by him.* 19Then she got up and went away, and taking off her veil she put on the garments of her widowhood.*

20 When Judah sent the kid by his friend the Adullamite to recover the pledge from the woman, he could not find her. 21He asked the townspeople, "Where is the prostitute who was at Enaim by the wayside?" But they said, "No prostitute has been here." 22So he returned to Judah and said, "I have not found her; moreover, the townspeople said, 'No prostitute has been here.' " 23Judah replied, "Let her keep the things as her own, otherwise we will be laughed at; you see, I sent this kid, and you could not find her."

24 About three months later Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has prostituted herself; moreover, she is pregnant as a result of prostitution." And Judah said, "Bring her out, and let her be burned."* 25As she was being brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, "It was the owner of these who made me pregnant." And she said, "Take note, please, whose these are, the signet and the cord and the staff."* 26Then Judah acknowledged them and said, "She is more in the right than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah." And he did not lie with her again.*

27 When the time of her delivery came, there were twins in her womb. 28While she was in labor, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and bound on his hand a crimson thread, saying, "This one came out first." 29But just then he drew back his hand and out came his brother, and she said, "What a breach you have made for yourself!" Therefore he was named Perez.[y],* 30Afterward his brother came out with the crimson thread on his hand, and he was named Zerah.[z]

Genesis 39

JOSEPH AND POTIPHAR'S WIFE

1 Now Joseph was taken down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there.* 2The LORD was with Joseph, and he became a successful man; he was in the house of his Egyptian master.* 3His master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD caused all that he did to prosper in his hands.* 4So Joseph found favor in his sight and attended him; he made him overseer of his house and put him in charge of all that he had.* 5From the time that he made him overseer in his house and over all that he had, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had, in house and field.* 6So he left all that he had in Joseph's charge, and with him there he had no concern for anything but the food that he ate.

Now Joseph was handsome and good-looking. 7And after a time his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, "Lie with me."* 8But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, with me here, my master has no concern about anything in the house, and he has put everything that he has in my hand. 9He is not greater in this house than I am, nor has he kept back anything from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How then could I do this great wickedness and sin against God?"* 10And although she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not consent to lie beside her or to be with her. 11One day, however, when he went into the house to do his work, and while no one else was in the house, 12she caught hold of his garment, saying, "Lie with me!" But he left his garment in her hand and fled and ran outside.* 13When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside, 14she called out to the members of her household and said to them, "See, my husband[a] has brought among us a Hebrew to insult us! He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice, 15and when he heard me raise my voice and cry out, he left his garment beside me and fled outside." 16Then she kept his garment by her until his master came home, 17and she told him the same story, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought among us, came in to me to insult me,* 18but as soon as I raised my voice and cried out, he left his garment beside me and fled outside."

19 When his master heard the words that his wife spoke to him, saying, "This is the way your servant treated me," he became enraged.* 20And Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined; he remained there in prison.* 21But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him steadfast love; he gave him favor in the sight of the chief jailer.* 22The chief jailer committed to Joseph's care all the prisoners who were in the prison, and whatever was done there, he was the one who did it.* 23The chief jailer paid no heed to anything that was in Joseph's care because the LORD was with him, and whatever he did, the LORD made it prosper.*

Genesis 40

THE DREAMS OF TWO PRISONERS

1 Some time after this, the cupbearer of the king of Egypt and his baker offended their lord the king of Egypt.* [2]Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, [3]and he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison where Joseph was confined.* [4]The captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he waited on them, and they continued for some time in custody. [5]One night they both dreamed—the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt who were confined in the prison—each his own dream and each dream with its own meaning. [6]When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they were troubled. [7]So he asked Pharaoh's officers, who were with him in custody in his master's house, "Why are your faces downcast today?" [8]They said to him, "We have had dreams, and there is no one to interpret them." And Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God?
Please tell them to me."*

9 So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph and said to him, "In my dream there was a vine before me, [10]and on the vine there were three branches. As soon as it budded, its blossoms came out, and the clusters ripened into grapes. [11]Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand." [12]Then Joseph said to him, "This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days;* [13]within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office, and you shall place Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer. [14]But remember me when it is well with you; please do me the kindness to make mention of me to Pharaoh, and so get me out of this place.* [15]For in fact I was stolen out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also I have done nothing that they should have put me into the dungeon."*

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Joseph, "I also had a dream: there were three cake baskets on my head, [17]and in the uppermost basket there were all sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating it out of the basket on my head." [18]And Joseph answered, "This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days;* [19]within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head—from you!—and hang you on a pole, and the birds will eat the flesh from you."*

20 On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he made a feast for all his servants and lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants.* [21]He restored the chief cupbearer to his cupbearing, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand,* [22]but the chief baker he hanged, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.* [23]Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph but forgot him.

Genesis 41

JOSEPH INTERPRETS PHARAOH'S DREAM

1 After two whole years, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing by the Nile, [2]and there came up out of the Nile seven sleek and fat cows, and they grazed in the reed grass. [3]Then seven other cows, ugly and thin, came up out of the Nile after them and stood by the other cows on the bank of the Nile. [4]The ugly and thin cows ate up the seven sleek and fat cows. And Pharaoh awoke. [5]Then he fell asleep and dreamed a second time; seven ears of grain, plump and good, were growing on one stalk. [6]Then seven ears, thin and blighted by the east wind, sprouted after them. [7]The thin ears swallowed up the seven plump and full ears. Pharaoh awoke, and it was a dream. [8]In the morning his spirit was troubled, so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.*

9 Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, "I remember my faults today.
[10]Once Pharaoh was angry with his servants and put me and the chief baker in custody in the house of the captain of the guard.* [11]We dreamed on the same night, he and I, each having a dream with its own meaning.* [12]A young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard.
When we told him, he interpreted our dreams to us, giving an interpretation to each according to his dream.* [13]As he interpreted to us, so it turned out; I was restored to my office, and the baker was hanged."*

14 Then Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was hurriedly brought out of the dungeon. When he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came in before Pharaoh.* [15]And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it."* [16]Joseph answered Pharaoh, "It is not I; God will give Pharaoh a favorable answer."* [17]Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the banks of the Nile, [18]and seven cows, fat and sleek, came up out of the Nile and fed in the reed grass. [19]Then seven other cows came up after them, poor, very ugly, and thin. Never had I seen such ugly ones in all the land of Egypt. [20]The thin and ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows, [21]but when they had eaten them no one would have known that they had done so, for they were still as ugly as before. Then I awoke. [22]I fell asleep a second time,[b] and I saw in my dream seven ears of grain, full and good, growing on one stalk, [23]and seven ears, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprouting after them, [24]and the thin ears swallowed up the seven good ears. But when I told it to the magicians, there was no one who could explain it to me."*

25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dreams are one and the same; God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do. [26]The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; the dreams are one. [27]The seven lean and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, as are the seven empty ears blighted by the east wind. They are seven years of famine.* [28]It is as I told Pharaoh; God has shown to Pharaoh what he is about to do.* [29]There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.* [30]After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the land.* [31]The plenty will no longer be known in the land because of the famine that will follow, for it will be very grievous. [32]And the doubling of Pharaoh's dream means that the thing is fixed by God, and God will shortly bring it about.* [33]Now therefore let Pharaoh select a man who is discerning and wise and set him over the land of Egypt. [34]Let Pharaoh proceed to appoint overseers over the land and take one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven plenteous years. [35]Let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming and lay up grain under the authority of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them keep it.* [36]That food shall be a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine that are to befall the land of Egypt, so that the land may not perish through the famine."

JOSEPH'S RISE TO POWER

37 The proposal pleased Pharaoh and all his servants. [38]Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find anyone else like this, one in whom is the spirit of God?"* [39]So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown you all this, there is no one so discerning and wise as you. [40]You shall be over my house, and all my people shall order themselves as you command; only with regard to the throne will I be greater than you."* 41And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."* 42Removing his signet ring from his hand, Pharaoh put it on Joseph's hand; he arrayed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.* 43He had him ride in the chariot of his second-in-command, and they cried out in front of him, "Bow the knee!"[c] Thus he set him over all the land of Egypt.* 44Moreover, Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no one shall lift up hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."* 45Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-paneah, and he gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, as his wife. Thus Joseph gained authority over the land of Egypt.

46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt.* 47During the seven plenteous years the earth produced abundantly. 48He gathered up all the food of the seven years when there was plenty[d] in the land of Egypt and stored up food in the cities; he stored up in every city the food from the fields around it. 49So Joseph stored up grain in such abundance—like the sand of the sea—that he stopped measuring it; it was beyond measure.

50 Before the years of famine came, Joseph had two sons, whom Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.* 51Joseph named the firstborn Manasseh,[e] "For," he said, "God has made me forget all my hardship and all my father's house." 52The second he named Ephraim,[f] "For God has made me fruitful in the land of my misfortunes."*

53 The seven years of plenty that prevailed in the land of Egypt came to an end, 54and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in every country, but throughout the land of Egypt there was bread.* 55When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph; what he says to you, do." 56And since the famine had spread over all the land, Joseph opened all the storehouses[g] and sold to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.* 57Moreover, all the world came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, because the famine became severe throughout the world.

JOSEPH'S BROTHERS GO TO EGYPT

1 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why do you keep looking at one another?* [2]I have heard," he said, "that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live and not die."* [3]So ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt. [4]But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he feared that harm might come to him.* [5]Thus the sons of Israel were among the people who came to buy grain, for the famine had reached the land of Canaan.*

6 Now Joseph was governor over the land; it was he who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed themselves before him with their faces to the ground.* [7]When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he treated them like strangers and spoke harshly to them. "Where do you come from?" he said. They said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."* [8]Although Joseph had recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him. [9]Joseph also remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about them. He said to them, "You are spies; you have come to see the nakedness of the land!"* [10]They said to him, "No, my lord; your servants have come to buy food. [11]We are all sons of one man; we are honest men; your servants have never been spies." [12]But he said to them, "No, you have come to see the nakedness of the land!" [13]They said, "We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of a certain man in the land of Canaan; the youngest, however, is now with our father, and one is no more."* [14]But Joseph said to them, "It is just as I have said to you; you are spies! [15]Here is how you shall be tested: as Pharaoh lives, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here! [16]Let one of you go and bring your brother, while the rest of you remain in prison, in order that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you, or else, as Pharaoh lives, surely you are spies." [17]And he put them all together in prison for three days.

18 On the third day Joseph said to them, "Do this and you will live, for I fear God:* [19]if you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here where you are imprisoned. The rest of you shall go and carry grain for the famine of your households [20]and bring your youngest brother to me. Thus your words will be verified, and you shall not die." And they agreed to do so.*
[21]They said to one another, "Alas, we are paying the penalty for what we did to our brother; we saw his anguish when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen. That is why this anguish has come upon us."* [22]Then Reuben answered them, "Did I not tell you not to wrong the boy? But you would not listen. So now there comes a reckoning for his blood."* [23]They did not know that Joseph understood them, since he spoke with them through an interpreter. [24]He turned away from them and wept; then he returned and spoke to them. And he picked out Simeon and had him bound before their eyes.* [25]Joseph then gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to return every man's money to his sack, and to give them provisions for their journey. This was done for them.*

JOSEPH'S BROTHERS RETURN TO CANAAN

26 They loaded their donkeys with their grain and departed.* [27]When one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, he saw his money at the top of the sack. [28]He said to his brothers, "My money has been put back; here it is in my sack!" At this they lost heart and turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?"

29 When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying, [30]"The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly to us and charged us with spying on the land.* [31]But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.* [32]We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Canaan.' [33]Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I shall know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, take grain for the famine of your households, and go your way.*
[34]Bring your youngest brother to me, and I shall know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I will release your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.' "

35 As they were emptying their sacks, there in each one's sack was his bag of money. When they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were dismayed.* 36And their father Jacob said to them, "I am the one you have bereaved of children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and now you would take Benjamin. All this has happened to me!"* 37Then Reuben said to his father, "You may kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you. Put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you." 38But he said, "My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should come to him on the journey that you are to make, you would bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol."*

Genesis 43

THE BROTHERS COME AGAIN, BRINGING BENJAMIN

1 Now the famine was severe in the land.* [2]And when they had eaten up the grain that they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again; buy us a little more food." [3]But Judah said to him, "The man solemnly warned us, saying, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'* [4]If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food, [5]but if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.' " [6]Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly as to tell the man that you had another brother?" [7]They replied, "The man questioned us carefully about ourselves and our kindred, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?' What we told him was in answer to these questions.
Could we in any way know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down'?"* [8]Then Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the boy with me, and let us be on our way, so that we may live and not die—you and we and also our little ones. [9]I myself will be surety for him; you can hold me accountable for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.* [10]If we had not delayed, we would now have returned twice."

11 Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: take some of the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry them down as a present to the man: a little balm and a little honey, gum, resin, pistachio nuts, and almonds.* [12]Take double the money with you. Carry back with you the money that was returned in the top of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight.* [13]Take your brother also, and be on your way again to the man; [14]may God Almighty[h] grant you mercy before the man, so that he may send back your other brother and Benjamin. As for me, if I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."* [15]So the men took the present, and they took double the money with them, as well as Benjamin. Then they went on their way down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and make ready, for the men are to dine with me at noon."* [17]The man did as Joseph said and brought the men to Joseph's house. [18]Now the men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph's house, and they said, "It is because of the money, replaced in our sacks the first time, that we have been brought in, so that he may have an opportunity to fall upon us, to make slaves of us and take our donkeys." [19]So they went up to the steward of Joseph's house and spoke with him at the entrance to the house. [20]They said, "Oh, my lord, we came down the first time to buy food,* [21]and when we came to the lodging place we opened our sacks, and there was each one's money in the top of his sack, our money in full weight. So we have brought it back with us.* [22]Moreover, we have brought down with us additional money to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks." [23]He replied, "Rest assured; do not be afraid; your God and the God of your father must have put treasure in your sacks for you; I received your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.* [24]When the steward[i] had brought the men into Joseph's house and given them water, and they had washed their feet, and when he had given their donkeys fodder,* [25]they made the present ready for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they would dine there.

26 When Joseph came home, they brought him the present that they had carried into the house and bowed to the ground before him.* [27]He inquired about their welfare and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"* [28]They said, "Your servant our father is well; he is still alive." And they bowed their heads and did obeisance.* [29]Then he looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me? God be gracious to you, my son!"* [30]With that, Joseph hurried out, because he was overcome with affection for his brother, and he was about to weep. So he went into a private room and wept there.* [31]Then he washed his face and came out, and controlling himself he said, "Serve the meal."* [32]They served him by himself and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.* [33]When they were seated before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, the men looked at one another in amazement. [34]Portions were taken to them from Joseph's table, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.*

Genesis 44

JOSEPH DETAINS BENJAMIN

1 Then he commanded the steward of his house, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in the top of his sack.* [2]Put my cup, the silver cup, in the top of the sack of the youngest, with his money for the grain." And he did as Joseph told him. [3]As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away with their donkeys. [4]When they had gone only a short distance from the city, Joseph said to his steward, "Go, follow after the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you returned evil for good? Why have you stolen my silver cup?[j] [5]Is it not from this that my lord drinks? Does he not indeed use it for divination? You have done wrong in doing this.' "*

6 When he overtook them, he repeated these words to them. [7]They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing! [8]Look, the money that we found at the top of our sacks, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan; why then would we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?* [9]Should it be found with any one of your servants, let him die; moreover, the rest of us will become my lord's slaves."* [10]He said, "Even so; in accordance with your words, let it be: he with whom it is found shall become my slave, but the rest of you shall go free." [11]Then each one quickly lowered his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack. [12]He searched, beginning with the eldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. [13]At this they tore their clothes. Then each one loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.*

14 Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house while he was still there, and they fell to the ground before him.* [15]Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that one such as I can practice divination?"* [16]And Judah said, "What can we say to my lord?
What can we speak? How can we clear ourselves? God has found out the guilt of your servants; here we are then, my lord's slaves, both we and also the one in whose possession the cup has been found."* [17]But he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so! Only the one in whose possession the cup was found shall be my slave, but as for you, go up in peace to your father."

JUDAH PLEADS FOR BENJAMIN'S RELEASE

18 Then Judah stepped up to him and said, "O my lord, let your servant please speak a word in my lord's ears, and do not be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself.* [19]My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?' [20]And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a young brother, the child of his old age. His brother is dead; he alone is left of his mother's children, and his father loves him.'* [21]Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, so that I may set my eyes on him.' [22]We said to my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.' [23]Then you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.'* [24]When we went back to your servant my father we told him the words of my lord. [25]And when our father said, 'Go again; buy us a little food,' [26]we said, 'We cannot go down. Only if our youngest brother goes with us will we go down, for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' [27]Then your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons; [28]one left me, and I said, Surely he has been torn to pieces, and I have never seen him since.* [29]If you take this one also from me and harm comes to him, you will bring down my gray hairs in sorrow to Sheol.'* [30]Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father and the boy is not with us, then, as his life is bound up in the boy's life, [31]when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die, and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to Sheol. [32]For your servant became surety for the boy to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back to you, then I will bear the blame in the sight of my father all my life.'* [33]Now therefore, please let your servant remain as a slave to my lord in place of the boy, and let the boy go back with his brothers. [34]For how can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? I fear to see the suffering that would come upon my father."

Genesis 45

JOSEPH REVEALS HIMSELF TO HIS BROTHERS

1 Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Send everyone away from me." So no one stayed with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.* [2]And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it.* [3]Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence.*

4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come closer to me." And they came closer. He said, "I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.*
[5]And now do not be distressed or angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life.* [6]For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there are five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. [7]God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth and to keep alive for you many survivors. [8]So it was not you who sent me here but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.* [9]Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me; do not delay. [10]You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have.* [11]I will provide for you there, since there are five more years of famine to come, so that you and your household and all that you have will not come to poverty.' [12]And now your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my own mouth that speaks to you. [13]You must tell my father how greatly I am honored in Egypt and all that you have seen. Hurry and bring my father down here."* [14]Then he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, while Benjamin wept upon his neck. [15]And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them, and after that his brothers talked with him.

16 When the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, "Joseph's brothers have come," Pharaoh and his servants were pleased. [17]Pharaoh said to

Joseph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Do this: load your animals and go back to the land of Canaan. 18Take your father and your households and come to me, so that I may give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you may enjoy the fat of the land.’* 19You are further charged to say, ‘Do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. 20Give no thought to your possessions, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.’ ”

21 The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons according to the instruction of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey. 22To each one of them he gave a set of garments, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five sets of garments.* 23To his father he sent the following: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and provision for his father on the journey. 24Then he sent his brothers on their way, and as they were leaving he said to them, “Do not quarrel[k] along the way.”

25 So they went up out of Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. 26And they told him, “Joseph is still alive! He is even ruler over all the land of Egypt.” He was stunned; he could not believe them. 27But when they told him all the words of Joseph that he had said to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived. 28Israel said, “Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I must go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46

JACOB BRINGS HIS WHOLE FAMILY TO EGYPT

1 When Israel set out on his journey with all that he had and came to Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.* 2God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, "Jacob, Jacob." And he said, "Here I am."* 3Then he said, "I am God,[l] the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there.* 4I myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you up again, and Joseph's own hand shall close your eyes."*

5 Then Jacob set out from Beer-sheba, and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, their little ones, and their wives in the wagons that Pharaoh had sent to carry him.* 6They also took their livestock and the goods that they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him,* 7his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters; all his offspring he brought with him into Egypt.

8 Now these are the names of the Israelites, Jacob and his offspring, who came to Egypt. Reuben, Jacob's firstborn,* 9and the children of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. 10The children of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.*
11The children of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.* 12The children of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan), and the children of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.* 13The children of Issachar: Tola, Puvah, Jashub,[m] and Shimron. 14The children of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel. 15These are the sons of Leah whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan-aram, together with his daughter Dinah; in all, his sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three. 16The children of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli. 17The children of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah. The children of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.* 18These are the children of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah, and these she bore to Jacob—sixteen persons.* 19The children of Jacob's wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.*

[20]To Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.* [21]The children of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.* [22]These are the children of Rachel who were born to Jacob—fourteen persons in all. [23]The children of Dan: Hashum.[n],* [24]The children of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.* [25]These are the children of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel, and these she bore to Jacob—seven persons in all.* [26]All the persons belonging to Jacob who came into Egypt who were his own offspring, not including the wives of his sons, were sixty-six persons in all.* [27]The children of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt were two; all the persons of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt were seventy.*

JACOB SETTLES IN GOSHEN

28 Israel[o] sent Judah ahead to Joseph to lead the way before him into Goshen. When they came to the land of Goshen,* [29]Joseph made ready his chariot and went up to meet his father Israel in Goshen. He presented himself to him, fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.*
[30]Israel said to Joseph, "I can die now, having seen for myself that you are still alive." [31]Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh and will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.*
[32]The men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock, and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.' [33]When Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?'* [34]you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our ancestors,' in order that you may settle in the land of Goshen, because all shepherds are abhorrent to the Egyptians."*

Genesis 47

1 So Joseph went and told Pharaoh, "My father and my brothers, with their flocks and herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; they are now in the land of Goshen."* [2]From among his brothers he took five men and presented them to Pharaoh. [3]Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, as our ancestors were."* [4]They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to reside as aliens in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now, we ask you, let your servants settle in the land of Goshen."* [5]Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. [6]The land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land; let them live in the land of Goshen; and if you know that there are capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock."*

7 Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob and presented him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. [8]Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many are the years of your life?"* [9]Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The years of my earthly sojourn are one hundred thirty; few and hard have been the years of my life. They do not compare with the years of the life of my ancestors during their long sojourn." [10]Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.* [11]Joseph settled his father and his brothers and granted them a holding in the land of Egypt, in the best part of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had instructed.* [12]And Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father's household with food, according to the number of their dependents.

THE FAMINE IN EGYPT

13 Now there was no food in all the land, for the famine was very severe.
The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.* [14]Joseph collected all the money to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan in exchange for the grain that they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.* [15]When the money from the land of Egypt and from the land of Canaan was spent, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food! Why should we die before your eyes? For our money is gone."* 16And Joseph answered, "Give me your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock, if your money is gone." 17So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the herds, and the donkeys. That year he supplied them with food in exchange for all their livestock. 18When that year was ended, they came to him the following year and said to him, "We cannot hide from my lord that our money is all spent, and the herds of cattle are my lord's. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands. 19Shall we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food. We with our land will become slaves to Pharaoh; just give us seed, so that we may live and not die and that the land may not become desolate."

20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh. All the Egyptians sold their fields, because the famine was severe upon them, and the land became Pharaoh's. 21As for the people, he made slaves of them[p] from one end of Egypt to the other. 22Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had a fixed allowance from Pharaoh and lived on the allowance that Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their land.* 23Then Joseph said to the people, "Now that I have this day bought you and your land for Pharaoh, here is seed for you; sow the land. 24And at the harvests you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and as food for yourselves and your households and as food for your little ones."* 25They said, "You have saved our lives; may it please my lord, we will be slaves to Pharaoh."* 26So Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt, and it stands to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth. The land of the priests alone did not become Pharaoh's.*

THE LAST DAYS OF JACOB

27 Thus Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the region of Goshen, and they gained possessions in it and were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly.* 28Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years.

29 When the time of Israel's death drew near, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If I have found favor with you, put your hand under my thigh and promise to deal loyally and truly with me. Do not bury me in Egypt.* 30When I lie down with my ancestors, carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place." He answered, "I will do as you have said."* 31And he said, "Swear to me," and he swore to him. Then Israel bowed himself on the head of his bed.*

Genesis 48

JACOB BLESSES JOSEPH'S SONS

1 After this Joseph was told, "Your father is ill." So he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. [2]When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has come to you," he[q] summoned his strength and sat up in bed. [3]And Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty[r] appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and he blessed me[] [4]and said to me, 'I am going to make you fruitful and increase your numbers; I will make of you a company of peoples and will give this land to your offspring after you for a perpetual holding.'[] [5]Therefore your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are now mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are.[] [6]As for the offspring born to you after them, they shall be yours. They shall be recorded under the names of their brothers with regard to their inheritance. [7]For when I came from Paddan, Rachel, alas, died in the land of Canaan on the way, while there was still some distance to go to Ephrath, and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath, that is, Bethlehem."[]

8 When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, "Who are these?" [9]Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." And he said, "Bring them to me, please, that I may bless them."[] [10]Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, and he could not see well. So Joseph brought them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them.[] [11]Israel said to Joseph, "I did not expect to see your face, and here God has let me see your children also."[] [12]Then Joseph removed them from his father's knees,[s] and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. [13]Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right, and brought them near him. [14]But Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn.[] [15]He blessed Joseph and said, "The God before whom my ancestors Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day,[] [16]the angel who has redeemed me from all harm, bless the boys, and in them let my name be perpetuated and the name of my ancestors Abraham and Isaac, and let them grow into a multitude on the earth."

17 When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him, so he took his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.* [18]Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father! Since this one is the firstborn, put your right hand on his head." [19]But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know; he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great. Nevertheless his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his offspring shall become a multitude of nations."* [20]So he blessed them that day, saying,

"By you Israel will invoke blessings, saying,
'God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.' "

So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh. [21]Then Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you again to the land of your ancestors.* [22]I now give to you one portion[t] more than to your brothers, the portion[u] that I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow."*

Genesis 49

JACOB'S LAST WORDS TO HIS SONS

1 Then Jacob called his sons and said, "Gather around, that I may tell you what will happen to you in days to come.*

[2]Assemble and hear, O sons of Jacob; listen to Israel your father.

[3]Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might and the first fruits of my vigor, excelling in rank and excelling in power.*
[4]Unstable as water, you shall no longer excel because you went up onto your father's bed; then you defiled it—you[v] went up onto my couch!*

[5]Simeon and Levi are brothers; weapons of violence are their swords.*
[6]May I never come into their council; may I not be joined to their company, for in their anger they killed men, and at their whim they hamstrung oxen.*
[7]Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce, and their wrath, for it is cruel!
I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.*

[8]Judah, your brothers shall praise you; your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons shall bow down before you.*
[9]Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, you have gone up.

He crouches down, he stretches out like a lion, like a lioness—who dares rouse him up?*
10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until tribute comes to him,[w] and the obedience of the peoples is his.*
11 Binding his foal to the vine and his donkey's colt to the choice vine, he washes his garments in wine and his robe in the blood of grapes; 12 his eyes are darker than wine and his teeth whiter than milk.

13 Zebulun shall settle at the shore of the sea; he shall be a haven for ships, and his border shall be at Sidon.*

14 Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between the sheepfolds; 15 he saw that a resting place was good and that the land was pleasant, so he bowed his shoulder to the burden and became a slave at forced labor.

16 Dan shall judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.*
17 Dan shall be a snake by the roadside, a viper along the path, that bites the horse's heels so that its rider falls backward.*

[18]I wait for your salvation, O LORD.*

[19]Gad shall be raided by raiders, but he shall raid at their heels.*

[20]Asher's[x] food shall be rich, and he shall provide royal delicacies.*

[21]Naphtali is a doe let loose that bears lovely fawns.[y,*]

[22]Joseph is a fruitful bough,[z] a fruitful bough by a spring; his branches run over the wall.[a,] [23]The archers fiercely attacked him; they shot at him and pressed him hard.
[24]Yet his bow remained taut, and his arms[b] were made agile by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, by the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,* [25]by the God of your father, who will help you, by the Almighty[c] who will bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, blessings of the breasts and of the womb.*
[26]The blessings of your father are stronger than the blessings of the eternal mountains, the bounties[d] of the everlasting hills; may they be on the head of Joseph, on the brow of him who was set apart from his brothers.*

[27]Benjamin is a ravenous wolf, in the morning devouring the prey and at evening dividing the spoil."

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them, blessing each one of them with a suitable blessing.*

JACOB'S DEATH AND BURIAL

29 Then he charged them, saying to them, "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my ancestors in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite,* [30]in the cave in the field at Machpelah, near Mamre, in the land of Canaan, in the field that Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite as a burial site.* [31]There Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried; there Isaac and his wife Rebekah were buried; and there I buried Leah.* [32]The field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the Hittites." [33]When Jacob ended his charge to his sons, he drew up his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.*

Genesis 50

1 Then Joseph threw himself on his father's face and wept over him and kissed him.* [2]Joseph commanded the physicians in his service to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel;* [3]they spent forty days doing this, for that is the time required for embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days.*

4 When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph addressed the household of Pharaoh, "If now I have found favor with you, please speak to Pharaoh as follows: [5]My father made me swear an oath; he said, 'I am about to die. In the tomb that I hewed out for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me.' Now therefore let me go up, so that I may bury my father; then I will return."* [6]Pharaoh answered, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do."

7 So Joseph went up to bury his father. With him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, [8]as well as all the household of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's household. Only their children, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen.* [9]Both chariots and charioteers went up with him. It was a very great company. [10]When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they held there a very great and sorrowful lamentation, and he observed a time of mourning for his father seven days.*
[11]When the Canaanite inhabitants of the land saw the mourning on the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning on the part of the Egyptians." Therefore the place was named Abel-mizraim;[e] it is beyond the Jordan. [12]Thus his sons did for him as he had instructed them.
[13]They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field at Machpelah, the field near Mamre, which Abraham bought as a burial site from Ephron the Hittite.* [14]After he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

JOSEPH FORGIVES HIS BROTHERS

15 Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers said, "What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?"* [16]So they approached[f] Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this instruction before he died, [17]'Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.' Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. [18]Then his brothers also wept,[g] fell down before him, and said, "We are here as your slaves."* [19]But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God?* [20]Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today.* [21]So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones." In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.*

JOSEPH'S LAST DAYS AND DEATH

22 So Joseph remained in Egypt, he and his father's household, and Joseph lived one hundred ten years. [23]Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation; the children of Machir son of Manasseh were also born on Joseph's knees.

24 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will surely come to you and bring you up out of this land to the land that he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."* [25]So Joseph made the Israelites swear, saying, "When God comes to you, you shall carry up my bones from here." [26]And Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old; he was embalmed and placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Exodus 1

1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob, each with his household:* [2]Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, [3]Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, [4]Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher. [5]The total number of people born to Jacob was seventy. (Joseph was already in Egypt.)* [6]Then Joseph died, and all his brothers, and that whole generation.* [7]But the Israelites were fruitful and prolific; they multiplied and grew exceedingly strong, so that the land was filled with them.*

THE ISRAELITES ARE OPPRESSED

8 Now a new king arose over Egypt who did not know Joseph.* [9]He said to his people, "Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we.* [10]Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land." [11]Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labor. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh.* [12]But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites.
[13]The Egyptians subjected the Israelites to hard servitude [14]and made their lives bitter with hard servitude in mortar and bricks and in every kind of field labor. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them.*

15 The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, [16]"When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a son, kill him, but if it is a daughter, she shall live."* [17]But the midwives feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live.*
[18]So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this and allowed the boys to live?" [19]The midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.” 20 So God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and became very strong.* 21 And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families.* 22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, “Every son that is born to the Hebrews[a] you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every daughter live.”*

Exodus 2

BIRTH AND YOUTH OF MOSES

1 Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman.[] [2]The woman conceived and bore a son, and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him three months.[] [3]When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river.
[4]His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.[*]

5 The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. [6]When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. "This must be one of the Hebrews' children," she said. [7]Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?" [8]Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Yes." So the girl went and called the child's mother. [9]Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed it. [10]When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses,[b] "because," she said, "I drew him out of the water."[*]

MOSES FLEES TO MIDIAN

11 One day after Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and saw their forced labor. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people.[] [12]He looked this way and that, and seeing no one he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. [13]When he went out the next day, he saw two Hebrews fighting, and he said to the one who was in the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow Hebrew?"[] [14]He answered, "Who made you a ruler and judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid and thought, "Surely the thing is known."[*] [15]When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses.

So Moses fled from Pharaoh. He settled in the land of Midian and sat down by a well.* 16The priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came to draw water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. 17But some shepherds came and drove them away. Moses got up and came to their defense and watered their flock.* 18When they returned to their father Reuel, he said, "How is it that you have come back so soon today?"* 19They said, "An Egyptian helped us against the shepherds; he even drew water for us and watered the flock." 20He said to his daughters, "Where is he? Why did you leave the man? Invite him to share a meal."* 21Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah in marriage.* 22She bore a son, and he named him Gershom,[c] for he said, "I have been an alien residing in a foreign land."*

23 After a long time the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned under their slavery and cried out. Their cry for help rose up to God from their slavery.* 24God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.* 25God looked upon the Israelites, and God took notice of them.*

Exodus 3

MOSES AT THE BURNING BUSH

1 Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness and came to Mount Horeb,[d] the mountain of God.[] [2]There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed.[] [3]Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight and see why the bush is not burned up."[] [4]When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." [5]Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground."[] [6]He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.[*]

7 Then the LORD said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings,[] [8]and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.[] [9]The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them.[] [10]Now go, I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."[] [11]But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" [12]He said, "I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain."[*]

THE DIVINE NAME REVEALED

13 But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" [14]God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM."[e] He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I AM has sent me to you.' "* 15God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The LORD,[f] the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you':

This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.*

16"Go and assemble the elders of Israel and say to them, 'The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, has appeared to me, saying: I have given heed to you and to what has been done to you in Egypt. 17I declare that I will bring you up out of the misery of Egypt, to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.'* 18They will listen to your voice, and you and the elders of Israel shall go to the king of Egypt and say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us; let us now go a three days' journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.'* 19I know, however, that the king of Egypt will not let you go except by a mighty hand.* 20So I will stretch out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders that I will perform in it; after that he will let you go.* 21I will bring this people into such favor with the Egyptians that, when you go, you will not go empty-handed;* 22each woman shall ask her neighbor and any woman living in the neighbor's house for jewelry of silver and of gold and clothing, and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters; so you shall plunder the Egyptians."*

MOSES'S MIRACULOUS POWER

1 Then Moses answered, "But look, they may not believe me or listen to me but say, 'The LORD did not appear to you.' "* [2]The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A staff."* [3]And he said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw the staff on the ground, and it became a snake, and Moses drew back from it. [4]Then the LORD said to Moses, "Reach out your hand and seize it by the tail"—so he reached out his hand and grasped it, and it became a staff in his hand—[5]"so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

6 Again, the LORD said to him, "Put your hand inside your cloak." He put his hand into his cloak, and when he took it out, his hand was diseased, as white as snow.* [7]Then God said, "Put your hand back into your cloak"—so he put his hand back into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored like the rest of his body*—[8]"If they will not believe you or heed the first sign, they may believe the second sign. [9]If they will not believe even these two signs or listen to you, you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground, and the water that you shall take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground."*

10 But Moses said to the LORD, "O my Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor even now that you have spoken to your servant, but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue."* [11]Then the LORD said to him, "Who gives speech to mortals? Who makes them mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?* [12]Now go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you are to speak."* [13]But he said, "O my Lord, please send someone else." [14]Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, "What of your brother Aaron, the Levite? I know that he can speak well; even now he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you his heart will be glad.* [15]You shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth, and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth and will teach you what you shall do.* [16]He indeed shall speak for you to the people; he shall serve as a mouth for you, and you shall serve as God for him. [17]Take in your hand this staff, with which you shall perform the signs."*

MOSES RETURNS TO EGYPT

18 Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, "Please let me go back to my own people in Egypt and see whether they are still living." And Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace." [19]The LORD said to Moses in Midian, "Go back to Egypt, for all those who were seeking your life are dead."* [20]So Moses took his wife and his sons, put them on a donkey, and went back to the land of Egypt, and Moses carried the staff of God in his hand.*

21 And the LORD said to Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders that I have put in your power, but I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.* [22]Then you shall say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says the LORD: Israel is my firstborn son.* [23]I said to you, "Let my son go that he may serve me." But you refused to let him go; now I will kill your firstborn son.' "*

24 On the way, at a place where they spent the night, the LORD met him and tried to kill him.* [25]But Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin, touched his feet with it, and said, "Truly you are a bridegroom of blood to me!"* [26]So he let him alone. It was then that she said "a bridegroom of blood," because of the circumcision.

27 The LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." So he went, and he met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.* [28]Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which he had sent him and all the signs with which he had charged him.* [29]Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the Israelites.* [30]Aaron spoke all the words that the LORD had spoken to Moses and performed the signs in the sight of the people.* [31]The people believed, and when they heard that the LORD had given heed to the Israelites and that he had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshiped.*

BRICKS WITHOUT STRAW

1 Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Let my people go, so that they may celebrate a festival to me in the wilderness."* [2]But Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should listen to him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and I will not let Israel go."* [3]Then they said, "The God of the Hebrews has revealed himself to us; let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to the LORD our God, or he will fall upon us with pestilence or sword."* [4]But the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their work? Get to your labors!"* [5]Pharaoh continued, "Now they are more numerous than the people of the land[g] and yet you want them to stop laboring!"* [6]That same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, as well as their supervisors,* [7]"You shall no longer give the people straw to make bricks, as before; let them go and gather straw for themselves. [8]But you shall require of them the same quantity of bricks as they have made previously; do not diminish it, for they are lazy; that is why they cry, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'* [9]Let heavier work be laid on them; then they will pay attention to[h] it and not to deceptive words."

10 So the taskmasters and the supervisors of the people went out and said to the people, "Thus says Pharaoh: I will not give you straw.* [11]Go and get straw yourselves, wherever you can find it, but your work will not be lessened in the least." [12]So the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. [13]The taskmasters urged them on, saying, "Complete your work, the same daily assignment as when you were given straw."[i] [14]And the Israelite supervisors whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them were beaten and were asked, "Why did you not finish the required quantity of bricks yesterday and today, as you did before?"*

fault is with you."[j] 17He said, "You are lazy, lazy; that is why you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'* 18Go now and work, for no straw shall be given you, but you shall still deliver the same number of bricks." 19The Israelite supervisors saw that they were in trouble when they were told, "You shall not lessen your daily number of bricks." 20As they left Pharaoh, they came upon Moses and Aaron, who were waiting to meet them. 21They said to them, "The LORD look upon you and judge! You have brought us into bad odor with Pharaoh and his officials and have put a sword in their hand to kill us."*

22 Then Moses turned to the LORD and said, "O my Lord, why have you mistreated this people? Why did you ever send me?* 23Since I first came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has mistreated this people, and you have done nothing at all to deliver your people."*

Exodus 6

ISRAEL'S DELIVERANCE ASSURED

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh: indeed, by a mighty hand he will let them go; by a mighty hand he will drive them out of his land."*

2 God also spoke to Moses and said to him, "I am the LORD. 3I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty,[k] but by my name 'The LORD'[l] I did not make myself known to them.* 4I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they resided as aliens.* 5I have also heard the groaning of the Israelites whom the Egyptians have enslaved, and I have remembered my covenant.*
6Say therefore to the Israelites: I am the LORD, and I will free you from the burdens of the Egyptians and deliver you from slavery to them. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great acts of judgment.* 7I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. You shall know that I am the LORD your God, who has freed you from the burdens of the Egyptians.* 8I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; I will give it to you for a possession. I am the LORD."* 9Moses told this to the Israelites, but they would not listen to Moses, because of their broken spirit and their cruel slavery.

10 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, 11"Go and tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his land." 12But Moses spoke to the LORD, "The Israelites have not listened to me; why should Pharaoh listen to me, poor speaker that I am?"[m] 13Thus the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them orders regarding the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to free the Israelites from the land of Egypt.

THE GENEALOGY OF MOSES AND AARON

14 The following are the heads of their ancestral houses: the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben.* 15The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman; these are the families of Simeon.* 16The following are the names of the sons of Levi according to their genealogies: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari, and the length of Levi's life was one hundred thirty-seven years.* 17The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, by their families.* 18The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, and the length of Kohath's life was one hundred thirty-three years.* 19The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their genealogies.* 20Amram married Jochebed his aunt, and she bore him Aaron and Moses, and the length of Amram's life was one hundred thirty-seven years.* 21The sons of Izhar: Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.* 22The sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.* 23Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 24The sons of Korah: Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph; these are the families of the Korahites.* 25Aaron's son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the ancestral houses of the Levites by their families.*

26 It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, company by company." 27It was they who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the Israelites out of Egypt, the same Moses and Aaron.

MOSES AND AARON OBEY GOD'S COMMANDS

28 On the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, 29the LORD said to Moses, "I am the LORD; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I am speaking to you."* 30But Moses said to the LORD, "Since I am a poor speaker,[n] why should Pharaoh listen to me?"*

Exodus 7

1 The LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet.* [2]You shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his land.* [3]But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and I will multiply my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt.* [4]When Pharaoh does not listen to you, I will lay my hand upon Egypt and bring my people the Israelites, company by company, out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment.* [5]The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them."* [6]Moses and Aaron did so; they did just as the LORD commanded them.* [7]Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.*

AARON'S MIRACULOUS ROD

8 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, [9]"When Pharaoh says to you, 'Perform a wonder,' then you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh, and it will become a snake.' "* [10]So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did as the LORD had commanded; Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a snake.* [11]Then Pharaoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers, and they also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same by their secret arts.* [12]Each one threw down his staff, and they became snakes, but Aaron's staff swallowed up theirs. [13]However, Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.*

THE FIRST PLAGUE: WATER TURNED TO BLOOD

14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is hardened; he refuses to let the people go.* [15]Go to Pharaoh in the morning, as he is going out to the water; stand by at the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was turned into a snake.* [16]Say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you to say, "Let my people go, so that they may serve me in the wilderness." But until now you have not listened.* 17Thus says the LORD, "By this you shall know that I am the LORD." See, with the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water that is in the Nile, and it shall be turned to blood.* 18The fish in the river shall die, the river itself shall stink, and the Egyptians shall be unable to drink water from the Nile.' "* 19The LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt—over its rivers, its canals, and its ponds, and all its pools of water—so that they may become blood, and there shall be blood throughout the whole land of Egypt, even in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone."*

20 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD commanded. In the sight of Pharaoh and of his officials he lifted up the staff and struck the water in the Nile; all the water in the river was turned into blood,* 21and the fish in the river died. The river stank so that the Egyptians could not drink its water, and there was blood throughout the whole land of Egypt.* 22But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their secret arts; so Pharaoh's heart remained hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.* 23Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not take even this to heart. 24And all the Egyptians had to dig along the Nile for water to drink, for they could not drink the water of the river.

25 Seven days passed after the LORD had struck the Nile.

Exodus 8

THE SECOND PLAGUE: FROGS

1 [o]Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: Let my people go, so that they may serve me.* [2]If you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs. [3]The Nile shall swarm with frogs; they shall come up into your palace, into your bedchamber and your bed, into the houses of your officials and of your people,[p] and into your ovens and your kneading bowls.* [4]The frogs shall come up on you and on your people and on all your officials.' " [5][q]And the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, the canals, and the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.' "* [6]So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.* [7]But the magicians did the same by their secret arts and brought frogs up on the land of Egypt.*

8 Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray to the LORD to take away the frogs from me and my people, and I will let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."* [9]Moses said to Pharaoh, "Kindly tell me when I am to pray for you and for your officials and for your people, that the frogs may be removed from you and your houses and be left only in the Nile." [10]And he said, "Tomorrow." Moses said, "As you say! So that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God,* [11]the frogs shall leave you and your houses and your officials and your people; they shall be left only in the Nile." [12]Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs that he had brought upon Pharaoh.*
[13]And the LORD did as Moses requested: the frogs died in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields. [14]And they gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank. [15]But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart and would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.*

THE THIRD PLAGUE: GNATS

16 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, so that it may become gnats throughout the whole land of Egypt.' " [17]And they did so; Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, and gnats came on humans and animals alike; all the dust of the earth turned into gnats throughout the whole land of Egypt.* [18]The magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, but they could not. There were gnats on both humans and animals.*
[19]And the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God!" But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.*

THE FOURTH PLAGUE: FLIES

20 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, as he goes out to the water, and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: Let my people go, so that they may serve me,* [21]because if you will not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you, your officials, and your people, and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians shall be filled with swarms of flies, as will the land where they live. [22]But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people live, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, that you may know that I the LORD am in this land.* [23]Thus I will make a distinction[r] between my people and your people. This sign shall appear tomorrow.' " [24]The LORD did so, and great swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh and into his officials' houses; in all of Egypt the land was ruined because of the flies.*

25 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God within the land." [26]But Moses said, "It would not be right to do so, for the sacrifices that we offer to the LORD our God are offensive to the Egyptians. If we offer in the sight of the Egyptians sacrifices that are offensive to them, will they not stone us? [27]We must go a three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as he commands us."* [28]So Pharaoh said, "I will let you go to sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness, provided you do not go very far away.
Pray for me."* [29]Then Moses said, "As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his officials, and from his people; only do not let Pharaoh again deal falsely by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."*

30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. [31]And the LORD did as Moses asked: he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his officials, and from his people; not one remained. [32]But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also and would not let the people go.*

Exodus 9

THE FIFTH PLAGUE: LIVESTOCK DISEASED

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, so that they may serve me.* [2]For if you refuse to let them go and still hold them,* [3]the hand of the LORD will strike with a deadly pestilence your livestock in the field: the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herds, and the flocks. [4]But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing shall die of all that belongs to the Israelites.' "* [5]The LORD set a time, saying, "Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land." [6]And on the next day the LORD did so; all of the Egyptians' livestock died, but none of the Israelites' livestock died.* [7]Pharaoh inquired and found that not even one of the Israelites' livestock had died. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he would not let the people go.*

THE SIXTH PLAGUE: BOILS

8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Take handfuls of soot from the kiln, and let Moses throw it in the air in the sight of Pharaoh. [9]It shall become dust all over the land of Egypt and shall cause festering boils on humans and animals throughout the whole land of Egypt."* [10]So they took soot from the kiln and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses threw it in the air, and it caused festering boils on humans and animals. [11]The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils afflicted the magicians as well as all the Egyptians. [12]But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.*

THE SEVENTH PLAGUE: THUNDER AND HAIL

13 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, so that they may serve me.* [14]For this time I will send all my plagues upon you yourself, your officials, and your people, so that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth.* 15Indeed, by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth.* 16But this is why I have let you live: to show you my power and to make my name resound through all the earth.* 17You are still exalting yourself against my people by not letting them go. 18Tomorrow at this time I will cause the heaviest hail to fall that has ever fallen in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.* 19Send, therefore, and have your livestock and everything that you have in the open field brought to a secure place; every human or animal that is in the open field and is not brought under shelter will die when the hail comes down upon them.' " 20Those officials of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD hurried their slaves and livestock off to a secure place,* 21but those who did not regard the word of the LORD left their slaves and livestock in the open field.

22 The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven so that hail may fall on the whole land of Egypt, on humans and animals and all the plants of the field in the land of Egypt."* 23Then Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire came down on the earth. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt;* 24there was hail with fire flashing continually in the midst of it, such heavy hail as had never fallen in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. 25The hail struck down everything that was in the open field throughout all the land of Egypt, both human and animal; the hail also struck down all the plants of the field and shattered every tree in the field.* 26Only in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites were, was there no hail.*

27 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said to them, "This time I have sinned; the LORD is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong.* 28Pray to the LORD! Enough of God's thunder and hail! I will let you go; you need stay no longer."* 29Moses said to him, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will stretch out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD's.* 30But as for you and your officials, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God." 31(Now the flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud. 32But the wheat and the spelt were not ruined, for they are late in coming up.) [33]So Moses left Pharaoh, went out of the city, and stretched out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured down on the earth. [34]But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, he sinned once more and hardened his heart, he and his officials. [35]So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he would not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.*

Exodus 10

THE EIGHTH PLAGUE: LOCUSTS

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his officials, in order that I may show these signs of mine among them* 2and that you may tell your children and grandchildren how I have made fools of the Egyptians and what signs I have done among them—so that you may know that I am the LORD."*

3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may serve me.* 4For if you refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country.* 5They shall cover the surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the land. They shall devour the last remnant left you after the hail, and they shall devour every tree of yours that grows in the field.*
6They shall fill your houses and the houses of all your officials and of all the Egyptians—something that neither your parents nor your grandparents have seen, from the day they came on earth to this day." Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.*

7 Pharaoh's officials said to him, "How long shall this fellow be a snare to us? Send the people away, so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet understand that Egypt is ruined?"* 8So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God! But which ones are to go?"* 9Moses said, "We will go with our young and our old; we will go with our sons and daughters and with our flocks and herds, because we have the LORD's festival to celebrate."* 10He said to them, "The LORD indeed will be with you, if ever I let your little ones go with you! Plainly, you have some evil purpose in mind. 11No, never! Your men may go and serve the LORD, for that is what you are asking." And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.*

12 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt, so that the locusts may come upon it and eat every plant in the land, all that the hail has left."* 13So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all that night. When morning came, the east wind had brought the locusts. 14The locusts came upon all the land of Egypt and settled on the whole country of Egypt, such a dense swarm of locusts as had never been before nor ever shall be again.* 15They covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was black, and they ate all the plants in the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Nothing green was left on the trees or on the plants in the fields, in all the land of Egypt.* 16Pharaoh hurriedly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.* 17Do forgive my sin this once, and pray to the LORD your God that at the least he remove this deadly thing from me."* 18So he went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. 19The LORD changed the wind into a very strong west wind, which lifted the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea;[s] not a single locust was left in all the country of Egypt. 20But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.*

THE NINTH PLAGUE: DARKNESS

21 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness that can be felt."* 22So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was dense darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.* 23People could not see one another, and for three days they could not move from where they were, but all the Israelites had light where they lived. 24Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "Go, serve the LORD. Only your flocks and your herds shall remain behind. Even your little ones may go with you."* 25But Moses said, "You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings to sacrifice to the LORD our God. 26Our livestock also must go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we must choose some of them to serve the LORD our God, and we will not know what to use to serve the LORD until we arrive there."* 27But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was unwilling to let them go.* 28Then Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Take care that you do not see my face again, for on the day you see my face you shall die."* 29Moses said, "Just as you say! I will never see your face again."*

Exodus 11

WARNING OF THE FINAL PLAGUE

1 The LORD said to Moses, "I will bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; afterward he will let you go from here; indeed, when he lets you go, he will drive you away.* [2]Tell the people that every man is to ask his neighbor and every woman is to ask her neighbor for objects of silver and gold."* [3]The LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians.
Moreover, Moses himself was a man of great importance in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's officials and in the sight of the people.*

4 Moses said, "Thus says the LORD, 'About midnight I will go out through Egypt.* [5]Every firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne to the firstborn of the female slave who is behind the handmill and all the firstborn of the livestock.*
[6]Then there will be a loud cry throughout the whole land of Egypt, such as has never been or will ever be again.* [7]But not a dog shall growl at any of the Israelites—not at people, not at animals—so that you may know that the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.'* [8]Then all these officials of yours shall come down to me and bow low to me, saying, 'Leave us, you and all the people who follow you.' After that I will leave."
And in hot anger he left Pharaoh.*

9 The LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, in order that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt."* [10]Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go out of his land.*

Exodus 12

THE FIRST PASSOVER INSTITUTED

1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, [2]"This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you.* [3]Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household.
[4]If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. [5]Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.* [6]You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight.* [7]They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. [8]They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.*
[9]Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. [10]You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn with fire.*
[11]This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand, and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the Passover of the LORD.* [12]I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from human to animal, and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD.* [13]The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

14 "This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.* [15]Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; on the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day shall be cut off from Israel.* [16]On the first day you shall hold a solemn assembly and on the seventh day a solemn assembly; no work shall be done on those days; only what everyone must eat, that alone may be prepared by you.* 17You shall observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your companies out of the land of Egypt: you shall observe this day throughout your generations as a perpetual ordinance.* 18In the first month, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day, you shall eat unleavened bread.* 19For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses, for whoever eats what is leavened shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether an alien or a native of the land.* 20You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your settlements you shall eat unleavened bread."

21 Then Moses called all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go, select lambs for your families, and slaughter the Passover lamb.* 22Take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and touch the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood in the basin. None of you shall go outside the door of your house until morning.* 23For the LORD will pass through to strike down the Egyptians; when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over that door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you down.* 24You shall observe this as a perpetual ordinance for you and your children.* 25When you come to the land that the LORD will give you, as he has promised, you shall keep this observance. 26And when your children ask you, 'What does this observance mean to you?'* 27you shall say, 'It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, for he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when he struck down the Egyptians but spared our houses.' " And the people bowed down and worshiped.*

28 The Israelites went and did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron; so they did.

THE TENTH PLAGUE: DEATH OF THE FIRSTBORN

29 At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner who was in the dungeon and all the firstborn of the livestock.* 30Pharaoh arose in the night, he and all his officials and all the Egyptians, and there was a loud cry in Egypt, for there was not a house without someone dead.* 31Then he summoned Moses and Aaron in the night and said, "Rise up, go away from my people, both you and the Israelites! Go, serve the LORD, as you said.* 32Take your flocks and your herds, as you said, and be gone. And ask a blessing for me, too!"*

THE EXODUS: FROM RAMESES TO SUCCOTH

33 The Egyptians urged the people to hasten their departure from the land, for they said, "We shall all be dead."* 34So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading bowls wrapped up in their cloaks on their shoulders. 35The Israelites had acted according to the word of Moses; they had asked the Egyptians for jewelry of silver and gold and for clothing,* 36and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. And so they plundered the Egyptians.*

37 The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides little ones.* 38A mixed crowd also went up with them and livestock in great numbers, both flocks and herds.* 39They baked unleavened cakes of the dough that they had brought out of Egypt; it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves.*

40 The time that the Israelites had lived in Egypt was four hundred thirty years.* 41At the end of four hundred thirty years, on that very day, all the companies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.* 42That was for the LORD a night of vigil, to bring them out of the land of Egypt. That same night is a vigil to be kept for the LORD by all the Israelites throughout their generations.*

DIRECTIONS FOR THE PASSOVER

43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance for the Passover: no foreigner shall eat of it, 44but any slave who has been purchased may eat of it after he has been circumcised; 45no bound or hired servant may eat of it. 46It shall be eaten in one house; you shall not take any of the animal outside the house, and you shall not break any of its bones.* 47The whole congregation of Israel shall do this.* 48If an alien who resides with you wants to celebrate the Passover to the LORD, all his males shall be circumcised; then he may draw near to celebrate it; he shall be regarded as a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it; [49]there shall be one law for the native-born and for the alien who resides among you."*

50 All the Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron. [51]That very day the LORD brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, company by company.*

Exodus 13

1 The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Consecrate to me all the firstborn; whatever is the first to open the womb among the Israelites, of human beings and animals, is mine."*

THE FESTIVAL OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

3 Moses said to the people, "Remember this day on which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, because the LORD brought you out from there by strength of hand; no leavened bread shall be eaten.* [4]Today, in the month of Abib, you are going out. [5]When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he swore to your ancestors to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall keep this observance in this month.* [6]Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a festival to the LORD.* [7]Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days; no leavened bread shall be seen in your possession, and no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory. [8]You shall tell your child on that day, 'It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'* [9]It shall serve for you as a sign on your hand and as a reminder on your forehead, so that the teaching of the LORD may be on your lips, for with a strong hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.* [10]You shall keep this ordinance at its proper time from year to year.*

THE CONSECRATION OF THE FIRSTBORN

11 "When the LORD has brought you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and your ancestors, and has given it to you, [12]you shall set apart to the LORD all that first opens the womb. All the firstborn offspring of your livestock that are males shall be the LORD's.* [13]But every firstborn donkey you shall redeem with a sheep; if you do not redeem it, you must break its neck. Every firstborn male among your children you shall redeem.* [14]When in the future your child asks you, 'What does this mean?' you shall answer, 'By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery.* 15When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from human firstborn to the firstborn of animals. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD every male that first opens the womb, but every firstborn of my sons I redeem.'* 16It shall serve as a sign on your hand and as an emblem[t] on your forehead that by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt."*

THE PILLARS OF CLOUD AND FIRE

17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was nearer, for God thought, "If the people face war, they may change their minds and return to Egypt."* 18So God led the people by the roundabout way of the wilderness bordering the Red Sea.[u] The Israelites went up out of the land of Egypt prepared for battle. 19And Moses took with him the bones of Joseph, who had required a solemn oath of the Israelites, saying, "God will surely come to you, and then you must carry my bones with you from here."* 20They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness.* 21The LORD went in front of them in a pillar of cloud by day, to lead them along the way, and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light, so that they might travel by day and by night.* 22Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place in front of the people.

Exodus 14

CROSSING THE RED SEA

1 Then the LORD said to Moses, [2]"Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baalzephon; you shall camp opposite it, by the sea.* [3]Pharaoh will say of the Israelites, 'They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has closed in on them.' [4]I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them, so that I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD." And they did so.*

5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the minds of Pharaoh and his officials were changed toward the people, and they said, "What have we done, letting Israel leave our service?" [6]So he had his chariot made ready and took his army with him; [7]he took six hundred elite chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them.
[8]The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued the Israelites, who were going out boldly.* [9]The Egyptians pursued them, all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, his chariot drivers and his army; they overtook them camped by the sea, by Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.*

10 As Pharaoh drew near, the Israelites looked back, and there were the Egyptians advancing on them. In great fear the Israelites cried out to the LORD.* [11]They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us, bringing us out of Egypt?* [12]Is this not the very thing we told you in Egypt, 'Let us alone so that we can serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness." [13]But Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, stand firm, and see the deliverance that the LORD will accomplish for you today, for the Egyptians whom you see today you shall never see again.* [14]The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to keep still."*

15 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. [16]But you lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the Israelites may go into the sea on dry ground.* 17Then I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them, and so I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots, and his chariot drivers.* 18Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gained glory for myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his chariot drivers."*

19 The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them, and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them.* 20It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night and turned the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided.* 22The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.* 23The Egyptians pursued and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. 24At the morning watch the LORD, in the pillar of fire and cloud, looked down on the Egyptian army and threw the Egyptian army into a panic.* 25He clogged[v] their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against Egypt."*

THE PURSUERS DROWNED

26 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers." 27So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the LORD tossed the Egyptians into the sea.* 28The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained.* 29But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.*

30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.* 31Israel saw the great work that the LORD did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the LORD and believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.*

Exodus 15

THE SONG OF MOSES

1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD:

"I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously;
horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.*
2 The LORD is my strength and my might,[w] and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him; my father's God, and I will exalt him.*
3 The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name.*

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army he cast into the sea; his elite officers were sunk in the Red Sea.[x,] 5 The floods covered them; they went down into the depths like a stone.
6 Your right hand, O LORD, glorious in power—your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy.*
7 In the greatness of your majesty you overthrew your adversaries; you sent out your fury; it consumed them like stubble.*
8 At the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up; the floods stood up in a heap;
the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea.*
9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue; I will overtake;
I will divide the spoil; my desire shall have its fill of them.
I will draw my sword; my hand shall destroy them.'* 10 You blew with your wind; the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters.*

11 Who is like you, O LORD, among the gods?
Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, doing wonders?*
12 You stretched out your right hand; the earth swallowed them.

13 In your steadfast love you led the people whom you redeemed; you guided them by your strength to your holy abode.*
14 The peoples heard; they trembled; pangs seized the inhabitants of Philistia.*
15 Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed; trembling seized the leaders of Moab;
all the inhabitants of Canaan melted away.*
16 Terror and dread fell upon them; by the might of your arm, they became still as a stone until your people, O LORD, passed by, until the people whom you acquired passed by.*
17 You brought them in and planted them on the mountain of your own possession, the place, O LORD, that you made your abode, the sanctuary, O LORD, that your hands have established.*
18 The LORD will reign forever and ever."*

19 When the horses of Pharaoh with his chariots and his chariot drivers went into the sea, the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them, but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.*

THE SONG OF MIRIAM

20 Then the prophet Miriam, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dancing.* 21And Miriam sang to them:

"Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously;
horse and rider he has thrown into the sea."*

BITTER WATER MADE SWEET

22 Then Moses ordered Israel to set out from the Red Sea,[y] and they went into the wilderness of Shur. They went three days in the wilderness and found no water.* 23When they came to Marah, they could not drink the water of Marah because it was bitter. That is why it was called Marah.[z],* 24And the people complained against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?"* 25He cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood; he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet.

There the LORD[a] made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he put them to the test.* 26He said, "If you will listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in his sight, and give heed to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will not bring upon you any of the diseases that I brought upon the Egyptians, for I am the LORD who heals you."*

27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there by the water.*

Exodus 16

BREAD FROM HEAVEN

1 The whole congregation of the Israelites set out from Elim and came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had departed from the land of Egypt.* [2]The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.* [3]The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat and ate our fill of bread, for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."*

4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not.* [5]On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days."* [6]So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, [7]and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaining against the LORD.
For what are we, that you complain against us?"* [8]And Moses said, "When the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the LORD has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the

9 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites: 'Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.' "* [10]And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.* [11]The LORD spoke to Moses, [12]"I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.' "

13 In the evening quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.* 14When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground.* 15When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?"[b] For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.* 16This is what the LORD has commanded: Gather as much of it as each of you needs, an omer per person according to the number of persons, all providing for those in their own tents." 17The Israelites did so, some gathering more, some less.
18But when they measured it with an omer, those who gathered much had nothing over, and those who gathered little had no shortage; they gathered as much as each of them needed.* 19And Moses said to them, "Let no one leave any of it over until morning."* 20But they did not listen to Moses; some left part of it until morning, and it became wormy and rotten. And Moses was angry with them. 21Morning by morning they gathered it, as much as each needed, but when the sun grew hot, it melted.

22 On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, two omers apiece.
When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses,* 23he said to them, "This is what the LORD has commanded: Tomorrow is a day of solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD; bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil, and all that is left over put aside to be kept until morning."* 24So they put it aside until morning, just as Moses commanded them, and it did not rot, and there were no maggots in it.* 25Moses said, "Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field. 26Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, which is a Sabbath, there will be none."

27 On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, and they found none. 28The LORD said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and instructions?* 29See! The LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore on the sixth day he gives you food for two days; each of you stay where you are; do not leave your place on the seventh day." 30So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 The Israelites called it manna; it was like white coriander seed, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.* 32Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded: Let an omer of it be kept throughout your generations in order that they may see the food with which I fed you in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.” 33And Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar, and put an omer of manna in it, and place it before the LORD, to be kept throughout your generations.”* 34Just as the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the covenant, for safekeeping.* 35The Israelites ate manna forty years, until they came to a habitable land; they ate manna, until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.* 36(An omer is a tenth of an ephah.)

Exodus 17

WATER FROM THE ROCK

1 From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.* 2The people quarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?"* 3But the people thirsted there for water, and the people complained against Moses and said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?"* 4So Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do for this people?
They are almost ready to stone me."* 5The LORD said to Moses, "Go on ahead of the people and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile and go.* 6I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink." Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel.* 7He called the place Massah[c] and Meribah,[d] because the Israelites quarreled and tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"*

AMALEK ATTACKS ISRAEL AND IS DEFEATED

8 Then Amalek came and fought with Israel at Rephidim.* 9Moses said to Joshua, "Choose some men for us and go out; fight with Amalek.
Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand."* 10So Joshua did as Moses told him and fought with Amalek, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. 11Whenever Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed, and whenever he lowered his hand, Amalek prevailed. 12But Moses's hands grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on either side, so his hands were steady until the sun set. 13And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the sword.

14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write this as a remembrance in a book and recite it in the hearing of Joshua: I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven."* 15And Moses built an altar and called it, The LORD is my banner. 16He said, "A hand upon the banner of the LORD![e] The LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

Exodus 18

JETHRO'S ADVICE

1 Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses's father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.* [2]After Moses had sent away his wife Zipporah, his father-in-law Jethro took her back,* [3]along with her two sons. The name of the one was Gershom[f] (for he had said, "I have been an alien in a foreign land"),* [4]and the name of the other was Eliezer[g] (for he had said, "The God of my father was my help and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh").
[5]Jethro, Moses's father-in-law, along with Moses's sons and wife, came into the wilderness where Moses was encamped at the mountain of God.* [6]He sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, with your wife and her two sons." [7]So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law; he bowed down and kissed him; each asked after the other's welfare, and they went into the tent.* [8]Then Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had found them on the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.* [9]Jethro rejoiced for all the good that the LORD had done to Israel, in delivering them from the Egyptians.

10 Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you from the Egyptians and from Pharaoh.* [11]Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, because he delivered the people from the Egyptians,[h] when they dealt arrogantly with them."* [12]And Jethro, Moses's father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses's father-in-law in the presence of God.

13 The next day Moses sat as judge for the people, while the people stood around him from morning until evening. [14]When Moses's father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone, while all the people stand around you from morning until evening?" [15]Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God.* [16]When they have a dispute, they come to me, and I decide between one person and another, and I make known to them the statutes and instructions of God." [17]Moses's father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good. [18]You will surely wear yourself out, both you and these people with you, for the task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone.* [19]Now listen to me. I will give you counsel, and God be with you! You should represent the people before God and bring their cases to God.* [20]Teach them the statutes and instructions and make known to them the way they are to go and the things they are to do.* [21]You should also look for able men among all the people, men who fear God, are trustworthy, and hate dishonest gain; set them as officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.* [22]Let them sit as judges for the people at all times; let them bring every important case to you but decide every minor case themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you.* [23]If you do this and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people will go to their homes in peace."

24 So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did all that he had said. [25]Moses chose able men from all Israel and appointed them as heads over the people, as officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.* [26]And they judged the people at all times; hard cases they brought to Moses, but any minor case they decided themselves.* [27]Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went off to his own country.*

Exodus 19

THE ISRAELITES REACH MOUNT SINAI

1 On the third new moon after the Israelites had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day, they came into the wilderness of Sinai. [2]They journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain.* [3]Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the Israelites:* [4]'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.* [5]Now, therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine,* [6]but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites."*

7 So Moses went, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. [8]The people all answered as one, "Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do." Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD.* [9]Then the LORD said to Moses, "I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, in order that the people may hear when I speak with you and so trust you ever after."

THE PEOPLE CONSECRATED

When Moses had told the words of the people to the LORD,* [10]the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow.
Have them wash their clothes* [11]and prepare for the third day, because on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.* [12]You shall set limits for the people all around, saying, 'Be careful not to go up the mountain or to touch the edge of it. Any who touch the mountain shall be put to death.* [13]No hand shall touch them, but they shall be stoned or shot with arrows;[i] whether animal or human being, they shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they may go up on the mountain." [14]So Moses went down from the mountain to the people. He consecrated the people, and they washed their clothes. 15And he said to the people, "Prepare for the third day; do not go near a woman."

16 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, as well as a thick cloud on the mountain and a blast of a trumpet so loud that all the people who were in the camp trembled.* 17Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God. They took their stand at the foot of the mountain. 18Now all of Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke, because the LORD had descended upon it in fire; the smoke went up like the smoke of a kiln, while the whole mountain shook violently.* 19As the blast of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses would speak and God would answer him in thunder.* 20When the LORD descended upon Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, the LORD summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. 21Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people not to break through to see the LORD; otherwise many of them will perish.* 22Even the priests who approach the LORD must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out against them."* 23Moses said to the LORD, "The people are not permitted to come up to Mount Sinai, for you yourself warned us, saying, 'Set limits around the mountain and keep it holy.' "* 24The LORD said to him, "Go down, then come back up and bring Aaron with you, but do not let either the priests or the people break through to come up to the LORD; otherwise he will break out against them." 25So Moses went down to the people and told them.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

1 Then God spoke all these words,*

2 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery;* 3you shall have no other gods before[j] me.*

4 "You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above or that is on the earth beneath or that is in the water under the earth.* 5You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me* 6but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation[k] of those who love me and keep my commandments.*

7 "You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.*

8 "Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.* 9Six days you shall labor and do all your work.* 10But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work—you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns.
11For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and consecrated it.*

12 "Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.*

13 "You shall not murder.[l],* 14 "You shall not commit adultery.*

15 "You shall not steal.*

16 "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.*

17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, male or female slave, ox, donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."*

18 When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid[m] and trembled and stood at a distance* [19]and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen, but do not let God speak to us, lest we die."* [20]Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin."* [21]Then the people stood at a distance, while Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.*

THE LAW CONCERNING THE ALTAR

22 The LORD said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I spoke with you from heaven.* [23]You shall not make gods of silver alongside me, nor shall you make for yourselves gods of gold.* [24]You need make for me only an altar of earth and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your offerings of well-being, your sheep and your oxen; in every place where I cause my name to be remembered I will come to you and bless you.* [25]But if you make for me an altar of stone, do not build it of hewn stones, for if you use a chisel upon it you profane it.*
[26]You shall not go up by steps to my altar, so that your nakedness may not be exposed on it.

THE LAW CONCERNING SLAVES

1 "These are the ordinances that you shall set before them:*

2 "When you buy a male Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years, but in the seventh he shall go out a free person, without debt.* 3If he comes in single, he shall go out single; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him. 4If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out alone. 5But if the slave declares, 'I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out a free person,' 6then his master shall bring him before God. He shall be brought to the door or the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl, and he shall serve him for life.*

7 "When a man sells his daughter as a slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do.* 8If she does not please her master, who designated her for himself, then he shall let her be redeemed; he shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt unfairly with her. 9If he designates her for his son, he shall deal with her as with a daughter. 10If he takes another wife to himself, he shall not diminish the food, clothing, or marital rights of the first wife.[n],* 11And if he does not do these three things for her, she shall go out without debt, without payment of money.

THE LAW CONCERNING VIOLENCE

12 "Whoever strikes a person mortally shall be put to death.* 13If it was not premeditated but came about by an act of God, then I will appoint for you a place to which the killer may flee.* 14But if someone willfully attacks and kills another by treachery, you shall take the killer from my altar for execution.*

15 "Whoever strikes father or mother shall be put to death.

16 "Whoever kidnaps a person, whether that person has been sold or is still held in possession, shall be put to death.*

17 "Whoever curses father or mother shall be put to death.*

18 "When individuals quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or fist so that the injured party, though not dead, is confined to bed [19]but recovers and walks around outside with the help of a staff, then the assailant shall be free of liability, except to pay for the loss of time and to arrange for full recovery.

20 "When a slaveowner strikes a male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies immediately, the owner shall be punished. [21]But if the slave survives a day or two, there is no punishment, for the slave is the owner's property.*

22 "When people who are fighting injure a pregnant woman so that there is a miscarriage and yet no further harm follows, the one responsible shall be fined what the woman's husband demands, paying as much as the judges determine. [23]If any harm follows, then you shall give life for life,* [24]eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,* [25]burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 "When a slaveowner strikes the eye of a male or female slave, destroying it, the owner shall let the slave go, a free person, to compensate for the eye. [27]If the owner knocks out a tooth of a male or female slave, the slave shall be let go, a free person, to compensate for the tooth.

LAWS CONCERNING PROPERTY

28 "When an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox shall be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox shall not be liable.*
[29]If the ox has been accustomed to gore in the past and its owner has been warned but did not restrain it, and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death. [30]If a ransom is imposed on the owner, then the owner shall pay whatever is imposed for the redemption of the victim's life.* [31]If it gores a boy or a girl, the owner shall be dealt with according to this same rule. [32]If the ox gores a male or female slave, the owner shall pay to the slaveowner thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.*

33 "If someone leaves a pit open or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,* [34]the owner of the pit shall make restitution, giving money to its owner but keeping the dead animal.

35 “If someone’s ox hurts the ox of another, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the price of it, and the dead animal they shall also divide. [36]But if it was known that the ox was accustomed to gore in the past and its owner did not restrain it, the owner shall restore ox for ox but keep the dead animal.

LAWS OF RESTITUTION

1 [o]"When someone steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, the thief shall pay five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep. [2][p](If the thief is found breaking in and is struck dead, no bloodguilt is incurred;* [3]but if it happens after sunrise, bloodguilt is incurred.) The thief shall make full restitution or, if unable to do so, shall be sold for the theft.* [4]When the animal, whether ox or donkey or sheep, is found alive in the thief's possession, the thief shall pay double.

5 "When someone causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over or lets livestock loose to graze in someone else's field, restitution shall be made from the best in the owner's field or vineyard.

6 "When fire breaks out and catches in thorns so that the stacked grain or the standing grain or the field is consumed, the one who started the fire shall make full restitution.

7 "When someone delivers to a neighbor money or goods for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, then the thief, if caught, shall pay double.* [8]If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house shall be brought before God, to determine whether or not the owner had laid hands on the neighbor's goods.*

9 "In any case of disputed ownership involving ox, donkey, sheep, clothing, or any other loss, of which one party says, 'This is mine,' the case of both parties shall come before God; the one whom God condemns shall pay double to the other.*

10 "When someone delivers to another a donkey, ox, sheep, or any other animal for safekeeping and it dies or is injured or is carried off without anyone seeing it, [11]an oath before the LORD shall decide between the two of them that the one has not laid hands on the property of the other; the owner shall accept the oath, and no restitution shall be made.* [12]But if it was stolen, restitution shall be made to its owner.* [13]If it was mangled by beasts, let it be brought as evidence; restitution shall not be made for the mangled remains.

14 "When someone borrows an animal from another and it is injured or dies, the owner not being present, full restitution shall be made. [15]If the owner was present, there shall be no restitution; if it was hired, only the hiring fee is due.

SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS LAWS

16 "When a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married and lies with her, he shall give the bride-price for her and make her his wife.* [17]But if her father refuses to give her to him, he shall pay an amount equal to the bride-price for virgins.

18 "You shall not permit a female sorcerer to live.*

19 "Whoever has intercourse with an animal shall be put to death.*

20 "Whoever sacrifices to any god other than the LORD alone shall be devoted to destruction.*

21 "You shall not wrong or oppress a resident alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.* [22]You shall not abuse any widow or orphan.* [23]If you do abuse them, when they cry out to me, I will surely heed their cry;* [24]my wrath will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children orphans.*

25 "If you lend money to my people, to the poor among you, you shall not deal with them as a creditor; you shall not exact interest from them.* [26]If you take your neighbor's cloak as guarantee, you shall restore it before the sun goes down, [27]for it may be your neighbor's only clothing to use as a cover. In what else shall that person sleep? And when your neighbor cries out to me, I will listen, for I am compassionate.

28 "You shall not revile God or curse a leader of your people.*

29 "You shall not delay to make offerings from the fullness of your harvest and from the outflow of your presses.[q]

"The firstborn of your sons you shall give to me.* [30]You shall do the same with your oxen and with your sheep: seven days it shall remain with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to me.*

31 "You shall be people consecrated to me, so you shall not eat any meat that is mangled by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.*

Exodus 23

JUSTICE FOR ALL

1 "You shall not spread a false report. You shall not join hands with the wicked to act as a malicious witness.* [2]You shall not follow a majority in wrongdoing; when you bear witness in a lawsuit, you shall not side with the majority so as to pervert justice,[r],* [3]nor shall you be partial to the poor in a lawsuit.

4 "When you come upon your enemy's ox or donkey going astray, you shall bring it back.*

5 "When you see the donkey of one who hates you struggling under its burden and you would hold back from setting it free, you must help to set it free.*

6 "You shall not pervert the justice due to your poor in their lawsuits.*
[7]Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent and those in the right, for I will not acquit the guilty.* [8]You shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds officials and subverts the cause of those who are in the right.*

9 "You shall not oppress a resident alien; you know the heart of an alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.*

SABBATICAL YEAR AND SABBATH

10 "Six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield,* [11]but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow so that the poor of your people may eat, and what they leave the wild animals may eat. You shall do the same with your vineyard and with your olive orchard.

12 "Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall rest so that your ox and your donkey may have relief and your homeborn slave and the resident alien may be refreshed.* [13]Be attentive to all that I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other gods; do not let them be heard on your lips.

THE ANNUAL FESTIVALS

14 “Three times in the year you shall hold a festival for me. [15]You shall observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread; as I commanded you, you shall eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt.

“No one shall appear before me empty-handed.*

16 “You shall observe the Festival of Harvest, of the first fruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. You shall observe the Festival of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in from the field the fruit of your labor.* [17]Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord God.

18 “You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with anything leavened or let the fat of my festival remain until the morning.

19 “The choicest of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of the Lord your God.

THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN PROMISED

20 “I am going to send an angel in front of you, to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared.* [21]Be attentive to him and listen to his voice; do not rebel against him, for he will not pardon your transgression, for my name is in him.*

22 “But if you listen attentively to his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes.*

23 “When my angel goes in front of you and brings you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I blot them out,* [24]you shall not bow down to their gods or serve them or follow their practices, but you shall utterly demolish them and break their pillars in pieces.* [25]You shall serve the Lord your God, and I[s] will bless your bread and your water, and I will take sickness away from among you.* [26]No one shall miscarry or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.* [27]I will send my terror in front of you and will throw into confusion all the people against whom you shall come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. [28]And I will send swarms of hornets[t] in front of you, which shall drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from before you.* 29I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the wild animals multiply against you.* 30Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and possess the land. 31I will set your borders from the Red Sea[u] to the sea of the Philistines and from the wilderness to the Euphrates, for I will hand over to you the inhabitants of the land, and you shall drive them out before you.* 32You shall make no covenant with them and their gods.*

33They shall not live in your land, lest they make you sin against me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you."*

Exodus 24

THE BLOOD OF THE COVENANT

1 Then he said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship at a distance.*
[2]Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but the others shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him."

3 Moses went and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the ordinances, and all the people answered with one voice and said, "All the words that the LORD has spoken we will do."* [4]And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. He rose early in the morning, built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and set up twelve pillars, corresponding to the twelve tribes of Israel.* [5]He sent young men of the Israelites, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed oxen as offerings of well-being to the LORD. [6]Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he dashed against the altar.* [7]Then he took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people, and they said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient."* [8]Moses took the blood and dashed it on the people, and said, "Here is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."*

ON THE MOUNTAIN WITH GOD

9 Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up,* [10]and they saw the God of Israel. Under his feet there was something like a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness.* [11]God[v] did not lay his hand on the chief men of the Israelites; they beheld God, and they ate and drank.

12 The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and wait there; I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." [13]So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God.
[14]To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come back to you.
Look, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

15 Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.* [16]The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud.* [17]Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the Israelites.* [18]Moses entered the cloud and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.*

Exodus 25

OFFERINGS FOR THE TABERNACLE

1 The LORD said to Moses, [2]"Tell the Israelites to take for me an offering; from all whose hearts prompt them to give you shall receive the offering for me.* [3]This is the offering that you shall receive from them: gold, silver, and bronze, [4]blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine linen, goats' hair, [5]tanned rams' skins, fine leather,[w] acacia wood, [6]oil for the lamps, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense,* [7]onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and for the breastpiece.* [8]And they shall make me a sanctuary so that I may dwell among them.* [9]In accordance with all that I show you concerning the pattern of the tabernacle and of all its furniture, so you shall make it.*

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT

10 "They shall make an ark of acacia wood; it shall be two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.* [11]You shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and outside you shall overlay it, and you shall make a molding of gold upon it all around. [12]You shall cast four rings of gold for it and put them on its four feet, two rings on one side of it and two rings on the other side. [13]You shall make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. [14]And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, for carrying the ark. [15]The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be removed. [16]You shall put the covenant that I am giving you into the ark.*

17 "Then you shall make a cover of pure gold; two cubits and a half shall be its length and a cubit and a half its width.* [18]You shall make two cherubim of gold; you shall make them of hammered work at the two ends of the cover. [19]Make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other; of one piece with the cover you shall make the cherubim at its two ends. [20]The cherubim shall spread out their wings above, overshadowing the cover with their wings. They shall face one to another; the faces of the cherubim shall be turned toward the cover.* 21You shall put the cover on the top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the covenant that I am giving you.* 22There I will meet with you, and from above the cover, from between the two cherubim that are on the ark of the covenant, I will tell you all that I am commanding you for the Israelites.*

THE TABLE FOR THE BREAD OF THE PRESENCE

23 "You shall make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.* 24You shall overlay it with pure gold and make a molding of gold around it. 25You shall make around it a rim a handbreadth wide and a molding of gold around the rim. 26You shall make for it four rings of gold and fasten the rings to the four corners at its four legs. 27The rings that hold the poles used for carrying the table shall be close to the rim. 28You shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, and the table shall be carried with these. 29You shall make its plates and dishes and its flagons and bowls with which to pour drink offerings; you shall make them of pure gold.* 30And you shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before me continually.*

THE LAMPSTAND

31 "You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand shall be made of hammered work; its cups, its calyxes, and its petals shall be of one piece with it;* 32and there shall be six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it;* 33three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on the other branch—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand. 34On the lampstand itself there shall be four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyxes and petals.* 35There shall be a calyx of one piece with it under the first pair of branches, a calyx of one piece with it under the next pair of branches, and a calyx of one piece with it under the last pair of branches—so for the six branches that go out of the lampstand. 36Their calyxes and their branches shall be of one piece with it, the whole of it one hammered piece of pure gold. [37]You shall make seven lamps for it, and the lamps shall be set up so as to give light on the space in front of it.* [38]Its snuffers and trays shall be of pure gold. [39]It and all these utensils shall be made from a talent of pure gold. [40]And see that you make them according to the pattern for them, which is being shown you on the mountain.*

Exodus 26

THE TABERNACLE

1 "The tabernacle itself you shall make with ten curtains of fine twisted linen and blue, purple, and crimson yarns; you shall make them with cherubim skillfully worked into them.* [2]The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains shall be of the same size. [3]Five curtains shall be joined to one another, and the other five curtains shall be joined to one another.* [4]You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set, and likewise you shall make loops on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set. [5]You shall make fifty loops on the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite one another.* [6]You shall make fifty clasps of gold and join the curtains to one another with the clasps, so that the tabernacle may be one whole.

7 "You shall also make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; you shall make eleven curtains.* [8]The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains shall be of the same size. [9]You shall join five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves, and the sixth curtain you shall double over at the front of the tent. [10]You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the second set.

11 "You shall make fifty clasps of bronze and put the clasps into the loops and join the tent together, so that it may be one whole.* [12]The part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. [13]The cubit on one side and the cubit on the other side of what remains in the length of the curtains of the tent shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and that side, to cover it. [14]You shall make for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and an outer covering of fine leather.[x,*]

THE FRAMEWORK

15 "You shall make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.* 16Ten cubits shall be the length of a frame and a cubit and a half the width of each frame. 17There shall be two pegs in each frame to fit the frames together; you shall make these for all the frames of the tabernacle. 18You shall make the frames for the tabernacle: twenty frames for the south side; 19and you shall make forty bases of silver under the twenty frames: two bases under the first frame for its two pegs and two bases under the next frame for its two pegs; 20and for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side twenty frames,* 21and their forty bases of silver: two bases under the first frame and two bases under the next frame; 22and for the rear of the tabernacle westward you shall make six frames. 23You shall make two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear; 24they shall be separate beneath but joined at the top at the first ring; it shall be the same with both of them; they shall form the two corners. 25And so there shall be eight frames, with their bases of silver, sixteen bases: two bases under the first frame and two bases under the next frame.*

26 "You shall make bars of acacia wood: five for the frames of one side of the tabernacle, 27and five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the side of the tabernacle at the rear westward. 28The middle bar, halfway up the frames, shall pass through from end to end. 29You shall overlay the frames with gold and shall make their rings of gold to hold the bars, and you shall overlay the bars with gold. 30Then you shall erect the tabernacle according to the plan for it that you were shown on the mountain.*

THE CURTAIN

31 "You shall make a curtain of blue, purple, and crimson yarns and of fine twisted linen; it shall be made with cherubim skillfully worked into it.* 32You shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, which have hooks of gold and rest on four bases of silver. 33You shall hang the curtain under the clasps and bring the ark of the covenant in there, within the curtain, and the curtain shall separate for you the holy place from the most holy place.* 34You shall put the cover on the ark of the covenant in the most holy place.* 35You shall set the table outside the curtain and the lampstand on the south side of the tabernacle opposite the table, and you shall put the table on the north side.*

36 "You shall make a screen for the entrance of the tent, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns and of fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework.* 37You shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five bases of bronze for them.*

Exodus 27

THE ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING

1 "You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide; the altar shall be square, and it shall be three cubits high.* [2]You shall make horns for it on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze. [3]You shall make pots for its ashes and shovels and basins and forks and firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.* [4]You shall also make for it a grating, a network of bronze, and on the net you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners. [5]You shall set it under the ledge of the altar so that the net shall extend halfway down the altar. [6]You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze; [7]the poles shall be put through the rings, so that the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when it is carried. [8]You shall make it hollow, with boards. They shall be made just as you were shown on the mountain.*

THE COURT AND ITS HANGINGS

9 "You shall make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side the court shall have hangings of fine twisted linen one hundred cubits long for that side;* [10]its twenty pillars and their twenty bases shall be of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver.* [11]Likewise for its length on the north side there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, their pillars twenty and their bases twenty, of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver. [12]For the width of the court on the west side there shall be fifty cubits of hangings, with ten pillars and ten bases. [13]The width of the court on the front to the east shall be fifty cubits.
[14]There shall be fifteen cubits of hangings on one side, with three pillars and three bases.* [15]There shall be fifteen cubits of[y] hangings on the other side, with three pillars and three bases. [16]For the gate of the court there shall be a screen twenty cubits long, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns and of fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework; it shall have four pillars and with them four bases.* [17]All the pillars around the court shall be banded with silver; their hooks shall be of silver and their bases of bronze. [18]The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, the width fifty, and the height five cubits, with hangings of fine twisted linen and bases of bronze. [19]All the utensils of the tabernacle for every use, and all its pegs and all the pegs of the court, shall be of bronze.

THE OIL FOR THE LAMP

20 "You shall further command the Israelites to bring you pure oil of beaten olives for the light, so that a lamp may be set up to burn continually.* [21]In the tent of meeting, outside the curtain that is before the covenant, Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a perpetual ordinance to be observed throughout their generations by the Israelites.*

Exodus 28

VESTMENTS FOR THE PRIESTHOOD

1 "Then bring near to you your brother Aaron and his sons with him, from among the Israelites, to serve me as priests—Aaron and Aaron's sons: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.* [2]You shall make sacred vestments for the glorious adornment of your brother Aaron.* [3]And you shall speak to all who are skillful, whom I have endowed with skill, so that they make Aaron's vestments to consecrate him for my priesthood.* [4]These are the vestments that they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a checkered tunic, a turban, and a sash. When they make these sacred vestments for your brother Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests,* [5]they shall use gold, blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine linen.

THE EPHOD

6 "They shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, skillfully worked.* [7]It shall have two shoulder pieces attached to its two edges, so that it may be joined together. [8]The decorated band on it shall be of the same workmanship and materials, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen. [9]You shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel,* [10]six of their names on the one stone and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, in the order of their birth. [11]As a gem cutter engraves signets, so you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel; you shall mount them in settings of gold filigree. [12]You shall set the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, as stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel, and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders for remembrance.* [13]You shall make settings of gold filigree [14]and two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords, and you shall attach the corded chains to the settings.

THE BREASTPLATE

15 "You shall make a breastpiece of judgment, in skilled work; you shall make it in the style of the ephod; of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen you shall make it.* [16]It shall be square and doubled, a span in length and a span in width. [17]You shall set in it four rows of stones. A row of carnelian, chrysolite, and emerald shall be the first row;* [18]and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire,[z] and a moonstone; [19]and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; [20]and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they shall be set in gold filigree. [21]There shall be twelve stones with names corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they shall be like signets, each engraved with its name, for the twelve tribes.* [22]You shall make for the breastpiece chains of pure gold, twisted like cords, [23]and you shall make for the breastpiece two rings of gold and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece. [24]You shall put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece;* [25]the two ends of the two cords you shall attach to the two settings and so attach it in front to the shoulder pieces of the ephod. [26]You shall make two rings of gold and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.[a]* [27]You shall make two rings of gold and attach them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, at its joining above the decorated band of the ephod. [28]The breastpiece shall be bound by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it may lie on the decorated band of the ephod and so that the breastpiece shall not come loose from the ephod. [29]So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment on his heart when he goes into the holy place, for a continual remembrance before the LORD.* [30]In the breastpiece of judgment you shall put the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be on Aaron's heart when he goes in before the LORD; thus Aaron shall bear the judgment of the Israelites on his heart before the LORD continually.*

OTHER PRIESTLY VESTMENTS

31 "You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.* [32]It shall have an opening for the head in the middle of it, with a woven binding around its edge, like the opening in a garment,[b] so that it may not be torn. [33]On its lower hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, all around the lower hem, with bells of gold between them all around —[34]a golden bell and a pomegranate alternating all around the lower hem of the robe. [35]Aaron shall wear it when he ministers, and its sound shall be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD and when he comes out, so that he may not die.

36 "You shall make a rosette of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engraving of a signet, 'Holy to the LORD.'* [37]You shall fasten it on the turban with a blue cord; it shall be on the front of the turban. [38]It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall take on himself any guilt incurred in the holy offerings that the Israelites consecrate as their sacred donations; it shall always be on his forehead, in order that they may find favor before the LORD.*

39 "You shall make the checkered tunic of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash embroidered with needlework.

40 "For Aaron's sons you shall make tunics and sashes and headdresses; you shall make them for their glorious adornment.* [41]You shall put them on your brother Aaron and on his sons with him and shall anoint them and ordain them and consecrate them, so that they may serve me as priests.* [42]You shall make for them linen undergarments to cover their naked flesh; they shall reach from the hips to the thighs;* [43]They shall be worn by Aaron and his sons when they go into the tent of meeting or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place, so that they do not bring guilt on themselves and die. This shall be a perpetual ordinance for him and for his descendants after him.*

Exodus 29

THE ORDINATION OF THE PRIESTS

1 "Now this is what you shall do to them to consecrate them to serve me as priests. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish,* [2]and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil. You shall make them of choice wheat flour.* [3]You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket and bring the bull and the two rams. [4]You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water.* [5]Then you shall take the vestments and put on Aaron the tunic and the robe of the ephod and the ephod and the breastpiece and gird him with the decorated band of the ephod,* [6]and you shall set the turban on his head and put the holy diadem on the turban.*
[7]You shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him.*
[8]Then you shall bring his sons and put tunics on them,* [9]and you shall gird them, Aaron and his sons, with sashes and tie headdresses on them, and the priesthood shall be theirs by a perpetual ordinance. You shall then ordain Aaron and his sons.*

10 "You shall bring the bull in front of the tent of meeting. Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull,* [11]and you shall slaughter the bull before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, [12]and shall take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and all the rest of the blood you shall pour out at the base of the altar.* [13]You shall take all the fat that covers the entrails and the appendage of the liver and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them and turn them into smoke on the altar.* [14]But the flesh of the bull and its skin and its dung you shall burn with fire outside the camp. It is a purification offering.*

15 "Then you shall take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram,* [16]and you shall slaughter the ram and shall take its blood and dash it against all sides of the altar. [17]Then you shall cut the ram into its parts and wash its entrails and its legs and put them with its parts and its head [18]and turn the rest of the ram into smoke on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD; it is a pleasing odor, an offering by fire[c] to the LORD.*

19 "You shall take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram, [20]and you shall slaughter the ram and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear and on the lobes of the right ears of his sons and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet and dash the rest of the blood against all sides of the altar. [21]Then you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his vestments and on his sons and his sons' vestments with him; then he and his vestments shall be holy, as well as his sons and his sons' vestments with him.*

22 "You shall also take the fat of the ram, the fatty tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the appendage of the liver, the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ordination), [23]and one loaf of bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer, out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD,* [24]and you shall place all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons and raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD.* [25]Then you shall take them from their hands and turn them into smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering for a pleasing odor before the LORD. It is an offering by fire[d] to the LORD.*

26 "You shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's ordination and raise it as an elevation offering before the LORD, and it shall be your portion.* [27]You shall consecrate the breast that was raised as an elevation offering and the thigh that was lifted up as an offering from the ram of ordination, from that which belonged to Aaron and his sons.* [28]These things shall be a perpetual ordinance for Aaron and his sons from the Israelites, for this is an offering, and it shall be an offering by the Israelites from their sacrifice of offerings of well-being, their offering to the LORD.*

29 "The sacred vestments of Aaron shall be passed on to his sons after him; they shall be anointed in them and ordained in them.* [30]The son who is priest in his place shall wear them seven days when he comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.*

31 "You shall take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place,* [32]and Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance of the tent of meeting.* [33]They shall eat the food by which atonement is made, to ordain and consecrate them, but no one else shall eat of it, because it is holy.* 34If any of the flesh for the ordination or of the bread remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.*

35 "Thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, just as I have commanded you; through seven days you shall ordain them.* 36Also every day you shall offer a bull as a purification offering for atonement. Also you shall offer a sin offering for the altar, when you make atonement for it, and shall anoint it, to consecrate it.* 37Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and consecrate it, and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall become holy.*

THE DAILY OFFERINGS

38 "Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old regularly each day.* 39One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer in the evening, 40and with the first lamb one-tenth of a measure of choice flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering. 41And the other lamb you shall offer in the evening and shall offer with it a grain offering and its drink offering, as in the morning, for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire[e] to the LORD. 42It shall be a regular burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there.* 43I will meet with the Israelites there, and it shall be sanctified by my glory;* 44I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar; Aaron also and his sons I will consecrate to serve me as priests.* 45I will dwell among the Israelites, and I will be their God.* 46And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt that I might dwell among them; I am the LORD their God.*

Exodus 30

THE ALTAR OF INCENSE

1 "You shall make an altar on which to offer incense; you shall make it of acacia wood.* [2]It shall be one cubit long and one cubit wide; it shall be square and shall be two cubits high; its horns shall be of one piece with it.
[3]You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top and its sides all around and its horns, and you shall make for it a molding of gold all around. [4]And you shall make two golden rings for it; under its molding on two opposite sides of it you shall make them, and they shall hold the poles for carrying it. [5]You shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. [6]You shall place it in front of the curtain that is above the ark of the covenant, in front of the cover that is over the covenant, where I will meet with you.* [7]Aaron shall offer fragrant incense on it; every morning when he dresses the lamps he shall offer it,* [8]and when Aaron sets up the lamps in the evening, he shall offer it, a regular incense offering before the LORD throughout your generations. [9]You shall not offer unholy incense on it or a burnt offering or a grain offering, and you shall not pour a drink offering on it.* [10]Once a year Aaron shall perform the rite of atonement on its horns. Throughout your generations he shall perform the atonement for it once a year with the blood of the atoning purification offering. It is most holy to the LORD."*

THE HALF SHEKEL FOR THE SANCTUARY

11 The LORD spoke to Moses, [12]"When you take a census of the Israelites to register them, at registration all of them shall give a ransom for their lives to the LORD, so that no plague may come upon them for being registered.*
[13]This is what each one who is registered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as an offering to the LORD.* [14]Each one who is registered, from twenty years old and up, shall give the LORD's offering. [15]The rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than the half shekel, when you bring this offering to the LORD to make atonement for your lives.* [16]You shall take the atonement money from the Israelites and shall designate it for the service of the tent of meeting; before the LORD it will be a reminder to the Israelites of the ransom given for your lives."*

THE BRONZE BASIN

17 The LORD spoke to Moses, [18]"You shall make a bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing. You shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it;* [19]with the water[f] Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet.* [20]When they go into the tent of meeting or when they come near the altar to minister to make an offering by fire[g] to the LORD, they shall wash with water, so that they may not die. [21]They shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they may not die: it shall be a perpetual ordinance for them, for him and for his descendants throughout their generations."*

THE ANOINTING OIL AND INCENSE

22 The LORD spoke to Moses, [23]"Take the finest spices: of liquid myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet-smelling cinnamon half as much, that is, two hundred fifty, and two hundred fifty of aromatic cane, [24]and five hundred of cassia—measured by the sanctuary shekel—and a hin of olive oil, [25]and you shall make of these a sacred anointing oil blended as by the perfumer; it shall be a holy anointing oil.* [26]With it you shall anoint the tent of meeting and the ark of the covenant* [27]and the table and all its utensils and the lampstand and its utensils and the altar of incense [28]and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils and the basin with its stand; [29]you shall consecrate them, so that they may be most holy; whatever touches them will become holy.* [30]You shall anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them to serve me as priests.* [31]You shall say to the Israelites: This shall be my holy anointing oil throughout your generations. [32]It shall not be used in any ordinary anointing of the body, and you shall make no other like it in composition; it is holy, and it shall be holy to you.* [33]Whoever blends any like it or whoever puts any of it on an unqualified person shall be cut off from the people."*

34 The LORD said to Moses, "Take sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum, sweet spices with pure frankincense (an equal part of each), [35]and make an incense blended as by the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy,* [36]and you shall beat some of it into powder and put part of it before the covenant in the tent of meeting, where I shall meet with you; it shall be most holy for you.* [37]When you make incense according to this composition, you shall not make it for yourselves; it shall be regarded by you as holy to the LORD. [38]Whoever makes any like it to use as perfume shall be cut off from the people."

Exodus 31

BEZALEL AND OHOLIAB

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, [2]"See, I have called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,* [3]and I have filled him with a divine spirit,[h] with ability, intelligence, and knowledge, and every kind of skill, [4]to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze, [5]in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, to work in every kind of craft. [6]Moreover, I have appointed with him Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, and I have given skill to all the skillful, so that they may make all that I have commanded you:* [7]the tent of meeting, and the ark of the covenant, and the cover that is on it, and all the furnishings of the tent,* [8]the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense,* [9]and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its stand, [10]and the finely worked vestments, the holy vestments for the priest Aaron and the vestments of his sons, for their service as priests, [11]and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense for the holy place. They shall do just as I have commanded you."*

THE SABBATH LAW

12 The LORD said to Moses, [13]"You yourself are to speak to the Israelites, 'You shall surely keep my Sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, given in order that you may know that I, the LORD, sanctify you.* [14]You shall keep the Sabbath, because it is holy for you; everyone who profanes it shall be put to death; whoever does any work on it shall be cut off from among the people.* [15]Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD; whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall be put to death.* [16]Therefore the Israelites shall keep the Sabbath, observing the Sabbath throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant. [17]It is a sign forever between me and the Israelites that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed.' "*

THE TWO TABLETS OF THE COVENANT

18 When God[i] finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the covenant, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.[*]

Exodus 32

THE GOLDEN CALF

1 When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron and said to him, "Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."* 2Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters and bring them to me."* 3So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears and brought them to Aaron.
4He took these from them, formed them in a mold,[j] and cast an image of a calf, and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"* 5When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it, and Aaron made a proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD." 6They rose early the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being, and the people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to revel.*

7 The LORD said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely;* 8they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' "* 9The LORD said to Moses, "I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are.* 10Now let me alone so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them, and of you I will make a great nation."*

11 But Moses implored the LORD his God and said, "O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?* 12Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people.* 13Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.' "* 14And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.*

15 Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain, carrying the two tablets of the covenant in his hands, tablets that were written on both sides, written on the front and on the back.* 16The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved upon the tablets.* 17When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is a noise of war in the camp." 18But he said, "It is not the sound made by victors or the sound made by losers; it is the sound of singing that I hear."

21 Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?"* 22And Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord burn hot; you know the people, that they are wicked.* 23They said to me, 'Make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'* 24So I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, take it off'; so they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!"*

25 When Moses saw that the people were out of control (for Aaron had lost control of them, prompting derision among their enemies), 26then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, "Who is on the LORD's side? Come to me!" And all the sons of Levi gathered around him. 27He said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Put your sword on your side, each of you! Go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and each of you kill your brother, your friend, and your neighbor."* 28The sons of Levi did as Moses commanded, and about three thousand of the people fell on that day. [29]Moses said, "Today you have been ordained for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of a son or a brother, and so have brought a blessing on yourselves this day."

30 On the next day Moses said to the people, "You have sinned a great sin. But now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."* [31]So Moses returned to the LORD and said, "Alas, this people has sinned a great sin; they have made for themselves gods of gold.* [32]But now, if you will only forgive their sin—but if not, please blot me out of the book that you have written."* [33]But the LORD said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me I will blot out of my book.* [34]But now go, lead the people to the place about which I have spoken to you; see, my angel shall go in front of you. Nevertheless, when the day for punishment comes, I will punish them for their sin."*

35 Then the LORD sent a plague on the people, because they made the calf —the one that Aaron had made.*

Exodus 33

THE COMMAND TO LEAVE SINAI

1 The LORD said to Moses, "Go, leave this place, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, and go to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'To your descendants I will give it.'* [2]I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.* [3]Go up[k] to a land flowing with milk and honey, but I will not go up among you, or I would consume you on the way, for you are a stiff-necked people."*

4 When the people heard these harsh words, they mourned, and no one put on ornaments.* [5]For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people; if for a single moment I should go up among you, I would consume you. So now take off your ornaments, and I will decide what to do to you.' " [6]Therefore the Israelites stripped themselves of their ornaments, from Mount Horeb onward.

THE TENT OUTSIDE THE CAMP

7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp; he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.*
[8]Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise and stand, each of them, at the entrance of their tents and watch Moses until he had gone into the tent.* [9]When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent, and the LORD[l] would speak with Moses.* [10]When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise and bow down, all of them, at the entrance of their tent. [11]Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend. Then he would return to the camp, but his young assistant, Joshua son of Nun, would not leave the tent.*

MOSES'S INTERCESSION

12 Moses said to the LORD, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people,' but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.'* 13Now if I have found favor in your sight, please show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider, too, that this nation is your people."* 14He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."* 15And he said to him, "If your presence will not go, do not bring us up from here. 16For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth."*

17 The LORD said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have asked, for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."* 18Moses[m] said, "Please show me your glory." 19And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you and will proclaim before you the name, 'The LORD,'[n] and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.* 20But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one shall see me and live."* 21And the LORD continued, "See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock, 22and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; 23then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back, but my face shall not be seen."*

Exodus 34

MOSES MAKES NEW TABLETS

1 The LORD said to Moses, "Cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you broke.* 2Be ready in the morning and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain.*
3No one shall come up with you, and do not let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain, and do not let flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain."* 4So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and he rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. 5The LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there and proclaimed the name, "The LORD."o,* 6The LORD passed before him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD,

a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger,
and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness,* 7keeping steadfast love for the thousandth generation,p forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, yet by no means clearing the guilty, but visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children and the children's children to the third and the fourth generation."*

8And Moses quickly bowed down to the ground and worshiped.* 9He said, "If now I have found favor in your sight, my Lord, I pray, let my Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."*

THE COVENANT RENEWED

10 He said, "I hereby make a covenant. Before all your people I will perform marvels, such as have not been done[q] in all the earth or in any nation, and all the people among whom you live shall see the work of the LORD, for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you.*

11 "Observe what I command you today. See, I will drive out before you the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.* 12Take care not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land to which you are going, or it will become a snare among you.* 13Rather, you shall tear down their altars, break their pillars, and cut down their sacred poles,[r],* 14for you shall worship no other god, because the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.* 15You shall not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to their gods, someone among them will invite you, and you will eat of the sacrifice,* 16and you will take wives from among their daughters for your sons, and their daughters who prostitute themselves to their gods will make your sons also prostitute themselves to their gods.*

17 "You shall not make cast idols.*

18 "You shall keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib, for in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.*

19 "All that first opens the womb is mine, all your male[s] livestock, the firstborn of cow and sheep.* 20The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, or if you will not redeem it you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem.

"No one shall appear before me empty-handed.*

21 "Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even in plowing time and in harvest time you shall rest.* 22You shall observe the Festival of Weeks, the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the Festival of Ingathering at the turn of the year.* 23Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.* 24For I will cast out nations before you and enlarge your borders; no one shall covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

25 "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven, and the sacrifice of the festival of the Passover shall not be left until the morning.*

26 "The best of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God.

"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk."*

27 The LORD said to Moses, "Write these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel."* [28]He was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.t,*

THE SHINING FACE OF MOSES

29 Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God.* [30]When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. [31]But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. [32]Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.* [33]When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face,* [34]but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would take the veil off until he came out, and when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded,* [35]the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining, and Moses would put the veil on his face again until he went in to speak with him.

Exodus 35

SABBATH REGULATIONS

1 Moses assembled all the congregation of the Israelites and said to them, "These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do:*

2 "Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy Sabbath of solemn rest to the LORD; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.* [3]You shall kindle no fire in all your dwellings on the Sabbath day."*

PREPARATIONS FOR MAKING THE TABERNACLE

4 Moses said to all the congregation of the Israelites, "This is the thing that the LORD has commanded:* [5]Take from among you an offering to the LORD; let whoever is of a generous heart bring the LORD's offering: gold, silver, and bronze; [6]blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine linen; goats' hair, [7]tanned rams' skins, and fine leather;[u] acacia wood, [8]oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense, [9]and onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and the breastpiece.

10 "All who are skillful among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: [11]the tabernacle, its tent and its covering, its clasps and its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;* [12]the ark with its poles, the cover, and the curtain for the screen; [13]the table with its poles and all its utensils and the bread of the Presence;* [14]and the lampstand for the light, with its utensils and its lamps and the oil for the light; [15]and the altar of incense, with its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance, the entrance of the tabernacle;* [16]the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin with its stand; [17]the hangings of the court, its pillars and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court; [18]the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court and their cords; [19]the finely worked vestments for ministering in the holy place, the holy vestments for the priest Aaron, and the vestments of his sons, for their service as priests."*

OFFERINGS FOR THE TABERNACLE

20 Then all the congregation of the Israelites withdrew from the presence of Moses. 21And they came, everyone whose heart was stirred and everyone whose spirit was willing, and brought the LORD's offering to be used for the tent of meeting and for all its service and for the sacred vestments.* 22So they came, both men and women; all who were of a willing heart brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and pendants, all sorts of gold objects, everyone bringing an offering of gold to the LORD. 23And everyone who possessed blue or purple or crimson yarn or fine linen or goats' hair or tanned rams' skins or fine leather[v] brought them.* 24Everyone who could make an offering of silver or bronze brought it as the LORD's offering, and everyone who possessed acacia wood of any use in the work brought it.
25All the skillful women spun with their hands and brought what they had spun in blue and purple and crimson yarns and fine linen;* 26all the women whose hearts moved them to use their skill spun the goats' hair. 27And the leaders brought onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and the breastpiece* 28and spices and oil for the light and for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.* 29All the Israelite men and women whose hearts made them willing to bring anything for the work that the LORD had commanded by Moses to be done brought it as a freewill offering to the

BEZALEL AND OHOLIAB

30 Then Moses said to the Israelites, "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;* 31he has filled him with a divine spirit,[w] with ability, intelligence, and knowledge, and with every kind of skill, 32to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze, 33in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, in every kind of artistic craft. 34And he has inspired him to teach, both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. 35He has filled them with skill to do every kind of work done by an artisan or by a designer or by an embroiderer in blue, purple, and crimson yarns and in fine linen or by a weaver—by any sort of skilled worker or designer.*

Exodus 36

1 "Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD has given skill and understanding to know how to do any work in the construction of the sanctuary shall work in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded."*

2 Moses then called Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD had given skill, everyone whose heart was stirred to come to do the work,* [3]and they received from Moses all the offerings that the Israelites had brought for the work of constructing the sanctuary. They still kept bringing him freewill offerings every morning,* [4]so that all the skilled workers who were doing every sort of task on the sanctuary came, each from the task being performed, [5]and said to Moses, "The people are bringing much more than enough for doing the work that the LORD has commanded us to do."* [6]So Moses gave command, and word was proclaimed throughout the camp: "No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing, [7]for what they had already brought was more than enough to do all the work.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE TABERNACLE

8 All those with skill among the workers made the tabernacle with ten curtains; they were made of fine twisted linen and blue, purple, and crimson yarns, with cherubim skillfully worked into them.* [9]The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains were of the same size.

10 He joined five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he joined to one another. [11]He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain of the first set; likewise he made them on the edge of the outermost curtain of the second set; [12]he made fifty loops on the one curtain, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set; the loops were opposite one another.* [13]And he made fifty clasps of gold and joined the curtains one to the other with clasps; so the tabernacle was one whole.

14 He also made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.* 15The length of each curtain was thirty cubits and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains were of the same size. 16He joined five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves. 17He made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain of the one set and fifty loops on the edge of the other connecting curtain. 18He made fifty clasps of bronze to join the tent together so that it might be one whole. 19And he made for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and an outer covering of fine leather.x,*

20 Then he made the upright frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood.* 21Ten cubits was the length of a frame and a cubit and a half the width of each frame. 22Each frame had two pegs for fitting together; he did this for all the frames of the tabernacle. 23The frames for the tabernacle he made in this way: twenty frames for the south side, 24and he made forty bases of silver under the twenty frames, two bases under the first frame for its two pegs and two bases under the next frame for its two pegs.* 25For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty frames 26and their forty bases of silver, two bases under the first frame and two bases under the next frame. 27For the rear of the tabernacle westward he made six frames.* 28He made two frames for the corners of the tabernacle in the rear. 29They were separate beneath but joined at the top at the first ring; he made two of them in this way for the two corners. 30There were eight frames with their bases of silver: sixteen bases, under every frame two bases.

31 He made bars of acacia wood: five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,* 32and five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the tabernacle at the rear westward. 33He made the middle bar to pass through from end to end halfway up the frames. 34And he overlaid the frames with gold and made rings of gold for them to hold the bars and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 He made the curtain of blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine twisted linen, with cherubim skillfully worked into it.* 36He made for it four pillars of acacia and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold, and he cast for them four bases of silver. [37]He also made a screen for the entrance to the tent, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework, [38]and its five pillars with their hooks. He overlaid their capitals and their bases with gold, but their five bases were of bronze.

Exodus 37

MAKING THE ARK OF THE COVENANT

1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; it was two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.* [2]He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside and made a molding of gold around it. [3]He cast for it four rings of gold for its four feet, two rings on its one side and two rings on its other side.* [4]He made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold [5]and put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark. [6]He made a cover of pure gold; two cubits and a half was its length and a cubit and a half its width.* [7]He made two cherubim of hammered gold; at the two ends of the cover he made them, [8]one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end; of one piece with the cover he made the cherubim at its two ends. [9]The cherubim spread out their wings above, overshadowing the cover with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were turned toward the cover.

MAKING THE TABLE FOR THE BREAD OF THE PRESENCE

10 He also made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.* [11]He overlaid it with pure gold and made a molding of gold around it. [12]He also made around it a rim a handbreadth wide, and he made a molding of gold around the rim. [13]He cast for it four rings of gold and fastened the rings to the four corners at its four legs. [14]The rings that held the poles used for carrying the table were close to the rim.
[15]He made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table and overlaid them with gold. [16]And he made the vessels of pure gold that were to be on the table, its plates and dishes for incense and its bowls and flagons with which to pour drink offerings.*

MAKING THE LAMPSTAND

17 He also made the lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand were made of hammered work; its cups, its calyxes, and its petals were of one piece with it.* 18There were six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it; 19three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on the other branch—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.* 20On the lampstand itself there were four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyxes and petals. 21There was a calyx of one piece with it under the first pair of branches, a calyx of one piece with it under the next pair of branches, and a calyx of one piece with it under the last pair of branches—so for the six branches going out of it.* 22Their calyxes and their branches were of one piece with it, the whole of it one hammered piece of pure gold.

23He made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its trays of pure gold. 24He made it and all its utensils of a talent of pure gold.

MAKING THE ALTAR OF INCENSE

25 He made the altar of incense of acacia wood, one cubit long and one cubit wide; it was square and was two cubits high; its horns were of one piece with it.* 26He overlaid it with pure gold, its top and its sides all around and its horns, and he made a molding of gold around it 27and two golden rings for it under its molding, on two opposite sides of it, to hold the poles with which to carry it. 28And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

MAKING THE ANOINTING OIL AND THE INCENSE

29 He made the holy anointing oil also and the pure fragrant incense, blended as by the perfumer.*

Exodus 38

MAKING THE ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING

1 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood; it was five cubits long and five cubits wide; it was square and was three cubits high.* [2]He made horns for it on its four corners; its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze. [3]He made all the utensils of the altar: the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans; all its utensils he made of bronze. [4]He made for the altar a grating, a network of bronze, under its ledge, extending halfway down. [5]He cast four rings on the four corners of the bronze grating to hold the poles; [6]he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. [7]And he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it with them; he made it hollow, with boards.

8 He made the basin of bronze with its stand of bronze, from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.*

MAKING THE COURT OF THE TABERNACLE

9 He made the court; for the south side the hangings of the court were of fine twisted linen, one hundred cubits long;* [10]its twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. [11]For the north side there were hangings[y] one hundred cubits long; its twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver.* [12]For the west side there were hangings fifty cubits long, with ten pillars and ten bases; the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. [13]And for the front to the east, fifty cubits. [14]The hangings for one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases.* [15]And likewise for the other side: on each side of the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases. [16]All the hangings around the court were of fine twisted linen. [17]The bases for the pillars were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver; the overlaying of their capitals was also of silver, and all the pillars of the court were banded with silver.

[18]The screen for the entrance to the court was embroidered with needlework in blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine twisted linen. It was twenty cubits long and, along the width of it, five cubits high, corresponding to the hangings of the court.* [19]There were four pillars; their four bases were of bronze, their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their bands of silver. [20]All the pegs for the tabernacle and for the court all around were of bronze.

MATERIALS OF THE TABERNACLE

21 These are the records of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the covenant, which were drawn up at the commandment of Moses, the work of the Levites being under the direction of Ithamar son of the priest Aaron.*
[22]Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses,* [23]and with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, engraver, designer, and embroiderer in blue, purple, and crimson yarns and in fine linen.

24 All the gold that was used for the work, in all the construction of the sanctuary, the gold from the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, measured by the sanctuary shekel.* [25]The silver from those of the congregation who were counted was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, measured by the sanctuary shekel,* [26]a beka a head (that is, half a shekel, measured by the sanctuary shekel) for everyone who was counted in the census, from twenty years old and up, for six hundred three thousand, five hundred fifty men.*
[27]The hundred talents of silver were for casting the bases of the sanctuary and the bases of the curtain, one hundred bases for the hundred talents, one talent per base.* [28]Of the thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars and overlaid their capitals and made bands for them. [29]The bronze offering was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels; [30]with it he made the bases for the entrance of the tent of meeting, the bronze altar and the bronze grating for it and all the utensils of the altar, [31]the bases all around the court, and the bases of the gate of the court, all the pegs of the tabernacle, and all the pegs around the court.

Exodus 39

MAKING THE VESTMENTS FOR THE PRIESTHOOD

1 Of the blue, purple, and crimson yarns they made finely worked vestments, for ministering in the holy place; they made the sacred vestments for Aaron, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

2 He made the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen.* [3]Gold leaf was hammered out and cut into threads to work into the blue, purple, and crimson yarns and into the fine twisted linen, in skilled design. [4]They made for the ephod shoulder pieces, joined to it at its two edges. [5]The decorated band on it was of the same materials and workmanship, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

6 The onyx stones were prepared, enclosed in settings of gold filigree and engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel.* [7]He set them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, to be stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

8 He made the breastpiece, in skilled work, like the work of the ephod, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen.* [9]It was square; the breastpiece was made double, a span in length and a span in width when doubled. [10]They set in it four rows of stones. A row of carnelian,[z] chrysolite, and emerald was the first row; [11]and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire,[a] and a moonstone;* [12]and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; [13]and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they were enclosed in settings of gold filigree. [14]There were twelve stones with names corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they were engraved like signets, each with its name, for the twelve tribes.* [15]They made on the breastpiece chains of pure gold, twisted like cords, [16]and they made two settings of gold filigree and two gold rings and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece,* [17]and they put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece. [18]Two ends of the two cords they had attached to the two settings of filigree; in this way they attached it in front to the shoulder pieces of the ephod. [19]Then they made two rings of gold and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.* 20They made two rings of gold and attached them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, at its joining above the decorated band of the ephod. 21They bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it should lie on the decorated band of the ephod and that the breastpiece should not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

22 He also made the robe of the ephod woven all of blue yarn,* 23and the opening of the robe in the middle of it was like the opening in a garment,[b] with a binding around its edge, so that it might not be torn. 24On the lower hem of the robe they made pomegranates of blue, purple, and crimson yarns and of fine twisted linen.[c] 25They also made bells of pure gold and put the bells between the pomegranates on the lower hem of the robe all around, between the pomegranates, 26a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate all around on the lower hem of the robe for ministering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

27 They also made the tunics, woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons,* 28and the turban of fine linen, and the headdresses of fine linen, and the linen undergarments of fine twisted linen, 29and the sash of fine twisted linen, and of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, embroidered with needlework, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

30 They made the rosette of the holy diadem of pure gold and wrote on it an inscription, like the engraving of a signet, "Holy to the LORD."* 31They tied to it a blue cord, to fasten it on the turban above, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

THE WORK COMPLETED

32 Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished; the Israelites had done everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.* 33Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its utensils, its clasps, its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases; 34the covering of tanned rams' skins and the covering of fine leather[d] and the curtain for the screen; 35the ark of the covenant with its poles and the cover;* 36the table with all its utensils and the bread of the Presence; 37the pure lampstand with its lamps set on it and all its utensils and the oil for the light; [38]the golden altar, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance of the tent; [39]the bronze altar and its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the basin with its stand; [40]the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, and its pegs; and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting; [41]the finely worked vestments for ministering in the holy place, the sacred vestments for the priest Aaron, and the vestments of his sons to serve as priests.* [42]The Israelites had done all of the work as the LORD had commanded Moses. [43]When Moses saw that they had done all the work as the LORD had commanded, he blessed them.*

Exodus 40

THE TABERNACLE ERECTED AND ITS EQUIPMENT INSTALLED

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, [2]"On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.* [3]You shall put in it the ark of the covenant, and you shall screen the ark with the curtain.* [4]You shall bring in the table and arrange its setting, and you shall bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps. [5]You shall put the golden altar for incense before the ark of the covenant and set up the screen for the entrance of the tabernacle. [6]You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting [7]and place the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it. [8]You shall set up the court all around and hang up the screen for the gate of the court. [9]Then you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it and consecrate it and all its furniture, so that it shall become holy.* [10]You shall also anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils and consecrate the altar, so that the altar shall be most holy.* [11]You shall also anoint the basin with its stand and consecrate it. [12]Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water* [13]and put on Aaron the sacred vestments, and you shall anoint him and consecrate him, so that he may serve me as priest.* [14]You shall bring his sons also and put tunics on them [15]and anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may serve me as priests; their anointing shall admit them to a perpetual priesthood throughout all their generations."*

16 Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him. [17]In the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was set up. [18]Moses set up the tabernacle; he laid its bases and set up its frames and put in its poles and raised up its pillars, [19]and he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent over it as the LORD had commanded Moses. [20]He took the covenant and put it into the ark and put the poles on the ark and set the cover above the ark,* [21]and he brought the ark into the tabernacle and set up the curtain for screening and screened the ark of the covenant as the LORD had commanded Moses.* 22He put the table in the tent of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the curtain,* 23and set the bread in order on it before the LORD as the LORD had commanded Moses.* 24He put the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle, 25and set up the lamps before the LORD as the LORD had commanded Moses.* 26He put the golden altar in the tent of meeting before the curtain* 27and offered fragrant incense on it as the LORD had commanded Moses. 28He also put in place the screen for the entrance of the tabernacle.* 29He set the altar of burnt offering at the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering as the LORD had commanded Moses. 30He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing,* 31with which Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet. 32When they went into the tent of meeting and when they approached the altar, they washed as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

33He set up the court around the tabernacle and the altar and put up the screen at the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

THE CLOUD AND THE GLORY

34 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.* 35Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud settled upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. 36Whenever the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out on each stage of their journey,* 37but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day that it was taken up.
38For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud[e] by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel at each stage of their journey.*

Leviticus 1

THE BURNT OFFERING

1 The LORD summoned Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When any of you bring an offering of livestock to the LORD, you shall bring your offering from the herd or from the flock.*

3 "If the offering is a burnt offering from the herd, you shall offer a male without blemish; you shall bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, for acceptance on your behalf before the LORD.* [4]You shall lay your hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be acceptable on your behalf as atonement for you.* [5]The bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall offer the blood, dashing the blood against all sides of the altar that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.* [6]The burnt offering shall be flayed and cut up into its parts. [7]The sons of the priest Aaron shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.* [8]Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the parts, with the head and the suet, on the wood that is on the fire on the altar, [9]but its entrails and its legs shall be washed with water. Then the priest shall turn the rest into smoke on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering by fire[a] of pleasing odor to the LORD.*

10 "If your gift for a burnt offering is from the flock, from the sheep or goats, your offering shall be a male without blemish. [11]It shall be slaughtered on the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar.* [12]It shall be cut up into its parts, with its head and its suet, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood that is on the fire on the altar, [13]but the entrails and the legs shall be washed with water. Then the priest shall offer the rest and turn it into smoke on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire[b] of pleasing odor to the LORD.

14 “If your offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, you shall choose your offering from turtledoves or pigeons.* 15The priest shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head and turn it into smoke on the altar, and its blood shall be drained out against the side of the altar.* 16He shall remove its entrails close to its tail feathers and throw it at the east side of the altar, in the place for ashes.* 17He shall tear it open by its wings without severing it. Then the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire[c] of pleasing odor to the LORD.*

Leviticus 2

GRAIN OFFERINGS

1 "When anyone presents a grain offering to the LORD, the offering shall be of choice flour; the worshiper shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it* 2and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. After taking from it a handful of the choice flour and oil, with all its frankincense, the priest shall turn this token portion into smoke on the altar, an offering by fire[d] of pleasing odor to the LORD.* 3And what is left of the grain offering shall be for Aaron and his sons, a most holy part of the offerings by fire[e] to the LORD.*

4 "When you present a grain offering baked in the oven, it shall be of choice flour: unleavened cakes mixed with oil or unleavened wafers spread with oil. 5If your offering is grain prepared on a griddle, it shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, unleavened; 6break it in pieces and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering. 7If your offering is grain prepared in a pan, it shall be made of choice flour in oil. 8You shall bring to the LORD the grain offering that is prepared in any of these ways, and when it is presented to the priest, he shall take it to the altar. 9The priest shall remove from the grain offering its token portion and turn this into smoke on the altar, an offering by fire[f] of pleasing odor to the LORD.* 10And what is left of the grain offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings by fire[g] to the LORD.*

11 "No grain offering that you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you must not turn any leaven or honey into smoke as an offering by fire[h] to the LORD.* 12You may bring them to the LORD as an offering of choice products, but they shall not be offered on the altar for a pleasing odor.* 13All your grain offerings you shall season with salt; you shall not omit from your grain offerings the salt of the covenant with your God; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.*

14 "If you bring a grain offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall bring as the grain offering of your first fruits crushed new grain from fresh ears, roasted in fire.* 15You shall add oil to it and lay frankincense on it; it is a grain offering. 16And the priest shall turn a token portion of it into smoke—some of the crushed grain and oil with all its frankincense; it is an offering by fire[i] to the LORD.[*]

Leviticus 3

OFFERINGS OF WELL-BEING

1 "If the offering is a sacrifice of well-being, if you offer an animal from the herd, whether male or female, you shall offer one without blemish before the LORD.* 2You shall lay your hand on the head of the offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and Aaron's sons the priests shall dash the blood against all sides of the altar.* 3You shall offer from the sacrifice of well-being, as an offering by fire[j] to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails,* 4the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys. 5Then Aaron's sons shall turn these into smoke on the altar, with the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire, as an offering by fire[k] of pleasing odor to the LORD.*

6 "If your offering for a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD is from the flock, male or female, you shall offer one without blemish.* 7If you present a sheep as your offering, you shall bring it before the LORD* 8and lay your hand on the head of the offering. It shall be slaughtered before the tent of meeting, and Aaron's sons shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar.* 9You shall present its fat from the sacrifice of well-being, as an offering by fire[l] to the LORD: the whole fatty tail, which shall be removed close to the backbone, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails, 10the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys.* 11Then the priest shall turn these into smoke on the altar as a food offering by fire[m] to the LORD.*

12 "If your offering is a goat, you shall bring it before the LORD 13and lay your hand on its head; it shall be slaughtered before the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar. 14You shall present as your offering from it, as an offering by fire[n] to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails, 15the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys. 16Then the priest shall turn these into smoke on the altar as a food offering by fire[o] for a pleasing odor.

"All fat is the LORD's.[] [17]It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, in all your settlements: you must not eat any fat or any blood."[]

PURIFICATION OFFERINGS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites, saying: When anyone sins unintentionally in any of the LORD's commandments about things not to be done and does any one of them:*

3 "If it is the anointed priest who sins, thus bringing guilt on the people, he shall offer for the sin that he has committed a bull of the herd as a purification offering to the LORD.* [4]He shall bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD and lay his hand on the head of the bull; the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD.* [5]The anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull and bring it into the tent of meeting.* [6]The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the curtain of the sanctuary. [7]The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is in the tent of meeting before the LORD, and the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.* [8]He shall remove all the fat from the bull of purification offering: the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails,* [9]the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys, [10]just as these are removed from the ox of the sacrifice of well-being. The priest shall turn them into smoke upon the altar of burnt offering. [11]But the skin of the bull and all its flesh, as well as its head, its legs, its entrails, and its dung—[12]all the rest of the bull—he shall carry out to a clean place outside the camp, to the ash heap, and shall burn it on a wood fire; at the ash heap it shall be burned.*

13 "If the whole congregation of Israel errs unintentionally, and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, and they do any one of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done and incur guilt,* [14]when the sin that they have committed becomes known, the assembly shall offer a bull of the herd for a purification offering and bring it before the tent of meeting.* [15]The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD.* 16The anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bull into the tent of meeting, 17and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, in front of the curtain.* 18He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting, and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 19He shall remove all its fat and turn it into smoke on the altar. 20He shall do with the bull just as is done with the bull of purification offering; he shall do the same with this. The priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.* 21He shall carry the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the purification offering for the assembly.

22 "When a ruler sins, doing unintentionally any one of all the things that by the commandments of the LORD his God ought not to be done and incurs guilt,* 23once the sin that he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a male goat without blemish.* 24He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat; it shall be slaughtered at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD; it is a purification offering. 25The priest shall take some of the blood of the purification offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.* 26All its fat he shall turn into smoke on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of well-being. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin, and he shall be forgiven.*

27 "If anyone of the ordinary people among you sins unintentionally in doing any one of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done and incurs guilt,* 28when the sin that you have committed is made known to you, you shall bring a female goat without blemish as your offering, for the sin that you have committed.* 29You shall lay your hand on the head of the purification offering; the purification offering shall be slaughtered at the place of the burnt offering.* 30The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar. 31He shall remove all its fat, as the fat is removed from the sacrifice of well-being, and the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar for a pleasing odor to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf, and you shall be forgiven.

32 "If the offering you bring as a purification offering is a sheep, you shall bring a female without blemish.* [33]You shall lay your hand on the head of the purification offering; it shall be slaughtered as a purification offering at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered. [34]The priest shall take some of the blood of the purification offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar. [35]You shall remove all its fat, as the fat of the sheep is removed from the sacrifice of well-being, and the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar, with the offerings by fire[p] to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the sin that you have committed, and you shall be forgiven.*

1 "When any of you sin in that you have heard a public adjuration to testify and, although able to testify as one who has seen or learned of the matter, do not speak up, you are subject to punishment.* [2]Or when any of you touch any unclean thing, whether the carcass of an unclean beast or the carcass of unclean livestock or the carcass of an unclean swarming thing, and are unaware of it, you have become unclean and are guilty.* [3]Or when you touch human uncleanness—any uncleanness by which one can become unclean—and are unaware of it, when you come to know it, you shall be guilty. [4]Or when any of you utter aloud a rash oath for a bad or a good purpose, whatever people utter in an oath and are unaware of it, when you come to know it, you shall in any of these be guilty. [5]When you realize your guilt in any of these, you shall confess the sin that you have committed,* [6]and you shall bring to the LORD, as your penalty for the sin that you have committed, a female from the flock, a sheep or a goat, as a purification offering, and the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for your sin.

7 "But if you cannot afford a sheep, you shall bring to the LORD, as your penalty for the sin that you have committed, two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a purification offering and the other for a burnt offering.* [8]You shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the purification offering, wringing its head at the nape without severing it.* [9]He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the purification offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a purification offering.* [10]And the second he shall offer for a burnt offering according to the regulation. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the sin that you have committed, and you shall be forgiven.*

11 "But if you cannot afford two turtledoves or two pigeons, you shall bring as your offering for the sin that you have committed one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour for a purification offering; you shall not put oil on it or lay frankincense on it, for it is a purification offering.* [12]You shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall scoop up a handful of it as its memorial portion and turn this into smoke on the altar, with the offerings by fire[q] to the LORD; it is a purification offering. 13Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for whichever of these sins you have committed, and you shall be forgiven. As with the grain offering, the rest shall be for the priest."*

OFFERINGS WITH RESTITUTION

14 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 15"When any of you commit a trespass and sin unintentionally against any of the holy things of the LORD, you shall bring, as your guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, convertible into silver by the sanctuary shekel; it is a guilt offering.* 16And you shall make restitution for the holy thing in which you were remiss and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. The priest shall make atonement on your behalf with the ram of the guilt offering, and you shall be forgiven.*

17 "If any of you sin without knowing it, doing any of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done, you have incurred guilt and are subject to punishment.* 18You shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, or the equivalent, as a guilt offering, and the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the error that you committed unintentionally, and you shall be forgiven.* 19It is a guilt offering; you have incurred guilt before the LORD."

Leviticus 6

1 [r]The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"When any of you sin and commit a trespass against the LORD by deceiving a neighbor in a matter of a deposit or a pledge or by robbery or if you have defrauded a neighbor* [3]or have found something lost and lied about it—if you swear falsely regarding any of the various things that one may do and sin*—[4]when you have sinned and recognize your guilt and would restore what you took by robbery or by fraud or the deposit that was committed to you or the lost thing that you found [5]or anything else about which you have sworn falsely, you shall repay the principal amount and add one-fifth to it. You shall pay it to its owner when you recognize your guilt.* [6]And you shall bring to the priest, as your guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, or its equivalent, for a guilt offering.* [7]The priest shall make atonement on your behalf before the LORD, and you shall be forgiven for any of the things that one may do and incur guilt thereby."*

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING SACRIFICES

8 [s]The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [9]"Command Aaron and his sons: This is the rule of the burnt offering. The burnt offering itself shall remain on the hearth upon the altar all night until the morning, while the fire on the altar shall be kept burning. [10]The priest shall put on his linen vestments after putting on his linen undergarments next to his body, and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has reduced the burnt offering on the altar and place them beside the altar.* [11]Then he shall take off his vestments and put on other garments and carry the ashes out to a clean place outside the camp.
[12]The fire on the altar shall be kept burning; it shall not go out. Every morning the priest shall add wood to it, lay out the burnt offering on it, and turn into smoke the fat pieces of the offerings of well-being. [13]A perpetual fire shall be kept burning on the altar; it shall not go out.

14 "This is the rule of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, in front of the altar.* [15]They shall take from it a handful of the choice flour and oil of the grain offering, with all the frankincense that is on the offering, and they shall turn its memorial portion into smoke on the altar as a pleasing odor to the LORD. 16Aaron and his sons shall eat what is left of it; it shall be eaten as unleavened cakes in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting they shall eat it.* 17It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings by fire;[t] it is most holy, like the purification offering and the guilt offering.* 18Every male among the descendants of Aaron shall eat of it, as their perpetual due throughout your generations, from the LORD's offerings by fire;[u] anything that touches them shall become holy."*

19 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 20"This is the offering that Aaron and his sons shall offer to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.* 21It shall be made with oil on a griddle; you shall bring it well soaked, as a grain offering of baked[v] pieces, and you shall present it as a pleasing odor to the LORD.* 22And so the priest, anointed from among Aaron's descendants as a successor, shall prepare it; it is the LORD's—a perpetual due—to be turned entirely into smoke. 23Every grain offering of a priest shall be wholly burned; it shall not be eaten."

24 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 25"Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the rule of the purification offering. The purification offering shall be slaughtered before the LORD at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is most holy.* 26The priest who offers it as a purification offering shall eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the tent of meeting.* 27Whatever touches its flesh shall become holy, and when any of its blood is spattered on a garment, you shall wash the bespattered part in a holy place.* 28A clay vessel in which it was boiled shall be broken, but if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, that shall be scoured and rinsed in water.* 29Every male among the priests shall eat of it; it is most holy.* 30But no purification offering shall be eaten from which any blood is brought into the tent of meeting for atonement in the holy place; it shall be burned with fire.*

Leviticus 7

1 "This is the rule of the guilt offering; it is most holy.* [2]At the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered, they shall slaughter the guilt offering, and its blood shall be dashed against all sides of the altar.* [3]All its fat shall be offered: the fatty tail, the fat that covers the entrails, [4]the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which shall be removed with the kidneys.* [5]The priest shall turn them into smoke on the altar as an offering by fire[w] to the LORD; it is a guilt offering. [6]Every male among the priests shall eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.*

7 "The guilt offering is like the purification offering; the same rule applies to them: the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.* [8]So, too, the priest who offers a burnt offering for anyone shall keep the skin of the burnt offering that he has offered. [9]And every grain offering baked in the oven and all that is prepared in a pan or on a griddle shall belong to the priest who offers it.* [10]But every other grain offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron equally.

FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS

11 "This is the rule of the sacrifice of well-being that one may offer to the LORD. [12]If you offer it for thanksgiving, you shall offer with the thank offering unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of choice flour well soaked in oil. [13]With your thanksgiving sacrifice of well-being you shall bring your offering with cakes of leavened bread. [14]From this you shall offer one cake from each offering, as a gift to the LORD; it shall belong to the priest who dashes the blood of the offering of well-being.* [15]And the flesh of your thanksgiving sacrifice of well-being shall be eaten on the day it is offered; you shall not leave any of it until morning.* [16]But if the sacrifice you offer is a votive offering or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that you offer your sacrifice, and what is left of it shall be eaten the next day,* [17]but what is left of the flesh of the sacrifice shall be burned up on the third day. [18]If any of the flesh of your sacrifice of well-being is eaten on the third day, it shall not be acceptable, nor shall it be credited to the one who offers it; it shall be an abomination, and the one who eats of it shall incur guilt.*

19 "Flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned up. As for other flesh, all who are clean may eat such flesh. [20]But those who eat flesh from the LORD's sacrifice of well-being while in a state of uncleanness shall be cut off from their people.* [21]When any one of you touches any unclean thing—human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean creature—and then eats flesh from the LORD's sacrifice of well-being, you shall be cut off from your people."*

22 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [23]"Speak to the Israelites: You shall eat no fat of ox or sheep or goat.* [24]The fat of an animal that died or was torn by wild animals may be put to any other use, but you must not eat it. [25]If any one of you eats the fat from an animal of which an offering by fire[x] may be made to the LORD, you who eat it shall be cut off from your people. [26]You must not eat any blood whatever, either of bird or of animal, in any of your settlements.* [27]Any one of you who eats any blood shall be cut off from your people."

28 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [29]"Speak to the Israelites: Any one of you who would offer to the LORD your sacrifice of well-being must yourself bring to the LORD your offering from your sacrifice of well-being.* [30]Your own hands shall bring the LORD's offering by fire;[y] you shall bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be raised as an elevation offering before the LORD. [31]The priest shall turn the fat into smoke on the altar, but the breast shall belong to Aaron and his sons.* [32]And the right thigh from your sacrifices of well-being you shall give to the priest as an offering; [33]the one among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood and fat of the offering of well-being shall have the right thigh for a portion. [34]For I have taken the breast of the elevation offering and the thigh that is offered from the Israelites, from their sacrifices of well-being, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons, as a perpetual due from the Israelites.* [35]This is the portion allotted to Aaron and to his sons from the offerings made by fire[z] to the LORD, once they have been brought forward to serve the LORD as priests; [36]these the LORD commanded to be given them, when he anointed them, as a perpetual due from the Israelites throughout their generations."

37 This is the rule of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the purification offering, the guilt offering, the offering of ordination, and the sacrifice of well-being,* 38which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, when he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.*

Leviticus 8

THE RITES OF ORDINATION

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Take Aaron and his sons with him, the vestments, the anointing oil, the bull for the purification offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread;* [3]and assemble the whole congregation at the entrance of the tent of meeting." [4]And Moses did as the LORD had commanded him. When the congregation was assembled at the entrance of the tent of meeting, [5]Moses said to the congregation, "This is what the LORD has commanded to be done."

6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward and washed them with water.* [7]He put the tunic on him, fastened the sash around him, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him. He then put the decorated band of the ephod around him, tying the ephod to him with it. [8]He placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.* [9]And he set the turban on his head, and on the turban, in front, he set the golden ornament, the holy diadem, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

10 Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it and consecrated them.* [11]He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its utensils and the basin and its base, to consecrate them. [12]He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him.* [13]And Moses brought forward Aaron's sons and clothed them with tunics and fastened sashes around them and tied headdresses on them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

14 He led forward the bull of purification offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bull for the purification offering,* [15]and it was slaughtered. Moses took the blood and with his finger put some on each of the horns of the altar, purifying the altar; then he poured out the blood at the base of the altar. Thus he consecrated it, to make atonement for it.* [16]Moses took all the fat that was around the entrails and the appendage of the liver and the two kidneys with their fat and turned them into smoke on the altar.* 17But the bull itself, its skin and flesh and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

18 Then he brought forward the ram of burnt offering. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram,* 19and it was slaughtered. Moses dashed the blood against all sides of the altar. 20The ram was cut into its parts, and Moses turned into smoke the head and the parts and the suet. 21And after the entrails and the legs were washed with water, Moses turned into smoke the rest of the ram on the altar; it was a burnt offering for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire[a] to the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

22 Then he brought forward the second ram, the ram of ordination. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram,* 23and it was slaughtered. Moses took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. 24After Aaron's sons were brought forward, Moses put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet, and Moses dashed the rest of the blood against all sides of the altar. 25He took the fat—the fatty tail, all the fat that was around the entrails, the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat—and the right thigh.* 26From the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD, he took one cake of unleavened bread, one cake of bread with oil, and one wafer and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh.* 27He placed all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons and raised them as an elevation offering before the LORD. 28Then Moses took them from their hands and turned them into smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. This was an ordination offering for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire[b] to the LORD.* 29Moses took the breast and raised it as an elevation offering before the LORD; it was Moses's portion of the ram of ordination, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his vestments and also on his sons and their vestments. Thus he consecrated Aaron and his vestments and also his sons and their vestments.*

31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, as I was commanded, ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it,’* 32and what remains of the flesh and the bread you shall burn with fire.*

33You shall not go outside the entrance of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day when your period of ordination is completed. For it will take seven days to ordain you;* 34as has been done today, the LORD has commanded to be done to make atonement for you.* 35You shall remain at the entrance of the tent of meeting day and night for seven days, keeping the LORD’s charge so that you do not die, for so have I been commanded.” 36Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Leviticus 9

AARON'S PRIESTHOOD INAUGURATED

1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. [2]He said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for a purification offering and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.*
[3]And say to the Israelites, 'Take a male goat for a purification offering; a calf and a lamb, yearlings without blemish, for a burnt offering;* [4]and an ox and a ram for an offering of well-being to sacrifice before the LORD; and a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.' " [5]They brought what Moses commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the whole congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. [6]And Moses said, "This is the thing that the LORD commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."* [7]Then Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar and sacrifice your purification offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and for the people, and sacrifice the offering of the people and make atonement for them, as the LORD has commanded."*

8 Aaron drew near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the purification offering, which was for himself.* [9]The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.*
[10]But the fat, the kidneys, and the appendage of the liver from the purification offering he turned into smoke on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses, [11]and the flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp.*

12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, and he dashed it against all sides of the altar. [13]And they brought him the burnt offering piece by piece and the head, which he turned into smoke on the altar. [14]He washed the entrails and the legs and, with the burnt offering, turned them into smoke on the altar.

15 Next he presented the people's offering. He took the goat of the purification offering that was for the people and slaughtered it and presented it as a purification offering like the first one.* [16]He presented the burnt offering and sacrificed it according to regulation.* 17He presented the grain offering, and, taking a handful of it, he turned it into smoke on the altar, in addition to the burnt offering of the morning.*

18 He slaughtered the ox and the ram as a sacrifice of well-being for the people. Aaron's sons brought him the blood, which he dashed against all sides of the altar,* 19and the fat of the ox and of the ram: the fatty tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the two kidneys and the fat on them,[c] and the appendage of the liver. 20They first laid the fat on the breasts, and the fat was turned into smoke on the altar, 21and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron raised as an elevation offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.*

22 Aaron lifted his hands toward the people and blessed them, and he came down after sacrificing the purification offering, the burnt offering, and the offering of well-being. 23Moses and Aaron entered the tent of meeting and then came out and blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.* 24Fire came out from the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar, and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.*

Leviticus 10

NADAB AND ABIHU

1 Now Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu each took his censer, put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and they offered unholy fire before the LORD, such as he had not commanded them.* 2And fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.* 3Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD meant when he said, 'Through those who are near me I will show myself holy, and before all the people I will be glorified.' "

And Aaron was silent.*

4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Come forward and carry your kinsmen away from the front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp."* 5They came forward and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Moses had ordered. 6And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not dishevel your hair and do not tear your vestments, or you will die, and wrath will strike all the congregation; but your kindred, the whole house of Israel, may mourn the burning that the LORD has sent.* 7You shall not go outside the entrance of the tent of meeting, lest you die, for the anointing oil of the LORD is on you." And they did as Moses had ordered.*

8 And the LORD spoke to Aaron, 9"Drink no wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons, when you enter the tent of meeting, that you may not die; it is a statute forever throughout your generations.* 10You are to distinguish between the holy and the common and between the unclean and the clean,* 11and you are to teach the Israelites all the statutes that the LORD has spoken to them through Moses."*

12 Moses spoke to Aaron and to his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the grain offering that is left from the LORD's offerings by fire,[d] and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy;* 13you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due, from the offerings by fire[e] to the LORD, for so I am commanded. 14But the breast that is elevated and the thigh that is raised, you and your sons and daughters as well may eat in any clean place, for they have been assigned to you and your children from the sacrifices of well-being of the Israelites.* 15The thigh that is raised and the breast that is elevated they shall bring, together with the offerings by fire[f] of the fat, to raise for an elevation offering before the LORD; they are to be your due and that of your children forever, as the LORD has commanded."*

16 Then Moses made inquiry about the goat of the purification offering, and it had already been burned! He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, and said, 17"Why did you not eat the purification offering in the sacred area? For it is most holy, and God[g] has given it to you that you may remove the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement on their behalf before the LORD.* 18Its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. You should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded." 19And Aaron spoke to Moses, "See, today they offered their purification offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, and yet such things as these have befallen me! If I had eaten the purification offering today, would it have been agreeable to the LORD?"* 20And when Moses heard that, he agreed.

Leviticus 11

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN FOODS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them, [2]"Speak to the Israelites:

"From among all the land animals, these are the creatures that you may eat.[] [3]Any animal that has divided hoofs and is cleft-footed and chews the cud—such you may eat. [4]But among those that chew the cud or have divided hoofs, you shall not eat the following: the camel, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you. [5]The rock badger, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you. [6]The hare, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you. [7]The pig, for even though it has divided hoofs and is cleft-footed, it does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you.[] [8]Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean for you.[*]

9 "These you may eat, of all that are in the waters. Everything in the waters that has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the streams—such you may eat.[] [10]But anything in the seas or the streams that does not have fins and scales, of the swarming creatures in the waters and among all the other living creatures that are in the waters—they are detestable to you,[] [11]and detestable they shall remain. Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall regard as detestable. [12]Everything in the waters that does not have fins and scales is detestable to you.

13 "These you shall regard as detestable among the birds. They shall not be eaten; they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey, [14]the buzzard, the kite of any kind; [15]every raven of any kind; [16]the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk of any kind; [17]the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl, [18]the water hen, the desert owl,[h] the carrion vulture, [19]the stork, the heron of any kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.[i]

20 "All winged insects that walk upon all fours are detestable to you. [21]But among the winged insects that walk on all fours you may eat those that have jointed legs above their feet, with which to leap on the ground. [22]Of them you may eat: locusts of every kind, bald locusts of every kind, crickets of every kind, and grasshoppers of every kind.* [23]But all other winged insects that have four feet are detestable to you.

UNCLEAN ANIMALS

24 "By these you shall become unclean; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until the evening, [25]and whoever carries any part of the carcass of any of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.* [26]Every animal that has divided hoofs but is not cleft-footed or does not chew the cud is unclean for you; everyone who touches one of them shall be unclean. [27]All that walk on their paws, among the animals that walk on all fours, are unclean for you; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until the evening, [28]and the one who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean for you.

29 "These are unclean for you among the creatures that swarm upon the earth: the weasel, the mouse, lizards of every kind,* [30]the gecko, the land crocodile, the lizard, the sand lizard, and the chameleon. [31]These are unclean for you among all that swarm; whoever touches one of them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening. [32]And anything upon which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether an article of wood or cloth or leather or sackcloth, any article that is used for any purpose; it shall be dipped in water, and it shall be unclean until the evening, and then it shall be clean.* [33]And if any of them falls into any clay vessel, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break the vessel.* [34]Any food that could be eaten shall be unclean if water from any such vessel comes upon it, and any liquid that could be drunk shall be unclean if it was in any such vessel. [35]Everything on which any part of the carcass falls shall be unclean; whether an oven or stove, it shall be broken in pieces; they are unclean and shall remain unclean for you. [36]But a spring or a cistern holding water shall be clean, while whatever touches the carcass in it shall be unclean. [37]If any part of their carcass falls upon any seed set aside for sowing, it is clean, [38]but if water is put on the seed and any part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.

39 “If an animal of which you may eat dies, anyone who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening. [40]Those who eat of its carcass shall wash their clothes and be unclean until the evening, and those who carry the carcass shall wash their clothes and be unclean until the evening.*

41 “All creatures that swarm upon the earth are detestable; they shall not be eaten.* [42]Whatever moves on its belly and whatever moves on all fours or whatever has many feet, all the creatures that swarm upon the earth you shall not eat, for they are detestable. [43]You shall not make yourselves detestable with any creature that swarms; you shall not defile yourselves with them and so become unclean.* [44]For I am the LORD your God; sanctify yourselves, therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming creature that moves on the earth.* [45]For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt, to be your God; you shall be holy, for I am holy.*

46 “This is the law pertaining to land animal and bird and every living creature that moves through the waters and every creature that swarms upon the earth, [47]to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean and between the living creature that may be eaten and the living creature that may not be eaten.”*

Leviticus 12

PURIFICATION OF WOMEN AFTER CHILDBIRTH

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites, saying:

"If a woman conceives and bears a male child, she shall be unclean seven days; as at the time of her menstruation, she shall be unclean.* [3]On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.* [4]Her time of blood purification shall be thirty-three days; she shall not touch any holy thing or come into the sanctuary until the days of her purification are completed. [5]If she bears a female child, she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation; her time of blood purification shall be sixty-six days.

6 "When the days of her purification are completed, whether for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting a lamb in its first year for a burnt offering and a pigeon or a turtledove for a purification offering.* [7]He shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement on her behalf; then she shall be clean from her flow of blood. This is the law for her who bears a child, male or female. [8]If she cannot afford a sheep, she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a purification offering, and the priest shall make atonement on her behalf, and she shall be clean."*

Leviticus 13

SKIN DISEASE, VARIETIES AND SYMPTOMS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

2 "When a person has on the skin of his body a swelling[j] or an eruption or a spot and it turns into a defiling disease on the skin of his body, he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.* [3]The priest shall examine the disease on the skin of his body, and if the hair in the diseased area has turned white and the disease appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a defiling disease; after the priest has examined him he shall pronounce him unclean. [4]But if the spot is white in the skin of his body and appears no deeper than the skin and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall confine the diseased person for seven days.* [5]The priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if he sees that the disease is checked and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall confine him seven days more. [6]The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the disease has abated and the disease has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption, and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.* [7]But if the eruption spreads in the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again before the priest.* [8]The priest shall make an examination, and if the eruption has spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is defiling.

9 "When a person contracts a defiling skin disease, he shall be brought to the priest. [10]The priest shall make an examination, and if there is a white swelling[k] in the skin that has turned the hair white and there is a patch of raw flesh in the swelling,[l,] [11]it is a chronic defiling disease in the skin of his body. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not confine him, for he is unclean. [12]But if the defiling disease breaks out in the skin so that it covers all the skin of the diseased person from head to foot, so far as the priest can see, [13]then the priest shall make an examination, and if the defiling disease has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean of the disease; since it has all turned white, he is clean. [14]But if raw flesh ever appears on him, he shall be unclean; [15]the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean. Raw flesh is unclean; it is defiling. [16]But if the raw flesh again turns white, he shall come to the priest;* [17]the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has turned white, the priest shall pronounce the diseased person clean. He is clean.

18 "When there is on the skin of one's body a boil that has healed,* [19]and in the place of the boil there appears a white swelling[m] or a reddish-white spot, it shall be shown to the priest.* [20]The priest shall make an examination, and if it appears deeper than the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; this is a defiling disease, broken out in the boil. [21]But if the priest examines it and the hair on it is not white nor is it deeper than the skin but has abated, the priest shall confine him seven days.* [22]If it spreads in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is diseased. [23]But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread, it is the scar of the boil; the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 "Or when the body has a burn on the skin and the patch of the burn becomes a spot, reddish-white or white, [25]the priest shall examine it. If the hair in the spot has turned white and appears deeper than the skin, it is defiling; it has broken out in the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. This is a defiling disease.* [26]But if the priest examines it and the hair in the spot is not white and it is no deeper than the skin but has abated, the priest shall confine him seven days. [27]The priest shall examine him the seventh day; if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. This is a defiling disease.* [28]But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread in the skin but has abated, it is a swelling[n] from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is the scar of the burn.

29 "When a man or a woman has a disease on the head or in the beard,* [30]the priest shall examine the disease. If it appears deeper than the skin and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an itch, a defiling disease of the head or the beard. [31]If the priest examines the itching disease, and it appears no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, the priest shall confine the person with the itching disease for seven days. [32]On the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch; if the itch has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it and the itch appears to be no deeper than the skin,* [33]he shall shave, but the itch he shall not shave.

The priest shall confine the person with the itch for seven days more. [34]On the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch; if the itch has not spread in the skin and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean.* [35]But if the itch spreads in the skin after he was pronounced clean, [36]the priest shall examine him. If the itch has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean.* [37]But if in his eyes the itch is checked and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed; he is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 "When a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots, [39]the priest shall make an examination, and if the spots on the skin of the body are of a dull white, it is a rash that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

40 "If anyone loses the hair from his head, he is bald, but he is clean.* [41]If he loses the hair from his forehead and temples, he has baldness of the forehead, but he is clean. [42]But if there is on the bald head or the bald forehead a reddish-white diseased spot, it is a defiling disease breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead. [43]The priest shall examine him; if the diseased swelling[o] is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, which resembles a defiling disease in the skin of the body, [44]he is defiled; he is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; the disease is on his head.*

45 "The person who has the defiling disease shall wear torn clothes and let the hair of his head be disheveled, and he shall cover his upper lip and cry out, 'Unclean, unclean.' [46]He shall remain unclean as long as he has the disease; he is unclean. He shall live alone; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.*

47 "Concerning clothing: when a defiling disease appears in it, in woolen or linen cloth, [48]in warp or woof of linen or wool or in a skin or in anything made of skin, [49]if the disease shows greenish or reddish in the garment, whether in warp or woof or in skin or in anything made of skin, it is a defiling disease and shall be shown to the priest. [50]The priest shall examine the disease and put the diseased article aside for seven days. [51]He shall examine the disease on the seventh day. If the disease has spread in the cloth, in warp or woof, or in the skin, whatever be the use of the skin, this is a spreading defiling disease; it is unclean.* 52He shall burn the clothing, whether diseased in warp or woof, woolen or linen, or anything of skin, for it is a spreading defiling disease; it shall be burned in fire.*

53 "If the priest makes an examination and the disease has not spread in the clothing, in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, 54the priest shall command that the diseased article be washed, and he shall put it aside seven days more.* 55The priest shall examine the diseased article after it has been washed. If the diseased spot has not changed color, though the disease has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in fire, whether the worn[p] spot is on the inside or on the outside.

56 "If the priest makes an examination, and the disease has abated after it is washed, he shall tear the spot out of the cloth, in warp or woof, or out of skin.* 57If it appears again in the garment, in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading; you shall burn with fire that in which the disease appears. 58But the cloth, warp or woof, or anything of skin from which the disease disappears when you have washed it shall then be washed a second time, and it shall be clean.

59 "This is the rule for a defiling disease in a cloth of wool or linen, either in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, to decide whether it is clean or unclean."

Leviticus 14

PURIFICATION OF THE DISEASED

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"This shall be the rule for the person with a defiling skin disease at the time of his cleansing:

"He shall be brought to the priest;* [3]the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall make an examination. If the disease is healed in the defiled person, [4]the priest shall command that two living clean birds and cedarwood and crimson yarn and hyssop be brought for the one who is to be cleansed.* [5]The priest shall command that one of the birds be slaughtered over fresh water in a clay vessel. [6]He shall take the living bird with the cedarwood and the crimson yarn and the hyssop and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water. [7]He shall sprinkle it seven times upon the one who is to be cleansed of the defiling disease; then he shall pronounce him clean, and he shall let the living bird go into the open field.* [8]The one who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes and shave off all his hair and bathe himself in water, and he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp but shall live outside his tent seven days.* [9]On the seventh day he shall shave all his hair: of head, beard, eyebrows; he shall shave all his hair. Then he shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and he shall be clean.

10 "On the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish and one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish and a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil and one log[q] of oil.* [11]The priest who cleanses shall set the person to be cleansed, along with these things, before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. [12]The priest shall take one of the lambs and offer it as a guilt offering, along with the log[r] of oil, and raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD.* [13]He shall slaughter the lamb in the place where the purification offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered in the holy place, for the guilt offering, like the purification offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy.* [14]The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed and on the thumb of the right hand and on the big toe of the right foot.* 15The priest shall take some of the log[s] of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand 16and dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and sprinkle some oil with his finger seven times before the LORD. 17Some of the oil that remains in his hand the priest shall put on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed and on the thumb of the right hand and on the big toe of the right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering. 18The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed. Then the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD:* 19the priest shall offer the purification offering, to make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall slaughter the burnt offering,* 20and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf, and he shall be clean.

21 "But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be elevated, to make atonement on his behalf, and one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering and a log[t] of oil,* 22also two turtledoves or two pigeons, such as he can afford, one for a purification offering and the other for a burnt offering.* 23On the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, before the LORD,* 24and the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log[u] of oil, and the priest shall raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD.* 25The priest shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering and shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed and on the thumb of the right hand and on the big toe of the right foot.* 26The priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand 27and shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD. 28The priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed and on the thumb of the right hand and the big toe of the right foot, where the blood of the guilt offering was placed.* 29The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement on his behalf before the LORD. 30And he shall offer, of the turtledoves or pigeons, such as he can afford,* 31one[v] for a purification offering and the other for a burnt offering, along with a grain offering, and the priest shall make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one being cleansed.* 32This is the rule for the one who has a defiling disease who cannot afford the offerings for his cleansing."

33 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

34 "When you come into the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a defiling disease in a house in the land of your possession,* 35the owner of the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, 'There seems to me to be some sort of disease in my house.'* 36The priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes to examine the disease, or all that is in the house will become unclean, and afterward the priest shall go in to inspect the house. 37He shall examine the disease; if the disease is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, and if it appears to be deeper than the surface, 38the priest shall go outside to the door of the house and shut up the house seven days.* 39The priest shall come again on the seventh day and make an inspection; if the disease has spread in the walls of the house, 40the priest shall command that the stones in which the disease appears be taken out and thrown into an unclean place outside the city.* 41He shall have the inside of the house scraped thoroughly, and the plaster that is scraped off shall be dumped in an unclean place outside the city. 42They shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones and take other plaster and plaster the house.

43 "If the disease breaks out again in the house, after he has taken out the stones and scraped the house and plastered it, 44the priest shall go and make inspection; if the disease has spread in the house, it is a spreading defiling disease in the house; it is unclean.* 45He shall have the house torn down, its stones and timber and all the plaster of the house, and taken outside the city to an unclean place. 46All who enter the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening, 47and all who sleep in the house shall wash their clothes, and all who eat in the house shall wash their clothes.

48 "If the priest comes and makes an inspection and the disease has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, the priest shall pronounce the house clean; the disease is healed. 49For the cleansing of the house he shall take two birds, with cedarwood and crimson yarn and hyssop,* 50and shall slaughter one of the birds over fresh water in a clay vessel 51and shall take the cedarwood and the hyssop and the crimson yarn, along with the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and the fresh water and sprinkle the house seven times.* 52Thus he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the fresh water, and with the living bird, and with the cedarwood and hyssop and crimson yarn, 53and he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field; so he shall make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.*

54 "This is the rule for any defiling disease: for an itch,* 55for defiling diseases in clothing and houses, 56and for a swelling[w] or an eruption or a spot,* 57to determine when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the rule for defiling diseases."

Leviticus 15

CONCERNING BODILY DISCHARGES

1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them:

"When any man has a discharge from his member,[x] his discharge makes him unclean.* [3]The uncleanness of his discharge is this: whether his member[y] flows with its discharge or is stopped from discharging, he is unclean during the entire period his member[z] flows or is stopped from discharging; this is his uncleanness.[a] [4]Every bed on which the one with the discharge lies shall be unclean, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean. [5]Anyone who touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening. [6]All who sit on anything on which the one with the discharge has sat shall wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening. [7]All who touch the body of the one with the discharge shall wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.* [8]If the one with the discharge spits on persons who are clean, then they shall wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening. [9]Any saddle on which the one with the discharge rides shall be unclean. [10]All who touch anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening, and all who carry such a thing shall wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.* [11]All those whom the one with the discharge touches without his having rinsed his hands in water shall wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening. [12]Any clay vessel that the one with the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.*

13 "When the one with a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, he shall count seven days for his cleansing; he shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in fresh water, and he shall be clean.* [14]On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and come before the LORD to the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest.* [15]The priest shall offer them, one for a purification offering and the other for a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD for his discharge.*

16 "If a man has an emission of semen, he shall bathe his whole body in water and be unclean until the evening.* [17]Everything made of cloth or of leather on which the semen falls shall be washed with water and be unclean until the evening. [18]If a man lies with a woman and has an emission of semen, both of them shall bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.*

19 "When a woman has a discharge of blood that is a menstrual discharge from her body, she shall be in her impurity for seven days, and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.* [20]Everything upon which she lies during her impurity shall be unclean; everything also upon which she sits shall be unclean. [21]Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.* [22]Whoever touches anything upon which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening; [23]whether it is the bed or anything upon which she sits, when he touches it he shall be unclean until the evening. [24]If any man lies with her and her impurity falls on him, he shall be unclean seven days, and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.*

25 "If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her menstrual impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her menstrual impurity, all the days of the discharge she shall continue in uncleanness; as in the days of her impurity, she shall be unclean.* [26]Every bed on which she lies during all the days of her discharge shall be treated as the bed of her impurity, and everything on which she sits shall be unclean, as in the uncleanness of her impurity. [27]Whoever touches these things shall be unclean and shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.* [28]If she is cleansed of her discharge, she shall count seven days, and after that she shall be clean. [29]On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting.* [30]The priest shall offer one for a purification offering and the other for a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement on her behalf before the LORD for her unclean discharge.

31 "Thus you shall keep the Israelites separate from their uncleanness, so that they do not die in their uncleanness by defiling my tabernacle that is in their midst.*

32 “This is the rule for those who have a discharge: for him who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean thereby;* 33for her who is in the infirmity of her menstrual period; for anyone, male or female, who has a discharge; and for the man who lies with a woman who is unclean.”*

Leviticus 16

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

1 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the LORD and died.* [2]The LORD said to Moses:

"Tell your brother Aaron not to come just at any time into the sanctuary inside the curtain before the cover that is upon the ark, or he will die, for I appear in the cloud upon the cover.* [3]Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bull for a purification offering and a ram for a burnt offering.* [4]He shall put on the holy linen tunic and shall have the linen undergarments next to his body, fasten the linen sash, and wear the linen turban; these are the holy vestments. He shall bathe his body in water and then put them on.* [5]He shall take from the congregation of the Israelites two male goats for a purification offering and one ram for a burnt offering.*

6 "Aaron shall offer the bull as a purification offering for himself and shall make atonement for himself and for his house.* [7]He shall take the two goats and set them before the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting, [8]and Aaron shall cast lots on the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for Azazel. [9]Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the LORD and offer it as a purification offering, [10]but the goat on which the lot fell for Azazel shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement over it, that it may be sent away into the wilderness to Azazel.

11 "Aaron shall present the bull as a purification offering for himself and shall make atonement for himself and for his house; he shall slaughter the bull as a purification offering for himself.* [12]He shall take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of crushed sweet incense, and he shall bring it inside the curtain* [13]and put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may shroud the cover that is upon the covenant, or he will die.* [14]He shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the cover, and before the cover he shall sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times.*

15 "He shall slaughter the goat of the purification offering that is for the people and bring its blood inside the curtain and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, sprinkling it upon the cover and before the cover.* 16Thus he shall make atonement for the sanctuary, because of the uncleannesses of the Israelites and because of their transgressions, all their sins, and so he shall do for the tent of meeting, which remains with them in the midst of their uncleanness.* 17No one shall be in the tent of meeting from the time he enters to make atonement in the sanctuary until he comes out and has made atonement for himself and for his house and for all the assembly of Israel. 18Then he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement on its behalf and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat and put it on each of the horns of the altar.* 19He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times and cleanse it and sanctify it from the uncleannesses of the Israelites.*

20 "When he has finished atoning for the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat. 21Then Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of the Israelites, and all their transgressions, all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat and sending it away into the wilderness by means of someone designated for the task.[b,] 22The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to a barren region, and the goat shall be set free in the wilderness.

23 "Then Aaron shall enter the tent of meeting and shall take off the linen vestments that he put on when he went into the holy place and shall leave them there.* 24He shall bathe his body in water in a holy place and put on his vestments; then he shall come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, making atonement for himself and for the people.* 25The fat of the purification offering he shall turn into smoke on the altar. 26The one who sets the goat free for Azazel shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water and afterward may come into the camp. 27The bull of the purification offering and the goat of the purification offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be taken outside the camp; their skin and their flesh and their dung shall be consumed in fire.* 28The one who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water and afterward may come into the camp.

29 "This shall be a statute to you forever: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble yourselves[c] and shall do no work, neither the native-born nor the alien who resides among you.* 30For on this day atonement shall be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before the LORD. 31It is a Sabbath of complete rest to you, and you shall humble yourselves;[d] it is a statute forever.* 32The priest who is anointed and consecrated as priest in his father's place shall make atonement, wearing the linen vestments, the holy vestments.* 33He shall make atonement for the sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.* 34This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the Israelites once in the year for all their sins." And Moses did as the LORD had commanded him.*

Leviticus 17

THE SLAUGHTERING OF ANIMALS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses:

2 "Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them:
This is what the LORD has commanded. [3]If anyone of the house of Israel slaughters an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp or slaughters it outside the camp [4]and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to present it as an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, he shall be held guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood, and he shall be cut off from the people.* [5]This is in order that the Israelites may bring their sacrifices that they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and offer them as sacrifices of well-being to the LORD. [6]The priest shall dash the blood against the altar of the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting and turn the fat into smoke as a pleasing odor to the LORD,* [7]so that they may no longer offer their sacrifices for goat-demons, to whom they prostitute themselves. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.*

8 "And say to them further: Anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens who reside among them who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice [9]and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to sacrifice it to the LORD, shall be cut off from the people.*

EATING BLOOD PROHIBITED

10 "If anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens who reside among them eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats blood and will cut that person off from the people.* [11]For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you for making atonement for your lives on the altar, for, as life, it is the blood that makes atonement.* [12]Therefore I have said to the Israelites, 'No person among you shall eat blood, nor shall any alien who resides among you eat blood.'

13 “And anyone of the Israelites or of the aliens who reside among them who hunts down an animal or bird that may be eaten shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth.* 14For the life of every creature—its blood is its life; therefore I have said to the Israelites, ‘You shall not eat the blood of any creature, for the life of every creature is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off.’* 15All persons, native-born or alien, who eat what dies of itself or what has been torn by wild animals shall wash their clothes and bathe themselves in water and be unclean until the evening; then they shall be clean.* 16But if they do not wash themselves or bathe their body, they shall bear their guilt.”

Leviticus 18

SEXUAL RELATIONS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: I am the LORD your God.* [3]You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you lived, and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, to which I am bringing you. You shall not follow their statutes.* [4]My ordinances you shall observe, and my statutes you shall keep, following them: I am the LORD your God. [5]You shall keep my statutes and my ordinances; by doing so one shall live: I am the LORD.*

6 "None of you shall approach anyone near of kin to uncover nakedness: I am the LORD. [7]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother; she is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness.* [8]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife; it is the nakedness of your father. [9]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether born at home or born abroad.* [10]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter, for their nakedness is your own nakedness. [11]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, born in your father's house, since she is your sister. [12]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's flesh.* [13]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's flesh. [14]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother; that is, you shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.* [15]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law: she is your son's wife; you shall not uncover her nakedness.* [16]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness.* [17]You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, and you shall not take[e] her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to uncover her nakedness; they are your[f] flesh; it is depravity.* [18]And you shall not take[g] a woman as a rival to her sister, uncovering her nakedness while her sister is still alive.

19 "You shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness while she is in her menstrual uncleanness.* 20You shall not have sexual relations with your neighbor's wife and defile yourself with her.* 21You shall not give any of your offspring to sacrifice them[h] to Molech and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.* 22You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.* 23You shall not have sexual relations with any animal and defile yourself with it, nor shall any woman give herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; it is perversion.*

24 "Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for by all these practices the nations I am casting out before you have defiled themselves.*
25Thus the land became defiled, and I punished it for its iniquity, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.* 26But you shall keep my statutes and my ordinances and commit none of these abominations, either the native-born or the alien who resides among you 27(for the inhabitants of the land, who were before you, committed all of these abominations, and the land became defiled); 28otherwise the land will vomit you out for defiling it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you. 29For whoever commits any of these abominations shall be cut off from their people. 30So keep my charge not to commit any of these abominations that were done before you and not to defile yourselves by them: I am the LORD your God."*

Leviticus 19

RITUAL AND MORAL HOLINESS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

2 "Speak to all the congregation of the Israelites and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.* [3]You shall each revere your mother and father, and you shall keep my Sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.* [4]Do not turn to idols or make cast images for yourselves: I am the LORD your God.*

5 "When you offer a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, offer it in such a way that it is acceptable on your behalf. [6]It shall be eaten on the same day you offer it or on the next day, and anything left over until the third day shall be consumed in fire. [7]If any of it is eaten on the third day, it is an abomination; it will not be acceptable. [8]All who eat it shall be subject to punishment, because they have profaned what is holy to the LORD, and any such person shall be cut off from the people.

9 "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.* [10]You shall not strip your vineyard bare or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the LORD your God.

11 "You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another.* [12]And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God: I am the LORD.*

13 "You shall not defraud your neighbor; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a laborer until morning.* [14]You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.*

15 "You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor.*
[16]You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not stand idly by when the blood[i] of your neighbor is at stake: I am the

17 "You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself.* [18]You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.*

19 "You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let your animals breed with a different kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall you put on a garment made of two different materials.*

20 "If a man has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave, designated for another man but not ransomed or given her freedom, an inquiry shall be held. They shall not be put to death, since she has not been freed, [21]but he shall bring a guilt offering for himself to the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, a ram as guilt offering.* [22]And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of guilt offering before the LORD for his sin that he committed, and the sin he committed shall be forgiven him.

23 "When you come into the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall regard their fruit as forbidden;[j] three years it shall be forbidden[k] to you; it must not be eaten. [24]In the fourth year all their fruit shall be set apart for rejoicing in the LORD.* [25]But in the fifth year you may eat of their fruit, that their yield may be increased for you: I am the LORD your God.

26 "You shall not eat anything with its blood. You shall not practice augury or witchcraft.* [27]You shall not round off the hair on your temples or mar the edges of your beard.* [28]You shall not make any gashes in your flesh for the dead or tattoo any marks upon you: I am the LORD.*

29 "Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, that the land not become prostituted and full of depravity.* [30]You shall keep my Sabbaths and revere my sanctuary: I am the LORD.*

31 "Do not turn to mediums and spiritualists; do not seek them out, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.*

32 "You shall rise before the aged and defer to the old, and you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

33 "When an alien resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress the alien.* [34]The alien who resides with you shall be to you as the native-born among you; you shall love the alien as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.*

35 "You shall not cheat in measuring length, weight, or quantity. [36]You shall have honest balances, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin: I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt. [37]You shall keep all my statutes and all my ordinances and observe them: I am the LORD."

Leviticus 20

PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF HOLINESS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Say further to the Israelites:

"Any of the Israelites or of the aliens who reside in Israel who give any of their offspring to Molech shall be put to death; the people of the land shall stone them to death.* [3]I myself will set my face against them and will cut them off from the people, because they have given of their offspring to Molech, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name.* [4]And if the people of the land should ever close their eyes to them, when they give of their offspring to Molech, and do not put them to death,* [5]I myself will set my face against them and against their family and will cut them off from among their people, them and all who follow them in prostituting themselves to Molech.

6 "If any turn to mediums or spiritualists, prostituting themselves to them, I will set my face against them and will cut them off from the people.* [7]Consecrate yourselves, therefore, and be holy, for I am the LORD your God.* [8]Keep my statutes and observe them: I am the LORD; I sanctify you.* [9]All who curse father or mother shall be put to death; having cursed father or mother, their bloodguilt is upon them.*

10 "If a man commits adultery with the wife of[1] his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death.* [11]The man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall be put to death; their bloodguilt is upon them.* [12]If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall be put to death; they have committed perversion; their bloodguilt is upon them.* [13]If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall be put to death; their bloodguilt is upon them.* [14]If a man takes a wife and her mother also, it is depravity; they shall be burned to death, both he and they, that there may be no depravity among you.* [15]If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he shall be put to death, and you shall kill the animal.* [16]If a woman approaches any animal and has sexual relations with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they shall be put to death; their bloodguilt is upon them.

17 "If a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace, and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall be subject to punishment.* [18]If a man lies with a woman during her period and uncovers her nakedness, he has laid bare her flow, and she has laid bare her flow of blood; both of them shall be cut off from their people.* [19]You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that is to lay bare one's own flesh; they shall be subject to punishment.* [20]If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall be subject to punishment; they shall die childless.* [21]If a man takes his brother's wife, it is impurity; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.*

22 "You shall keep all my statutes and all my ordinances and observe them, so that the land to which I bring you to settle in may not vomit you out.* [23]You shall not follow the practices of the nation that I am driving out before you. Because they did all these things, I abhorred them.* [24]But I have said to you, 'You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God; I have separated you from the peoples.'* [25]You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean and between the unclean bird and the clean; you shall not bring abomination on yourselves by animal or by bird or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have set apart for you to hold unclean.* [26]You shall be holy to me, for I the LORD am holy, and I have separated you from the other peoples to be mine.*

27 "A man or a woman who is a medium or a spiritualist shall be put to death; they shall be stoned to death; their bloodguilt is upon them."*

Leviticus 21

THE HOLINESS OF PRIESTS

1 The LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them:

"No one shall defile himself for a dead person among his relatives,* [2]except for his nearest kin: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother; [3]likewise, for a virgin sister close to him because she has had no husband, he may defile himself for her. [4]But he shall not defile himself for those related to him by marriage and so profane himself. [5]They shall not make bald spots upon their heads or shave off the edges of their beards or make any gashes in their flesh.* [6]They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they offer the LORD's offerings by fire,[m] the food of their God; therefore they shall be holy.* [7]They shall not marry a prostitute or a woman who has been defiled; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband. For they are holy to their God,* [8]and you shall treat them as holy, since they offer the food of your God; they shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, I who sanctify you, am holy. [9]When the daughter of a priest profanes herself through prostitution, she profanes her father; she shall be burned to death.

10 "The priest who is exalted above his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated to wear the vestments, shall not dishevel his hair nor tear his vestments.* [11]He shall not go where there is a dead body; he shall not defile himself even for his father or mother.* [12]He shall not go outside the sanctuary and thus profane the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.* [13]He shall marry only a woman who is a virgin.* [14]A widow or a divorced woman or a woman who has been defiled, a prostitute—these he shall not marry. He shall marry a virgin of his own people, [15]that he may not profane his offspring among his people, for I am the LORD; I sanctify him."

16 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [17]"Speak to Aaron and say: No one of your offspring throughout their generations who has a blemish may approach to offer the food of his God.* 18Indeed, no one who has a blemish shall draw near, one who is blind or lame, or one who is mutilated or deformed,[n,] 19or one who has a broken foot or a broken hand, 20or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or a man with a defect in his eyes or an itching disease or scabs or crushed testicles. 21No descendant of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the LORD's offerings by fire;[o] since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the food of his God.*

22He may eat the food of his God, of the most holy as well as of the holy.
23But he shall not come near the curtain or approach the altar because he has a blemish, that he may not profane my sanctuaries, for I am the LORD; I sanctify them."* 24Thus Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the Israelites.

Leviticus 22

THE USE OF HOLY OFFERINGS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: [2]"Direct Aaron and his sons to deal carefully with the sacred donations of the Israelites, which they dedicate to me, so that they may not profane my holy name: I am the LORD.* [3]Say to them, 'If anyone among all your offspring throughout your generations comes near the sacred donations, which the Israelites dedicate to the LORD, while he is in a state of uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.'* [4]No one of Aaron's offspring who has a defiling skin disease or suffers a discharge may eat of the sacred donations until he is clean. Whoever touches anything made unclean by a corpse or a man who has had an emission of semen,* [5]and whoever touches any swarming thing by which he may be made unclean or any human being by whom he may be made unclean—whatever his uncleanness may be*—[6]the person who touches any such shall be unclean until evening and shall not eat of the sacred donations unless he has washed his body in water. [7]When the sun sets he shall be clean, and afterward he may eat of the sacred donations, for they are his food. [8]That which died or was torn by wild animals he shall not eat, becoming unclean by it: I am the LORD.* [9]They shall keep my charge, so that they may not incur guilt and die because of it for having profaned them: I am the LORD; I sanctify them.*

10 "No layperson shall eat of the sacred donations. No bound or hired servant of the priest shall eat of the sacred donations,* [11]but if a priest acquires anyone by purchase, the person may eat of them, and those who are born in his house may eat of his food. [12]If a priest's daughter marries a layman, she shall not eat of the offering of the sacred donations, [13]but if a priest's daughter is widowed or divorced, without offspring, and returns to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food. No layperson shall eat of it.* [14]If a man eats of the sacred donation unintentionally, he shall add one-fifth of its value to it and give the sacred donation to the priest.* [15]No one shall profane the sacred donations of the Israelites, which they offer to the LORD, [16]causing them to bear guilt requiring a guilt offering, by eating their sacred donations, for I am the LORD; I sanctify them."*

ACCEPTABLE OFFERINGS

17 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [18]"Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the Israelites and say to them: When anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens residing in Israel presents an offering, whether in payment of a vow or as a freewill offering that is offered to the LORD as a burnt offering, [19]to be acceptable on your behalf it shall be a male without blemish, of the cattle or the sheep or the goats.* [20]You shall not offer anything that has a blemish, for it will not be acceptable on your behalf.*

21 "When anyone offers a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, in fulfillment of a vow or as a freewill offering, from the herd or from the flock, to be acceptable it must be perfect; there shall be no blemish in it.* [22]Anything blind or injured or maimed or having a discharge or an itch or scabs—these you shall not offer to the LORD or put any of them on the altar as offerings by fire[p] to the LORD. [23]An ox or a lamb that is deformed or stunted you may present for a freewill offering, but it will not be accepted for a vow. [24]Any animal that has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD; such you shall not do within your land, [25]nor shall you accept any such animals from a foreigner to offer as food to your God; since they are mutilated, with a blemish in them, they shall not be accepted on your behalf."*

26 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [27]"When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as the LORD's offering by fire.[q],* [28]But you shall not slaughter, from the herd or the flock, an animal with its young on the same day.* [29]When you sacrifice a thanksgiving offering to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that it may be acceptable on your behalf.* [30]It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall not leave any of it until morning: I am the LORD.*

31 "Thus you shall keep my commandments and observe them: I am the LORD.* [32]You shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the Israelites: I am the LORD; I sanctify you,* 33I who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the LORD."*

Leviticus 23

APPOINTED FESTIVALS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: These are the appointed festivals of the LORD that you shall proclaim as holy convocations, my appointed festivals.*

THE SABBATH, PASSOVER, AND UNLEAVENED BREAD

3 "Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no work: it is a Sabbath to the LORD throughout your settlements.*

4 "These are the appointed festivals of the LORD, the holy convocations, that you shall celebrate at the time appointed for them.* [5]In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight,[r] there shall be a Passover offering to the LORD,* [6]and on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Festival of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. [7]On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.* [8]For seven days you shall present the LORD's offerings by fire;[s] on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation: you shall not work at your occupations."

THE OFFERING OF FIRST FRUITS

9 The LORD spoke to Moses, [10]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you and you reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest.* [11]He shall raise the sheaf before the LORD, that you may find acceptance; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall raise it. [12]On the day when you raise the sheaf, you shall offer a lamb a year old, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD. [13]And the grain offering with it shall be two-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire[t] of pleasing odor to the LORD, and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, one-fourth of a hin.* [14]You shall eat no bread or parched grain or fresh ears until that very day, until you have brought the offering of your God. This is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your settlements.

THE FESTIVAL OF WEEKS

15 "And from the day after the Sabbath, from the day on which you bring the sheaf of the elevation offering, you shall count seven full weeks.* 16You shall count until the day after the seventh Sabbath, fifty days; then you shall present an offering of new grain to the LORD.* 17You shall bring from your settlements two loaves of bread as an elevation offering, each made of two-tenths of an ephah; they shall be of choice flour, baked with leaven, as first fruits to the LORD.* 18You shall present with the bread seven lambs a year old without blemish, one bull of the herd, and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, along with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire[u] of pleasing odor to the LORD. 19You shall also offer one male goat for a purification offering and two lambs a year old as a sacrifice of well-being.* 20The priest shall raise them with the bread of the first fruits as an elevation offering before the LORD, together with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. 21On that same day you shall make proclamation; you shall hold a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. This is a statute forever in all your settlements throughout your generations.*

22 "When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor and for the alien: I am the LORD your God."*

THE FESTIVAL OF TRUMPETS

23 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 24"Speak to the Israelites, saying: In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of complete rest, a holy convocation commemorated with trumpet blasts.* 25You shall not work at your occupations, and you shall present the LORD's offering by fire."[v]

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

26 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [27]"Now, the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you: you shall humble yourselves[w] and present the LORD's offering by fire,[x,] [28]and you shall do no work during that entire day, for it is a Day of Atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God. [29]For those who do not humble themselves[y] during that entire day shall be cut off from the people.[] [30]And anyone who does any work during that entire day, such a one I will destroy from the midst of the people.[*] [31]You shall do no work. This is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your settlements. [32]It shall be to you a Sabbath of complete rest, and you shall humble yourselves;[z] on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening you shall keep your Sabbath."

THE FESTIVAL OF BOOTHS

33 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [34]"Speak to the Israelites, saying: On the fifteenth day of this seventh month and lasting seven days, there shall be the Festival of Booths[a] to the LORD.[] [35]The first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. [36]Seven days you shall present the LORD's offerings by fire;[b] on the eighth day you shall observe a holy convocation and present the LORD's offerings by fire;[c] it is a solemn assembly; you shall not work at your occupations.[]

37 "These are the appointed festivals of the LORD that you shall celebrate as times of holy convocation, for presenting to the LORD offerings by fire[d]—burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its proper day[*]—[38]apart from the Sabbaths of the LORD and apart from your gifts and apart from all your votive offerings and apart from all your freewill offerings that you give to the LORD.

39 "Now, the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall keep the festival of the LORD, lasting seven days, a complete rest on the first day and a complete rest on the eighth day.[] [40]On the first day you shall take the fruit of majestic[e] trees, branches of palm trees, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.[] [41]You shall keep it as a festival to the LORD lasting seven days in the year; you shall keep it in the seventh month as a statute forever throughout your generations. [42]You shall live in booths for seven days; all who are native-born in Israel shall live in booths,* [43]so that your generations may know that I made the Israelites live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God."

Leviticus 24

THE LAMP

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Command the Israelites to bring you pure oil of beaten olives for the lamp, that a light may be kept burning regularly.* [3]Aaron shall set it up in the tent of meeting, outside the curtain of the covenant, to burn from evening to morning before the LORD regularly; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations. [4]He shall set up the lamps on the lampstand of pure gold[f] before the LORD regularly.*

THE BREAD FOR THE TABERNACLE

5 "You shall take choice flour and bake twelve loaves of it; two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each loaf.* [6]You shall place them in two rows, six in a row, on the table of pure gold before the LORD.[g,] [7]You shall put pure frankincense with each row, to be a token offering for the bread, as an offering by fire[h] to the LORD. [8]Every Sabbath day Aaron shall set them in order before the LORD regularly as a commitment of the Israelites, as a covenant forever. [9]They shall be for Aaron and his descendants, who shall eat them in a holy place, for they are most holy portions for him from the offerings by fire[i] to the LORD, a perpetual due."*

BLASPHEMY AND ITS PUNISHMENT

10 A man whose mother was an Israelite and whose father was an Egyptian came out among the Israelites, and the Israelite woman's son and a certain Israelite began fighting in the camp. [11]The Israelite woman's son blasphemed the Name in a curse. And they brought him to Moses—now his mother's name was Shelomith daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan*— [12]and they put him in custody, until the decision of the LORD should be made clear to them.*

13 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [14]"Take the blasphemer outside the camp, and let all who were within hearing lay their hands on his head, and let the whole congregation stone him.* [15]And speak to the Israelites, saying:

Anyone who curses God shall incur guilt. 16One who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall be put to death; the whole congregation shall stone the blasphemer. Aliens as well as the native-born, when they blaspheme the Name, shall be put to death.* 17Anyone who kills a human being shall be put to death.* 18Anyone who kills an animal shall make restitution for it, life for life.* 19Anyone who maims another shall suffer the same injury in return: 20fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; the injury inflicted is the injury to be suffered.* 21One who kills an animal shall make restitution for it, but one who kills a human being shall be put to death.*
22You shall have one law for the alien and for the native-born, for I am the LORD your God."* 23Moses spoke thus to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him to death. The Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25

THE SABBATICAL YEAR

1 The LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you, the land shall observe a Sabbath for the LORD.* [3]Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in their yield, [4]but in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of complete rest for the land, a Sabbath for the LORD: you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. [5]You shall not reap the aftergrowth of your harvest or gather the grapes of your unpruned vine: it shall be a year of complete rest for the land. [6]You may eat what the land yields during its Sabbath—you, your male and female slaves, your hired and your bound laborers who live with you,* [7]for your livestock also, and for the wild animals in your land all its yield shall be for food.

THE YEAR OF JUBILEE

8 "You shall count off seven weeks[j] of years, seven times seven years, so that the period of seven weeks of years gives forty-nine years. [9]Then you shall have the trumpet sounded loud; on the tenth day of the seventh month—on the Day of Atonement—you shall have the trumpet sounded throughout all your land.* [10]And you shall hallow the fiftieth year, and you shall proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee for you: you shall return, every one of you, to your property and every one of you to your family.* [11]That fiftieth year shall be a Jubilee for you: you shall not sow or reap the aftergrowth or harvest the unpruned vines. [12]For it is a Jubilee; it shall be holy to you: you shall eat only what the field itself produces.

13 "In this year of Jubilee you shall return, every one of you, to your property.* [14]When you make a sale to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor, you shall not cheat one another.* [15]When you buy from your neighbor, you shall pay only for the number of years until the Jubilee; the seller shall charge you only for the remaining crop years.* 16If the years are more, you shall increase the price, and if the years are fewer, you shall diminish the price, for it is a certain number of harvests that are being sold to you. 17You shall not cheat one another, but you shall fear your God, for I am the LORD your God.*

18 "You shall observe my statutes and faithfully keep my ordinances, so that you may live on the land securely.* 19The land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill and live on it securely. 20Should you ask, 'What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we may not sow or gather in our crop?'* 21I will order my blessing for you in the sixth year, so that it will yield a crop for three years. 22When you sow in the eighth year, you will be eating from the old crop; until the ninth year, when its produce comes in, you shall eat the old.* 23The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; with me you are but aliens and tenants.* 24Throughout the land that you hold, you shall provide for the redemption of the land.

25 "If anyone of your kin falls into difficulty and sells a piece of property, then the next of kin shall come and redeem what the relative has sold.* 26If the person has no one to redeem it but then prospers and finds sufficient means to do so, 27the years since its sale shall be computed and the difference refunded to the person to whom it was sold, and the property shall be returned.* 28But if there are not sufficient means to recover it, what was sold shall remain with the purchaser until the year of Jubilee; in the Jubilee it shall be released, and the property shall be returned.*

29 "If anyone sells a dwelling house in a walled city, it may be redeemed until a year has elapsed since its sale; the right of redemption shall be one year. 30If it is not redeemed before a full year has elapsed, a house that is in a walled city shall pass in perpetuity to the purchaser, throughout the generations; it shall not be released in the Jubilee. 31But houses in villages that have no walls around them shall be classed as open country; they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee. 32As for the cities of the Levites, the Levites shall forever have the right of redemption of the houses in the cities belonging to them.* 33Whatever property of the Levites that may be redeemed, that is, houses sold in a city belonging to them, shall be released in the Jubilee, for the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the Israelites. [34]But the pasturelands around their cities may not be sold, for that is their possession for all time.

35 "If any of your kin fall into difficulty and become dependent on you,[k] you shall support them; they shall live with you as though resident aliens.* [36]Do not take interest in advance or otherwise make a profit from them, but fear your God; let them live with you.* [37]You shall not lend them your money at interest taken in advance or provide them food at a profit. [38]I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.*

39 "If any who are dependent on you become so impoverished that they sell themselves to you, you shall not make them serve as slaves.* [40]They shall remain with you as hired or bound laborers. They shall serve with you until the year of the Jubilee. [41]Then they and their children with them shall go out from your authority; they shall go back to their own family and return to their ancestral property.* [42]For they are my servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves are sold. [43]You shall not rule over them with harshness but shall fear your God.* [44]As for the male and female slaves whom you may have, it is from the nations around you that you may acquire male and female slaves. [45]You may also acquire them from among the aliens residing with you and from their families who are with you who have been born in your land; they may be your property.* [46]You may keep them as a possession for your children after you, for them to inherit as property. These you may treat as slaves, but as for your fellow Israelites, no one shall rule over the other with harshness.*

47 "If resident aliens among you prosper, and if any of your kin fall into difficulty with one of them and sell themselves to an alien or to a branch of the alien's family, [48]even after they have sold themselves they shall have the right of redemption; one of their brothers may redeem them,* [49]or their uncle or their uncle's son may redeem them, or anyone of their family who is of their own flesh may redeem them, or if they prosper they may redeem themselves.* [50]They shall compute with the purchaser the total from the year when they sold themselves to the alien until the Jubilee year; the price of the sale shall be applied to the number of years: the time they were with the owner shall be rated as the time of a hired laborer.* [51]If many years remain, they shall pay for their redemption in proportion to the purchase price,* 52and if few years remain until the Jubilee year, they shall compute thus: according to the years involved they shall make payment for their redemption. 53As a laborer hired by the year they shall be under the alien's authority, who shall not, however, rule with harshness over them in your sight. 54And if they have not been redeemed in any of these ways, they and their children with them shall go out in the Jubilee year. 55For to me the Israelites are servants; they are my servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26

REWARDS FOR OBEDIENCE

1 "You shall make for yourselves no idols and erect no carved images or pillars, and you shall not place figured stones in your land, to worship at them, for I am the LORD your God.* 2You shall keep my Sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.*

3 "If you follow my statutes and keep my commandments and observe them faithfully,* 4I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. 5Your threshing shall overlap the vintage, and the vintage shall overlap the sowing; you shall eat your bread to the full and live securely in your land.*
6And I will grant peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and no one shall make you afraid; I will remove dangerous animals from the land, and no sword shall go through your land.* 7You shall give chase to your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. 8Five of you shall give chase to a hundred, and a hundred of you shall give chase to ten thousand; your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.* 9I will look with favor upon you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will maintain my covenant with you.* 10You shall eat old grain long stored, and you shall have to clear out the old to make way for the new.* 11I will place my dwelling in your midst, and I shall not abhor you.* 12I[l] will be your God, and you shall be my people.* 13I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be their slaves no more; I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.

PENALTIES FOR DISOBEDIENCE

14 "But if you will not obey me and do not observe all these commandments,* 15if you spurn my statutes and abhor my ordinances, so that you will not observe all my commandments and you break my covenant, 16I in turn will do this to you: I will bring terror on you, consumption and fever that waste the eyes and cause life to pine away. You shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.* 17I will set my face against you, and you shall be struck down by your enemies; your foes shall rule over you, and you shall flee though no one pursues you.* 18And if in spite of this you will not obey me, I will continue to punish you sevenfold for your sins. 19I will break your proud glory, and I will make your sky like iron and your earth like copper.* 20Your strength shall be spent to no purpose: your land shall not yield its produce, and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.*

21 "If you continue hostile to me and will not obey me, I will continue to plague you sevenfold for your sins. 22I will let loose wild animals against you, and they shall bereave you of your children and destroy your livestock; they shall make you few in number, and your roads shall be deserted.*

23 "If in spite of these punishments you have not turned back to me but continue hostile to me,* 24then I, too, will continue hostile to you: I myself will strike you sevenfold for your sins.* 25I will bring the sword against you, executing vengeance for the covenant, and if you withdraw into your cities, I will send pestilence among you, and you shall be delivered into enemy hands.* 26When I cut off your supply of bread,[m] ten women shall bake your bread in a single oven, and they shall dole out your bread by weight, and though you eat, you shall not be satisfied.*

27 "But if, despite this, you disobey me and continue hostile to me, 28I will continue hostile to you in fury; I in turn will punish you myself sevenfold for your sins. 29You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.* 30I will destroy your high places and cut down your incense altars; I will heap your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols. I will abhor you.* 31I will lay your cities waste, will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your pleasing odors.* 32I will devastate the land, so that your enemies who come to settle in it shall be appalled at it.* 33And you I will scatter among the nations, and I will unsheathe the sword against you; your land shall be a desolation and your cities a waste.*

34 "Then the land shall enjoy[n] its Sabbath years as long as it lies desolate, while you are in the land of your enemies; then the land shall rest and enjoy[o] its Sabbath years.* 35As long as it lies desolate, it shall have the rest it did not have on your Sabbaths when you were living on it. [36]And as for those of you who survive, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a driven leaf shall put them to flight, and they shall flee as one flees from the sword, and they shall fall though no one pursues.* [37]They shall stumble over one another, as if to escape a sword, though no one pursues, and you shall have no power to stand against your enemies.* [38]You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall devour you.* [39]And those of you who survive shall languish in the land of your enemies because of their iniquities; they shall also languish because of the iniquities of their ancestors.*

40 "But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their ancestors—their treachery against me and also their continued hostility to me,* [41]so that I in turn was hostile to them and brought them into the land of their enemies—if, then, their uncircumcised heart is humbled and they make amends for their iniquity,* [42]then will I remember my covenant with Jacob; I will remember also my covenant with Isaac and also my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.* [43]For the land shall be deserted by them and enjoy[p] its Sabbath years by lying desolate without them, while they shall make amends for their iniquity, because they dared to spurn my ordinances, and they abhorred my statutes.* [44]Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not spurn them or abhor them so as to destroy them utterly and break my covenant with them, for I am the LORD their God,* [45]but I will remember in their favor the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, to be their God: I am the LORD."*

46 These are the statutes and ordinances and laws that the LORD established between himself and the Israelites on Mount Sinai through Moses.*

Leviticus 27

VOTIVE OFFERINGS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When a person makes an explicit vow to the LORD concerning the equivalent for a human being, [3]the equivalent for a male shall be: from twenty to sixty years of age the equivalent shall be fifty shekels of silver by the sanctuary shekel.* [4]If the person is a female, the equivalent is thirty shekels. [5]If the age is from five to twenty years of age, the equivalent is twenty shekels for a male and ten shekels for a female. [6]If the age is from one month to five years, the equivalent for a male is five shekels of silver, and for a female the equivalent is three shekels of silver.* [7]And if the person is sixty years old or over, then the equivalent for a male is fifteen shekels and for a female ten shekels. [8]If any cannot afford the equivalent, they shall be brought before the priest and the priest shall assess them; the priest shall assess them according to what each one making a vow can afford.*

9 "If the vow concerns an animal that may be brought as an offering to the LORD, any such animal that may be given to the LORD shall be holy.
[10]Another shall not be exchanged or substituted for it, either good for bad or bad for good, and if one animal is substituted for another, both that one and its substitute shall be holy. [11]If the vow concerns any unclean animal that may not be brought as an offering to the LORD, the animal shall be presented before the priest. [12]The priest shall assess it: whether good or bad, according to the assessment of the priest, so it shall be.* [13]But if it is to be redeemed, one-fifth must be added to the assessment.*

14 "If a person consecrates a house to the LORD, the priest shall assess it: whether good or bad, as the priest assesses it, so it shall stand. [15]And if the one who consecrates the house wishes to redeem it, one-fifth shall be added to its assessed value, and it shall revert to the original owner.*

16 "If a person consecrates to the LORD any inherited landholding, its assessment shall be in accordance with its seed requirements: fifty shekels of silver to a homer of barley seed. [17]If the person consecrates the field as of the year of Jubilee, that assessment shall stand, [18]but if the field is consecrated after the Jubilee, the priest shall compute the price for it according to the years that remain until the year of Jubilee, and the assessment shall be reduced.* 19And if the one who consecrates the field wishes to redeem it, then one-fifth shall be added to its assessed value, and it shall revert to the original owner, 20but if the field is not redeemed or if it has been sold to someone else, it shall no longer be redeemable. 21But when the field is released in the Jubilee, it shall be holy to the LORD as a devoted field; it becomes the priest's holding.* 22If someone consecrates to the LORD a field that has been purchased that is not a part of the inherited landholding, 23the priest shall compute for it the proportionate assessment up to the year of Jubilee, and the assessment shall be paid as of that day, a sacred donation to the LORD.* 24In the year of Jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom it was bought, whose holding the land is.* 25All assessments shall be by the sanctuary shekel: twenty gerahs shall make a shekel.*

26 "A firstling of animals, however, which as a firstling belongs to the LORD, cannot be consecrated by anyone; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.* 27If it is an unclean animal, it shall be ransomed at its assessment, with one-fifth added; if it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at its assessment.*

28 "Nothing that a person owns that has been devoted to destruction for the LORD, be it human or animal or inherited landholding, may be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.* 29No human beings who have been devoted to destruction can be ransomed; they shall be put to death.

30 "All tithes from the land, whether the seed from the ground or the fruit from the tree, are the LORD's; they are holy to the LORD.* 31If persons wish to redeem any of their tithes, they must add one-fifth to them.* 32All tithes of herd and flock, every tenth one that passes under the shepherd's staff, shall be holy to the LORD. 33Let no one inquire whether it is good or bad or make substitution for it; if one makes substitution for it, then both it and the substitute shall be holy and cannot be redeemed."*

34 These are the commandments that the LORD gave to Moses for the Israelites on Mount Sinai.*

Numbers 1

THE FIRST CENSUS OF ISRAEL

1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,* 2"Take a census of the whole congregation of Israelites, in their clans, by ancestral houses, according to the number of names, every male individually,* 3from twenty years old and up, everyone in Israel able to go to war. You and Aaron shall enroll them, company by company. 4A man from each tribe shall be with you, each man the head of his ancestral house.* 5These are the names of the men who shall assist you:

From Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur.

6From Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

7From Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab.

8From Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar.

9From Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon.

10From the sons of Joseph:

from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

11From Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni.

12From Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

13From Asher, Pagiel son of Ochran.

14From Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel.*

15From Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan."

16These were the ones chosen from the congregation, the leaders of their ancestral tribes, the heads of the divisions of Israel.*

17 Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name, 18 and on the first day of the second month they assembled the whole congregation together. They registered themselves in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names from twenty years old and up, individually, 19 as the LORD had commanded Moses. So he enrolled them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 The descendants of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, individually, every male from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* 21 those enrolled of the tribe of Reuben were forty-six thousand five hundred.

22 The descendants of Simeon, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, those of them who were numbered, according to the number of names, individually, every male from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* 23 those enrolled of the tribe of Simeon were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

24 The descendants of Gad, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* 25 those enrolled of the tribe of Gad were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

26 The descendants of Judah, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* 27 those enrolled of the tribe of Judah were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

28 The descendants of Issachar, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* 29 those enrolled of the tribe of Issachar were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

30 The descendants of Zebulun, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* 31 those enrolled of the tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

32 The descendants of Joseph: the descendants of Ephraim, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* 33 those enrolled of the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand five hundred; [34]the descendants of Manasseh, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* [35]those enrolled of the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

36 The descendants of Benjamin, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* [37]those enrolled of the tribe of Benjamin were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38 The descendants of Dan, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* [39]those enrolled of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40 The descendants of Asher, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* [41]those enrolled of the tribe of Asher were forty-one thousand five hundred.

42 The descendants of Naphtali, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war:* [43]those enrolled of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

44 These are those who were enrolled, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled with the help of the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each representing his ancestral house.* [45]So all those enrolled of the Israelites, by their ancestral houses, from twenty years old and up, everyone able to go to war in Israel —[46]all those enrolled were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.* [47]The Levites, however, were not numbered by their ancestral tribe along with them.*

48 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [49]"Only the tribe of Levi you shall not enroll, and you shall not take a census of them with the other Israelites. [50]Rather, you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the covenant and over all its equipment and over all that belongs to it; they are to carry the tabernacle and all its equipment, and they shall tend it and shall camp around the tabernacle.* [51]When the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down, and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And any outsider who comes near shall be put to death.* 52The other Israelites shall camp in their respective regimental camps, by companies,* 53but the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the covenant, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the Israelites, and the Levites shall perform the duties of the tabernacle of the covenant."* 54The Israelites did so; they did just as the LORD commanded Moses.

THE ORDER OF ENCAMPMENT AND MARCHING

1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, [2]"The Israelites shall camp each in their respective regiments, under ensigns by their ancestral houses; they shall camp facing the tent of meeting on every side.* [3]Those to camp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the regimental encampment of Judah by companies. The leader of the people of Judah shall be Nahshon son of Amminadab,* [4]with a company as enrolled of seventy-four thousand six hundred. [5]Those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar. The leader of the Issacharites shall be Nethanel son of Zuar,* [6]with a company as enrolled of fifty-four thousand four hundred. [7]Then the tribe of Zebulun. The leader of the Zebulunites shall be Eliab son of Helon, [8]with a company as enrolled of fifty-seven thousand four hundred. [9]The total enrollment of the camp of Judah, by companies, is one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred. They shall set out first.*

10 "On the south side shall be the regimental encampment of Reuben by companies. The leader of the Reubenites shall be Elizur son of Shedeur,* [11]with a company as enrolled of forty-six thousand five hundred. [12]And those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon. The leader of the Simeonites shall be Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai,* [13]with a company as enrolled of fifty-nine thousand three hundred. [14]Then the tribe of Gad. The leader of the Gadites shall be Eliasaph son of Deuel,[a,*] [15]with a company as enrolled of forty-five thousand six hundred fifty. [16]The total enrollment of the camp of Reuben, by companies, is one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty. They shall set out second.

17 "The tent of meeting, with the camp of the Levites, shall set out in the center of the camps; they shall set out just as they camp, each in position, by their regiments.*

18 "On the west side shall be the regimental encampment of Ephraim by companies. The leader of the people of Ephraim shall be Elishama son of Ammihud, [19]with a company as enrolled of forty thousand five hundred. [20]Next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh. The leader of the people of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel son of Pedahzur,* 21with a company as enrolled of thirty-two thousand two hundred. 22Then the tribe of Benjamin. The leader of the Benjaminites shall be Abidan son of Gideoni, 23with a company as enrolled of thirty-five thousand four hundred. 24The total enrollment of the camp of Ephraim, by companies, is one hundred eight thousand one hundred. They shall set out third.*

25 "On the north side shall be the regimental encampment of Dan by companies. The leader of the Danites shall be Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai,* 26with a company as enrolled of sixty-two thousand seven hundred. 27Those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher. The leader of the Asherites shall be Pagiel son of Ochran,* 28with a company as enrolled of forty-one thousand five hundred. 29Then the tribe of Naphtali. The leader of the Naphtalites shall be Ahira son of Enan, 30with a company as enrolled of fifty-three thousand four hundred. 31The total enrollment of the camp of Dan is one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set out last, by their regiments."*

32 This was the enrollment of the Israelites by their ancestral houses; the total enrollment in the camps by their companies was six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.* 33Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, the Levites were not enrolled among the other Israelites.*

34 The Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses: they camped by regiments, and they set out the same way, everyone by clans, according to ancestral houses.

Numbers 3

THE SONS OF AARON

1 This is the lineage of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. [2]These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar;* [3]these are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he ordained to serve as priests. [4]Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered unholy fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children.
Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the lifetime of their father Aaron.*

THE DUTIES OF THE LEVITES

5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [6]"Bring the tribe of Levi near and set them before Aaron the priest, so that they may assist him.* [7]They shall perform duties for him and for the whole congregation in front of the tent of meeting, doing service at the tabernacle; [8]they shall be in charge of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting and attend to the duties for the Israelites as they do service at the tabernacle. [9]You shall give the Levites to Aaron and his descendants; they are unreservedly given to him from among the Israelites.* [10]But you shall enroll Aaron and his descendants; it is they who shall attend to the priesthood, and any outsider who comes near shall be put to death."*

11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [12]"I hereby take the Levites from among the Israelites as substitutes for all the firstborn that open the womb among the Israelites. The Levites shall be mine,* [13]for all the firstborn are mine; when I killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated for my own all the firstborn in Israel, both human and animal; they shall be mine. I am the LORD."*

A CENSUS OF THE LEVITES

14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, [15]"Enroll the Levites by ancestral houses and by clans. You shall enroll every male from a month old and up."* 16So Moses enrolled them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. 17These were the sons of Levi, by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.* 18These were the names of the sons of Gershon by their clans: Libni and Shimei. 19The sons of Kohath by their clans: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 20The sons of Merari by their clans: Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of the Levites, by their ancestral houses.*

21 To Gershon belonged the clan of the Libnites and the clan of the Shimeites; these were the clans of the Gershonites.* 22Their enrollment, counting all the males from a month old and up, was seven thousand five hundred. 23The clans of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle on the west, 24with Eliasaph son of Lael as head of the ancestral house of the Gershonites. 25The responsibility of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting was the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting,* 26the hangings of the court, the screen for the entrance of the court that is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords—all the service pertaining to these.

27 To Kohath belonged the clan of the Amramites, the clan of the Izharites, the clan of the Hebronites, and the clan of the Uzzielites; these were the clans of the Kohathites.* 28Counting all the males, from a month old and up, there were eight thousand six hundred performing the duties of the sanctuary. 29The clans of the Kohathites were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle,* 30with Elizaphan son of Uzziel as head of the ancestral house of the clans of the Kohathites. 31Their responsibility was the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which the priests minister, and the screen—all the service pertaining to these. 32Eleazar son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites and to have oversight of those who performed the duties of the sanctuary.

33 To Merari belonged the clan of the Mahlites and the clan of the Mushites; these were the clans of Merari.* 34Their enrollment, counting all the males from a month old and up, was six thousand two hundred. 35The head of the ancestral house of the clans of Merari was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle. 36The responsibility assigned to the sons of Merari was the frames of the tabernacle, the bars, the pillars, the bases, and all their accessories—all the service pertaining to these,* 37also the pillars of the court all around, with their bases and pegs and cords.

38 Those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle on the east—in front of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise—were Moses and Aaron and Aaron's sons, who were to perform the duties of the sanctuary, whatever had to be done for the Israelites, and any outsider who came near was to be put to death.* 39The total enrollment of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron enrolled at the commandment of the LORD, by their clans, all the males from a month old and up, was twenty-two thousand.*

THE REDEMPTION OF THE FIRSTBORN

40 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Enroll all the firstborn males of the Israelites, from a month old and up, and count their names. 41But you shall take the Levites for me—I am the LORD—as substitutes for all the firstborn among the Israelites and the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for all the firstborn among the livestock of the Israelites."* 42So Moses enrolled all the firstborn among the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him. 43The total enrollment, all the firstborn males from a month old and up, counting the number of names, was twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.*

44 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 45"Take the Levites as substitutes for all the firstborn among the Israelites and the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for their livestock, and the Levites shall be mine. I am the LORD.* 46As the price of redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the Israelites, over and above the number of the Levites,* 47you shall take five shekels apiece, reckoning by the shekel of the sanctuary, a shekel of twenty gerahs.* 48Give to Aaron and his sons the money by which the excess number of them is redeemed." 49So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the Levites; 50from the firstborn of the Israelites he took the money, one thousand three hundred sixty-five shekels, reckoned by the shekel of the sanctuary,* 51and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

THE KOHATHITES

1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, [2]"Take a census of the Kohathites separate from the other Levites, by their clans and their ancestral houses, [3]from thirty years old up to fifty years old, all who qualify to do work relating to the tent of meeting.* [4]The service of the Kohathites relating to the tent of meeting concerns the most holy things.

5 "When the camp is to set out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and take down the screening curtain and cover the ark of the covenant with it; [6]then they shall put on it a covering of fine leather[b] and spread over that a cloth all of blue and put its poles in place.* [7]Over the table of the Presence they shall spread a blue cloth and put on it the plates, the dishes for incense, the bowls, and the flagons for the drink offering; the regular bread also shall be on it;* [8]then they shall spread over them a crimson cloth and cover it with a covering of fine leather[c] and put its poles in place. [9]They shall take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand for the light, with its lamps, its snuffers, its trays, and all the vessels for oil with which it is supplied,* [10]and they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of fine leather[d] and put it on the carrying frame. [11]Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth and cover it with a covering of fine leather[e] and put its poles in place,* [12]and they shall take all the utensils of the service that are used in the sanctuary and put them in a blue cloth and cover them with a covering of fine leather[f] and put them on the carrying frame. [13]They shall take away the ashes from the altar and spread a purple cloth over it, [14]and they shall put on it all the utensils of the altar, which are used for the service there, the firepans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar, and they shall spread on it a covering of fine leather[g] and put its poles in place. [15]When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, as the camp sets out, after that the Kohathites shall come to carry these, but they must not touch the holy things, or they will die. These are the things of the tent of meeting that the Kohathites are to carry.*

16 "Eleazar son of Aaron the priest shall have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, in the sanctuary and in its utensils."*

17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, [18]"You must not let the tribe of the clans of the Kohathites be destroyed from among the Levites. [19]This is how you shall deal with them in order that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each to a particular task or burden.* [20]But the Kohathites[h] must not go in to look on the holy things even for a moment, or they will die."

THE GERSHONITES AND MERARITES

21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [22]"Take a census of the Gershonites also, by their ancestral houses and by their clans; [23]from thirty years old up to fifty years old you shall enroll them, all who qualify to do work in the tent of meeting.* [24]This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites, in serving and bearing burdens: [25]They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tent of meeting with its covering, and the outer covering of fine leather[i] that is on top of it, and the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting,* [26]and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the entrance of the gate of the court that is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, and all the equipment for their service, and they shall do all that needs to be done with regard to them. [27]All the service of the Gershonites shall be at the command of Aaron and his sons, in all that they are to carry and in all that they have to do, and you shall assign to them as duties all that they are to carry.* [28]This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites relating to the tent of meeting, and their duties are to be under the oversight of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

29 "As for the Merarites, you shall enroll them by their clans and their ancestral houses; [30]from thirty years old up to fifty years old you shall enroll them, everyone who qualifies to do the work of the tent of meeting.* [31]This is their duty to carry, as the whole of their service in the tent of meeting: the frames of the tabernacle, with its bars, pillars, and bases,* [32]and the pillars of the court all around with their bases, pegs, and cords, with all their equipment and all their related service, and you shall assign by name the objects that they are required to carry. [33]This is the service of the clans of the Merarites, the whole of their service relating to the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest."*

CENSUS OF THE LEVITES

34 So Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation enrolled the Kohathites, by their clans and their ancestral houses,* [35]from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting, [36]and their enrollment by clans was two thousand seven hundred fifty. [37]This was the enrollment of the clans of the Kohathites, all who served at the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.*

38 The enrollment of the Gershonites, by their clans and their ancestral houses,* [39]from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting—[40]their enrollment by their clans and their ancestral houses was two thousand six hundred thirty. [41]This was the enrollment of the clans of the Gershonites, all who served at the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD.*

42 The enrollment of the clans of the Merarites, by their clans and their ancestral houses, [43]from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting, [44]and their enrollment by their clans was three thousand two hundred. [45]This is the enrollment of the clans of the Merarites, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.*

46 All those who were enrolled of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel enrolled, by their clans and their ancestral houses, [47]from thirty years old up to fifty years old, all who qualified to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens relating to the tent of meeting,* [48]and their enrollment was eight thousand five hundred eighty. [49]According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses, they were appointed to their several tasks of serving or carrying; thus they were enrolled by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 5

UNCLEAN PERSONS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Command the Israelites to put out of the camp everyone who has a defiling skin disease or a discharge and everyone who is unclean through contact with a corpse;* [3]you shall put out both male and female, putting them outside the camp; they must not defile their camp, where I dwell among them."* [4]The Israelites did so, putting them outside the camp; as the LORD had spoken to Moses, so the Israelites did.

CONFESSION AND RESTITUTION

5 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [6]"Speak to the Israelites: When a man or a woman wrongs another, breaking faith with the LORD, that person incurs guilt* [7]and shall confess the sin that has been committed. The person shall make full restitution for the wrong, adding one-fifth to it and giving it to the one who was wronged.* [8]If the injured party has no next of kin to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for wrong shall go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement with which atonement is made for the guilty party.* [9]Among all the sacred donations of the Israelites, every gift that they bring to the priest shall be his.* [10]The sacred donations of all are their own; whatever anyone gives to the priest shall be his."*

CONCERNING AN UNFAITHFUL WIFE

11 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [12]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: If any man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him,* [13]if a man has had intercourse with her but it is hidden from her husband, so that she is undetected though she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her since she was not caught in the act;* [14]if a spirit of jealousy comes on him and he is jealous of his wife who has defiled herself, or if a spirit of jealousy comes on him and he is jealous of his wife, though she has not defiled herself, [15]then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. And he shall bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an ephah of barley flour. He shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.*

16 "Then the priest shall bring her near and set her before the LORD; [17]the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water. [18]The priest shall set the woman before the LORD, dishevel the woman's hair, and place in her hands the grain offering of remembrance, which is the grain offering of jealousy. In his own hand the priest shall have the water of bitterness that brings the curse.* [19]Then the priest shall make her take an oath, saying, 'If no man has lain with you, if you have not turned aside to uncleanness while under your husband's authority, be immune to this water of bitterness that brings the curse. [20]But if you have gone astray while under your husband's authority, if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has had intercourse with you,' [21]—let the priest make the woman take the oath of the curse and say to the woman—'the LORD make you an execration and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your uterus drop, your womb discharge;[j,] [22]now may this water that brings the curse enter your bowels and make your womb discharge, your uterus drop!'[k] And the woman shall say, 'Amen. Amen.'

23 "Then the priest shall put these curses in writing and wash them off into the water of bitterness. [24]He shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings the curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her and cause bitter pain. [25]The priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand and shall elevate the grain offering before the LORD and bring it to the altar,* [26]and the priest shall take a handful of the grain offering as its memorial portion and turn it into smoke on the altar and afterward shall make the woman drink the water. [27]When he has made her drink the water, then, if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain, and her womb shall discharge, her uterus drop,[l] and the woman shall become an execration among her people.* [28]But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she shall be immune and be able to conceive children.

29 "This is the law in cases of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband's authority, goes astray and defiles herself,* 30or when a spirit of jealousy comes on a man and he is jealous of his wife, then he shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall apply this entire law to her. 31The man shall be free from iniquity, but the woman shall bear her iniquity."

Numbers 6

THE NAZIRITES

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When either men or women make a special vow, the vow of a nazirite, to separate themselves to the LORD,* [3]they shall separate themselves from wine and strong drink; they shall drink no wine vinegar or other vinegar and shall not drink any grape juice or eat grapes, fresh or dried. [4]All their days as nazirites they shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, not even the seeds or the skins.

5 "All the days of their nazirite vow no razor shall come upon the head; until the time is completed for which they separate themselves to the LORD, they shall be holy; they shall let the locks of the head grow long.*

6 "All the days that they separate themselves to the LORD they shall not go near a corpse.* [7]Even if their father or mother, brother or sister, should die, they may not defile themselves, because their consecration to God is upon the head. [8]All their days as nazirites they are holy to the LORD.

9 "If someone suddenly dies nearby, defiling the head of the nazirite, then they shall shave the head on the day of their cleansing; on the seventh day they shall shave it. [10]On the eighth day they shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting,* [11]and the priest shall offer one as a purification offering and the other as a burnt offering and make atonement for them, because they incurred guilt by reason of the corpse. They shall sanctify the head that same day [12]and separate themselves to the LORD for their days as nazirites and bring a male lamb a year old as a guilt offering. The former time shall be void because the nazarite was defiled.*

13 "This is the law for the nazirites when the time of their consecration has been completed: they shall be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting,* [14]and they shall offer their gift to the LORD, one male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb a year old without blemish as a purification offering, one ram without blemish as an offering of well-being,* [15]and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of choice flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, with their grain offering and their drink offerings.* 16The priest shall present them before the LORD and offer their purification offering and burnt offering 17and offer the ram as a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest also shall make the accompanying grain offering and drink offering. 18Then the nazirites shall shave the consecrated head at the entrance of the tent of meeting and shall take the hair from the consecrated head and put it on the fire under the sacrifice of well-being.* 19The priest shall take the shoulder of the ram, when it is boiled, and one unleavened cake out of the basket and one unleavened wafer and shall put them in the palms of the nazirites, after they have shaved the consecrated head. 20Then the priest shall elevate them as an elevation offering before the LORD; they are a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast that is elevated and the thigh that is offered. After that the nazirites may drink wine.

21 "This is the law for the nazirites who take a vow. Their offering to the LORD must be in accordance with the nazirite vow, apart from what else they can afford. In accordance with whatever vow they take, so they shall do, following the law for their consecration."

THE PRIESTLY BENEDICTION

22 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 23"Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying: Thus you shall bless the Israelites: You shall say to them:*

24The LORD bless you and keep you;*

25the LORD make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you;* 26the LORD lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.*

27 "So they shall put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them."*

Numbers 7

OFFERINGS OF THE LEADERS

1 On the day when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle and had anointed and consecrated it with all its furnishings and had anointed and consecrated the altar with all its utensils,* 2the leaders of Israel, heads of their ancestral houses, the leaders of the tribes, who were over those who were enrolled, made offerings.* 3They brought their offerings before the LORD, six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two of the leaders and for each one an ox; they presented them before the tabernacle.
4Then the LORD said to Moses, 5"Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the tent of meeting, and give them to the Levites, to each according to his service." 6So Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. 7Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the Gershonites, according to their service,* 8and four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the Merarites, according to their service, under the

Numbers 8

THE SEVEN LAMPS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to Aaron and say to him: When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand."* [3]Aaron did so; he set up its lamps in front of the lampstand, as the LORD had commanded Moses. [4]Now this was how the lampstand was made, out of hammered work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was hammered work; according to the pattern that the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.*

CONSECRATION AND SERVICE OF THE LEVITES

5 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [6]"Take the Levites from among the Israelites and cleanse them. [7]Thus you shall do to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of purification on them; have them shave their whole body with a razor and wash their clothes and so cleanse themselves.* [8]Then let them take a young bull and its grain offering of choice flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull for a purification offering.* [9]You shall bring the Levites before the tent of meeting and assemble the whole congregation of the Israelites.* [10]When you bring the Levites before the LORD, the Israelites shall lay their hands on the Levites, [11]and Aaron shall present the Levites before the LORD as an elevation offering from the Israelites, that they may do the service of the LORD. [12]The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and he shall offer the one for a purification offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.* [13]Then you shall have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons, and you shall present them as an elevation offering to the LORD.

14 "Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the other Israelites, and the Levites shall be mine.* [15]Thereafter the Levites may go in to do service at the tent of meeting, once you have cleansed them and presented them as an elevation offering.* [16]For they are unreservedly given to me from among the Israelites; I have taken them for myself, in place of all that open the womb, the firstborn of all the Israelites.* 17For all the firstborn among the Israelites are mine, both human and animal. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I consecrated them for myself, 18but I have taken the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the Israelites. 19Moreover, I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the Israelites, to do the service for the Israelites at the tent of meeting and to make atonement for the Israelites, in order that there may be no plague among the Israelites for coming too close to the sanctuary."*

20 Moses and Aaron and the whole congregation of the Israelites did with the Levites accordingly; the Israelites did with the Levites just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning them. 21The Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes; then Aaron presented them as an elevation offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.* 22Thereafter the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting in attendance on Aaron and his sons. As the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did with them.

23 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 24"This applies to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and up they shall begin to do duty in the service of the tent of meeting;* 25and from the age of fifty years they shall retire from the duty of the service and serve no more. 26They may assist their brothers in the tent of meeting in carrying out their duties, but they shall perform no service. Thus you shall do with the Levites in assigning their duties."

Numbers 9

THE PASSOVER AT SINAI

1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,* 2"Let the Israelites keep the Passover at its appointed time.* 3On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight,[o] you shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and all its regulations you shall keep it." 4So Moses told the Israelites that they should keep the Passover. 5They kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight,[p] in the wilderness of Sinai. Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the Israelites did.* 6Now there were certain people who were unclean through touching a corpse, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day.
They came before Moses and Aaron on that day* 7and said to him, "Although we are unclean through touching a corpse, why must we be kept from presenting the LORD's offering at its appointed time among the Israelites?" 8Moses said to them, "Wait, so that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you."*

9 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 10"Speak to the Israelites, saying: Anyone of you or your descendants who is unclean through touching a corpse or is away on a journey shall still keep the Passover to the LORD. 11In the second month on the fourteenth day, at twilight,[q] they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.* 12They shall leave none of it until morning nor break a bone of it; according to all the statute for the Passover they shall keep it.* 13But anyone who is clean and is not on a journey and yet refrains from keeping the Passover shall be cut off from the people for not presenting the LORD's offering at its appointed time; such a one shall bear the consequences for the sin.* 14Any alien residing among you who wishes to keep the Passover to the LORD shall do so according to the statute of the Passover and according to its regulation; you shall have one statute for both the resident alien and the native of the land."*

THE CLOUD AND THE FIRE

15 On the day the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the covenant, and from evening until morning it was over the tabernacle, having the appearance of fire.* 16It was always so: the cloud covered it by day[r] and the appearance of fire by night. 17Whenever the cloud lifted from over the tent, then the Israelites would set out, and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the Israelites would camp.*
18At the command of the LORD the Israelites would set out, and at the command of the LORD they would camp. As long as the cloud rested over the tabernacle, they would remain in camp.* 19Even when the cloud continued over the tabernacle many days, the Israelites would keep the charge of the LORD and would not set out.* 20Sometimes the cloud would remain a few days over the tabernacle, and according to the command of the LORD they would remain in camp; then according to the command of the LORD they would set out. 21Sometimes the cloud would remain from evening until morning, and when the cloud lifted in the morning, they would set out, or if it continued for a day and a night, when the cloud lifted they would set out. 22Whether it was two days or a month or a longer time that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, resting upon it, the Israelites would remain in camp and would not set out, but when it lifted they would set out.* 23At the command of the LORD they would camp, and at the command of the LORD they would set out. They kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by Moses.

Numbers 10

THE SILVER TRUMPETS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Make two silver trumpets; you shall make them of hammered work, and you shall use them for summoning the congregation and for breaking camp. [3]When both are blown, the whole congregation shall assemble before you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.* [4]But if only one is blown, then the leaders, the heads of the tribes of Israel, shall assemble before you. [5]When you blow an alarm, the camps on the east side shall set out;* [6]when you blow a second alarm, the camps on the south side shall set out. An alarm is to be blown whenever they are to set out.* [7]But when the assembly is to be gathered, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. [8]The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; this shall be a perpetual institution for you throughout your generations.* [9]When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, so that you may be remembered before the LORD your God and be saved from your enemies.* [10]Also on your days of rejoicing, at your appointed festivals, and at the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over your sacrifices of well-being; they shall serve as a reminder on your behalf before the LORD your God: I am the LORD your God."*

DEPARTURE FROM SINAI

11 In the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud lifted from over the tabernacle of the covenant.* [12]Then the Israelites set out by stages from the wilderness of Sinai, and the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran. [13]They set out for the first time at the command of the LORD by Moses.* [14]The standard of the camp of Judah set out first, company by company, and over the whole company was Nahshon son of Amminadab.* [15]Over the company of the tribe of Issachar was Nethanel son of Zuar, [16]and over the company of the tribe of Zebulun was Eliab son of Helon.

17 Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and the Merarites, who carried the tabernacle, set out.* [18]Next the standard of the camp of Reuben set out, company by company, and over the whole company was Elizur son of Shedeur.* [19]Over the company of the tribe of Simeon was Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, [20]and over the company of the tribe of Gad was Eliasaph son of Deuel.

21 Then the Kohathites, who carried the holy things, set out, and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.* [22]Next the standard of the camp of Ephraim set out, company by company, and over the whole company was Elishama son of Ammihud.* [23]Over the company of the tribe of Manasseh was Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, [24]and over the company of the tribe of Benjamin was Abidan son of Gideoni.

25 Then the standard of the camp of Dan, acting as the rear guard of all the camps, set out, company by company, and over the whole company was Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.* [26]Over the company of the tribe of Asher was Pagiel son of Ochran, [27]and over the company of the tribe of Naphtali was Ahira son of Enan. [28]This was the order of march of the Israelites, company by company, when they set out.

29 Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses's father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us, and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good to Israel."* [30]But he said to him, "I will not go, but I will go back to my own land and to my kindred." [31]He said, "Do not leave us, for you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will serve as eyes for us. [32]Moreover, if you go with us, whatever good the LORD does for us, the same we will do for you."*

33 So they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey with the ark of the covenant of the LORD going before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them,* [34]the cloud of the LORD being over them by day when they set out from the camp.*

35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses would say,

"Arise, O LORD, let your enemies be scattered and your foes flee before you."*

[36]And whenever it came to rest, he would say, “Return, O LORD, to the ten thousand thousands of Israel.”[s]

Numbers 11

COMPLAINING IN THE DESERT

1 Now when the people complained in the hearing of the LORD about their misfortunes, the LORD heard it, and his anger was kindled. Then the fire of the LORD burned against them and consumed some outlying parts of the camp.* [2]But the people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire abated.* [3]So that place was called Taberah,[t] because the fire of the LORD burned against them.

4 The camp followers with them had a strong craving, and the Israelites also wept again and said, "If only we had meat to eat!* [5]We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic,* [6]but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at."*

7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its color was like the color of gum resin.* [8]The people went around and gathered it, ground it in mills or beat it in mortars, then boiled it in pots and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like the taste of cakes baked with oil. [9]When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna would fall with it.*

10 Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, all at the entrances of their tents. Then the LORD became very angry, and Moses was displeased.* [11]So Moses said to the LORD, "Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why have I not found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? [12]Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom as a wet nurse carries a nursing child, to the land that you promised on oath to their ancestors'?* [13]Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they come weeping to me, saying, 'Give us meat to eat!'* [14]I am not able to carry all this people alone, for they are too heavy for me.* [15]If this is the way you are going to treat me, put me to death at once—if I have found favor in your sight—and do not let me see my misery."*

THE SEVENTY ELDERS

16 So the LORD said to Moses, "Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting and have them take their place there with you.* [17]I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take some of the spirit that is on you and put it on them, and they shall bear the burden of the people along with you so that you will not bear it all by yourself.* [18]And say to the people, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat, for you have wailed in the hearing of the LORD, saying, "If only we had meat to eat! Surely it was better for us in Egypt." Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.* [19]You shall eat not only one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days,* [20]but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you—because you have rejected the LORD who is among you and have wailed before him, saying, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?" ' " [21]But Moses said, "The people I am with number six hundred thousand on foot, and you say, 'I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month'! [22]Are there enough flocks and herds to slaughter for them? Are there enough fish in the sea to catch for them?"* [23]The LORD said to Moses, "Is the LORD's power limited?[u] Now you shall see whether my word will come true for you or not."*

24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and he gathered seventy of the elders of the people and placed them all around the tent.* [25]Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders, and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again.*

26 Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, so they prophesied in the camp.* [27]And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp." [28]And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men,[v] said, "My lord Moses, stop them!"* [29]But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets and that the LORD would put his spirit on them!"* [30]And Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

THE QUAILS

31 Then a wind went out from the LORD, and it brought quails from the sea and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, about two cubits deep on the ground.* 32So the people worked all that day and night and all the next day gathering the quails; the least anyone gathered was ten homers, and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp. 33But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.* 34So that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah,[w] because there they buried the people who had the craving.* 35From Kibroth-hattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth.*

Numbers 12

AARON AND MIRIAM JEALOUS OF MOSES

1 While they were at Hazeroth, Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had indeed married a Cushite woman),* 2and they said, "Has the LORD spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?" And the LORD heard it.* 3Now the man Moses was very humble, more so than anyone else on the face of the earth.* 4Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting." So the three of them came out. 5Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forward.* 6And he said, "Hear my words:

When there are prophets among you,
I the LORD make myself known to them in visions; I speak to them in dreams.*
7Not so with my servant Moses;
he is faithful in all my house.*
8With him I speak face to face—clearly, not in riddles, and he beholds the form of the LORD.

"Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"* 9And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and he departed.

10 When the cloud went away from over the tent, Miriam's skin had become diseased, as white as snow. And Aaron turned toward Miriam and saw that she was diseased.* 11Then Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, do not punish us[x] for a sin that we have so foolishly committed.* 12Do not let her be like one stillborn, whose flesh is half consumed when it comes out of its mother's womb." 13And Moses cried to the LORD, saying, "O God, please heal her." 14But the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, would she not bear her shame for seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp for seven days, and after that she may be brought in again."*

[15]So Miriam was shut out of the camp for seven days, and the people did not set out on the march until Miriam had been brought in again. [16]After that the people set out from Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 13

SPIES SENT INTO CANAAN

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites; from each of their ancestral tribes you shall send a man, every one a leader among them."* [3]So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran, according to the command of the LORD, all of them leading men among the Israelites. [4]These were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur; [5]from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori; [6]from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh; [7]from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph; [8]from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;* [9]from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu; [10]from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi; [11]from the tribe of Joseph (that is, from the tribe of Manasseh), Gaddi son of Susi; [12]from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli; [13]from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael; [14]from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi; [15]from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Machi. [16]These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses changed the name of Hoshea son of Nun to Joshua.*

17 Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan and said to them, "Go up there into the Negeb, and go up into the hill country,* [18]and see what the land is like and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many, [19]and whether the land they live in is good or bad, and whether the towns that they live in are unwalled or fortified, [20]and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there are trees in it or not. Be bold, and bring some of the fruit of the land." Now it was the season of the first ripe grapes.*

21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near Lebo-hamath. [22]They went up into the Negeb and came to Hebron, and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the Anakites, were there. (Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)* [23]And they came to the Wadi Eshcol and cut down from there a branch with a single cluster of grapes, and they carried it on a pole between two of them. They also brought some pomegranates and figs. [24]That place was called the Wadi Eshcol[y] because of the cluster that the Israelites cut down from there.

THE REPORT OF THE SPIES

25 At the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land. [26]And they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the Israelites in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation and showed them the fruit of the land.* [27]And they reported to him and said, "We came to the land to which you sent us; it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.* [28]Yet the people who live in the land are strong, and the towns are fortified and very large, and besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there.* [29]The Amalekites live in the land of the Negeb; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites live in the hill country, and the Canaanites live by the sea and along the Jordan."*

30 But Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, "Let us go up at once and occupy it, for we are well able to overcome it."* [31]Then the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against this people, for they are stronger than we."* [32]So they brought to the Israelites an unfavorable report of the land that they had spied out, saying, "The land that we have gone through as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people that we saw in it are of great size.* [33]There we saw the Nephilim (the Anakites come from the Nephilim), and to ourselves we seemed like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them."*

Numbers 14

THE PEOPLE REBEL

1 Then all the congregation raised a loud cry, and the people wept that night. [2]And all the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron; the whole congregation said to them, "Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness![*] [3]Why is the LORD bringing us into this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder; would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?" [4]So they said to one another, "Let us choose a captain and go back to Egypt."

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the Israelites.[] [6]And Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes [7]and said to all the congregation of the Israelites, "The land that we went through as spies is an exceedingly good land.[] [8]If the LORD is pleased with us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey.[] [9]Only, do not rebel against the LORD, and do not fear the people of the land, for they are no more than bread for us; their protection is removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them."[] [10]But the whole congregation threatened to stone them.

Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting to all the Israelites.[] [11]And the LORD said to Moses, "How long will this people despise me? And how long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them?[] [12]I will strike them with pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."[*]

MOSES INTERCEDES FOR THE PEOPLE

13 But Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for in your might you brought up this people from among them,[] [14]and they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you, O LORD, are in the midst of this people, for you, O LORD, are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them and you go in front of them, in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night. 15Now if you kill this people as one, then the nations who have heard about you will say, 16'It is because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land he swore to give them that he has slaughtered them in the wilderness.'* 17And now, therefore, let the power of the LORD be great in the way that you promised when you spoke, saying,

18'The LORD is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children
to the third and the fourth generation.'*

19"Forgive the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your steadfast love, just as you have pardoned this people, from Egypt even until now."*

20 Then the LORD said, "I do forgive, just as you have asked;* 21nevertheless, as I live and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD,* 22none of the people who have seen my glory and the signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness and yet have tested me these ten times and have not obeyed my voice 23shall see the land that I swore to give to their ancestors; none of those who despised me shall see it. 24But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me wholeheartedly, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it.* 25Now, since the Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the valleys, turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea."z,*

AN ATTEMPTED INVASION IS REPULSED

26 And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 27"How long shall this wicked congregation complain against me? I have heard the complaints of the Israelites, which they complain against me.* 28Say to them, 'As I live,' says the LORD, 'I will do to you the very things I heard you say:* 29your dead bodies shall fall in this very wilderness, and of all your number included in the census from twenty years old and up who have complained against me,* 30not one of you shall come into the land in which I swore to settle you, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.* 31But your little ones, who you said would become plunder, I will bring in, and they shall know the land that you have despised.* 32But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness.* 33And your children shall be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years and shall suffer for your faithlessness, until the last of your dead bodies lies in the wilderness.* 34According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day a year, you shall bear your iniquity, forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.'* 35I the LORD have spoken; surely I will do thus to all this wicked congregation gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die."*

36 And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report about the land,* 37the men who brought an unfavorable report about the land died by a plague before the LORD. 38But Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh alone remained alive, of those men who went to spy out the land.*

39 When Moses told these words to all the Israelites, the people mourned greatly.* 40They rose early in the morning and went up to the heights of the hill country, saying, "Here we are. We will go up to the place that the LORD has promised, for we have sinned."* 41But Moses said, "Why do you continue to transgress the command of the LORD? That will not succeed. 42Do not go up, for the LORD is not with you; do not let yourselves be struck down before your enemies.* 43For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will confront you there, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned back from following the LORD, the LORD will not be with you." 44But they presumed to go up to the heights of the hill country, even though the ark of the covenant of the LORD and Moses had not left the camp.* 45Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and defeated them, pursuing them as far as Hormah.*

VARIOUS OFFERINGS

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When you come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving you,* [3]and you make an offering by fire[a] to the LORD from the herd or from the flock—whether a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering or at your appointed festivals—to make a pleasing odor for the LORD,* [4]then whoever presents such an offering to the LORD shall present also a grain offering, one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour, mixed with one-fourth of a hin of oil.* [5]Moreover, you shall offer one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering with the burnt offering or the sacrifice, for each lamb.* [6]For a ram, you shall offer a grain offering, two-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil,* [7]and as a drink offering you shall offer one-third of a hin of wine, a pleasing odor to the LORD. [8]When you offer a bull as a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as an offering of well-being to the LORD,* [9]then you shall present with the bull a grain offering, three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour, mixed with half a hin of oil,* [10]and you shall present as a drink offering half a hin of wine, as an offering by fire,[b] a pleasing odor to the LORD.

11 "Thus it shall be done for each ox or ram or for each of the male lambs or the kids. [12]According to the number that you offer, so you shall do with each and every one. [13]Every native Israelite shall do these things in this way, in presenting an offering by fire,[c] a pleasing odor to the LORD. [14]An alien who lives with you or who takes up permanent residence among you and wishes to offer an offering by fire,[d] a pleasing odor to the LORD, shall do as you do. [15]As for the assembly, there shall be for both you and the resident alien a single statute, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; you and the alien shall be alike before the LORD.* [16]You and the alien who resides with you shall have the same law and the same ordinance."

17 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [18]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: After you come into the land to which I am bringing you,* 19 whenever you eat of the bread of the land you shall present a donation to the LORD.* 20 From your first batch of dough you shall present a loaf as a donation; you shall present it just as you present a donation from the threshing floor.* 21 Throughout your generations you shall give to the LORD a donation from the first of your batch of dough.

22 "But if you unintentionally fail to observe all these commandments that the LORD has spoken to Moses* — 23 everything that the LORD has commanded you by Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and thereafter, throughout your generations — 24 then if it was done unintentionally without the knowledge[e] of the congregation, the whole congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD, together with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a purification offering.* 25 The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the Israelites, and they shall be forgiven; it was unintentional, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire[f] to the LORD, and their purification offering before the LORD, for their error.* 26 All the congregation of the Israelites shall be forgiven, as well as the aliens residing among you, because the whole people was involved in the error.

27 "An individual who sins unintentionally shall present a female goat a year old for a purification offering.* 28 And the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the one who commits an error, when it is unintentional, to make atonement for the person, who then shall be forgiven.* 29 For both the native among the Israelites and the alien residing among you, you shall have the same law for anyone who acts in error.* 30 But whoever acts highhandedly, whether native-born or an alien, affronts the LORD and shall be cut off from among the people. 31 Because of having despised the word of the LORD and broken his commandment, such a person shall be utterly cut off and bear the guilt."*

PENALTY FOR VIOLATING THE SABBATH

32 When the Israelites were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.* 33 Those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses, Aaron, and the whole congregation. 34 They put him in custody because it was not clear what should be done to him.* 35Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him outside the camp."* 36The whole congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

FRINGES ON GARMENTS

37 The LORD said to Moses, 38"Speak to the Israelites, and tell them to make fringes on the corners of their garments throughout their generations and to put a blue cord on the fringe at each corner.* 39You have the fringe so that, when you see it, you will remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them and not follow the lust of your own heart and your own eyes.* 40So you shall remember and do all my commandments, and you shall be holy to your God.* 41I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the LORD your God."

Numbers 16

REVOLT OF KORAH, DATHAN, AND ABIRAM

1 Now Korah son of Izhar son of Kohath son of Levi, along with Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth son[g] of Reuben, took* [2]two hundred fifty Israelite men, leaders of the congregation, chosen from the assembly, well-known men, and they confronted Moses.* [3]They assembled against Moses and against Aaron and said to them, "You have gone too far!
All the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. So why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"* [4]When Moses heard it, he fell on his face.* [5]Then he spoke to Korah and all his congregation, saying, "In the morning the LORD will make known who is his and who is holy and who will be allowed to approach him; the one whom he will choose he will allow to approach him.* [6]Do this: take censers, Korah and all your[h] congregation, [7]and tomorrow put fire in them, and lay incense on them before the LORD, and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You Levites have gone too far!" [8]Then Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you Levites! [9]Is it too little for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel to allow you to approach him in order to perform the duties of the LORD's tabernacle and to stand before the congregation and serve them?* [10]He has allowed you to approach him, and all your brother Levites with you, yet you seek the priesthood as well! [11]Therefore you and all your congregation have gathered together against the LORD. What is Aaron that you rail against him?"*

12 Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, but they said, "We will not come! [13]Is it too little that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you must also lord it over us?* [14]It is clear you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards.
Would you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come!"*

15 Moses was very angry and said to the LORD, "Pay no attention to their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, and I have not harmed any one of them."* 16And Moses said to Korah, "As for you and all your congregation, be present tomorrow before the LORD, you and they and Aaron,* 17and let each one of you take his censer and put incense on it and each one of you present his censer before the LORD, two hundred fifty censers, you also, and Aaron, each his censer." 18So each man took his censer, and they put fire in the censers and laid incense on them, and they stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron. 19Then Korah assembled the whole congregation against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole congregation.*

20 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 21"Separate yourselves from this congregation, so that I may consume them in a moment."* 22They fell on their faces and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one person sin and you become angry with the whole congregation?"*

23 And the LORD spoke to Moses: 24"Speak to the congregation, saying: Get away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram." 25So Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram; the elders of Israel followed him. 26He spoke to the congregation, saying, "Turn away from the tents of these wicked men and touch nothing of theirs, or you will be swept away for all their sins."* 27So they got away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrances of their tents, together with their wives, their children, and their little ones. 28And Moses said, "This is how you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; it has not been of my own accord:* 29If these people die a natural death or if a natural fate comes on them, then the LORD has not sent me. 30But if the LORD creates something new and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up, with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised the LORD."*

31 As soon as he finished speaking all these words, the ground under them was split apart.* 32The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households—everyone who belonged to Korah and all their goods.* 33So they with all that belonged to them went down alive into Sheol; the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly. 34All Israel around them fled at their outcry, for they said, "The earth will swallow us, too!" 35And fire came out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred fifty men offering the incense.*

36 [i]Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 37"Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to take the censers out of the blaze, then scatter the fire far and wide. 38For the censers of these sinners have become holy at the cost of their lives. Make them into hammered plates as a covering for the altar, for they presented them before the LORD and they became holy. Thus they shall be a sign to the Israelites."* 39So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers that had been presented by those who were burned, and they were hammered out as a covering for the altar—40a reminder to the Israelites that no outsider, who is not of the descendants of Aaron, shall approach to offer incense before the LORD, so as not to become like Korah and his congregation, just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.*

41 On the next day, however, the whole congregation of the Israelites rebelled against Moses and against Aaron, saying, "You have killed the people of the LORD."* 42And when the congregation had assembled against them, Moses and Aaron turned toward the tent of meeting; the cloud had covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.* 43Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting, 44and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 45"Get away from this congregation, so that I may consume them in a moment." And they fell on their faces.* 46Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, put fire on it from the altar and lay incense on it and carry it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them. For wrath has gone out from the LORD; the plague has begun."* 47So Aaron took it as Moses had ordered and ran into the middle of the assembly, where the plague had already begun among the people. He put on the incense and made atonement for the people.* 48He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped.* 49Those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the affair of Korah.* 50When the plague was stopped, Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

THE BUDDING OF AARON'S ROD

17 [j]The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Speak to the Israelites, and get twelve staffs from them, one for each ancestral house, from all the leaders of their ancestral houses. Write each man's name on his staff, [3]and write Aaron's name on the staff of Levi. For there shall be one staff for the head of each ancestral house. [4]Place them in the tent of meeting before the covenant, where I meet with you.* [5]And the staff of the man whom I choose shall sprout; thus I will put a stop to the complaints of the Israelites that they continually make against you."* [6]Moses spoke to the Israelites, and all their leaders gave him staffs, one for each leader, according to their ancestral houses, twelve staffs; and the staff of Aaron was among theirs. [7]So Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the tent of the covenant.*

8 When Moses went into the tent of the covenant on the next day, the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted. It put forth buds, produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds. [9]Then Moses brought out all the staffs from before the LORD to all the Israelites, and they looked, and each man took his staff. [10]And the LORD said to Moses, "Put back the staff of Aaron before the covenant, to be kept as a warning to rebels, so that you may make an end of their complaints against me, or else they will die."* [11]Moses did so; just as the LORD commanded him, so he did.

12 The Israelites said to Moses, "We are perishing; we are lost; all of us are lost! [13]Everyone who approaches the tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all to perish?"*

Numbers 18

RESPONSIBILITY OF PRIESTS AND LEVITES

1 The LORD said to Aaron, "You and your sons and your ancestral house with you shall bear responsibility for offenses connected with the sanctuary, while you and your sons alone shall bear responsibility for offenses connected with the priesthood.* 2So bring with you also your brothers of the tribe of Levi, your ancestral tribe, in order that they may be joined to you and serve you while you and your sons with you are in front of the tent of the covenant.* 3They shall perform duties for you and for the whole tent.
But they must not approach either the utensils of the sanctuary or the altar, or else both they and you will die.* 4They are attached to you in order to perform the duties of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; no outsider shall approach you.* 5You yourselves shall perform the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, so that wrath may never again come upon the Israelites.* 6It is I who now take your brother Levites from among the Israelites; they are now yours as a gift, dedicated to the LORD, to perform the service of the tent of meeting.* 7But you and your sons with you shall diligently perform your priestly duties in all that concerns the altar and the area behind the curtain. I give your priesthood as a gift;[k] any outsider who approaches shall be put to death."*

THE PRIESTS' PORTION

8 The LORD spoke to Aaron, "I have given you charge of the offerings made to me, all the holy gifts of the Israelites; I have given them to you and your sons as a priestly portion due you in perpetuity.* 9This shall be yours from the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs that they render to me as a most holy thing, whether grain offering, purification offering, or guilt offering, shall belong to you and your sons.*
10As a most holy thing you shall eat it; every male may eat it; it shall be holy to you.* 11This also is yours: I have given to you, together with your sons and daughters, as a perpetual due, whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the elevation offerings of the Israelites; everyone who is clean in your house may eat them.* 12All the best of the oil and all the best of the wine and of the grain, the choice produce that they give to the LORD, I have given to you.* 13The first fruits of all that is in their land that they bring to the LORD shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house may eat of it.*

14Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours.* 15The first issue of the womb of all creatures, human and animal, that is offered to the LORD shall be yours, but the firstborn of human beings you shall redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.* 16Their redemption price, reckoned from one month of age, you shall fix at five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary (that is, twenty gerahs).* 17But the firstborn of a cow or the firstborn of a sheep or the firstborn of a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall dash their blood on the altar and turn their fat into smoke as an offering by fire[l] for a pleasing odor to the LORD,* 18but their flesh shall be yours, just as the breast that is elevated and as the right thigh are yours. 19All the holy offerings that the Israelites present to the LORD I have given to you, together with your sons and daughters, as a perpetual due; it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD for you and your descendants as well."* 20Then the LORD said to Aaron, "You shall have no allotment in their land, nor shall you have any share among them; I am your share and your possession among the Israelites.*

21 "To the Levites I have given every tithe in Israel for a possession in return for the service that they perform, the service in the tent of meeting.*
22From now on the Israelites shall no longer approach the tent of meeting, or else they will incur guilt and die.* 23But the Levites shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear responsibility for their own offenses; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations.
But among the Israelites they shall have no allotment,* 24because I have given to the Levites as their portion the tithe of the Israelites, which they set apart as an offering to the LORD. Therefore I have said of them that they shall have no allotment among the Israelites."

25 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 26"You shall say to the Levites: When you receive from the Israelites the tithe that I have given you from them for your portion, you shall set apart an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe.* 27It shall be reckoned to you as your gift, the same as the grain of the threshing floor and the fullness of the winepress. [28]Thus you also shall set apart an offering to the LORD from all the tithes that you receive from the Israelites, and from them you shall give the LORD's offering to the priest Aaron.* [29]Out of all the gifts to you, you shall set apart every offering due to the LORD; the best of all of them is the part to be consecrated. [30]Say also to them: When you have set apart the best of it, then the rest shall be reckoned to the Levites as produce of the threshing floor and as produce of the winepress. [31]You may eat it in any place, you and your households, for it is your payment for your service in the tent of meeting. [32]You shall incur no guilt by reason of it, when you have offered the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy gifts of the Israelites, on pain of death."*

Numbers 19

CEREMONY OF THE RED HEIFER

1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, [2]"This is a statute of the law that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer without defect, in which there is no blemish and on which no yoke has been laid.* [3]You shall give it to the priest Eleazar, and it shall be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.* [4]The priest Eleazar shall take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the tent of meeting.* [5]Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight; its skin, its flesh, and its blood, with its entrails,[m] shall be burned. [6]The priest shall take cedarwood, hyssop, and crimson material and throw them into the fire in which the heifer is burning.* [7]Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp, but the priest shall remain unclean until evening.* [8]The one who burns the heifer[n] shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water; he shall remain unclean until evening. [9]Then someone who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place, and they shall be kept for the congregation of the Israelites for the water for cleansing. It is a purification offering.* [10]The one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

"This shall be a perpetual statute for the Israelites and for the alien residing among them. [11]Those who touch the dead body of any human being shall be unclean seven days.* [12]They shall purify themselves with the water on the third day and on the seventh day and so be clean, but if they do not purify themselves on the third day and on the seventh day, they will not become clean.* [13]All who touch a corpse, the body of a human being who has died, and do not purify themselves defile the tabernacle of the LORD; such persons shall be cut off from Israel. Since water for cleansing was not dashed on them, they remain unclean; their uncleanness is still on them.*

14 "This is the law when someone dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent and everyone who is in the tent shall be unclean seven days.

[15]And every open vessel with no cover fastened on it is unclean. [16]Whoever in the open field touches one who has been killed by a sword or who has died naturally,[o] or a human bone, or a grave shall be unclean seven days.* [17]For the unclean they shall take some ashes of the burnt purification offering, and running water shall be added in a vessel;* [18]then a clean person shall take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the furnishings, on the persons who were there, and on whoever touched the bone, the slain, the corpse, or the grave. [19]The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean ones on the third day and on the seventh day, thus purifying them on the seventh day. Then they shall wash their clothes and bathe themselves in water, and at evening they shall be clean.* [20]Any who are unclean but do not purify themselves, those persons shall be cut off from the assembly, for they have defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. Since the water for cleansing has not been dashed on them, they are unclean.*

21 "It shall be a perpetual statute for them. The one who sprinkles the water for cleansing shall wash his clothes, and whoever touches the water for cleansing shall be unclean until evening. [22]Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean, and anyone who touches it shall be unclean until evening."*

Numbers 20

THE WATERS OF MERIBAH

1 The Israelites, the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh. Miriam died there and was buried there.*

2 Now there was no water for the congregation, so they gathered together against Moses and against Aaron.* 3The people quarreled with Moses and said, "Would that we had died when our kindred died before the LORD!*
4Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die here?* 5Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to bring us to this wretched place? It is no place for grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, and there is no water to drink." 6Then Moses and Aaron went away from the assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting; they fell on their faces, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.* 7The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 8"Take the staff, and assemble the congregation, you and your brother Aaron, and command the rock before their eyes to yield its water. Thus you shall bring water out of the rock for them; thus you shall provide drink for the congregation and their livestock."*

9 So Moses took the staff from before the LORD, as he had commanded him. 10Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, "Listen, you rebels; shall we bring water for you out of this rock?"* 11Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff; water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their livestock drank.* 12But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust in me, to show my holiness before the eyes of the Israelites, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them."* 13These are the waters of Meribah,[p] where the Israelites quarreled with the LORD and through which he showed himself to be holy.*

PASSAGE THROUGH EDOM REFUSED

14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the adversity that has befallen us,* 15how our ancestors went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians oppressed us and our ancestors,* 16and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt, and here we are in Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.* 17Now let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard or drink water from any well; we will go along the King's Highway, not turning aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory."

18 But Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through, or we will come out with the sword against you." 19The Israelites said to him, "We will stay on the highway, and if we drink of your water, we and our livestock, then we will pay for it. It is only a small matter; just let us pass through on foot."* 20But he said, "You shall not pass through." And Edom came out against them with a large force, heavily armed. 21Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through their territory, so Israel turned away from them.*

THE DEATH OF AARON

22 They set out from Kadesh, and the Israelites, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.* 23Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom, 24"Let Aaron be gathered to his people. For he shall not enter the land that I have given to the Israelites, because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.*
25Take Aaron and his son Eleazar, and bring them up Mount Hor;* 26strip Aaron of his vestments, and put them on his son Eleazar. But Aaron shall be gathered to his people[q] and shall die there." 27Moses did as the LORD had commanded; they went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole congregation. 28Moses stripped Aaron of his vestments and put them on his son Eleazar, and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.* 29When all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, all the house of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

Numbers 21

THE BRONZE SERPENT

1 When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.* [2]Then Israel made a vow to the LORD and said, "If you will indeed give this people into our hands, then we will utterly destroy their towns." [3]The LORD listened to the voice of Israel and handed over the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their towns; so the place was called Hormah.[r]

4 From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea,[s] to go around the land of Edom, but the people became discouraged on the way.* [5]The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food."* [6]Then the LORD sent poisonous[t] serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died.*
[7]The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people.* [8]And the LORD said to Moses, "Make a poisonous[u] serpent, and set it on a pole, and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." [9]So Moses made a serpent of bronze and put it upon a pole, and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.*

THE JOURNEY TO MOAB

10 The Israelites set out and camped in Oboth.* [11]They set out from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim, in the wilderness bordering Moab toward the sunrise.* [12]From there they set out and camped in the Wadi Zered.*
[13]From there they set out and camped on the other side of the Arnon, in[v] the wilderness that extends from the boundary of the Amorites, for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. [14]Wherefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD,

"Waheb in Suphah and the wadis.
The Arnon [15]and the slopes of the wadis that extend to the seat of Ar and lie along the border of Moab."[w,*]

16 From there they continued to Beer;[x] that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water." [17]Then Israel sang this song:

"Spring up, O well!—Sing to it!— [18]the well that the leaders sank, that the nobles of the people dug, with the scepter, with the staff."

From the wilderness to Mattanah, [19]from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, [20]and from Bamoth to the valley lying in the region of Moab by the top of Pisgah that overlooks the wasteland.[y]

KING SIHON DEFEATED

21 Then Israel sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites, saying,[] [22]"Let me pass through your land; we will not turn aside into field or vineyard; we will not drink the water of any well; we will go by the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory."[] [23]But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. Sihon gathered all his people together and went out against Israel to the wilderness; he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.[] [24]Israel put him to the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as to the Ammonites, for the boundary of the Ammonites was strong.[] [25]Israel took all these towns, and Israel settled in all the towns of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages. [26]For Heshbon was the city of King Sihon of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and captured all his land as far as the Arnon. [27]Therefore the singers say,

"Come to Heshbon; let it be built;
let the city of Sihon be established.
[28]For fire came out from Heshbon, flame from the city of Sihon.

It devoured Ar of Moab and swallowed up[z] the heights of the Arnon.*
29 Woe to you, O Moab!
You are undone, O people of Chemosh!
He has made his sons fugitives and his daughters captives to an Amorite king, Sihon.*
30 So their posterity perished from Heshbon[a] to Dibon, and we laid waste until fire spread to Medeba."[b,*]

31 Thus Israel settled in the land of the Amorites. 32 Moses sent to spy out Jazer, and they captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who were there.*

KING OG DEFEATED

33 Then they turned and went up the road to Bashan, and King Og of Bashan came out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.* 34 But the LORD said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him, for I have given him into your hand, with all his people and his land. You shall do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon."* 35 So they killed him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivor left, and they took possession of his land.

Numbers 22

BALAK SUMMONS BALAAM TO CURSE ISRAEL

1 The Israelites set out and camped in the plains of Moab across the Jordan from Jericho.* [2]Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. [3]Moab was in great dread of the people, because they were so numerous; Moab was overcome with fear of the Israelites.* [4]And Moab said to the elders of Midian, "This horde will now lick up all that is around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field." Now Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.* [5]He sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is on the Euphrates,[c] in the land of Amaw,[d] to summon him, saying, "A people has come out of Egypt; they have spread over the face of the earth, and they have settled next to me.* [6]Come now, curse this people for me, since they are stronger than I; perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them from the land, for I know that whomever you bless is blessed, and whomever you curse is cursed."*

7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand, and they came to Balaam and gave him Balak's message.* [8]He said to them, "Stay here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, just as the LORD speaks to me"; so the officials of Moab stayed with Balaam.* [9]God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?" [10]Balaam said to God, "King Balak son of Zippor of Moab has sent me this message: [11]'Look, a people has come[e] out of Egypt and has spread over the face of the earth; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to fight against them and drive them out.' " [12]God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed."* [13]So Balaam rose in the morning and said to the officials of Balak, "Go to your own land, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you." [14]So the officials of Moab rose and went to Balak and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."

15 Once again Balak sent officials, more numerous and more distinguished than these. [16]They came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak son of Zippor: Do not let anything hinder you from coming to me, [17]for I will surely do you great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do; come, curse this people for me."* [18]But Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, "Although Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD my God, to do less or more.* [19]You also stay here overnight, so that I may learn what more the LORD may say to me." [20]That night God came to Balaam and said to him, "If the men have come to summon you, get up and go with them, but do only what I tell you to do."* [21]So Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the officials of Moab.*

BALAAM, THE DONKEY, AND THE ANGEL

22 God's anger was kindled because he was going, and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the road as his adversary. Now he was riding on the donkey, and his two servants were with him. [23]The donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with a drawn sword in his hand, so the donkey turned off the road and went into the field, and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn it back onto the road.* [24]Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on either side.* [25]When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, it scraped against the wall and scraped Balaam's foot against the wall, so he struck it again. [26]Then the angel of the LORD went ahead and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left. [27]When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, it lay down under Balaam, and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff. [28]Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and it said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"* [29]Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have made a fool of me! I wish I had a sword in my hand! I would kill you right now!"* [30]But the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I been in the habit of treating you this way?" And he said, "No."*

31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with his drawn sword in his hand, and he bowed down, falling on his face.* [32]The angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? I have come out as an adversary because your way is perverse[f] before me. [33]The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If it had not turned away from me, surely just now I would have killed you and let it live." [34]Then Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not know that you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now therefore, if it is displeasing to you, I will return home."* [35]The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you to speak." So Balaam went on with the officials of Balak.*

36 When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at Ir-moab, on the boundary formed by the Arnon, at the farthest point of the boundary. [37]Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not send to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?"* [38]Balaam said to Balak, "I have come to you now, but do I have power to say just anything? The word God puts in my mouth, that is what I must say."* [39]Then Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth. [40]Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep and sent them to Balaam and to the officials who were with him.

BALAAM'S FIRST ORACLE

41 On the next day Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-baal, and from there he could see part of the people of Israel.g,*

Numbers 23

1 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."* [2]Balak did as Balaam had said and offered[h] a bull and a ram on each altar.* [3]Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your burnt offerings while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me. Whatever he shows me I will tell you." And he went to a bare height.*

4 Then God met Balaam, and Balaam[i] said to him, "I have arranged the seven altars and have offered a bull and a ram on each altar."* [5]The LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth and said, "Return to Balak, and this is what you must say."* [6]So he returned to Balak,[j] who was standing beside his burnt offerings with all the officials of Moab. [7]Then Balaam[k] uttered his oracle, saying,

"Balak has brought me from Aram, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains:
'Come, curse Jacob for me.
Come, denounce Israel!'* [8]How can I curse whom God has not cursed?
How can I denounce those whom the LORD has not denounced?
*
[9]For from the top of the crags I see him; from the hills I behold him.
Here is a people living alone and not reckoning itself among the nations!*
[10]Who can count the dust of Jacob or number the dust cloud[l] of Israel?
Let me die the death of the upright, and let my end be like his!"*

11 Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but now you have done nothing but bless them."*

12He answered, “Must I not take care to say what the LORD puts into my mouth?”*

BALAAM’S SECOND ORACLE

13 So Balak said to him, “Come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only part of them and shall not see them all; then curse them for me from there.” 14So he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah. He built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.* 15Balaam[m] said to Balak, “Stand here beside your burnt offerings, while I meet the LORD over there.” 16The LORD met Balaam, put a word into his mouth, and said, “Return to Balak, and this is what you shall say.”* 17When he came to him, he was standing beside his burnt offerings with the officials of Moab. Balak said to him, “What has the LORD said?” 18Then Balaam[n] uttered his oracle, saying, “Rise, Balak, and hear; listen to me, O son of Zippor: 19God is not a human being, that he should lie, or a mortal, that he should change his mind.

Has he promised, and will he not do it?
Has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it?*
20See, I received a command to bless;
he has blessed, and I cannot revoke it.*
21He has not beheld misfortune in Jacob, nor has he seen trouble in Israel.
The LORD their God is with them, acclaimed as a king among them.*
22God, who brings them out of Egypt, is like the horns of a wild ox for them.*
23Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, no divination against Israel;
now it shall be said of Jacob and Israel,

‘See what God has done!’

[24]Look, a people rising up like a lioness and rousing itself like a lion!
It does not lie down until it has eaten the prey and drunk the blood of the slain.”*

25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Do not curse them at all, and do not bless them at all.” [26]But Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not speak to you, saying, ‘Whatever the LORD says, that is what I must do’?”*

27 So Balak said to Balaam, “Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.”* [28]So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which overlooks the wasteland.o [29]Balaam said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”* [30]So Balak did as Balaam had said and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24

BALAAM'S THIRD ORACLE

1 Now Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, so he did not go, as at other times, to look for omens but set his face toward the wilderness.*
2Balaam looked up and saw Israel camping tribe by tribe. Then the spirit of God came upon him,* 3and he uttered his oracle, saying,

"The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is clear,p,* 4the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty,q who falls down but with eyes uncovered:* 5How fair are your tents, O Jacob, your encampments, O Israel!
6Like palm groves that stretch far away, like gardens beside a river, like aloes that the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters.*
7Water shall flow from his buckets, and his seed shall have abundant water; his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.*
8God, who brings him out of Egypt, is like the horns of a wild ox for him; he shall devour the nations that are his foes and break their bones.
He shall strike with his arrows.r,* 9He crouched; he lay down like a lion and like a lioness; who will rouse him up?

Blessed is everyone who blesses you, and cursed is everyone who curses you."*

10 Then Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. Balak said to Balaam, "I summoned you to curse my enemies, but instead you have blessed them these three times. 11Now be off with you! Go home! I said, 'I will reward you richly,' but the LORD has denied you any reward."* 12And Balaam said to Balak, "Did I not speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying, 13'If Balak should give me his house full of silver and gold, I would not be able to go beyond the word of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own will; what the LORD says, that is what I will say'?* 14So now, I am going to my people; let me advise you what this people will do to your people in days to come."*

BALAAM'S FOURTH ORACLE

15 So he uttered his oracle, saying,
"The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is clear,[s] 16the oracle of one who hears the words of God and knows the knowledge of the Most High,[t] who sees the vision of the Almighty,[u] who falls down but with eyes uncovered: 17I see him but not now; I behold him but not near—a star shall come out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel; it shall crush the foreheads[v] of Moab and the heads[w] of all the Shethites.*
18Edom will become a possession, Seir a possession of its enemies, while Israel does valiantly.*
19One out of Jacob shall rule and destroy the survivors of Ir.”*

20 Then he looked on Amalek and uttered his oracle, saying, “First among the nations was Amalek, but its end is to perish forever.”*

21 Then he looked on the Kenite and uttered his oracle, saying, “Enduring is your dwelling place, and your nest is set in the rock, [22]yet Kain is destined for burning.

How long shall Asshur take you away captive?”

23 Again he uttered his oracle, saying,

“Alas, who shall live when God does this?[x]

[24]But ships shall come from Kittim and shall afflict Asshur and Eber, and he also shall perish forever.”*

25 Then Balaam got up and went back to his place, and Balak also went his way.*

Numbers 25

WORSHIP OF BAAL OF PEOR

1 While Israel was staying at Shittim, the people began to have sexual relations with the women of Moab.* [2]These invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.*
[3]Thus Israel yoked itself to the Baal of Peor, and the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel.* [4]The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people and impale them in the sun before the LORD, in order that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel."* [5]And Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Each of you shall kill any of your people who have yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor."

6 Just then one of the Israelites came and brought a Midianite woman into his family, in the sight of Moses and in the sight of the whole congregation of the Israelites, while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting. [7]When Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he got up and left the congregation. Taking a spear in his hand,* [8]he went after the Israelite man into the tent and pierced the two of them, the Israelite and the woman, through the belly. So the plague was stopped among the Israelites. [9]Nevertheless those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.*

10 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [11]"Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the Israelites by manifesting such zeal among them on my behalf that in my jealousy I did not consume the Israelites.* [12]Therefore say, 'I hereby grant him my covenant of peace.* [13]It shall be for him and for his descendants after him a covenant of perpetual priesthood, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement for the Israelites.' "*

14 The name of the slain Israelite man who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, head of an ancestral house belonging to the Simeonites. [15]The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi daughter of Zur, who was the head of a clan, an ancestral house in Midian.*

16 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [17]"Harass the Midianites, and defeat them,* [18]for they have harassed you by the trickery with which they deceived you in the affair of Peor, and in the affair of Cozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midian, their sister; she was killed on the day of the plague that resulted from Peor."*

Numbers 26

A CENSUS OF THE NEW GENERATION

1 After the plague the LORD said to Moses and to Eleazar[y] the priest, [2]"Take a census of the whole congregation of the Israelites, from twenty years old and up, by their ancestral houses, everyone in Israel able to go to war."* [3]Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying, [4]"Take a census of the people,[z] from twenty years old and up," as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Israelites who came out of the land of Egypt were:

5 Reuben, the firstborn of Israel. The descendants of Reuben: of Hanoch, the clan of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the clan of the Palluites;* [6]of Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the clan of the Carmites. [7]These are the clans of the Reubenites; the number of those enrolled was forty-three thousand seven hundred thirty. [8]And the descendants of Pallu: Eliab. [9]The descendants of Eliab: Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the same Dathan and Abiram, chosen from the congregation, who rebelled against Moses and Aaron in the congregation of Korah, when they rebelled against the LORD,* [10]and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up along with Korah, when that congregation died, when the fire devoured two hundred fifty men, and they became a warning.* [11]Notwithstanding, the sons of Korah did not die.*

12 The descendants of Simeon by their clans: of Nemuel, the clan of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the clan of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the clan of the Jachinites; [13]of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites; of Shaul, the clan of the Shaulites.[a] [14]These are the clans of the Simeonites: twenty-two thousand two hundred.*

15 The descendants of Gad by their clans: of Zephon, the clan of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the clan of the Haggites; of Shuni, the clan of the [17]of Arod, the clan of the Arodites; of Areli, the clan of the Arelites.

[18]These are the clans of the descendants of Gad by the number of those enrolled: forty thousand five hundred.*

19 The sons of Judah: Er and Onan; Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. [20]The descendants of Judah by their clans were: of Shelah, the clan of the Shelanites; of Perez, the clan of the Perezites; of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites. [21]The descendants of Perez were: of Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the clan of the Hamulites. [22]These are the clans of Judah by the number of those enrolled: seventy-six thousand five hundred.*

23 The descendants of Issachar by their clans: of Tola, the clan of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the clan of the Punites; [24]of Jashub, the clan of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the clan of the Shimronites.* [25]These are the clans of Issachar by the number of those enrolled: sixty-four thousand three hundred.*

26 The descendants of Zebulun by their clans: of Sered, the clan of the Seredites; of Elon, the clan of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the clan of the Jahleelites. [27]These are the clans of the Zebulunites by the number of those enrolled: sixty thousand five hundred.*

28 The sons of Joseph by their clans: Manasseh and Ephraim. [29]The descendants of Manasseh: of Machir, the clan of the Machirites; and Machir was the father of Gilead; of Gilead, the clan of the Gileadites. [30]These are the descendants of Gilead: of Iezer, the clan of the Iezerites; of Helek, the clan of the Helekites;* [31]and of Asriel, the clan of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the clan of the Shechemites; [32]and of Shemida, the clan of the Shemidaites; and of Hepher, the clan of the Hepherites. [33]Now Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons, only daughters, and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. [34]These are the clans of Manasseh; the number of those enrolled was fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

35 These are the descendants of Ephraim according to their clans: of Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the clan of the Becherites; of Tahan, the clan of the Tahanites.* [36]And these are the descendants of Shuthelah: of Eran, the clan of the Eranites. [37]These are the clans of the Ephraimites by the number of those enrolled: thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the descendants of Joseph by their clans.*

38 The descendants of Benjamin by their clans: of Bela, the clan of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the clan of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the clan of the Ahiramites;* 39of Shephupham, the clan of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the clan of the Huphamites.* 40And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the clan of the Ardites; of Naaman, the clan of the Naamites.* 41These are the descendants of Benjamin by their clans; the number of those enrolled was forty-five thousand six hundred.*

42 These are the descendants of Dan by their clans: of Shuham, the clan of the Shuhamites. These are the clans of Dan by their clans.* 43All the clans of the Shuhamites by the number of those enrolled: sixty-four thousand four hundred.*

44 The descendants of Asher by their clans: of Imnah, the clan of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the clan of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the clan of the Beriites. 45Of the descendants of Beriah: of Heber, the clan of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the clan of the Malchielites. 46And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah. 47These are the clans of the descendants of Asher by the number of those enrolled: fifty-three thousand four hundred.*

48 The descendants of Naphtali by their clans: of Jahzeel, the clan of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the clan of the Gunites; 49of Jezer, the clan of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the clan of the Shillemites. 50These are the clans of Naphtali by their clans; the number of those enrolled was forty-five thousand four hundred.*

51 This was the number of the Israelites enrolled: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred thirty.

52 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 53"To these the land shall be apportioned for inheritance according to the number of names.* 54To a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance; every tribe shall be given its inheritance according to its enrollment.* 55But the land shall be apportioned by lot; according to the names of their ancestral tribes they shall inherit.* 56Their inheritance shall be apportioned according to lot between the larger and the smaller."

57 This is the enrollment of the Levites by their clans: of Gershon, the clan of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the clan of the Kohathites; of Merari, the clan of the Merarites. 58These are the clans of Levi: the clan of the Libnites, the clan of the Hebronites, the clan of the Mahlites, the clan of the Mushites, the clan of the Korahites. Now Kohath was the father of Amram.

59 The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt, and she bore to Amram: Aaron, Moses, and their sister Miriam.* 60 To Aaron were born Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.*
61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered unholy fire before the LORD.* 62 The number of those enrolled was twenty-three thousand, every male one month old and up, for they were not enrolled among the Israelites because there was no allotment given to them among the Israelites.*

63 These were those enrolled by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who enrolled the Israelites in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
64 Among these there was not one of those enrolled by Moses and Aaron the priest, who had enrolled the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai.* 65 For the LORD had said of them, "They shall die in the wilderness." Not one of them was left, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.*

Numbers 27

THE DAUGHTERS OF ZELOPHEHAD

1 Then the daughters of Zelophehad came forward. Zelophehad was son of Hepher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, of the clans of Manasseh, son of Joseph. The names of his daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.[] [2]They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and all the congregation, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, saying, [3]"Our father died in the wilderness; he was not among the congregation of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the congregation of Korah but died for his own sin, and he had no sons.[] [4]Why should the name of our father be taken away from his clan because he had no son? Give to us a possession among our father's brothers."[*]

5 Moses brought their case before the LORD.[] [6]And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [7]"The daughters of Zelophehad are right in what they are saying; you shall indeed let them possess an inheritance among their father's brothers and pass the inheritance of their father on to them.[] [8]You shall also speak to the Israelites, saying: If a man dies and has no son, then you shall pass his inheritance on to his daughter. [9]If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. [10]If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. [11]And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the nearest kinsman of his clan, and he shall possess it. It shall be for the Israelites a statute and ordinance, as the LORD commanded Moses."

JOSHUA APPOINTED MOSES'S SUCCESSOR

12 The LORD said to Moses, "Go up this mountain of the Abarim range, and see the land that I have given to the Israelites.[] [13]When you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was,[] [14]because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin when the congregation quarreled with me.[b] You did not show my holiness before their eyes at the waters." (These are the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)* 15Moses spoke to the LORD, saying, 16"Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint someone over the congregation* 17who shall go out before them and come in before them, who shall lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep without a shepherd."* 18So the LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand upon him;* 19have him stand before Eleazar the priest and all the congregation and commission him in their sight.* 20You shall give him some of your authority, so that all the congregation of the Israelites may obey.* 21But he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the decision of the Urim before the LORD; at his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the Israelites with him, the whole congregation."* 22So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation; 23he laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as the LORD had directed through Moses.

Numbers 28

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Command the Israelites, and say to them: This is the offering by fire[d] that you shall offer to the LORD: two male 39 "These you shall offer to the LORD at your appointed festivals, in addition to your votive offerings and your freewill offerings, as your burnt offerings, your grain offerings, your drink offerings, and your offerings of well-being."*

40 [p]So Moses told the Israelites everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 30

VOWS MADE BY WOMEN

1 Then Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the Israelites, saying, "This is what the LORD has commanded. [2]When a man makes a vow to the LORD or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.*

3 "When a woman makes a vow to the LORD or binds herself by a pledge while within her father's house, in her youth, [4]and her father hears of her vow or her pledge by which she has bound herself and says nothing to her, then all her vows shall stand, and any pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand. [5]But if her father overrules her at the time that he hears of it, no vow of hers and no pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand, and the LORD will forgive her because her father overruled her.*

6 "If she marries, while obligated by her vows or any thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself,* [7]and her husband hears of it and says nothing to her at the time that he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand. [8]But if, at the time that her husband hears of it, he overrules her, then he shall nullify the vow by which she was obligated or the thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she bound herself, and the LORD will forgive her.* [9](But every vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall be binding upon her.) [10]And if she made a vow in her husband's house or bound herself by a pledge with an oath [11]and her husband heard it and said nothing to her and did not overrule her, then all her vows shall stand, and any pledge by which she bound herself shall stand. [12]But if her husband nullifies them at the time that he hears them, then whatever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows or concerning her pledge shall not stand. Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will forgive her.* [13]Any vow or any binding oath to humble herself,[q] her husband may allow to stand or her husband may nullify. [14]But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day,[r] then he validates all her vows or all her pledges by which she is obligated; he has validated them because he said nothing to her at the time that he heard of them. [15]But if he nullifies them some time after he has heard of them, then he shall bear her guilt."*

16 These are the statutes that the LORD commanded Moses concerning a husband and his wife and a father and his daughter while she is still young and in her father's house.*

Numbers 31

WAR AGAINST MIDIAN

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Avenge the Israelites on the Midianites; afterward you shall be gathered to your people."* [3]So Moses spoke to the people, saying, "Arm some of your number for the war, so that they may go against Midian, to execute the LORD's vengeance on Midian.
[4]You shall send a thousand from each of the tribes of Israel to the war." [5]So out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe were conscripted, twelve thousand armed for battle. [6]Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest,[s] with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for sounding the alarm in his hand.* [7]They did battle against Midian, as the LORD had commanded Moses, and killed every male. [8]They killed the kings of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian, in addition to others who were slain by them, and they also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.* [9]The Israelites took the women of Midian and their little ones captive, and they plundered all their cattle, their flocks, and all their goods.
[10]All their towns where they had settled, and all their encampments, they burned, [11]but they took all the spoil and all the plunder, both people and animals.* [12]Then they brought the captives and the plunder and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the Israelites, at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho.

RETURN FROM THE WAR

13 Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went to meet them outside the camp. [14]Moses became angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had come from service in the war. [15]Moses said to them, "Have you allowed all the women to live? [16]These women here, on Balaam's advice, made the Israelites act treacherously against the LORD in the affair of Peor, so that the plague came among the congregation of the LORD.* [17]Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man by sleeping with him.* 18But all the young girls who have not known a man by sleeping with him, keep alive for yourselves. 19Camp outside the camp seven days, whoever of you has killed any person or touched a corpse; purify yourselves, you and your captives, on the third and on the seventh day. 20You shall purify every garment, every article of skin, everything made of goats' hair, and every article of wood."

21 Eleazar the priest said to the troops who had gone to battle, "This is the statute of the law that the LORD has commanded Moses: 22gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead—23everything that can withstand fire, you shall pass through fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless, it shall also be purified with the water for purification, and whatever cannot withstand fire, you shall pass through the water.* 24You must wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; afterward you may come into the camp."*

DISPOSITION OF CAPTIVES AND PLUNDER

25 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 26"You and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the ancestral houses of the congregation make an inventory of the plunder captured, both human and animal. 27Divide the plunder into two parts, between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation. 28From the share of the warriors who went out to battle, set aside as tribute for the LORD one item out of every five hundred, whether persons, oxen, donkeys, or sheep.* 29Take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to the LORD. 30But from the Israelites' half you shall take one out of every fifty, whether persons, oxen, donkeys, or sheep—all the animals—and give them to the Levites, who perform the duties of the tabernacle of the LORD."*

31 Then Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

32 The plunder remaining from the spoils that the troops had taken totaled six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep,* 33seventy-two thousand oxen, 34sixty-one thousand donkeys, 35and thirty-two thousand persons in all, women who had not known a man by sleeping with him.

36 The half-share, the portion of those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep, 37and the LORD's tribute of sheep was six hundred seventy-five.* 38The oxen were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two. 39The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one. 40The persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty-two persons. 41Moses gave the tribute, the offering for the LORD, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

42 As for the Israelites' half, which Moses separated from that of the troops, 43the congregation's half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep, 44thirty-six thousand oxen, 45thirty thousand five hundred donkeys, 46and sixteen thousand persons. 47From the Israelites' half Moses took one of every fifty, both of persons and of animals, and gave them to the Levites, who perform the duties of the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

48 Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, approached Moses 49and said to Moses, "Your servants have counted the warriors who are under our command, and not one of us is missing. 50And we have brought the LORD's offering, what each of us found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and pendants, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD."* 51Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all in the form of crafted articles. 52And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels. 53(The troops had all taken plunder for themselves.)* 54So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.*

Numbers 32

CONQUEST AND DIVISION OF TRANSJORDAN

1 Now the Reubenites and the Gadites owned a very great number of cattle.
When they saw that the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead was a good place for cattle,* 2the Gadites and the Reubenites came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying, 3"Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon—4the land that the LORD subdued before the congregation of Israel—is a land for cattle, and your servants have cattle." 5They continued, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not make us cross the Jordan."

6 But Moses said to the Gadites and to the Reubenites, "Shall your brothers go to war while you sit here? 7Why will you discourage the hearts of the Israelites from going over into the land that the LORD has given them?
* 8Your fathers did this, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.* 9When they went up to the Wadi Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the hearts of the Israelites from going into the land that the LORD had given them. 10The LORD's anger was kindled on that day, and he swore, saying,* 11'Surely none of the people who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and up, shall see the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not unreservedly followed me*—12none except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they have unreservedly followed the LORD.'* 13And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD had disappeared.* 14And now you, a brood of sinners, have risen in place of your fathers, to increase the LORD's fierce anger against Israel! 15If you turn away from following him, he will again abandon them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all this people."*

16 Then they came up to him and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our flocks and towns for our little ones, 17but we will take up arms as a vanguard[t] before the Israelites, until we have brought them to their place.

Meanwhile our little ones will stay in the fortified towns because of the inhabitants of the land.* 18We will not return to our homes until all the Israelites have obtained their inheritance.* 19We will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan to the east."*

20 So Moses said to them, "If you do this—if you take up arms to go before the LORD for the war* 21and all those of you who bear arms cross the Jordan before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies from before him 22and the land is subdued before the LORD—then after that you may return and be free of obligation to the LORD and to Israel, and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.* 23But if you do not do this, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out. 24Build towns for your little ones and folds for your flocks, but do what you have promised."*

25 Then the Gadites and the Reubenites said to Moses, "Your servants will do as my lord commands. 26Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock shall remain there in the towns of Gilead,* 27but your servants will cross over, everyone armed for war, to do battle for the LORD, just as my lord orders."*

28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the ancestral houses of the Israelite tribes.* 29And Moses said to them, "If the Gadites and the Reubenites, everyone armed for battle before the LORD, will cross over the Jordan with you and the land shall be subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession,* 30but if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan." 31The Gadites and the Reubenites answered, saying, "As the LORD has spoken to your servants, so we will do. 32We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of[u] the Jordan."

33 Moses gave to them—to the Gadites and to the Reubenites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph—the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites and the kingdom of King Og of Bashan, the land and its towns, with the territories of the surrounding towns.* 34And the Gadites rebuilt Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, 35Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, 36Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep. 37And the Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, 38Nebo, and Baal-meon (some names being changed), and Sibmah, and they gave names to the towns that they rebuilt. 39The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were there, 40so Moses gave Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and he settled there. 41Jair son of Manasseh went and captured their villages and renamed them Havvothjair.[v],[*] 42And Nobah went and captured Kenath and its villages and renamed it Nobah after himself.

Numbers 33

THE STAGES OF ISRAEL'S JOURNEY FROM EGYPT

1 These are the stages by which the Israelites went out of the land of Egypt in military formation under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.* 2Moses wrote down their starting points, stage by stage, by command of the LORD, and these are their stages according to their starting places. 3They set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the Israelites went out boldly in the sight of all the Egyptians,* 4while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck down among them. The LORD executed judgments even against their gods.*

5 So the Israelites set out from Rameses and camped at Succoth. 6They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.* 7They set out from Etham and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, which faces Baal-zephon, and they camped before Migdol.* 8They set out from Pi-hahiroth,[w] passed through the sea into the wilderness, went a three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah.* 9They set out from Marah and came to Elim; at Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.* 10They set out from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.[x] 11They set out from the Red Sea[y] and camped in the wilderness of Sin.* 12They set out from the wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah. 13They set out from Dophkah and camped at Alush. 14They set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.* 15They set out from Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Sinai.* 16They set out from the wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth-hattaavah.* 17They set out from Kibroth-hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.* 18They set out from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah. 19They set out from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-perez. 20They set out from Rimmon-perez and camped at Libnah.* 21They set out from Libnah and camped at Rissah. 22They set out from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah. 23They set out from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher. 24They set out from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah. [25]They set out from Haradah and camped at Makheloth. [26]They set out from Makheloth and camped at Tahath. [27]They set out from Tahath and camped at Terah. [28]They set out from Terah and camped at Mithkah. [29]They set out from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah. [30]They set out from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.* [31]They set out from Moseroth and camped at Bene-jaakan. [32]They set out from Bene-jaakan and camped at Hor-haggidgad. [33]They set out from Hor-haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.* [34]They set out from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah. [35]They set out from Abronah and camped at Ezion-geber.* [36]They set out from Ezion-geber and camped in the wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh).* [37]They set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom.*

38 Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor at the command of the LORD and died there in the fortieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.* [39]Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

40 The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the Israelites.*

41 They set out from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah. [42]They set out from Zalmonah and camped at Punon. [43]They set out from Punon and camped at Oboth.* [44]They set out from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim, in the territory of Moab.* [45]They set out from Iyim and camped at Dibon-gad. [46]They set out from Dibon-gad and camped at Almon-diblathaim. [47]They set out from Almon-diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.* [48]They set out from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho;* [49]they camped by the Jordan from Beth-jeshimoth as far as Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.*

DIRECTIONS FOR THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN

50 In the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [51]"Speak to the Israelites, and say to them: When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, [52]you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their figured stones, destroy all their cast images, and demolish all their high places.* [53]You shall take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given you the land to possess. 54You shall apportion the land by lot according to your clans; to a large one you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small one you shall give a small inheritance; the inheritance shall belong to the person on whom the lot falls; according to your ancestral tribes you shall apportion it.* 55But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those whom you let remain shall be as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides; they shall trouble you in the land where you are settling.* 56And I will do to you as I thought to do to them."

Numbers 34

THE BOUNDARIES OF THE LAND

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Command the Israelites, and say to them: When you enter the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan, defined by its boundaries),* [3]your south sector shall extend from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom. Your southern boundary shall begin from the end of the Dead Sea[z] on the east;* [4]your boundary shall turn south of the ascent of Akrabbim and cross to Zin, and its outer limit shall be south of Kadesh-barnea; then it shall go on to Hazar-addar and cross to Azmon; [5]the boundary shall turn from Azmon to the Wadi of Egypt, and its termination shall be at the Sea.*

6 "For the western boundary, you shall have the Great Sea and its[a] coast; this shall be your western boundary.

7 "This shall be your northern boundary: from the Great Sea you shall mark out your line to Mount Hor;* [8]from Mount Hor you shall mark it out to Lebo-hamath, and the outer limit of the boundary shall be at Zedad;* [9]then the boundary shall extend to Ziphron, and its end shall be at Hazar-enan; this shall be your northern boundary.

10 "You shall mark out your eastern boundary from Hazar-enan to Shepham, [11]and the boundary shall continue down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain, and the boundary shall go down and reach the eastern slope of the sea of Chinnereth,* [12]and the boundary shall go down to the Jordan, and its end shall be at the Dead Sea.[b] This shall be your land with its boundaries all around."

13 Moses commanded the Israelites, saying, "This is the land that you shall apportion by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe,* [14]for the tribe of the Reubenites by their ancestral houses and the tribe of the Gadites by their ancestral houses have taken their inheritance and also the half-tribe of Manasseh;* [15]the two tribes and the half-tribe have taken their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise."

TRIBAL LEADERS

16 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [17]"These are the names of the men who shall apportion the land to you for inheritance: the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun.* [18]You shall take one leader of every tribe to apportion the land for inheritance.* [19]These are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh. [20]Of the tribe of the Simeonites, Shemuel son of Ammihud. [21]Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad son of Chislon. [22]Of the tribe of the Danites a leader, Bukki son of Jogli. [23]Of the Josephites: of the tribe of the Manassites a leader, Hanniel son of Ephod, [24]and of the tribe of the Ephraimites a leader, Kemuel son of Shiphtan. [25]Of the tribe of the Zebulunites a leader, Eli-zaphan son of Parnach. [26]Of the tribe of the Issacharites a leader, Paltiel son of Azzan. [27]And of the tribe of the Asherites a leader, Ahihud son of Shelomi. [28]Of the tribe of the Naphtalites a leader, Pedahel son of Ammihud. [29]These were the ones whom the LORD commanded to apportion the inheritance for the Israelites in the land of Canaan."

Numbers 35

CITIES FOR THE LEVITES

1 In the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2]"Command the Israelites to give, from the inheritance that they possess, towns for the Levites to live in; you shall also give to the Levites pasturelands surrounding the towns.* [3]The towns shall be theirs to live in, and their pasturelands shall be for their cattle, for their livestock, and for all their animals. [4]The pasture lands of the towns, which you shall give to the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the town outward a thousand cubits all around. [5]You shall measure, outside the town, for the east side two thousand cubits, for the south side two thousand cubits, for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, with the town in the middle; this shall belong to them as pastureland for their towns.

6 "The towns that you give to the Levites shall include the six cities of refuge, where you shall permit a slayer to flee, and in addition to them you shall give forty-two towns.* [7]The towns that you give to the Levites shall total forty-eight, with their pasturelands. [8]And as for the towns that you shall give from the possession of the Israelites, from the larger tribes you shall take many, and from the smaller tribes you shall take few; each, in proportion to the inheritance that it obtains, shall give of its towns to the Levites."*

CITIES OF REFUGE

9 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [10]"Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, [11]then you shall select cities to be cities of refuge for you, so that a slayer who kills a person without intent may flee there.* [12]The cities shall be for you a refuge from the avenger, so that the slayer may not die until there is a trial before the congregation.*

13 "The cities that you designate shall be six cities of refuge for you: [14]you shall designate three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan, to be cities of refuge. [15]These six cities shall serve as refuge for the Israelites, for the resident or transient alien among them, so that anyone who kills a person without intent may flee there.*

CONCERNING MURDER AND BLOOD REVENGE

16 "But anyone who strikes another with an iron object, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.* [17]Or anyone who strikes another with a stone in hand that could cause death, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death. [18]Or anyone who strikes another with a weapon of wood in hand that could cause death, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death. [19]The avenger of blood is the one who shall put the murderer to death; when they meet, the avenger of blood shall execute the sentence.* [20]Likewise, if someone pushes another from hatred or hurls something at another, lying in wait, and death ensues, [21]or in enmity strikes another with the hand, and death ensues, then the one who struck the blow shall be put to death; that person is a murderer; the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when they meet.

22 "But if someone pushes another suddenly without enmity or hurls any object without lying in wait,* [23]or, while handling any stone that could cause death, unintentionally[c] drops it on another and death ensues, though they were not enemies and no harm was intended, [24]then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood, in accordance with these ordinances,* [25]and the congregation shall rescue the slayer from the avenger of blood. Then the congregation shall send the slayer back to the original city of refuge. The slayer shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil. [26]But if the slayer shall at any time go outside the bounds of the original city of refuge [27]and is found by the avenger of blood outside the bounds of the city of refuge and is killed by the avenger, no bloodguilt shall be incurred. [28]For the slayer must remain in the city of refuge until the death of the high priest, but after the death of the high priest the slayer may return to his property.

29 "These things shall be a statute and ordinance for you throughout your generations wherever you live.

30 “If anyone kills another, the murderer shall be put to death on the evidence of witnesses, but no one shall be put to death on the testimony of a single witness.* 31Moreover you shall accept no ransom for the life of a murderer who is subject to the death penalty; a murderer must be put to death. 32Nor shall you accept ransom for one who has fled to a city of refuge, enabling the fugitive to return to live in the land before the death of the high priest. 33You shall not pollute the land in which you live, for blood pollutes the land, and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of the one who shed it.* 34You shall not defile the land in which you live, in which I also dwell, for I the LORD dwell among the Israelites.”*

Numbers 36

MARRIAGE OF FEMALE HEIRS

1 The heads of the ancestral houses of the clans of the descendants of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, of the Josephite clans, came forward and spoke in the presence of Moses and the leaders, the heads of the ancestral houses of the Israelites;* 2they said, "The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the Israelites, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.* 3But if they are married into another Israelite tribe, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our ancestors and added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry, so it will be taken away from the allotted portion of our inheritance. 4And when the Jubilee of the Israelites comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they have married, and their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our ancestral tribe."*

5 Then Moses commanded the Israelites according to the word of the LORD, saying, "The descendants of the tribe of Joseph are right in what they are saying. 6This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying: Let them marry whom they think best; only it must be into a clan of their father's tribe that they are married,* 7so that no inheritance of the Israelites shall be transferred from one tribe to another, for all Israelites shall retain the inheritance of their ancestral tribes. 8Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the Israelites shall marry one from the clan of her father's tribe, so that all Israelites may continue to possess their ancestral inheritance.* 9No inheritance shall be transferred from one tribe to another, for each of the tribes of the Israelites shall retain its own inheritance."

10 The daughters of Zelophehad did as the LORD had commanded Moses.
11Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, married sons of their father's brothers.* 12They were married into the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father's clan.

13 These are the commandments and the ordinances that the LORD commanded through Moses to the Israelites in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho.*

Deuteronomy 1

EVENTS AT HOREB RECALLED

1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan—in the wilderness, on the plain opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Di-zahab. [2](By the way of Mount Seir it takes eleven days to reach Kadesh-barnea from Horeb.) [3]In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the Israelites just as the LORD had commanded him to speak to them.* [4]This was after he had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth in Edrei.* [5]Beyond the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to expound this law as follows:

6 "The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, 'You have stayed long enough at this mountain.* [7]Resume your journey, and go into the hill country of the Amorites as well as into the neighboring regions—the Arabah, the hill country, the Shephelah, the Negeb,[a] and the seacoast—the land of the Canaanites and the Lebanon, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates. [8]See, I have set the land before you; go in and take possession of the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them.'*

APPOINTMENT OF TRIBAL LEADERS

9 "At that time I said to you, 'I am unable by myself to bear you.* [10]The LORD your God has multiplied you, so that today you are as numerous as the stars of heaven.* [11]May the LORD, the God of your ancestors, increase you a thousand times more and bless you, as he has promised you!* [12]But how can I bear the heavy burden of your disputes all by myself? [13]Choose for each of your tribes individuals who are wise, discerning, and reputable, and I will make them your leaders.'* [14]You answered me, 'The plan you have proposed is a good one.' [15]So I took the leaders of your tribes, wise and reputable individuals, and installed them as leaders over you, commanders of thousands, commanders of hundreds, commanders of fifties, commanders of tens, and officials, throughout your tribes.* 16I charged your judges at that time: 'Give the members of your community a fair hearing and judge rightly between one person and another, whether kin or resident alien.* 17You must not be partial in judging: hear out the small and the great alike; you shall not be intimidated by anyone, for the judgment is God's. Any case that is too hard for you, bring to me, and I will hear it.'* 18So I charged you at that time with all the things that you should do.

ISRAEL'S REFUSAL TO ENTER THE LAND

19 "Then, just as the LORD our God had ordered us, we set out from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness that you saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, until we reached Kadesh-barnea.* 20I said to you, 'You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. 21See, the LORD your God has given the land to you; go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you; do not fear or be dismayed.'*

22 "All of you came to me and said, 'Let us send men ahead of us to explore the land for us and bring back a report to us regarding the route by which we should go up and the cities we will come to.' 23The plan seemed good to me, and I selected twelve of you, one from each tribe.* 24They set out and went up into the hill country, and when they reached the Wadi Eshcol they spied it out* 25and gathered some of the land's produce, which they brought down to us. They brought back a report to us and said, 'It is a good land that the LORD our God is giving us.'*

26 "But you were unwilling to go up. You rebelled against the command of the LORD your God;* 27you grumbled in your tents and said, 'It is because the LORD hates us that he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to hand us over to the Amorites to destroy us.* 28Where are we headed? Our kindred have made our hearts melt by reporting, "The people are stronger and taller than we; the cities are large and fortified up to heaven! We actually saw there the offspring of the Anakim!" '* 29I said to you, 'Have no dread or fear of them. 30The LORD your God, who goes before you, is the one who will fight for you, just as he did for you in Egypt before your very eyes*

[31]and in the wilderness, where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, just as one carries a child, all the way that you traveled until you reached this place.* [32]But in spite of this, you have no trust in the LORD your God,* [33]who goes before you on the way to seek out a place for you to camp, in fire by night, and in the cloud by day, to show you the route you should take.'*

THE PENALTY FOR ISRAEL'S REBELLION

34 "When the LORD heard your words, he was wrathful and swore,* [35]'Not one of these—not one of this evil generation—shall see the good land that I swore to give to your ancestors, [36]except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He shall see it, and to him and to his descendants I will give the land on which he set foot, because of his complete fidelity to the LORD.' [37]Even with me the LORD was angry on your account, saying, 'You also shall not enter there.* [38]Joshua son of Nun, your assistant, shall enter there; encourage him, for he is the one who will secure Israel's possession of it.* [39]And as for your little ones who you thought would become plunder, your children who today do not yet know right from wrong, they shall enter there; to them I will give it, and they shall take possession of it.* [40]But as for you, journey back into the wilderness, in the direction of the Red Sea.'[b,] 41 "You answered me, 'We have sinned against the LORD! We are ready to go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' So all of you strapped on your battle gear and thought it easy to go up into the hill country. [42]The LORD said to me, 'Say to them: "Do not go up, and do not fight, for I am not in the midst of you; otherwise you will be defeated by your enemies." '* [43]Although I told you, you would not listen. You rebelled against the command of the LORD and presumptuously went up into the hill country.* [44]The Amorites who lived in that hill country then came out against you and chased you as bees do. They beat you down in Seir as far as Hormah.* [45]When you returned and wept before the LORD, the LORD would neither heed your voice nor pay you any attention.

THE DESERT YEARS

46 “After you had stayed at Kadesh as many days as you did,

Deuteronomy 2

1 “we journeyed back into the wilderness, in the direction of the Red Sea,[c] as the LORD had told me, and skirted Mount Seir for many days.* 2Then the LORD said to me, 3‘You have been skirting this hill country long enough.
Head north, 4and charge the people as follows: “You are about to pass through the territory of your kindred, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so be very careful* 5not to engage in battle with them, for I will not give you even so much as a foot’s length of their land, since I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.* 6You shall purchase food from them for money, so that you may eat, and you shall also buy water from them for money, so that you may drink. 7Surely the LORD your God has blessed you in all your undertakings; he knows your going through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.” ’* 8So we passed by our kin, the descendants of Esau who live in Seir, leaving behind the route of the Arabah and leaving behind Elath and Ezion-geber.

“When we had headed out along the route of the wilderness of Moab,* 9the LORD said to me, ‘Do not harass Moab or engage them in battle, for I will not give you any of its land as a possession, since I have given Ar as a possession to the descendants of Lot.’* 10(The Emim—a large and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim—had formerly inhabited it.* 11Like the Anakim, they are usually reckoned as Rephaim, though the Moabites call them Emim. 12Moreover, the Horim had formerly inhabited Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them, destroying them and settling in their place, as Israel has done in the land that the LORD gave them as a possession.)* 13‘Now then, proceed to cross over the Wadi Zered.’

“So we crossed over the Wadi Zered. 14And the length of time we had traveled from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the Wadi Zered was thirty-eight years, until the entire generation of warriors had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn concerning them.* 15Indeed, the LORD’s own hand was against them, to root them out from the camp, until all had perished.*

16 "Just as soon as all the warriors had died off from among the people, 17 the LORD spoke to me, saying, 18 'Today you are going to cross the boundary of Moab at Ar. 19 When you approach the frontier of the Ammonites, do not harass them or engage them in battle, for I will not give the land of the Ammonites to you as a possession, because I have given it to the descendants of Lot.'* 20 (It also is usually reckoned as a land of Rephaim. Rephaim formerly inhabited it, though the Ammonites call them Zamzummim, 21 a strong and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim. But the LORD destroyed them from before the Ammonites[d] so that they could dispossess them and settle in their place.* 22 He did the same for the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, by destroying the Horites before them so that they could dispossess them and settle in their place even to this day.* 23 As for the Avvim, who had lived in settlements in the vicinity of Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and settled in their place.)* 24 'Proceed on your journey and cross the Wadi Arnon. See, I have handed over to you King Sihon the Amorite of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to take possession by engaging him in battle.* 25 This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples everywhere under heaven; when they hear report of you, they will tremble and be in anguish because of you.'*

DEFEAT OF KING SIHON

26 "So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to King Sihon of Heshbon with the following terms of peace:* 27 'If you let me pass through your land, I will travel only along the road; I will turn aside neither to the right nor to the left.* 28 You shall sell me food for money, so that I may eat, and supply me water for money, so that I may drink. Only allow me to pass through on foot*—29 just as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir have done for me and likewise the Moabites who live in Ar—until I cross the Jordan into the land that the LORD our God is giving us.' 30 But King Sihon of Heshbon was not willing to let us pass through, for the LORD your God had hardened his spirit and made his heart defiant in order to hand him over to you, as he has now done.*

31 "The LORD said to me, 'See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin now to take possession of his land.'* 32 So when Sihon came out against us, he and all his people for battle at Jahaz,* 33the LORD our God gave him over to us, and we struck him down, along with his offspring and all his people. 34At that time we captured all his towns, and in each town we utterly destroyed men, women, and children. We left not a single survivor.* 35Only the livestock we kept as spoil for ourselves, as well as the plunder of the towns that we had captured. 36From Aroer on the edge of the Wadi Arnon (including the town that is in the wadi itself) as far as Gilead, there was no citadel too high for us. The LORD our God gave everything to us.* 37You did not encroach, however, on the land of the Ammonites, avoiding the whole upper region of the Wadi Jabbok as well as the towns of the hill country, just as[e] the LORD our God had charged.*

Deuteronomy 3

DEFEAT OF KING OG

1 "When we headed up the road to Bashan, King Og of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, for battle at Edrei.* 2The LORD said to me, 'Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you, along with his people and his land. Do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.'* 3So the LORD our God also handed over to us King Og of Bashan and all his people. We struck him down until not a single survivor was left.* 4At that time we captured all his towns; there was no citadel that we did not take from them: sixty towns, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.* 5All these were fortress towns with high walls, double gates, and bars, besides a great many villages. 6And we utterly destroyed them, as we had done to King Sihon of Heshbon, in each city utterly destroying men, women, and children.* 7But all the livestock and the plunder of the towns we kept as spoil for ourselves.

8 "So at that time we took from the two kings of the Amorites the land beyond the Jordan, from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon 9(the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, while the Amorites call it Senir),* 10all the towns of the tableland, the whole of Gilead, and all of Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, towns of Og's kingdom in Bashan. 11(Now only King Og of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaim. In fact, his bed, an iron bed, can still be seen in Rabbah of the Ammonites. By the common cubit it is nine cubits long and four cubits wide.)* 12As for the land that we took possession of at that time, I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites the territory north of Aroer[f] that is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, as well as half the hill country of Gilead with its towns,* 13and I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, Og's kingdom. (The whole region of Argob: all that portion of Bashan used to be called a land of Rephaim; 14Jair the Manassite acquired the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and he named them—that is, Bashan—after himself, Havvoth-jair,[g] as it is to this day.)* 15To Machir I gave Gilead.*
16And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead as far as the Wadi Arnon, with the middle of the wadi as a boundary, and up to the Jabbok, the wadi being boundary of the Ammonites; [17]the Arabah also, with the Jordan and its banks, from Chinnereth down to the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea,[h] with the lower slopes of Pisgah on the east.*

18 "At that time, I charged you as follows: 'Although the LORD your God has given you this land to occupy, all your troops shall cross over armed as the vanguard of your Israelite kin.* [19]Only your wives, your children, and your livestock—I know that you have much livestock—shall stay behind in the towns that I have given to you. [20]When the LORD gives rest to your kindred, as to you, and they also have occupied the land that the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan, then each of you may return to the property that I have given to you.'* [21]And I charged Joshua as well at that time, saying: 'Your own eyes have seen everything that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so the LORD will do to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross. [22]Do not fear them, for it is the LORD your God who fights for you.'*

MOSES VIEWS CANAAN FROM PISGAH

23 "At that time, too, I entreated the LORD, saying, [24]'O Lord GOD, you have only begun to show your servant your greatness and your might. What god in heaven or on earth can perform deeds and mighty acts like yours?* [25]Let me cross over to see the good land beyond the Jordan, that good hill country and the Lebanon.' [26]But the LORD was angry with me on your account and would not heed me. The LORD said to me, 'Enough from you! Never speak to me of this matter again!* [27]Go up to the top of Pisgah and look around you to the west, to the north, to the south, and to the east. Look well, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.* [28]But charge Joshua and encourage and strengthen him, because it is he who shall cross over at the head of this people and who shall secure their possession of the land that you will see.'* [29]So we remained in the valley opposite Beth-peor.*

Deuteronomy 4

MOSES COMMANDS OBEDIENCE

1 "So now, Israel, give heed to the statutes and ordinances that I am teaching you to observe, so that you may live to enter and occupy the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you.* 2You must neither add anything to what I command you nor take away anything from it, but keep the commandments of the LORD your God with which I am charging you.* 3You have seen for yourselves what the LORD did with regard to the Baal of Peor, how the LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor,* 4while those of you who held fast to the LORD your God are all alive today.

5 "See, just as the LORD my God has charged me, I now teach you statutes and ordinances for you to observe in the land that you are about to enter and occupy. 6You must observe them and perform them, for this will show your wisdom and discernment to the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and discerning people!'* 7For what other great nation has a god so near to it as the LORD our God is whenever we call to him?* 8And what other great nation has statutes and ordinances as just as this entire law that I am setting before you today?

9 "But take care and watch yourselves closely, so as neither to forget the things that your eyes have seen nor to let them slip from your mind all the days of your life; make them known to your children and your children's children*—10how you once stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, 'Assemble the people for me, and I will let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me as long as they live on the earth and may teach their children so';* 11you approached and stood at the foot of the mountain while the mountain was blazing up to the very heavens, shrouded in dark clouds.* 12Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form; there was only a voice.* 13He declared to you his covenant, which he charged you to observe, that is, the ten commandments,[i] and he wrote them on two stone tablets.* 14And the LORD charged me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances for you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy.

15 "Since you saw no form when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire, watch yourselves closely, [16]so that you do not act corruptly by making an idol for yourselves in the form of any figure: the likeness of male or female,* [17]the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air, [18]the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth. [19]And when you look up to the heavens and see the sun, the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, do not be led astray and bow down to them and serve them, things that the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples everywhere under heaven.* [20]But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron smelter, out of Egypt, to become a people of his very own possession, as you are now.*

21 "The LORD was angry with me because of you, and he vowed that I should not cross the Jordan and that I should not enter the good land that the LORD your God is giving for your possession.* [22]For I am going to die in this land without crossing over the Jordan, but you are going to cross over to take possession of that good land.* [23]So be careful, lest you forget the covenant that the LORD your God made with you and make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything that the LORD your God has forbidden you.* [24]For the LORD your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.*

25 "When you have had children and children's children and become complacent in the land, if you act corruptly by making an idol in the form of anything, thus doing what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God and provoking him to anger,* [26]I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that you will soon utterly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to occupy; you will not live long on it but will be utterly destroyed.* [27]The LORD will scatter you among the peoples; only a few of you will be left among the nations where the LORD will lead you.* [28]There you will serve gods made by human hands, objects of wood and stone that neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.* [29]From there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find him if you search after him with all your heart and soul.* [30]In your distress, when all these things have happened to you in time to come, you will return to the LORD your God and heed him.

31 Because the LORD your God is a merciful God, he will neither abandon you nor destroy you; he will not forget the covenant with your ancestors that he swore to them.*

32 "For ask now about former ages, long before your own, ever since the day that God created human beings on the earth; ask from one end of heaven to the other: Has anything so great as this ever happened, or has its like ever been heard of?* 33 Has any people ever heard the voice of a god speaking out of a fire, as you have heard, and lived?* 34 Or has any god ever attempted to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by terrifying displays of power, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?* 35 To you it was shown so that you would acknowledge that the LORD is God; there is no other besides him.* 36 From heaven he made you hear his voice to discipline you. On earth he showed you his great fire, while you heard his words coming out of the fire.* 37 And because he loved your ancestors, he chose their descendants after them. He brought you out of Egypt with his own presence, by his great power,* 38 driving out before you nations greater and mightier than yourselves, to bring you in, giving you their land for a possession, as it is still today.* 39 So acknowledge today and take to heart that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.* 40 Keep his statutes and his commandments, which I am commanding you today for your own well-being and that of your descendants after you, so that you may long remain in the land that the LORD your God is giving you for all time."*

CITIES OF REFUGE EAST OF THE JORDAN

41 Then Moses set apart on the east side of the Jordan three cities* 42 to which a homicide could flee, someone who unintentionally kills another person, the two not having been at enmity before; the homicide could flee to one of these cities and live: 43 Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland belonging to the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead belonging to the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan belonging to the Manassites.

TRANSITION TO THE SECOND ADDRESS

44 This is the law that Moses set before the Israelites. [45]These are the decrees and the statutes and ordinances that Moses spoke to the Israelites when they had come out of Egypt, [46]beyond the Jordan in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned at Heshbon, whom Moses and the Israelites defeated when they came out of Egypt.* [47]They occupied his land and the land of King Og of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites on the eastern side of the Jordan: [48]from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, as far as Mount Sirion[j] (that is, Hermon),* [49]together with all the Arabah on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

1 Moses convened all Israel and said to them:

"Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances that I am addressing to you today; you shall learn them and observe them diligently. [2]The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.* [3]Not with our ancestors did the LORD make this covenant but with us, who are all of us here alive today. [4]The LORD spoke with you face to face at the mountain, out of the fire.* [5](At that time I was standing between the LORD and you to declare to you the word of the LORD, for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:*

6 " 'I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery;* [7]you shall have no other gods before[k] me.

8 " 'You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above or that is on the earth beneath or that is in the water under the earth. [9]You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents to the third and fourth generation of those who reject me* [10]but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation[l] of those who love me and keep my commandments.*

11 " 'You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

12 " 'Observe the Sabbath day and keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. [13]Six days you shall labor and do all your work. [14]But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work —you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you.*
[15]Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.*

16 “ ‘Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God commanded you, so that your days may be long and that it may go well with you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

17 “ ‘You shall not murder.[m] 18 “ ‘Neither shall you commit adultery.

19 “ ‘Neither shall you steal.

20 “ ‘Neither shall you bear false witness against your neighbor.

21 “ ‘Neither shall you covet your neighbor’s wife.

“ ‘Neither shall you desire your neighbor’s house, or field, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.’ ”*

MOSES THE MEDIATOR OF GOD’S WILL

22 “These words the LORD spoke with a loud voice to your whole assembly at the mountain, out of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, and he added no more. He wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me.* 23When you heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you approached me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders, 24and you said, ‘Look, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the fire. We have seen this day that God may speak to someone and the person may still live.* 25But now why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer, we shall die.* 26For who is there of all flesh that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the fire, as we have, and lived?* 27Go near, you yourself, and hear all that the LORD our God will say. Then tell us everything that the LORD our God tells you, and we will listen and do it.’

28 “The LORD heard your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me, ‘I have heard the words of this people, which they have spoken to you; they are right in all that they have spoken.* 29If only they had such a mind as this, to fear me and to keep all my commandments always, so that it might go well with them and with their children forever!* 30Go say to them, “Return to your tents.” 31But you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandments, the statutes and the ordinances, that you shall teach them, so that they may do them in the land that I am giving them to possess.’* 32You must therefore be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn to the right or to the left.* 33You must follow exactly the path that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land that you are to possess.*

THE GREAT COMMANDMENT

1 "Now this is the commandment—the statutes and the ordinances—that the LORD your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy, [2]so that you and your children and your children's children may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long.* [3]Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you.*

4 "Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone.[n,] [5]You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. [6]Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. [7]Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise.*
[8]Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem[o] on your forehead,* [9]and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.*

CAUTION AGAINST DISOBEDIENCE

10 "When the LORD your God has brought you into the land that he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you—a land with fine, large cities that you did not build,* [11]houses filled with all sorts of goods that you did not fill, hewn cisterns that you did not hew, vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant—and when you have eaten your fill,* [12]take care that you do not forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. [13]The LORD your God you shall fear, him you shall serve, and by his name alone you shall swear.* [14]Do not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who are all around you, [15]because the LORD your God, who is present with you, is a jealous God.

The anger of the LORD your God would be kindled against you and he would destroy you from the face of the earth.*

16 "Do not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah.* 17You must diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God and his decrees and his statutes that he has commanded you.* 18Do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, so that it may go well with you and so that you may go in and occupy the good land that the LORD swore to your ancestors,* 19thrusting out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has promised.

20 "When your children ask you in time to come, 'What is the meaning of the decrees and the statutes and the ordinances that the LORD our God has commanded you?'* 21then you shall say to your children, 'We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22The LORD displayed before our eyes great and awesome signs and wonders against Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his household. 23He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land that he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24Then the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our lasting good, so as to keep us alive, as is now the case.* 25If we diligently observe this entire commandment before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, we will be in the right.'*

Deuteronomy 7

A CHOSEN PEOPLE

1 "When the LORD your God brings you into the land that you are about to enter and occupy and he clears away many nations before you—the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations more numerous and mightier than you*— 2and when the LORD your God gives them over to you and you defeat them, then you must utterly destroy them. Make no covenant with them and show them no mercy.* 3Do not intermarry with them, giving your daughters to their sons or taking their daughters for your sons,* 4for that would turn away your children from following me, to serve other gods. Then the anger of the LORD would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly.* 5But this is how you must deal with them: break down their altars, smash their pillars, cut down their sacred poles,[p] and burn their idols with fire.* 6For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on earth to be his people, his treasured possession.*

7 "It was not because you were more numerous than any other people that the LORD set his heart on you and chose you, for you were the fewest of all peoples.* 8It was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath that he swore to your ancestors that the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.* 9Know, therefore, that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who maintains covenant loyalty with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations,* 10and who repays in their own person those who reject him. He does not delay but repays in their own person those who reject him. 11Therefore, observe diligently the commandment—the statutes and the ordinances—that I am commanding you today.

BLESSINGS FOR OBEDIENCE

12 "If you heed these ordinances by diligently observing them, the LORD your God will maintain with you the covenant loyalty that he swore to your ancestors;* [13]he will love you, bless you, and multiply you; he will bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock, in the land that he swore to your ancestors to give you.* [14]You shall be the most blessed of peoples, with neither sterility nor barrenness among you or your livestock.* [15]The LORD will turn away from you every illness; all the dread diseases of Egypt that you experienced, he will not inflict on you, but he will lay them on all who hate you.* [16]You shall devour all the peoples that the LORD your God is giving over to you, showing them no pity; you shall not serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.*

17 "If you say to yourself, 'These nations are more numerous than I; how can I dispossess them?' [18]do not be afraid of them. Just remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt,* [19]the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs and wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.* [20]Moreover, the LORD your God will send swarms of hornets[q] against them until even the survivors and the fugitives are destroyed.* [21]Have no dread of them, for the LORD your God, who is present with you, is a great and awesome God.*
[22]The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you will not be able to make a quick end of them, otherwise the wild animals would become too numerous for you.* [23]But the LORD your God will give them over to you and throw them into great panic until they are destroyed. [24]He will hand their kings over to you, and you shall blot out their name from under heaven; no one will be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them.* [25]The images of their gods you shall burn with fire. Do not covet the silver or the gold that is on them and take it for yourself, because you could be ensnared by it, for it is abhorrent to the LORD your God.* [26]Do not bring an abhorrent thing into your house, or you will be set apart for destruction like it. You must utterly detest and abhor it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Deuteronomy 8

A WARNING NOT TO FORGET GOD IN PROSPERITY

1 "The entire commandment that I command you today you must diligently observe, so that you may live and increase and go in and occupy the land that the LORD promised on oath to your ancestors.* 2Remember the long way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commandments.* 3He humbled you by letting you hunger, then by feeding you with manna, with which neither you nor your ancestors were acquainted, in order to make you understand that one does not live by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD.* 4The clothes on your back did not wear out, and your feet did not swell these forty years.* 5Know, then, in your heart that, as a parent disciplines a child, so the LORD your God disciplines you.*
6Therefore keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him.* 7For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills,* 8a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, 9a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. 10You shall eat your fill and bless the LORD your God for the good land that he has given you.*

11 "Take care that you do not forget the LORD your God by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes that I am commanding you today. 12When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them 13and when your herds and flocks have multiplied and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied, 14then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery,* 15who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous[r] snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock.* 16He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you and in the end to do you good.* 17Do not say to yourself, 'My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.' 18But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.* 19If you do forget the LORD your God and follow other gods to serve and worship them, I solemnly warn you today that you shall surely perish.* 20Like the nations that the LORD is destroying before you, so shall you perish, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9

THE CONSEQUENCES OF REBELLING AGAINST GOD

1 “Hear, O Israel! You are about to cross the Jordan today, to go in and dispossess nations larger and mightier than you, great cities, fortified to the heavens,* 2a strong and tall people, the offspring of the Anakim, whom you know. You have heard it said, ‘Who can stand up to the Anakim?’* 3Know, then, today that the LORD your God is the one who crosses over before you as a devouring fire; he will defeat them and subdue them before you, so that you may dispossess and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has promised you.*

4 “When the LORD your God thrusts them out before you, do not say to yourself, ‘It is because of my righteousness that the LORD has brought me in to occupy this land’; it is rather because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is dispossessing them before you.* 5It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to occupy their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God is dispossessing them before you, in order to fulfill the promise that the LORD made on oath to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.*

6 “Know, then, that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to occupy because of your righteousness, for you are a stubborn people.*
7Remember; do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; you have been rebellious against the LORD from the day you came out of the land of Egypt until you came to this place.

8 “Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that he was ready to destroy you.* 9When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD made with you, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water.* 10And the LORD gave me the two stone tablets written with the finger of God; on them were all the words that the LORD had spoken to you at the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly.* 11At the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant. 12Then the LORD said to me, 'Get up; go down quickly from here, for your people whom you have brought from Egypt have acted corruptly. They have been quick to turn from the way that I commanded them; they have cast an image for themselves.'* 13Furthermore, the LORD said to me, 'I have seen that this people is indeed a stubborn people.* 14Let me alone that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven, and I will make of you a nation mightier and more numerous than they.'*

15 "So I turned and went down from the mountain, while the mountain was ablaze; the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.* 16Then I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God, by casting for yourselves an image;[s] you had been quick to turn from the way that the LORD had commanded you.* 17So I took hold of the two tablets and flung them from my two hands, smashing them before your eyes. 18Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water because of all the sin you had committed, provoking the LORD by doing what was evil in his sight.* 19For I was afraid that the anger that the LORD bore against you was so fierce that he would destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also.* 20The LORD was so angry with Aaron that he was ready to destroy him, but I interceded also on behalf of Aaron at that same time. 21Then I took the sinful thing you had made, the calf, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it thoroughly, until it was reduced to dust, and I threw the dust into the stream that runs down the mountain.*

22 "At Taberah also, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath.* 23And when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, 'Go up and occupy the land that I have given you,' you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God, neither trusting him nor obeying him. 24You have been rebellious against the LORD as long as he has[t] known you.*

25 "Throughout the forty days and forty nights that I lay prostrate before the LORD when the LORD intended to destroy you,* 26I prayed to the LORD and said, 'Lord GOD, do not destroy your people, your very own possession, whom you redeemed in your greatness, whom you brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.* 27Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and

Jacob; pay no attention to the stubbornness of this people, their wickedness and their sin, [28]lest the land from which you have brought us say, “Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land that he promised them and because he hated them, he has brought them out to let them die in the wilderness.” [29]For they are your people, your very own possession, whom you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm.’*

Deuteronomy 10

THE SECOND PAIR OF TABLETS

1 "At that time the LORD said to me, 'Carve out two tablets of stone like the former ones, and come up to me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood.* 2I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you smashed, and you shall put them in the ark.'* 3So I made an ark of acacia wood, cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.* 4Then he wrote on the tablets the same words as before, the ten commandments[u] that the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly, and the LORD gave them to me.* 5So I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark that I had made, and there they are, as the LORD commanded me."*

6 (The Israelites journeyed from Beeroth-bene-jaakan[v] to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; his son Eleazar succeeded him as priest.* 7From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with flowing streams.* 8At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him and to bless in his name, to this day.*
9Therefore Levi has no allotment or inheritance with his kindred; the LORD is his inheritance, as the LORD your God promised him.)*

10 "I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights, as I had done the first time. And once again the LORD listened to me. The LORD was unwilling to destroy you.* 11The LORD said to me, 'Get up, go on your journey at the head of the people, that they may go in and occupy the land that I swore to their ancestors to give them.'

THE ESSENCE OF THE LAW

12 "So now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you? Only to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul,* 13and to keep the commandments of the LORD and his decrees that I am commanding you today, for your own well-being. 14Although heaven and the heaven of heavens belong to the LORD your God, the earth with all that is in it,* 15yet the LORD set his heart in love on your ancestors alone and chose you, their descendants after them, out of all the peoples, as it is today.* 16Circumcise, then, the foreskin of your heart, and do not be stubborn any longer.* 17For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe,* 18who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing.* 19You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.* 20You shall fear the LORD your God; him you shall serve; to him you shall hold fast; and by his name you shall swear.* 21He is your praise; he is your God who has done for you these great and awesome things that your own eyes have seen.* 22Your ancestors went down to Egypt seventy persons, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in heaven.*

Deuteronomy 11

1 "You shall love the LORD your God, therefore, and keep his charge, his decrees, his ordinances, and his commandments always.* 2Remember today that it was not your children (who have not known or seen the discipline of the LORD your God), but it is you who must acknowledge his greatness, his mighty hand, and his outstretched arm,* 3his signs and his deeds that he did in Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to all his land; 4what he did to the Egyptian army, to their horses and chariots, how he made the water of the Red Sea[w] flow over them as they pursued you, so that the LORD has destroyed them to this day;* 5what he did to you in the wilderness until you came to this place; 6and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab son of Reuben, how in the midst of all Israel the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households, their tents, and every living being in their company;* 7for it is your own eyes that have seen every great deed that the LORD did.

8 "Keep, then, the entire commandment that I am commanding you today, so that you may have strength to go in and occupy the land that you are crossing over to occupy* 9and so that you may live long in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.* 10For the land that you are about to enter to occupy is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you sow your seed and irrigate by foot like a vegetable garden. 11But the land that you are crossing over to occupy is a land of hills and valleys watered by rain from the sky,* 12a land that the LORD your God looks after.
The eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

13 "If you will only heed his every commandment[x] that I am commanding you today—loving the LORD your God and serving him with all your heart and with all your soul*—14then he[y] will give the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the later rain, and you will gather in

for your livestock, and you will eat your fill.* 16Take care, or you will be seduced into turning away, serving other gods and worshiping them,* 17for then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and he will shut up the heavens, so that there will be no rain, and the land will not yield its produce; then you will perish quickly off the good land that the LORD is giving you.*

18 "You shall put these words of mine in your heart and soul, and you shall bind them as a sign on your hand and fix them as an emblem on your forehead.* 19Teach them to your children, talking about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise up.* 20Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates,* 21so that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give them, as long as the heavens are above the earth.

22 "If you will diligently observe this entire commandment that I am commanding you, loving the LORD your God, walking in all his ways, and holding fast to him,* 23then the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations larger and mightier than you.* 24Every place on which you set foot shall be yours; your territory shall extend from the wilderness to the Lebanon and from the River, the River Euphrates, to the Western Sea.* 25No one will be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put the fear and dread of you on all the land on which you set foot, as he promised you.*

26 "See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse:* 27the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today;* 28and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God but turn from the way that I am commanding you today, to follow other gods that you have not known.*

29 "When the LORD your God has brought you into the land that you are entering to occupy, you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.* 30As you know, they are beyond the Jordan, some distance to the west, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, beside the oak[a] of Moreh.*

31 "When you cross the Jordan to go in to occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you and when you occupy it and live in it,* 32you must diligently observe all the statutes and ordinances that I am setting before you today.

Deuteronomy 12

PAGAN SHRINES TO BE DESTROYED

1 "These are the statutes and ordinances that you must diligently observe in the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you to occupy all the days that you live on the earth.*

2 "You must demolish completely all the places where the nations whom you are about to dispossess served their gods, on the mountain heights, on the hills, and under every leafy tree. 3Break down their altars, smash their pillars, burn their sacred poles[b] with fire, and cut down the idols of their gods, and thus blot out their name from their places.* 4You shall not serve the LORD your God in such ways. 5But you shall seek the place that the LORD your God will choose out of all your tribes as his habitation to put his name there. You shall go there,* 6bringing there your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and your donations, your votive gifts, your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and flocks. 7And you shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your households together, rejoicing in all the undertakings in which the LORD your God has blessed you.*

8 "You shall not act as we are acting here today, all of us according to our own desires, 9for you have not yet come into the rest and the possession that the LORD your God is giving you. 10When you cross over the Jordan and live in the land that the LORD your God is allotting to you, and when he gives you rest from your enemies all around so that you live in safety,* 11then you shall bring everything that I command you to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and your donations, and all your choice votive gifts that you vow to the LORD.* 12And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you together with your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, and the Levites who reside in your towns (since they have no allotment or inheritance with you).*

A PRESCRIBED PLACE OF WORSHIP

13 “Take care that you do not offer your burnt offerings at any place you happen to see. [14]But only at the place that the LORD will choose in one of your tribes—there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do everything I command you.*

15 “Yet whenever you desire you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your towns, according to the blessing that the LORD your God has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as they would of gazelle or deer.* [16]The blood, however, you must not eat; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.* [17]Nor may you eat within your towns the tithe of your grain, your wine, and your oil, the firstlings of your herds and your flocks, any of your votive gifts that you vow, your freewill offerings, or your donations; [18]these you shall eat in the presence of the LORD your God at the place that the LORD your God will choose, you together with your son and your daughter, your male and female slaves, and the Levites resident in your towns, rejoicing in the presence of the LORD your God in all your undertakings.* [19]Take care that you do not neglect the Levite as long as you live in your land.*

20 “When the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he has promised you, and you say, ‘I am going to eat some meat,’ because you wish to eat meat, you may eat meat whenever you have the desire.* [21]If the place where the LORD your God will choose to put his name is too far from you, and you slaughter as I have commanded you any of your herd or flock that the LORD has given you, then you may eat within your towns whenever you desire.
[22]Indeed, just as gazelle or deer is eaten, so you may eat it; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it.* [23]Only be sure that you do not eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the meat.* [24]Do not eat it; you shall pour it out on the ground like water. [25]Do not eat it, so that it may go well with you and your children after you, because you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.* [26]But the sacred donations that are due from you and your votive gifts you shall bring to the place that the LORD will choose.* [27]You shall present your burnt offerings, both the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; the blood of your other sacrifices shall be poured out beside[c] the altar of the LORD your God, but the meat you may eat.

28 "Be careful to obey all these words that I command you, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, because you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.*

WARNING AGAINST IDOLATRY

29 "When the LORD your God has cut off before you the nations whom you are about to enter to dispossess them, when you have dispossessed them and live in their land, [30]take care that you are not snared into imitating them, after they have been destroyed before you; do not inquire concerning their gods, saying, 'How did these nations serve their gods? I also want to do the same.' [31]You must not do the same for the LORD your God, because every abhorrent thing that the LORD hates they have done for their gods. They would even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.* [32d]You must diligently observe everything that I command you; do not add to it or take anything from it.*

Deuteronomy 13

1 [e]"If prophets or those who divine by dreams appear among you and show you omens or portents,* [2]and the omens or the portents declared by them take place, and they say, 'Let us follow other gods' (whom you have not known) 'and let us serve them,'* [3]you must not heed the words of those prophets or those who divine by dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you indeed love the LORD your God with all your heart and soul.* [4]The LORD your God you shall follow, him alone you shall fear, his commandments you shall keep, his voice you shall obey, him you shall serve, and to him you shall hold fast.* [5]But those prophets or those who divine by dreams shall be put to death for having spoken treason against the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, to turn you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.*

6 "If anyone secretly entices you—even if it is your brother, your father's son or[f] your mother's son, or your own son or daughter, or the wife you embrace, or your most intimate friend—saying, 'Let us go serve other gods,' whom neither you nor your ancestors have known,* [7]any of the gods of the peoples who are around you, whether near you or far away from you, from one end of the earth to the other, [8]you must not yield to or heed any such persons. Show them no pity or compassion, and do not shield them.
[9]But you shall surely kill them; your own hand shall be first against them to execute them and afterward the hand of all the people.* [10]Stone them to death for trying to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. [11]Then all Israel shall hear and be afraid and never again do any such wickedness.*

12 "If you hear it said about one of the towns that the LORD your God is giving you to live in, [13]that scoundrels from among you have gone out and led the inhabitants of the town astray, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' whom you have not known,* [14]then you shall inquire and make a thorough investigation. If the charge is established that such an abhorrent thing has been done among you, [15]you shall put the inhabitants of that town to the sword, utterly destroying it and everything in it, even putting its livestock to the sword.* [16]All of its spoil you shall gather into its public square, then burn the town and all its spoil with fire as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It shall remain a perpetual ruin, never to be rebuilt.* [17]Do not let anything devoted to destruction stick to your hand, so that the LORD may turn from his fierce anger and show you compassion, and in his compassion multiply you, as he swore to your ancestors,* [18]if you obey the voice of the LORD your God by keeping all his commandments that I am commanding you today, doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.*

Deuteronomy 14

PAGAN PRACTICES FORBIDDEN

1 "You are children of the LORD your God. You must not lacerate yourselves or shave your forelocks for the dead.* 2For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; it is you the LORD has chosen out of all the peoples on earth to be his people, his treasured possession.*

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN FOODS

3 "You shall not eat any abhorrent thing. 4These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,* 5the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain sheep. 6Any animal that divides the hoof and has the hoof cleft in two and chews the cud, among the animals, you may eat. 7Yet of those that chew the cud or have the hoof cleft you shall not eat these: the camel, the hare, and the rock badger because they chew the cud but do not divide the hoof; they are unclean for you.
8And the pig, because it divides the hoof but does not chew the cud, is unclean for you. You shall not eat their meat, and you shall not touch their carcasses.*

9 "Of all that live in water you may eat these: whatever has fins and scales you may eat.* 10And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.

11 "You may eat any clean birds. 12But these are the ones that you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey,* 13the buzzard, the kite of any kind; 14every raven of any kind; 15the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk of any kind; 16the little owl and the great owl, the water hen 17and the desert owl,[g] the carrion vulture and the cormorant, 18the stork, the heron of any kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.[h] 19And all winged insects are unclean for you; they shall not be eaten.* 20You may eat any clean winged creature.

21 "You shall not eat anything that dies of itself; you may give it to aliens residing in your towns for them to eat, or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a people holy to the LORD your God.

"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.*

REGULATIONS CONCERNING TITHES

22 "Set apart a tithe of all the yield of your seed that is brought in yearly from the field.* [23]In the presence of the LORD your God, in the place that he will choose as a dwelling for his name, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, your wine, and your oil, as well as the firstlings of your herd and flock, so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.* [24]But if, when the LORD your God has blessed you, the distance is so great that you are unable to transport it, because the place where the LORD your God will choose to set his name is too far away from you,* [25]then you may turn it into money.
With the money secure in hand, go to the place that the LORD your God will choose; [26]spend the money for whatever you wish: oxen, sheep, wine, strong drink, or whatever you desire. And you shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your household rejoicing together.* [27]As for the Levites resident in your towns, do not neglect them, because they have no allotment or inheritance with you.*

28 "Every third year you shall bring out the full tithe of your produce for that year and store it within your towns;* [29]the Levites, because they have no allotment or inheritance with you, as well as the resident aliens, the orphans, and the widows in your towns, may come and eat their fill so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work that you undertake.*

Deuteronomy 15

LAWS CONCERNING THE SABBATICAL YEAR

1 "Every seventh year you shall grant a remission of debts.* 2And this is the manner of the remission: every creditor shall remit the claim that is held against a neighbor, not exacting it,[i] because the LORD's remission has been proclaimed. 3Of a foreigner you may exact it, but you must remit your claim on whatever any member of your community owes you. 4There will, however, be no one in need among you, because the LORD is sure to bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as a possession to occupy, 5if only you will obey the LORD your God by diligently observing this entire commandment that I command you today.* 6When the LORD your God has blessed you, as he promised you, you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.*

7 "If there is among you anyone in need, a member of your community in any of your towns within the land that the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hard-hearted or tight-fisted toward your needy neighbor.* 8You should rather open your hand, willingly lending enough to meet the need, whatever it may be.* 9Be careful that you do not entertain a mean thought, thinking, 'The seventh year, the year of remission, is near,' and therefore view your needy neighbor with hostility and give nothing; your neighbor[j] might cry to the LORD against you, and you would incur guilt.* 10Give liberally and be ungrudging when you do so, for on this account the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake.*
11Since there will never cease to be some in need on the earth, I therefore command you, 'Open your hand to the poor and needy neighbor in your land.'*

12 "If a member of your community, whether a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold[k] to you and works for you six years, in the seventh year you shall set that person free.* 13And when you send a male slave[l] out from you a free person, you shall not send him out empty-handed. 14Provide for him liberally out of your flock, your threshing floor, and your winepress, thus giving to him some of the bounty with which the LORD your God has blessed you. 15Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; for this reason I lay this command upon you today.* 16But if he says to you, 'I will not go out from you,' because he loves you and your household, since he is well off with you,* 17then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his earlobe into the door, and he shall be your slave forever.

"You shall do the same with regard to your female slave.

18 "Do not consider it a hardship when you send them out from you free persons, because for six years they have given you services worth the wages of hired laborers, and the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

THE FIRSTBORN OF LIVESTOCK

19 "Every firstling male born of your herd and flock you shall consecrate to the LORD your God; you shall not do work with your firstling ox nor shear the firstling of your flock.* 20You shall eat it, you together with your household, in the presence of the LORD your God year by year at the place that the LORD will choose.* 21But if it has any defect—any serious defect, such as lameness or blindness—you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God;* 22within your towns you may eat it, the unclean and the clean alike, as you would a gazelle or deer.* 23Its blood, however, you must not eat; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.*

Deuteronomy 16

THE PASSOVER REVIEWED

1 "Observe the month[m] of Abib by keeping the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.* [2]You shall offer the Passover sacrifice to the LORD your God from the flock and the herd, at the place that the LORD will choose as a dwelling for his name.* [3]You must not eat with it anything leavened. For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it—the bread of affliction—because you came out of the land of Egypt in great haste, so that all the days of your life you may remember the day of your departure from the land of Egypt.*
[4]No leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory for seven days, and none of the meat of what you slaughter on the evening of the first day shall remain until morning.* [5]You are not permitted to offer the Passover sacrifice within any of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you. [6]But at the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name, only there shall you offer the Passover sacrifice, in the evening at sunset, the time of day when you departed from Egypt.* [7]You shall cook it and eat it at the place that the LORD your God will choose; the next morning you may go back to your tents.* [8]For six days you shall continue to eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly for the LORD your God, when you shall do no work.*

THE FESTIVAL OF WEEKS REVIEWED

9 "You shall count seven weeks; begin to count the seven weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain.* [10]Then you shall keep the Festival of Weeks to the LORD your God, contributing a freewill offering in proportion to the blessing that you have received from the LORD your God.
[11]Rejoice before the LORD your God—you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, the Levites resident in your towns, as well as the strangers, the orphans, and the widows who are among you—at the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name.*

12 Remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and diligently observe these statutes.*

THE FESTIVAL OF BOOTHS REVIEWED

13 "You shall keep the Festival of Booths[n] for seven days, when you have gathered in the produce from your threshing floor and your winepress.* 14 Rejoice during your festival, you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, as well as the Levites, the strangers, the orphans, and the widows resident in your towns.* 15 Seven days you shall keep the festival to the LORD your God at the place that the LORD will choose, for the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all your undertakings, and you shall surely celebrate.*

16 "Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose: at the Festival of Unleavened Bread, at the Festival of Weeks, and at the Festival of Booths.[o] They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed;* 17 all shall give as they are able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.

MUNICIPAL JUDGES AND OFFICERS

18 "You shall appoint judges and officials throughout your tribes, in all your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, and they shall render just decisions for the people.* 19 You must not distort justice; you must not show partiality; and you must not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of those who are in the right.* 20 Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue, so that you may live and occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

FORBIDDEN FORMS OF WORSHIP

21 "You shall not plant any tree as a sacred pole[p] beside the altar that you make for the LORD your God,* 22 nor shall you set up a stone pillar—things that the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17

1 “You must not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has a defect, anything seriously wrong, for that is abhorrent to the LORD your God.*

2 “If there is found among you, in one of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, a man or woman who does what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God and transgresses his covenant* 3by going to serve other gods and worshiping them—whether the sun or the moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have forbidden—4and if it is reported to you or you hear of it, and you make a thorough inquiry, and the charge is proved true that such an abhorrent thing has occurred in Israel,* 5then you shall bring out to your gates that man or that woman who has committed this crime, and you shall stone the man or woman to death. 6On the evidence of two or three witnesses the death sentence shall be executed; a person must not be put to death on the evidence of only one witness.* 7The hands of the witnesses shall be the first raised against the person to execute the death penalty and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.*

LEGAL DECISIONS BY PRIESTS AND JUDGES

8 “If a judicial decision is too difficult for you to make between one kind of bloodshed and another, one kind of legal right and another, or one kind of assault and another—any such matters of dispute in your towns—then you shall immediately go up to the place that the LORD your God will choose,* 9where you shall consult with the Levitical priests and the judge who is in office in those days; they shall announce to you the decision in the case.* 10Carry out exactly the decision that they announce to you from the place that the LORD will choose, diligently observing everything they instruct you. 11You must carry out the law that they interpret for you or the ruling that they announce to you; do not turn aside from the decision that they announce to you, either to the right or to the left.* 12As for anyone who presumes to disobey the priest appointed to minister there to the LORD your God or the judge, that person shall die. So you shall purge the evil from Israel. 13All the people will hear and be afraid and will not act presumptuously again.*

LIMITATIONS OF ROYAL AUTHORITY

14 "When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you and have taken possession of it and settled in it, and you say, 'I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me,'* 15you may indeed set over you a king whom the LORD your God will choose. One of your own community you may set as king over you; you are not permitted to put a foreigner over you, who is not of your own community.* 16Even so, he must not acquire many horses for himself or return the people to Egypt in order to acquire more horses, since the LORD has said to you, 'You must never return that way again.'* 17And he must not acquire many wives for himself or else his heart will turn away; also silver and gold he must not acquire in great quantity for himself.* 18When he has taken the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself a copy of this law on a scroll in the presence of the Levitical priests.* 19It shall remain with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, diligently observing all the words of this law and these statutes,* 20neither exalting himself above other members of the community nor turning aside from the commandment, either to the right or to the left, so that he and his descendants may reign long over his kingdom in Israel.*

Deuteronomy 18

PRIVILEGES OF PRIESTS AND LEVITES

1 "The Levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no allotment or inheritance within Israel. They may eat the offerings by fire[q] that are the LORD's portion,[r,*] [2]but they shall have no inheritance among the other members of the community; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.

3 "This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those offering a sacrifice, whether an ox or a sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the two jowls, and the stomach.[] [4]The first fruits of your grain, your wine, and your oil, as well as the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.[] [5]For the LORD your God has chosen Levi[s] out of all your tribes to stand and minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for all time.[] 6 "If a Levite leaves any of your towns, from wherever he has been residing in Israel, and comes to the place that the LORD will choose (and he may come whenever he wishes), [7]then he may minister in the name of the LORD his God, like all his fellow-Levites who stand to minister there before the LORD. [8]They shall have equal portions to eat, even though they have income from the sale of family possessions.[t,]

CHILD-SACRIFICE, DIVINATION, AND MAGIC PROHIBITED

9 "When you come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you must not learn to imitate the abhorrent practices of those nations.[] [10]No one shall be found among you who makes a son or daughter pass through fire, or who practices divination, or is a soothsayer, or an augur, or a sorcerer,[] [11]or one who casts spells, or who consults ghosts or spirits, or who seeks oracles from the dead. [12]For whoever does these things is abhorrent to the LORD; it is because of such abhorrent practices that the LORD your God is driving them out before you.[*] [13]You must remain completely loyal to the LORD your God. [14]Although these nations that you are about to dispossess do give heed to soothsayers and diviners, as for you, the LORD your God does not permit you to do so.

A NEW PROPHET LIKE MOSES

15 "The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet.[u,] 16This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, 'Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God or see this great fire any more, lest I die.' 17Then the LORD replied to me, 'They are right in what they have said.* 18I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet,[v] who shall speak to them everything that I command.* 19Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet[w] shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable.* 20But any prophet who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.'* 21You may say to yourself, 'How can we recognize a word that the LORD has not spoken?' 22If a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD but the thing does not take place or prove true, it is a word that the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; do not be frightened by it.*

Deuteronomy 19

LAWS CONCERNING THE CITIES OF REFUGE

1 "When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you and you have dispossessed them and settled in their towns and in their houses,* 2you shall set apart three cities in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.* 3You shall calculate the distances[x] and divide into three regions the land that the LORD your God gives you as a possession, so that any homicide can flee to one of them.

4 "Now this is the case of a homicide who might flee there and live, that is, someone who has killed another person unintentionally when the two had not been at enmity before.* 5Suppose someone goes into the forest with another to cut wood, and when one of them swings the ax to cut down a tree, the head slips from the handle and strikes the other person, who then dies; the killer may flee to one of these cities and live. 6But if the distance is too great, the avenger of blood in hot anger might pursue and overtake and put the killer to death, although a death sentence was not deserved, since the two had not been at enmity before.* 7Therefore I command you: You shall set apart three cities.

8 "If the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he swore to your ancestors—and he will give you all the land that he promised your ancestors to give you, 9provided you diligently observe this entire commandment that I command you today, by loving the LORD your God and walking always in his ways—then you shall add three more cities to these three,* 10so that the blood of an innocent person may not be shed in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, thereby bringing bloodguilt upon you.*

11 "But if someone at enmity with another lies in wait and attacks and takes the life of that person and flees into one of these cities, 12then the elders of the killer's city shall send to have the culprit taken from there and handed over to the avenger of blood to be put to death. 13Show no pity; you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, so that it may go well with you.*

PROPERTY BOUNDARIES

14 "You must not move your neighbor's boundary marker, set up by former generations, on the property that will be allotted to you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.*

LAW CONCERNING WITNESSES

15 "A single witness shall not suffice to convict a person of any crime or wrongdoing in connection with any offense that may be committed. Only on the evidence of two or three witnesses shall a charge be sustained.* 16If a malicious witness comes forward to accuse someone of wrongdoing,* 17then both parties to the dispute shall appear before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who are in office in those days,* 18and the judges shall make a thorough inquiry. If the witness is a false witness, having testified falsely against another, 19then you shall do to the false witness just as the false witness had meant to do to the other. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.* 20The rest shall hear and be afraid, and a crime such as this shall never again be committed among you. 21Show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.*

Deuteronomy 20

RULES OF WARFARE

1 "When you go out to war against your enemies and see horses and chariots, an army larger than your own, do not fear them, for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.* 2Before you engage in battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the troops 3and shall say to them, 'Hear, O Israel! Today you are drawing near to do battle against your enemies. Do not lose heart or be afraid or panic or be in dread of them,* 4for it is the LORD your God who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to give you victory.'* 5Then the officers shall address the troops, saying, 'Has anyone built a new house but not dedicated it? He should go back to his house, lest he die in the battle and another dedicate it.
6Has anyone planted a vineyard but not yet enjoyed its fruit? He should go back to his house, lest he die in the battle and another be first to enjoy its fruit.* 7Has anyone become engaged to a woman but not yet married her?
He should go back to his house, lest he die in the battle and another marry her.'* 8The officers shall continue to address the troops, saying, 'Is anyone afraid or disheartened? He should go back to his house, or he might cause the heart of his comrades to melt like his own.'* 9When the officers have finished addressing the troops, then the commanders shall take charge of them.

10 "When you draw near to a town to fight against it, offer it terms of peace.* 11If it accepts your terms of peace and surrenders to you, then all the people in it shall serve you at forced labor. 12But if it does not accept your terms of peace and makes war against you, then you shall besiege it, 13and when the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall put all its males to the sword. 14You may, however, take as your plunder the women, the children, livestock, and everything else in the town, all its spoil. You may enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you.*
15Thus you shall treat all the towns that are very far from you, which are not towns of these nations here. 16But as for the towns of these peoples that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, you must not let anything that breathes remain alive.* 17Indeed, you shall annihilate them—the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites—just as the LORD your God has commanded, 18so that they may not teach you to do all the abhorrent things that they do for their gods and you thus sin against the LORD your God.*

19 "If you besiege a town for a long time, making war against it in order to take it, you must not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them. Although you may take food from them, you must not cut them down. Are trees in the field human beings that they should come under siege from you? 20You may destroy only the trees that you know do not produce food; you may cut them down for use in building siegeworks against the town that makes war with you, until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21

LAW CONCERNING MURDER BY PERSONS UNKNOWN

1 "If, in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess, a body is found lying in open country, and it is not known who struck the person down,* 2then your elders and your judges shall come out to measure the distances to the towns that are near the body. 3The elders of the town nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked, one that has not pulled in the yoke; 4the elders of that town shall bring the heifer down to a wadi with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the wadi. 5Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to him and to pronounce blessings in the name of the LORD, and by their decision all cases of dispute and assault shall be settled.* 6All the elders of that town nearest the body shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the wadi, 7and they shall declare, 'Our hands did not shed this blood, nor were we witnesses to it. 8Absolve, O LORD, your people Israel, whom you redeemed; do not let the guilt of innocent blood remain in the midst of your people Israel.' Then they will be absolved of bloodguilt.* 9So you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, because you must do what is right in the sight of the LORD.*

FEMALE CAPTIVES

10 "When you go out to war against your enemies and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take them captive, 11suppose you see among the captives a beautiful woman whom you desire and want to marry, 12and so you bring her home to your house: she shall shave her head, pare her nails,* 13discard her captive's garb, and remain in your house a full month mourning for her father and mother; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. 14But if you are not satisfied with her, you shall let her go free and certainly not sell her for money. You must not treat her as a slave, since you have dishonored her.

THE RIGHT OF THE FIRSTBORN

15 "If a man has two wives, one of them loved and the other disliked, and if both the loved and the disliked have borne him sons, the firstborn being the son of the one who is disliked, [16]then on the day when he wills his possessions to his sons, he is not permitted to treat the son of the loved as the firstborn in preference to the son of the disliked, who is the firstborn.*
[17]He must acknowledge as firstborn the son of the one who is disliked, giving him a double portion[y] of all that he has; since he is the first issue of his virility, the right of the firstborn is his.*

REBELLIOUS CHILDREN

18 "If someone has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father and mother, who does not heed them when they discipline him,* [19]then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his town at the gate of that place. [20]They shall say to the elders of his town, 'This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a glutton and a drunkard.' [21]Then all the men of the town shall stone him to death. So you shall purge the evil from your midst, and all Israel will hear and be afraid.*

MISCELLANEOUS LAWS

22 "When someone is convicted of a crime punishable by death and is executed and you hang him on a tree, [23]his corpse must not remain all night upon the tree; you must bury him that same day, for anyone hung on a tree is under God's curse. You must not defile the land that the LORD your God is giving you for possession.*

Deuteronomy 22

1 “You shall not watch your neighbor’s ox or sheep straying away and ignore them; you shall take them back to their owner.* [2]If the owner does not reside near you or you do not know who the owner is, you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until the owner claims it; then you shall return it. [3]You shall do the same with a neighbor’s donkey; you shall do the same with a neighbor’s garment; and you shall do the same with anything else that your neighbor loses and you find. You may not withhold your help.

4 “You shall not see your neighbor’s donkey or ox fallen on the road and ignore it; you shall help to lift it up.*

5 “A woman shall not wear a man’s apparel, nor shall a man put on a woman’s garment, for whoever does such things is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

6 “If you come on a bird’s nest, in any tree or on the ground, with fledglings or eggs, with the mother sitting on the fledglings or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young.* [7]Let the mother go, taking only the young for yourself, in order that it may go well with you and you may live long.*

8 “When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof; otherwise you might have bloodguilt on your house, if anyone should fall from it.

9 “You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, or the whole yield will be forbidden, both the crop that you have sown and the yield of the vineyard itself.*

10 “You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey yoked together.

11 “You shall not wear clothes made of wool and linen woven together.*

12 “You shall make tassels on the four corners of the cloak with which you cover yourself.*

LAWS CONCERNING SEXUAL RELATIONS

13 “Suppose a man marries a woman but after going in to her dislikes her* [14]and makes up charges against her, slandering her by saying, ‘I married this woman, but when I lay with her, I did not find evidence of her virginity.’ [15]The father of the young woman and her mother shall then submit the evidence of the young woman’s virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.* [16]The father of the young woman shall say to the elders: ‘I gave my daughter in marriage to this man, but he dislikes her, [17]and now he has made up charges against her, saying, “I did not find evidence of your daughter’s virginity.” But here is the evidence of my daughter’s virginity.’ Then they shall spread out the cloth before the elders of the town. [18]The elders of that town shall take the man and punish him; [19]they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver (which they shall give to the young woman’s father) because he has slandered a virgin of Israel. She shall remain his wife; he shall not be permitted to divorce her as long as he lives.

20 “If, however, this charge is true, that evidence of the young woman’s virginity was not found, [21]then they shall bring the young woman out to the entrance of her father’s house, and the men of her town shall stone her to death, because she committed a disgraceful act in Israel by prostituting herself in her father’s house. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.*

22 “If a man is discovered lying with the wife of another man, both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman as well as the woman. So you shall purge the evil from Israel.*

23 “If there is a young woman, a virgin already engaged to be married, and a man meets her in the town and lies with her, [24]you shall bring both of them to the gate of that town and stone them to death, the young woman because she did not cry for help in the town and the man because he violated his neighbor’s wife. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.*

25 “But if the man meets the engaged woman in the open country and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.* [26]You shall do nothing to the young woman; the young woman has not committed an offense punishable by death, because this case is like that of someone who attacks and murders a neighbor. [27]Since he found her in the open country, the engaged woman may have cried for help, but there was no one to rescue her.

28 “If a man meets a virgin who is not engaged and seizes her and lies with her, and they are discovered,* [29]the man who lay with her shall give fifty shekels of silver to the young woman’s father, and she shall become his wife. Because he violated her, he shall not be permitted to divorce her as long as he lives.

30 [z]“A man shall not marry his father’s wife, thereby violating his father’s rights.[a,*]

Deuteronomy 23

THOSE EXCLUDED FROM THE ASSEMBLY

1 "No one whose testicles are crushed or whose penis is cut off shall come into the assembly of the LORD.

2 "Those born of an illicit union shall not come into the assembly of the LORD. Even to the tenth generation, none of their descendants shall come into the assembly of the LORD.

3 "No Ammonite or Moabite shall come into the assembly of the LORD even to the tenth generation. None of their descendants shall come into the assembly of the LORD forever, [4]because they did not meet you with food and water on your journey out of Egypt and because they hired against you Balaam son of Beor, from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you. [5](Yet the LORD your God refused to heed Balaam; the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loved you.) [6]You shall never promote their welfare or their prosperity as long as you live.

7 "You shall not abhor any of the Edomites, for they are your kin. You shall not abhor any of the Egyptians, because you were an alien residing in their land. [8]The children of the third generation that are born to them may come into the assembly of the LORD.

SANITARY, RITUAL, AND HUMANITARIAN PRECEPTS

9 "When you are encamped against your enemies, you shall guard against every evil thing.

10 "If one of you becomes unclean because of a nocturnal emission, then he shall go outside the camp; he must not come within the camp. [11]When evening comes, he shall wash himself with water, and when the sun has set, he may come back into the camp.

12 "You shall have a designated area outside the camp to which you shall go. [13]With your tools you shall have a trowel; when you relieve yourself outside, you shall dig a hole with it and then cover up your excrement. [14]Because the LORD your God travels along with your camp, to save you and to hand over your enemies to you, therefore your camp must be holy, so that he may not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you.

15 "You shall not return to their owners slaves who have escaped to you from their owners. [16]They shall reside with you, in your midst, in any place they choose in any one of your towns, wherever they please; you shall not oppress them.

17 "None of the daughters of Israel shall serve in an illicit shrine; none of the sons of Israel shall serve in an illicit shrine.* [18]You shall not bring the fee of a prostitute or the wages of a dog into the house of the LORD your God in payment for any vow, for both of these are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

19 "You shall not charge interest on loans to another Israelite,[b] interest on money, interest on provisions, interest on anything that is lent.* [20]On loans to a foreigner you may charge interest, but on loans to another Israelite[c] you may not charge interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your undertakings in the land that you are about to enter and possess.*

21 "If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not postpone fulfilling it, for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and you would incur guilt.* [22]But if you refrain from vowing, you will not incur guilt. [23]Whatever your lips utter you must diligently perform, just as you have freely vowed to the LORD your God with your own mouth.

24 "If you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, as many as you wish, but you shall not put any in a container.

25 "If you go into your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck the ears with your hand, but you shall not put a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.*

Deuteronomy 24

LAWS CONCERNING MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

1 "Suppose a man enters into marriage with a woman but she does not please him because he finds something objectionable about her, so he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house; [2]she then leaves his house and goes off to become another man's wife.* [3]Then suppose the second man dislikes her, writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house (or the second man who married her dies): [4]her first husband, who sent her away, is not permitted to take her again to be his wife after she has been defiled, for that would be abhorrent to the LORD, and you shall not bring guilt on the land that the LORD your God is giving you as a possession.*

MISCELLANEOUS LAWS

5 "When a man is newly married, he shall not go out with the army or be charged with any related duty. He shall be free at home one year, to be happy with the wife whom he has married.*

6 "No one shall take a mill or an upper millstone in pledge, for that would be taking a life in pledge.

7 "If someone is caught kidnaping another Israelite, enslaving or selling the Israelite, then that kidnaper shall die. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.*

8 "Guard against an outbreak of a defiling skin disease by being very careful; you shall carefully observe whatever the Levitical priests instruct you, just as I have commanded them.* [9]Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on your journey out of Egypt.*

10 "When you make your neighbor a loan of any kind, you shall not go into the house to take the pledge. [11]You shall wait outside while the person to whom you are making the loan brings the pledge out to you. [12]If the person is poor, you shall not sleep in the garment given you as[d] the pledge.
[13]You shall give the pledge back by sunset, so that your neighbor may sleep in the cloak and bless you, and it will be to your credit before the LORD your God.*

14 "You shall not withhold the wages of poor and needy laborers, whether other Israelites or aliens who reside in your land in one of your towns.* 15You shall pay them their wages daily before sunset, because they are poor and their livelihood depends on them; otherwise they might cry to the LORD against you, and you would incur guilt.*

16 "Parents shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their parents; only for their own crimes may persons be put to death.*

17 "You shall not deprive a resident alien or an orphan of justice; you shall not take a widow's garment in pledge.* 18Remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I command you to do this.*

19 "When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be left for the alien, the orphan, and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your undertakings.* 20When you beat your olive trees, do not strip what is left; it shall be for the alien, the orphan, and the widow.*

21 "When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, do not glean what is left; it shall be for the alien, the orphan, and the widow. 22Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this.*

Deuteronomy 25

1 “Suppose two persons have a dispute and enter into litigation, and the judges decide between them, declaring one to be in the right and the other to be in the wrong.* [2]If the one in the wrong deserves to be flogged, the judge shall make that person lie down and be beaten in his presence with the number of lashes proportionate to the offense. [3]Forty lashes may be given but not more; if more lashes than these are given, your neighbor will be degraded in your sight.*

4 “You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.*

LEVIRATE MARRIAGE

5 “When brothers reside together and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the deceased shall not be married outside the family to a stranger. Her husband’s brother shall go in to her, taking her in marriage and performing the duty of a husband’s brother to her,* [6]and the firstborn whom she bears shall succeed to the name of the deceased brother, so that his name may not be blotted out of Israel.* [7]But if the man has no desire to marry his brother’s widow, then his brother’s widow shall go up to the elders at the gate and say, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to perpetuate his brother’s name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband’s brother to me.’* [8]Then the elders of his town shall summon him and speak to him.
If he persists, saying, ‘I have no desire to marry her,’* [9]then his brother’s wife shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, pull his sandal off his foot, spit in his face, and declare, ‘This is what is done to the man who does not build up his brother’s house.’* [10]Throughout Israel his family shall be known as ‘the house of him whose sandal was pulled off.’

VARIOUS COMMANDS

11 “If men get into a fight with one another and the wife of one intervenes to rescue her husband from the grip of his opponent by reaching out and seizing his genitals, [12]you shall cut off her hand; show no pity.

13 “You shall not have in your bag two kinds of weights, large and small.* 14You shall not have in your house two kinds of measures, large and small. 15You shall have only a full and honest weight; you shall have only a full and honest measure, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you. 16For all who do such things, all who act dishonestly, are abhorrent to the LORD your God.*

17 “Remember what Amalek did to you on your journey out of Egypt,* 18how he attacked you on the way, when you were faint and weary, and struck down all who lagged behind you; he did not fear God. 19Therefore when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies on every hand, in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; do not forget.*

Deuteronomy 26

FIRST FRUITS AND TITHES

1 "When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess and you possess it and settle in it, [2]you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name.* [3]You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and say to him, 'Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us.' [4]When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, [5]you shall make this response before the LORD your God: 'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous.* [6]When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us,* [7]we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression.* [8]The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders;* [9]and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.* [10]So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me.' You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. [11]Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.*

12 "When you have finished paying all the tithe of your produce in the third year (which is the year of the tithe), giving it to the Levites, the aliens, the orphans, and the widows, so that they may eat their fill within your towns,* [13]then you shall say before the LORD your God, 'I have removed the sacred portion from the house, and I have given it to the Levites, the resident aliens, the orphans, and the widows, in accordance with your entire commandment that you commanded me; I have neither transgressed nor forgotten any of your commandments:* 14I have not eaten of it while in mourning; I have not removed any of it while I was unclean; and I have not offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God, doing just as you commanded me.* 15Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel and the ground that you have given us, as you swore to our ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey.'

CONCLUDING EXHORTATION

16 "This very day the LORD your God is commanding you to observe these statutes and ordinances, so observe them diligently with all your heart and with all your soul.* 17Today you have obtained the LORD's agreement: to be your God; and for you to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, and his ordinances, and to obey him. 18Today the LORD has obtained your agreement: to be his treasured people, as he promised you, and to keep all his commandments;* 19for him to set you high above all nations that he has made, in praise and in fame and in honor; and for you to be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised."*

Deuteronomy 27

THE INSCRIBED STONES AND ALTAR ON MOUNT EBAL

1 Then Moses and the elders of Israel charged all the people as follows:
"Keep the entire commandment that I am commanding you today. [2]On the day that you cross over the Jordan into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you shall set up large stones and cover them with plaster.* [3]You shall write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over, to enter the land that the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you.* [4]So when you have crossed over the Jordan, you shall set up these stones about which I am commanding you today on Mount Ebal, and you shall cover them with plaster. [5]And you shall build an altar there to the LORD your God, an altar of stones on which you have not used an iron tool.* [6]You must build the altar of the LORD your God of unhewn[e] stones. Then offer up burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God; [7]make sacrifices of well-being, and eat them there, rejoicing before the LORD your God. [8]You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very clearly."

9 Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying, "Keep silence and hear, O Israel! This very day you have become the people of the LORD your God.* [10]Therefore obey the LORD your God, observing his commandments and his statutes that I am commanding you today."

TWELVE CURSES

11 The same day Moses charged the people as follows: [12]"When you have crossed over the Jordan, these shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.* [13]And these shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. [14]Then the Levites shall declare in a loud voice to all the Israelites, 15 " 'Cursed be anyone who makes an idol or casts an image, anything abhorrent to the LORD, the work of an artisan, and sets it up in secret.' All the people shall respond, saying, ‘Amen!’*

16 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who dishonors father or mother.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

17 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who moves a neighbor’s boundary marker.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

18 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who misleads a blind person on the road.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

19 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who deprives an alien, an orphan, or a widow of justice.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

20 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who lies with his father’s wife, because he has violated his father’s rights.’[f] All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

21 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who lies with any animal.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

22 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who lies with his sister, whether the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

23 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who lies with his mother-in-law.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

24 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who strikes down a neighbor in secret.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

25 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who takes a bribe to shed innocent blood.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

26 “ ‘Cursed be anyone who does not uphold the words of this law by observing them.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen!’*

Deuteronomy 28

1 "If you will only obey the LORD your God, by diligently observing all his commandments that I am commanding you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth;* 2all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, if you obey the LORD your God:

3 "Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.*

4 "Blessed shall be the fruit of your womb, the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your livestock, both the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock.*

5 "Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.

6 "Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

7 "The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before you; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways.* 8The LORD will command the blessing upon you in your barns and in all that you undertake; he will bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you. 9The LORD will establish you as his holy people, as he has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in his ways.* 10All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you.* 11The LORD will make you abound in prosperity, in the fruit of your womb, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give you.* 12The LORD will open for you his rich storehouse, the heavens, to give the rain of your land in its season and to bless all your undertakings. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow.* 13The LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be only at the top and not at the bottom—if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today by diligently observing them, 14and if you do not turn aside from any of the words that I am commanding you today, either to the right or to the left, following other gods to serve them.*

WARNINGS AGAINST DISOBEDIENCE

15 "But if you will not obey the LORD your God by diligently observing all his commandments and decrees that I am commanding you today, then all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you:*

16 "Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.

17 "Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.

18 "Cursed shall be the fruit of your womb, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock.

19 "Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

20 "The LORD will send upon you disaster, panic, and frustration in everything you attempt to do, until you are destroyed and perish quickly, on account of the evil of your deeds with which you have forsaken me.* 21The LORD will make the pestilence cling to you until it has consumed you off the land that you are entering to possess.* 22The LORD will afflict you with consumption, fever, inflammation, with fiery heat and drought,g and with blight and mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish.* 23The sky over your head shall be bronze and the earth under you iron.* 24The LORD will change the rain of your land into powder, and only dust shall come down upon you from the sky until you are destroyed.

25 "The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you shall go out against them one way and flee before them seven ways. You shall become an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.* 26Your corpses shall be food for every bird of the air and animal of the earth, and there shall be no one to frighten them away.* 27The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors, scurvy, and itch, of which you cannot be healed.* 28The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness, and confusion of mind; 29you shall grope about at noon as blind people grope in darkness, but you shall be unable to find your way, and you shall be continually abused and robbed, without anyone to help.* 30You shall become engaged to a woman, but another man shall lie with her. You shall build a house but not live in it. You shall plant a vineyard but not enjoy its fruit.* 31Your ox shall be butchered before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it. Your donkey shall be stolen in front of you and shall not be restored to you. Your sheep shall be given to your enemies without anyone to help you.

32 Your sons and daughters shall be given to another people while you look on; you will strain your eyes looking for them all day but be powerless to do anything.* 33 A people whom you do not know shall eat up the fruit of your ground and of all your labors; you shall be continually abused and crushed* 34 and driven mad by the sight that your eyes shall see. 35 The LORD will strike you on the knees and on the legs with grievous boils of which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.*
36 The LORD will bring you and the king whom you set over you to a nation that neither you nor your ancestors have known, where you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone.* 37 You shall become an object of horror, a proverb, and a byword among all the peoples where the LORD will lead you.*

38 "You shall carry much seed into the field but shall gather little in, for the locust shall consume it.* 39 You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink the wine nor gather the grapes, for the worm shall eat them. 40 You shall have olive trees throughout all your territory, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil, for your olives shall drop off. 41 You shall have sons and daughters, but they shall not remain yours, for they shall go into captivity.* 42 All your trees and the fruit of your ground the cicada shall take over.* 43 Aliens residing among you shall ascend above you higher and higher, while you shall descend lower and lower.* 44 They shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to them; they shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.*

45 "All these curses shall come upon you, pursuing and overtaking you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the LORD your God by observing the commandments and the decrees that he commanded you.*
46 They shall be among you and your descendants as a sign and a portent forever.

47 "Because you did not serve the LORD your God joyfully and with gladness of heart for the abundance of everything,* 48 therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and lack of everything. He will put an iron yoke on your neck until he has destroyed you.* 49 The LORD will bring a nation from far away, from the end of the earth, to swoop down on you like an eagle, a nation whose language you do not understand,* 50a grim-faced nation showing no respect to the old or favor to the young. 51It shall consume the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your ground until you are destroyed, leaving you neither grain, wine, and oil nor the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock, until it has made you perish.* 52It shall besiege you in all your towns until your high and fortified walls, in which you trusted, come down throughout your land; it shall besiege you in all your towns throughout the land that the LORD your God has given you.* 53In the desperate straits to which the enemy siege reduces you, you will eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your own sons and daughters whom the LORD your God has given you.* 54Even the most refined and gentle of men among you will begrudge food to his own brother, to the wife whom he embraces, and to the last of his remaining children, 55giving to none of them any of the flesh of his children whom he is eating, because nothing else remains to him, in the desperate straits to which the enemy siege will reduce you in all your towns. 56She who is the most refined and gentle among you, so gentle and refined that she does not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground, will begrudge food to the husband whom she embraces, to her own son, and to her own daughter,* 57begrudging even the afterbirth that comes out from between her thighs and the children that she bears, because she is eating them in secret for lack of anything else, in the desperate straits to which the enemy siege will reduce you in your towns.

58 "If you do not diligently observe all the words of this law that are written in this book, fearing this glorious and awesome name, the LORD your God,* 59then the LORD will overwhelm both you and your offspring with severe and lasting afflictions and grievous and lasting maladies. 60He will bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were in dread, and they shall cling to you.* 61Every other malady and affliction, even though not recorded in the book of this law, the LORD will inflict on you until you are destroyed.* 62Although once you were as numerous as the stars in heaven, you shall be left few in number because you did not obey the LORD your God.* 63And just as the LORD took delight in making you prosperous and numerous, so the LORD will take delight in bringing you to ruin and destruction; you shall be plucked off the land that you are entering to possess.* 64The LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone, which neither you nor your ancestors have known.* 65Among those nations you shall find no ease, no resting place for the sole of your foot.

There the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a languishing spirit.* 66Your life shall hang in doubt before you; night and day you shall be in dread, with no assurance of your life. 67In the morning you shall say, 'If only it were evening!' and at evening you shall say, 'If only it were morning!'—because of the dread that your heart shall feel and the sights that your eyes shall see.* 68The LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt, by a route that I promised you would never see again, and there you shall offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer."

Deuteronomy 29

1 [h]These are the words of the covenant that the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant that he had made with them at Horeb.*

THE COVENANT RENEWED IN MOAB

2 [i]Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land,* 3the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders. 4But to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand or eyes to see or ears to hear.* 5I have led you forty years in the wilderness. The clothes on your back have not worn out, and the sandals on your feet have not worn out;* 6you have not eaten bread, and you have not drunk wine or strong drink—so that you may know that I am the LORD your God.* 7When you came to this place, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out against us for battle, but we defeated them.* 8We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.* 9Therefore observe the words of this covenant and perform them, in order that you may succeed[j] in everything that you do.*

10 "You stand assembled today, all of you, before the LORD your God—the leaders of your tribes,[k] your elders, and your officials, all the men of Israel, 11your children, your women, and the aliens who are in your camp, both those who cut your wood and those who draw your water*—12to enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, sworn by an oath, which the LORD your God is making with you today, 13in order that he may establish you today as his people and that he may be your God, as he promised you and as he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.* 14I am making this covenant, sworn by an oath, not only with you 15who stand here with us today before the LORD our God but also with those who are not here with us today. 16You know how we lived in the land of Egypt and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed. 17You have seen their detestable things, the filthy idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold, that were among them.* 18It may be that there is among you a man or woman or a family or tribe whose heart is already turning away from the LORD our God to serve the gods of those nations. It may be that there is among you a root sprouting poisonous and bitter growth.* 19All who hear the words of this oath and bless themselves, thinking in their hearts, 'We are safe even though we go our own stubborn ways' (thus sweeping away the moist with the dry)[l]—20the LORD will be unwilling to pardon them, for then the LORD's anger and passion will smoke against them. All the curses written in this book will descend on them, and the LORD will blot out their names from under heaven.* 21The LORD will single them out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law.* 22The next generation, your children who rise up after you, as well as the foreigner who comes from a distant country, will see the devastation of that land and the afflictions with which the LORD has afflicted it*—23all its soil burned out by sulfur and salt, nothing planted, nothing sprouting, unable to support any vegetation, like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD destroyed in his fierce anger*—24they and indeed all the nations will wonder, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land? What caused this great display of anger?'* 25They will conclude, 'It is because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt. 26They turned and served other gods, worshiping them, gods whom they had not known and whom he had not allotted to them; 27so the anger of the LORD was kindled against that land, bringing on it every curse written in this book. 28The LORD uprooted them from their land in anger, fury, and great wrath and cast them into another land, as is now the case.'* 29The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the revealed things belong to us and to our children forever, to observe all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30

GOD'S FIDELITY ASSURED

1 "When all these things have happened to you, the blessings and the curses that I have set before you, if you call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you* [2]and return to the LORD your God, and you and your children obey him with all your heart and with all your soul, just as I am commanding you today,* [3]then the LORD your God will return you from your captivity and have compassion on you, gathering you again from all the peoples among whom the LORD your God has scattered you.* [4]Even if you are exiled to the ends of the world,[m] from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there he will take you back.*
[5]The LORD your God will bring you into the land that your ancestors possessed, and you will possess it; he will make you more prosperous and numerous than your ancestors.

6 "Moreover, the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, in order that you may live.* [7]The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on the adversaries who took advantage of you. [8]Then you shall again obey the LORD, observing all his commandments that I am commanding you today, [9]and the LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil.
For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors,* [10]when you obey the LORD your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

EXHORTATION TO CHOOSE LIFE

11 "Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away.* [12]It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?'* 13Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' 14No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

15 "See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity.* 16If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God[n] that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. 17But if your heart turns away and you do not hear but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, 18I declare to you today that you shall certainly perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.* 19I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live,* 20loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him, for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."*

Deuteronomy 31

JOSHUA BECOMES MOSES'S SUCCESSOR

1 When Moses had finished speaking all[o] these words to all Israel, [2]he said to them, "I am now one hundred twenty years old. I am no longer able to get about, and the LORD has told me, 'You shall not cross over this Jordan.'* [3]The LORD your God himself will cross over before you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua also will cross over before you, as the LORD promised.* [4]The LORD will do to them as he did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when he destroyed them. [5]The LORD will give them over to you, and you shall deal with them in full accord with the command that I have given to you.*
[6]Be strong and bold; have no fear or dread of them, because it is the LORD your God who goes with you; he will not fail you or forsake you."*

7 Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and bold, for you are the one who will go with this people into the land that the LORD has sworn to their ancestors to give them, and you will put them in possession of it.* [8]It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed."*

THE LAW TO BE READ EVERY SEVENTH YEAR

9 Then Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.* [10]Moses commanded them, "Every seventh year, in the scheduled year of remission, during the Festival of Booths,[p],* [11]when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.* [12]Assemble the people —men, women, and children, as well as the aliens residing in your towns—so that they may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God and to observe diligently all the words of this law* [13]and so that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess."*

MOSES AND JOSHUA RECEIVE GOD'S CHARGE

14 The LORD said to Moses, "Your time to die is near; call Joshua and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him." So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting,* [15]and the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud; the pillar of cloud stood at the entrance to the tent.*

16 The LORD said to Moses, "Soon you will lie down with your ancestors. Then this people will begin to prostitute themselves to the foreign gods in their midst, the gods of the land into which they are going; they will forsake me, breaking my covenant that I have made with them.* [17]My anger will be kindled against them on that day. I will forsake them and hide my face from them; they will become easy prey, and many terrible troubles will come upon them. On that day they will say, 'Have not these troubles come upon us because our God is not in our midst?'* [18]On that day I will surely hide my face on account of all the evil they have done by turning to other gods. [19]Now, therefore, write this song, and teach it to the Israelites; put it in their mouths, in order that this song may be a witness for me against the Israelites. [20]For when I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I promised on oath to their ancestors, and they have eaten their fill and grown fat, they will turn to other gods and serve them, despising me and breaking my covenant.* [21]And when many terrible troubles come upon them, this song will confront them as a witness because it will not be lost from the mouths of their descendants. For I know what they are inclined to do even now, before I have brought them into the land that I promised them on oath."* [22]That very day Moses wrote this song and taught it to the Israelites.*

23 Then the LORD[q] commissioned Joshua son of Nun and said, "Be strong and bold, for you shall bring the Israelites into the land that I promised them; I will be with you."*

24 When Moses had finished writing down in a book the words of this law to the very end, [25]Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,* 26"Take this book of the law and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God; let it remain there as a witness against you.* 27For I know well how rebellious and stubborn you are. If you already have been so rebellious toward the LORD while I am still alive among you, how much more after my death!* 28Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officials, so that I may recite these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them.* 29For I know that after my death you will surely act corruptly, turning aside from the way that I have commanded you. In time to come trouble will befall you, because you will do what is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger through the work of your hands."*

THE SONG OF MOSES

30 Then Moses recited the words of this song, to the very end, in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

Deuteronomy 32

[1]"Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; let the earth hear the words of my mouth.*
[2]May my teaching drop like the rain, my speech condense like the dew, like gentle rain on grass, like showers on new growth.*
[3]For I will proclaim the name of the LORD, ascribe greatness to our God!*

[4]The Rock, his work is perfect, and all his ways are just.
A faithful God, without deceit, just and upright is he;*
[5]yet his degenerate children have dealt falsely with him,[r] a perverse and crooked generation.*
[6]Do you thus repay the LORD, O foolish and senseless people?
Is not he your father who created you, who made you and established you?*
[7]Remember the days of old; consider the years long past;
ask your father, and he will inform you, your elders, and they will tell you.*
[8]When the Most High[s] apportioned the nations, when he divided humankind, he fixed the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the gods;[t],*

9 the LORD's own portion was his people, Jacob his allotted share.*

10 He sustained[u] him in a desert land, in a howling wilderness waste; he shielded him, cared for him, guarded him as the apple of his eye.*
11 As an eagle stirs up its nest and hovers over its young, as it spreads its wings, takes them up, and bears them aloft on its pinions,* 12 the LORD alone guided him; no foreign god was with him.*
13 He set him atop the heights of the land and fed him with[v] produce of the field; he nursed him with honey from the crags, with oil from flinty rock,* 14 curds from the herd, and milk from the flock, with fat of lambs and rams, Bashan bulls and goats, together with the choicest wheat—you drank fine wine from the blood of grapes.*
15 Jacob ate his fill;[w] Jeshurun grew fat and kicked.
You grew fat, bloated, and gorged!
He abandoned God who made him and scoffed at the Rock of his salvation.*
16 They made him jealous with strange gods; with abhorrent things they provoked him.*
17 They sacrificed to demons, not God, to deities they had never known, to new ones recently arrived, whom your ancestors had not feared.*

18 You were unmindful of the Rock that bore you;[x] you forgot the God who gave you birth.*

19 The LORD saw it and was jealous;[y] he spurned[z] his sons and daughters.*
20 He said, 'I will hide my face from them; I will see what their end will be,
for they are a perverse generation, children in whom there is no faithfulness.*
21 They made me jealous with what is no god, provoked me with their idols.
So I will make them jealous with what is no people, provoke them with a foolish nation.*
22 For a fire is kindled by my anger and burns to the depths of Sheol; it devours the earth and its increase and sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.*
23 I will heap disasters upon them, spend my arrows against them:* 24 wasting hunger, burning consumption,
bitter pestilence.
The teeth of beasts I will send against them, with venom of things crawling in the dust.*
25 In the street the sword shall bereave, and in the chambers terror for young man and woman alike, nursing child and old gray head.*

26I said, "I will make an end of them[a] and blot out the memory of them from humankind,"* 27but I feared provocation by the enemy, for their adversaries might misunderstand and say, "Our hand is triumphant; it was not the LORD who did all this." '*

28They are a nation void of sense; there is no understanding in them.
29If they were wise, they would understand this;
they would discern what their end would be.*
30How could one have routed a thousand and two put a myriad to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, the LORD had given them up?*
31Indeed, their rock is not like our Rock; our enemies are fools.[b,*] 32Their vine comes from the vinestock of Sodom, from the vineyards of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of poison;
their clusters are bitter; 33their wine is the poison of serpents, the cruel venom of asps.*

34Is not this laid up in store with me, sealed up in my treasuries,* 35for the day of vengeance[c] and recompense, for the time when their foot shall slip?
Because the day of their calamity is at hand;

their doom comes swiftly.*

36Indeed, the LORD will vindicate his people, have compassion on his servants, when he sees that their power is gone, neither bond nor free remaining.*
37Then he will say, 'Where are their gods, the rock in which they took refuge,* 38who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their libations?
Let them rise up and help you; let them be your protection!

39See now that I, even I, am he;
there is no god besides me.
I kill, and I make alive;
I wound, and I heal;
and no one can deliver from my hand.*
40For I lift up my hand to heaven and swear, As I live forever, 41when I whet my flashing sword and my hand takes hold on judgment, I will take vengeance on my adversaries and will repay those who hate me.*
42I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh—with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the long-haired enemy.'*

43Praise, O heavens,[d] his people; worship him, all you gods![e]

For he will avenge the blood of his children[f] and take vengeance on his adversaries; he will repay those who hate him[g] and cleanse the land for his people."[h,*]

44 Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua[i] son of Nun. [45]When Moses had finished reciting all these words to all Israel, [46]he said to them, "Take to heart all the words that I am giving in witness against you today; give them as a command to your children, so that they may diligently observe all the words of this law.[] [47]This is no trifling matter for you but rather your very life; through it you may live long in the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess."[]

MOSES'S DEATH FORETOLD

48 On that very day the LORD addressed Moses as follows: [49]"Ascend this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab across from Jericho, and view the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites for a possession;[] [50]you shall die there on the mountain that you ascend and shall be gathered to your kin, as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his kin, [51]because both of you broke faith with me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the wilderness of Zin, by failing to maintain my holiness among the Israelites.[] [52]Although you may view the land from a distance, you shall not enter it, the land that I am giving to the Israelites."[*]

Deuteronomy 33

MOSES'S FINAL BLESSING ON ISRAEL

1 This is the blessing with which Moses, the man of God, blessed the Israelites before his death.* 2He said, "The LORD came from Sinai and dawned from Seir upon us;[j] he shone forth from Mount Paran.

With him were myriads of holy ones,[k] at his right, a host of his own.[l,] 3Indeed, O favorite among[m] peoples, all his holy ones were in your charge; they marched at your heels, accepted direction from you.
4Moses charged us with the law as a possession for the assembly of Jacob.*
5There arose a king in Jeshurun when the leaders of the people assembled, the united tribes of Israel.

6May Reuben live and not die out, even though his numbers are few."

7And this he said of Judah,

"O LORD, give heed to Judah, and bring him to his people; strengthen his hands for him,[n] and be a help against his adversaries."*

8And of Levi he said,

"Give to Levi[o] your Thummim and your Urim to your loyal one, whom you tested at Massah, with whom you contended at the waters of Meribah,* 9who said of his father and mother,
'I regard them not';
he ignored his kin
and did not acknowledge his children.
For they observed your word and kept your covenant.*
10They teach Jacob your ordinances and Israel your law;
they place incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.*
11Bless, O LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands; crush the loins of his adversaries, of those who hate him, so that they do not rise again."*

12Of Benjamin he said,
"The beloved of the LORD rests in safety—the Most High[p] surrounds him all day long—and he rests between his shoulders."

13And of Joseph he said,
"Blessed by the LORD be his land, with the choice gifts of heaven above and of the deep that lies beneath,* 14with the choice fruits of the sun and the rich yield of the months, 15 with the finest produce of the ancient mountains and the abundance of the everlasting hills,* 16 with the choice gifts of the earth and its fullness and the favor of the one who dwells on Sinai.[q] Let these come on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.*

17 A firstborn[r] bull—majesty is his!
His horns are the horns of a wild ox; with them he gores the peoples all together to the ends of the earth; such are the myriads of Ephraim, such the thousands of Manasseh."*

18 And of Zebulun he said, "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and Issachar, in your tents.*
19 They call peoples to the mountain; there they offer the right sacrifices, for they suck the affluence of the seas and the hidden treasures of the sand."*

20 And of Gad he said,
"Blessed be the enlargement of Gad!
Like a lion he lives;
he tears at arm and scalp.*
21 He chose the best for himself, for there a commander's allotment was reserved; he came at the head of the people; he executed the justice of the LORD and his ordinances with Israel."*

[22]And of Dan he said, "Dan is a lion's whelp that leaps forth from Bashan."*

[23]And of Naphtali he said,
"O Naphtali, sated with favor, full of the blessing of the LORD, possess the west and the south."*

[24]And of Asher he said, "Most blessed of sons be Asher; may he be the favorite of his brothers, and may he dip his foot in oil.*
[25]Your bars are iron and bronze, and as your days, so is your strength.[s,] [26]There is none like God, O Jeshurun, who rides through the heavens to your help, majestic through the clouds.

[27]He subdues the ancient gods,[t] shatters[u] the forces of old;[v] he drove out the enemy before you and said, 'Destroy!'* [28]So Israel lives in safety, untroubled is Jacob's abode[w] in a land of grain and wine, where the heavens drop down dew.*
[29]Happy are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help and the sword of your triumph!

Your enemies shall come fawning to you, but you shall tread on their backs."*

Deuteronomy 34

MOSES DIES AND IS BURIED IN THE LAND OF MOAB

1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the LORD showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, [2]all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, [3]the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. [4]The LORD said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there."* [5]Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab, at the LORD's command.* [6]He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. [7]Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired, and his vigor had not abated.* [8]The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

9 Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him, and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

10 Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face.* [11]He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land,* [12]and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

Joshua 1

GOD'S COMMISSION TO JOSHUA

1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spoke to Joshua son of Nun, Moses's assistant, saying, [2]"My servant Moses is dead. Now proceed to cross the Jordan, you and all this people, into the land that I am giving to them, to the Israelites.* [3]Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given to you, as I promised to Moses.* [4]From the wilderness and the Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, to the Great Sea in the west shall be your territory.*
[5]No one shall be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you.* [6]Be strong and courageous, for you shall lead this people to possess the land that I swore to their ancestors to give them. [7]Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to act in accordance with all the law that my servant Moses commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, so that you may be successful wherever you go.* [8]This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth; you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to act in accordance with all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall be successful.* [9]I hereby command you: Be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."*

PREPARATIONS FOR THE INVASION

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, [11]"Pass through the camp and command the people, 'Prepare your provisions, for in three days you are to cross over this Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess.' "*

12 But to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh Joshua said,* [13]"Remember the word that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, 'The LORD your God is providing you a place of rest and will give you this land.'* 14Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land that Moses gave you beyond the Jordan. But all the warriors among you shall cross over armed before your kindred and shall help them, 15until the LORD gives rest to your kindred as well as to you, and they also take possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to your own land and take possession of it, the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan to the east."*

16 They answered Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. 17Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses!* 18Whoever rebels against your orders and disobeys your words, whatever you command, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

Joshua 2

SPIES SENT TO JERICHO

1 Then Joshua son of Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." So they went and entered the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab and spent the night there.* [2]The king of Jericho was told, "Some Israelites have come here tonight to search out the land." [3]Then the king of Jericho sent orders to Rahab, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who entered your house, for they have come to search out the whole land." [4]But the woman took the two men and hid them.[a] Then she said, "True, the men came to me, but I did not know where they came from. [5]And when it was time to close the gate at dark, the men went out. Where the men went I do not know. Pursue them quickly, for you can overtake them." [6]She had, however, brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax that she had laid out on the roof.* [7]So the men pursued them on the way to the Jordan as far as the fords. As soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

8 Before they went to sleep, she came up to them on the roof [9]and said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given you the land and that dread of you has fallen on us and that all the inhabitants of the land melt in fear before you.* [10]For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea[b] before you when you came out of Egypt and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.* [11]As soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no courage left in any of us because of you. The LORD your God is indeed God in heaven above and on earth below.* [12]Now then, since I have dealt kindly with you, swear to me by the LORD that you in turn will deal kindly with my family. Give me a sign of good faith* [13]that you will spare my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them and deliver our lives from death." [14]The men said to her, "Our life for yours! If you do not tell this business of ours, then we will deal kindly and faithfully with you when the LORD gives us the land."*

15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the outer side of the city wall and she resided within the wall itself.

16She said to them, “Go toward the hill country, so that the pursuers may not come upon you. Hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned; then afterward you may go your way.”* 17The men said to her, “We will be released from this oath that you have made us swear to you* 18if we invade the land and you do not tie this crimson cord in the window through which you let us down and you do not gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers, and all your family.* 19If any of you go out of the doors of your house into the street, they shall be responsible for their own death, and we shall be innocent, but if a hand is laid upon any who are with you in the house, we shall bear the responsibility for their death.* 20But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be released from this oath that you made us swear to you.” 21She said, “According to your words, so be it.” She sent them away, and they departed. Then she tied the crimson cord in the window.

22 They departed and went into the hill country and stayed there three days, until the pursuers returned. The pursuers had searched all along the way and found nothing. 23Then the two men came down again from the hill country. They crossed over, came to Joshua son of Nun, and told him all that had happened to them. 24They said to Joshua, “Truly the LORD has given all the land into our hands; moreover, all the inhabitants of the land melt in fear before us.”*

Joshua 3

ISRAEL CROSSES THE JORDAN

1 Early in the morning Joshua rose and set out from Shittim with all the Israelites, and they came to the Jordan. They camped there before crossing over.* 2At the end of three days, the officers went through the camp* 3and commanded the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God being carried by the Levitical priests, then you shall set out from your place. Follow it,* 4so that you may know the way you should go, for you have not passed this way before. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, a distance of about two thousand cubits; do not come any nearer to it." 5Then Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."* 6To the priests Joshua said, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass on in front of the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went in front of the people.

7 The LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that I will be with you as I was with Moses.* 8You are the one who shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, 'When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.' "* 9Joshua then said to the Israelites, "Draw near and hear the words of the LORD your God." 10Joshua said, "By this you shall know that among you is the living God who without fail will drive out from before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites:* 11the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going to pass before you into the Jordan. 12So now select twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe.* 13When the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, come to rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan flowing from above shall be cut off; they shall stand in a single heap."*

14 When the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, the priests bearing the ark of the covenant were in front of the people. 15Now the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest. So when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the edge of the water,* 16the waters flowing from above stood still, rising up in a single heap far off at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan, while those flowing toward the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea,[c] were wholly cut off. Then the people crossed over opposite Jericho.[] [17]While all Israel were crossing over on dry ground, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, until the entire nation finished crossing over the Jordan.[]

Joshua 4

TWELVE STONES SET UP AT GILGAL

1 When the entire nation had finished crossing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua, [2]"Select twelve men from the people, one from each tribe,* [3]and command them, 'Take twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet stood, carry them over with you, and lay them down in the place where you camp tonight.' "* [4]Then Joshua summoned the twelve men whom he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe. [5]Joshua said to them, "Pass on before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, [6]so that this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come, 'What do those stones mean to you?'* [7]then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off in front of the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off.
So these stones shall be to the Israelites a memorial forever."*

8 The Israelites did as Joshua commanded. They took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, as the LORD had told Joshua, carried them over with them to the place where they camped, and laid them down there.* [9](Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood, and they are there to this day.)*

10 The priests who bore the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to tell the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people crossed over in haste. [11]As soon as all the people had finished crossing over, the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over to the front of the people. [12]The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the Israelites, as Moses had ordered them.* [13]About forty thousand armed for war crossed over before the LORD to the plains of Jericho for battle.

14 On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they stood in awe of him, as they had stood in awe of Moses all the days of his life.*

15 The LORD said to Joshua, [16]"Command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant to come up out of the Jordan." [17]Joshua therefore commanded the priests, "Come up out of the Jordan." [18]When the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the middle of the Jordan and the soles of the priests' feet touched dry ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks, as before.*

19 The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.* [20]Those twelve stones that they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal,* [21]saying to the Israelites, "When your children ask their parents in time to come, 'What do these stones mean?'* [22]then you shall let your children know, 'Israel crossed over the Jordan here on dry ground.'* [23]For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea,[d] which he dried up for us until we crossed over,* [24]so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty and so that you may fear the LORD your God forever."*

Joshua 5

THE NEW GENERATION CIRCUMCISED

1 [e]When all the kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan to the west and all the kings of the Canaanites by the sea heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan for the Israelites until they had crossed over, their hearts melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them because of the Israelites.*

2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites a second time."* [3]So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath-haaraloth.[f] [4]This is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the males of the people who came out of Egypt, all the warriors, had died during the journey through the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt.* [5]Although all the people who came out had been circumcised, yet all the people born on the journey through the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt had not been circumcised. [6]For the Israelites traveled forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, the warriors who came out of Egypt, perished, not having listened to the voice of the LORD. To them the LORD swore that he would not let them see the land that he had sworn to their ancestors to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.* [7]So it was their children, whom he raised up in their place, that Joshua circumcised, for they were uncircumcised because they had not been circumcised on the way.

8 When the circumcising of all the nation was done, they remained in their places in the camp until they were healed. [9]The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away from you the disgrace of Egypt." And so that place is called Gilgal[g] to this day.

THE PASSOVER AT GILGAL

10 While the Israelites were camped in Gilgal, they kept the Passover in the evening on the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho.* [11]On the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and roasted grain. [12]The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.*

JOSHUA'S VISION

13 Once when Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing before him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you one of us or one of our adversaries?"* [14]He replied, "Neither, but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and he said to him, "What do you command your servant, my lord?"* [15]The commander of the army of the LORD said to Joshua, "Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy." And Joshua did so.*

Joshua 6

JERICHO TAKEN AND DESTROYED

1 Now Jericho was shut up inside and out because of the Israelites; no one came out, and no one went in. [2]The LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have handed Jericho over to you, along with its king and soldiers.* [3]You shall march around the city, all the warriors circling the city once. Thus you shall do for six days, [4]with seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. On the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, the priests blowing the trumpets.* [5]When they make a long blast with the ram's horn, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people shall shout with a great shout, and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and all the people shall charge straight ahead." [6]So Joshua son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant and have seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark of the LORD." [7]To the people he said, "Go forward and march around the city; have the armed men pass on before the ark of the LORD."*

8 As Joshua had commanded the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD went forward, blowing the trumpets, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD following them. [9]And the armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets; the rear guard came after the ark, while the trumpets blew continually.* [10]To the people Joshua gave this command: "You shall not shout or let your voice be heard, nor shall you utter a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout." [11]So the ark of the LORD went around the city, circling it once, and they came into the camp and spent the night in the camp.

12 Then Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. [13]The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD passed on, blowing the trumpets continually. The armed men went before them, and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets blew continually.* [14]On the second day they marched around the city once and then returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

15 On the seventh day they rose early, at dawn, and marched around the city in the same manner seven times. It was only on that day that they marched around the city seven times. 16And at the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city. 17The city and all that is in it shall be devoted to the LORD for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall live because she hid the messengers we sent.* 18As for you, keep away from the things devoted to destruction, so as not to covet[h] and take any of the devoted things and make the camp of Israel an object for destruction, bringing trouble upon it.* 19But all silver and gold and vessels of bronze and iron are sacred to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD." 20So the people shouted, and the trumpets were blown. As soon as the people heard the sound of the trumpets, they raised a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so the people charged straight ahead into the city and captured it.* 21Then they devoted to destruction by the edge of the sword all in the city, both men and women, young and old, oxen, sheep, and donkeys.*

22 But to the two men who had spied out the land, Joshua said, "Go into the prostitute's house, and bring the woman out of it and all who belong to her, as you swore to her."* 23So the young men who had been spies went in and brought Rahab out, along with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all who belonged to her—they brought all her kindred out—and set them outside the camp of Israel.* 24They burned down the city and everything in it; only the silver and gold and the vessels of bronze and iron they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.* 25But Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, Joshua spared. Her family[i] has lived in Israel ever since. For she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.*

26 Joshua then pronounced this oath, saying,

"Cursed before the LORD be anyone who tries to build this city, Jericho!
At the cost of his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest he shall set up its gates!"*

27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land.*

Joshua 7

THE SIN OF ACHAN AND ITS PUNISHMENT

1 But the Israelites broke faith in regard to the devoted things: Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things, and the anger of the LORD burned against the Israelites.*

2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, "Go up and spy out the land." And the men went up and spied out Ai. 3Then they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Not all the people need go up; about two or three thousand men should go up and attack Ai. Since they are so few, do not make the whole people toil up there." 4So about three thousand of the people went up there, and they fled before the men of Ai.* 5The men of Ai killed about thirty-six of them, chasing them from outside the gate as far as Shebarim and killing them on the slope. The hearts of the people melted and turned to water.

6 Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the ground on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel, and they put dust on their heads.* 7Joshua said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Why have you brought this people across the Jordan at all, to hand us over to the Amorites so as to destroy us? Would that we had been content to settle beyond the Jordan!*
8O Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has turned their backs to their enemies! 9The Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it and surround us and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will you do for your great name?"*

10 The LORD said to Joshua, "Stand up! Why have you fallen on your face?
11Israel has sinned; they have transgressed my covenant that I imposed on them. They have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, they have acted deceitfully, and they have put them among their own belongings.*
12Therefore the Israelites are unable to stand before their enemies; they turn their backs to their enemies because they have become a thing devoted for destruction themselves. I will be with you no more unless you destroy the devoted things from among you. 13Proceed to sanctify the people and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel:
There are devoted things among you, O Israel; you will be unable to stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted things from among you.* 14In the morning, therefore, you shall come forward tribe by tribe. The tribe that the LORD takes shall come near by clans, the clan that the LORD takes shall come near by households, and the household that the LORD takes shall come near one by one. 15And the one who is taken as having the devoted things shall be burned with fire, together with all that he has, for having transgressed the covenant of the LORD and for having done an outrageous thing in Israel.' "*

16 So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel near tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was taken. 17He brought near the clans of Judah, and the clan of the Zerahites was taken, and he brought near the clan of the Zerahites by households,[j] and Zabdi was taken.* 18And he brought near his household one by one, and Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. 19Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD God of Israel and make confession to him. Tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me."* 20And Achan answered Joshua, "It is true; I am the one who sinned against the LORD God of Israel. This is what I did:* 21when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted them and took them. They now lie hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and there it was, hidden in his tent with the silver underneath. 23They took them out of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites, and they spread them out before the LORD. 24Then Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan son of Zerah, with the silver, the mantle, and the bar of gold, with his sons and daughters, with his oxen, donkeys, and sheep, and his tent and all that he had, and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.* 25Joshua said, "Why did you bring trouble on us? The LORD is bringing trouble on you today." And all Israel stoned him to death; they burned them with fire, cast stones on them,* 26and raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from his burning anger. Therefore that place to this day is called the Valley of Achor.[k,*]

Joshua 8

AI CAPTURED BY A STRATAGEM AND DESTROYED

1 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear or be dismayed; take all the fighting men with you, and go up to Ai. See, I have handed over to you the king of Ai with his people, his city, and his land.* [2]You shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king, except that you may take its spoil and plunder its livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush against the city, behind it."*

3 So Joshua and all the fighting men set out to go up against Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand warriors and sent them out by night [4]with the command, "You shall lie in ambush against the city, behind it; do not go very far from the city, but all of you stay alert.* [5]I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. When they come out against us, as before, we will flee from them. [6]They will come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing from us as before.' While we flee from them, [7]you shall rise up from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will give it into your hand. [8]And when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire, doing as the LORD has ordered; see, I have commanded you."* [9]So Joshua sent them out, and they went to the place of ambush and lay between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai, but Joshua spent that night with the people.[1] 10 In the morning Joshua rose early and mustered the people and went up, with the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.* [11]All the fighting men who were with him went up and drew near before the city and camped on the north side of Ai, with a ravine between them and Ai. [12]Taking about five thousand men, he set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city. [13]So they stationed the forces, the main encampment that was north of the city and its rear guard west of the city, and Joshua went that night into the valley. [14]When the king of Ai saw this, he and all his people, the inhabitants of the city, hurried out early in the morning to the meeting place facing the Arabah to meet Israel in battle, but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.* [15]And Joshua and all Israel made a pretense of being beaten before them and fled in the direction of the wilderness. [16]So all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and as they pursued Joshua they were drawn away from the city. [17]There was not a man left in Ai[m] who did not go out after Israel; they left the city open and pursued Israel.

18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Stretch out the sword that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out the sword that was in his hand toward the city.* [19]As soon as he stretched out his hand, the troops in ambush rose quickly out of their place and rushed forward. They entered the city, took it, and at once set the city on fire.* [20]So when the men of Ai looked back, the smoke of the city was rising to the sky. They had no power to flee this way or that, for the people who fled to the wilderness turned back against the pursuers. [21]When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city was rising, then they turned back and struck down the men of Ai. [22]And the other Israelites came out from the city against them, so they were surrounded by Israelites, some on one side and some on the other, and Israel struck them down until no one was left who survived or escaped.* [23]But the king of Ai was taken alive and brought to Joshua.

24 When Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the open wilderness where they pursued them, and when all of them to the very last had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and attacked it with the edge of the sword. [25]The total of those who fell that day, both men and women, was twelve thousand—all the people of Ai.* [26]For Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he stretched out the sword until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.* [27]Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel plundered for themselves, according to the word of the LORD that he had issued to Joshua.* [28]So Joshua burned Ai and made it forever a heap of ruins, as it is to this day.* [29]And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening, and at sunset Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, threw it down at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised over it a great heap of stones, which stands there to this day.*

JOSHUA RENEWS THE COVENANT

30 [n]Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel,* [31]just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, “an altar of unhewn[o] stones, on which no iron tool has been used,” and they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD and sacrificed offerings of well-being.* 32And there, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua[p] wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses that he had written.* 33All Israel, alien as well as native-born, with their elders and officers and their judges, stood on opposite sides of the ark in front of the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded earlier, that they should bless the people of Israel.* 34And afterward he read all the words of the law, blessings and curses, according to all that is written in the book of the law.* 35There was not a word of all that Moses commanded that Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the aliens who resided among them.*

Joshua 9

THE GIBEONITES SAVE THEMSELVES BY TRICKERY

1 Now when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hill country and in the lowland all along the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites—heard of this,* [2]they gathered together with one accord to fight Joshua and Israel.

3 But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,* [4]they on their part acted with cunning: they went and prepared provisions[q] and took worn-out sacks for their donkeys and wineskins, worn out and torn and mended, [5]with worn-out, patched sandals on their feet and worn-out clothes, and all their provisions were dry and moldy. [6]They went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the Israelites, "We have come from a far country, so now make a treaty with us."* [7]But the Israelites said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live among us; then how can we make a treaty with you?"* [8]They said to Joshua, "We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you? And where do you come from?"* [9]They said to him, "Your servants have come from a very far country because of the name of the LORD your God, for we have heard a report of him, of all that he did in Egypt* [10]and of all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan who lived in Ashtaroth.* [11]So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, 'Take provisions in your hand for the journey; go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; come now, make a treaty with us." ' [12]Here is our bread; it was still warm when we took it from our houses as our food for the journey, on the day we set out to come to you, but now, see, it is dry and moldy; [13]these wineskins were new when we filled them, and see, they are burst, and these garments and sandals of ours are worn out from the very long journey." [14]So the leaders[r] partook of their provisions and did not ask direction from the LORD.* [15]And Joshua made peace with them, guaranteeing their lives by a treaty, and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath to them.*

16 But when three days had passed after they had made a treaty with them, they heard that they were their neighbors and were living among them. [17]So the Israelites set out and reached their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.* [18]But the Israelites did not attack them because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then all the congregation murmured against the leaders.* [19]But all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we must not touch them. [20]This is what we will do to them: we will let them live, so that wrath may not come upon us, because of the oath that we swore to them." [21]The leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became woodcutters and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the leaders had decided concerning them.*

22 Joshua summoned them and said to them, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' while in fact you are living among us?*
[23]Now, therefore, you are cursed, and some of you shall always be slaves, woodcutters and drawers of water for the house of my God."* [24]They answered Joshua, "Because it was told to your servants for a certainty that the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you, so we were in great fear for our lives because of you and did this thing.* [25]And now we are in your hand: do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us."* [26]This is what he did for them: he saved them from the Israelites, and they did not kill them. [27]But on that day Joshua made them woodcutters and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to continue to this day, in the place that he should choose.*

Joshua 10

THE SUN STANDS STILL

1 When King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,* 2he[s] became greatly frightened, because Gibeon was a large city, like one of the royal cities, and was larger than Ai, and all its men were warriors. 3So King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem sent a message to King Hoham of Hebron, to King Piram of Jarmuth, to King Japhia of Lachish, and to King Debir of Eglon, saying, 4"Come up and help me, and let us attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the Israelites."* 5Then the five kings of the Amorites—the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon—gathered their forces and went up with all their armies and camped against Gibeon and made war against it.*

6 And the Gibeonites sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, "Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who live in the hill country are gathered against us." 7So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the fighting force with him, all the mighty warriors. 8The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have handed them over to you; not one of them shall stand before you."* 9So Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched up all night from Gilgal.
10And the LORD threw them into a panic before Israel, who inflicted a crushing blow on them at Gibeon, chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.* 11As they fled before Israel, while they were going down the slope of Beth-horon, the LORD threw down huge stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died; there were more who died because of the hailstones than the Israelites killed with the sword.*

12 On the day when the LORD gave the Amorites over to the Israelites, Joshua spoke to the LORD, and he said in the sight of Israel,

"Sun, stand still at Gibeon, and Moon, in the valley of Aijalon."*

[13]And the sun stood still, and the moon stopped until the nation took vengeance on their enemies.
Is this not written in the Book of Jashar? The sun stopped in midheaven and did not hurry to set for about a whole day.* [14]There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD heeded a human voice, for the LORD fought for Israel.*

15 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.*

FIVE KINGS DEFEATED

16 Meanwhile, these five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah.* [17]And it was told Joshua, "The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah." [18]Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them, [19]but do not stay there yourselves; pursue your enemies and attack them from the rear. Do not let them enter their towns, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand." [20]When Joshua and the Israelites had finished inflicting a very great blow on them, until they were wiped out, and when the survivors had entered into the fortified towns,* [21]all the people returned safe to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah; no one dared to speak[t] against any of the Israelites.*

22 Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me from the cave."* [23]They did so and brought the five kings out to him from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. [24]When they brought the kings out to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the Israelites and said to the chiefs of the warriors who had gone with him, "Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings." Then they came near and put their feet on their necks.* [25]And Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and courageous, for thus the LORD will do to all the enemies against whom you fight."* [26]Afterward Joshua struck them down and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees. And they hung on the trees until evening.* [27]At sunset Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves; they set large stones against the mouth of the cave that remain to this very day.*

28 Joshua took Makkedah on that day and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed every person in it; he left no one remaining. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.*

29 Then Joshua passed on from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah and fought against Libnah.* 30The LORD gave it also and its king into the hand of Israel, and he struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it; he left no one remaining in it, and he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

31 Next Joshua passed on from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish and laid siege to it and assaulted it.* 32The LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he took it on the second day and struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it, as he had done to Libnah.

33 Then King Horam of Gezer came up to help Lachish, and Joshua struck him and his people, leaving him no survivors.

34 From Lachish Joshua passed on with all Israel to Eglon, and they laid siege to it and assaulted it, 35and they took it that day and struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it he utterly destroyed that day, as he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Joshua went up with all Israel from Eglon to Hebron; they assaulted it* 37and took it and struck it with the edge of the sword, and its king and its towns and every person in it; he left no one remaining, just as he had done to Eglon, and utterly destroyed it with every person in it.

38 Then Joshua, with all Israel, turned back to Debir and assaulted it,* 39and he took it with its king and all its towns; they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed every person in it; he left no one remaining; just as he had done to Hebron and as he had done to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and its king.

40 So Joshua defeated the whole land, the hill country and the Negeb and the lowland and the slopes and all their kings; he left no one remaining but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded.* 41And Joshua defeated them from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza and all the country of Goshen, as far as Gibeon.* 42Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.* 43Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11

THE UNITED KINGS OF NORTHERN CANAAN DEFEATED

1 When King Jabin of Hazor heard of this, he sent to King Jobab of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,* [2]and to the kings who were in the northern hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in Naphoth-dor on the west,* [3]to the Canaanites in the east and the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah. [4]They came out, with all their troops, a great army, in number like the sand on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.* [5]All these kings joined their forces and came and camped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

6 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will hand over all of them, slain, to Israel; you shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."* [7]So Joshua came suddenly upon them with all his fighting force, by the waters of Merom, and fell upon them. [8]And the LORD handed them over to Israel, who attacked them and chased them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim and eastward as far as the valley of Mizpeh. They struck them down until they had left no one remaining.* [9]And Joshua did to them as the LORD had commanded him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.*

10 Joshua turned back at that time and took Hazor and struck its king down with the sword. Before that time Hazor was the head of all those kingdoms.
[11]And they put to the sword all who were in it, utterly destroying them; there was no one left who breathed, and he burned Hazor with fire.* [12]And all the towns of those kings and all their kings, Joshua took and struck them with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded. [13]But Israel burned none of the towns that stood on mounds except Hazor, which Joshua did burn. [14]All the spoil of these towns and the livestock the Israelites plundered for themselves, but all the people they struck down with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, and they did not leave any who breathed.* [15]As the LORD had commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.*

SUMMARY OF JOSHUA'S CONQUESTS

16 So Joshua took all that land: the hill country and all the Negeb and all the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland,* 17from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He took all their kings, struck them down, and put them to death.* 18Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. 19There was not a town that made peace with the Israelites except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon; all were taken in battle.* 20For it was the LORD's doing to harden their hearts so that they would come against Israel in battle, in order that they might be utterly destroyed and might receive no mercy but be exterminated, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.*

21 At that time Joshua came and wiped out the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their towns.* 22None of the Anakim was left in the land of the Israelites; some remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod. 23So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses, and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal allotments. And the land had rest from war.*

Joshua 12

THE KINGS CONQUERED BY MOSES

1 Now these are the kings of the land whom the Israelites defeated, whose land they occupied beyond the Jordan toward the east, from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon, with all the Arabah eastward:* 2King Sihon of the Amorites who lived at Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and from the middle of the valley as far as the Wadi Jabbok, the boundary of the Ammonites, that is, half of Gilead,* 3and the Arabah to the Sea of Chinneroth eastward, and in the direction of Beth-jeshimoth, to the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea,[u] southward to the foot of the slopes of Pisgah;* 4and King Og[v] of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei* 5and ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah and all Bashan to the boundary of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and over half of Gilead to the boundary of King Sihon of Heshbon.* 6Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites defeated them, and Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land for a possession to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.*

THE KINGS CONQUERED BY JOSHUA

7 The following are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the Israelites defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir (and Joshua gave their land to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their allotments,* 8in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the Negeb, the land of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites):*

Joshua 13

THE PARTS OF CANAAN STILL UNCONQUERED

1 Now Joshua was old and advanced in years, and the LORD said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and very much of the land still remains to be possessed.* [2]This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all those of the Geshurites [3](from the Shihor, which is near Egypt, northward to the boundary of Ekron, it is reckoned as Canaanite; there are five rulers of the Philistines, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron), and those of the Avvim* [4]in the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites, [5]and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the east, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo-hamath, [6]all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, even all the Sidonians. I will myself drive them out from before the Israelites; only allot the land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.* [7]Now, therefore, divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh."

THE TERRITORY EAST OF THE JORDAN

8 With the other half-tribe of Manasseh[x] the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:* [9]from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and the town that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland from[y] Medeba as far as Dibon;* [10]and all the cities of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the boundary of the Ammonites;* [11]and Gilead, and the region of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah; [12]all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the survivors of the Rephaim); these Moses had defeated and driven out.* [13]Yet the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites, but Geshur and Maacath live within Israel to this day.

14 To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance; the offerings by fire[z] to the LORD God of Israel are their inheritance, as he said to them.*

THE TERRITORY OF REUBEN

15 Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the Reubenites according to their families. [16]Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and the town that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland by Medeba;* [17]with Heshbon, and all its towns that are in the tableland; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon, [18]and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, [19]and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar on the hill of the valley, [20]and Beth-peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth, [21]that is, all the towns of the tableland, and all the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated with the leaders of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, as princes of Sihon, who lived in the land.* [22]Along with the rest of those they put to death, the Israelites also put to the sword Balaam son of Beor, who practiced divination.* [23]And the border of the Reubenites was the Jordan and its banks. This was the inheritance of the Reubenites according to their families, with their towns and villages.

THE TERRITORY OF GAD

24 Moses gave an inheritance also to the tribe of the Gadites, according to their families. [25]Their territory was Jazer, and all the towns of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is near Rabbah,* [26]and from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir,[a] [27]and in the valley Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon, the Jordan and its banks, as far as the lower end of the Sea of Chinnereth, eastward beyond the Jordan.* [28]This is the inheritance of the Gadites according to their families, with their towns and villages.

THE TERRITORY OF THE HALF-TRIBE OF MANASSEH (EAST)

29 Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; it was allotted to the half-tribe of the Manassites according to their families. [30]Their territory extended from Mahanaim, through all Bashan, the whole kingdom of King Og of Bashan, and all the settlements of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty towns,* [31]and half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the towns of the kingdom of Og in Bashan; these were allotted to the people of Machir son of Manasseh according to their families, for half the Machirites.

32 These are the inheritances that Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan east of Jericho. [33]But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said to them.*

Joshua 14

THE DISTRIBUTION OF TERRITORY WEST OF THE JORDAN

1 These are the inheritances that the Israelites received in the land of Canaan, which the priest Eleazar, and Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites distributed to them.* 2Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded Moses for the nine and one-half tribes.* 3For Moses had given an inheritance to the two and one-half tribes beyond the Jordan, but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.* 4For the people of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim, and no portion was given to the Levites in the land but only towns to live in, with their pasturelands for their flocks and herds.* 5The Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses; they allotted the land.

HEBRON ALLOTTED TO CALEB

6 Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Kadesh-barnea concerning you and me.* 7I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought him an honest report.* 8But my companions who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, yet I wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God.* 9And Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and your children forever, because you have wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God.'* 10And now, as you see, the LORD has kept me alive, as he said, these forty-five years since the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel was journeying through the wilderness, and here I am today, eighty-five years old.* 11I am still as strong today as I was on the day that Moses sent me; my strength now is as my strength was then, for war and for going and coming. 12So now give me this hill country of which the LORD spoke on that day, for you heard on that day how the Anakim were there, with great fortified cities; it may be that the LORD will be with me, and I will drive them out, as the LORD said."*

13 Then Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.[] [14]So Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholeheartedly followed the LORD, the God of Israel. [15]Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba; Arba was[b] the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.[]

Joshua 15

THE TERRITORY OF JUDAH

1 The lot for the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families reached southward to the boundary of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin at the farthest south.* 2And their south boundary ran from the end of the Dead Sea,[c] from the bay that faces southward; 3it goes out southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, passes along to Zin, and goes up south of Kadesh-barnea, along by Hezron, up to Addar, makes a turn to Karka,* 4passes along to Azmon, goes out by the Wadi of Egypt, and comes to its end at the sea. This shall be your south boundary.* 5And the east boundary is the Dead Sea,[d] to the mouth of the Jordan. And the boundary on the north side runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan; 6and the boundary goes up to Beth-hoglah and passes along north of Beth-arabah; and the boundary goes up to the Stone of Bohan, Reuben's son;* 7and the boundary goes up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, turning toward Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley; and the boundary passes along to the waters of En-shemesh, and ends at En-rogel;* 8then the boundary goes up by the valley of the son of Hinnom at the southern slope of the Jebusites (that is, Jerusalem); and the boundary goes up to the top of the mountain that lies over against the valley of Hinnom, on the west, at the northern end of the valley of Rephaim;* 9then the boundary extends from the top of the mountain to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, and from there to the towns of Mount Ephron; then the boundary bends around to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim);* 10and the boundary circles west of Baalah to Mount Seir, passes along to the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), and goes down to Beth-shemesh, and passes along by Timnah;* 11the boundary goes out to the slope of the hill north of Ekron, then the boundary bends around to Shikkeron, and passes along to Mount Baalah, and goes out to Jabneel; then the boundary comes to an end at the sea. 12And the west boundary is the Mediterranean with its coast. This is the boundary surrounding the people of Judah according to their families.*

CALEB OCCUPIES HIS PORTION

13 But to Caleb son of Jephunneh, Joshua[e] gave a portion among the people of Judah according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).* [14]And Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak.* [15]From there he went up against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher.* [16]And Caleb said, "Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife."* [17]Othniel son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it, and he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife. [18]When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"* [19]She said to him, "Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me springs of water as well." So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

THE TOWNS OF JUDAH

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families. [21]The towns belonging to the tribe of the people of Judah in the extreme south, toward the boundary of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, [22]Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, [23]Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, [24]Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, [25]Hazor-hadattah, Kerioth-hezron (that is, Hazor), [26]Amam, Shema, Moladah, [27]Hazar-gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-pelet, [28]Hazar-shual, Beer-sheba, Biziothiah,* [29]Baalah, Iim, Ezem, [30]Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah, [31]Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,* [32]Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon: in all, twenty-nine towns, with their villages.

33 And in the lowland, Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,* [34]Zanoah, En-gannim, Tappuah, Enam, [35]Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,* [36]Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, Gederothaim: fourteen towns with their villages.

37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-gad, [38]Dilan, Mizpeh, Jokthe-el,* [39]Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,* [40]Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish, [41]Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen towns with their villages.

42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan, [43]Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, [44]Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine towns with their villages.

45 Ekron, with its towns and its villages; [46]from Ekron to the sea, all that were near Ashdod, with their villages.

47 Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; to the Wadi of Egypt, and the Great Sea with its coast.*

48 And in the hill country, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, [49]Dannah, Kiriath-sannah (that is, Debir), [50]Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, [51]Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven towns with their villages.*

52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan, [53]Janim, Beth-tappuah, Aphekah, [54]Humtah, Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior: nine towns with their villages.

55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, [56]Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, [57]Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten towns with their villages.

58 Halhul, Beth-zur, Gedor, [59]Maarath, Beth-anoth, and Eltekon: six towns with their villages.

60 Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim) and Rabbah: two towns with their villages.*

61 In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, Secacah, [62]Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En-gedi: six towns with their villages.

63 But the people of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so the Jebusites live with the people of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.*

Joshua 16

THE TERRITORY OF EPHRAIM

1 The allotment of the Josephites went from the Jordan by Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, into the wilderness, going up from Jericho into the hill country to Bethel;* [2]then going from Bethel to Luz, it passes along to Ataroth, the territory of the Archites;* [3]then it goes down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, as far as the territory of Lower Beth-horon, then to Gezer, and it ends at the sea.*

4 The Josephites—Manasseh and Ephraim—received their inheritance.

5 The territory of the Ephraimites by their families was as follows: the boundary of their inheritance on the east was Ataroth-addar as far as Upper Beth-horon,* [6]and the boundary goes from there to the sea; on the north is Michmethath; then on the east the boundary makes a turn toward Taanath-shiloh and passes along beyond it on the east to Janoah,* [7]then it goes down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah and touches Jericho, ending at the Jordan.* [8]From Tappuah the boundary goes westward to the Wadi Kanah and ends at the sea. Such is the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites by their families,* [9]together with the towns that were set apart for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites, all those towns with their villages.
[10]They did not, however, drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so the Canaanites have lived within Ephraim to this day but have been made to do forced labor.*

Joshua 17

THE OTHER HALF-TRIBE OF MANASSEH (WEST)

1 Then allotment was made to the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a warrior.* [2]And allotments were made to the rest of the tribe of Manasseh by their families, Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their families.*

3 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh had no sons but only daughters, and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.* [4]They came before the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun and the leaders and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance along with our male kin." So according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the kinsmen of their father.* [5]Thus there fell to Manasseh ten portions, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan, [6]because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead was allotted to the rest of the Manassites.*

7 The territory of Manasseh reached from Asher to Michmethath, which is east of Shechem; then the boundary goes along southward to the inhabitants of En-tappuah.* [8]The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah on the boundary of Manasseh belonged to the Ephraimites.* [9]Then the boundary went down to the Wadi Kanah. The towns here, to the south of the wadi, among the towns of Manasseh, belong to Ephraim. Then the boundary of Manasseh goes along the north side of the wadi and ends at the sea.* [10]The land to the south is Ephraim's and that to the north is Manasseh's, with the sea forming its boundary; on the north Asher is reached and on the east Issachar. [11]Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of En-dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages (the third is Naphath).[f,] [12]Yet the Manassites could not take possession of those towns, but the Canaanites continued to live in that land. [13]But when the Israelites grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor but did not utterly drive them out.*

THE TRIBE OF JOSEPH PROTESTS

14 The tribe of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given me but one lot and one portion as an inheritance, since we are a numerous people, whom all along the LORD has blessed?"* 15And Joshua said to them, "If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest and clear ground there for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you." 16The tribe of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, yet all the Canaanites who live in the plain have chariots of iron, both those in Beth-shean and its villages and those in the Valley of Jezreel."* 17Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, "You are indeed a numerous people and have great power; you shall not have one lot only, 18but the hill country shall be yours, for though it is a forest, you shall clear it and possess it to its farthest borders, for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron and though they are strong."

Joshua 18

THE TERRITORIES OF THE REMAINING TRIBES

1 Then the whole congregation of the Israelites assembled at Shiloh and set up the tent of meeting there. The land lay subdued before them.*

2 There remained among the Israelites seven tribes whose inheritance had not yet been apportioned. 3So Joshua said to the Israelites, "How long will you be slack about going in and taking possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you?* 4Provide three men from each tribe, and I will send them out that they may begin to go throughout the land, writing a description of it with a view to their inheritances. Then come back to me. 5They shall divide it into seven portions, Judah continuing in its territory on the south and the house of Joseph in their territory on the north.*
6You shall write a description of the land in seven divisions and bring the description here to me, and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. 7The Levites have no portion among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their heritage, and Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."*

8 So the men started on their way, and Joshua charged those who went to write the description of the land, saying, "Go throughout the land and write a description of it and come back to me, and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh."* 9So the men went and traversed the land and set down in a book a description of it by towns in seven divisions; then they came back to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh, 10and Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua apportioned the land to the Israelites, to each a portion.*

THE TERRITORY OF BENJAMIN

11 The lot of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families came up, and the territory allotted to it fell between the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Joseph. 12On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan; then the boundary goes up to the slope of Jericho on the north, then up through the hill country westward; and it ends at the wilderness of Beth-aven. 13From there the boundary passes along southward in the direction of Luz, to the slope of Luz (that is, Bethel), then the boundary goes down to Ataroth-addar, on the mountain that lies south of Lower Beth-horon.* 14Then the boundary goes in another direction, turning on the western side southward from the mountain that lies to the south, opposite Beth-horon, and it ends at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a town belonging to the tribe of Judah. This forms the western side.* 15The southern side begins at the outskirts of Kiriath-jearim on the west,[g] and the boundary comes out at the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah;* 16then the boundary goes down to the border of the mountain that overlooks the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is at the north end of the valley of Rephaim; and it then goes down the valley of Hinnom, south of the slope of the Jebusites, and downward to En-rogel;* 17then it bends in a northerly direction going on to En-shemesh, and from there goes to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim; then it goes down to the Stone of Bohan, Reuben's son; 18and passing on to the north of the slope of Beth-arabah[h] it goes down to the Arabah; 19then the boundary passes on to the north of the slope of Beth-hoglah; and the boundary ends at the northern bay of the Dead Sea,[i] at the south end of the Jordan: this is the southern border.

20The Jordan forms its boundary on the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, according to its families, boundary by boundary all around.*

21 Now the towns of the tribe of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz, 22Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, 23Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, 24Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, and Geba—twelve towns with their villages; 25Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, 26Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, 27Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, 28Zela, Haeleph, Jebus[j] (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah,[k] and Kiriath-jearim[l]—fourteen towns with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families.*

Joshua 19

THE TERRITORY OF SIMEON

1 The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of Simeon, according to its families; its inheritance lay within the inheritance of the tribe of Judah.* [2]It had for its inheritance Beer-sheba, Sheba, Moladah, [3]Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem, [4]Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, [5]Ziklag, Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susah,* [6]Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen—thirteen towns with their villages; [7]Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan—four towns with their villages; [8]together with all the villages all around these towns as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the Negeb. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon according to its families. [9]The inheritance of the tribe of Simeon formed part of the territory of Judah; because the portion of the tribe of Judah was too large for them, the tribe of Simeon obtained an inheritance within their inheritance.*

THE TERRITORY OF ZEBULUN

10 The third lot came up for the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families.
The boundary of its inheritance reached as far as Sarid; [11]then its boundary goes up westward, and on to Maralah, and touches Dabbesheth, then the wadi that is near Jokneam;* [12]from Sarid it goes in the other direction eastward toward the sunrise to the boundary of Chisloth-tabor; from there it goes to Daberath, then up to Japhia; [13]from there it passes along on the east toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin, and going on to Rimmon it bends toward Neah; [14]then on the north the boundary makes a turn to Hannathon, and it ends at the valley of Iphtah-el; [15]and Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem—twelve towns with their villages.* [16]This is the inheritance of the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families, these towns with their villages.

THE TERRITORY OF ISSACHAR

17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, for the tribe of Issachar, according to its families.* [18]Its territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem, [19]Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, [20]Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, [21]Remeth, En-gannim, En-haddah, Beth-pazzez; [22]the boundary also touches Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh, and its boundary ends at the Jordan—sixteen towns with their villages. [23]This is the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, according to its families, the towns with their villages.

THE TERRITORY OF ASHER

24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher according to its families. [25]Its boundary included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph, [26]Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal; on the west it touches Carmel and Shihor-libnath, [27]then it turns eastward, goes to Beth-dagon, and touches Zebulun and the valley of Iphtah-el northward to Beth-emek and Neiel; then it continues in the north to Cabul, [28]Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, as far as Great Sidon;* [29]then the boundary turns to Ramah, reaching to the fortified city of Tyre; then the boundary turns to Hosah, and it ends at the sea; Mahaleb,[m] Achzib, [30]Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob—twenty-two towns with their villages.* [31]This is the inheritance of the tribe of Asher according to its families, these towns with their villages.

THE TERRITORY OF NAPHTALI

32 The sixth lot came out for the tribe of Naphtali, for the tribe of Naphtali according to its families. [33]And its boundary ran from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and Adami-nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; and it ended at the Jordan; [34]then the boundary turns westward to Aznoth-tabor and goes from there to Hukkok, touching Zebulun at the south, and Asher on the west, and Judah on the east at the Jordan.* [35]The fortified towns are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, [36]Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, [37]Kedesh, Edrei, En-hazor, [38]Iron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh—nineteen towns with their villages. [39]This is the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali according to its families, the towns with their villages.

THE TERRITORY OF DAN

40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan according to its families. [41]The territory of its inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir-shemesh, [42]Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,* [43]Elon, Timnah, Ekron, [44]Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, [45]Jehud, Bene-berak, Gath-rimmon, [46]Me-jarkon, and Rakkon at the border opposite Joppa. [47]When the territory of the Danites was lost to them, the Danites went up and fought against Leshem, and after capturing it and putting it to the sword, they took possession of it and settled in it, calling Leshem Dan, after their ancestor Dan.* [48]This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, according to their families, these towns with their villages.

JOSHUA'S INHERITANCE

49 When they had finished distributing the several territories of the land as inheritances, the Israelites gave an inheritance among them to Joshua son of Nun. [50]By command of the LORD they gave him the town that he asked for, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim; he rebuilt the town and settled in it.*

51 These are the inheritances that the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites distributed by lot at Shiloh before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.*

Joshua 20

THE CITIES OF REFUGE

1 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, [2]"Say to the Israelites: Appoint the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,* [3]so that anyone who kills a person without intent or by mistake may flee there; they shall be for you a refuge from the avenger of blood. [4]The slayer shall flee to one of these cities and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and explain the case to the elders of that city; then the fugitive shall be taken into the city and given a place and shall remain with them.* [5]And if the avenger of blood is in pursuit, they shall not give up the slayer because the neighbor was killed by mistake, there having been no enmity between them before.* [6]The slayer shall remain in that city until there is a trial before the congregation, until the death of the one who is high priest at the time; then the slayer may return home, to the town in which the deed was done."*

7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.* [8]And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they appointed Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland, from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.* [9]These were the cities designated for all the Israelites and for the aliens residing among them, that anyone who killed a person without intent could flee there, so as not to die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until there was a trial before the congregation.*

CITIES ALLOTTED TO THE LEVITES

1 Then the heads of the families of the Levites came to the priest Eleazar and to Joshua son of Nun and to the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites;* [2]they said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, "The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given towns to live in, along with their pasturelands for our livestock."* [3]So by command of the LORD the Israelites gave to the Levites the following towns and pasturelands out of their inheritance.

4 The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. So those Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received by lot thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.*

5 The rest of the Kohathites received by lot ten towns from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.*

6 The Gershonites received by lot thirteen towns from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.*

7 The Merarites according to their families received twelve towns from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zebulun.*

8 These towns and their pasturelands the Israelites gave by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.*

9 Out of the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Simeon they gave the following towns mentioned by name, [10]which went to the descendants of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites who belonged to the Levites, since the lot fell to them first. [11]They gave them Kiriath-arba (Arba being the father of Anak), that is, Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, along with the pasturelands around it.* [12]But the fields of the town and its villages had been given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his holding.

13 To the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasturelands, Libnah with its pasturelands,* [14]Jattir with its pasturelands, Eshtemoa with its pasturelands, [15]Holon with its pasturelands, Debir with its pasturelands,* 16Ain with its pasturelands, Juttah with its pasturelands, and Beth-shemesh with its pasturelands—nine towns out of these two tribes.* 17Out of the tribe of Benjamin: Gibeon with its pasturelands, Geba with its pasturelands, 18Anathoth with its pasturelands, and Almon with its pasturelands—four towns.* 19The towns of the descendants of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen in all, with their pasturelands.

20 As to the rest of the Kohathites belonging to the Kohathite families of the Levites, the towns allotted to them were out of the tribe of Ephraim. 21To them were given Shechem, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasturelands,* 22Kibzaim with its pasturelands, and Beth-horon with its pasturelands—four towns. 23Out of the tribe of Dan: Elteke with its pasturelands, Gibbethon with its pasturelands, 24Aijalon with its pasturelands, Gath-rimmon with its pasturelands—four towns. 25Out of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Taanach with its pasturelands, and Gath-rimmon with its pasturelands—two towns. 26The towns of the families of the rest of the Kohathites were ten in all, with their pasturelands.

27 To the Gershonites, one of the families of the Levites, were given out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its pasturelands, the city of refuge for the slayer, and Beeshterah with its pasturelands—two towns.* 28Out of the tribe of Issachar: Kishion with its pasturelands, Daberath with its pasturelands, 29Jarmuth with its pasturelands, En-gannim with its pasturelands—four towns. 30Out of the tribe of Asher: Mishal with its pasturelands, Abdon with its pasturelands, 31Helkath with its pasturelands, and Rehob with its pasturelands—four towns. 32Out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasturelands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Hammoth-dor with its pasturelands, and Kartan with its pasturelands—three towns.* 33The towns of the several families of the Gershonites were in all thirteen, with their pasturelands.

34 To the rest of the Levites—the Merarite families—were given out of the tribe of Zebulun: Jokneam with its pasturelands, Kartah with its pasturelands,* 35Dimnah with its pasturelands, Nahalal with its pasturelands —four towns. 36Out of the tribe of Reuben: Bezer with its pasturelands, Jahzah with its pasturelands,* 37Kedemoth with its pasturelands, and Mephaath with its pasturelands—four towns. 38Out of the tribe of Gad:

Ramoth in Gilead with its pasturelands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Mahanaim with its pasturelands, [39]Heshbon with its pasturelands, Jazer with its pasturelands—four towns in all. [40]As for the towns of the several Merarite families, that is, the remainder of the families of the Levites, those allotted to them were twelve in all.

41 The towns of the Levites within the holdings of the Israelites were in all forty-eight towns with their pasturelands.* [42]Each of these towns had its pasturelands around it; so it was with all these towns.

43 Thus the LORD gave to Israel all the land that he swore to their ancestors that he would give them, and having taken possession of it, they settled there.* [44]And the LORD gave them rest on every side, just as he had sworn to their ancestors; not one of all their enemies had withstood them, for the LORD had given all their enemies into their hands.* [45]Not one of all the good promises that the LORD had made to the house of Israel had failed; all came to pass.*

Joshua 22

THE EASTERN TRIBES RETURN TO THEIR TERRITORY

1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh [2]and said to them, "You have observed all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you and have obeyed me in all that I have commanded you;* [3]you have not forsaken your kindred these many days, down to this day, but have been careful to keep the charge of the LORD your God. [4]And now the LORD your God has given rest to your kindred, as he promised them; therefore turn and go to your tents in the land where your possession lies, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.* [5]Take good care to observe the commandment and instruction that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments, and to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul."* [6]So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half Joshua had given a possession beside their fellow Israelites in the land west of the Jordan. And when Joshua sent them away to their tents and blessed them,* [8]he said to them, "Go back to your tents with much wealth and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and with a great quantity of clothing; divide the spoil of your enemies with your kindred." [9]So the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, parting from the Israelites at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, their own land of which they had taken possession by command of the LORD through Moses.*

A MEMORIAL ALTAR EAST OF THE JORDAN

10 When they came to the region[n] near the Jordan that lies in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar of great size. [11]The Israelites heard that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had built an altar opposite the land of Canaan, in the region[o] near the Jordan, across from the Israelites.* 12And when the people of Israel heard of it, the whole assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh to make war against them.*

13 Then the Israelites sent the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead,* 14and with him ten chiefs, one from each of the tribal families of Israel, every one of them the head of a family among the clans of Israel. 15They came to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they said to them, 16"Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: What is this treachery that you have committed against the God of Israel in turning away today from following the LORD, by building yourselves an altar today in rebellion against the LORD?* 17Have we not had enough of the sin at Peor, from which even yet we have not cleansed ourselves and for which a plague came upon the congregation of the LORD,* 18that you must turn away today from following the LORD? If you rebel against the LORD today, he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow. 19But now, if your land is unclean, cross over into the LORD's land, where the LORD's tabernacle now stands, and take for yourselves a possession among us; only do not rebel against the LORD or rebel against us[p] by building yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God.* 20Did not Achan son of Zerah break faith in the matter of the devoted things, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish alone for his iniquity!"*

21 Then the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh said in answer to the heads of the families of Israel, 22"The LORD, God of gods! The LORD, God of gods! He knows, and let Israel itself know! If it was in rebellion or in breach of faith toward the LORD, do not spare us today* 23for building an altar to turn away from following the LORD, or if we did so to offer burnt offerings or grain offerings or offerings of well-being on it, may the LORD himself take vengeance.* 24No! We did it from fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, 'What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? 25For the LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, you Reubenites and Gadites; you have no portion in the LORD.' So your children might make our children cease to worship the LORD. 26Therefore we said, 'Let us now build an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, 27but to be a witness between us and you and between the generations after us, that we do perform the service of the LORD in his presence with our burnt offerings and sacrifices and offerings of well-being, so that your children may never say to our children in time to come, "You have no portion in the LORD." '* 28And we thought, 'If this should be said to us or to our descendants in time to come, we could say, "Look at this copy of the altar of the LORD that our ancestors made, not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifice, but to be a witness between us and you." 29Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away this day from following the LORD by building an altar for burnt offering, grain offering, or sacrifice other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle!' "*

30 When the priest Phinehas and the chiefs of the congregation, the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites spoke, they were satisfied. 31The priest Phinehas son of Eleazar said to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites, "Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD; now you have saved the Israelites from the hand of the LORD."*

32 Then the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar and the chiefs returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites in the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the Israelites, and brought back word to them. 33The report pleased the Israelites, and the Israelites blessed God and spoke no more of making war against them, to destroy the land where the Reubenites and the Gadites were settled.* 34The Reubenites and the Gadites called the altar Witness,q "for," they said, "it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."*

Joshua 23

JOSHUA EXHORTS THE PEOPLE

1 A long time afterward, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies all around and Joshua was old and well advanced in years,* 2Joshua summoned all Israel, their elders and heads, their judges and officers, and said to them, "I am now old and well advanced in years,* 3and you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake, for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you.* 4I have allotted to you as an inheritance for your tribes those nations that remain, along with all the nations that I have already cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west. 5The LORD your God will push them back before you and drive them out of your sight, and you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.* 6Therefore be very steadfast to observe and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, turning aside from it neither to the right nor to the left,* 7so that you may not be mixed with these nations left here among you, or make mention of the names of their gods, or swear by them, or serve them, or bow yourselves down to them,* 8but hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.* 9For the LORD has driven out before you great and strong nations, and as for you, no one has been able to withstand you to this day.* 10One of you puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD your God who fights for you, as he promised you.* 11Be very careful, therefore, to love the LORD your God. 12For if you turn back and join the survivors of these nations left here among you and intermarry with them, so that you marry their women and they yours,* 13know assuredly that the LORD your God will not continue to drive out these nations before you, but they shall be a snare and a trap for you, a scourge on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land that the LORD your God has given you.*

14 "And now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and you know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not one thing has failed of all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you; all have come to pass for you; not one of them has failed.* 15But just as all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you have been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the bad things until he has destroyed you from this good land that the LORD your God has given you.* 16If you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which he enjoined on you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land that he has given to you."

Joshua 24

THE TRIBES RENEW THE COVENANT

1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel, and they presented themselves before God.* 2And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Long ago your ancestors—Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor—lived beyond the Euphrates and served other gods.*
3Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan and made his offspring many. I gave him Isaac,* 4and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau the hill country of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.* 5Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt with what I did in its midst, and afterward I brought you out.* 6When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued your ancestors with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.r,* 7When they cried out to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians and made the sea come upon them and cover them, and your eyes saw what I did to Egypt. Afterward you lived in the wilderness a long time. 8Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the other side of the Jordan; they fought with you, and I handed them over to you, and you took possession of their land, and I destroyed them before you.* 9Then King Balak son of Zippor of Moab set out to fight against Israel. He sent and invited Balaam son of Beor to curse you,* 10but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you, so I rescued you out of his hand. 11When you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho, the citizens of Jericho fought against you, as well as the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I handed them over to you.* 12I sent swarms of hornetss ahead of you that drove out before you the two kings of the Amorites; it was not by your sword or by your bow.* 13I gave you a land on which you had not labored and towns that you had not built, and you live in them; you eat the fruit of vineyards and oliveyards that you did not plant.*

14 "Now, therefore, revere the LORD and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt and serve the LORD.* 15Now if you are unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living, but as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."*

16 Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods, 17for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went and among all the peoples through whom we passed, 18and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

19 But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins.* 20If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm and consume you, after having done you good."* 21And the people said to Joshua, "No, we will serve the LORD!" 22Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses." 23He said, "Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel."* 24The people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and him we will obey."* 25So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem.* 26Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak in the sanctuary of the LORD. 27Joshua said to all the people, "See, this stone shall be a witness against us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD that he spoke to us; therefore it shall be a witness against you if you deal falsely with your God."* 28So Joshua sent the people away to their inheritances.

DEATH OF JOSHUA AND ELEAZAR

29 After these things Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred ten years old.* 30They buried him in his own inheritance at Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.*

31 Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the work that the LORD did for Israel.*

32 The bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem, in the portion of ground that Jacob had bought from the children of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred pieces of money;t it became an inheritance of the descendants of Joseph.*

33 Eleazar son of Aaron died, and they buried him at Gibeah, the town of his son Phinehas, which had been given him in the hill country of Ephraim.*

Judges

Judges 1

ISRAEL'S FAILURE TO COMPLETE THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN

1 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites inquired of the LORD, "Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?"* [2]The LORD said, "Judah shall go up. I hereby give the land into his hand." [3]Judah said to his brother Simeon, "Come up with me into the territory allotted to me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; then I, too, will go with you into the territory allotted to you." So Simeon went with him.* [4]Then Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand, and they defeated ten thousand of them at Bezek.* [5]They came upon Adoni-bezek at Bezek and fought against him and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites. [6]Adoni-bezek fled, but they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes. [7]Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to pick up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has paid me back." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8 Then the people of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it. They put it to the sword and set the city on fire.* [9]Afterward the people of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, in the Negeb, and in the lowland. [10]Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (the name of Hebron was formerly Kiriath-arba), and they defeated Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai.*

11 From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir (the name of Debir was formerly Kiriath-sepher). [12]Then Caleb said, "Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and takes it, I will give him my daughter Achsah as wife." [13]And Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it, and he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.* [14]When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What do you wish?"* [15]She said to him, "Give me a blessing; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me also Gulloth-mayim."[a] So Caleb gave her Upper Gulloth and Lower Gulloth.

16 The descendants of Hobab[b] the Kenite, Moses's father-in-law, went up with the people of Judah from the city of palms into the wilderness of Judah, which lies in the Negeb near Arad. Then they went and settled with the Amalekites.[c,] 17Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they defeated the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath and devoted it to destruction. So the city was called Hormah.[] 18Judah took Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory. 19The LORD was with Judah, and he took possession of the hill country but could not drive out the inhabitants of the plain, because they had chariots of iron.[] 20Hebron was given to Caleb, as Moses had said, and he drove out from it the three sons of Anak.[] 21But the Benjaminites did not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived in Jerusalem among the Benjaminites to this day.[*]

22 The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. 23The house of Joseph sent out spies to Bethel (the name of the city was formerly Luz).[] 24When the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, "Show us the way into the city, and we will deal kindly with you." 25So he showed them the way into the city, and they put the city to the sword, but they let the man and all his family go.[] 26So the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city and named it Luz; that is its name to this day.

27 Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of[d] Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages, but the Canaanites continued to live in that land.[*] 28When Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor but did not in fact drive them out.

29 And Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, but the Canaanites lived among them in Gezer.[*]

30 Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites lived among them and became subject to forced labor.

31 Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Mahalab,[e] or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob,* [32]but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land, for they did not drive them out.

33 Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth-anath but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; nevertheless, the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became subject to forced labor for them.

34 The Amorites pressed the Danites back into the hill country; they did not allow them to come down to the plain.* [35]The Amorites continued to live in Har-heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, but the hand of the house of Joseph rested heavily on them, and they became subject to forced labor. [36]The border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward.*

Judges 2

ISRAEL'S DISOBEDIENCE

1 Now the angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim and said, "I brought you up from Egypt and brought you into the land that I had promised to your ancestors. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you.* [2]For your part, do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land; tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed my command. See what you have done!* [3]So now I say, I will not drive them out before you, but they shall become adversaries[f] to you, and their gods shall be a snare to you."* [4]When the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the Israelites, the people lifted up their voices and wept. [5]So they named that place Bochim,[g] and there they sacrificed to the LORD.

DEATH OF JOSHUA

6 When Joshua dismissed the people, the Israelites all went to their own inheritances to take possession of the land.* [7]The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work that the LORD had done for Israel. [8]Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred ten years. [9]So they buried him within the bounds of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. [10]Moreover, that whole generation was gathered to their ancestors, and another generation grew up after them who did not know the LORD or the work that he had done for Israel.*

ISRAEL'S UNFAITHFULNESS

11 Then the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and served the Baals,* [12]and they abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; they followed other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were all around them and bowed down to them, and they provoked the LORD to anger.* [13]They abandoned the LORD and served Baal and the Astartes.* 14So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them over to plunderers who plundered them, and he sold them into the power of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies.* 15Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them to bring misfortune, as the LORD had warned them and sworn to them, and they were in great distress.

16 Then the LORD raised up judges who delivered them out of the power of those who plundered them.* 17Yet they did not listen even to their judges, for they lusted after other gods and bowed down to them. They soon turned aside from the way in which their ancestors had walked, who had obeyed the commandments of the LORD; they did not follow their example.* 18Whenever the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge, and he delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge, for the LORD would be moved to pity by their groaning because of those who persecuted and oppressed them. 19But whenever the judge died, they would relapse and behave worse than their ancestors, following other gods, serving them and bowing down to them. They would not drop any of their practices or their stubborn ways.* 20So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he said, "Because this nation has transgressed my covenant that I commanded their ancestors and have not obeyed my voice,* 21I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died."* 22In order to test Israel, whether or not they would take care to walk in the way of the LORD as their ancestors did,* 23the LORD had left those nations, not driving them out at once, and had not handed them over to Joshua.

NATIONS REMAINING IN THE LAND

1 Now these are the nations that the LORD left to test all those in Israel who had no experience of war in Canaan* [2](it was only for successive generations of Israelites, to teach war to those who had no experience of it): [3]the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon as far as Lebo-hamath.* [4]They were for the testing of Israel, to know whether Israel would obey the commandments of the LORD that he commanded their ancestors by Moses.* [5]So the Israelites lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, [6]and they took their daughters as wives for themselves, and their own daughters they gave to their sons, and they served their gods.*

OTHNIEL

7 The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, forgetting the LORD their God and serving the Baals and the Asherahs.* [8]Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram-naharaim, and the Israelites served Cushan-rishathaim eight years. [9]But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the Israelites who delivered them, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.* [10]The spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel; he went out to war, and the LORD gave King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram into his hand, and his hand prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim.* [11]So the land had rest forty years. Then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

EHUD

12 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD strengthened King Eglon of Moab against Israel, because they had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD.* [13]In alliance with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, he went and defeated Israel, and they took possession of the city of palms.* 14So the Israelites served King Eglon of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud son of Gera, a Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The Israelites sent tribute by him to King Eglon of Moab.* 16Ehud made for himself a sword with two edges, a cubit in length, and he fastened it on his right thigh under his clothes. 17Then he presented the tribute to King Eglon of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.* 18When Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent the people who carried the tribute on their way. 19But he himself turned back at the sculptured stones near Gilgal and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." So the king said,[h] "Silence!" and all his attendants went out from his presence. 20Ehud came to him, while he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber, and said, "I have a message from God for you." So he rose from his seat. 21Then Ehud reached with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into Eglon's[i] belly; 22the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly, and the dirt[j] came out. 23Then Ehud went out into the vestibule[k] and closed the doors of the roof chamber on him and locked them.

24 After he had gone, the servants came. When they saw that the doors of the roof chamber were locked, they thought, "He must be relieving himself[l] in the cool chamber."* 25So they waited until they were embarrassed. When he still did not open the doors of the roof chamber, they took the key and opened them. There was their lord lying dead on the floor.*

26 Ehud escaped while they delayed and passed beyond the sculptured stones and escaped to Seirah. 27When he arrived, he sounded the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went down with him from the hill country, having him at their head. 28He said to them, "Follow after me, for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hand." So they went down after him and seized the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites and allowed no one to cross over.* 29At that time they killed about ten thousand of the Moabites, all strong, able-bodied men; no one escaped. 30So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.*

SHAMGAR

31 After him came Shamgar son of Anath, who killed six hundred of the Philistines with an oxgoad. He, too, delivered Israel.*

Judges 4

DEBORAH AND BARAK

1 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died.* 2So the LORD sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-goiim.* 3Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help, for he had nine hundred chariots of iron and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years.*

4 At that time Deborah, a prophet, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel.
5She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites came up to her for judgment.
6She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Position yourself at Mount Tabor, taking ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun.* 7I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops, and I will give him into your hand.' "* 8Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, I will go, but if you will not go with me, I will not go." 9And she said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the road on which you are going will not lead to your glory, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Then Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh.* 10Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and ten thousand warriors went up behind him, and Deborah went up with him.*

11 Now Heber the Kenite had separated from the other Kenites,[m] that is, the descendants of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had encamped as far away as Elon-bezaanannim, which is near Kedesh.*

12 When Sisera was told that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor, 13Sisera called out all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the troops who were with him, from Harosheth-ha-goiim to the Wadi Kishon.* 14Then Deborah said to Barak, "Up! For this is the day on which the LORD has given Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand warriors following him.* 15And the LORD threw Sisera and all his chariots and all his army into a panic[n] before Barak; Sisera got down from his chariot and fled away on foot,* 16while Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth-ha-goiim. All the army of Sisera fell by the sword; not one was left.*

17 Now Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of Jael wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between King Jabin of Hazor and the clan of Heber the Kenite. 18Jael came out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; have no fear." So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug. 19Then he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a skin of milk and gave him a drink and covered him.* 20He said to her, "Stand at the entrance of the tent, and if anybody comes and asks you, 'Is anyone here?' say, 'No.' " 21But Jael wife of Heber took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, until it went down into the ground—he was lying fast asleep from weariness—and he died.* 22Then, as Barak came in pursuit of Sisera, Jael went out to meet him and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking." So he went into her tent, and there was Sisera lying dead, with the tent peg in his temple.

23 So on that day God subdued King Jabin of Canaan before the Israelites. 24Then the hand of the Israelites bore harder and harder on King Jabin of Canaan, until they destroyed King Jabin of Canaan.

Judges 5

THE SONG OF DEBORAH

1 Then Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang on that day,*

2 "When locks are long in Israel, when the people offer themselves willingly[o]— bless the LORD!*

3 Hear, O kings; give ear, O princes; to the LORD I will sing; I will make melody to the LORD, the God of Israel.*

4 LORD, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the region of Edom, the earth trembled,
and the heavens poured;
the clouds indeed poured water.*
5 The mountains quaked before the LORD, the One of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.*

6 In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, caravans ceased, and travelers kept to the byways.*
7 The peasantry prospered in Israel; they grew fat on plunder, because[p] you arose, Deborah, arose as a mother in Israel.
8 When new gods were chosen, then war was in the gates.

Was shield or spear to be seen among forty thousand in Israel?*
9My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people.
Bless the LORD.

10Sing of it, you who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets,[q] and you who walk by the way.
11To the sound of musicians[r] at the watering places, there they repeat the triumphs of the LORD, the triumphs of his peasantry in Israel.

Then down to the gates marched the people of the LORD.*
12Awake, awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, utter a song!
Arise, Barak, lead away your captives, O son of Abinoam.*
13Then down marched the remnant of the nobles; the people of the LORD marched down for him[s] against the mighty.
14From Ephraim they set out[t] into the valley,[u] following you, Benjamin, with your kin; from Machir marched down the commanders, and from Zebulun those who bear the marshal's staff;* 15the chiefs of Issachar came with Deborah, and Issachar faithful to Barak; into the valley they rushed out at his heels.
Among the clans of Reuben
there were great searchings of heart.*
16Why did you tarry among the sheepfolds, to hear the piping for the flocks?

Among the clans of Reuben
there were great searchings of heart.*
17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan, and Dan, why did he abide with the ships?
Asher sat still at the coast of the sea, settling down by his landings.*
18 Zebulun is a people that scorned death; Naphtali, too, on the heights of the field.*

19 The kings came; they fought; then fought the kings of Canaan, at Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; they got no spoils of silver.*
20 The stars fought from heaven; from their courses they fought against Sisera.*
21 The torrent Kishon swept them away, the onrushing torrent, the torrent Kishon.
March on, my soul, with might!*

22 Then loud beat the horses' hoofs with the galloping, galloping of his steeds.

23 Curse Meroz, says the angel of the LORD; curse bitterly its inhabitants, because they did not come to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

24 Most blessed of women be Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, of tent-dwelling women most blessed.*

[25]Water he asked, milk she gave;
she brought him curds in a lordly bowl.*
[26]She put her hand to the tent peg and her right hand to the workers' mallet; she struck Sisera a blow;
she crushed his head;
she shattered and pierced his temple.*
[27]Between her feet he sank, he fell, he lay still;
between her feet he sank, he fell;
where he sank, there he fell dead.

[28]Out of the window she peered; the mother of Sisera gazed[v] through the lattice:
'Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarry the hoofbeats of his chariots?'* [29]Her wisest ladies make answer; indeed, she answers the question herself: [30]'Are they not finding and dividing the spoil?
A woman or two for every man; spoil of dyed stuffs for Sisera, spoil of dyed stuffs embroidered, two pieces of dyed work embroidered for my neck as spoil?'*

[31]So perish all your enemies, O LORD!
But may your friends be like the sun as it rises in its might."

And the land had rest forty years.*

Judges 6

THE MIDIANITE OPPRESSION

1 The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hand of Midian seven years.* [2]The hand of Midian prevailed over Israel, and because of Midian the Israelites provided for themselves hiding places in the mountains, caves and strongholds. [3]For whenever the Israelites put in seed, the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east would come up against them.* [4]They would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the land, as far as the neighborhood of Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel, nor any sheep or ox or donkey.*
[5]For they and their livestock would come up, and they would even bring their tents, as thick as locusts; neither they nor their camels could be counted, so they wasted the land as they came in.* [6]Thus Israel was greatly impoverished because of Midian, and the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help.*

[[7 When the Israelites cried to the LORD on account of the Midianites, [8]the LORD sent a prophet to the Israelites, and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I led you up from Egypt and brought you out of the house of slavery,* [9]and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all who oppressed you and drove them out before you and gave you their land,* [10]and I said to you, 'I am the LORD your God; you shall not pay reverence to the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live.' But you have not given heed to my voice."[w]]]

THE CALL OF GIDEON

11 Now the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.* [12]The angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty warrior."* [13]Gideon answered him, "But sir, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all his wonderful deeds that our ancestors recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has cast us off and given us into the hand of Midian."* 14Then the LORD turned to him and said, "Go in this might of yours and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian; I hereby commission you."* 15He responded, "But sir, how can I deliver Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family."* 16The LORD said to him, "But I will be with you, and you shall strike down the Midianites, every one of them."* 17Then he said to him, "If now I have found favor with you, then show me a sign that it is you who speak with me.* 18Do not depart from here until I come to you and bring out my present and set it before you." And he said, "I will stay until you return."

19 So Gideon went into his house and prepared a kid and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour; the meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot and brought them to him under the oak and presented them.* 20The angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened cakes and put them on this rock and pour out the broth." And he did so.* 21Then the angel of the LORD reached out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes, and fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes, and the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.* 22Then Gideon perceived that it was the angel of the LORD, and Gideon said, "Help me, Lord GOD! For I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face."* 23But the LORD said to him, "Peace be to you; do not fear; you shall not die." 24Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and called it, "The LORD is peace." To this day it still stands at Ophrah, which belongs to the Abiezrites.

25 That night the LORD said to him, "Take your father's bull, the second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father and cut down the sacred pole[x] that is beside it* 26and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of the stronghold here, in proper order;[y] then take the second bull and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the sacred pole[z] that you cut down." 27So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the LORD had told him, but because he was too afraid of his family and the townspeople to do it by day, he did it by night.

GIDEON DESTROYS THE ALTAR OF BAAL

28 When the townspeople rose early in the morning, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the sacred pole[a] beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar that had been built.* [29]So they said to one another, "Who has done this?" After searching and inquiring, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash did it." [30]Then the townspeople said to Joash, "Bring out your son so that he may die, for he has pulled down the altar of Baal and cut down the sacred pole[b] beside it." [31]But Joash said to all who were arrayed against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you defend his cause? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because his altar has been pulled down." [32]Therefore on that day Gideon[c] was called Jerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend against him," because he pulled down his altar.*

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east came together, and they crossed over and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.* [34]But the spirit of the LORD took possession of Gideon, and he sounded the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called out to follow him.*
[35]He sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, and they, too, were called out to follow him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them.

THE SIGN OF THE FLEECE

36 Then Gideon said to God, "In order to see whether you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said, [37]I am going to lay a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said."* [38]And it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water. [39]Then Gideon said to God, "Do not let your anger burn against me, but let me speak one more time; let me, please, make trial with the fleece just once more; let it be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew."* [40]And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew.

Judges 7

GIDEON SURPRISES AND ROUTS THE MIDIANITES

1 Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the troops who were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod, and the camp of Midian was north of them, below[d] the hill of Moreh, in the valley.*

2 The LORD said to Gideon, "The troops with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand. Israel would only take the credit away from me, saying, 'My own hand has delivered me.'* 3Now, therefore, proclaim this in the hearing of the troops, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return home.' " Thus Gideon sifted them out;[e] twenty-two thousand returned, and ten thousand remained.*

4 Then the LORD said to Gideon, "The troops are still too many; take them down to the water, and I will sift them out for you there. When I say, 'This one shall go with you,' he shall go with you, and when I say, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go."* 5So he brought the troops down to the water, and the LORD said to Gideon, "All those who lap the water with their tongues, as a dog laps, you shall put to one side; all those who kneel down to drink, putting their hands to their mouths,[f] you shall put to the other side." 6The number of those who lapped was three hundred, but all the rest of the troops knelt down to drink water. 7Then the LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred who lapped I will deliver you and give the Midianites into your hand. Let all the others go to their homes."* 8So the people took provisions in their hands and their trumpets, and he sent all the rest of Israel back to their own tents but retained the three hundred. The camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

9 That same night the LORD said to him, "Get up; attack the camp, for I have given it into your hand.* 10But if you fear to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah, 11and you shall hear what they say, and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to attack the camp." Then he went down with his servant Purah to the outposts of the armed men who were in the camp.* 12The Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the east lay along the valley as thick as locusts, and their camels were without number, countless as the sand on the seashore.* 13When Gideon arrived, there was a man telling a dream to his comrade, and he said, "I had a dream, and in it a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian and came to the tent and struck it so that it fell; it turned upside down, and the tent collapsed." 14And his comrade answered, "This is no other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel; into his hand God has given Midian and all the army."*

15 When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped, and he returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Get up, for the LORD has given the army of Midian into your hand."* 16After he divided the three hundred men into three companies and put trumpets into the hands of all of them and empty jars, with torches inside the jars, 17he said to them, "Look at me, and do the same; when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do. 18When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets around the whole camp and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!' "*

19 So Gideon and the hundred who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch, and they blew the trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands. 20So the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars, holding in their left hands the torches and in their right hands the trumpets to blow, and they cried, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"* 21Every man stood in his place all around the camp, and all the men in camp ran; they cried out and fled.* 22When they blew the three hundred trumpets, the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow and against all the army, and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah,[g] as far as the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.* 23And the men of Israel were called out from Naphtali and from Asher and from all Manasseh, and they pursued after the Midianites.*

24 Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters against them, as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they seized the waters as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.* 25They captured the two captains of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, as they pursued the Midianites. They brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.*

Judges 8

GIDEON'S TRIUMPH AND VENGEANCE

1 Then the Ephraimites said to him, "What have you done to us, not to call us when you went to fight against the Midianites?" And they upbraided him violently.* [2]So he said to them, "What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? [3]God has given into your hands the captains of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; what have I been able to do in comparison with you?" When he said this, their anger against him subsided.*

4 Then Gideon came to the Jordan and crossed over, he and the three hundred who were with him, exhausted but still pursuing. [5]So he said to the people of Succoth, "Please give some loaves of bread to my followers, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."* [6]But the officials of Succoth said, "Do you already have in your possession the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna, that we should give bread to your army?"* [7]Gideon replied, "Well then, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will trample your flesh on the thorns of the wilderness and on briers."* [8]From there he went up to Penuel and made the same request of them, and the people of Penuel answered him as the people of Succoth had answered.* [9]So he said to the people of Penuel, "When I come back victorious, I will break down this tower."*

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the people of the east, for one hundred twenty thousand men bearing arms had fallen. [11]So Gideon went up by the caravan route east of Nobah and Jogbehah and attacked the army, for the army was off its guard. [12]Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued them and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and threw all the army into a panic.*

13 When Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres, [14]he caught a young man, one of the people of Succoth, and questioned him, and he listed for him the officials and elders of Succoth, seventy-seven people. [15]Then he came to the people of Succoth and said, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, ‘Do you already have in your possession the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna, that we should give bread to your troops who are exhausted?’ ”* 16So he took the elders of the city, and he took thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he trampled[h] the people of Succoth.* 17He also broke down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.*

18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What about the men whom you killed at Tabor?” They answered, “As you are, so were they, every one of them; they resembled the sons of a king.”* 19And he replied, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother; as the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you.” 20So he said to Jether his firstborn, “Go kill them!” But the boy did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a boy. 21Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “You come and kill us, for as the man is, so is his strength.” So Gideon went and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and he took the crescents that were on the necks of their camels.*

GIDEON’S IDOLATRY

22 Then the Israelites said to Gideon, “Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson also, for you have delivered us out of the hand of Midian.” 23Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you.”* 24Then Gideon said to them, “Let me make a request of you; each of you give me an earring he has taken as spoil.” (For the enemy[i] had golden earrings because they were Ishmaelites.) 25“We will willingly give them,” they answered. So they spread a garment, and each threw into it an earring he had taken as spoil. 26The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold (apart from the crescents and the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian and the collars that were on the necks of their camels). 27Gideon made an ephod of it and put it in his town, in Ophrah, and all Israel prostituted themselves to it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and to his family.* 28So Midian was subdued before the Israelites, and they lifted up their heads no more. So the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.*

DEATH OF GIDEON

29 Jerubbaal son of Joash went to live in his own house.* 30Now Gideon had seventy sons, his own offspring, for he had many wives.* 31His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.* 32Then Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash at Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 As soon as Gideon died, the Israelites relapsed and prostituted themselves with the Baals, making Baal-berith their god.* 34The Israelites did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies on every side,* 35and they did not exhibit loyalty to the house of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in return for all the good that he had done to Israel.

Judges 9

ABIMELECH ATTEMPTS TO ESTABLISH A MONARCHY

1 Now Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's kinsfolk and said to them and to the whole clan of his mother's family,* 2"Say in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem, 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal rule over you or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh."* 3So his mother's kinsfolk spoke all these words on his behalf in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem, and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." 4They gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the temple of Baal-berith with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless fellows who followed him.* 5He went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone, but Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, for he hid himself.* 6Then all the lords of Shechem and all Beth-millo came together, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar[j] at Shechem.

THE PARABLE OF THE TREES

7 When it was told to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim and cried aloud and said to them, "Listen to me, you lords of Shechem, so that God may listen to you.*

8The trees once went out to anoint a king over themselves.
So they said to the olive tree,
'Reign over us.'
9The olive tree answered them, 'Shall I stop producing my rich oil by which gods and mortals are honored and go to sway over the trees?'

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, ‘You come and reign over us.’ 11 But the fig tree answered them, ‘Shall I stop producing my sweetness and my delicious fruit
and go to sway over the trees?’ 12 Then the trees said to the vine, ‘You come and reign over us.’ 13 But the vine said to them, ‘Shall I stop producing my wine that cheers gods and mortals and go to sway over the trees?’ 14 So all the trees said to the bramble, ‘You come and reign over us.’
15 And the bramble said to the trees, ‘If in good faith you are anointing me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade, but if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon.’*

16 “Now therefore, if you acted in good faith and honor when you made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house and have done to him as his actions deserved* — 17 for my father fought for you and risked his life and rescued you from the hand of Midian, 18 but you have risen up against my father’s house this day and have killed his sons, seventy men on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his slave woman, king over the lords of Shechem, because he is your kinsman* — 19 if, I say, you have acted in good faith and honor with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you,* 20 but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and devour the lords of Shechem and Beth-millo, and let fire come out from the lords of Shechem and from Beth-millo and devour Abimelech.” 21 Then Jotham ran away and fled, going to Beer, where he remained for fear of his brother Abimelech.

THE DOWNFALL OF ABIMELECH

22 Abimelech ruled over Israel three years. [23]But God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem, and the lords of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech.* [24]This happened so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be avenged[k] and their blood be laid on their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and on the lords of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers.* [25]So the lords of Shechem set ambushes against him on the mountaintops. They robbed all who passed by them along that way, and it was reported to Abimelech.

26 When Gaal son of Ebed moved into Shechem with his kinsfolk, the lords of Shechem put confidence in him. [27]They went out into the field and gathered the grapes from their vineyards, trod them, and celebrated. Then they went into the temple of their god, ate and drank, and ridiculed Abimelech.* [28]Gaal son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Did not the son of Jerubbaal and Zebul his officer serve the men of Hamor father of Shechem? Why then should we serve him?* [29]If only this people were under my command! Then I would remove Abimelech; I would say[l] to him, 'Increase your army and come out.' "*

30 When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, his anger was kindled. [31]He sent messengers to Abimelech at Arumah,[m] saying, "Look, Gaal son of Ebed and his kinsfolk have come to Shechem, and they are stirring up[n] the city against you. [32]Now therefore, go by night, you and the troops who are with you, and lie in wait in the fields. [33]Then early in the morning, as soon as the sun rises, get up and rush on the city, and when he and the troops who are with him come out against you, you may deal with them as best you can."*

34 So Abimelech and all the troops with him got up by night and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies. [35]When Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city, Abimelech and the troops with him rose from the ambush. [36]And when Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the mountaintops!" And Zebul said to him, "The shadows on the mountains look like people to you." [37]Gaal spoke again and said, "Look, people are coming down from Tabbur-erez, and one company is coming from the direction of Elon-meonenim."[o,*]

[38]Then Zebul said to him, “Where is your boast[p] now, you who said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Are not these the troops you made light of? Go out now and fight with them.”* [39]So Gaal went out at the head of the lords of Shechem and fought with Abimelech.* [40]Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him. Many fell wounded, up to the entrance of the gate. [41]So Abimelech resided at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his kinsfolk, so that they could not live on at Shechem.

42 On the following day the people went out into the fields. When Abimelech was told, [43]he took his troops and divided them into three companies and lay in wait in the fields. When he looked and saw the people coming out of the city, he rose against them and killed them. [44]Abimelech and the company that was[q] with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, while the two companies rushed on all who were in the fields and killed them. [45]Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city and killed the people who were in it, and he razed the city and sowed it with salt.*

46 When all the lords of the Tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered the stronghold of the temple of El-berith.* [47]Abimelech was told that all the lords of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together. [48]So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the troops who were with him. Abimelech took an ax in his hand, cut down a bundle of brushwood, and took it up and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the troops with him, “What you have seen me do, do quickly, as I have done.”* [49]So every one of the troops cut down a bundle and following Abimelech put it against the stronghold, and they set the stronghold on fire over them, so that all the people of the Tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez and encamped against Thebez and took it.* [51]But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women and all the lords of the city fled to it and shut themselves in, and they went to the roof of the tower. [52]Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it and came near to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire. [53]But a certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull.* [54]Immediately he called to the young man who carried his armor and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, so people will not say about me, ‘A woman killed him.’ ” So the young man thrust him through, and he died. 55When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home. 56Thus God repaid Abimelech for the crime he committed against his father in killing his seventy brothers;* 57and God also made all the wickedness of the people of Shechem fall back on their heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal.*

Judges 10

TOLA AND JAIR

1 After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, who lived at Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim, rose to deliver Israel.* [2]He judged Israel twenty-three years. Then he died and was buried at Shamir.

3 After him came Jair the Gileadite, who judged Israel twenty-two years.
[4]He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys, and they had thirty towns, which are in the land of Gilead and are called Havvoth-jair to this day.*
[5]Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

OPPRESSION BY THE AMMONITES

6 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, serving the Baals and the Astartes, the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines. Thus they abandoned the LORD and did not worship him.* [7]So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites,* [8]and they crushed and oppressed the Israelites that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites who were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. [9]The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah and against Benjamin and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed.

10 So the Israelites cried to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against you, because we have abandoned our God and have served the Baals."* [11]And the LORD said to the Israelites, "Did I not deliver you[r] from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the Ammonites and from the Philistines?* [12]The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites oppressed you, and you cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.*
[13]Yet you have abandoned me and served other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more. [14]Go and cry to the gods whom you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress."* [15]And the Israelites said to the LORD, “We have sinned; do to us whatever seems good to you, but deliver us this day!”* 16So they put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD, and he could no longer bear to see Israel suffer.*

17 Then the Ammonites were called to arms, and they encamped in Gilead, and the Israelites came together, and they encamped at Mizpah.* 18The commanders of the people of Gilead said to one another, “Who will begin the fight against the Ammonites? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”*

Judges 11

JEPHTHAH

1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite, the son of a prostitute, was a mighty warrior.
Gilead was the father of Jephthah.* 2Gilead's wife also bore him sons, and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah away, saying to him, "You shall not inherit anything in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman." 3Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Outlaws gathered around Jephthah and went raiding with him.*

4 After a time the Ammonites made war against Israel.* 5And when the Ammonites made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob. 6They said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, so that we may fight with the Ammonites." 7But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Are you not the very ones who rejected me and drove me out of my father's house? So why do you come to me now when you are in trouble?" 8The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Nevertheless, we have now turned back to you, so that you may go with us and fight with the Ammonites and become head over us, over all the inhabitants of Gilead."* 9Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight with the Ammonites and the LORD gives them over to me, I will be your head." 10And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be witness between us; we will surely do as you say."* 11So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them, and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah.*

12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites and said, "What is there between you and me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?" 13The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel, on coming from Egypt, took away my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; now, therefore, restore it peaceably."* 14Once again Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites 15and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites,* 16but when they came up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea[s] and came to Kadesh.* 17Israel then sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Let us pass through your land,' but the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained at Kadesh. 18Then they journeyed through the wilderness, went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, arrived on the east side of the land of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab.* 19Israel then sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites, king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, 'Let us pass through your land to our country.'* 20But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory, so Sihon gathered all his people together and encamped at Jahaz and fought with Israel.* 21Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them, so Israel occupied all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.* 22They occupied all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.* 23So now the LORD, the God of Israel, has conquered the Amorites for the benefit of his people Israel. Do you intend to take their place? 24Should you not possess what your god Chemosh gives you to possess? And should we not be the ones to possess everything that the LORD our God has conquered for our benefit?* 25Now are you any better than King Balak son of Zippor of Moab? Did he ever enter into conflict with Israel, or did he ever go to war with them?* 26While Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the towns that are along the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?* 27It is not I who have sinned against you, but you are the one who does me wrong by making war on me. Let the LORD, who is judge, decide today for the Israelites or for the Ammonites."* 28But the king of the Ammonites did not heed the message that Jephthah sent him.

JEPHTHAH'S VOW

29 Then the spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh. He passed on to Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed on to the Ammonites.* 30And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD and said, "If you will give the Ammonites into my hand, 31then whatever[t] comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return victorious from the Ammonites, shall be the LORD's, to be offered up by me as a burnt offering." 32So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them, and the LORD gave them into his hand. 33He inflicted a massive defeat on them from Aroer to the neighborhood of Minnith, twenty towns, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the Ammonites were subdued before the Israelites.*

JEPHTHAH'S DAUGHTER

34 Then Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah, and there was his daughter coming out to meet him with timbrels and with dancing. She was his only child; he had no son or daughter except her.* 35When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low; you have become the cause of great trouble to me. For I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot take back my vow."* 36She said to him, "My father, if you have opened your mouth to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, now that the LORD has given you vengeance against your enemies, the Ammonites."* 37And she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: grant me two months, so that I may go and wander[u] on the mountains and bewail my virginity, my companions and I." 38"Go," he said, and he sent her away for two months. So she departed, she and her companions, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains. 39At the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to the vow he had made. She had never slept with a man. So there arose an Israelite custom that 40for four days every year the daughters of Israel would go out to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Judges 12

INTERTRIBAL DISSENSION

1 The men of Ephraim were called to arms, and they crossed to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down over you!"* [2]Jephthah said to them, "My people and I were engaged in conflict with the Ammonites who oppressed us[v] severely. But when I called you, you did not deliver me from their hand. [3]When I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hand and crossed over against the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day, to fight against me?"* [4]Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim, and the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You are fugitives from Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the heart of Ephraim and Manasseh."[w],* [5]Then the Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. Whenever one of the fugitives of Ephraim said, "Let me go over," the men of Gilead would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" When he said, "No,"* [6]they said to him, "Then say Shibboleth," and he said, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it right. Then they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites fell at that time.

7 Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in his town in Gilead.[x],*

IBZAN, ELON, AND ABDON

8 After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. [9]He had thirty sons. He gave his thirty daughters in marriage outside his clan and brought in thirty young women from outside for his sons. He judged Israel seven years.
[10]Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

11 After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel, and he judged Israel ten years. [12]Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

13 After him Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. [14]He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys; he judged Israel eight years.* [15]Then Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges 13

THE BIRTH OF SAMSON

1 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.*

2 There was a certain man of Zorah, of the tribe of the Danites, whose name was Manoah. His wife was barren, having borne no children.* 3And the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "Although you are barren, having borne no children, you shall conceive and bear a son.* 4Now be careful not to drink wine or strong drink or to eat anything unclean,* 5for you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor is to come on his head, for the boy shall be a nazirite to God from birth. It is he who shall begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines."* 6Then the woman came and told her husband, "A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like that of an angel[y] of God, most awe-inspiring; I did not ask him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name,* 7but he said to me, 'You shall conceive and bear a son. So then, drink no wine or strong drink and eat nothing unclean, for the boy shall be a nazirite to God from birth to the day of his death.' "

8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD and said, "O my Lord, I pray, let the man of God whom you sent come to us again and teach us what we are to do concerning the boy who will be born."* 9God listened to Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field, but her husband Manoah was not with her. 10So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, "The man who came to me the other day has appeared to me." 11Manoah got up and followed his wife and came to the man and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to this woman?" And he said, "I am." 12Then Manoah said, "Now when your words come true, what is to be the boy's rule of life; what is he to do?" 13The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Let the woman give heed to all that I said to her.* 14She may not eat of anything that comes from the vine. She is not to drink wine or strong drink or eat any unclean thing. She is to observe everything that I commanded her."*

15 Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Allow us to detain you and prepare a kid for you."* [16]The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "If you detain me, I will not eat your food, but if you want to prepare a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD." (For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.)* [17]Then Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, so that we may honor you when your words come true?"* [18]But the angel of the LORD said to him, "Why do you ask my name? It is too wonderful."*

19 So Manoah took the kid with the grain offering and offered it on the rock to the LORD, to him who works[z] wonders.[a,] [20]When the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar while Manoah and his wife looked on, and they fell on their faces to the ground. [21]The angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah realized that it was the angel of the LORD.* [22]And Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, for we have seen God."* [23]But his wife said to him, "If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering at our hands or shown us all these things or[b] announced to us such things as these."

24 The woman bore a son and named him Samson. The boy grew, and the LORD blessed him.* [25]The spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.*

Judges 14

SAMSON'S MARRIAGE

1 Once Samson went down to Timnah, and at Timnah he saw a Philistine woman. [2]Then he came up and told his father and mother, "I saw a Philistine woman at Timnah; now get her for me as my wife."* [3]But his father and mother said to him, "Is there not a woman among your kin or among all our[c] people, that you must go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, because she pleases me." [4]His father and mother did not know that this was from the LORD, for he was seeking a pretext to act against the Philistines. At that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.*

5 Then Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah. When he came to the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion roared at him.
[6]The spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and he tore the lion apart barehanded as one might tear apart a kid. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.* [7]Then he went down and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson.* [8]After a while he returned to marry her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion and honey. [9]He scraped it out into his hands and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the carcass of the lion.

10 His father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there, as the young men were accustomed to do. [11]When the people saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him. [12]Samson said to them, "Let me now put a riddle to you. If you can explain it to me within the seven days of the feast and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments.* [13]But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments." So they said to him, "Ask your riddle; let us hear it." [14]He said to them,

"Out of the eater came something to eat.
Out of the strong came something sweet."

But for three days they could not explain the riddle.

15 On the fourth[d] day they said to Samson's wife, "Coax your husband to explain the riddle to us, or we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us here to impoverish us?"* [16]So Samson's wife wept before him, saying, "You hate me; you do not really love me. You have asked a riddle of my people, but you have not explained it to me." He said to her, "Look, I have not told my father or my mother. Why should I tell you?" [17]She wept before him the seven days that their feast lasted, and because she nagged him, on the seventh day he told her. Then she explained the riddle to her people. [18]The men of the town said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey?

What is stronger than a lion?"

And he said to them,

"If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle."*

[19]Then the spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and he went down to Ashkelon. He killed thirty men of the town, took their spoil, and gave the festal garments to those who had explained the riddle. In hot anger he went back to his father's house.* [20]And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.*

Judges 15

SAMSON DEFEATS THE PHILISTINES

1 After a while, at the time of the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, bringing along a kid. He said, "I want to go into my wife's room." But her father would not allow him to go in. [2]Her father said, "I was sure that you had rejected her, so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister prettier than she? Why not take her instead?"* [3]Samson said to them, "This time, when I do mischief to the Philistines, I will be without blame." [4]So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes and took some torches, and he turned the foxes[e] tail to tail and put a torch between each pair of tails. [5]When he had set fire to the torches, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines and burned up the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and[f] olive groves. [6]Then the Philistines asked, "Who has done this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken Samson's wife and given her to his companion." So the Philistines came up and burned her and her father.*
[7]Samson said to them, "If this is what you do, I swear I will not stop until I have taken revenge on you." [8]He struck them down hip and thigh with a massive defeat, and he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

9 Then the Philistines came up and encamped in Judah and made a raid on Lehi.* [10]The men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he did to us." [11]Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and they said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then have you done to us?" He replied, "As they did to me, so I have done to them."* [12]They said to him, "We have come down to bind you, so that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines." Samson answered them, "Swear to me that you yourselves will not attack me." [13]They said to him, "No, we will only bind you and give you into their hands; we will not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him, and the spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that has caught fire, and his bonds melted off his hands.* [15]Then he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached down and took it, and with it he killed a thousand men.* [16]And Samson said,

"With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps upon heaps,
with the jawbone of a donkey
I have slain a thousand men."

[17]When he had finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone, and that place was called Ramath-lehi.[g]

18 By then he was very thirsty, and he called on the LORD, saying, "You have granted this great victory by the hand of your servant. Am I now to die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"* [19]So God split open the hollow place that is at Lehi, and water came from it. When he drank, his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore it was named En-hakkore,[h] which is at Lehi to this day.* [20]And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.*

Judges 16

SAMSON AND DELILAH

1 Once Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute and went in to her.
2 The Gazites were told,[i] "Samson has come here." So they circled around and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate. They kept quiet all night, thinking, "Let us wait[j] until the light of the morning; then we will kill him."* 3 But Samson lay only until midnight. Then at midnight he rose up, took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that is in front of Hebron.

4 After this he fell in love with a woman in the valley of Sorek whose name was Delilah. 5 The lords of the Philistines came to her and said to her, "Coax him, and find out what makes his strength so great and how we may overpower him, so that we may bind him in order to subdue him, and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."* 6 So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me what makes your strength so great and how you could be bound, so that one could subdue you." 7 Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings that are not dried out, then I shall become weak and be like anyone else." 8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not dried out, and she bound him with them. 9 While men were lying in wait in an inner chamber, she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he snapped the bowstrings as a strand of fiber snaps when it touches the fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

10 Then Delilah said to Samson, "You have mocked me and told me lies; please tell me how you could be bound."* 11 He said to her, "If they bind me with new ropes that have not been used, then I shall become weak and be like anyone else." 12 So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" (The men lying in wait were in an inner chamber.) But he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.

13 Then Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me and told me lies; tell me how you could be bound." He said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and make it tight with the pin, then I shall become weak and be like anyone else."* [14]So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web[k] and made them tight with the pin. Then she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep and pulled away the pin, the loom, and the web.

15 Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me three times now and have not told me what makes your strength so great."* [16]Finally, after she had nagged him with her words day after day and pestered him, he was tired to death. [17]So he told her his whole secret and said to her, "A razor has never come upon my head, for I have been a nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If my head were shaved, then my strength would leave me; I would become weak and be like anyone else."*

18 When Delilah realized that he had told her his whole secret, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, "This time come up, for he has told his whole secret to me." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hands. [19]She let him fall asleep on her lap, and she called a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head.
He began to weaken,[l] and his strength left him.* [20]Then she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" When he awoke from his sleep, he thought, "I will go out as at other times and shake myself free." But he did not know that the LORD had left him.* [21]So the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles, and he ground at the mill in the prison. [22]But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

SAMSON'S DEATH

23 Now the lords of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon and to rejoice, for they said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand."* [24]When the people saw him, they praised their god, for they said, "Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the ravager of our country, who has killed many of us."* [25]And when their hearts were merry, they said, “Call Samson, and let him entertain us.” So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. They made him stand between the pillars,* 26and Samson said to the attendant who held him by the hand, “Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, so that I may lean against them.” 27Now the house was full of men and women; all the lords of the Philistines were there, and on the roof there were about three thousand men and women who looked on while Samson performed.*

28 Then Samson called to the LORD and said, “Lord GOD, remember me and strengthen me only this once, O God, so that with this one act of revenge I may pay back the Philistines for my two eyes.”m,* 29And Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and he leaned his weight against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other. 30Then Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines.” He strained with all his might, and the house fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So those he killed at his death were more than those he had killed during his life. 31Then his kindred and all his family came down and took him and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.*

Judges 17

MICAH AND THE LEVITE

1 There was a man in the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah.
2 He said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse and even spoke it in my hearing —that silver is in my possession; I took it, but now I will return it to you."[n] And his mother said, "May my son be blessed by the LORD!" 3 Then he returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, "I consecrate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make an idol of cast metal."* 4 So when he returned the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave it to the silversmith, who made it into an idol of cast metal, and it was in the house of Micah. 5 This man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and teraphim and installed one of his sons, who became his priest.* 6 In those days there was no king in Israel; all the people did what was right in their own eyes.*

7 Now there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the clan of Judah. He was a Levite residing there.* 8 This man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah to live wherever he could find a place. He came to the house of Micah in the hill country of Ephraim to carry on his work.[o] 9 Micah said to him, "From where do you come?" He replied, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to live wherever I can find a place." 10 Then Micah said to him, "Stay with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, a set of clothes, and your living."[p,] 11 The Levite agreed to stay with the man, and the young man became to him like one of his sons. 12 So Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest and was in the house of Micah.
13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will prosper me because the Levite has become my priest."

Judges 18

THE MIGRATION OF DAN

1 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking for itself a territory to live in, for until then no territory among the tribes of Israel had been allotted to them.* [2]So the Danites sent five valiant men from the whole number of their clan, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to explore it, and they said to them, "Go, explore the land." When they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they stayed there.* [3]While they were at Micah's house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite, so they went over and asked him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?" [4]He said to them, "Micah did such and such for me, and he hired me, and I have become his priest."* [5]Then they said to him, "Inquire of God that we may know whether the mission we are undertaking will succeed."* [6]The priest replied, "Go in peace. The mission you are on is under the eye of the LORD."*

7 The five men went on, and when they came to Laish, they observed the people who were there living securely, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting, lacking[q] nothing on earth, and possessing wealth.[r] Furthermore, they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with Aram.[s,] [8]When they came to their kinsfolk at Zorah and Eshtaol, they said to them, "What do you report?" [9]They said, "Come, let us go up against them, for we have seen the land, and it is very good. Will you do nothing?
Do not be slow to go, but enter in and possess the land.* [10]When you go, you will come to an unsuspecting people. The land is broad—God has indeed given it into your hands—a place where there is no lack of anything on earth."*

11 Six hundred men of the Danite clan, armed with weapons of war, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol [12]and went up and encamped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. On this account that place is called Mahaneh-dan[t] to this day; it is west of Kiriath-jearim.* [13]From there they passed on to the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.*

14 Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land (that is, Laish) said to their comrades, "Do you know that in these buildings there are an ephod, teraphim, and an idol of cast metal? Now, therefore, consider what you will do."* 15So they turned in that direction and came to the house of the young Levite at the home of Micah and greeted him. 16While the six hundred men of the Danites, armed with their weapons of war, stood by the entrance of the gate,* 17the five men who had gone to spy out the land proceeded to enter and take the idol of cast metal, the ephod, and the teraphim.[u] The priest was standing by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.* 18When the men went into Micah's house and took the idol of cast metal, the ephod, and the teraphim, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?" 19They said to him, "Keep quiet! Put your hand over your mouth, and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one person or to be priest to a tribe and clan in Israel?"* 20Then the priest accepted the offer. He took the ephod, the teraphim, and the idol and went along with the people.

21 So they resumed their journey, putting the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them. 22When they were some distance from the home of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house were called out, and they overtook the Danites. 23They shouted to the Danites, who turned around and said to Micah, "What is the matter that you come with such a company?" 24He replied, "You take my gods that I made and the priest and go away, and what have I left? How then can you ask me, 'What is the matter?' "* 25And the Danites said to him, "You had better not let your voice be heard among us, or else hot-tempered fellows will attack you, and you will lose your life and the lives of your household." 26Then the Danites went their way. When Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his home.

THE DANITES SETTLE IN LAISH

27 The Danites, having taken what Micah had made and the priest who belonged to him, came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, put them to the sword, and burned down the city.* 28There was no deliverer because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with Aram.[v] It was in the valley that belongs to Beth-rehob. They rebuilt the city and lived in it.* 29They named the city Dan after their ancestor Dan, who was born to Israel, but the name of the city was formerly Laish.* 30Then the Danites set up the idol for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom son of Moses[w] and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the time the land went into captivity.* 31So they maintained as their own Micah's idol that he had made, as long as the house of God was at Shiloh.*

Judges 19

THE LEVITE'S CONCUBINE

1 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite residing in the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim took to himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.* [2]But his concubine became angry with[x] him, and she went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah and was there some four months. [3]Then her husband set out after her, to speak tenderly to her and bring her back. He had with him his servant and a couple of donkeys. When he reached[y] her father's house, the young woman's father saw him and came with joy to meet him.* [4]His father-in-law, the young woman's father, made him stay, and he remained with him three days; so they ate and drank, and he[z] stayed there. [5]On the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to go, but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Fortify yourself with a bit of food, and after that you may go."* [6]So the two men sat and ate and drank together, and the young woman's father said to the man, "Why not spend the night and enjoy yourself?"* [7]When the man got up to go, his father-in-law kept urging him until he spent the night there again. [8]On the fifth day he got up early in the morning to leave, and the young woman's father said, "Fortify yourself and linger until the day declines." So the two of them ate.
[9]When the man with his concubine and his servant got up to leave, his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Look, the day has worn on until it is almost evening. Spend the night. See, the day has drawn to a close. Spend the night here and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow you can get up early in the morning for your journey and go home."

10 But the man would not spend the night; he got up and departed and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). He had with him a couple of saddled donkeys, and his concubine was with him.* [11]When they were near Jebus, the day was far spent, and the servant said to his master, "Come now, let us turn aside to this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it."* [12]But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel, but we will continue on to Gibeah."* 13Then he said to his servant, "Come, let us try to reach one of these places and spend the night at Gibeah or at Ramah." 14So they passed on and went their way, and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. 15They turned aside there, to go in and spend the night at Gibeah. He went in and sat down in the open square of the city, but no one took them in to spend the night.*

16 Then at evening there was an old man coming from his work in the field. The man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was residing in Gibeah. (The people of the place were Benjaminites.)* 17When the old man looked up and saw the wayfarer in the open square of the city, he said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?" 18He answered him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, from which I come. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to my home.[a] Nobody has offered to take me in.* 19We have straw and fodder for our donkeys, with bread and wine for me and the woman and the young man along with us. Your servants need nothing more." 20The old man said, "Peace be to you. I will care for all your wants; only do not spend the night in the square." 21So he brought him into his house and fed the donkeys; they washed their feet and ate and drank.*

GIBEAH'S CRIME

22 While they were enjoying themselves, the men of the city, a perverse lot, surrounded the house and started pounding on the door. They said to the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who came into your house, so that we may have intercourse with him."* 23And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. Since this man is my guest, do not do this vile thing.* 24Here are my virgin daughter and his concubine; let me bring them out now. Ravish them and do whatever you want to them, but against this man do not do such a vile thing."* 25But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and put her out to them. They wantonly raped her and abused her all through the night until the morning. And as the dawn began to break, they let her go. 26As morning appeared, the woman came and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, until it was light.

27 In the morning her master got up, opened the doors of the house, and when he went out to go on his way, there was the woman, his concubine, lying at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold. [28]"Get up," he said to her, "we are going." But there was no answer. Then he put her on the donkey, and the man set out for his home.* [29]When he had entered his house, he took a knife, and grasping his concubine he cut her into twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.*
[30]Then he commanded the men whom he sent, saying, "Thus shall you say to all the Israelites: Has such a thing ever happened[b] since the day that the Israelites came up from the land of Egypt until this day? Consider it, take counsel, and speak out."*

Judges 20

THE OTHER TRIBES ATTACK BENJAMIN

1 Then all the Israelites came out, from Dan to Beer-sheba, including the land of Gilead, and the congregation assembled in one body before the LORD at Mizpah.* [2]The chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot soldiers bearing arms. [3](Now the Benjaminites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.) And the Israelites said, "Tell us, how did this criminal act come about?" [4]The Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered, "I came to Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night.* [5]The lords of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house at night. They intended to kill me, and they raped my concubine until she died.* [6]Then I took my concubine and cut her into pieces and sent her throughout the whole extent of Israel's territory, for they have committed a vile outrage in Israel.* [7]So now, you Israelites, all of you, give your advice and counsel here."*

8 All the people got up as one, saying, "We will not any of us go to our tents, nor will any of us return to our houses. [9]But now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go up[c] against it by lot. [10]We will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to bring provisions for the troops who will go to repay[d] Gibeah of Benjamin for all the disgrace that they have done in Israel." [11]So all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one.

12 The tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What crime is this that has been committed among you?* [13]Now then, hand over those scoundrels in Gibeah so that we may put them to death and purge the evil from Israel." But the Benjaminites would not listen to their kinsfolk, the Israelites.* [14]The Benjaminites came together out of the towns to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the Israelites. [15]On that day the Benjaminites mustered twenty-six thousand armed men from their towns, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who mustered seven hundred picked men. [16]Of all this force, there were seven hundred picked men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair and not miss. [17]And the Israelites, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand armed men, all of them warriors.

18 The Israelites proceeded to go up to Bethel, where they inquired of God, "Which of us shall go up first to battle against the Benjaminites?" And the LORD answered, "Judah shall go up first."*

19 Then the Israelites got up in the morning and encamped against Gibeah. [20]The Israelites went out to battle against Benjamin, and the Israelites drew up the battle line against them at Gibeah. [21]The Benjaminites came out of Gibeah and struck down on that day twenty-two thousand of the Israelites.* [23e]The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until the evening, and they inquired of the LORD, "Shall we again draw near to battle against our kinsfolk the Benjaminites?" And the LORD said, "Go up against them."* [22]The Israelites strengthened themselves and again formed the battle line in the same place where they had formed it on the first day.

24 So the Israelites advanced against the Benjaminites the second day. [25]Benjamin moved out against them from Gibeah the second day and struck down eighteen thousand of the Israelites, all of them armed men.* [26]Then all the Israelites, the whole army, went back to Bethel and wept, sitting there before the LORD; they fasted that day until evening. Then they offered burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being before the LORD.* [27]And the Israelites inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days,* [28]and Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, "Shall we go out once more to battle against our kinsfolk the Benjaminites, or shall we desist?" The LORD answered, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into your hand."*

29 So Israel stationed men in ambush around Gibeah.* [30]Then the Israelites went up against the Benjaminites on the third day and set themselves in array against Gibeah as before. [31]When the Benjaminites went out against the army, they were drawn away from the city. As before, they began to inflict casualties on the troops along the main roads, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, as well as in the open country, killing about thirty men of Israel.* [32]The Benjaminites thought, "They are being routed before us, as previously." But the Israelites said,

"Let us retreat and draw them away from the city toward the roads." [33]The main body of the Israelites drew back its battle line to Baal-tamar, while those Israelites who were in ambush rushed out of their place west[f] of Geba.* [34]There came against Gibeah ten thousand picked men out of all Israel, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjaminites did not realize that disaster was close upon them.*

35 The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel, and the Israelites struck down twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin that day, all of them armed.

36 Then the Benjaminites saw that they were defeated.

The Israelites gave ground to Benjamin because they relied on the troops in ambush that they had stationed against Gibeah.* [37]The troops in ambush rushed quickly upon Gibeah. Then they put the whole city to the sword.* [38]Now the agreement between the main body of Israel and the men in ambush was that when they sent up a cloud of smoke out of the city* [39]the main body of Israel should turn in battle. But Benjamin had begun to inflict casualties on the Israelites, killing about thirty of them, so they thought, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle."* [40]But when the cloud, a column of smoke, began to rise out of the city, the Benjaminites looked behind them—and there was the whole city going up in smoke toward the sky!* [41]Then the main body of Israel turned, and the Benjaminites were dismayed, for they saw that disaster was close upon them. [42]Therefore they turned away from the Israelites in the direction of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the city[g] were striking them down in between.[h] [43]Surrounding the Benjaminites, they pursued them from Nohah[i] and trod them down as far as a place east of Gibeah. [44]Eighteen thousand Benjaminites fell, all of them courageous fighters. [45]When they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, five thousand of them were cut down on the main roads, and they were pursued as far as Gidom, and two thousand of them were slain.* [46]So all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand arms-bearing men, all of them courageous fighters. [47]But six hundred turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon and remained at the rock of Rimmon for four months.* [48]Meanwhile, the Israelites turned back against the Benjaminites and put them to the sword—the city, the people, the animals, and all that remained. Also the remaining towns they set on fire.

Judges 21

THE BENJAMINITES SAVED FROM EXTINCTION

1 Now the Israelites had sworn at Mizpah, "No one of us shall give his daughter in marriage to Benjamin."* [2]And the people came to Bethel and sat there until evening before God, and they lifted up their voices and wept bitterly.* [3]They said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, why has it come to pass that today there should be one tribe lacking in Israel?" [4]On the next day, the people got up early and built an altar there and offered burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being.* [5]Then the Israelites said, "Who out of all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?" For a solemn oath had been taken concerning whoever did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, "That one shall be put to death." [6]But the Israelites had compassion for Benjamin their kin and said, "One tribe is cut off from Israel this day.
[7]What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them any of our daughters as wives?"*

8 Then they said, "Is there anyone from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah?" It turned out that no one from Jabeshgilead had come to the camp, to the assembly. [9]For when the roll was called among the people, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there.
[10]So the congregation sent twelve thousand soldiers there and commanded them, "Go, put the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead to the sword, including the women and the little ones. [11]This is what you shall do; every male and every woman who has lain with a male you shall devote to destruction."* [12]And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had never slept with a man and brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 Then the whole congregation sent word to the Benjaminites who were at the rock of Rimmon and proclaimed peace to them.* [14]Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead, but they did not suffice for them.

15 The people had compassion on Benjamin because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.* [16]So the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since there are no women left in Benjamin?” [17]And they said, “There must be heirs for the survivors of Benjamin, in order that a tribe may not be blotted out from Israel. [18]Yet we cannot give any of our daughters to them as wives.” For the Israelites had sworn, “Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to Benjamin.”* [19]So they said, “Look, the yearly festival of the LORD is taking place at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem and south of Lebonah.”* [20]And they instructed the Benjaminites, saying, “Go and lie in wait in the vineyards [21]and watch; when the young women of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards and each of you carry off a wife for himself from the young women of Shiloh and go to the land of Benjamin.* [22]Then if their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, ‘Be generous and allow us to have them, because we did not capture in battle a wife for each man. But neither did you incur guilt by giving your daughters to them.’ ”* [23]The Benjaminites did so; they took wives for each of them from the dancers whom they abducted. Then they went and returned to their territory and rebuilt the towns and lived in them.* [24]So the Israelites departed from there at that time by tribes and families, and they went out from there to their own territories.

25 In those days there was no king in Israel; all the people did what was right in their own eyes.*

Ruth

Ruth 1

ELIMELECH'S FAMILY GOES TO MOAB

1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons.* 2The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon[a] and Chilion;[b] they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there.* 3But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons. 4These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years, 5both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

NAOMI AND HER MOABITE DAUGHTERS-IN-LAW

6 Then she started to return with her daughters-in-law from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had considered his people and given them food.* 7So she set out from the place where she had been living, she and her two daughters-in-law, and they went on their way to go back to the land of Judah. 8But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back each of you to your mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.* 9The LORD grant that you may find security, each of you in the house of your husband." Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud.* 10They said to her, "No, we will return with you to your people." 11But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters. Why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?* 12Turn back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought there was hope for me, even if I should have a husband tonight and bear sons, 13would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from marrying? No, my daughters, it has been far more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the LORD has turned against me."* 14Then they wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye, but Ruth clung to her.

15 So she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law." 16But Ruth said,

"Do not press me to leave you, to turn back from following you!
Where you go, I will go; where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people and your God my God.*
17Where you die, I will die, and there will I be buried.
May the LORD do thus to me, and more as well,
if even death parts me from you!"

18When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.*

19 So the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they came to Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them, and the women said, "Is this Naomi?" 20She said to them,

"Call me no longer Naomi;[c] call me Mara,[d]
for the Almighty[e] has dealt bitterly with me.*
21I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty; why call me Naomi when the LORD has dealt harshly with[f] me and the Almighty[g] has brought calamity upon me?"*

22 So Naomi returned together with Ruth the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, who came back with her from the country of Moab. They came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.*

Ruth 2

RUTH MEETS BOAZ

1 Now Naomi had a kinsman on her husband's side, a prominent rich man of the family of Elimelech whose name was Boaz.* 2And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain behind someone in whose sight I may find favor." She said to her, "Go, my daughter."* 3So she went. She came and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. As it happened, she came to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech. 4Just then Boaz came from Bethlehem.
He said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you." They answered, "The LORD bless you."* 5Then Boaz said to his young man who was in charge of the reapers, "To whom does this young woman belong?" 6The young man who was in charge of the reapers answered, "She is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.* 7She said, 'Please, let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the reapers.' So she came, and she has been on her feet from early this morning until now without resting even for a moment."h 8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women.

9Keep your eyes on the field that is being reaped and follow behind them. I have ordered the young men not to bother you. If you get thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn." 10Then she fell prostrate, with her face to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner?"* 11But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before.* 12May the LORD reward you for your deeds, and may you have a full reward from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge!"* 13Then she said, "May I continue to find favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your servant, even though I am not one of your servants."

14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come here and eat some of this bread and dip your morsel in the sour wine.” So she sat beside the reapers, and he heaped up for her some parched grain. She ate until she was satisfied, and she had some left over.* 15When she got up to glean, Boaz instructed his young men, “Let her glean even among the standing sheaves, and do not reproach her. 16You must also pull out some handfuls for her from the bundles and leave them for her to glean, and do not rebuke her.”

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley. 18She picked it up and came into the town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gleaned.
Then she took out and gave her what was left over after she herself had been satisfied.* 19Her mother-in-law said to her, “Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you.” So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, saying, “The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz.”* 20Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “Blessed be he by the LORD, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!” Naomi also said to her, “The man is a relative of ours, one of our nearest kin.”[i,] 21Then Ruth the Moabite said, “He even said to me, ‘Stay close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.’ ” 22Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, “It is better, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, otherwise someone might bother you in another field.” 23So she stayed close to the young women of Boaz, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests, and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3

RUTH AND BOAZ AT THE THRESHING FLOOR

1 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you.* [2]Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.* [3]Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor, but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.* [4]When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then go and uncover his feet and lie down, and he will tell you what to do." [5]She said to her, "All that you say I will do."

6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did just as her mother-in-law had instructed her. [7]When Boaz had eaten and drunk and was in a contented mood, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. Then she came stealthily and uncovered his feet and lay down.* [8]At midnight the man was startled and turned over, and there, lying at his feet, was a woman!
[9]He said, "Who are you?" And she answered, "I am Ruth, your servant; spread your cloak over your servant, for you are next-of-kin."[j,] [10]He said, "May you be blessed by the LORD, my daughter; this last instance of your loyalty is better than the first; you have not gone after young men, whether poor or rich. [11]And now, my daughter, do not be afraid, I will do for you all that you ask, for all the assembly of my people know that you are a worthy woman. [12]But now, though it is true that I am a near kinsman, there is another kinsman more closely related than I.* [13]Remain this night, and in the morning, if he will act as next-of-kin[k] for you, good; let him do it. But if he is not willing to act as next-of-kin[l] for you, then, as the LORD lives, I will act as next-of-kin[m] for you. Lie down until the morning."*

14 So she lay at his feet until morning but got up before one person could recognize another, for he said, "It must not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor." [15]Then he said, "Bring the cloak you are wearing and hold it out." So she held it, and he measured out six measures of barley and put it on her back; then he went into the town. [16]She came to her mother-in-law, who said, “How did things go with you,[n] my daughter?” Then she told her all that the man had done for her, [17]saying, “He gave me these six measures of barley, for he said, ‘Do not go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’ ” [18]She replied, “Wait, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out, for the man will not rest but will settle the matter today.”[*]

THE MARRIAGE OF BOAZ AND RUTH

1 No sooner had Boaz gone up to the gate and sat down there than the next-of-kin[o] of whom Boaz had spoken came passing by. So Boaz said, "Come over;[p] sit down here." And he went over and sat down.[] [2]Then Boaz took ten men of the elders of the town and said, "Sit down here," so they sat down. [3]He then said to the next-of-kin,[q] "Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that belonged to our kinsman Elimelech.[] [4]So I thought I would tell you of it and say: Buy it in the presence of those sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you[r] will not, tell me, so that I may know; for there is no one prior to you to redeem it, and I come after you." So he said, "I will redeem it."[] [5]Then Boaz said, "The day you acquire the field from the hand of Naomi, you are also acquiring Ruth[s] the Moabite, the widow of the dead man, to maintain the dead man's name on his inheritance."[] [6]At this, the next-of-kin[t] said, "I cannot redeem it for myself without damaging my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption yourself, for I cannot redeem it."[*]

7 Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging to confirm a transaction: the one took off a sandal and gave it to the other; this was the manner of attesting in Israel.[] [8]So when the next-of-kin[u] said to Boaz, "Acquire it for yourself," he took off his sandal. [9]Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses today that I have acquired from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon. [10]I have also acquired Ruth the Moabite, the wife of Mahlon, to be my wife, to maintain the dead man's name on his inheritance, in order that the name of the dead may not be cut off from his kindred and from the gate of his native place; today you are witnesses."[] [11]Then all the people who were at the gate, along with the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you produce children[v] in Ephrathah and bestow a name in Bethlehem;* 12and, through the children that the LORD will give you by this young woman, may your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah."*

THE GENEALOGY OF DAVID

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD made her conceive, and she bore a son.* 14Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin,[w] and may his name be renowned in Israel!* 15He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age, for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him."* 16Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom and became his nurse. 17The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 Now these are the descendants of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron,* 19Hezron of Ram, Ram of Amminadab, 20Amminadab of Nahshon, Nahshon of Salmon,[x] 21Salmon of Boaz, Boaz of Obed, 22Obed of Jesse, and Jesse of David.

1 Samuel

1 Samuel 1

SAMUEL'S BIRTH AND DEDICATION

1 There was a certain man of Ramathaim, a Zuphite[a] from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham son of Elihu son of Tohu son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.* [2]He had two wives; the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.*

3 Now this man used to go up year by year from his town to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests of the LORD.* [4]On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters,* [5]but to Hannah he gave a double portion[b] because he loved her, though the LORD had closed her womb.* [6]Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb.* [7]So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. [8]Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?"*

9 After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD.[c] Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD.* [10]She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly. [11]She made this vow: "O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant and remember me and not forget your servant but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants,[d] and no razor shall touch his head."*

12 As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.
[13]Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk.* [14]So Eli said to her, "How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine."* 15But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD.* 16Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time." 17Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him."* 18And she said, "Let your servant find favor in your sight." Then the woman went her way and ate and drank with her husband,[e] and her countenance was sad no longer.[f,*]

19 They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her.* 20In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the LORD."*

21 The man Elkanah and all his household went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and to pay his vow.* 22But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, that he may appear in the presence of the LORD and remain there forever; I will offer him as a nazirite for all time."[g,] 23Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him; only, may the LORD establish your[h] word." So the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him. 24When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull,[i] an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine. She brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh, and the child was young.* 25Then they slaughtered the bull and brought the child to Eli.* 26And she said, "Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here in your presence praying to the LORD.* 27For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me the petition that I made to him.* 28Therefore I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he is given to the LORD." And they worshiped the LORD there.*

1 Samuel 2

HANNAH'S PRAYER

1 Hannah prayed and said,

"My heart exults in the LORD;
my strength is exalted in my God.[j] My mouth derides my enemies because I rejoice in your victory.*

[2]There is no Holy One like the LORD, no one besides you;
there is no Rock like our God.*
[3]Talk no more so very proudly; let not arrogance come from your mouth, for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.*
[4]The bows of the mighty are broken, but the feeble gird on strength.*
[5]Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry are fat with spoil.
The barren has borne seven, but she who has many children is forlorn.*
[6]The LORD kills and brings to life; he brings down to Sheol and raises up.*
[7]The LORD makes poor and makes rich; he brings low; he also exalts.*
[8]He raises up the poor from the dust; he lifts the needy from the ash heap to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor.

For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and on them he has set the world.*

9He will guard the feet of his faithful ones, but the wicked will perish in darkness, for not by might does one prevail.*
10The LORD! His adversaries will be shattered; the Most High[k] will thunder in heaven.
The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; he will give strength to his king and exalt the power of his anointed."*

ELI'S WICKED SONS

11 Then they left him there before the LORD and went[l] home to Ramah, while the boy remained to minister to the LORD in the presence of the priest Eli.*

12 Now the sons of Eli were scoundrels; they had no regard for the LORD* 13or for the duties of the priests to the people. When anyone offered sacrifice, the priest's servant would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand,* 14and he would thrust it into the pan, kettle, caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself.[m] This is what they did at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there. 15Moreover, before the fat was burned, the priest's servant would come and say to the one who was sacrificing, "Give meat for the priest to roast, for he will not accept boiled meat from you but only raw."* 16And if the man said to him, "Let them burn the fat first and then take whatever you wish," he would say, "No, you must give it now; if not, I will take it by force." 17Thus the sin of the young men was very great in the sight of the LORD, for they treated the offerings of the LORD with contempt.*

THE CHILD SAMUEL AT SHILOH

18 Samuel was ministering before the LORD, a boy wearing a linen ephod.* [19]His mother used to make for him a little robe and take it to him each year when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.* [20]Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, "May the LORD repay[n] you with children by this woman for the loan that she made to[o] the LORD," and then they would return to their home.*

21 And[p] the LORD took note of Hannah; she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.*

PROPHECY AGAINST ELI'S HOUSEHOLD

22 Now Eli was very old. He heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel and how they lay with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.* [23]He said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all these people. [24]No, my sons; it is not a good report that I hear the people of the LORD spreading abroad.* [25]If one person sins against another, someone can intercede for the sinner with the LORD,[q] but if someone sins against the LORD, who can make intercession?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for it was the will of the LORD to kill them.*

26 Now the boy Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the LORD and with the people.*

27 A man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus the LORD has said: I revealed[r] myself to the family of your ancestor in Egypt when they were slaves[s] to the house of Pharaoh.* [28]I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to offer incense, to wear an ephod before me, and I gave to the family of your ancestor all my offerings by fire[t] from the Israelites.* [29]Why then look[u] with greedy eye at my sacrifices and my offerings[v] and honor your sons more than me by fattening yourselves on the choicest parts of every offering of my people Israel?* [30]Therefore the LORD the God of Israel declares: I promised that your family and the family of your ancestor should go in and out before me forever, but now the LORD declares: Far be it from me, for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be treated with contempt.* [31]See, a time is coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your ancestor's family.[w,] [32]No one in your family shall ever live to old age.[] [33]The only one of you whom I shall not cut off from my altar shall be spared to weep out his[x] eyes and grieve his[y] heart; all the members of your household shall die by the sword.[z] [34]The fate of your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, shall be the sign to you: both of them shall die on the same day.[] [35]I will raise up for myself a faithful priest who shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind. I will build him a sure house, and he shall go in and out before my anointed one forever.[] [36]Everyone who is left in your family shall come and prostrate himself before him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread and shall say, 'Please put me in one of the priest's places, that I may eat a morsel of bread.' "[*]

1 Samuel 3

SAMUEL'S CALLING AND PROPHETIC ACTIVITY

1 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.*

2 At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room;* 3the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was.* 4Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!"[a] and he said, "Here I am!"* 5and ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. 6The LORD called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." 7Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.* 8The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy.
9Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down, and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.' " So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel!
Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening." 11Then the LORD said to Samuel, "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle.* 12On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.* 13For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God,[b] and he did not restrain them.* 14Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever."*

15 Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. 16But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." He said, "Here I am." 17Eli said,

"What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you."* 18So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, "It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him."*

19 As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.* 20And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD.* 21The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.*

1 Samuel 4

1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

THE ARK OF GOD CAPTURED

In those days the Philistines mustered for war against Israel,[c] and Israel went out to battle against them;[d] they encamped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines encamped at Aphek.* [2]The Philistines drew up in line against Israel, and when the battle was joined,[e] Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men on the field of battle. [3]When the troops came to the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD put us to rout today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD here from Shiloh, so that he may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies."* [4]So the people sent to Shiloh and brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned on the cherubim. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.*

5 When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel gave a mighty shout, so that the earth resounded.* [6]When the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, they said, "What does this great shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" When they learned that the ark of the LORD had come to the camp,* [7]the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "Gods have[f] come into the camp." They also said, "Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before. [8]Woe to us! Who can deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with every sort of plague in the wilderness. [9]Take courage, and be men, O Philistines, in order not to become slaves to the Hebrews as they have been to you; be men and fight."*

10 So the Philistines fought; Israel was defeated, and they fled, everyone to his home. There was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.* [11]The ark of God was captured, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.*

DEATH OF ELI

12 A man of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn and with earth upon his head.* [13]When he arrived, Eli was sitting upon his seat by the road watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man came into the city and told the news, all the city cried out.* [14]When Eli heard the sound of the outcry, he said, "What is this uproar?" Then the man came quickly and told Eli.
[15]Now Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were set, so that he could not see.* [16]The man said to Eli, "I have just come from the battle; I fled from the battle today." He said, "How did it go, my son?"* [17]The messenger replied, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has also been a great slaughter[g] among the troops; your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured." [18]When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli[h] fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate, and his neck was broken, and he died, for he was an old man and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.*

19 Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant, about to give birth. When she heard the news that the ark of God was captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed and gave birth, for her labor pains overwhelmed her. [20]As she was about to die, the women attending her said to her, "Do not be afraid, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer or give heed.* [21]She named the child Ichabod, meaning, "The glory has departed from Israel," because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband. [22]She said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured."*

1 Samuel 5

THE PHILISTINES AND THE ARK

1 When the Philistines captured the ark of God, they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod;* 2then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon and placed it beside Dagon.* 3When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and put him back in his place.* 4But when they rose early on the next morning, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD, and the head of Dagon and both his hands were lying cut off upon the threshold; only the trunk of[i] Dagon was left to him.* 5This is why the priests of Dagon and all who enter the house of Dagon do not step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

6 The hand of the LORD was heavy upon the people of Ashdod, and he terrified and struck them with tumors, both in Ashdod and in its territory.*
7And when the inhabitants of Ashdod saw how things were, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for his hand is heavy on us and on our god Dagon." 8So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" The inhabitants of Gath replied, "Let the ark of God be moved on to us."[j] So they moved the ark of the God of Israel to Gath.[k,] 9But after they had brought it to Gath,[l] the hand of the LORD was against the city, causing a very great panic; he struck the inhabitants of the city, both young and old, so that tumors broke out on them. 10So they sent the ark of the God of Israel[m] to Ekron. But when the ark of God came to Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "Why[n] have they brought around to us[o] the ark of the God of Israel to kill us and our[p] people?" 11They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, that it may not kill us and our[q] people." For there was a deathly panic throughout the whole city. The hand of God was very heavy there;* 12those who did not die were stricken with tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6

THE ARK RETURNED TO ISRAEL

1 The ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.
2 Then the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us what we should send with it to its place."* 3 They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty, but by all means return it with a guilt offering. Then you will be healed and forgiven;[r] will not his hand then turn from you?"* 4 And they said, "What is the guilt offering that we shall send to him?" They answered, "Five gold tumors and five gold mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines, for the same plague was upon all of you and upon your lords.* 5 So you must make images of your tumors and images of your mice that ravage the land and give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps he will lighten his hand on you and your gods and your land.* 6 Why should you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts?
After he had made fools of them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?* 7 Now then, get ready a new cart and two milch cows that have never borne a yoke, and yoke the cows to the cart, but take their calves home, away from them.* 8 Take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart, and put in a box at its side the figures of gold that you are sending to him as a guilt offering. Then send it off, and let it go its way.* 9 And watch: if it goes up on the way to its own land, to Beth-shemesh, then it is he who has done us this great harm; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance."*

10 The men did so; they took two milch cows and yoked them to the cart and shut up their calves at home. 11 They put the ark of the LORD on the cart and the box with the gold mice and the images of their tumors. 12 The cows went straight in the direction of Beth-shemesh along one highway, lowing as they went; they turned neither to the right nor to the left, and the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the border of Beth-shemesh.*

13 Now the people of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. When they looked up and saw the ark, they went with rejoicing to meet it.[s] 14The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh and stopped there. A large stone was there; so they split up the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.* 15The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box beside it in which were the gold objects and set them on the large stone. Then the people of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and presented sacrifices on that day to the LORD. 16When the five lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned that day to Ekron.*

17 These are the gold tumors that the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;* 18also the gold mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and unwalled villages. The great stone, beside which they set down the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh.*

THE ARK AT KIRIATH-JEARIM

19 The descendants of Jeconiah did not rejoice with the people of Beth-shemesh when they greeted[t] the ark of the LORD, and he killed seventy men of them.[u] The people mourned because the LORD had made a great slaughter among the people.* 20Then the people of Beth-shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? To whom shall he go so that we may be rid of him?"* 21So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to you."*

1 Samuel 7

1 And the people of Kiriath-jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill. They consecrated his son, Eleazar, to have charge of the ark of the LORD.*

2 From the day that the ark was lodged at Kiriath-jearim, a long time passed, some twenty years, and all the house of Israel lamented[v] after the LORD.

SAMUEL AS JUDGE

3 Then Samuel said to all the house of Israel, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Astartes from among you. Direct your heart to the LORD and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines."* 4So Israel put away the Baals and the Astartes, and they served the LORD only.

5 Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you."* 6So they gathered at Mizpah and drew water and poured it out before the LORD. They fasted that day and said, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the Israelites at Mizpah.*

7 When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the Israelites heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines.* 8The Israelites said to Samuel, "Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, and pray that he may save us from the hand of the Philistines."* 9So Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD; Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.* 10As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to attack Israel, but the LORD thundered with a mighty voice that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion, and they were routed before Israel.* 11And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines and struck them down as far as beyond Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Jeshanah[w] and named it Ebenezer,[x] for he said, "Thus far the LORD has helped us.”* 13So the Philistines were subdued and did not again enter the territory of Israel; the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.* 14The towns that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath, and Israel recovered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.

15 Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.* 16He went on a circuit year by year to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and he judged Israel in all these places. 17Then he would come back to Ramah, for his home was there; he administered justice there to Israel and built there an altar to the LORD.*

1 Samuel 8

ISRAEL DEMANDS A KING

1 When Samuel became old, he made his sons judges over Israel.* [2]The name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second was Abijah; they were judges in Beer-sheba. [3]Yet his sons did not follow in his ways but turned aside after gain; they took bribes and perverted justice.*

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah* [5]and said to him, "You are old, and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us, then, a king to govern us, like other nations."* [6]But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to govern us." Samuel prayed to the LORD,* [7]and the LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you, for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them.* [8]Just as they have done to me[y] from the day I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so also they are doing to you. [9]Now then, listen to their voice; only, you shall solemnly warn them and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them."*

10 So Samuel reported all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king. [11]He said, "These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots,* [12]and he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots.* [13]He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. [14]He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his courtiers.*
[15]He will take one-tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and his courtiers. [16]He will take your male and female slaves and the best of your cattle[z] and donkeys and put them to his work. [17]He will take one-tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves. [18]And on that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you on that day."*

ISRAEL'S REQUEST FOR A KING GRANTED

19 But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; they said, "No! We are determined to have a king over us, [20]so that we also may be like other nations and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles."* [21]When Samuel heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the ears of the LORD. [22]The LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice and set a king over them." Samuel then said to the Israelites, "Each of you return home."*

1 Samuel 9

SAUL CHOSEN TO BE KING

1 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish son of Abiel son of Zeror son of Becorath son of Aphiah, a Benjaminite, a man of wealth.* [2]He had a son whose name was Saul, a handsome young man. There was not a man among the Israelites more handsome than he; he stood head and shoulders above everyone else.*

3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, had strayed. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the young men with you; go and look for the donkeys." [4]He passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of Benjamin, but they did not find them.*

5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to the young man who was with him, "Let us turn back, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and worry about us."* [6]But he said to him, "There is a man of God in this town; he is a man held in honor. Whatever he says always comes true. Let us go there now; perhaps he will tell us about the journey on which we have set out."* [7]Then Saul replied to the young man, "But if we go, what can we bring the man? For the bread in our sacks is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What have we?"* [8]The young man answered Saul again, "Here, I have with me a quarter shekel of silver; I will give it to the man of God, to tell us our way." [9](Formerly in Israel, anyone who went to inquire of God would say, "Come, let us go to the seer," for the one who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)* [10]Saul said to the young man, "Good; come, let us go." So they went to the town where the man of God was.

11 As they went up the hill to the town, they met some young women coming out to draw water and said to them, "Is the seer here?"* [12]They answered, "Yes, there he is just ahead of you. Hurry; he has come just now to the town because the people have a sacrifice today at the shrine.* [13]As soon as you enter the town, you will meet him before he goes up to the shrine to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, since he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those eat who are invited. Now go up, for you will meet him immediately." [14]So they went up to the town. As they were entering the town, they saw Samuel coming out toward them on his way up to the shrine.

15 Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed to Samuel: [16]"Tomorrow about this time I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be ruler over my people Israel. He shall save my people from the hand of the Philistines, for I have seen the suffering of[a] my people, because their outcry has come to me."* [17]When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, "Here is the man of whom I spoke to you. He it is who shall rule over my people."* [18]Then Saul approached Samuel inside the gate and said, "Tell me, please, where is the house of the seer?" [19]Samuel answered Saul, "I am the seer; go up before me to the shrine, for today you shall eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is on your mind. [20]As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, give no further thought to them, for they have been found. And on whom is all Israel's desire fixed, if not on you and on all your ancestral house?"* [21]Saul answered, "I am only a Benjaminite, from the least of the tribes of Israel, and my family is the humblest of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Why then have you spoken to me in this way?"*

22 Then Samuel took Saul and the young man and brought them into the hall and gave them a place at the head of those who had been invited, of whom there were about thirty. [23]And Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion I gave you, the one I asked you to put aside." [24]The cook took up the upper thigh[b] and set it before Saul. Samuel said, "See, what was reserved is set before you. Eat, for it was kept for you for this appointed time, so that you might eat with the guests."[c]

So Saul ate with Samuel that day.* [25]When they came down from the shrine into the town, a bed was spread for Saul[d] on the roof, and he lay down to sleep.[e,*] [26]Then at the break of dawn[f] Samuel called to Saul upon the roof, "Get up, so that I may send you on your way." Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.

SAMUEL ANOINTS SAUL

27 As they were going down to the outskirts of the town, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the young man to go on before us, and when he has passed on, stop here yourself for a while, that I may make known to you the word of God.”

1 Samuel 10

1 Samuel took a vial of oil and poured it on his head and kissed him; he said, "The LORD has anointed you ruler over his people Israel. You shall reign over the people of the LORD, and you will save them from the hand of their enemies all around. Now this shall be the sign to you that the LORD has anointed you ruler[g] over his heritage:* [2]When you depart from me today you will meet two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; they will say to you, 'The donkeys that you went to seek are found, and now your father has stopped worrying about them and is worrying about you, saying: "What shall I do about my son?" '* [3]Then you shall go on from there further and come to the oak of Tabor; three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there: one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.* [4]They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall accept from them. [5]After that you shall come to Gibeath-elohim,[h] at the place where the Philistine garrison is; there, as you come to the town, you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the shrine with harp, tambourine, flute, and lyre playing in front of them; they will be in a prophetic frenzy.* [6]Then the spirit of the LORD will possess you, and you will be in a prophetic frenzy along with them and be turned into a different person.* [7]Now when these signs meet you, do whatever you see fit to do, for God is with you.* [8]And you shall go down to Gilgal ahead of me; then I will come down to you to present burnt offerings and offer sacrifices of well-being. Seven days you shall wait, until I come to you and show you what you shall do."*

SAUL PROPHESIES

9 As he turned away to leave Samuel, God gave him another heart, and all these signs were fulfilled that day.* [10]When they were going from there to Gibeah,[i] a band of prophets met him, and the spirit of God possessed him, and he fell into a prophetic frenzy along with them.* [11]When all who knew him before saw how he prophesied with the prophets, the people said to one another, "What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"* 12A man of the place answered, "And who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" 13When his prophetic frenzy had ended, he went home.[j] 14 Saul's uncle said to him and to the young man, "Where did you go?" And he replied, "To seek the donkeys, and when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel." 15Saul's uncle said, "Tell me what Samuel said to you." 16Saul said to his uncle, "He told us that the donkeys had been found." But about the matter of the kingship, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him anything.*

SAUL PROCLAIMED KING

17 Samuel summoned the people to the LORD at Mizpah* 18and said to the Israelites, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.'* 19But today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses, and you have said, 'No, but set a king over us.' Now, therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans."*

20 Then Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot.* 21He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of the Matrites was taken by lot. Finally he brought the family of the Matrites near man by man,[k] and Saul the son of Kish was taken by lot. But when they sought him, he could not be found. 22So they inquired again of the LORD, "Did the man come here?"[l] And the LORD said, "See, he has hidden himself among the baggage."* 23Then they ran and brought him from there. When he took his stand among the people, he was head and shoulders taller than any of them.* 24Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the one whom the LORD has chosen? There is no one like him among all the people." And all the people shouted, "Long live the king!"*

25 Samuel told the people the rights and duties of the kingship, and he wrote them in a book and laid it up before the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people back to their homes.* 26Saul also went to his home at Gibeah, and with him went warriors whose hearts God had touched.* 27But some worthless fellows said, “How can this man save us?” They despised him and brought him no present. But he held his peace.

Now Nahash, king of the Ammonites, had been grievously oppressing the Gadites and the Reubenites. He would gouge out the right eye of each of them and would not grant Israel a deliverer. No one was left of the Israelites across the Jordan whose right eye Nahash, king of the Ammonites, had not gouged out. But there were seven thousand men who had escaped from the Ammonites and had entered Jabesh-gilead.[m,*]

1 Samuel 11

SAUL DEFEATS THE AMMONITES

1 About a month later,[n] Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh-gilead, and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you."* [2]But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will make a treaty with you, namely, that I gouge out everyone's right eye and thus put disgrace upon all Israel."* [3]The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days' respite that we may send messengers through all the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will give ourselves up to you." [4]When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, they reported the matter in the hearing of the people, and all the people wept aloud.*

5 Now Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen, and Saul said, "What is the matter with the people, that they are weeping?" So they told him the message from the inhabitants of Jabesh. [6]And the spirit of God came upon Saul in power when he heard these words, and his anger was greatly kindled.* [7]He took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the messengers, saying, "Whoever does not come out after Saul and Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen!" Then the dread of the LORD fell upon the people, and they came out as one.* [8]When he mustered them at Bezek, those from Israel were three hundred thousand and those from Judah seventy[o] thousand.* [9]They said to the messengers who had come, "Thus shall you say to the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead: Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance." When the messengers came and told the inhabitants of Jabesh, they rejoiced. [10]So the inhabitants of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will give ourselves up to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you."* [11]The next day Saul put the people in three companies. At the morning watch they came into the camp and cut down the Ammonites until the heat of the day, and those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.*

12 The people said to Samuel, "Who is it that said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Give them to us so that we may put them to death."* [13]But Saul said, "No one shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has brought deliverance to Israel."*

14 Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and there renew the kingship."* [15]So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they sacrificed offerings of well-being before the LORD, and there Saul and all the Israelites rejoiced greatly.*

1 Samuel 12

SAMUEL'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

1 Samuel said to all Israel, "I have listened to you in all that you have said to me and have set a king over you.* [2]See, it is the king who leads you now; I am old and gray, but my sons are with you. I have led you from my youth until this day.* [3]Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? Testify against me,[p] and I will restore it to you."* [4]They said, "You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from the hand of anyone." [5]He said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." And they said, "He is witness."*

6 Samuel said to the people, "The LORD is witness, who[q] appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your ancestors up out of the land of Egypt.*
[7]Now, therefore, take your stand so that I may enter into judgment with you before the LORD, and I will declare to you[r] all the righteous acts of the LORD that he performed for you and for your ancestors.* [8]When Jacob went into Egypt and the Egyptians oppressed them,[s] then your ancestors cried to the LORD, and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your ancestors out of Egypt and settled them in this place.* [9]But they forgot the LORD their God, and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of King Jabin of[t] Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.* [10]Then they cried to the LORD and said, 'We have sinned, for we have forsaken the LORD and have served the Baals and the Astartes, but now rescue us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.'* [11]And the LORD sent Jerubbaal and Barak,[u] and Jephthah, and Samson[v] and rescued you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you lived in safety.* [12]But when you saw that King Nahash of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us,' though the LORD your God was your king.* [13]See, here is the king whom you have chosen, for whom you have asked; see, the LORD has set a king over you.* 14If you will fear the LORD and serve him and heed his voice and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God, it will be well;* 15but if you will not heed the voice of the LORD but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you and your king.w,* 16Now, therefore, take your stand and see this great thing that the LORD will do before your eyes.* 17Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call upon the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain, and you shall know and see that the wickedness that you have done in the sight of the LORD is great in demanding a king for yourselves."* 18So Samuel called upon the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day, and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.*

19 All the people said to Samuel, "Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so that we may not die, for we have added to all our sins the evil of demanding a king for ourselves."* 20And Samuel said to the people, "Do not be afraid; you have done all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart, 21and do not turn aside after useless things that cannot profit or save, for they are useless.* 22For the LORD will not cast away his people, for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people for himself.* 23Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you, and I will instruct you in the good and the right way.* 24Only fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart, for consider what great things he has done for you.* 25But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king."*

SAUL'S UNLAWFUL SACRIFICE

1 Saul was . . .[x] years old when he began to reign, and he reigned . . . and two[y] years over Israel.

2 Saul chose three thousand out of Israel; two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin; the rest of the people he sent home to their tents.[] [3]Jonathan defeated the garrison of the Philistines that was at Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"[] [4]When all Israel heard that Saul had defeated the garrison of the Philistines and also that Israel had become odious to the Philistines, the people were called out to join Saul at Gilgal.

5 The Philistines mustered to fight with Israel: thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and troops like the sand on the seashore in multitude; they came up and encamped at Michmash, to the east of Bethaven.[] [6]When the Israelites saw that they were in distress (for the troops were hard pressed), the people hid themselves in caves and in holes and in rocks and in tombs and in cisterns.[] [7]Some Hebrews crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 He waited seven days, the time appointed by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people began to slip away from Saul.[z,] [9]So Saul said, "Bring the burnt offering here to me and the offerings of well-being." And he offered the burnt offering.[] [10]As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to meet him and salute him.[] [11]Samuel said, "What have you done?" Saul replied, "When I saw that the people were slipping away from me and that you did not come within the days appointed and that the Philistines were mustering at Michmash,[] [12]I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down upon me at Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favor of the LORD,' so I forced myself and offered the burnt offering." [13]Samuel said to Saul, "You have done foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which he commanded you. The LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever,* 14but now your kingdom will not continue; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart, and the LORD has appointed him to be ruler over his people because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you."* 15And Samuel left and went on his way from Gilgal.[a] The rest of the people followed Saul to join the army; they went up from Gilgal toward Gibeah of Benjamin.[b]

PREPARATIONS FOR BATTLE

Saul counted the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.* 16Saul, his son Jonathan, and the people who were present with them stayed in Geba of Benjamin, but the Philistines encamped at Michmash. 17And raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies; one company turned toward Ophrah to the land of Shual,* 18another company turned toward Beth-horon, and another company turned toward the mountain[c] that looks down upon the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.*

19 Now there was no smith to be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "The Hebrews must not make swords or spears for themselves,"* 20so all the Israelites went down to the Philistines to sharpen their plowshares, mattocks, axes, or sickles.[d] 21The charge was two-thirds of a shekel[e] for the plowshares and for the mattocks and one-third of a shekel for sharpening the axes and for setting the goads.[f] 22So on the day of the battle neither sword nor spear was to be found in the possession of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan, but Saul and his son Jonathan had them.*

JONATHAN SURPRISES AND ROUTS THE PHILISTINES

23 Now a garrison of the Philistines had gone out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Samuel 14

1 One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man who carried his armor, “Come, let us go over to the Philistine garrison on the other side.” But he did not tell his father. 2Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that is at Migron; the troops who were with him were about six hundred men,* 3along with Ahijah son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, son of Phinehas son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, carrying an ephod. Now the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.*
4In the pass[g] by which Jonathan tried to go over to the Philistine garrison there was a rocky crag on one side and a rocky crag on the other; the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other was Seneh.* 5One crag rose on the north in front of Michmash and the other on the south in front of Geba.

6 Jonathan said to the young man who carried his armor, “Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will act for us, for nothing can hinder the LORD from saving by many or by few.”* 7His armor-bearer said to him, “Do all that your mind inclines to.[h] I am with you; as your mind is, so is mine.”[i] 8Then Jonathan said, “Now we will cross over to those men and will show ourselves to them. 9If they say to us, ‘Wait until we come to you,’ then we will stand still in our place, and we will not go up to them. 10But if they say, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up, for the LORD has given them into our hand. That will be the sign for us.”* 11So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, and the Philistines said, “Look, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves.”* 12The men of the garrison hailed Jonathan and his armor-bearer, saying, “Come up to us, and we will show you something.” Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, “Come up after me, for the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel.”* 13Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer following after him. The Philistines[j] fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer coming after him killed them. 14In that first attack Jonathan and his armor-bearer killed about twenty men within an area about half a furrow long in an acre[k] of land. 15There was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison and even the raiders trembled; the earth quaked; and it became a very great panic.*

16 Saul's lookouts in Gibeah of Benjamin were watching as the multitude was surging back and forth.[l,] [17]Then Saul said to the troops who were with him, "Call the roll and see who has gone from us." When they called the roll, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there. [18]Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For at that time the ark of God went with the Israelites. [19]While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the camp of the Philistines increased more and more, and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand." [20]Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and went into the battle, and every sword was against the other, so that there was very great confusion.* [21]Now the Hebrews who previously had been with the Philistines and had gone up with them into the camp turned and joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. [22]Likewise, when all the Israelites who had gone into hiding in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they also followed closely after them in the battle.* [23]So the LORD gave Israel the victory that day.

The battle passed beyond Beth-aven, and the troops with Saul numbered altogether about ten thousand men.[m] The battle spread out over the hill country of Ephraim.*

SAUL'S RASH OATH

24 Now Saul committed a very rash act on that day.[n] He had laid an oath on the troops, saying, "Cursed be anyone who eats food before it is evening and I have been avenged on my enemies." So none of the troops tasted food.* [25]All the troops[o] came upon a honeycomb, and there was honey on the ground. [26]When the troops came upon the honeycomb, the honey was dripping out, but they did not put their hands to their mouths, for they feared the oath. [27]But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the troops with the oath, so he extended the staff that was in his hand and dipped the tip of it in the honeycomb and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.* [28]Then one of the soldiers said, "Your father strictly charged the troops with an oath, saying, 'Cursed be anyone who eats food this day.' And so the troops are faint." [29]Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land; see how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.* 30How much better if today the troops had eaten freely of the spoil taken from their enemies, for now the defeat of the Philistines has not been great."

31 After they had struck down the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon, the troops were very faint, 32so the troops flew upon the spoil and took sheep and oxen and calves and slaughtered them on the ground, and the troops ate them with the blood.* 33Then it was reported to Saul, "Look, the troops are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood." And he said, "You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone before me here."[p] 34Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the troops and say to them: Let all bring their oxen or their sheep, and slaughter them here and eat, and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood." So all of the troops brought their oxen with them that night and slaughtered them there. 35And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.*

JONATHAN IN DANGER OF DEATH

36 Then Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and despoil them until the morning light; let us not leave one of them." They said, "Do whatever seems good to you." But the priest said, "Let us draw near to God here." 37So Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into the hand of Israel?" But he did not answer him that day.* 38Saul said, "Come here, all you leaders of the people, and let us find out how this sin has arisen today.* 39For as the LORD lives who saves Israel, even if it is in my son Jonathan, he shall surely die!" But there was no one among all the people who answered him.* 40He said to all Israel, "You shall be on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side." The people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you." 41Then Saul said, "O LORD God of Israel, why have you not answered your servant today? If this guilt is in me or in my son Jonathan, O LORD God of Israel, give Urim, but if this guilt is in your people Israel,[q] give Thummim." And Jonathan and Saul were indicated by the lot, but the people were cleared.* 42Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan." And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” Jonathan told him, “I tasted a little honey with the tip of the staff that was in my hand; here I am; I will die.”* 44Saul said, “God do so to me and more also; you shall surely die, Jonathan!”* 45Then the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great victory in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God today.” So the people ransomed Jonathan, and he did not die.* 46Then Saul withdrew from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

SAUL’S CONTINUING WARS

47 When Saul had taken the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side: against Moab, against the Ammonites, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; wherever he turned he routed them.* 48He did valiantly and struck down the Amalekites and rescued Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them.*

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua, and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn was Merab, and the name of the younger was Michal.* 50The name of Saul’s wife was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner son of Ner, Saul’s uncle;* 51Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.*

52 There was hard fighting against the Philistines all the days of Saul, and when Saul saw any strong or valiant warrior, he took him into his service.*

1 Samuel 15

SAUL DEFEATS THE AMALEKITES BUT SPARES THEIR KING

1 Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you king over his people Israel; now therefore listen to the words of the LORD.* [2]Thus says the LORD of hosts: I will punish the Amalekites for what they did in opposing the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt.* [3]Now go and attack Amalek and utterly destroy all that they have; do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey."*

4 So Saul summoned the people and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand soldiers of Judah. [5]Saul came to the city of the Amalekites and lay in wait in the valley. [6]Saul said to the Kenites, "Go! Leave! Withdraw from among the Amalekites, or I will destroy you with them, for you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites withdrew from the Amalekites.*
[7]Saul defeated the Amalekites, from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt.* [8]He took King Agag of the Amalekites alive but utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.* [9]Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep and of the cattle and of the fatted calves,[r] and the lambs, and all that was valuable and would not utterly destroy them; all that was despised and worthless they utterly destroyed.*

SAUL REJECTED AS KING

10 The word of the LORD came to Samuel: [11]"I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned back from following me and has not carried out my commands." Samuel was angry, and he cried out to the LORD all night.*
[12]Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, and Samuel was told, "Saul went to Carmel, where he set up a monument for himself, and on returning he passed on down to Gilgal."* [13]When Samuel came to Saul, Saul said to him, "May you be blessed by the LORD; I have carried out the command of the LORD."* [14]But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears and the lowing of cattle that I hear?" [15]Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites, for the people spared the best of the sheep and the cattle to sacrifice to the LORD your God, but the rest we have utterly destroyed."* 16Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stop! I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night." He replied, "Speak."

17 Samuel said, "Though you are little in your own eyes, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.* 18And the LORD sent you on a mission and said, 'Go, utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.'* 19Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil and do what was evil in the sight of the LORD?"* 20Saul said to Samuel, "I have obeyed the voice of the LORD. I have gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me. I have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.* 21But from the spoil the people took sheep and cattle, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."* 22And Samuel said,

"Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obedience to the voice of the LORD?
Surely, to obey is better than sacrifice and to heed than the fat of rams.*
23For rebellion is no less a sin than divination, and stubbornness is like iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king."*

24 Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.* 25Now therefore, I pray, pardon my sin, and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD." 26Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."* 27As Samuel turned to go away, Saul caught hold of the hem of his robe, and it tore.* 28And Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this very day and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you.* 29Moreover, the Glory of Israel will not deceive or change his mind, for he is not a mortal, that he should change his mind."* 30Then Saul[s] said, "I have sinned; yet honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God."* 31So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

32 Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me." And Agag came to him haltingly.[t] Agag said, "Surely death is bitter."[u] 33Samuel said,

"As your sword has made women childless, so your mother shall be childless among women."

And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.*

34 Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul.* 35Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD was sorry that he had made Saul king over Israel.*

1 Samuel 16

DAVID ANOINTED AS KING

1 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul? I have rejected him from being king over Israel. Fill your horn with oil and set out; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons."* [2]Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me." And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'* [3]Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do, and you shall anoint for me the one whom I name to you."* [4]Samuel did what the LORD commanded and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling and said, "Do you come peaceably?"* [5]He said, "Peaceably. I have come to sacrifice to the LORD; sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.*

6 When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, "Surely his anointed is now before the LORD."* [7]But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him, for the LORD does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart."* [8]Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. He said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."* [9]Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."* [10]Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, and Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen any of these." [11]Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all your sons here?" And he said, "There remains yet the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him, for we will not sit down until he comes here."* [12]He sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy and had beautiful eyes and was handsome. The LORD said, "Rise and anoint him, for this is the one."* [13]Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. Samuel then set out and went to Ramah.*

DAVID PLAYS THE LYRE FOR SAUL

14 Now the spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.* 15And Saul's servants said to him, "See now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you. 16Let our lord now command the servants who attend you to look for someone who is skillful in playing the lyre, and when the evil spirit from God is upon you, he will play it, and you will feel better."* 17So Saul said to his servants, "Provide for me someone who can play well, and bring him to me." 18One of the young men answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skillful in playing, a man of valor, a warrior, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence, and the LORD is with him."* 19So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep." 20Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a kid and sent them by his son David to Saul.* 21And David came to Saul and entered his service.
Saul[v] loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer.* 22Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David remain in my service, for he has found favor in my sight." 23And whenever the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, David took the lyre and played it with his hand, and Saul would be relieved and feel better, and the evil spirit would depart from him.*

1 Samuel 17

DAVID AND GOLIATH

1 Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; they were gathered at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.* [2]Saul and the Israelites gathered and encamped in the valley of Elah and formed ranks against the Philistines.* [3]The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with a valley between them. [4]And there came out from the camp of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was four[w] cubits and a span.* [5]He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze. [6]He had greaves of bronze on his legs and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders.* [7]The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron, and his shield-bearer went before him.* [8]He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose[x] a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.* [9]If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants, but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us." [10]And the Philistine said, "Today I defy the ranks of Israel! Give me a man, that we may fight together."* [11]When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah named Jesse, who had eight sons. In the days of Saul the man was already old and advanced in years.[y],* [13]The three eldest sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle; the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.*
[14]David was the youngest; the three eldest followed Saul, [15]but David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.* [16]For forty days the Philistine came forward and took his stand, morning and evening.

17 Jesse said to his son David, “Take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers; [18]also take these ten cheeses to the commander of their thousand. See how your brothers fare, and bring some token from them.”*

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah fighting with the Philistines. [20]David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, took the provisions, and went as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the encampment as the army was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry. [21]Israel and the Philistines drew up for battle, army against army. [22]David left the things in charge of the keeper of the baggage, ran to the ranks, and went and greeted his brothers. [23]As he talked with them, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines and spoke the same words as before. And David heard him.*

24 All the Israelites, when they saw the man, fled from him and were very much afraid. [25]The Israelites said, “Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel. The king will greatly enrich the man who kills him and will give him his daughter and make his family free in Israel.”* [26]David said to the men who stood by him, “What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?”* [27]The people answered him in the same way, “So shall it be done for the man who kills him.”*

28 His eldest brother Eliab heard him talking to the men, and Eliab’s anger was kindled against David. He said, “Why have you come down?
With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption and the evil of your heart, for you have come down just to see the battle.”* [29]David said, “What have I done now? It was only a question.”* [30]He turned away from him toward another and spoke in the same way, and the people answered him again as before.*

31 When the words that David spoke were heard, they repeated them before Saul, and he sent for him. [32]David said to Saul, “Let no one’s heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.”* [33]Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him, for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth.”

[34]But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep sheep for his father, and whenever a lion or a bear came and took a lamb from the flock, [35]I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth, and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. [36]Your servant has killed both lions and bears, and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.” [37]David said, “The LORD, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” So Saul said to David, “Go, and may the LORD be with you!”*

38 Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. [39]David strapped Saul’s sword over the armor, and he tried in vain to walk, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, “I cannot walk with these, for I am not used to them.” So David removed them. [40]Then he took his staff in his hand and chose five smooth stones from the wadi and put them in his shepherd’s bag, in the pouch; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. [42]When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance.* [43]The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.* [44]The Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.”* [45]But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.* [46]This very day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head, and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel* [47]and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword and spear, for the battle is the LORD’s, and he will give you into our hand.”*

48 When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. [49]David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, striking down the Philistine and killing him; there was no sword in David's hand. [51]Then David ran and stood over the Philistine; he grasped his sword, drew it out of its sheath, and killed him; then he cut off his head with it.

When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.* [52]The troops of Israel and Judah rose up with a shout and pursued the Philistines as far as Gath[z] and the gates of Ekron, so that the wounded Philistines fell on the way from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron.* [53]The Israelites came back from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camp. [54]David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.

55 When Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?" Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."* [56]The king said, "Inquire whose son the young man is." [57]On David's return from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.* [58]Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."*

1 Samuel 18

JONATHAN'S COVENANT WITH DAVID

1 When David[a] had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.* [2]Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father's house.* [3]Then Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as his own soul. [4]Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that he was wearing and gave it to David and his armor and even his sword and his bow and his belt. [5]David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; as a result, Saul set him over the army. And all the people, even the servants of Saul, approved.

6 As they were coming home, when David returned from killing the Philistine, the women came out of all the towns of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with songs of joy, and with musical instruments.[b,]* [7]And the women sang to one another as they made merry,

"Saul has killed his thousands and David his ten thousands."*

[8]Saul was very angry, for this saying displeased him. He said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands; what more can he have but the kingdom?"* [9]So Saul eyed David from that day on.

SAUL TRIES TO KILL DAVID

10 The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day.
Saul had his spear in his hand,* [11]and Saul threw the spear, for he thought,
"I will pin David to the wall." But David eluded him twice.*

12 Saul was afraid of David because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul.* [13]So Saul removed him from his presence and made him a commander of a thousand, and David marched out and came in, leading the army.* [14]David had success in all his undertakings, for the LORD was with him.* 15When Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him. 16But all Israel and Judah loved David, for it was he who marched out and came in leading them.*

DAVID MARRIES MICHAL

17 Then Saul said to David, "Here is my elder daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife; only be valiant for me and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "I will not raise a hand against him; let the Philistines deal with him."* 18David said to Saul, "Who am I, and who are my kinsfolk, my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"* 19But at the time when Saul's daughter Merab should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.*

20 Now Saul's daughter Michal loved David. Saul was told, and the thing pleased him.* 21Saul thought, "Let me give her to him that she may be a snare for him and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David a second time,[c] "You shall now be my son-in-law."* 22Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David in private and say, 'See, the king is delighted with you, and all his servants love you; now then, become the king's son-in-law.' " 23So Saul's servants reported these words to David in private. And David said, "Does it seem to you a little thing to become the king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and of no repute?" 24The servants of Saul told him, "This is what David said." 25Then Saul said, "Thus shall you say to David, 'The king desires no marriage present except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that he may be avenged on the king's enemies.' " Now Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.* 26When his servants told David these words, David was well pleased to be the king's son-in-law. Before the time had expired,* 27David rose and went, along with his men, and killed one hundred[d] of the Philistines, and David brought their foreskins, which were given in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. Saul gave him his daughter Michal as a wife.* 28But when Saul realized that the LORD was with David and that Saul's daughter Michal loved him, 29Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul was David's enemy from that time forward.

30 Then the commanders of the Philistines came out to battle, and as often as they came out, David had more success than all the servants of Saul, so that his fame became very great.*

1 Samuel 19

JONATHAN INTERCEDES FOR DAVID

1 Saul spoke with his son Jonathan and with all his servants about killing David. But Saul's son Jonathan took great delight in David.* [2]Jonathan told David, "My father Saul is trying to kill you; therefore be on guard tomorrow morning; stay in a secret place and hide yourself. [3]I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak to my father about you; if I learn anything I will tell you."* [4]Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul, saying to him, "The king should not sin against his servant David, because he has not sinned against you and because his deeds have been of good service to you,* [5]for he took his life in his hand when he attacked the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced; why then will you sin against an innocent person by killing David without cause?"* [6]Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan; Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death." [7]So Jonathan called David and related all these things to him.
Jonathan then brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.*

MICHAL HELPS DAVID ESCAPE FROM SAUL

8 Again there was war, and David went out to fight the Philistines. He launched a heavy attack on them, so that they fled before him. [9]Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand, while David was playing music.* [10]Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he eluded Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped that night.*

11 Saul sent messengers to David's house to keep watch over him, planning to kill him in the morning. David's wife Michal told him, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." [12]So Michal let David down through the window; he fled away and escaped.* [13]Michal took an idol[e] and laid it on the bed; she put a net[f] of goats' hair on its head and covered it with the clothes. [14]When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, “He is sick.”* 15Then Saul sent the messengers to see David for themselves. He said, “Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.” 16When the messengers came in, the idol[g] was in the bed, with the covering[h] of goats’ hair on its head. 17Saul said to Michal, “Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?” Michal answered Saul, “He said to me, ‘Let me go; why should I kill you?’ ”

DAVID JOINS SAMUEL IN RAMAH

18 Now David fled and escaped; he came to Samuel at Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. He and Samuel went and settled at Naioth.* 19Saul was told, “David is at Naioth in Ramah.” 20Then Saul sent messengers to take David. When they saw the company of the prophets in a frenzy, with Samuel standing in charge of[i] them, the spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also fell into a prophetic frenzy.* 21When Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they also fell into a frenzy. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also fell into a frenzy. 22Then he himself went to Ramah. He came to the great well that is in Secu; he asked, “Where are Samuel and David?” And someone said, “They are at Naioth in Ramah.” 23He went there, toward Naioth in Ramah, and the spirit of God came upon him. As he was going, he fell into a prophetic frenzy, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.* 24He, too, stripped off his clothes, and he, too, fell into a frenzy before Samuel. He lay naked all that day and all that night. Therefore it is said, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 20

THE FRIENDSHIP OF DAVID AND JONATHAN

1 David fled from Naioth in Ramah. He came before Jonathan and said, "What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin against your father that he is trying to take my life?"* [2]He said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. My father does nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me, and why should my father hide this from me? Never!" [3]But David also swore, "Your father knows well that you like me, and he thinks, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, or he will be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, there is but a step between me and death." [4]Then Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you." [5]David said to Jonathan, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at the meal, but let me go, so that I may hide in the field until the third evening.* [6]If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city, for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'* [7]If he says, 'Good!' it will be well with your servant, but if he is angry, then know that evil has been determined by him. [8]Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a sacred covenant[j] with you. But if there is guilt in me, kill me yourself; why should you bring me to your father?"* [9]Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! If I knew that it was decided by my father that evil should come upon you, would I not tell you?" [10]Then David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?" [11]Jonathan replied to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." So they both went out into the field.

12 Jonathan said to David, "By the LORD, the God of Israel! When I have sounded out my father, about this time tomorrow or on the third day, if he is well disposed toward David, shall I not then send and disclose it to you?
[13]But if my father intends to do you harm, the LORD do so to Jonathan and more also, if I do not disclose it to you and send you away, so that you may go in safety. May the LORD be with you, as he has been with my father.*
[14]If I am still alive, show me the faithful love of the LORD, but if I die,[k] [15]never

cut off your faithful love from my house, even if the LORD were to cut off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth."* 16Thus Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "May the LORD seek out the enemies of David." 17Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him, for he loved him as he loved his own life.*

18 Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon; you will be missed because your place will be empty.* 19On the day after tomorrow, you shall go a long way down; go to the place where you hid yourself earlier, and remain beside the stone there.[l],* 20I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I shot at a mark. 21Then I will send the boy, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to the boy, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; collect them,' then you are to come, for, as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no danger. 22But if I say to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then go, for the LORD has sent you away.* 23As for the matter about which you and I have spoken, the LORD be between you and me forever."*

24 So David hid himself in the field. When the new moon came, the king sat at the feast to eat. 25The king sat upon his seat, as at other times, upon the seat by the wall. Jonathan stood, while Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.*

26 Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, "Something has befallen him; he is not clean; surely he is not clean."* 27But on the second day, the day after the new moon, David's place was empty. And Saul said to his son Jonathan, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the feast, either yesterday or today?" 28Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem;* 29he said, 'Let me go, for our family is holding a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. So now, if I have found favor in your sight, let me get away and see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan. He said to him, "You son of a rebellious woman![m] Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?* 31For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the earth, neither you nor your kingdom shall be established. Now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die." 32Then Jonathan answered his father Saul, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?”* 33But Saul threw his spear at him to strike him, so Jonathan knew that it was the decision of his father to put David to death.* 34Jonathan sprang up[n] from the table in fierce anger and ate no food on the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David and because his father had disgraced him.

35 In the morning Jonathan went out into the field to the appointment with David, and with him was a little boy. 36He said to the boy, “Run and find the arrows that I shoot.” As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.* 37When the boy came to the place where Jonathan’s arrow had fallen, Jonathan called after the boy and said, “Is the arrow not beyond you?”* 38Jonathan called after the boy, “Hurry, be quick, do not linger.” So Jonathan’s boy gathered up the arrows and came to his master. 39But the boy knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the arrangement. 40Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy and said to him, “Go and carry them to the city.” 41As soon as the boy had gone, David rose from beside the stone heap[o] and prostrated himself with his face to the ground. He bowed three times, and they kissed each other and wept with each other; David wept the more.[p] 42Then Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, since both of us have sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD shall be between me and you and between my descendants and your descendants forever.’ ” He got up and left, and Jonathan went into the city.[q,*]

1 Samuel 21

DAVID AND THE HOLY BREAD

1 [r]David came to Nob to the priest Ahimelech. Ahimelech came trembling to meet David and said to him, "Why are you alone and no one with you?"* [2]David said to the priest Ahimelech, "The king has charged me with a matter and said to me, 'No one must know anything of the matter about which I send you and with which I have charged you.' I have made an appointment[s] with the young men for such and such a place. [3]Now then, what have you at hand? Give me five loaves of bread or whatever is here." [4]The priest answered David, "I have no ordinary bread at hand, only holy bread—provided that the young men have kept themselves from women."* [5]David answered the priest, "Indeed, women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition; the vessels of the young men are holy even when it is a common journey; how much more today will their vessels be holy?"* [6]So the priest gave him the holy bread, for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence, which is removed from before the LORD, to be replaced by hot bread on the day it is taken away.*

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul's shepherds.*

8 David said to Ahimelech, "Is there no spear or sword here with you? I did not bring my sword or my weapons with me because the king's business required haste." [9]The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you will take that, take it, for there is none here except that one." David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."*

DAVID FLEES TO GATH

10 David rose and fled that day from Saul; he went to King Achish of Gath. [11]The servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, ‘Saul has killed his thousands

and David his ten thousands’?”[*]

12 David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of King Achish of Gath.[*] 13 So he changed his behavior before them; he pretended to be mad when in their presence.[t] He scratched marks on the doors of the gate and let his spittle run down his beard. 14 Achish said to his servants, “Look, you see the man is mad; why then have you brought him to me? 15 Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?”

1 Samuel 22

DAVID AND HIS FOLLOWERS AT ADULLAM

1 David left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; when his brothers and all his father's house heard of it, they went down there to him.*
[2]Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him, and he became captain over them. Those who were with him numbered about four hundred.*

3 David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab. He said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother come to you, until I know what God will do for me." [4]He left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold. [5]Then the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold; leave and go into the land of Judah." So David left and went into the forest of Hereth.*

SAUL SLAUGHTERS THE PRIESTS AT NOB

6 Saul heard that David and those who were with him had been located.
Saul was sitting at Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him. [7]Saul said to his servants who stood around him, "Hear now, you Benjaminites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?* [8]Is that why all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a league with the son of Jesse; none of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me to lie in wait, as he is doing today."* [9]Doeg the Edomite, who was in charge of Saul's servants, answered, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech son of Ahitub;* [10]he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."*

11 The king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and for all his father's house, the priests who were at Nob, and all of them came to the king. [12]Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." He answered, "Here I am, my lord." [13]Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by giving him bread and a sword and by inquiring of God for him, so that he has risen against me to lie in wait, as he is doing today?"

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, "Who among all your servants is so faithful as David? He is the king's son-in-law and is quick[u] to do your bidding and is honored in your house.* [15]Is today the first time that I have inquired of God for him? By no means! Do not let the king impute anything to his servant or to any member of my father's house, for your servant has known nothing of all this, much or little." [16]The king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house." [17]The king said to the guard who stood around him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David; they knew that he fled and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king would not raise a hand to attack the priests of the LORD.* [18]Then the king said to Doeg, "You, Doeg, turn and attack the priests." Doeg the Edomite turned and attacked the priests; on that day he killed eighty-five who wore the linen ephod.* [19]Nob, the city of the priests, he put to the sword; men and women, children and infants, oxen, donkeys, and sheep, he put to the sword.

20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David.* [21]Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. [22]David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible[v] for the lives of all your father's house.* [23]Stay with me, and do not be afraid, for the one who seeks my life seeks your life; you will be safe with me."*

1 Samuel 23

DAVID SAVES THE CITY OF KEILAH

1 Now they told David, "The Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are robbing the threshing floors."* [2]David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?" The LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah."* [3]But David's men said to him, "Look, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?" [4]Then David inquired of the LORD again. The LORD answered him, "Yes, go down to Keilah, for I will give the Philistines into your hand."* [5]So David and his men went to Keilah, fought with the Philistines, brought away their livestock, and dealt them a heavy defeat.
Thus David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 When Abiathar son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.* [7]Now it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, "God has given[w] him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars." [8]Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. [9]When David learned that Saul was plotting evil against him, he said to the priest Abiathar, "Bring the ephod here."* [10]David said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, your servant has heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account. [11]And now, will[x] Saul come down as your servant has heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech you, tell your servant." The LORD said, "He will come down." [12]Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?" The LORD said, "They will surrender you."* [13]Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, set out and left Keilah; they wandered wherever they could go. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up the expedition.* [14]David remained in the strongholds in the wilderness, in the hill country of the wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but the LORD[y] did not give him into his hand.*

DAVID ELUDES SAUL IN THE WILDERNESS

15 David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh when he learned that[z] Saul had come out to seek his life. [16]Saul's son Jonathan set out and came to David at Horesh; there he strengthened his hand through the LORD.[a,] [17]He said to him, "Do not be afraid, for the hand of my father Saul shall not find you; you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be second to you; my father Saul also knows that this is so." [18]Then the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.*

19 Then some Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, "David is hiding among us in the strongholds of Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon.* [20]Now, O king, whenever you wish to come down, do so, and our part will be to surrender him into the king's hand."* [21]Saul said, "May you be blessed by the LORD for showing me compassion!* [22]Go and make sure once more; find out exactly where he is and who has seen him there, for I am told that he is very cunning. [23]Look around and learn all the hiding places where he lurks and come back to me with sure information. Then I will go with you, and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah." [24]So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul.

David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.* [25]Saul and his men went to search for him. When David was told, he went down to the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he pursued David into the wilderness of Maon. [26]Saul went on one side of the mountain and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. David was hurrying to get away from Saul, while Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them.* [27]Then a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come, for the Philistines have made a raid on the land." [28]So Saul stopped pursuing David and went against the Philistines; therefore that place was called the Rock of Escape.[b] [29][c]David then went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En-gedi.*

1 Samuel 24

DAVID SPARES SAUL'S LIFE

1 When Saul returned from following the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the wilderness of En-gedi."* [2]Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel and went to look for David and his men in the direction of the Rocks of the Wild Goats.* [3]He came to the sheepfolds beside the road, where there was a cave, and Saul went in to relieve himself.[d] Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost parts of the cave.* [4]The men of David said to him, "Here is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'I will give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it seems good to you.' " Then David went and stealthily cut off a corner of Saul's cloak.*
[5]Afterward David was stricken to the heart because he had cut off a corner of Saul's cloak.* [6]He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to raise my hand against him, for he is the LORD's anointed."* [7]So David rebuked his men severely and did not permit them to attack Saul. Then Saul got up and left the cave and went on his way.

8 Afterward David also rose up and went out of the cave and called after Saul, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and did obeisance.* [9]David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of those who say, 'David seeks to do you harm'?
[10]This very day your eyes have seen how the LORD gave you into my hand in the cave, and some urged me to kill you, but I spared[e] you. I said, 'I will not raise my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD's anointed.' [11]See, my father, see the corner of your cloak in my hand, for by the fact that I cut off the corner of your cloak and did not kill you, you may know for certain that there is no wrong or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you are hunting me to take my life.* [12]May the LORD judge between me and you! May the LORD avenge me on you, but my hand shall not be against you.* [13]As the ancient proverb says, 'Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness,' but my hand shall not be against you.* [14]Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A single flea?* 15May the LORD, therefore, be judge and give sentence between me and you. May he see to it and plead my cause and vindicate me against you."*

16 When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" Saul lifted up his voice and wept.* 17He said to David, "You are more righteous than I, for you have repaid me good, whereas I have repaid you evil.* 18Today you have explained how you have dealt well with me, in that you did not kill me when the LORD put me into your hands.* 19For who has ever found an enemy and sent the enemy safely away? So may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day. 20Now I know that you shall surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.* 21Swear to me, therefore, by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me and that you will not wipe out my name from my father's house."* 22So David swore this to Saul. Then Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.*

1 Samuel 25

DEATH OF SAMUEL

1 Now Samuel died, and all Israel assembled and mourned for him. They buried him at his home in Ramah.

Then David got up and went down to the wilderness of Paran.*

DAVID AND ABIGAIL

2 There was a man in Maon whose property was in Carmel. The man was very rich; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel.* 3Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife was Abigail. The woman was clever and beautiful, but the man was surly and mean; he was a Calebite. 4David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. 5So David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. 6Thus you shall salute him, 'Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.* 7I hear that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us, and we did them no harm, and they missed nothing all the time they were in Carmel.* 8Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your sight, for we have come on a feast day. Please give whatever you have at hand to your servants and to your son David.' "*

9 When David's young men came, they said all this to Nabal in the name of David, and then they waited. 10But Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who are breaking away from their masters.* 11Shall I take my bread and my water and the meat that I have butchered for my shearers and give it to men who come from I do not know where?" 12So David's young men turned away and came back and told him all this. 13David said to his men, "Every man strap on his sword!" And every one of them strapped on his sword; David also strapped on his sword, and about four hundred men went up after David, while two hundred remained with the baggage.*

14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master, and he shouted insults at them. [15]Yet the men were very good to us, and we suffered no harm, and we never missed anything when we were in the fields as long as we were with them;* [16]they were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.* [17]Now, therefore, know this and consider what you should do, for evil has been decided against our master and against all his house; he is so ill-natured that no one can speak to him."

18 Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves, two skins of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five measures of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs. She loaded them on donkeys* [19]and said to her young men, "Go on ahead of me; I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.* [20]As she rode on the donkey and came down under cover of the mountain, David and his men came down toward her, and she met them. [21]Now David had said, "Surely it was in vain that I protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him, but he has returned me evil for good.* [22]God do so to David[f] and more also if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him."*

23 When Abigail saw David, she hurried and dismounted from the donkey and fell before David on her face, bowing to the ground.* [24]She fell at his feet and said, "Upon me alone, my lord, be the guilt; please let your servant speak in your ears and hear the words of your servant.* [25]My lord, do not take seriously this ill-natured fellow, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he; Nabal[g] is his name, and folly is with him, but I, your servant, did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.*

26 "Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, since the LORD has restrained you from bloodguilt and from taking vengeance with your own hand, now let your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord be like Nabal.* [27]And now let this present that your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord. [28]Please forgive the trespass of your servant, for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil shall not be found in you so long as you live.* [29]If anyone should rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living under the care of the LORD your God, but the lives of your enemies he shall sling out as from the hollow of a sling. 30When the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you and has appointed you prince over Israel, 31my lord shall have no cause of grief or pangs of conscience for having shed blood without cause or for having saved himself. And when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant."

32 David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you to meet me today!* 33Blessed be your good sense, and blessed be you, who kept me today from bloodguilt and from avenging myself by my own hand! 34For as surely as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, truly by morning there would not have been left to Nabal so much as one male." 35Then David received from her hand what she had brought him; he said to her, "Go up to your house in peace; see, I have heeded your voice, and I have granted your petition."*

36 Abigail came to Nabal; he was holding a feast in his house like the feast of a king. Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk, so she told him nothing at all until the morning light.* 37In the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him; he became like a stone. 38About ten days later the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.

39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has judged the case of Nabal's insult to me and has kept back his servant from evil; the LORD has returned the evildoing of Nabal upon his own head." Then David sent word to Abigail to make her his wife.* 40When David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, "David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife." 41She rose and bowed down, with her face to the ground, and said, "Your servant is a slave to wash the feet of the servants of my lord."* 42Abigail got up hurriedly and rode away on a donkey; her five maids attended her. She went after the messengers of David and became his wife.*

43 David also married Ahinoam of Jezreel; both of them became his wives.* 44Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was from Gallim.*

1 Samuel 26

DAVID SPARES SAUL'S LIFE A SECOND TIME

1 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "David is in hiding on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon."[h,] [2]So Saul rose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, with three thousand chosen men of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. [3]Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon,[i] beside the road. But David remained in the wilderness. When he learned that Saul had come after him into the wilderness, [4]David sent out spies and learned that Saul had indeed arrived.
[5]Then David set out and came to the place where Saul had encamped, and David saw the place where Saul lay, with Abner son of Ner, the commander of his army. Saul was lying within the encampment, while the army was encamped around him.*

6 Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?" Abishai said, "I will go down with you."* [7]So David and Abishai went to the army by night; there Saul lay sleeping within the encampment, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head, and Abner and the army lay around him. [8]Abishai said to David, "God has given your enemy into your hand today; now, therefore, let me pin him to the ground with one stroke of the spear; I will not strike him twice." [9]But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him, for who can raise his hand against the LORD's anointed and be guiltless?"* [10]David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him down, or his day will come to die, or he will go down into battle and perish.* [11]The LORD forbid that I should raise my hand against the LORD's anointed, but now take the spear that is at his head and the water jar, and let us go."* [12]So David took the spear that was at Saul's head and the water jar, and they went away. No one saw it or knew it, nor did anyone awake, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.*

13 Then David went over to the other side and stood on top of a hill far away, with a great distance between them. [14]David called to the army and to Abner son of Ner, saying, “Abner! Will you not answer?” Then Abner replied, “Who are you who calls to the king?” 15David said to Abner, “Are you not a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king. 16This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die because you have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD’s anointed. See now, where is the king’s spear or the water jar that was at his head?”

17 Saul recognized David’s voice and said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” David said, “It is my voice, my lord, O king.”* 18And he added, “Why does my lord pursue his servant? For what have I done? What guilt is on my hands?* 19Now, therefore, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is the LORD who has stirred you up against me, may he accept an offering, but if it is mortals, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out today from my share in the heritage of the LORD, saying, ‘Go, serve other gods.’* 20Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD, for the king of Israel has come out to seek a single flea, like one who hunts a partridge in the mountains.”*

21 Then Saul said, “I have done wrong; come back, my son David, for I will never harm you again, because my life was precious in your sight today; I have been a fool and have made a great mistake.”* 22David replied, “Here is the spear, O king! Let one of the young men come over and get it.* 23The LORD rewards everyone for his righteousness and his faithfulness, for the LORD gave you into my hand today, but I would not raise my hand against the LORD’s anointed. 24As your life was precious today in my sight, so may my life be precious in the sight of the LORD, and may he rescue me from all tribulation.”* 25Then Saul said to David, “Blessed be you, my son David! You will do many things and will succeed in them.” So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1 Samuel 27

DAVID SERVES KING ACHISH OF GATH

1 David said in his heart, "I shall certainly perish one day by the hand of Saul; there is nothing better for me than to escape to the land of the Philistines; then Saul will despair of seeking me any longer within the borders of Israel, and I shall escape out of his hand." [2]So David set out and went over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to King Achish son of Maoch of Gath.* [3]David stayed with Achish at Gath, he and his troops, every man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow.* [4]When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer sought for him.

5 Then David said to Achish, "If I have found favor in your sight, let a place be given me in one of the country towns so that I may live there, for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?" [6]So that day Achish gave him Ziklag; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.* [7]The length of time that David lived in the country of the Philistines was one year and four months.*

8 Now David and his men went up and made raids on the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites, for these were the landed settlements from Telam[j] on the way to Shur and on to the land of Egypt.* [9]David struck the land, leaving neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing and came back to Achish.*
[10]When Achish asked, "Against whom[k] have you made a raid today?" David would say, "Against the Negeb of Judah," or "Against the Negeb of the Jerahmeelites," or "Against the Negeb of the Kenites."* [11]David left neither man nor woman alive to be brought back to Gath, thinking, "They might tell about us and say, 'David has done so and so.' " Such was his practice all the time he lived in the country of the Philistines. [12]Achish trusted David, thinking, "He has made himself utterly abhorrent to his people Israel; therefore he shall always be my servant."

1 Samuel 28

1 In those days the Philistines gathered their forces for war, to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, "You know, of course, that you and your men are to go out with me in the army."* [2]David said to Achish, "Very well, then you shall know what your servant can do." Achish said to David, "Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life."

SAUL CONSULTS A MEDIUM

3 Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. Saul had expelled the mediums and the wizards from the land.* [4]The Philistines assembled and came and encamped at Shunem. Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilboa.* [5]When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. [6]When Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, not by dreams or by Urim or by prophets.* [7]Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, so that I may go to her and inquire of her." His servants said to him, "There is a medium at Endor."*

8 So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes and went there, he and two men with him. They came to the woman by night. And he said, "Consult a spirit for me, and bring up for me the one whom I name to you."* [9]The woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the wizards from the land. Why then are you laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?"* [10]But Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing." [11]Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He answered, "Bring up Samuel for me." [12]When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice, and the woman said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!" [13]The king said to her, "Have no fear; what do you see?" The woman said to Saul, "I see a divine being[1] coming up out of the ground." [14]He said to her, "What is his appearance?" She said, "An old man is coming up; he is wrapped in a robe." So Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and did obeisance.*

15 Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered, "I am in great distress, for the Philistines are warring against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams, so I have summoned you to tell me what I should do."* [16]Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from you and become your enemy? [17]The LORD has done to you just as he spoke by me, for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, David.* [18]Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD and did not carry out his fierce wrath against Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you today.* [19]Moreover, the LORD will give Israel along with you into the hands of the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me; the LORD will also give the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines."*

20 Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground filled with fear because of the words of Samuel, and there was no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night. [21]The woman came to Saul, and when she saw that he was terrified, she said to him, "Your servant has listened to you; I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to what you have said to me.* [22]Now, therefore, you also listen to your servant; let me set a morsel of bread before you. Eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way." [23]He refused and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him, and he listened to their words. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed.* [24]Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house. She quickly slaughtered it, and she took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened cakes. [25]She put them before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

THE PHILISTINES REJECT DAVID

1 Now the Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek, while the Israelites were encamped by the spring that is in Jezreel.* 2As the lords of the Philistines were passing on by hundreds and by thousands and David and his men were passing on in the rear with Achish,* 3the commanders of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of King Saul of Israel, who has been with me now for days and years? Since he deserted to me I have found no fault in him to this day."* 4But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him, and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Send the man back, so that he may return to the place that you have assigned to him; he shall not go down with us to battle, or else he may become an adversary to us in the battle. For how could this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of the men here?* 5Is this not David, of whom they sing to one another in dances,

'Saul has killed his thousands

6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been honest, and to me it seems right that you should march out and in with me in the campaign, for I have found nothing wrong in you from the day of your coming to me until today. Nevertheless, the lords do not approve of you.* 7So go back now, and go peaceably; do nothing to displease the lords of the Philistines." 8David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant from the day I entered your service until now, that I should not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?" 9Achish replied to David, "I know that you are as blameless in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless, the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'* 10Now then, rise early in the morning, you and the servants of your lord who came with you, and go to the place that I appointed for you. As for the evil report, do not take it to heart, for you have done well before me.[m] Start early in the morning, and leave as soon as you have light.”* 11So David set out with his men early in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30

DAVID AVENGES THE DESTRUCTION OF ZIKLAG

1 Now when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negeb and on Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag, burned it down,* 2and taken captive the women and all[n] who were in it, both small and great; they killed none of them but carried them off and went their way. 3When David and his men came to the city, they found it burned down and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive. 4Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept until they had no more strength to weep. 5David's two wives also had been taken captive, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.*
6David was in great danger, for the people spoke of stoning him because all the people were bitter in spirit for their sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.*

7 David said to the priest Abiathar son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.* 8David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue this band? Shall I overtake them?" He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake and shall surely rescue."* 9So David set out, he and the six hundred men who were with him. They came to the Wadi Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.* 10But David went on with the pursuit, he and four hundred men; two hundred stayed behind, too exhausted to cross the Wadi Besor.*

11 In the open country they found an Egyptian and brought him to David.
They gave him bread, and he ate; they gave him water to drink; 12they also gave him a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit revived, for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.* 13Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong?
Where are you from?" He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite. My master left me behind because I fell sick three days ago.
14We had made a raid on the Negeb of the Cherethites and on that which belongs to Judah and on the Negeb of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag down."* 15David said to him, "Will you take me down to this raiding party?" He said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will take you down to them.”

16 When he had taken him down, they were spread out all over the ground, eating and drinking and dancing, because of the great amount of spoil they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.* [17]David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not one of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who mounted camels and fled.* [18]David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and David rescued his two wives. [19]Nothing was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything that had been taken; David brought back everything.* [20]David also captured all the flocks and herds, which were driven ahead of the other cattle; people said, “This is David’s spoil.”*

21 Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow David and who had been left at the Wadi Besor. They went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. When David drew near to the people, he saluted them.* [22]Then all the corrupt and worthless fellows among the men who had gone with David said, “Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except that each man may take his wife and children and leave.” [23]But David said, “You shall not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us; he has preserved us and handed over to us the raiding party that attacked us. [24]Who would listen to you in this matter? For the share of the one who goes down into the battle shall be the same as the share of the one who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike.”* [25]From that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel; it continues to the present day.

26 When David came to Ziklag, he sent part of the spoil to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, “Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD.” [27]It was for those in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negeb, in Jattir,* [28]in Aroer, in Siphmoth, in Eshtemoa,* [29]in Racal, in the towns of the Jerahmeelites, in the towns of the Kenites,* [30]in Hormah, in Bor-ashan, in Athach,* [31]in Hebron, all the places where David and his men had roamed.*

1 Samuel 31

THE DEATH OF SAUL AND HIS SONS

1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and many fell[o] on Mount Gilboa.* [2]The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons, and the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. [3]The battle pressed hard on Saul, and the archers found him, and he was badly wounded by them.* [4]Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, so that these uncircumcised may not come and thrust me through and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer was unwilling, for he was terrified. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.* [5]When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him. [6]So Saul and his three sons and his armor-bearer and all his men died together on the same day. [7]When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and those beyond the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their towns and fled, and the Philistines came and occupied them.

8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. [9]They cut off his head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to the houses of their idols and to the people.* [10]They put his armor in the temple of Astarte,[p] and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.* [11]But when the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,* [12]all the valiant men set out, traveled all night long, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan. They came to Jabesh and burned them there.* [13]Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh and fasted seven days.*

2 Samuel 1

DAVID MOURNS FOR SAUL AND JONATHAN

1 After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, David remained two days in Ziklag.* [2]On the third day, a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dirt on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground and did obeisance.* [3]David said to him, "Where have you come from?" He said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel." [4]David said to him, "How did things go? Tell me!" He answered, "The army fled from the battle, but also many of the army fell and died, and Saul and his son Jonathan also died." [5]Then David asked the young man who was reporting to him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan died?" [6]The young man reporting to him said, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and there was Saul leaning on his spear, while the chariots and the horsemen drew close to him.* [7]When he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. I answered, 'Here, sir.' [8]And he said to me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'* [9]He said to me, 'Come, stand over me and kill me, for convulsions have seized me, and yet my life still lingers.' [10]So I stood over him and killed him, for I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. I took the crown that was on his head and the armlet that was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."*

11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and all the men who were with him did the same.* [12]They mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for his son Jonathan and for the army of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had been struck down[a] by the sword.* [13]David said to the young man who had reported to him, "Where do you come from?" He answered, "I am the son of a resident alien, an Amalekite."* [14]David said to him, "Were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?"* [15]Then David called one of the young men and said, "Come here and strike him down." So he struck him down, and he died.* 16David said to him, “Your blood be on your head, for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, ‘I have killed the LORD’s anointed.’ ”*

17 David intoned this lamentation over Saul and his son Jonathan.* 18(He ordered that The Song of the Bow[b] be taught to the people of Judah; it is written in the Book of Jashar.) He said,* 19“Your glory, O Israel, lies slain upon your high places!

How the mighty have fallen!*
20Tell it not in Gath; proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice;
the daughters of the uncircumcised will exult.*

21You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you nor bounteous fields![c] For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, anointed with oil no more.*

22From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, nor the sword of Saul return empty.*

23Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely!
In life and in death they were not divided;
they were swifter than eagles;
they were stronger than lions.*

24O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with crimson, in luxury, who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

[25]How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!

Jonathan lies slain upon your high places.*
[26]I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; greatly beloved were you to me;
your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.*

[27]How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war perished!”*

2 Samuel 2

DAVID ANOINTED KING OF JUDAH

1 After this David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?" The LORD said to him, "Go up." David said, "To which shall I go up?" He said, "To Hebron."* [2]So David went up there, along with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.*
[3]David brought up the men who were with him, every one with his household, and they settled in the towns of Hebron.* [4]Then the people of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.

When they told David, "It was the people of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul,"* [5]David sent messengers to the people of Jabesh-gilead and said to them, "May you be blessed by the LORD, because you showed this loyalty to Saul your lord and buried him!* [6]Now may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you! And I, too, will reward you because you have done this thing. [7]Therefore let your hands be strong and be valiant, for Saul your lord is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

ISHBAAL KING OF ISRAEL

8 But Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, had taken Ishbaal[d] son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim. [9]He made him king over Gilead, the Ashurites, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and all Israel.*
[10]Ishbaal,[e] Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.
[11]The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.*

THE BATTLE OF GIBEON

12 Abner son of Ner and the servants of Ishbaal[f] son of Saul went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.* [13]Joab son of Zeruiah and the servants of David went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. One group sat on one side of the pool, while the other sat on the other side of the pool.* [14]Abner said to Joab, “Let the young men come forward and have a contest before us.” Joab said, “Let them come forward.” 15So they came forward and were counted as they passed by, twelve for Benjamin and Ishbaal[g] son of Saul and twelve of the servants of David. 16Each grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent’s side, so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim,[h] which is at Gibeon. 17The battle was very fierce that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten by the servants of David.*

18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Now Asahel was as swift of foot as a wild gazelle.* 19Asahel pursued Abner, turning neither to the right nor to the left as he followed him. 20Then Abner looked back and said, “Is it you, Asahel?” He answered, “Yes, it is.” 21Abner said to him, “Turn to your right or to your left, and seize one of the young men, and take his spoil.” But Asahel would not turn away from following him. 22Abner said again to Asahel, “Turn away from following me; why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I show my face to your brother Joab?”* 23But he refused to turn away. So Abner struck him in the stomach with the butt of his spear, so that the spear came out at his back. He fell there and died where he lay. And all those who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died stood still.*

24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. As the sun was going down they came to the hill of Ammah, which lies before Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.* 25The Benjaminites rallied around Abner and formed a single band; they took their stand on the top of a hill. 26Then Abner called to Joab, “Is the sword to keep devouring forever? Do you not know that the end will be bitter? How long will it be before you order your people to turn from the pursuit of their kinsmen?” 27Joab said, “As God lives, if you had not spoken, the people would have continued to pursue their kinsmen, not stopping until morning.”* 28Joab sounded the trumpet, and all the people stopped; they no longer pursued Israel or engaged in battle any further.

29 Abner and his men traveled all that night through the Arabah; they crossed the Jordan, and, marching the whole forenoon,[i] they came to Mahanaim.* 30Joab returned from the pursuit of Abner, and when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David’s servants nineteen men besides Asahel. [31]But the servants of David had killed of Benjamin three hundred sixty of Abner's men. [32]They took up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was at Bethlehem. Joab and his men marched all night, and the day broke upon them at Hebron.

2 Samuel 3

ABNER DEFECTS TO DAVID

1 There was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul became weaker and weaker.

2 Sons were born to David at Hebron: his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel;* [3]his second was Chileab, of Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; the third was Absalom son of Maacah, daughter of King Talmai of Geshur;* [4]the fourth was Adonijah son of Haggith; the fifth was Shephatiah son of Abital;* [5]and the sixth was Ithream, of David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 While there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong in the house of Saul. [7]Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah daughter of Aiah. And Ishbaal[j] said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"* [8]The words of Ishbaal[k] made Abner very angry; he said, "Am I a dog's head for Judah?
Today I keep showing loyalty to the house of your father Saul, to his brothers, and to his friends and have not given you into the hand of David, yet you charge me now with a crime concerning this woman.* [9]So may God do to Abner and so may he add to it! For just what the LORD has sworn to David, that will I accomplish for him:* [10]to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beer-sheba."* [11]And Ishbaal[l] could not answer Abner another word because he feared him.

12 Abner sent messengers to David where he was,[m] saying, "To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and I will give you my support to bring all Israel over to you." [13]He said, "Good; I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: you shall never appear in my presence unless you bring Saul's daughter Michal when you come to see me."* [14]Then David sent messengers to Saul's son Ishbaal,[n] saying, "Give me my wife Michal, to whom I became engaged at the price of one hundred foreskins of the Philistines."* [15]Ishbaal[o] sent and took her from her husband Paltiel the son of Laish.* 16But her husband went with her, weeping as he walked behind her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go back home!" So he went back.*

17 Abner sent word to the elders of Israel, saying, "For some time past you have been seeking David as king over you. 18Now then bring it about, for the LORD has promised David: Through my servant David I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from all their enemies."* 19Abner also spoke directly to the Benjaminites; then Abner went to tell David at Hebron all that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin were ready to do.*

20 When Abner came with twenty men to David at Hebron, David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him. 21Abner said to David, "Let me go and rally all Israel to my lord the king, in order that they may make a covenant with you and that you may reign over all that your heart desires." So David dismissed Abner, and he went away in peace.*

ABNER IS KILLED BY JOAB

22 Just then the servants of David arrived with Joab from a raid, bringing much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David at Hebron, for David[p] had dismissed him, and he had gone away in peace.* 23When Joab and all the army that was with him came, it was told to Joab, "Abner son of Ner came to the king, and he has dismissed him, and he has gone away in peace." 24Then Joab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Abner came to you; why did you dismiss him, so that he got away? 25You know that Abner son of Ner came to deceive you and to learn your comings and goings and to learn all that you are doing."*

26 When Joab came out from David's presence, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah, but David did not know about it. 27When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gateway to speak with him privately, and there he stabbed him in the stomach. So he died on account of the blood of Asahel, Joab's[q] brother.* 28Afterward, when David heard of it, he said, "I and my kingdom are forever guiltless before the LORD for the blood of Abner son of Ner. 29May the bloodguilt fall on the head of Joab and on all his father's house, and may the house of Joab never be without one who has a discharge, or who has a defiling skin disease, or who holds a spindle, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks food!”* 30So Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.*

31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn over Abner.” And King David followed the bier.* 32They buried Abner at Hebron. The king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept. 33The king lamented for Abner, saying, “Should Abner die as a fool dies?*

34Your hands were not bound; your feet were not fettered; as one falls before the wicked you have fallen.”

And all the people wept over him again. 35Then all the people came to persuade David to eat something while it was still day, but David swore, saying, “So may God do to me and more, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down!”* 36All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them, just as everything the king did pleased all the people. 37So all the people and all Israel understood that day that the king had no part in the killing of Abner son of Ner. 38And the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel? 39Today I am powerless, even though anointed king; these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too violent for me. The LORD pay back the one who does wickedly in accordance with his wickedness!”*

2 Samuel 4

ISHBAAL ASSASSINATED

1 When Saul's son Ishbaal[r] heard that Abner had died at Hebron, his courage failed, and all Israel was dismayed.* [2]Saul's son had two captains of raiding bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other was Rechab. They were sons of Rimmon, a Benjaminite from Beeroth, for Beeroth is considered to belong to Benjamin.* [3](Now the people of Beeroth had fled to Gittaim and are there as resident aliens to this day.)*

4 Saul's son Jonathan had a son who was crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, and in her haste to flee it happened that he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.*

5 Now the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out, and about the heat of the day they came to the house of Ishbaal[s] while he was taking his noonday rest.* [6]They came inside the house as though to take wheat,[t] and they struck him in the stomach; then Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped.* [7]Now they had come into the house while he was lying on his couch in his bedchamber; they attacked him, killed him, and beheaded him. Then they took his head and traveled by way of the Arabah all night long. [8]They brought the head of Ishbaal[u] to David at Hebron and said to the king, "Here is the head of Ishbaal[v] son of Saul, your enemy who sought your life; the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day on Saul and on his offspring."*

9 David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life out of every adversity,* [10]when the one who told me, 'See, Saul is dead,' thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and killed him at Ziklag—this was the reward I gave him for his news.* [11]How much more, then, when wicked men have killed a righteous man on his bed in his own house! And now shall I not require his blood at your hand and destroy you from the earth?"* [12]So David commanded the young men, and they killed them; they cut off their hands and feet and hung their bodies beside the pool at Hebron. But the head of Ishbaal[w] they took and buried in the tomb of Abner at Hebron.[*]

2 Samuel 5

DAVID ANOINTED KING OF ALL ISRAEL

1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, "Look, we are your bone and flesh.* [2]For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The LORD said to you, 'It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.' "* [3]So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.* [4]David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.* [5]At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years.*

JERUSALEM MADE CAPITAL OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

6 The king and his men marched to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who said to David, "You will not come in here; even the blind and the lame will turn you back," thinking, "David cannot come in here."* [7]Nevertheless, David took the stronghold of Zion, which is now the city of David. [8]David had said on that day, "Whoever would strike down the Jebusites, let him get up the water shaft to attack the lame and the blind, those whom David hates."[x] Therefore it is said, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house."* [9]David occupied the stronghold and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inward.*
[10]And David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts[y] was with him.*

11 King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar trees and carpenters and masons who built David a house.* [12]David then perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

13 In Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron, David took more concubines and wives, and more sons and daughters were born to David.*

14 These are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,* 15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, 16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

PHILISTINE ATTACK REPULSED

17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David, but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold.* 18 Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the valley of Rephaim.* 19 David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you give them into my hand?" The LORD said to David, "Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand."* 20 So David came to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there.
He said, "The LORD has burst forth against my enemies before me like a bursting flood." Therefore that place is called Baal-perazim.z,* 21 The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.*

22 Once again the Philistines came up and were spread out in the valley of Rephaim.* 23 When David inquired of the LORD, he said, "You shall not go up; go around to their rear and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.* 24 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then be on the alert, for then the LORD has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines."* 25 David did just as the LORD had commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines from Geba all the way to Gezer.*

2 Samuel 6

DAVID BRINGS THE ARK TO JERUSALEM

1 David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. [2]David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim.* [3]They carried the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill.
Uzzah and Ahio,[a] the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart* [4]with the ark of God,[b] and Ahio[c] went in front of the ark.* [5]David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the LORD with all their might, with songs[d] and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.*

6 When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen lurched.* [7]The anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him there,[e] and he died there beside the ark of God.* [8]David was angry because the LORD had burst forth with an outburst upon Uzzah, so that place is called Perez-uzzah[f] to this day. [9]David was afraid of the LORD that day; he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come into my care?" [10]So David was unwilling to take the ark of the LORD into his care in the city of David; instead, David took it to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.* [11]The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.*

12 It was told King David, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him because of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing,* [13]and when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatted calf. [14]David danced before the LORD with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod.* [15]So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.*

16 As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.*

17 They brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and David offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before the LORD.* [18]When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts* [19]and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat,[g] and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

20 David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, "How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants' maids, as any vulgar fellow might shamelessly uncover himself!"* [21]David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me in place of your father and all his household, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD—I will dance before the LORD.* [22]I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be humbled in my own eyes, but by the maids of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor." [23]And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

2 Samuel 7

GOD'S COVENANT WITH DAVID

1 Now when the king was settled in his house and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies around him,* 2the king said to the prophet Nathan,
"See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent."* 3Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that you have in mind, for the LORD is with you."*

4 But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, 5"Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the LORD: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? 6I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. 7Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders[h] of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'* 8Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel,* 9and I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.* 10And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place and be disturbed no more, and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly,* 11from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel, and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the LORD declares to you that the LORD will make you a house.* 12When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.* 13He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.*
14I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings.* 15But I will not take[i] my steadfast love from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you.* 16Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me;[j] your throne shall be established forever.”* 17In accordance with all these words and with all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

DAVID’S PRAYER

18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD and said, “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?* 19And yet this was a small thing in your eyes, O Lord GOD; you have spoken also of your servant’s house into the distant future. May this be instruction for the people,[k] O Lord GOD! 20And what more can David say to you? For you know your servant, O Lord GOD!* 21Because of your promise and according to your own heart, you have wrought all this greatness so that your servant may know it. 22Therefore you are great, O LORD God, for there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.* 23Who is like your people, like Israel? Is there another[l] nation on earth whose God went to redeem it as a people and to make a name for himself, doing[m] great and awesome things, driving out[n] nations and their gods before your people, whom you redeemed for yourself from Egypt?* 24And you established your people Israel for yourself to be your people forever, and you, O LORD, became their God.* 25And now, O LORD God, as for the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, confirm it forever; do as you have promised. 26Thus your name will be magnified forever in the saying, ‘The LORD of hosts is God over Israel,’ and the house of your servant David will be established before you.* 27For you, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have made this revelation to your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house’; therefore your servant has found courage to pray this prayer to you.* 28And now, O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are true, and you have promised this good thing to your servant;* 29now, therefore, may it please you to bless the house of your servant so that it may continue forever before you, for you, O Lord GOD, have spoken, and with your blessing shall the house of your servant be blessed forever.”*

2 Samuel 8

DAVID'S WARS

1 Some time afterward, David attacked the Philistines and subdued them; David took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 He also defeated the Moabites and, making them lie down on the ground, measured them off with a cord; he measured two lengths of cord for those who were to be put to death and one length[o] for those who were to be spared. And the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.*

3 David also struck down the king of Zobah, Hadadezer son of Rehob, as he went to restore his monument at the River Euphrates.* 4David took from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand foot soldiers. David hamstrung all the chariot horses but left enough for a hundred chariots.* 5When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand men of the Arameans.* 6Then David put garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus, and the Arameans became servants to David and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.* 7David took the gold shields that were carried by the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.*
8From Betah and from Berothai, towns of Hadadezer, King David took a great amount of bronze.

9 When King Toi of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer, 10Toi sent his son Joram to King David, to greet him and to congratulate him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him. Now Hadadezer had often been at war with Toi. Joram brought with him articles of silver, gold, and bronze;* 11these also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold that he dedicated from all the nations he subdued,* 12from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the spoil of the king of Zobah, Hadadezer son of Rehob.

13 David won a name for himself. When he returned, he killed eighteen thousand Edomites[p] in the Valley of Salt.* 14He put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.*

DAVID'S OFFICERS

15 So David reigned over all Israel, and David administered justice and equity to all his people. [16]Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;* [17]Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was secretary;* [18]Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over[q] the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were priests.*

2 Samuel 9

DAVID'S KINDNESS TO MEPHIBOSHETH

1 David asked, "Is there still anyone left of the house of Saul to whom I may show kindness for Jonathan's sake?"* [2]Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and he was summoned to David. The king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "At your service!"* [3]The king said, "Is there anyone remaining of the house of Saul to whom I may show the kindness of God?" Ziba said to the king, "There remains a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in his feet."* [4]The king said to him, "Where is he?" Ziba said to the king, "He is in the house of Machir son of Ammiel, at Lo-debar."* [5]Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir son of Ammiel, at Lo-debar. [6]Mephibosheth son of Jonathan son of Saul came to David and fell on his face and did obeisance. David said, "Mephibosheth!" He answered, "I am your servant."* [7]David said to him,
"Do not be afraid, for I will show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan; I will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul, and you yourself shall eat at my table always."* [8]He did obeisance and said, "What is your servant, that you should look upon a dead dog such as I?"*

9 Then the king summoned Saul's servant Ziba and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given to your master's grandson.* [10]You and your sons and your servants shall till the land for him and shall bring in the produce, so that your master's grandson may have food to eat, but your master's grandson Mephibosheth shall always eat at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.* [11]Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant will do." Mephibosheth ate at David's[r] table, like one of the king's sons. [12]Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. And all who lived in Ziba's house became Mephibosheth's servants.*
[13]Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he always ate at the king's table.
Now he was lame in both his feet.*

2 Samuel 10

THE AMMONITES AND ARAMEANS ARE DEFEATED

1 Some time afterward, the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun succeeded him.* [2]David said, "I will deal loyally with Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father dealt loyally with me." So David sent envoys to console him concerning his father. When David's envoys came into the land of the Ammonites, [3]the princes of the Ammonites said to their lord Hanun, "Do you really think that David is honoring your father just because he has sent messengers with condolences to you? Has not David sent his envoys to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?" [4]So Hanun seized David's envoys, shaved off half the beard of each, cut off their garments in the middle at their waists, and sent them away.* [5]When David was told, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown and then return."

6 When the Ammonites saw that they had become odious to David, the Ammonites sent and hired the Arameans of Beth-rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, twenty thousand foot soldiers, as well as the king of Maacah, one thousand men, and the men of Tob, twelve thousand men.* [7]When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the warriors. [8]The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the gate, but the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open country.*

9 When Joab saw that the battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he chose some of the picked men of Israel and arrayed them against the Arameans; [10]the rest of the troops he put in the charge of his brother Abishai, and he arrayed them against the Ammonites. [11]He said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me, but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. [12]Be strong, and let us be courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God, and may the LORD do what seems good to him."* [13]So Joab and the people who were with him moved forward into battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him.* [14]When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans fled, they likewise fled before Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab returned from fighting against the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

15 But when the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together. [16]Hadadezer sent and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the River, and they came to Helam, with Shobach the commander of the army of Hadadezer at their head.* [17]When it was told David, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan and came to Helam. The Arameans arrayed themselves against David and fought with him. [18]The Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed of the Arameans seven hundred chariot teams and forty thousand horsemen and wounded Shobach the commander of their army, so that he died there.* [19]When all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became subject to them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites any more.*

2 Samuel 11

DAVID COMMITS ADULTERY WITH BATHSHEBA

1 In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel with him; they ravaged the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.*

2 It happened, late one afternoon when David rose from his couch and was walking about on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; the woman was very beautiful.* [3]David sent someone to inquire about the woman. It was reported, "This is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite."* [4]So David sent messengers to get her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself after her period.) Then she returned to her house.*
[5]The woman conceived, and she sent and told David, "I am pregnant."*

6 So David sent word to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David. [7]When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the people fared and how the war was going. [8]Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." Uriah went out of the king's house, and there followed him a present from the king.* [9]But Uriah slept at the entrance of the king's house with all the servants of his lord and did not go down to his house. [10]When they told David, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "You have just come from a journey. Why did you not go down to your house?" [11]Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah remain in booths,[s] and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field; shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? As you live and as your soul lives, I will not do such a thing."* [12]Then David said to Uriah, "Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day. On the next day,[t] [13]David invited him to eat and drink in his presence and made him drunk, and in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.*

DAVID HAS URIAH KILLED

14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.* 15In the letter he wrote, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, so that he may be struck down and die."* 16As Joab kept watch over the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew there were valiant warriors. 17The men of the city came out and fought with Joab, and some of the servants of David among the people fell. Uriah the Hittite was killed as well.* 18Then Joab sent and told David all the news about the fighting, 19and he instructed the messenger, "When you have finished telling the king all the news about the fighting, 20if the king's anger rises and if he says to you, 'Why did you go so near the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall? 21Who killed Abimelech son of Jerubbaal?[u] Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead, too.' "*

22 So the messenger went and came and told David all that Joab had sent him to tell. 23The messenger said to David, "The men gained an advantage over us and came out against us in the field, but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate. 24Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall; some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also." 25David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall say to Joab, 'Do not let this matter trouble you, for the sword devours now one and now another; press your attack on the city and overthrow it.' And encourage him."

26 When the wife of Uriah heard that her husband was dead, she made lamentation for him.* 27When the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son.

NATHAN CONDEMNS DAVID

But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD,*

2 Samuel 12

1 and the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him and said to him, "There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor.*
2The rich man had very many flocks and herds, 3but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb that he had bought. He brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children; it used to eat of his meager fare and drink from his cup and lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him. 4Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was loath to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb and prepared that for the guest who had come to him." 5Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. He said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die;* 6he shall restore the lamb fourfold because he did this thing and because he had no pity."*

7 Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you from the hand of Saul;* 8I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your bosom and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah, and if that had been too little, I would have added as much more. 9Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife to be your wife and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.* 10Now, therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, for you have despised me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.* 11Thus says the LORD: I will raise up trouble against you from within your own house, and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in broad daylight.* 12For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and in broad daylight."* 13David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." Nathan said to David, "Now the LORD has put away your sin; you shall not die.* 14Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD,[v] the child born to you shall die."* 15Then Nathan went to his house.

BATHSHEBA'S CHILD DIES

The LORD struck the child whom Uriah's wife bore to David, and it became very ill.* 16David therefore pleaded with God for the child; David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground.* 17The elders of his house stood beside him urging him to rise from the ground, but he would not, nor did he eat food with them. 18On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "While the child was still alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us; how then can we tell him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm." 19But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, he perceived that the child was dead, and David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead."

20 Then David rose from the ground, washed, anointed himself, and changed his clothes. He went into the house of the LORD and worshiped; he then went to his own house, and when he asked, they set food before him, and he ate.* 21Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive, but when the child died, you rose and ate food." 22He said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept, for I said, 'Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me, and the child may live.'* 23But now he is dead; why should I fast?
Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me."*

SOLOMON IS BORN

24 Then David consoled his wife Bathsheba and went to her and lay with her, and she bore a son, and he named him Solomon. The LORD loved him* 25and sent a message by the prophet Nathan, so he named him Jedidiah[w] because of the LORD.

THE AMMONITES CRUSHED

26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and took the royal city.* 27Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah; moreover, I have taken the water city. 28Now, then, gather the rest of the people together, encamp against the city, and take it, lest I myself take the city and it is called by my name.” [29]So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah and fought against it and took it. [30]He took the crown of Milcom[x] from his head; the weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone, and it was placed on David’s head. He also brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount.[*] [31]He brought out the people who were in it and set them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes or sent them to the brickworks. Thus he did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13

AMNON AND TAMAR

1 Some time passed. David's son Absalom had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and David's son Amnon fell in love with her.* [2]Amnon was so tormented that he made himself ill because of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her.
[3]But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, and Jonadab was a very crafty man.* [4]He said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so haggard morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister." [5]Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill, and when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat and prepare the food in my sight, so that I may see it and eat it from her hand.' " [6]So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill, and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand."*

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go to your brother Amnon's house and prepare food for him." [8]So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. [9]Then she took the pan and set them before him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Send out everyone from me." So everyone went out from him.* [10]Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the chamber so that I may eat from your hand." So Tamar took the cakes she had made and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. [11]But when she brought them near him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."* [12]She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me, for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do anything so vile!* [13]As for me, where could I carry my shame? And as for you, you would be as one of the scoundrels in Israel.
Now therefore, I beg you, speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you."* 14But he would not listen to her, and being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.*

15 Then Amnon was seized with a very great loathing for her; indeed, his loathing was even greater than the lust he had felt for her. Amnon said to her, "Get out!" 16But she said to him, "No, my brother,[y] for this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other that you did to me." But he would not listen to her. 17He called the young man who served him and said, "Put this woman out of my presence and bolt the door after her." 18(Now she was wearing an ornamented[z] robe with sleeves, for this is how the virgin daughters of the king were clothed in earlier times.[a]) So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her.* 19But Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long robe that she was wearing; she put her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went.*

20 Her brother Absalom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? Be quiet for now, my sister; he is your brother; do not take this to heart." So Tamar remained, a desolate woman, in her brother Absalom's house.* 21When King David heard of all these things, he became very angry, but he would not punish his son Amnon because he loved him, for he was his firstborn.[b] 22But Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad, for Absalom hated Amnon because he had raped his sister Tamar.*

ABSALOM AVENGES THE VIOLATION OF HIS SISTER

23 After two full years Absalom had sheepshearers at Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons. 24Absalom came to the king and said, "Your servant has sheepshearers; will the king and his servants please go with your servant?" 25But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go, or else we will be burdensome to you." He pressed him, but he would not go but gave him his blessing. 26Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." The king said to him, "Why should he go with you?" 27But Absalom pressed him until he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. Absalom made a feast like a king's feast.[c] 28Then Absalom commanded his servants, "Watch when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then kill him. Do not be afraid; have I not myself commanded you? Be courageous and valiant."* [29]So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons rose, and each mounted his mule and fled.*

30 While they were on the way, the report came to David that Absalom had killed all the king's sons, and not one of them was left. [31]The king rose, tore his garments, and lay on the ground, and all his servants who were standing by tore their garments.* [32]But Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons; Amnon alone is dead. This has been determined by Absalom from the day Amnon[d] raped his sister Tamar.* [33]Now, therefore, do not let my lord the king take it to heart, as if all the king's sons were dead, for Amnon alone is dead."*

34 But Absalom fled. When the young man who kept watch looked up, he saw many people coming from the Horonaim road[e] by the side of the mountain.* [35]Jonadab said to the king, "See, the king's sons have come; as your servant said, so it has come about." [36]As soon as he had finished speaking, the king's sons arrived and raised their voices and wept, and the king and all his servants also wept very bitterly.

37 But Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. David mourned for his son day after day.* [38]Absalom, having fled to Geshur, stayed there three years. [39]And the heart of[f] the king went out, yearning for Absalom, for he was now consoled over the death of Amnon.*

2 Samuel 14

ABSALOM RETURNS TO JERUSALEM

1 Now Joab son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's mind was on Absalom.* [2]Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman. He said to her, "Pretend to be a mourner; put on mourning garments, and do not anoint yourself with oil, but behave like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead.* [3]Go to the king and speak to him as follows." And Joab put the words into her mouth.*

4 When the woman of Tekoa came[g] to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and did obeisance and said, "Help, O king!"* [5]The king asked her, "What is your trouble?" She answered, "Alas, I am a widow; my husband is dead.* [6]Your servant had two sons, and they fought with one another in the field; there was no one to part them, and one struck the other and killed him.
[7]Now the whole family has risen against your servant. They say, 'Give up the man who struck his brother, so that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he murdered, even if we destroy the heir as well.' Thus they would quench my one remaining ember and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth."*

8 Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you." [9]The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "On me be the guilt, my lord the king, and on my father's house; let the king and his throne be guiltless."* [10]The king said, "If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall never touch you again." [11]Then she said,
"Please, may the king keep the LORD your God in mind, so that the avenger of blood may kill no more and my son not be destroyed." He said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground."*

12 Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak." [13]The woman said, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.* [14]We must all die; we are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up. But God will not take away a life; he will devise plans so as not to keep an outcast banished forever from his presence.[h,] 15Now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid; your servant thought, 'I will speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant. 16For the king will hear and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would cut both me and my son off from the heritage of God.' 17Your servant thought, 'The word of my lord the king will set me at rest,' for my lord the king is like the angel of God, discerning good and evil. The LORD your God be with you!"[]

18 Then the king answered the woman, "Do not withhold from me anything I ask you." The woman said, "Let my lord the king speak." 19The king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" The woman answered and said, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, one cannot turn right or left from anything that my lord the king has said. For it was your servant Joab who commanded me; it was he who put all these words into the mouth of your servant.[] 20In order to change the course of affairs your servant Joab did this. But my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God to know all things that are on the earth."[]

21 Then the king said to Joab, "Very well, I grant this; go, bring back the young man Absalom." 22Joab prostrated himself with his face to the ground and did obeisance and blessed the king, and Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord the king, in that the king has granted the request of his servant." 23So Joab set off, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.[] 24The king said, "Let him go to his own house; he is not to come into my presence." So Absalom went to his own house and did not come into the king's presence.[]

DAVID FORGIVES ABSALOM

25 Now in all Israel there was no one to be praised so much for his beauty as Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.[] 26When he cut the hair of his head (for at the end of every year he used to cut it; when it was heavy on him, he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels by the king's weight.[] 27There were born to Absalom three sons and one daughter whose name was Tamar; she was a beautiful woman.[*]

28 So Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem without coming into the king's presence.* [29]Then Absalom sent for Joab to send him to the king, but Joab would not come to him. He sent a second time, but Joab would not come. [30]Then he said to his servants, "Look, Joab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire. [31]Then Joab rose and went to Absalom at his house and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?" [32]Absalom answered Joab, "Look, I sent word to you. Come here that I may send you to the king with the question, 'Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.' Now let me go into the king's presence; if there is guilt in me, let him kill me!"* [33]Then Joab went to the king and told him, and he summoned Absalom. So he came to the king and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.*

2 Samuel 15

ABSALOM USURPS THE THRONE

1 After this Absalom provided for himself a chariot and horses and fifty men to run ahead of him.* [2]Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the road into the gate, and when anyone brought a suit before the king for judgment, Absalom would call out and say, "From what city are you?" When the person said, "Your servant is of such and such a tribe in Israel,"* [3]Absalom would say, "See, your claims are good and right, but there is no one deputed by the king to hear you." [4]Absalom would also say, "If only I were judge in the land! Then all who had a suit or cause might come to me, and I would give them justice."* [5]Whenever people came near to do obeisance to him, he would put out his hand and take hold of them and kiss them. [6]Thus Absalom did to every Israelite who came to the king for judgment, so Absalom stole the hearts of the people of Israel.*

7 At the end of four[i] years Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go to Hebron and pay the vow that I have made to the LORD.* [8]For your servant made a vow while I lived at Geshur in Aram: If the LORD will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD in Hebron."[j,] [9]The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he got up and went to Hebron. [10]But Absalom sent secret messengers throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then shout: Absalom has become king at Hebron!" [11]Two hundred men from Jerusalem went with Absalom; they were invited guests, and they went in innocence, knowing nothing of the matter. [12]While Absalom was offering the sacrifices, he sent for[k] Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city Giloh. The conspiracy grew in strength, and the people with Absalom kept increasing.*

DAVID FLEES FROM JERUSALEM

13 A messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the Israelites have gone after Absalom."* [14]Then David said to all his officials who were with him at Jerusalem, "Get up! Let us flee, or there will be no escape for us from Absalom. Hurry, or he will soon overtake us, and bring disaster down upon us, and attack the city with the edge of the sword."* 15The king's officials said to the king, "Your servants are ready to do whatever our lord the king decides." 16So the king left, followed by all his household, except ten concubines whom he left behind to look after the house.* 17The king left, followed by all the people, and they stopped at the last house. 18All his officials passed by him, and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the six hundred Gittites who had followed him from Gath passed on before the king.*

19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why are you also coming with us? Go back, and stay with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile from your home.* 20You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander about with us while I go wherever I can? Go back, and take your kinsfolk with you, and may the LORD show[l] steadfast love and faithfulness to you."* 21But Ittai answered the king, "As the LORD lives and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there also your servant will be."* 22David said to Ittai, "Go then, march on." So Ittai the Gittite marched on, with all his men and all the little ones who were with him. 23The whole country wept aloud as all the people passed by; the king crossed the Wadi Kidron, and all the people moved on toward the wilderness.

24 Abiathar came up, and Zadok also, with all the Levites, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God until the people had all passed out of the city.* 25Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me back and let me see both it and the place where it stays.* 26But if he says, 'I take no pleasure in you,' here I am, let him do to me what seems good to him."* 27The king also said to the priest Zadok, "Look,[m] go back to the city in peace, you and Abiathar,[n] with your two sons, Ahimaaz your son and Jonathan son of Abiathar.* 28See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."* 29So Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem, and they remained there.

30 But David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went, with his head covered and walking barefoot, and all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went.*

[31]David was told that Ahithophel was among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, "O LORD, I pray you, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."*

HUSHAI BECOMES DAVID'S SPY

32 When David came to the summit, where God was worshiped, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn and earth on his head.* [33]David said to him, "If you go on with me, you will be a burden to me.* [34]But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father's servant in time past, so now I will be your servant,' then you will defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.* [35]The priests Zadok and Abiathar will be with you there. So whatever you hear from the king's house, tell it to the priests Zadok and Abiathar.* [36]Their two sons are with them there, Zadok's son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan, and by them you shall report to me everything you hear."* [37]So Hushai, David's friend, came into the city just as Absalom was entering Jerusalem.*

2 Samuel 16

DAVID'S ADVERSARIES

1 When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of donkeys saddled, carrying two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred bunches of raisins, one hundred of summer fruits, and one skin of wine.* [2]The king said to Ziba, "Why have you brought these?" Ziba answered, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride, the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for those to drink who faint in the wilderness."* [3]The king said, "And where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "He remains in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back my grandfather's kingdom.' "* [4]Then the king said to Ziba, "All that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours." Ziba said, "I do obeisance; let me find favor in your sight, my lord the king."

SHIMEI CURSES DAVID

5 When King David came to Bahurim, a man of the family of the house of Saul came out whose name was Shimei son of Gera; he came out cursing.* [6]He threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David; now all the people and all the warriors were on his right and on his left.
[7]Shimei shouted while he cursed, "Out! Out! Murderer! Scoundrel!* [8]The LORD has avenged on all of you the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned, and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. See, disaster has overtaken you, for you are a man of blood."*

9 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and take off his head."* [10]But the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? If he is cursing because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David,' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?' "* [11]David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "My own son seeks my life; how much more now may this Benjaminite! Let him alone, and let him curse, for the LORD has bidden him.* 12It may be that the LORD will look on my distress,[o] and the LORD will repay me with good for this cursing of me today."* 13So David and his men went on the road while Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, throwing stones and flinging dust at him. 14The king and all the people who were with him arrived weary at the Jordan,[p] and there he refreshed himself.

THE COUNSEL OF AHITHOPHEL

15 Now Absalom and all the Israelites[q] came to Jerusalem; Ahithophel was with him.* 16When Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"* 17Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"* 18Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but the one whom the LORD and this people and all the Israelites have chosen, his I will be, and with him I will remain. 19Moreover, whom should I serve?
Should it not be his son? Just as I have served your father, so I will serve you."*

20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give us your counsel; what shall we do?" 21Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, the ones he has left to look after the house, and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father, and the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened."* 22So they pitched a tent for Absalom upon the roof, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.* 23Now in those days the counsel that Ahithophel gave was as if one consulted the oracle[r] of God, so all the counsel of Ahithophel was esteemed both by David and by Absalom.*

2 Samuel 17

1 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will set out and pursue David tonight. [2]I will come upon him while he is weary and discouraged and throw him into a panic, and all the people who are with him will flee. I will strike down only the king,* [3]and I will bring all the people back to you as a bride comes home to her husband.
You seek the life of only one man,[s] and all the people will be at peace." [4]The advice pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

THE COUNSEL OF HUSHAI

5 Then Absalom said, "Call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear too what he has to say."* [6]When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "This is what Ahithophel has said; shall we do as he advises? If not, you tell us." [7]Then Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good." [8]Hushai continued, "You know that your father and his men are warriors and that they are enraged, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Besides, your father is expert in war; he will not spend the night with the troops.* [9]Even now he has hidden himself in one of the pits or in some other place. And when some of our troops[t] fall at the first attack, whoever hears it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the troops who follow Absalom.' [10]Then even the valiant warrior whose heart is like the heart of a lion will utterly melt with fear, for all Israel knows that your father is a warrior and that those who are with him are valiant warriors.* [11]But my counsel is that all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan to Beer-sheba, like the sand by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person. [12]So we shall come upon him in whatever place he may be found, and we shall light on him as the dew falls on the ground, and he will not survive, nor will any of those with him. [13]If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we shall drag it into the valley until not even a pebble is to be found there." [14]Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring ruin on Absalom.*

HUSHAI WARNS DAVID TO ESCAPE

15 Then Hushai said to the priests Zadok and Abiathar, "Thus and so did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so I have counseled.* [16]Therefore send quickly and tell David, 'Do not lodge tonight at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.' "* [17]Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting at En-rogel; a female slave used to go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David, for they could not risk being seen entering the city.* [18]But a young man saw them and told Absalom, so both of them went away quickly and came to the house of a man at Bahurim who had a well in his courtyard, and they went down into it.* [19]The man's wife took a covering, stretched it over the well's mouth, and spread out grain on it, and nothing was known of it.* [20]When Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" The woman said to them, "They have crossed over the brook[u] of water." And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.*

21 After they had gone, the men came up out of the well and went and told King David. They said to David, "Go and cross the water quickly, for thus and so has Ahithophel counseled against you."* [22]So David and all the people who were with him set out and crossed the Jordan; by daybreak not one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

23 When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey and went off home to his own city. He set his house in order and hanged himself; he died and was buried in the tomb of his father.*

24 Then David came to Mahanaim, while Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.* [25]Now Absalom had set Amasa over the army in the place of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite,[v] who had married Abigal daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.* [26]The Israelites and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

27 When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Machir son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim* [28]brought beds, basins, and earthen vessels, wheat, barley, meal, parched grain, beans and lentils,w [29]honey and curds, sheep, and cheese from the herd, for David and the people with him to eat, for they said, "The troops are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."*

2 Samuel 18

THE DEFEAT AND DEATH OF ABSALOM

1 Then David mustered the men who were with him and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.* [2]And David sent forth the army: one third under the command of Joab; one third under the command of Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother; and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the men, "I myself will also go out with you."* [3]But the men said, "You shall not go out. For if we flee, they will not care about us. If half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us;[x] therefore it is better that you send us help from the city."* [4]The king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the army marched out by hundreds and by thousands.* [5]The king ordered Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave orders to all the commanders concerning Absalom.*

6 So the army went out into the field against Israel, and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim.* [7]The men of Israel were defeated there by the servants of David, and the slaughter there was great on that day, twenty thousand men. [8]The battle spread over the face of all the country, and the forest claimed more victims that day than the sword.

9 Absalom happened to meet the servants of David. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak. His head caught fast in the oak, and he was left hanging[y] between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him went on.* [10]A man saw it and told Joab, "I saw Absalom hanging in an oak." [11]Joab said to the man who told him, "What, you saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have been glad to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt." [12]But the man said to Joab, "Even if I felt in my hand the weight of a thousand pieces of silver, I would not raise my hand against the king's son, for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'For my sake protect the young man Absalom!'* [13]On the other hand, if I had dealt treacherously against his life[z] (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof." [14]Joab said, "I will not waste time like this with you." He took three spears in his hand and thrust them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the oak.* [15]And ten young men, Joab's armor-bearers, surrounded Absalom and struck him and killed him.

16 Then Joab sounded the trumpet, and the troops came back from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the troops.* [17]They took Absalom, threw him into a great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones. Meanwhile all the Israelites fled to their homes.* [18]Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a pillar that is in the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance." He called the pillar by his own name; it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.*

DAVID HEARS OF ABSALOM'S DEATH

19 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, "Let me run and carry tidings to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the power of his enemies."* [20]Joab said to him, "You are not to carry tidings today; you may carry tidings another day, but today you shall not do so because the king's son is dead." [21]Then Joab said to a Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed before Joab and ran. [22]Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said again to Joab, "Come what may, let me also run after the Cushite." And Joab said, "Why will you run, my son, seeing that you have no reward[a] for the tidings?" [23]"Come what may," he said, "I will run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain and outran the Cushite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates. The sentinel went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and when he looked up he saw a man running alone.* [25]The sentinel shouted and told the king. The king said, "If he is alone, there are tidings in his mouth." He kept coming and drew near. [26]Then the sentinel saw another man running, and the sentinel called to the gatekeeper and said, "See, another man running alone!" The king said, "He also is bringing tidings." [27]The sentinel said, "I think the first one runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok." The king said, "He is a good man and comes with good tidings."

28 Then Ahimaaz cried out to the king, "All is well!" He prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king."* [29]The king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" Ahimaaz answered, "I saw a great tumult when the king's servant Joab sent your servant, but I do not know what it was."* [30]The king said, "Turn aside, and stand here." So he turned aside and stood still.

31 Then the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, "Good tidings for my lord the king! For the LORD has vindicated you this day, delivering you from the power of all who rose up against you."* [32]The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" The Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up to do you harm be like that young man."*

DAVID MOURNS FOR ABSALOM

33 [b]The king was deeply moved and went up to the chamber over the gate and wept, and as he went he said, "O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!"*

2 Samuel 19

1 It was told Joab, "The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom."* [2]So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the troops, for the troops heard that day, "The king is grieving for his son." [3]The troops stole into the city that day as soldiers steal in who are ashamed when they flee in battle. [4]The king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, "O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!"* [5]Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, "Today you have covered with shame the faces of all your officers who have saved your life today, and the lives of your sons and your daughters, and the lives of your wives and your concubines, [6]for love of those who hate you and for hatred of those who love you. You have made it clear today that commanders and officers are nothing to you, for I perceive that, if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, then you would be pleased. [7]So go out at once and speak kindly to your servants, for I swear by the LORD, if you do not go, not a man will stay with you this night, and this will be worse for you than any disaster that has come upon you from your youth until now." [8]Then the king got up and took his seat in the gate. The troops were all told, "See, the king is sitting in the gate," and all the troops came before the king.

DAVID RECALLED TO JERUSALEM

Meanwhile, all the Israelites had fled to their homes.* [9]All the people were disputing throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies and saved us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled out of the land because of Absalom.*
[10]But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?"

11 King David sent this message to the priests Zadok and Abiathar, "Say to the elders of Judah, 'Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his house? The talk of all Israel has come to the king.[c] [12]You are my kin; you are my bone and my flesh; why then should you be the last to bring back the king?'* [13]And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh?

So may God do to me and more, if you are not the commander of my army from now on, in place of Joab.' "* 14Amasa[d] swayed the hearts of all the people of Judah as one, and they sent word to the king, "Return, both you and all your servants."* 15So the king came back to the Jordan, and Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and to bring him over the Jordan.*

16 Shimei son of Gera, a Benjaminite from Bahurim, hurried to come down with the people of Judah to meet King David;* 17with him were a thousand people from Benjamin. And Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants, rushed down to the Jordan ahead of the king* 18while the crossing was taking place,[e] to bring over the king's household and to do his pleasure.

DAVID'S MERCY TO SHIMEI

Shimei son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan 19and said to the king, "May my lord not hold me guilty or remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem; may the king not bear it in mind.* 20For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore, see, I have come this day, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."* 21Abishai son of Zeruiah answered, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"* 22But David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should today become an adversary to me? Shall anyone be put to death in Israel this day? For do I not know that I am this day king over Israel?"* 23The king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king gave him his oath.*

DAVID AND MEPHIBOSHETH MEET

24 Mephibosheth grandson of Saul came down to meet the king; he had not taken care of his feet or trimmed his beard or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he came back in safety.* 25When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"* 26He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me, for your servant said to him, 'Saddle a donkey for me[f] so that I may ride on it and go with the king.' For your servant is lame.* 27He has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God; do therefore what seems good to you.* 28For all my father's house were doomed to death before my lord the king, but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right have I, then, to appeal to the king?"* 29The king said to him, "Why speak any more of your affairs? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the land." 30Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let him take it all, since my lord the king has arrived home safely."

DAVID'S KINDNESS TO BARZILLAI

31 Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim; he went on with the king to the Jordan to escort him over the Jordan.* 32Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. He had provided the king with food while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man.* 33The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me, and I will provide for you in Jerusalem at my side." 34But Barzillai said to the king, "How many years have I still to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? 35Today I am eighty years old; can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or what he drinks? Can I still listen to the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?* 36Your servant will go a little way over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king recompense me with such a reward? 37Please let your servant return, so that I may die in my own town, near the graves of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king and do for him whatever seems good to you."* 38The king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you, and all that you desire of me I will do for you." 39Then all the people crossed over the Jordan, and the king crossed over; the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own home.* 40The king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; all the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel, brought the king on his way.

41 Then all the people of Israel came to the king and said to him, "Why have our kindred the people of Judah stolen you away and brought the king and his household over the Jordan and all David's men with him?"* 42All the people of Judah answered the people of Israel, “Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king’s expense? Or has he given us any gift?”* 43But the people of Israel answered the people of Judah, “We have ten shares in the king, and in David also we have more than you. Why then did you despise us? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?” But the words of the people of Judah were fiercer than the words of the people of Israel.*

2 Samuel 20

THE REBELLION OF SHEBA

1 Now a scoundrel named Sheba son of Bichri, a Benjaminite, happened to be there. He sounded the trumpet and cried out,

"We have no portion in David, no share in the son of Jesse!
Everyone to your tents, O Israel!"*

2So all the people of Israel withdrew from David and followed Sheba son of Bichri, but the people of Judah followed their king steadfastly from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

3 David came to his house at Jerusalem, and the king took the ten concubines whom he had left to look after the house and put them in a house under guard and provided for them but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as if in widowhood.*

4 Then the king said to Amasa, "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and be here yourself."* 5So Amasa went to summon Judah, but he delayed beyond the set time that had been appointed him. 6David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom; take your lord's servants and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities for himself and escape from us."* 7Joab's men went out after him, along with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the warriors; they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.* 8When they were at the large stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was wearing a soldier's garment, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened at his waist; as he went forward, it fell out. 9Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.* 10But Amasa did not notice the sword in Joab's hand; Joab struck him in the belly so that his entrails poured out on the ground, and he died. He did not strike a second blow.

Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bichri.* 11And one of Joab's men took his stand by Amasa and said, "Whoever favors Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab." [12]Amasa lay wallowing in his blood on the highway, and the man saw that all the people were stopping. Since he saw that all who came by him were stopping, he carried Amasa from the highway into a field and threw a garment over him. [13]Once he was removed from the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

14 Sheba[g] passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-maacah,[h] and all the Bichrites[i] assembled and followed him inside. [15]Joab's forces[j] came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah; they threw up a siege ramp against the city, and it stood against the rampart. Joab's forces were battering the wall to break it down.* [16]Then a wise woman called from the city, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab, 'Come here, I want to speak to you.' "* [17]He came near her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your servant." He answered, "I am listening." [18]Then she said, "They used to say in the old days, 'Let them inquire at Abel,' and so they would settle a matter. [19]I am one of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel; you seek to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel; why will you swallow up the heritage of the LORD?"* [20]Joab answered, "Far be it from me, far be it, that I should swallow up or destroy! [21]That is not the case! But a man of the hill country of Ephraim called Sheba son of Bichri has lifted up his hand against King David; give him up alone, and I will withdraw from the city." The woman said to Joab, "His head shall be thrown over the wall to you."* [22]Then the woman went to all the people with her wise plan. And they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it out to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and they dispersed from the city, and all went to their homes, while Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.*

23 Now Joab was in command of all the army of Israel;[k] Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in command of the Cherethites and the Pelethites;* [24]Adoram was in charge of the forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder; [25]Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;* [26]and Ira the Jairite was also David's priest.*

2 Samuel 21

DAVID AVENGES THE GIBEONITES

1 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year, and David inquired of the LORD. The LORD said, "There is bloodguilt on Saul and on his house because he put the Gibeonites to death." [2]So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the people of Israel but of the remnant of the Amorites; although the people of Israel had sworn to spare them, Saul had tried to wipe them out in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.)* [3]David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? How shall I make expiation, that you may bless the heritage of the LORD?"* [4]The Gibeonites said to him, "It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his house; neither is it for us to put anyone to death in Israel." He said, "What do you say that I should do for you?"* [5]They said to the king, "The man who consumed us and planned to destroy us so that we should have no place in all the territory of Israel,* [6]let seven of his sons be handed over to us, and we will impale them before the LORD at Gibeon on the mountain of the LORD."[l] The king said, "I will hand them over."

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD that was between them, between David and Jonathan son of Saul.* [8]The king took the two sons of Rizpah daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Merab[m] daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite;* [9]he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they impaled them on the mountain before the LORD. The seven of them perished together. They were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest.

10 Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it on a rock for herself, from the beginning of harvest until rain fell on them from the heavens; she did not allow the birds of the air to come on the bodies[n] by day or the wild animals by night.* [11]When David was told what Rizpah daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done, [12]David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the people of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hung them up, on the day the Philistines killed Saul on Gilboa.* 13He brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan, and they gathered the bones of those who had been impaled. 14They buried the bones of Saul and of his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of his father Kish; they did all that the king commanded. After that, God heeded supplications for the land.*

EXPLOITS OF DAVID'S MEN

15 The Philistines went to war again with Israel, and David went down together with his servants. They fought against the Philistines, and David grew weary. 16Ishbi-benob, one of the descendants of the giants, whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of bronze and who was fitted out with new weapons,[o] said he would kill David. 17But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his aid and attacked the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, "You shall not go out with us to battle any longer, so that you do not quench the lamp of Israel."*

18 After this a battle took place with the Philistines at Gob; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the descendants of the giants.* 19Then there was another battle with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.* 20There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great size who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; he, too, was descended from the giants.[p] 21When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of David's brother Shimei killed him. 22These four were descended from the giants[q] in Gath; they fell by the hands of David and his servants.

DAVID'S SONG OF THANKSGIVING

1 David spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.*
2He said,

"The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer,* 3my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge, my savior; you save me from violence.*
4I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.*

5For the waves of death encompassed me; the torrents of perdition assailed me;* 6the cords of Sheol entangled me; the snares of death confronted me.*

7In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I called.
From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry came to his ears.*

8Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations of the heavens trembled and reeled because he was angry.*
9Smoke went up from his nostrils and devouring fire from his mouth; glowing coals flamed forth from him.*

10 He bowed the heavens and came down; thick darkness was under his feet.*
11 He rode on a cherub and flew; he was seen upon the wings of the wind.*
12 He made darkness around him a canopy, thick clouds, a gathering of water.*
13 Out of the brightness before him coals of fire flamed forth.
14 The LORD thundered from heaven; the Most High uttered his voice.*
15 He sent out arrows and scattered them, lightning and routed them.
16 Then the channels of the sea were seen; the foundations of the world were laid bare at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.*

17 He reached from on high; he took me; he drew me out of mighty waters.*
18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me.
19 They came upon me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my stay.*
20 He brought me out into a broad place; he delivered me because he delighted in me.*

21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.*
22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not wickedly departed from my God.*

23For all his ordinances were before me, and from his statutes I did not turn aside.*
24I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt.*
25Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.*

26With the loyal you show yourself loyal; with the blameless[r] you show yourself blameless;* 27with the pure you show yourself pure, and with the crooked you show yourself shrewd.*
28You deliver a humble people, but your eyes are upon the haughty to bring them down.*
29Indeed, you are my lamp, O LORD; the LORD lightens my darkness.*
30By you I can outrun a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall.
31This God—his way is perfect; the promise of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all who take refuge in him.*

32For who is God but the LORD?
And who is a rock except our God?*
33The God who has girded me with strength[s] has opened wide my path.[t,] 34He made my feet like the feet of deer and set me secure on the heights.
35He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.*

36 You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your help[u] has made me great.
37 You have made me stride freely, and my feet do not slip;* 38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them and did not turn back until they were consumed.
39 I consumed them; I struck them down so that they did not rise; they fell under my feet.*
40 For you girded me with strength for the battle; you made my assailants sink under me.*
41 You made my enemies turn their backs to me, those who hated me, and I destroyed them.*
42 They looked, but there was no one to save them; they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them.*
43 I beat them fine like the dust of the earth;
I crushed them and stamped them down like the mire of the streets.*

44 You delivered me from strife with the peoples;[v] you kept me as the head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me.*
45 Foreigners came cringing to me; as soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me.*
46 Foreigners lost heart and came trembling out[w] of their strongholds.*

47 The LORD lives! Blessed be my rock, and exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation,* 48 the God who gave me vengeance and brought down peoples under me,* 49 who brought me out from my enemies; you exalted me above my adversaries; you delivered me from the violent.*

50 For this I will extol you, O LORD, among the nations and sing praises to your name.*
51 He is a tower of salvation for his king and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever."*

2 Samuel 23

THE LAST WORDS OF DAVID

1 Now these are the last words of David:

The oracle of David, son of Jesse, the oracle of the man whom God exalted,[x] the anointed of the God of Jacob, the favorite of the Strong One of Israel:*

[2]The spirit of the LORD speaks through me; his word is upon my tongue.*
[3]The God of Israel has spoken; the Rock of Israel has said to me:
"One who rules over people justly, ruling in the fear of God,* [4]is like the light of morning, like the sun rising on a cloudless morning, gleaming from the rain on the grassy land."*

[5]Is not my house like this with God?
For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure.
Will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire?*
[6]But the godless[y] are all like thorns that are thrown away, for they cannot be picked up with the hand;* [7]to touch them one uses an iron bar or the shaft of a spear.
And they are entirely consumed in fire on the spot.[z]

DAVID'S MIGHTY MEN

8 These are the names of the warriors whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite; he was chief of the Three;[a] he wielded his spear[b] against eight hundred whom he killed at one time.

9 Next to him among the three warriors was Eleazar son of Dodo son of Ahohi. He was with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle. The Israelites withdrew,* [10]but he stood his ground. He struck down the Philistines until his arm grew weary, though his hand clung to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. Then the people came back to him—but only to strip the dead.*

11 Next to him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines gathered together at Lehi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the army fled from the Philistines.* [12]But he took his stand in the middle of the plot, defended it, and killed the Philistines, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

13 Toward the beginning of harvest three of the thirty chiefs went down to join David at the cave of Adullam while a band of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.* [14]David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem.* [15]David said longingly, "Oh, that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!" [16]Then the three warriors broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and brought it to David. But he would not drink of it; he poured it out to the LORD, [17]for he said, "The LORD forbid that I should do this. Can I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. The three warriors did these things.*

18 Now Abishai son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, was chief of the Thirty.[c] With his spear he fought against three hundred men and killed them and won a name beside the Three.* [19]He was the most renowned of the Thirty[d] and became their commander, but he did not attain to the Three.

20 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant warrior[e] from Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds; he struck down two sons of Ariel[f] of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.* [21]And he killed an Egyptian, a handsome man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benaiah went against him with a staff, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. [22]Such were the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did and won a name beside the three warriors. [23]He was renowned among the Thirty, but he did not attain to the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.*

24 Among the Thirty were Asahel brother of Joab; Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem;* [25]Shammah of Harod; Elika of Harod;* [26]Helez the Paltite; Ira son of Ikkesh of Tekoa; [27]Abiezer of Anathoth; Mebunnai the Hushathite; [28]Zalmon the Ahohite; Maharai of Netophah; [29]Heleb son of Baanah of Netophah; Ittai son of Ribai of Gibeah of the Benjaminites; [30]Benaiah of Pirathon; Hiddai of the wadis of Gaash; [31]Abi-albon the Arbathite; Azmaveth of Bahurim;[g] [32]Eliahba of Shaalbon; the sons of Jashen: Jonathan [33]son of[h] Shammah the Hararite; Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite; [34]Eliphelet son of Ahasbai of Maacah; Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite; [35]Hezro[i] of Carmel; Paarai the Arbite; [36]Igal son of Nathan of Zobah; Bani the Gadite; [37]Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai of Beeroth, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah; [38]Ira the Ithrite; Gareb the Ithrite;* [39]Uriah the Hittite—thirty-seven in all.*

2 Samuel 24

DAVID'S CENSUS OF ISRAEL AND JUDAH

1 Again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, "Go, count the people of Israel and Judah."* 2So the king said to Joab and the commanders of the army[j] who were with him, "Go through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and take a census of the people, so that I may know how many there are."* 3But Joab said to the king, "May the LORD your God increase the number of the people a hundredfold while the eyes of my lord the king can still see it! But why does my lord the king want to do this?" 4But the king's word prevailed against Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to take a census of the people of Israel. 5They crossed the Jordan and began from[k] Aroer and from the city that is in the middle of the valley, toward Gad and on to Jazer.*
6Then they came to Gilead and to Kadesh in the land of the Hittites,[l] and they came to Dan, and from Dan[m] they went around to Sidon* 7and came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites, and they went out to the Negeb of Judah at Beer-sheba.* 8So when they had gone through all the land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9Joab reported to the king the number of those who had been recorded: in Israel there were eight hundred thousand soldiers able to draw the sword, and those of Judah were five hundred thousand.*

JUDGMENT ON DAVID'S SIN

10 But afterward, David was stricken to the heart because he had numbered the people. David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, I pray you, take away the guilt of your servant, for I have done very foolishly."* 11When David rose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,* 12"Go and say to David: Thus says the LORD: Three things I offer[n] you; choose one of them, and I will do it to you."* 13So Gad came to David and told him; he asked him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you on your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now consider and decide what answer I shall return to the one who sent me." [14]Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress; let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is great, but let me not fall into human hands."*

15 So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel from that morning until the appointed time, and seventy thousand of the people died, from Dan to Beer-sheba.* [16]But when the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented concerning the evil and said to the angel who was bringing destruction among the people, "It is enough; now stay your hand." The angel of the LORD was standing[o] by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven and in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.[p,] [17]When David saw the angel who was destroying the people, he said to the LORD, "I alone have sinned, and I, the shepherd, have done evil,[q] but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father's house."

DAVID'S ALTAR ON THE THRESHING FLOOR

18 That day Gad came to David and said to him, "Go up and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."* [19]Following Gad's instructions, David went up, as the LORD had commanded. [20]When Araunah looked down, he saw the king and his servants coming toward him, and Araunah went out and prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground. [21]Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you in order to build an altar to the LORD, so that the plague may be averted from the people."* [22]Then Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him; here are the oxen for the burnt offering and the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood.* [23]All this, O king, Araunah gives to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God respond favorably to you."*

24 But the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will buy them from you for a price; I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.* 25David built there an altar to the LORD and offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being. So the LORD answered his supplication for the land, and the plague was averted from Israel.*

1 Kings 1

THE STRUGGLE FOR THE SUCCESSION

1 King David was old and advanced in years, and although they covered him with clothes, he could not get warm. 2So his servants said to him, "Let a young virgin be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait on the king and be his attendant; let her lie in your bosom, so that my lord the king may be warm." 3So they searched for a beautiful young woman throughout all the territory of Israel and found Abishag the Shunammite and brought her to the king.* 4The young woman was very beautiful. She became the king's attendant and served him, but the king did not know her sexually.

5 Now Adonijah son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." He prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.* 6His father had never at any time reprimanded him by asking, "Why have you done thus and so?" He was also a very handsome man, and he was born next after Absalom.* 7He conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with the priest Abiathar, and they supported Adonijah.* 8But the priest Zadok, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the prophet Nathan, and Shammah[a] and his companions,[b] David's own warriors, did not side with Adonijah.*

9 Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fatted cattle by the stone Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel, and he invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the royal officials of Judah,* 10but he did not invite the prophet Nathan or Benaiah or the warriors or his brother Solomon.*

11 Then Nathan said to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, "Have you not heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has become king and our lord David does not know it?* 12Now therefore come, let me give you advice, so that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon. 13Go in at once to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your servant, saying, "Your son Solomon shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne? Why then is Adonijah king?" '* 14Then while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words."

15 So Bathsheba went to the king in his room. The king was very old; Abishag the Shunammite was attending the king.* [16]Bathsheba bowed and did obeisance to the king, and the king said, "What do you wish?" [17]She said to him, "My lord, you swore to your servant by the LORD your God, saying, 'Your son Solomon shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne.'* [18]But now suddenly Adonijah has become king, though you, my lord the king, do not know it. [19]He has sacrificed oxen, fatted cattle, and sheep in abundance and has invited all the children of the king, the priest Abiathar, and Joab the commander of the army, but your servant Solomon he has not invited.* [20]But you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. [21]Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his ancestors, that my son Solomon and I will be counted offenders."*

22 While she was still speaking with the king, the prophet Nathan came in. [23]The king was told, "Here is the prophet Nathan." When he came in before the king, he did obeisance to the king, with his face to the ground. [24]Nathan said, "My lord the king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne'? [25]For today he has gone down and has sacrificed oxen, fatted cattle, and sheep in abundance and has invited all the king's children, Joab the commander[c] of the army, and the priest Abiathar, who are now eating and drinking before him, and saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!'* [26]But he did not invite me, your servant, and the priest Zadok, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon.* [27]Has this thing been brought about by my lord the king and you have not let your servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

THE ACCESSION OF SOLOMON

28 King David answered, "Summon Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before the king. [29]The king swore, saying, "As the LORD lives, who has saved my life from every adversity,* [30]as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Your son Solomon shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' so will I do this day."* 31Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground and did obeisance to the king and said, "May my lord King David live forever!"*

32 King David said, "Summon to me the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." When they came before the king, 33the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule and bring him down to Gihon.* 34There let the priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan anoint him king over Israel; then blow the trumpet and say, 'Long live King Solomon!'* 35You shall go up following him. Let him enter and sit on my throne; he shall be king in my place, for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah." 36Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, "Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so ordain. 37As the LORD has been with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."*

38 So the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule and led him to Gihon.* 39There the priest Zadok took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"* 40And all the people went up following him, playing on pipes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth quaked at their noise.

41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished feasting. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why is the city in an uproar?" 42While he was still speaking, Jonathan son of the priest Abiathar arrived. Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a worthy man and surely you bring good news."* 43Jonathan answered Adonijah, "No, for our lord King David has made Solomon king; 44the king has sent with him the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they had him ride on the king's mule; 45the priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan have anointed him king at Gihon, and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you heard.* 46Solomon now sits on the royal throne.* 47Moreover, the king's servants came to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May God make the name of Solomon more famous than yours and make his throne greater than your throne.' The king bowed in worship on the bed* 48and went on to pray thus, ‘Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who today has granted one of my offspring[d] to sit on my throne and permitted me to witness it.’ ”*

49 Then all the guests of Adonijah got up trembling and went their own ways. 50Adonijah, fearing Solomon, got up and went to grasp the horns of the altar.* 51Solomon was informed, “Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; see, he has laid hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me first that he will not kill his servant with the sword.’ ” 52So Solomon responded, “If he proves to be a worthy man, not one of his hairs shall fall to the ground, but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die.”* 53Then King Solomon sent to have him brought down from the altar. He came to do obeisance to King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, “Go home.”

1 Kings 2

DAVID'S INSTRUCTION TO SOLOMON

1 When David's time to die drew near, he charged his son Solomon, saying:* 2"I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, be courageous,* 3and keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn.* 4Then the LORD will establish his word that he spoke concerning me: 'If your heirs take heed to their way, to walk before me in faithfulness with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you a successor on the throne of Israel.'*

5 "Moreover, you know also what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me, how he dealt with the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether, whom he murdered, retaliating in time of peace for blood that had been shed in war and putting innocent blood[e] on the belt around my[f] waist and on the sandals on my[g] feet.* 6Act, therefore, according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace.* 7Deal loyally, however, with the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for with such loyalty they met me when I fled from your brother Absalom.* 8There is also with you Shimei son of Gera, a Benjaminite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a terrible curse on the day when I went to Mahanaim, but when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'* 9Therefore do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man; you will know what you ought to do to him, and you must bring his gray head down with blood to Sheol."*

DEATH OF DAVID

10 Then David slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David.* 11The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.* 12So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.*

SOLOMON CONSOLIDATES HIS REIGN

13 Then Adonijah son of Haggith came to Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. She asked, "Do you come peaceably?" He said, "Peaceably."* [14]Then he said, "May I have a word with you?" She said, "Go on." [15]He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel expected me to reign; however, the kingdom has turned about and become my brother's, for it was his from the LORD.* [16]And now I have one request to make of you; do not refuse me." She said to him, "Go on." [17]He said, "Please ask King Solomon —he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife."* [18]Bathsheba said, "Very well; I will speak to the king on your behalf."

19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon, to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. The king rose to meet her and bowed down to her; then he sat on his throne and had a throne brought for the king's mother, and she sat on his right.* [20]Then she said, "I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Make your request, my mother, for I will not refuse you."* [21]She said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah as his wife."* [22]King Solomon answered his mother, "And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom as well! For he is my elder brother, and the priest Abiathar and Joab son of Zeruiah are on his side!"* [23]Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, "So may God do to me, and more also, for Adonijah has devised this scheme at the risk of his life!* [24]Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me and placed me on the throne of my father David and who has made me a house as he promised, today Adonijah shall be put to death."* [25]So King Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he struck him down, and he died.

26 The king said to the priest Abiathar, "Go to Anathoth, to your estate, for you deserve death. But I will not at this time put you to death because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David and because you shared in all the hardships my father endured."* [27]So Solomon banished Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, thus fulfilling the word of the LORD that he had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.*

28 When the news came to Joab—for Joab had supported Adonijah though he had not supported Absalom—Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and grasped the horns of the altar.* [29]When it was told King Solomon, "Joab has fled to the tent of the LORD and now is beside the altar," Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down."* [30]So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and said to him, "The king commands, 'Come out.' " But he said, "No, I will die here." Then Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me." [31]The king replied to him, "Do as he has said, strike him down and bury him, and thus take away from me and from my father's house the guilt for the blood that Joab shed without cause.* [32]The LORD will bring back his bloody deeds on his own head because, without the knowledge of my father David, he attacked and killed with the sword two men more righteous and better than he: Abner son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.* [33]So shall their blood come back on the head of Joab and on the head of his descendants forever, but to David, and to his descendants, and to his house, and to his throne there shall be peace from the LORD forevermore."* [34]Then Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up and struck him down and killed him, and he was buried at his own house near the wilderness. [35]The king put Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the army in his place, and the king put the priest Zadok in the place of Abiathar.*

36 Then the king sent and summoned Shimei and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and do not go out from there to any place whatever.* [37]For on the day you go out and cross the Wadi Kidron, know for certain that you shall die; your blood shall be on your own head."* [38]And Shimei said to the king, "The sentence is fair; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

39 But it happened at the end of three years that two of Shimei's slaves ran away to King Achish son of Maacah of Gath. When it was told Shimei, "Your slaves are in Gath,"* [40]Shimei arose and saddled a donkey and went to Achish in Gath, to search for his slaves; Shimei went and brought his slaves from Gath.* 41When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned, 42the king sent and summoned Shimei and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD and solemnly adjure you, saying, ‘Know for certain that on the day you go out and go to any place whatever, you shall die’? And you said to me, ‘The sentence is fair; I accept.’ 43Why then have you not kept your oath to the LORD and the commandment with which I charged you?” 44The king also said to Shimei, “You know in your own heart all the evil that you did to my father David, so the LORD will bring back your evil on your own head.* 45But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever.”* 46Then the king commanded Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck him down, and he died.

So the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.*

1 Kings 3

SOLOMON'S PRAYER FOR WISDOM

1 Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt; he took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David until he had finished building his own house and the house of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem.* [2]The people were sacrificing at the high places, however, because no house had yet been built for the name of the LORD.*

3 Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places.* [4]The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.* [5]At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, and God said, "Ask what I should give you."* [6]And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you, and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love and have given him a son to sit on his throne today.* [7]And now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.* [8]And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted.* [9]Give your servant, therefore, an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil, for who can govern this great people of yours?"*

10 It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. [11]God said to him, "Because you have asked this and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or for the life of your enemies but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right,* [12]I now do according to your word.
Indeed, I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you, and no one like you shall arise after you.* [13]I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor all your life; no other king shall compare with you.* [14]If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life."*

15 Then Solomon awoke; it had been a dream. He came to Jerusalem, where he stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. He offered up burnt offerings and offerings of well-being and provided a feast for all his servants.*

SOLOMON'S WISDOM IN JUDGMENT

16 Later, two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him. [17]The one woman said, "Please, my lord, this woman and I live in the same house, and I gave birth while she was in the house.* [18]Then on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. We were together; there was no one else with us in the house; only the two of us were in the house. [19]Then this woman's son died in the night because she lay on him. [20]She got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your servant slept. She laid him at her breast and laid her dead son at my breast.* [21]When I rose in the morning to nurse my son, I saw that he was dead, but when I looked at him closely in the morning, clearly it was not the son I had borne." [22]But the other woman said, "No, the living son is mine, and the dead son is yours." The first said, "No, the dead son is yours, and the living son is mine." So they argued before the king.

23 Then the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son who is alive, and your son is dead,' while the other says, 'Not so! Your son is dead, and my son is the living one.' " [24]So the king said, "Bring me a sword," and they brought a sword before the king. [25]The king said, "Divide the living boy in two; then give half to the one and half to the other." [26]But the woman whose son was alive said to the king, because compassion for her son burned within her, "Please, my lord, give her the living boy; certainly do not kill him!" The other said, "It shall be neither mine nor yours; divide it."* [27]Then the king responded, "Give her the living boy; do not kill him. She is his mother." [28]All Israel heard of the judgment that the king had rendered, and they stood in awe of the king because they perceived that the wisdom of God was in him to execute justice.*

SOLOMON'S ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

1 King Solomon was king over all Israel, [2]and these were his high officials: Azariah son of Zadok was the priest; [3]Elihoreph and Ahijah sons of Shisha were secretaries; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder; [4]Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in command of the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; [5]Azariah son of Nathan was over the officials; Zabud son of Nathan was priest and king's friend;* [6]Ahishar was in charge of the palace; and Adoniram son of Abda was in charge of the forced labor.

7 Solomon had twelve officials over all Israel who provided food for the king and his household; each one had to make provision for one month in the year. [8]These were their names: Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;* [9]Ben-deker, in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan;* [10]Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (to him belonged Socoh and all the land of Hepher);* [11]Ben-abinadab, in all Naphath-dor (he had Taphath, Solomon's daughter, as his wife);* [12]Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, and from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam;* [13]Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (he had the villages of Jair son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);* [14]Ahinadab son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;* [15]Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he had taken Basemath, Solomon's daughter, as his wife);* [16]Baana son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;* [17]Jehoshaphat son of Paruah, in Issachar; [18]Shimei son of Ela, in Benjamin;* [19]Geber son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of King Sihon of the Amorites and of King Og of Bashan. And there was one garrison in the land.*

MAGNIFICENCE OF SOLOMON'S RULE

[[20 Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea; they ate and drank and were happy.* [21h]Solomon was sovereign over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, even to the border of Egypt; they brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.[i,]]] 22 Solomon's provision for one day was thirty cors of choice flour and sixty cors of meal, [23]ten fat oxen and twenty pasture-fed cattle, one hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl. [24]For he had dominion over all the region west of the Euphrates,[j] and he had peace on all sides.[] [25]During Solomon's lifetime Judah and Israel lived in safety, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all of them under their vines and fig trees.[] [26]Solomon also had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots and twelve thousand horsemen.[] [27]Those officials supplied provisions for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table, each one in his month; they let nothing be lacking.[*] [28]They also brought to the required place barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds, each according to his charge.

FAME OF SOLOMON'S WISDOM

29 God gave Solomon very great wisdom, discernment, and breadth of understanding as vast as the sand on the seashore,[] [30]so that Solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the people of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt.[] [31]He was wiser than anyone else, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, children of Mahol; his fame spread throughout all the surrounding nations.[] [32]He composed three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered a thousand and five.[] [33]He would speak of trees, from the cedar that is in the Lebanon to the hyssop that grows in the wall; he would speak of animals, and birds, and reptiles, and fish. [34]People came from all the nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.[*]

1 Kings 5

PREPARATIONS AND MATERIALS FOR THE TEMPLE

1 [k]Now King Hiram of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram had always been a friend to David.* [2]Solomon sent word to Hiram, saying, [3]"You know that my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the warfare with which his enemies surrounded him, until he[l] put them under the soles of his feet.[m,] [4]But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor misfortune. [5]So I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD said to my father David, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, shall build the house for my name.'* [6]Therefore command that cedars from the Lebanon be cut for me. My servants will join your servants, and I will give you whatever wages you set for your servants, for you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

7 When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, "Blessed be the LORD today, who has given to David a wise son to be over this great people." [8]Hiram sent word to Solomon, "I have heard the message that you have sent to me; I will fulfill all your needs in the matter of cedar and cypress timber. [9]My servants shall bring it down to the sea from the Lebanon; I will make it into rafts to go by sea to the place you indicate. I will have them broken up there for you to take away. And you shall meet my needs by providing food for my household."* [10]So Hiram supplied Solomon's every need for timber of cedar and cypress. [11]Solomon, in turn, gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his household and twenty cors of fine oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year.* [12]So the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he had promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.*

13 King Solomon conscripted forced labor out of all Israel; the levy numbered thirty thousand men. [14]He sent them to the Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts; they would be a month in the Lebanon and two months at home;[n] Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor.* [15]Solomon also had seventy thousand laborers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hill country,* 16besides Solomon's three thousand three hundred supervisors who were over the work, having charge of the people who did the work. 17At the king's command, they quarried out great, costly stones in order to lay the foundation of the house with dressed stones.* 18So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites did the stonecutting and prepared the timber and the stone to build the house.

1 Kings 6

SOLOMON BUILDS THE TEMPLE

1 In the four hundred eightieth year after the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, he began to build the house of the LORD.*
2The house that King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high.* 3The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits wide, across the width of the house. Its depth was ten cubits in front of the house. 4For the house he made windows with recessed frames.[o,] 5He also built a structure against the wall of the house, running around the walls of the house, both the nave and the inner sanctuary, and he made side chambers all around. 6The lowest story[p] was five cubits wide, the middle one was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide, for around the outside of the house he made offsets on the wall in order that the supporting beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house.

7 The house was built with stone finished at the quarry so that neither hammer nor ax nor any tool of iron was heard in the temple while it was being built.*

8 The entrance for the lower[q] story was on the south side of the house: one went up by winding stairs to the middle story and from the middle story to the third. 9So he built the house and finished it; he roofed the house with beams and planks of cedar.* 10He built the structure against the whole house, each story[r] five cubits high, and it was joined to the house with timbers of cedar.

11 Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon, 12"Concerning this house that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, obey my ordinances, and keep all my commandments by walking in them, then I will establish my promise with you that I made to your father David.* 13I will dwell among the Israelites and will not forsake my people Israel."*

14 So Solomon built the house and finished it.* 15He lined the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the rafters of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood, and he covered the floor of the house with boards of cypress. [16]He built twenty cubits of the rear of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the rafters, and he built this within as an inner sanctuary, as the most holy place.* [17]The house, that is, the nave in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty cubits long. [18]The cedar within the house had carvings of gourds and open flowers; all was cedar; no stone was seen.* [19]The inner sanctuary he prepared in the innermost part of the house, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. [20]The interior of the inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high; he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the altar with cedar.[s] [21]Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold, then he drew chains of gold across, in front of the inner sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold. [22]Next he overlaid the whole house with gold, in order that the whole house might be perfect; even the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.*

THE FURNISHINGS OF THE TEMPLE

23 In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olivewood, each ten cubits high.* [24]Five cubits was the length of one wing of the cherub and five cubits the length of the other wing of the cherub; it was ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other. [25]The other cherub also measured ten cubits; both cherubim had the same measure and the same form. [26]The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was that of the other cherub. [27]He put the cherubim in the innermost part of the house; the wings of the cherubim were spread out so that a wing of one was touching the one wall and a wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall; their other wings toward the center of the house were touching wing to wing.* [28]He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 He carved the walls of the house all around about with carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, in the inner and outer rooms. [30]The floor of the house he overlaid with gold, in the inner and outer rooms.

31 For the entrance to the inner sanctuary he made doors of olivewood; the lintel and the doorposts were five-sided.[t] [32]He covered the two doors of olivewood with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; he overlaid them with gold and spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

33 So also he made for the entrance to the nave doorposts of olivewood, four-sided each, [34]and two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.* [35]He carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, overlaying them with gold evenly applied upon the carved work. [36]He built the inner court with three courses of dressed stone to one course of cedar beams.*

37 In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.* [38]In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its parts and according to all its specifications. He was seven years in building it.

1 Kings 7

SOLOMON'S PALACE AND OTHER BUILDINGS

1 Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished his entire house.*

2 He built the House of the Forest of the Lebanon one hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high, built on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars.* [3]It was roofed with cedar on the forty-five rafters, fifteen in each row, which were on the pillars. [4]There were window frames in the three rows, facing each other in the three rows. [5]All the doorways and doorposts had four-sided frames, opposite, facing each other in the three rows.

6 He made the Hall of Pillars fifty cubits long and thirty cubits wide. There was a porch in front with pillars and a canopy in front of them.

7 He made the Hall of the Throne where he was to pronounce judgment, the Hall of Justice, covered with cedar from the floor to the rafters.[u],*

8 His own house where he would reside, in the other court back of the hall, was of the same construction. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken in marriage.*

9 All these were made of costly stones, cut according to measure, sawed with saws, back and front, from the foundation to the coping and from outside to the great court. [10]The foundation was of costly stones, huge stones, stones of eight and ten cubits. [11]There were costly stones above, cut to measure, and cedarwood. [12]The great court had three courses of dressed stone to one layer of cedar beams all around; so had the inner court of the house of the LORD and the vestibule of the house.*

PRODUCTS OF HIRAM THE BRONZEWORKER

13 Now King Solomon invited and received Hiram from Tyre.* [14]He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, whose father, a man of Tyre, had been an artisan in bronze; he was full of skill, intelligence, and knowledge in working bronze. He came to King Solomon and did all his work.*

15 He cast two pillars of bronze. Eighteen cubits was the height of the one, and a cord of twelve cubits would encircle it; the second pillar was the same.[v,] [16]He also made two capitals of molten bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. [17]There were nets of checker work with wreaths of chain work for the capitals on the tops of the pillars, seven for the one capital and seven for the other capital. [18]He made the columns with two rows around each latticework to cover the capitals that were above the pomegranates; he did the same with the other capital. [19]Now the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars in the vestibule were of lily-work, four cubits high. [20]The capitals were on the two pillars and also above the rounded projection that was beside the latticework; there were two hundred pomegranates in rows all around, and so with the other capital. [21]He set up the pillars at the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the south and called it Jachin, and he set up the pillar on the north and called it Boaz.* [22]On the tops of the pillars was lily-work. Thus the work of the pillars was finished.

23 Then he made the molten sea; it was round, ten cubits from brim to brim, and five cubits high. A line of thirty cubits would encircle it completely.* [24]Under its brim were gourds[w] all around it, each of ten cubits, surrounding the sea; there were two rows of gourds,[x] cast when it was cast.* [25]It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the sea was set on them. The hindquarters of each were toward the inside.* [26]Its thickness was a handbreadth; its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held two thousand baths.[y]

27 He also made the ten stands of bronze; each stand was four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three cubits high.* [28]This was the construction of the stands: they had borders; the borders were within the frames; [29]on the borders that were set in the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. On the frames, both above and below the lions and oxen, there were wreaths of beveled work. [30]Each stand had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze; at the four corners were supports for a basin. The supports were cast with wreaths at the side of each.* 31Its opening was within the crown, whose height was one cubit; its opening was round, as a pedestal is made; it was a cubit and a half wide. At its opening there were carvings; its borders were four-sided, not round. 32The four wheels were underneath the borders; the axles of the wheels were in the stands; and the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half. 33The wheels were made like a chariot wheel; their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast. 34There were four supports at the four corners of each stand; the supports were of one piece with the stands. 35On the top of the stand there was a round band half a cubit high; on the top of the stand, its stays and its borders were of one piece with it.

36On the surfaces of its stays and on its borders he carved cherubim, lions, and palm trees where each had space, with wreaths all around. 37In this way he made the ten stands; all of them were cast alike, with the same size and the same form.*

38 He made ten basins of bronze; each basin held forty baths;z each basin measured four cubits; there was a basin for each of the ten stands.* 39He set five of the stands on the south side of the house and five on the north side of the house; he set the sea on the southeast corner of the house.

40 Hiram also made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished all the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of the LORD: 41the two pillars, the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars, the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars;* 42the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;* 43the ten stands, the ten basins on the stands; 44the one sea and the twelve oxen underneath the sea.*

45 The pots, the shovels, and the basins—all these vessels that Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze.* 46In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.* 47Solomon left all the vessels unweighed because there were so many of them; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

48 So Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, the golden table for the bread of the Presence,* 49the lampstands of pure gold, five on the south side and five on the north, in front of the inner sanctuary; the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;* 50the cups, snuffers, basins, dishes for incense, and firepans, of pure gold; the sockets for the doors of the innermost part of the house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the main hall of the temple, of gold.

51 Thus all the work that King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated, the silver, the gold, and the vessels, and stored them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.*

1 Kings 8

DEDICATION OF THE TEMPLE

1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the ancestral houses of the Israelites, before King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.* 2All the people of Israel assembled to King Solomon at the festival in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.* 3And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests carried the ark.* 4So they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up.* 5King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.* 6Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, in the inner sanctuary of the house, the most holy place, underneath the wings of the cherubim.* 7For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering above the ark and its poles. 8The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen from outside; they are there to this day.* 9There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone that Moses had placed there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites when they came out of the land of Egypt.* 10And when the priests came out of the holy place, a cloud filled the house of the LORD,* 11so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12 Then Solomon said,

"The LORD has said that he would dwell in thick darkness.*

13I have built you an exalted house, a place for you to dwell forever."*

SOLOMON'S SPEECH

14 Then the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.* 15He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David, saying,* 16'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city from any of the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there, nor did I choose anyone to be a ruler over my people Israel. But I have chosen Jerusalem in order that my name may be there,[a] and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.'* 17My father David had it in mind to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.* 18But the LORD said to my father David, 'You did well to consider building a house for my name; 19nevertheless, you shall not build the house, but your son who shall be born to you shall build the house for my name.'* 20Now the LORD has fulfilled the promise that he made, for I have risen in the place of my father David; I sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.* 21There I have provided a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with our ancestors when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."*

SOLOMON'S PRAYER OF DEDICATION

22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands to heaven.* 23He said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and steadfast love with your servants who walk before you with all their heart,* 24the covenant that you kept for your servant my father David as you declared to him; you promised with your mouth and have this day fulfilled with your hand. 25Therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant my father David that which you promised him, saying, 'There shall never fail you a successor before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children look to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.'* 26Therefore, O God of Israel, let your word be confirmed that you promised to your servant my father David.*

27 "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built!* 28Regard your servant's prayer and his plea, O LORD my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you today, [29]that your eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which you said, 'My name shall be there,' that you may heed the prayer that your servant prays toward this place.* [30]Hear the plea of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place; O hear in heaven your dwelling place; hear and forgive.*

31 "If someone sins against a neighbor and is required to take an oath and comes and swears before your altar in this house,* [32]then hear in heaven, and act, and judge your servants, condemning the guilty by bringing their conduct on their own heads and vindicating the righteous by rewarding them according to their righteousness.*

33 "When your people Israel, having sinned against you, are defeated before an enemy but turn again to you, confess your name, pray and plead with you in this house,* [34]then hear in heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land that you gave to their ancestors.

35 "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you and then they pray toward this place, confess your name, and turn from their sin because you punish[b] them,* [36]then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk, and grant rain on your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance.*

37 "If there is famine in the land, if there is plague, blight, mildew, locust, or caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in any[c] of their cities; whatever suffering, whatever sickness there is;* [38]whatever prayer, whatever plea there is from any individual or from all your people Israel, all knowing the suffering of their own hearts so that they stretch out their hands toward this house; [39]then hear in heaven your dwelling place, forgive, act, and render to all whose hearts you know—according to all their ways, for only you know the human heart*—[40]so that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land that you gave to our ancestors.*

41 "Likewise when foreigners, who are not of your people Israel, come from a distant land because of your name [42]—for they shall hear of your great name, your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm—when foreigners come and pray toward this house,* [43]then hear in heaven your dwelling place and do whatever the foreigners ask of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and so they may know that your name has been invoked on this house that I have built.*

44 "If your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city that you have chosen and the house that I have built for your name, [45]then hear in heaven their prayer and their plea and maintain their cause.

46 "If they sin against you—for there is no one who does not sin—and you are angry with them and give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near,* [47]then if they come to their senses in the land to which they have been taken captive and repent and plead with you in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned and have done wrong; we have acted wickedly,'* [48]if they repent with all their heart and soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive and pray to you toward their land that you gave to their ancestors, the city that you have chosen, and the house that I have built for your name,* [49]then hear in heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their plea, maintain their cause, [50]and forgive your people who have sinned against you and all their transgressions that they have committed against you, and grant them compassion in the sight of their captors, so that they may have compassion on them* [51](for they are your people and heritage that you brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron smelter).* [52]Let your eyes be open to the plea of your servant and to the plea of your people Israel, listening to them whenever they call to you. [53]For you have separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be your heritage, just as you promised through Moses, your servant, when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."*

SOLOMON BLESSES THE ASSEMBLY

54 Now when Solomon finished offering all this prayer and this plea to the LORD, he arose from facing the altar of the LORD, where he had knelt with hands outstretched toward heaven; [55]he stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice:*

56 "Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel according to all that he promised; not one word has failed of all his good promise that he spoke through his servant Moses.* 57The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our ancestors; may he not leave us or abandon us,* 58but incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances that he commanded our ancestors.* 59Let these words of mine, with which I pleaded before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, and may he maintain the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires, 60so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.* 61Therefore devote yourselves completely to the LORD our God, walking in his statutes and keeping his commandments, as at this day."*

SOLOMON OFFERS SACRIFICES

62 Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before the LORD.* 63Solomon offered as sacrifices of well-being to the LORD twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. 64The same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD, for there he offered the burnt offerings and the grain offerings and the fat pieces of the sacrifices of well-being, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offerings and the grain offerings and the fat pieces of the sacrifices of well-being.*

65 So Solomon held the festival at that time and all Israel with him—a great assembly, people from Lebo-hamath to the Wadi of Egypt—before the LORD our God, seven days.[d],* 66On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their tents joyful and in good spirits because of all the goodness that the LORD had shown to his servant David and to his people Israel.

1 Kings 9

GOD APPEARS AGAIN TO SOLOMON

1 When Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king's house and all that Solomon desired to build,* 2the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.* 3The LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your plea that you made before me; I have consecrated this house that you have built and put my name there forever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.* 4As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, with integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you and keeping my statutes and my ordinances,* 5then I will establish your royal throne over Israel forever, as I promised your father David, saying,
'You shall never lack a successor on the throne of Israel.'*

6 "If you turn aside from following me, you or your children, and do not keep my commandments and my statutes that I have set before you but go and serve other gods and worship them,* 7then I will cut Israel off from the land that I have given them, and the house that I have consecrated for my name I will cast out of my sight, and Israel will become a proverb and a taunt among all peoples.* 8This house will become a heap of ruins;[e] everyone passing by it will be astonished and will hiss, and they will say, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this house?'* 9Then they will say, 'Because they abandoned the LORD their God, who brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, worshiping them and serving them; therefore the LORD brought this disaster upon them.' "

10 At the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house,* 11King Hiram of Tyre having supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold, as much as he desired, King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.* 12But when Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given him, they did not please him. 13Therefore he said, "What kind of cities are these that you have given me, my brother?" So they are called the land of Cabul[f] to this day.* 14But Hiram had sent to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold.

OTHER ACTS OF SOLOMON

15 This is the account of the forced labor that King Solomon conscripted to build the house of the LORD and his own house, the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, Gezer* 16(Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer and burned it down, had killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and had given it as dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife;* 17so Solomon rebuilt Gezer), Lower Beth-horon,* 18Baalath, Tadmor in the wilderness, within the land, 19as well as all of Solomon's storage cities, the cities for his chariots, the cities for his cavalry, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.* 20All the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the people of Israel*—21their descendants who were still left in the land, whom the Israelites were unable to destroy completely—these Solomon conscripted for slave labor, and so they are to this day.* 22But of the Israelites Solomon made no slaves; they were the soldiers; they were his officials, his commanders, his captains, and the commanders of his chariotry and cavalry.*

23 These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work: five hundred fifty who had charge of the people who carried on the work.*

24 But Pharaoh's daughter went up from the city of David to her own house that Solomon had built for her; then he built the Millo.*

25 Three times a year Solomon used to offer up burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being on the altar that he built for the LORD, offering incense[g] before the LORD. So he completed the house.*

SOLOMON'S COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY

26 King Solomon built a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea,[h] in the land of Edom.* 27Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who were familiar with the sea, together with the servants of Solomon.* [28]They went to Ophir and imported from there four hundred twenty talents of gold that they delivered to King Solomon.*

1 Kings 10

VISIT OF THE QUEEN OF SHEBA

1 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon (fame due to[i] the name of the LORD), she came to test him with riddles.* [2]She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices and very much gold and precious stones, and when she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind. [3]Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from the king that he could not explain to her. [4]When the queen of Sheba had observed all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, [5]the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his valets, and his burnt offerings that he offered at the house of the LORD, it took her breath away.*

6 So she said to the king, "The report was true that I heard in my own land of your accomplishments and of your wisdom, [7]but I did not believe the reports until I came and my own eyes saw it. Not even half had been told me; your wisdom and prosperity far surpass the report that I had heard.
[8]Happy are your wives![j] Happy are these your servants who continually attend you and hear your wisdom! [9]Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD loved Israel forever, he has made you king to execute justice and righteousness."* [10]Then she gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, a great quantity of spices, and precious stones; never again did spices come in such quantity as that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

11 Moreover, the fleet of Hiram, which carried gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a great quantity of almug wood and precious stones.* [12]From the almug wood the king made supports for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers; no such almug wood has come or been seen to this day.*

13 Meanwhile, King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba every desire that she expressed, as well as what he gave her out of Solomon's royal bounty. Then she returned to her own land with her servants.

14 The weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,* 15besides that which came from the traders and from the business of the merchants and from all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land. 16King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each large shield.* 17He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went into each shield; and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.*
18The king also made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with the finest gold.* 19The throne had six steps. The top of the throne was rounded in the back, and on each side of the seat were arm rests and two lions standing beside the arm rests, 20while twelve lions were standing, one on each end of a step on the six steps. Nothing like it was ever made in any kingdom. 21All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver—it was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon. 22For the king had a fleet of ships of Tarshish at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the fleet of ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.[k,*]

23 Thus King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.* 24The whole earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put into his mind.* 25Every one of them brought a present, objects of silver and gold, garments, weaponry, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

26 Solomon gathered together chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.* 27The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stone, and he made cedar as plentiful as the sycamores of the Shephelah. 28Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Kue, and the king's traders received them from Kue at a price.* 29A chariot could be imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver and a horse for one hundred fifty, so through the king's traders they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.*

1 Kings 11

SOLOMON'S ERRORS

1 King Solomon loved many foreign women along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women,* 2 from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the Israelites, "You shall not enter into marriage with them, neither shall they with you, for they will surely incline your heart to follow their gods." Solomon clung to these in love.* 3 Among his wives were seven hundred princesses and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned away his heart. 4 For when Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods, and his heart was not true to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David.* 5 For Solomon followed Astarte the goddess of the Sidonians and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.* 6 So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and did not completely follow the LORD, as his father David had done. 7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab and for Molech the abomination of the Ammonites on the mountain east of Jerusalem.* 8 He did the same for all his foreign wives who offered incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9 Then the LORD was angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice* 10 and had commanded him concerning this matter, that he should not follow other gods, but he did not observe what the LORD had commanded.*
11 Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this has been your mind and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes that I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and give it to your servant.*
12 Yet for the sake of your father David I will not do it in your lifetime; I will tear it out of the hand of your son. 13 I will not, however, tear away the entire kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."*

ADVERSARIES OF SOLOMON

14 Then the LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the royal house in Edom. [15]For when David was destroying[l] Edom and Joab the commander of the army went up to bury the dead, he killed every male in Edom* [16](for Joab and all Israel remained there six months until he had eliminated every male in Edom), [17]but Hadad fled to Egypt with some Edomites who were servants of his father. He was a young boy at that time. [18]They set out from Midian and came to Paran; they took people with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, assigned him an allowance of food, and gave him land. [19]Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him his sister-in-law for a wife, the sister of Queen Tahpenes. [20]The sister of Tahpenes gave birth by him to his son Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the children of Pharaoh. [21]When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his ancestors and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."* [22]But Pharaoh said to him, "What do you lack with me that you now seek to go to your own country?" And he said, "No, do let me go."

23 God raised up another adversary against Solomon,[m] Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, King Hadadezer of Zobah.* [24]He gathered followers around him and became leader of a marauding band, after the killing by David; they went to Damascus, settled there, and made him king in Damascus.* [25]He was an adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon, making trouble as Hadad did; he despised Israel and reigned over Aram.

JEROBOAM'S REBELLION

26 Jeroboam son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, rebelled against the king.* [27]The following was the reason he rebelled against the king. Solomon built the Millo and closed up the gap in the wall[n] of the city of his father David.* [28]The man Jeroboam was very able, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he gave him charge over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph. [29]About that time, when Jeroboam was leaving Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road.

Ahijah had clothed himself with a new garment. The two of them were alone in the open country* 30when Ahijah laid hold of the new garment he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.* 31He then said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: See, I am about to tear the kingdom from the hand of Solomon and will give you ten tribes.* 32One tribe will remain his, for the sake of my servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. 33This is because he has[o] forsaken me, worshiped Astarte the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and has[p] not walked in my ways, doing what is right in my sight and keeping my statutes and my ordinances, as his father David did.* 34Nevertheless, I will not take the whole kingdom away from him but will make him ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of my servant David whom I chose and who did keep my commandments and my statutes, 35but I will take the kingdom away from his son and give it to you—that is, the ten tribes.* 36Yet to his son I will give one tribe, so that my servant David may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen to put my name.* 37I will take you, and you shall reign over all that your soul desires; you shall be king over Israel. 38If you will listen to all that I command you, walk in my ways, and do what is right in my sight by keeping my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, I will be with you and will build you an enduring house, as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you.* 39For this reason I will punish the descendants of David, but not forever." 40Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam promptly fled to Egypt, to King Shishak of Egypt, and remained in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

DEATH OF SOLOMON

41 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, all that he did as well as his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of the Acts of Solomon?* 42The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.* 43Solomon slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of his father David, and his son Rehoboam succeeded him.*

1 Kings 12

THE NORTHERN TRIBES SECEDE

1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.* 2When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of it (for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), then Jeroboam remained in Egypt.* 3And they sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and said to Rehoboam, 4"Your father made our yoke heavy.
Now, therefore, lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke that he placed on us, and we will serve you."* 5He said to them, "Go away for three days, then come again to me." So the people went away.*

6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the older men who had attended his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?" 7They answered him, "If you will be a servant to this people today and serve them and speak good words to them when you answer them, then they will be your servants forever."* 8But he disregarded the advice that the older men gave him and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and now attended him.* 9He said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put on us'?" 10The young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus you should say to this people who spoke to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you must lighten it for us'; thus you should say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. 11Now, whereas my father laid on you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.' "

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had said, "Come to me again the third day."* 13The king answered the people harshly. He disregarded the advice that the older men had given him 14and spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."* 15So the king did not listen to the people because it was a turn of affairs brought about by the LORD to fulfill his word that the LORD had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.*

16 When all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king,

"What share do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
To your tents, O Israel!
Look now to your own house, O David."

So Israel went away to their tents.* [17]But Rehoboam reigned over the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah.* [18]When King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was taskmaster over the forced labor, all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam then hurriedly mounted his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.* [19]So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.*

FIRST DYNASTY: JEROBOAM REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

20 When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. There was no one who followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone.*

21 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen troops, to fight against the house of Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon.* [22]But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God: [23]"Say to King Rehoboam of Judah, son of Solomon, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people: [24]Thus says the LORD: You shall not go up or fight against your kindred the people of Israel. Let everyone go home, for this thing is from me." So they heeded the word of the LORD and went home again, according to the word of the LORD.*

JEROBOAM'S GOLDEN CALVES

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and resided there; he went out from there and built Penuel.* [26]Then Jeroboam said to himself, “Now the kingdom may well revert to the house of David.

27If this people continues to go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, the heart of this people will turn again to their master, King Rehoboam of Judah; they will kill me and return to King Rehoboam of Judah.”* 28So the king took counsel and made two calves of gold. He said to the people,[q] “You have gone up to Jerusalem long enough. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.”* 29He set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.* 30And this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one at Bethel and before the other as far as Dan.[r,] 31He also made houses[s] on high places and appointed priests from among all the people who were not Levites. 32Jeroboam appointed a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the festival that was in Judah, and he offered sacrifices on the altar; so he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made.* 33He went up to the altar that he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month that he had selected on his own; he appointed a festival for the people of Israel, and he went up to the altar to offer incense.*

1 Kings 13

A MAN OF GOD FROM JUDAH

1 A man of God came out of Judah by the word of the LORD to Bethel, while Jeroboam was standing by the altar to offer incense.* [2]And he cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD and said, "O altar, altar, thus says the LORD: A son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name, and he shall sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who offer incense on you, and human bones shall be burned on you."* [3]He gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign that the LORD has spoken: The altar shall be torn down, and the ashes that are on it shall be poured out."* [4]When the king heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him!" But the hand that he stretched out against him withered so that he could not draw it back to himself. [5]The altar also was torn down, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. [6]The king said to the man of God, "Entreat now the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, so that my hand may be restored to me." So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him and became as it was before.* [7]Then the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and dine, and I will give you a gift."* [8]But the man of God said to the king, "If you give me half your kingdom, I will not go in with you, nor will I eat food or drink water in this place.* [9]For thus I was commanded by the word of the LORD: 'You shall not eat food, or drink water, or return by the way that you came.' " [10]So he went another way and did not return by the way that he had come to Bethel.

11 Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel. One of his sons came and told him all that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words also that he had spoken to the king, they told to their father.* [12]Their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons showed him the way that the man of God who came from Judah had gone. [13]Then he said to his sons, "Saddle a donkey for me." So they saddled a donkey for him, and he mounted it. [14]He went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak tree. He said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” He answered, “I am.” 15Then he said to him, “Come home with me and eat some food.” 16But he said, “I cannot return with you or go in with you, nor will I eat food or drink water with you in this place,* 17for it was said to me by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall not eat food or drink water there or return by the way that you came.’ ”* 18Then the other[t] said to him, “I also am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, ‘Bring him back with you into your house so that he may eat food and drink water.’ ” But he was deceiving him. 19Then the man of God[u] went back with him and ate food and drank water in his house.

20 As they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back, 21and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, “Thus says the LORD: Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD and have not kept the commandment that the LORD your God commanded you* 22but have come back and have eaten food and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, ‘Eat no food, and drink no water,’ your body shall not come to your ancestral tomb.” 23After the man of God[v] had eaten food and had drunk, they saddled for him a donkey belonging to the prophet who had brought him back. 24Then as he went away, a lion met him on the road and killed him. His body was thrown in the road, and the donkey stood beside it; the lion also stood beside the body.* 25People passed by and saw the body thrown in the road, with the lion standing by the body. And they came and told it in the town where the old prophet lived.*

26 When the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, “It is the man of God who disobeyed the word of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him according to the word that the LORD spoke to him.”* 27Then he said to his sons, “Saddle a donkey for me.” So they saddled one, 28and he went and found the body thrown in the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside the body. The lion had not eaten the body or attacked the donkey. 29The prophet took up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to the city[w] to mourn and to bury him. 30He laid the body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother!”* 31After he had buried him, he said to his sons, “When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.* 32For the saying that he proclaimed by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria shall surely come to pass."*

33 Even after this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way but made priests for the high places again from among all the people; any who wanted to be priests he consecrated for the high places.* 34This matter became sin to the house of Jeroboam, so as to cut it off and to destroy it from the face of the earth.*

1 Kings 14

JUDGMENT ON THE HOUSE OF JEROBOAM

1 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam fell sick. [2]Jeroboam said to his wife, "Go, disguise yourself so that it will not be known that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh, for the prophet Ahijah is there, who said of me that I should be king over this people.* [3]Take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what shall happen to the child."*

4 Jeroboam's wife did so; she set out and went to Shiloh and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were dim because of his age.* [5]But the LORD said to Ahijah, "The wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you concerning her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her when she comes. She will pretend to be another woman."*

6 But when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam; why do you pretend to be another? For I am charged with heavy tidings for you. [7]Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because I exalted you from among the people, made you leader over my people Israel,* [8]and tore the kingdom away from the house of David to give it to you, yet you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commandments and followed me with all his heart, doing only that which was right in my sight,* [9]but you have done evil above all those who were before you and have gone and made for yourself other gods and cast images, provoking me to anger, and have thrust me behind your back,* [10]therefore I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off from Jeroboam every male, both bond and free in Israel, and will consume the house of Jeroboam, just as one burns up dung until it is all gone.* [11]Anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and anyone who dies in the open country the birds of the air shall eat, for the LORD has spoken.'* [12]Therefore set out, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.* [13]All Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he alone of Jeroboam's family shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something pleasing to the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.* 14Moreover the LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam today, even right now![x,*]

15 "The LORD will strike Israel as a reed is shaken in the water; he will root up Israel out of this good land that he gave to their ancestors and scatter them beyond the Euphrates, because they have made their sacred poles,[y] provoking the LORD to anger.* 16He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he sinned and which he caused Israel to commit."*

17 Then Jeroboam's wife got up and went away, and she came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. 18All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by his servant the prophet Ahijah.

DEATH OF JEROBOAM

19 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred and how he reigned, are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.* 20The time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years; then he slept with his ancestors, and his son Nadab succeeded him.

REHOBOAM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

21 Now Rehoboam son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite.* 22Judah did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; they provoked him to jealousy with their sins that they committed, more than all that their ancestors had done.* 23For they also built for themselves high places, pillars, and sacred poles[z] on every high hill and under every green tree;* 24there were also illicit priests in the land. They committed all the abominations of the nations that the LORD had driven out before the people of Israel.*

25 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem;* 26he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. He also took away all the shields of gold that Solomon had made,* 27so King Rehoboam made shields of bronze instead and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard who kept the door of the king's house. 28As often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard carried them and brought them back to the guardroom.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?* 30There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.* 31Rehoboam slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite. His son Abijam succeeded him.*

1 Kings 15

ABIJAM REIGNS OVER JUDAH: IDOLATRY AND WAR

1 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah.* [2]He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom. [3]He committed all the sins that his father did before him; his heart was not true to the LORD his God, like the heart of his father David.* [4]Nevertheless, for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, setting up his son after him and establishing Jerusalem,* [5]because David did what was right in the sight of the LORD and did not turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.* [6]The war begun between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continued all the days of his life.*
[7]The rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.* [8]Abijam slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David. Then his son Asa succeeded him.*

ASA REIGNS OVER JUDAH

9 In the twentieth year of King Jeroboam of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah; [10]he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.* [11]Asa did what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his father David had done.* [12]He put away the illicit priests out of the land and removed all the idols that his ancestors had made.*
[13]He also removed his mother Maacah from being queen mother, because she had made an abominable image for Asherah; Asa cut down her image and burned it at the Wadi Kidron.* [14]But the high places were not taken away.
Nevertheless, the heart of Asa was true to the LORD all his days.* [15]He brought into the house of the LORD the votive gifts of his father and his own votive gifts—silver, gold, and utensils.*

ALLIANCE WITH ARAM AGAINST ISRAEL

16 There was war between Asa and King Baasha of Israel all their days.* [17]King Baasha of Israel went up against Judah and built Ramah to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to King Asa of Judah.* [18]Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house and gave them into the hands of his servants. King Asa sent them to King Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon son of Hezion of Aram, who resided in Damascus, saying,* [19]"Let there be an alliance between me and you, like that between my father and your father: I am sending you a present of silver and gold; go, break your alliance with King Baasha of Israel, so that he may withdraw from me." [20]Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. He conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.* [21]When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah and lived in Tirzah. [22]Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah; none was exempt: they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building; with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.* [23]Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his power, all that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? But in his old age he was diseased in his feet.* [24]Then Asa slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of his father David; his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him.*

NADAB REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

25 Nadab son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of King Asa of Judah; he reigned over Israel two years.* [26]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of his ancestor and in the sin that he caused Israel to commit.*

27 Baasha son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.* [28]So Baasha killed Nadab[a] in the third year of King Asa of Judah and succeeded him. [29]As soon as he was king, he killed all the house of Jeroboam; he left to the house of Jeroboam not one who breathed, until he had destroyed it, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite* —[30]because of the sins of Jeroboam that he committed and that he caused Israel to commit and because of the anger to which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel.*

31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?* [32]There was war between Asa and King Baasha of Israel all their days.

SECOND DYNASTY: BAASHA REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

33 In the third year of King Asa of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel at Tirzah; he reigned twenty-four years. [34]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam and in the sin that he caused Israel to commit.*

1 Kings 16

1 The word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,* 2"Since I exalted you out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have caused my people Israel to sin, provoking me to anger with their sins,* 3therefore I will consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat.* 4Anyone belonging to Baasha who dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and anyone of his who dies in the field the birds of the air shall eat."*

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, what he did, and his power, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?* 6Baasha slept with his ancestors and was buried at Tirzah, and his son Elah succeeded him.* 7Moreover, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and also because he destroyed it.*

ELAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

8 In the twenty-sixth year of King Asa of Judah, Elah son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah; he reigned two years. 9But his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. When he was at Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was in charge of the palace at Tirzah,* 10Zimri came in and struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of King Asa of Judah, and succeeded him.

11 When he began to reign, as soon as he had seated himself on his throne, he killed all the house of Baasha; he did not leave him a single male of his kindred or his friends. 12Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he had spoken against Baasha by the prophet Jehu,* 13because of all the sins of Baasha and the sins of his son Elah that they committed and that they caused Israel to commit, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.* 14Now the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?*

THIRD DYNASTY: ZIMRI REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

15 In the twenty-seventh year of King Asa of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines,* [16]and the troops who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired, and he has killed the king"; therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. [17]So Omri went up from Gibbethon and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. [18]When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king's house; he burned down the king's house over himself with fire and died*—[19]because of the sins that he committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and for the sin that he committed, causing Israel to sin.* [20]Now the rest of the acts of Zimri and the conspiracy that he made, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?*

FOURTH DYNASTY: OMRI REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath to make him king, and half followed Omri. [22]But the people who followed Omri overcame the people who followed Tibni son of Ginath, so Tibni died, and Omri became king. [23]In the thirty-first year of King Asa of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel; he reigned for twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.*

SAMARIA THE NEW CAPITAL

24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; he fortified the hill and called the city that he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.*

25 Omri did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did more evil than all who were before him. [26]For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in the sins that he caused Israel to commit, provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their idols.* [27]Now the rest of the acts of Omri that he did and the power that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel? [28]Omri slept with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria; his son Ahab succeeded him.

AHAB REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

29 In the thirty-eighth year of King Asa of Judah, Ahab son of Omri began to reign over Israel; Ahab son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. [30]Ahab son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD more than all who were before him.*

AHAB MARRIES JEZEBEL AND WORSHIPS BAAL

31 And as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, he took as his wife Jezebel daughter of King Ethbaal of the Sidonians and went and served Baal and worshiped him.* [32]He erected an altar for Baal in the house of Baal that he built in Samaria.* [33]Ahab also made a sacred pole.[b] Ahab did more to provoke the anger of the LORD, the God of Israel, than had all the kings of Israel who were before him.* [34]In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho; he laid its foundation at the cost of Abiram his firstborn and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Joshua son of Nun.*

1 Kings 17

ELIJAH PREDICTS A DROUGHT

1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, of Tishbe[c] in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word."* [2]The word of the LORD came to him, saying, [3]"Go from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the Wadi Cherith, which is east of the Jordan. [4]You shall drink from the wadi, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there." [5]So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; he went and lived by the Wadi Cherith, which is east of the Jordan. [6]The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the wadi.
[7]But after a while the wadi dried up because there was no rain in the land.

THE WIDOW OF ZAREPHATH

8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, [9]"Go now to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there, for I have commanded a widow there to feed you."* [10]So he set out and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the town, a widow was there gathering sticks; he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, so that I may drink." [11]As she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." [12]But she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am now gathering a couple of sticks so that I may go home and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and die."* [13]Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid; go and do as you have said, but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make something for yourself and your son. [14]For thus says the LORD the God of Israel: The jar of meal will not be emptied and the jug of oil will not fail until the day that the LORD sends rain on the earth."* [15]She went and did as Elijah said, so that she as well as he and her household ate for many days. [16]The jar of meal was not emptied, neither did the jug of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by Elijah.

ELIJAH REVIVES THE WIDOW'S SON

17 After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill; his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. [18]She then said to Elijah, "What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance and to cause the death of my son!"* [19]But he said to her, "Give me your son." He took him from her bosom, carried him up into the upper chamber where he was lodging, and laid him on his own bed. [20]He cried out to the LORD, "O LORD my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I am staying, by killing her son?" [21]Then he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried out to the LORD, "O LORD my God, let this child's life come into him again."* [22]The LORD listened to the voice of Elijah; the life of the child came into him again, and he revived.* [23]Elijah took the child, brought him down from the upper chamber into the house, and gave him to his mother; then Elijah said, "See, your son is alive." [24]So the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth."*

1 Kings 18

ELIJAH'S MESSAGE TO AHAB

1 After many days the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year of the drought,[d] saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab; I will send rain on the earth."* [2]So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. The famine was severe in Samaria. [3]Ahab summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of the palace.
(Now Obadiah revered the LORD greatly; [4]when Jezebel was killing off the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets, hid them fifty to a cave, and provided them with bread and water.)* [5]Then Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the wadis; perhaps we may find grass to keep the horses and mules alive and not lose some of the animals." [6]So they divided the land between them to pass through it; Ahab went in one direction by himself, and Obadiah went in another direction by himself.

7 As Obadiah was on the way, Elijah met him; Obadiah recognized him, fell on his face, and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"* [8]He answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord that Elijah is here." [9]And he said, "How have I sinned, that you would hand your servant over to Ahab to kill me? [10]As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom to which my lord has not sent to seek you, and when they would say, 'He is not here,' he would require an oath of the kingdom or nation that they had not found you.* [11]But now you say, 'Go, tell your lord that Elijah is here.' [12]As soon as I have gone from you, the spirit of the LORD will carry you I know not where; so, when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although I your servant have revered the LORD from my youth.* [13]Has it not been told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred of the LORD's prophets fifty to a cave and provided them with bread and water?* [14]Yet now you say, 'Go, tell your lord that Elijah is here'; he will surely kill me." [15]Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today."* [16]So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is it you, you troubler of Israel?"* [18]He answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but you have, and your father's house, because you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and followed the Baals.* [19]Now therefore have all Israel assemble for me at Mount Carmel, with the four hundred fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table."*

ELIJAH'S TRIUMPH OVER THE PRIESTS OF BAAL

20 So Ahab sent to all the Israelites and assembled the prophets at Mount Carmel. [21]Elijah then came near to all the people and said, "How long will you go limping with two different opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him, but if Baal, then follow him." The people did not answer him a word.* [22]Then Elijah said to the people, "I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD, but Baal's prophets number four hundred fifty.* [23]Let two bulls be given to us; let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood but put no fire to it; I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood but put no fire to it. [24]Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD; the god who answers by fire is indeed God." All the people answered, "Well spoken!"* [25]Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first, for you are many; then call on the name of your god, but put no fire to it." [26]So they took the bull that was given them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, crying, "O Baal, answer us!" But there was no voice and no answer. They limped about the altar that they had made.* [27]At noon Elijah mocked them, saying, "Cry aloud! Surely he is a god; either he is meditating, or he has wandered away, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened." [28]Then they cried aloud, and, as was their custom, they cut themselves with swords and lances until the blood gushed out over them.* [29]As midday passed, they raved on until the time of the offering of the oblation, but there was no voice, no answer, and no response.*

30 Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come closer to me," and all the people came closer to him. First he repaired the altar of the LORD that had been thrown down;* [31]Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying,

"Israel shall be your name";* 32with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. Then he made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two measures of seed.* 33Next he put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood."* 34Then he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time. Again he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time, 35so that the water ran all around the altar and filled the trench also with water.

36 At the time of the offering of the oblation, the prophet Elijah came near and said, "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your bidding.* 37Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so that this people may know that you, O LORD, are God and that you have turned their hearts back." 38Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust and even licked up the water that was in the trench.* 39When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said, "The LORD indeed is God; the LORD indeed is God."* 40Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape." Then they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon and killed them there.*

THE DROUGHT ENDS

41 Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink, for there is a sound of rushing rain." 42So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; there he bowed himself down upon the earth and put his face between his knees.* 43He said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." He went up and looked and said, "There is nothing." Then he said, "Go again seven times." 44At the seventh time he said, "Look, a little cloud no bigger than a person's hand is rising out of the sea." Then he said, "Go say to Ahab, 'Harness your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.' " 45In a little while the heavens grew black with clouds and wind; there was a heavy rain. Ahab rode off and went to Jezreel. 46But the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; he girded up his loins and ran in front of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.*

1 Kings 19

ELIJAH FLEES FROM JEZEBEL

1 Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.* [2]Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow."* [3]Then he was afraid;[e] he got up and fled for his life and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die, "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors."* [5]Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep.
Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." [6]He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones and a jar of water. He ate and drank and lay down again. [7]The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you." [8]He got up and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.* [9]At that place he came to a cave and spent the night there.

Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" [10]He answered, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts, for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."*

ELIJAH MEETS GOD AT HOREB

11 He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind, and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake,* [12]and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire, and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. [13]When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"* 14He answered, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts, for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."* 15Then the LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram.* 16Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel, and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place.* 17Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill, and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill.* 18Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."*

ELISHA BECOMES ELIJAH'S DISCIPLE

19 So he set out from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him.* 20He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah[f] said to him, "Go back again, for what have I done to you?"* 21He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah and became his servant.*

1 Kings 20

AHAB'S WARS WITH THE ARAMEANS

1 King Ben-hadad of Aram gathered all his army together; thirty-two kings were with him, along with horses and chariots. He marched against Samaria, laid siege to it, and attacked it.* [2]Then he sent messengers into the city to King Ahab of Israel and said to him, "Thus says Ben-hadad: [3]Your silver and gold are mine; your fairest wives and children also are mine." [4]The king of Israel answered, "As you say, my lord, O king, I am yours, and all that I have." [5]The messengers came again and said, "Thus says Ben-hadad: I sent to you, saying, 'Deliver to me your silver and gold, your wives and children'; [6]now I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants and lay hands on whatever pleases them[g] and take it away."

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, "Look now! See how this man is seeking trouble, for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I did not refuse him."* [8]Then all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent." [9]So he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, "Tell my lord the king: All that you first demanded of your servant I will do, but this thing I cannot do." The messengers left and brought him word again. [10]Ben-hadad sent to him and said, "The gods do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria will provide a handful for each of the people who follow me."* [11]The king of Israel answered, "Enough![h] One who puts on armor should not brag like one who takes it off."* [12]When Ben-hadad heard this message—now he had been drinking with the kings in the booths—he said to his men, "Take your positions!" And they took their positions against the city.*

PROPHETIC OPPOSITION TO AHAB

13 Then a certain prophet came up to King Ahab of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD: Have you seen all this great multitude? Look, I will give it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD."*

[14]Ahab said, “By whom?” He said, “Thus says the LORD: By the young men who serve the district governors.” Then he said, “Who shall begin the battle?” He answered, “You.” [15]Then he mustered the young men who served the district governors, two hundred thirty-two; after them he mustered all the people of Israel, seven thousand.

16 They went out at noon, while Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the thirty-two kings allied with him.* [17]The young men who served the district governors went out first. Ben-hadad had sent out scouts,[i] and they reported to him, “Men have come out from Samaria.” [18]He said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive.”*

19 But these had already come out of the city: the young men who served the district governors and the army that followed them. [20]Each killed his man; the Arameans fled, and Israel pursued them, but King Ben-hadad of Aram escaped on a horse with the cavalry. [21]The king of Israel went out, attacked the horses and chariots, and inflicted a massive defeat on the Arameans.

22 Then the prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, “Come, strengthen yourself, and consider well what you have to do, for in the spring the king of Aram will come up against you.”*

THE ARAMEANS ARE DEFEATED

23 The servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their gods are gods of the hills, so they were stronger than we, but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.* [24]Also do this: remove the kings, each from his post, and put commanders in place of them; [25]and muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.” He heeded their voice and did so.

26 In the spring Ben-hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.* [27]After the Israelites had been mustered and provisioned, they went out to engage them; the people of Israel encamped opposite them like two little flocks of goats, while the Arameans filled the country. [28]A man of God approached and said to the king of Israel, “Thus says the LORD: Because the Arameans have said, 'The LORD is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys,' therefore I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD."* 29They encamped opposite one another seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle began; the Israelites killed one hundred thousand Aramean foot soldiers in one day. 30The rest fled into the city of Aphek, and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left.

Ben-hadad also fled and entered the city to hide.* 31His servants said to him, "Look, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings; let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life."* 32So they tied sackcloth around their waists, put ropes on their heads, went to the king of Israel, and said, "Your servant Ben-hadad says, 'Please let me live.' " And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."* 33Now the men were watching for an omen; they quickly took it up from him and said, "Yes, Ben-hadad is your brother." Then he said, "Go and bring him." So Ben-hadad came out to him, and he had him come up into the chariot. 34Ben-hadad[j] said to him, "I will restore the towns that my father took from your father, and you may establish bazaars for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria." The king of Israel responded,[k] "I will let you go on those terms." So he made a treaty with him and let him go.*

A PROPHET CONDEMNS AHAB

35 At the command of the LORD a certain member of a company of prophets[l] said to another, "Strike me!" But the man refused to strike him.* 36Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, as soon as you have left me, a lion will kill you." And when he had left him, a lion met him and killed him.* 37Then he found another man and said, "Strike me!" So the man hit him, striking and wounding him. 38Then the prophet departed and waited for the king along the road, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes. 39As the king passed by, he cried to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the thick of the battle; then a soldier turned and brought a man to me and said, 'Guard this man; if he is missing, your life shall be given for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'* 40While your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." The king of Israel said to him, “So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it.” 41Then he quickly took the bandage away from his eyes. The king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. 42Then he said to him, “Thus says the LORD: Because you have let the man go whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall be for his life and your people for his people.”* 43The king of Israel set out toward home, resentful and sullen, and came to Samaria.*

1 Kings 21

NABOTH'S VINEYARD

1 Later the following events took place: Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel beside the palace of King Ahab of Samaria.* 2And Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your vineyard, so that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near my house; I will give you a better vineyard for it, or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its value in money."* 3But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid that I should give you my ancestral inheritance."* 4Ahab went home resentful and sullen because of what Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him, for he had said, "I will not give you my ancestral inheritance." He lay down on his bed, turned away his face, and would not eat.*

5 His wife Jezebel came to him and said, "Why are you so depressed that you will not eat?" 6He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money, or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it,' but he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.' " 7His wife Jezebel said to him, "Do you now govern Israel? Get up, eat some food, and be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."*

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal; she sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who lived with Naboth in his city.* 9She wrote in the letters, "Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the assembly; 10seat two scoundrels opposite him, and have them bring a charge against him, saying, 'You have cursed God and the king.' Then take him out and stone him to death."* 11The men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent word to them. Just as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them, 12they proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the assembly. 13The two scoundrels came in and sat opposite him, and the scoundrels brought a charge against Naboth in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death.* 14Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned; he is dead."

15 As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Go, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money, for Naboth is not alive but dead." [16]As soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab set out to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

ELIJAH PRONOUNCES GOD'S SENTENCE

17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,* [18]"Go down to meet King Ahab of Israel, who rules[m] in Samaria; he is now in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to take possession.* [19]You shall say to him: Thus says the LORD: Have you killed and also taken possession?
You shall say to him: Thus says the LORD: In the place where dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, dogs will also lick up your blood."*

20 Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" He answered, "I have found you. Because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of the LORD,* [21]I will bring disaster on you; I will consume you and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel,* [22]and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked me to anger and have caused Israel to sin. [23]Also concerning Jezebel the LORD said: The dogs shall eat Jezebel within the bounds of Jezreel.* [24]Anyone belonging to Ahab who dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and anyone of his who dies in the open country the birds of the air shall eat."*

25 (Indeed, there was no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the LORD, urged on by his wife Jezebel. [26]He acted most abominably in going after idols, as the Amorites had done, whom the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.)*

27 When Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes and put sackcloth over his bare flesh; he fasted, lay in the sackcloth, and went about dejectedly.* [28]Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, [29]"Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the disaster in his days, but in his son's days I will bring the disaster on his house."*

1 Kings 22

JOINT CAMPAIGN WITH JUDAH AGAINST ARAM

1 For three years Aram and Israel continued without war. [2]But in the third year King Jehoshaphat of Judah came down to the king of Israel.* [3]The king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us, yet we are doing nothing to take it out of the hand of the king of Aram?"* [4]He said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "I am as you are; my people are your people; my horses are your horses."*

5 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, "Inquire first for the word of the LORD." [6]Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred of them, and said to them, "Shall I go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?" They said, "Go up, for the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."* [7]But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no other prophet of the LORD here of whom we may inquire?"* [8]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one other by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah son of Imlah, but I hate him, for he never prophesies anything favorable about me but only disaster." Jehoshaphat said, "Let the king not say such a thing." [9]Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring quickly Micaiah son of Imlah." [10]Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in their robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them.* [11]Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, "Thus says the LORD: With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are destroyed."* [12]All the prophets were prophesying the same and saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

MICAIAH PREDICTS FAILURE

13 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, the words of the prophets with one accord are favorable to the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably." [14]But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak."*

15 When he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we refrain?" He answered him, "Go up and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."* [16]But the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?" [17]Then Micaiah[n] said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep that have no shepherd, and the LORD said, 'These have no master; let each one go home in peace.' "* [18]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything favorable about me but only disaster?"*

19 Then Micaiah[o] said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, with all the host of heaven standing beside him to the right and to the left of him.* [20]And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab, so that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' Then one said one thing, and another said another, [21]until a certain spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, saying, 'I will entice him.' [22]'How?' the LORD asked him. He replied, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then the LORD[p] said, 'You are to entice him, and you shall succeed; go out and do it.'* [23]So you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; the LORD has decreed disaster for you."*

24 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up to Micaiah, slapped him on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?"* [25]Micaiah replied, "You will find out on that day when you go in to hide in an inner chamber."* [26]The king of Israel then ordered, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son, [27]and say: Thus says the king: Put this fellow in prison, and feed him on reduced rations of bread and water until I come in peace."* [28]Micaiah said, "If you return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Hear, you peoples, all of you!"*

DEFEAT AND DEATH OF AHAB

29 So the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.* [30]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle. [31]Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, "Fight with no one small or great but only with the king of Israel."* [32]When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "It is surely the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.* [33]When the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. [34]But a certain man drew his bow and unknowingly struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate; so he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded." [35]The battle grew hot that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans until at evening he died; the blood from the wound had flowed into the bottom of the chariot. [36]Then about sunset a shout went through the army, "Every man to his city, and every man to his country!"

37 So the king died and was brought to Samaria; they buried the king in Samaria. [38]They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; the dogs licked up his blood, and the prostitutes washed themselves in it,[q] according to the word of the LORD that he had spoken.* [39]Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did and the ivory house that he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?* [40]So Ahab slept with his ancestors, and his son Ahaziah succeeded him.

JEHOSHAPHAT REIGNS OVER JUDAH

41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of King Ahab of Israel.* [42]Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. [43]He walked in all the way of his father Asa; he did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and offered incense on the high places.* [44]Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.*

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat and his power that he showed and how he waged war, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?* 46The remnant of the illicit priests who remained from the days of his father Asa, he purged from the land.*

47 There was no king in Edom; a deputy was king.* 48Jehoshaphat made ships of the Tarshish type to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber.* 49Then Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships," but Jehoshaphat was not willing. 50Jehoshaphat slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of his father David; his son Jehoram succeeded him.*

AHAZIAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

51 Ahaziah son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of King Jehoshaphat of Judah; he reigned two years over Israel.* 52He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father and mother and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.* 53He served Baal and worshiped him; he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, just as his father had done.*

ELIJAH DENOUNCES AHAZIAH

1 After the death of Ahab, Moab rebelled against Israel.*

2 Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice in his upper chamber in Samaria and was injured, so he sent messengers, telling them, "Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury."* [3]But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Get up, go to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?
[4]Now therefore thus says the LORD: You shall not leave the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die." So Elijah went.*

5 The messengers returned to the king, who said to them, "Why have you returned?" [6]They answered him, "There came a man to meet us, who said to us, 'Go back to the king who sent you and say to him: Thus says the LORD: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not leave the bed to which you have gone but shall surely die.' " [7]He said to them, "What sort of man was he who came to meet you and told you these things?" [8]They answered him, "A hairy man with a leather belt around his waist." He said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."*

9 Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. He went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill and said to him, "O man of God, the king says: Come down." [10]But Elijah answered the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.*

11 Again the king sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. He went up[a] and said to him, "O man of God, this is the king's order: Come down quickly!" [12]But Elijah answered him,[b] "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

13 Again the king sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. So the third captain of fifty went up and came and fell on his knees before Elijah and entreated him, "O man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight.* [14]Look, fire came down from heaven and consumed the two former captains of fifty men with their fifties, but now let my life be precious in your sight." [15]Then the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he set out and went down with him to the king* [16]and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron—is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? —therefore you shall not leave the bed to which you have gone, but you shall surely die."*

DEATH OF AHAZIAH

17 So he died according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken. His brother[c] Jehoram succeeded him as king in the second year of King Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat of Judah, because Ahaziah had no son.* [18]Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings 2

ELIJAH ASCENDS TO HEAVEN

1 Now when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal.* [2]Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.* [3]The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent."*

4 Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho.* [5]The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?" And he answered, "Yes, I know; keep silent."*

6 Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on.* [7]Fifty men of the company of prophets also went and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan.* [8]Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, and the two of them crossed on dry ground.*

9 When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." [10]He responded, "You have asked a hard thing, yet if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." [11]As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven.* [12]Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.*

ELISHA SUCCEEDS ELIJAH

13 He picked up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. [14]He took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him and struck the water. He said, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah? Where is he?" He struck the water again, and the water was parted to the one side and to the other, and Elisha crossed over.*

15 When the company of prophets who were at Jericho saw him at a distance, they declared, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." They came to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.* [16]They said to him, "See now, we have fifty strong men among your servants; please let them go and seek your master; it may be that the spirit of the LORD has caught him up and thrown him down on some mountain or into some valley." He responded, "No, do not send them."* [17]But when they urged him to the point of embarrassment, he said, "Send them." So they sent fifty men who searched for three days but did not find him.* [18]When they came back to him (he had remained at Jericho), he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

ELISHA PERFORMS MIRACLES

19 Now the people of the city said to Elisha, "The location of this city is good, as my lord sees, but the water is bad, and the land is unfruitful." [20]He said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him. [21]Then he went to the spring of water and threw the salt into it and said, "Thus says the LORD: I have made this water wholesome; from now on neither death nor miscarriage shall come from it."* [22]So the water has been wholesome to this day, according to the word that Elisha spoke.

23 He went up from there to Bethel, and while he was going up on the way, some small boys came out of the city and jeered at him, saying, "Go away, baldhead! Go away, baldhead!" [24]When he turned around and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two she-bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the boys.* [25]From there he went on to Mount Carmel and then returned to Samaria.*

2 Kings 3

JEHORAM REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

1 In the eighteenth year of King Jehoshaphat of Judah, Jehoram son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twelve years.* 2He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and mother, for he removed the pillar of Baal that his father had made.*
3Nevertheless, he clung to the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to commit; he did not depart from it.*

WAR WITH MOAB

4 Now King Mesha of Moab was a sheep breeder who used to deliver to the king of Israel one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.* 5But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.* 6So King Jehoram marched out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel. 7As he went he sent word to King Jehoshaphat of Judah, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me; will you go with me to battle against Moab?" He answered, "I will; I am as you are; my people are your people; my horses are your horses."* 8Then he asked, "By which way shall we march?" Jehoram answered, "By the way of the wilderness of Edom."

9 So the king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom set out, and when they had made a roundabout march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the animals that were with them.* 10Then the king of Israel said, "Alas! The LORD has summoned these three kings to hand them over to Moab." 11But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here through whom we may inquire of the LORD?" Then one of the servants of the king of Israel answered, "Elisha son of Shaphat, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah, is here."* 12Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to your father's prophets or to your mother's." But the king of Israel said to him, “No; it is the LORD who has summoned these three kings to hand them over to Moab.”* 14Elisha said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, whom I serve, were it not that I have regard for King Jehoshaphat of Judah, I would give you neither a look nor a glance.* 15But get me a musician.” And then, while the musician was playing, the hand of the LORD came on him.* 16And he said, “Thus says the LORD: I will make this wadi full of pools. 17For thus says the LORD: You shall see neither wind nor rain, but the wadi shall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, you, your army,[d] and your animals. 18This is only a trifle in the sight of the LORD, for he will also hand Moab over to you. 19You shall conquer every fortified city and every choice city; every good tree you shall fell, all springs of water you shall stop up, and every good piece of land you shall ruin with stones.”* 20The next day, about the time of the morning offering, suddenly water began to flow from the direction of Edom until the country was filled with water.*

21 When all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to put on armor, from the youngest to the oldest, were called out and were drawn up at the frontier.* 22When they rose early in the morning and the sun shone upon the water, the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood. 23They said, “This is blood; the kings must have fought together and killed one another. Now then, Moab, to the spoil!” 24But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and attacked the Moabites, who fled before them; as they entered Moab, they continued the attack.[e] 25The cities they overturned, and on every good piece of land everyone threw a stone until it was covered; every spring of water they stopped up, and every good tree they felled. Only at Kir-hareseth did the stone walls remain until the slingers surrounded and attacked it.* 26When the king of Moab saw that the battle was going against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through opposite the king of Edom, but they could not. 27Then he took his firstborn son who was to succeed him and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. And great wrath came upon Israel, so they withdrew from him and returned to their own land.*

2 Kings 4

ELISHA AND THE WIDOW'S OIL

1 Now the wife of a member of the company of prophets cried to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD, but a creditor has come to take my two children as slaves."* [2]Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" She answered, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." [3]He said, "Go outside, borrow vessels from all your neighbors, empty vessels—and not just a few. [4]Then go in, shut the door behind you and your children, and start pouring into all these vessels; when each is full, set it aside." [5]So she left him and shut the door behind her and her children; they kept bringing vessels to her, and she kept pouring. [6]When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." But he said to her, "There are no more." Then the oil stopped flowing. [7]She came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go sell the oil and pay your debts, and you and your children can live on the rest."*

ELISHA RAISES THE SHUNAMMITE'S SON

8 One day Elisha was passing through Shunem, where a wealthy woman lived, who urged him to have a meal. So whenever he passed that way, he would stop there for a meal.* [9]She said to her husband, "Look, I am sure that this man who regularly passes our way is a holy man of God.* [10]Let us make a small roof chamber with walls and put there for him a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so that he can stay there whenever he comes to us."

11 One day when he came there, he went up to the chamber and lay down there. [12]He said to his servant Gehazi, "Call the Shunammite woman." When he had called her, she stood before him.* [13]He said to him, "Say to her: Since you have taken all this trouble for us, what may be done for you?
Would you have a word spoken on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?" She answered, "I live among my own people." [14]He said, "What then may be done for her?" Gehazi answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is old." [15]He said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood at the door. [16]He said, “At this season, in due time, you shall embrace a son.” She replied, “No, my lord, O man of God; do not deceive your servant.”*

17 The woman conceived and bore a son at that season, in due time, as Elisha had declared to her.

18 When the child was older, he went out one day to his father among the reapers. [19]He complained to his father, “Oh, my head, my head!” The father said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother.” [20]He carried him and brought him to his mother; the child sat on her lap until noon, and he died. [21]She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, closed the door on him, and left.* [22]Then she called to her husband and said, “Send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so that I may quickly go to the man of God and come back again.” [23]He said, “Why go to him today? It is neither new moon nor Sabbath.” She said, “It will be all right.”* [24]Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Urge the animal on; do not hold back for me unless I tell you.” [25]So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

When the man of God saw her coming, he said to Gehazi his servant, “Look, there is the Shunammite woman;* [26]run at once to meet her and say to her: Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is the child all right?” She answered, “It is all right.” [27]When she came to the man of God at the mountain, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi approached to push her away, but the man of God said, “Let her alone, for she is in bitter distress; the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me.” [28]Then she said, “Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, ‘Do not mislead me?’ ”* [29]He said to Gehazi, “Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet anyone, give no greeting, and if anyone greets you, do not answer, and lay my staff on the face of the child.”* [30]Then the mother of the child said, “As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave without you.” So he rose up and followed her.* [31]Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the face of the child, but there was no sound or sign of life. He came back to meet him and told him, “The child has not awakened.”

32 When Elisha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed. [33]So he went in and closed the door on the two of them and prayed to the LORD.* [34]Then he got up on the bed[f] and lay upon the child, putting his mouth upon his mouth, his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands, and while he lay bent over him, the flesh of the child became warm.* 35He got down, walked once to and fro in the room, then got up again and bent over him; the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.* 36Elisha[g] summoned Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite woman." So he called her. When she came to him, he said, "Take your son." 37She came and fell at his feet, bowing to the ground; then she took her son and left.*

ELISHA PURIFIES THE POT OF STEW

38 When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. As the company of prophets was sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Put the large pot on, and make some stew for the company of prophets."* 39One of them went out into the field to gather herbs; he found a wild vine and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds and came and cut them up into the pot of stew, not knowing what they were. 40They served some for the men to eat. But while they were eating the stew, they cried out, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" They could not eat it. 41He said, "Then bring some flour." He threw it into the pot and said, "Serve the people and let them eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.*

ELISHA FEEDS ONE HUNDRED MEN

42 A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat."* 43But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" So he repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD: They shall eat and have some left." 44He set it before them; they ate and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.*

2 Kings 5

THE HEALING OF NAAMAN

1 Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from a skin disease.* [2]Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. [3]She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his skin disease." [4]So Naaman[h] went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. [5]And the king of Aram said, "Go, then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel."

He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments.* [6]He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his skin disease." [7]When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his skin disease? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me."*

8 But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel."* [9]So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. [10]Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean."* [11]But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God and would wave his hand over the spot and cure the skin disease! [12]Are not Abana[i] and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. [13]But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean'?"* 14So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.*

15 Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant."* 16But he said, "As the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing!" He urged him to accept, but he refused.* 17Then Naaman said, "If not, please let two mule loads of earth be given to your servant, for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god except the LORD. 18But may the LORD pardon your servant on one count: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my arm, and I bow down in the house of Rimmon, when I do bow down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant on this one count."* 19He said to him, "Go in peace."

GEHAZI'S GREED

But when Naaman had gone from him a short distance, 20Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, thought, "My master has let that Aramean Naaman off too lightly by not accepting from him what he offered. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him."* 21So Gehazi went after Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he jumped down from the chariot to meet him and said, "Is everything all right?" 22He replied, "Yes, but my master has sent me to say, 'Two members of a company of prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim; please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing.' "* 23Naaman said, "Please accept two talents." He urged him and tied up two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and gave them to two of his servants, who carried them in front of Gehazi.[j] 24When he came to the citadel, he took the bags[k] from them and stored them inside; he dismissed the men, and they left.

25 He went in and stood before his master, and Elisha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" He answered, "Your servant has not gone anywhere at all."* 26But he said to him, "Did I not go with you in spirit when someone left his chariot to meet you? Is this a time to accept silver and to accept clothing, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, and male and female slaves?* 27Therefore the skin disease of Naaman shall cling to you and to your descendants forever." So he left his presence diseased, as white as snow.*

2 Kings 6

THE MIRACLE OF THE AX HEAD

1 Now the company of prophets said to Elisha, "As you see, the place where we live under your charge is too small for us.* [2]Let us go to the Jordan, and let us collect logs there, one for each of us, and build a place there for us to live." He answered, "Do so." [3]Then one of them said, "Please come with your servants." And he answered, "I will." [4]So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees. [5]But as one was felling a log, his ax head fell into the water; he cried out, "Alas, master! It was borrowed." [6]Then the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, he cut off a stick and threw it in there and made the iron float.* [7]He said, "Pick it up." So he reached out his hand and took it.

THE ARAMEAN ATTACK IS THWARTED

8 Once when the king of Aram was at war with Israel, he took counsel with his officers. He said, "At such and such a place shall be my camp." [9]But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, "Take care not to pass this place, for the Arameans are going down there."* [10]The king of Israel sent word to the place of which the man of God spoke. More than once or twice he warned a place[l] so that it was on the alert.

11 The mind of the king of Aram was greatly perturbed because of this; he called his officers and said to them, "Now tell me: Who among us is betraying us to[m] the king of Israel?" [12]Then one of his officers said, "No one, my lord king. It is Elisha, the prophet in Israel, who tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber." [13]He said, "Go and find where he is; I will send and seize him." He was told, "He is in Dothan."* [14]So he sent horses and chariots there and a great army; they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 When an attendant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. His servant said, "Alas, master! What shall we do?" [16]He replied, "Do not be afraid, for there are more with us than there are with them."* 17Then Elisha prayed, "O LORD, please open his eyes that he may see." So the LORD opened the eyes of the servant, and he saw; the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.* 18When the Arameans[n] came down against him, Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, "Strike this people, please, with blindness." So he struck them with blindness as Elisha had asked.* 19Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, and this is not the city; follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." And he led them to Samaria.

20 As soon as they entered Samaria, Elisha said, "O LORD, open the eyes of these men so that they may see." The LORD opened their eyes, and they saw that they were inside Samaria.* 21When the king of Israel saw them he said to Elisha, "Father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them?"* 22He answered, "No! Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set food and water before them so that they may eat and drink, and let them go to their master."* 23So he prepared for them a great feast; after they ate and drank, he sent them on their way, and they went to their master. And the Arameans no longer came raiding into the land of Israel.*

BEN-HADAD'S SIEGE OF SAMARIA

24 Some time later King Ben-hadad of Aram mustered his entire army; he marched against Samaria and laid siege to it.* 25As the siege continued, famine in Samaria became so great that a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver and one-fourth of a kab of dove's dung for five shekels of silver. 26Now as the king of Israel was walking on the city wall, a woman cried out to him, "Help, my lord king!" 27He said, "If the LORD does not help you, where would my help come from? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?" 28But then the king asked her, "What is your complaint?" She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give up your son; we will eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.' 29So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, 'Give up your son, and we will eat him.' But she has hidden her son."* 30When the king heard the words of the woman he tore his clothes—now since he was walking on the city wall, the people could see that he had sackcloth on his body underneath*—31and he said, “So may God do to me and more, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat stays on his shoulders today.”* 32So he dispatched a man from his presence.

Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Before the messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, “Are you aware that this murderer has sent someone to take off my head? When the messenger comes, see that you shut the door and hold it closed against him. Is not the sound of his master’s feet behind him?”* 33While he was still speaking with them, the king[o] came down to him and said, “This trouble is from the LORD! Why should I hope in the LORD any longer?”*

2 Kings 7

1 But Elisha said, “Hear the word of the Lord: Thus says the Lord: Tomorrow about this time a measure of choice meal shall be sold for a shekel and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.”* 2Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned said to the man of God, “Even if the Lord were to make windows in the sky, could such a thing happen?” But he said, “You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat from it.”*

THE ARAMEANS FLEE

3 Now there were four men with a defiling skin disease outside the city gate who said to one another, “Why should we sit here until we die?* 4If we say, ‘Let us enter the city,’ the famine is in the city, and we shall die there, but if we sit here, we shall also die. Therefore, let us desert to the Aramean camp; if they spare our lives, we shall live, and if they kill us, we shall but die.”* 5So they arose at twilight to go to the Aramean camp, but when they came to the edge of the Aramean camp there was no one there at all. 6For the Lord had caused the Aramean army to hear the sound of chariots and of horses, the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, “The king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to fight against us.”* 7So they fled away in the twilight and abandoned their tents, their horses, and their donkeys, leaving the camp just as it was, and fled for their lives.* 8When these diseased men had come to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent, ate and drank, carried off silver, gold, and clothing, and went and hid them. Then they came back, entered another tent, carried off things from it and went and hid them.

9 Then they said to one another, “What we are doing is wrong. This is a day of good news; if we are silent and wait until the morning light, we will be found guilty; therefore let us go and tell the king’s household.”* 10So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city and told them, “We went to the Aramean camp, but there was no one to be seen or heard there, nothing but the horses tied, the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.”

[11]Then the gatekeepers called out and proclaimed it to the king's household.
[12]The king got up in the night and said to his servants, "I will tell you what the Arameans have prepared against us. They know that we are starving, so they left the camp to hide themselves in the open country, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive and get into the city.' "* [13]One of his servants said, "Let some men take five of the remaining horses, since those left here will suffer the fate of the whole multitude of Israel that have perished already;[p] let us send and find out." [14]So they took two mounted men, and the king sent them after the Aramean army, saying, "Go and find out." [15]So they went after them as far as the Jordan; the whole way was littered with garments and equipment that the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned and told the king.

16 Then the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans.
So a measure of choice meal was sold for a shekel and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.* [17]Now the king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate; the people trampled him to death in the gate, just as the man of God had said when the king came down to him. [18]For when the man of God had said to the king, "Two measures of barley shall be sold for a shekel and a measure of choice meal for a shekel, about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria,"* [19]the captain had answered the man of God, "Even if the LORD were to make windows in the sky, could such a thing happen?" And he had answered, "You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat from it."* [20]It did indeed happen to him; the people trampled him to death in the gate.

2 Kings 8

THE SHUNAMMITE WOMAN'S LAND RESTORED

1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, "Get up and go with your household and settle wherever you can, for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will come on the land for seven years."* [2]So the woman got up and did according to the word of the man of God; she went with her household and settled in the land of the Philistines seven years. [3]At the end of the seven years, when the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, she set out to appeal to the king for her house and her land. [4]Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me all the great things that Elisha has done."* [5]While he was telling the king how Elisha had restored a dead person to life, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and her land. Gehazi said, "My lord king, here is the woman, and here is her son whom Elisha restored to life."* [6]When the king questioned the woman, she told him. So the king appointed an official for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, together with all the revenue of the fields from the day that she left the land until now."

DEATH OF BEN-HADAD

7 Elisha went to Damascus while King Ben-hadad of Aram was ill. When it was told him, "The man of God has come here,"* [8]the king said to Hazael, "Take a present with you and go to meet the man of God. Inquire of the LORD through him, whether I shall recover from this illness."* [9]So Hazael went to meet him, taking a present with him, all kinds of goods of Damascus, forty camel loads. When he entered and stood before him, he said, "Your son King Ben-hadad of Aram has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this illness?' " [10]Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover,' but the LORD has shown me that he shall certainly die."* [11]He fixed his gaze and stared at him to the point of embarrassment.
Then the man of God wept. [12]Hazael asked, "Why does my lord weep?" He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the people of Israel; you will set their fortresses on fire; you will kill their young men with the sword, dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their pregnant women."* 13Hazael said, "What is your servant, who is a mere dog, that he should do this great thing?" Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you are to be king over Aram."* 14Then he left Elisha and went to his master Ben-hadad,[q] who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me that you would certainly recover." 15But the next day he took the bedcover and dipped it in water and spread it over the king's face, until he died. And Hazael succeeded him.*

JEHORAM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

16 In the fifth year of King Joram son of Ahab of Israel,[r] Jehoram son of King Jehoshaphat of Judah began to reign.* 17He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.* 18He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.* 19Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of his servant David, since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his descendants forever.*

20 In his days Edom revolted against the rule of Judah and set up a king of their own.* 21Then Joram crossed over to Zair with all his chariots. He set out by night and attacked the Edomites and their chariot commanders who had surrounded him,[s] but his army fled home.* 22So Edom has been in revolt against the rule of Judah to this day. Libnah also revolted at the same time.* 23Now the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? 24So Joram slept with his ancestors and was buried with them in the city of David; his son Ahaziah succeeded him.*

AHAZIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

25 In the twelfth year of King Joram son of Ahab of Israel, Ahaziah son of King Jehoram of Judah began to reign.* 26Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of King Omri of Israel. 27He also walked in the way of the house of Ahab, doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was son-in-law to the house of Ahab.

28 He went with Joram son of Ahab to wage war against King Hazael of Aram at Ramoth-gilead, where the Arameans wounded Joram.* [29]King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against King Hazael of Aram. King Ahaziah son of Jehoram of Judah went down to see Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was wounded.*

2 Kings 9

ANOINTING OF JEHU

1 Then the prophet Elisha called a member of the company of prophets and said to him, “Gird up your loins; take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.* [2]When you arrive, look there for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi; go in and get him to leave his companions, and take him into an inner chamber.* [3]Then take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say, ‘Thus says the LORD: I anoint you king over Israel.’ Then open the door and flee; do not linger.”*

4 So the young man, the young prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. [5]He arrived while the commanders of the army were in council, and he announced, “I have a message for you, commander.” “For which one of us?” asked Jehu. “For you, commander.” [6]So Jehu[t] got up and went inside; the young man poured the oil on his head, saying to him, “Thus says the LORD the God of Israel: I anoint you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.* [7]You shall strike down the house of your master Ahab, so that I may avenge on Jezebel the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the LORD.* [8]For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond or free, in Israel.* [9]I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.* [10]The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and no one shall bury her.” Then he opened the door and fled.*

11 When Jehu came back to his master’s officers, they said to him, “Is everything all right? Why did that madman come to you?” He answered them, “You know the sort and how they babble.” [12]They said, “Liar! Come on, tell us!” So he said, “This is just what he said to me: ‘Thus says the LORD, I anoint you king over Israel.’ ” [13]Then hurriedly they all took their cloaks and spread them for him on the bare[u] steps, and they blew the trumpet and proclaimed, “Jehu is king.”*

JORAM OF ISRAEL KILLED

14 Thus Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi conspired against Joram.
Joram with all Israel had been on guard at Ramoth-gilead against King Hazael of Aram,* 15but King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought against King Hazael of Aram. So Jehu said, "If this is your wish, then let no one slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel."* 16Then Jehu mounted his chariot and went to Jezreel, where Joram was lying ill. King Ahaziah of Judah had come down to visit Joram.*

17 In Jezreel, the sentinel standing on the tower spied the company of Jehu arriving and said, "I see a company." Joram said, "Take a horseman; send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?' " 18So the horseman went to meet him; he said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?' " Jehu responded, "What have you to do with peace? Fall in behind me." The sentinel reported, saying, "The messenger reached them, but he is not coming back."* 19Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?' " Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Fall in behind me." 20Again the sentinel reported, "He reached them, but he is not coming back. It looks like the driving of Jehu son of Nimshi, for he drives like a maniac."*

21 Joram said, "Get ready." And they got his chariot ready. Then King Joram of Israel and King Ahaziah of Judah set out, each in his chariot, and went to meet Jehu; they met him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.*
22When Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" He answered, "What peace can there be, so long as the many prostitutions[v] and sorceries of your mother Jezebel continue?"* 23Then Joram reined about and fled, saying to Ahaziah, "Treason, Ahaziah!" 24Jehu drew his bow with all his strength and shot Joram between the shoulders, so that the arrow pierced his heart, and he sank in his chariot.* 25Jehu said to his aide Bidkar, "Lift him out and throw him on the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite, for remember when you and I rode side by side behind his father Ahab how the LORD uttered this oracle against him:* 26'For the blood of Naboth and for the blood of his children that I saw yesterday, says the LORD, I swear I will repay you on this very plot of ground.' Now, therefore, lift him out and throw him on the plot of ground in accordance with the word of the LORD."*

AHAZIAH OF JUDAH KILLED

27 When King Ahaziah of Judah saw this, he fled in the direction of Beth-haggan. Jehu pursued him, saying, "Shoot him also!" And they shot him[w] in the chariot at the ascent to Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to Megiddo and died there.[] [28]His officers carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb with his ancestors in the city of David.[] 29 In the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah.

JEZEBEL'S VIOLENT DEATH

30 When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; she painted her eyes and adorned her head and looked out of the window.[] [31]As Jehu entered the gate, she said, "Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of your master?"[] [32]He looked up to the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked out at him. [33]He said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down; some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, which trampled on her. [34]Then he went in and ate and drank; he said, "See to that cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter."[] [35]But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands. [36]When they came back and told him, he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite: In the territory of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;[] [37]the corpse of Jezebel shall be like dung on the field in the territory of Jezreel, so that no one can say, 'This is Jezebel.' "[*]

2 Kings 10

MASSACRE OF AHAB'S DESCENDANTS

1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of the city,[x] to the elders, and to the guardians of the sons of[y] Ahab, saying,* [2]"Since your master's sons are with you and you have at your disposal chariots and horses, a fortified city, and weapons, [3]select the son of your master who is the best qualified, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house." [4]But they were utterly terrified and said, "Look, two kings could not withstand him; how then can we stand?" [5]So the steward of the palace and the governor of the city, along with the elders and the guardians, sent word to Jehu, "We are your servants; we will do anything you say. We will not make anyone king; do whatever you think right."* [6]Then he wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are on my side and if you are ready to obey me, take the heads of your master's sons and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time." Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the leaders of the city, who were charged with their upbringing. [7]When the letter reached them, they took the king's sons and killed them, seventy persons; they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.* [8]When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning." [9]Then in the morning when he went out, he stood and said to all the people, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him, but who struck down all these?* [10]Know, then, that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD that the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the LORD has done what he said through his servant Elijah."* [11]So Jehu killed all who were left of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, all his leaders, close friends, and priests, until he left him no survivor.

12 Then he set out and went to Samaria. On the way, when he was at Beth-eked of the Shepherds, [13]Jehu met relatives of King Ahaziah of Judah and said, "Who are you?" They answered, "We are kin of Ahaziah; we have come down to visit the royal princes and the sons of the queen mother."*

[14]He said, “Take them alive.” They took them alive and slaughtered them at the pit of Beth-eked, forty-two in all; he spared none of them.

15 When he left there, he met Jehonadab son of Rechab coming to meet him; he greeted him and said to him, “Is your heart as true to mine as mine is to yours?”[z] Jehonadab answered, “It is.” Jehu said,[a] “If it is, give me your hand.” So he gave him his hand. Jehu took him up with him into the chariot.* [16]He said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.” So he[b] had him ride in his chariot.* [17]When he came to Samaria, he killed all who were left to Ahab in Samaria, until he had wiped them out according to the word of the LORD that he spoke to Elijah.*

SLAUGHTER OF WORSHIPERS OF BAAL

18 Then Jehu assembled all the people and said to them, “Ahab offered Baal small service, but Jehu will offer much more.* [19]Now therefore summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be missing, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal; whoever is missing shall not live.” But Jehu was acting with cunning in order to destroy the servants of Baal.* [20]Jehu decreed, “Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal.” So they proclaimed it.* [21]Jehu sent word throughout all Israel; all the servants of Baal came, so that there was no one left who did not come. They entered the temple of Baal until the temple of Baal was filled from wall to wall.* [22]He said to the keeper of the wardrobe, “Bring out the vestments for all the servants of Baal.” So he brought out the vestments for them. [23]Then Jehu entered the temple of Baal with Jehonadab son of Rechab; he said to the servants of Baal, “Search and see that there is no servant of the LORD here among you but only servants of Baal.” [24]Then they proceeded to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings.

Now Jehu had stationed eighty men outside, saying, “Whoever allows any of those to escape whom I deliver into your hands shall forfeit his life.”* [25]As soon as he had finished presenting the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guards and to the officers, “Come in and kill them; let no one escape.” So they put them to the sword. The guards and the officers threw them out and then went into the citadel of the temple of Baal.* [26]They brought out the pillar[c] that was in the temple of Baal and burned it.* [27]Then they demolished the pillar of Baal and destroyed the temple of Baal and made it a latrine to this day.*

28 Thus Jehu wiped out Baal from Israel. [29]But Jehu did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to commit: the golden calves that were in Bethel and in Dan.* [30]The LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in carrying out what I consider right and in accordance with all that was in my heart have dealt with the house of Ahab, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."* [31]But Jehu was not careful to follow the law of the LORD the God of Israel with all his heart; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam that he caused Israel to commit.*

DEATH OF JEHU

32 In those days the LORD began to trim off parts of Israel. Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:* [33]from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Wadi Arnon, that is, Gilead and Bashan. [34]Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?* [35]So Jehu slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Samaria. His son Jehoahaz succeeded him. [36]The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11

ATHALIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 Now when Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she set about to destroy all the royal family.* 2But Jehosheba, King Joram's daughter, Ahaziah's sister, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king's children who were about to be killed; she put[d] him and his nurse in a bedroom. Thus she[e] hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not killed;* 3he remained with her six years, hidden in the house of the LORD, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

JEHOIADA ANOINTS THE CHILD JOASH

4 But in the seventh year Jehoiada summoned the captains of the Carites and of the guards and had them come to him in the house of the LORD. He made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD; then he showed them the king's son.* 5He commanded them, "This is what you are to do: one-third of you, those who go off duty on the Sabbath and guard the king's house* 6(another third being at the gate Sur and a third at the gate behind the guards), shall guard the palace, 7and your two divisions that come on duty in force on the Sabbath and guard the house of the LORD[f] 8shall surround the king, each with weapons in hand, and whoever approaches the ranks is to be killed. Be with the king in his comings and goings."

9 The captains did according to all that the priest Jehoiada commanded; each brought his men who were to go off duty on the Sabbath, with those who were to come on duty on the Sabbath, and came to the priest Jehoiada.*
10The priest delivered to the captains the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD;* 11the guards stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, around the altar and the house, to guard the king on every side. 12Then he brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant; they proclaimed him king and anointed him; they clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"*

DEATH OF ATHALIAH

13 When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she went into the house of the LORD to the people;* 14when she looked, there was the king standing by the pillar, according to custom, with the captains and the trumpeters beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason!
Treason!"* 15Then the priest Jehoiada commanded the captains who were set over the army, "Bring her out between the ranks and kill with the sword anyone who follows her." For the priest said, "Let her not be killed in the house of the LORD." 16So they laid hands on her; she went through the horses' entrance to the king's house, and there she was put to death.

17 Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people, that they should be the LORD's people; also between the king and the people.* 18Then all the people of the land went to the house of Baal and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars. The priest posted guards over the house of the LORD.* 19He took the captains, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land; then they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, marching through the gate of the guards to the king's house. He took his seat on the throne of the kings.* 20So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been killed with the sword at the king's house.

21 [g]Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.*

2 Kings 12

THE TEMPLE REPAIRED

1 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. [2]Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all his days because the priest Jehoiada instructed him. [3]Nevertheless, the high places were not taken away; the people continued to sacrifice and make offerings on the high places.*

4 Jehoash said to the priests, "All the silver offered as sacred donations that is brought into the house of the LORD—the census tax, personal redemption payments, and silver from voluntary offerings brought into the house of the LORD*—[5]let the priests receive from each of the donors, and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered." [6]But by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had made no repairs on the house.* [7]Therefore King Jehoash summoned the priest Jehoiada with the other priests and said to them, "Why are you not repairing the house? Now therefore do not accept any more silver from your donors but hand it over for the repair of the house."* [8]So the priests agreed that they would neither accept more silver from the people nor repair the house.

9 Then the priest Jehoiada took a chest, made a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one entered the house of the LORD; the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the silver that was brought into the house of the LORD.* [10]Whenever they saw that there was a great deal of silver in the chest, the king's secretary and the high priest went up, cast the silver that was found in the house of the LORD into ingots, and counted it.* [11]They gave the silver that was weighed out into the hands of the workers who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; then they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the house of the LORD, [12]to the masons and the stonecutters, as well as to buy timber and quarried stone for making repairs on the house of the LORD, as well as for any outlay for repairs of the house.* [13]But for the house of the LORD no basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, or any vessels of gold or of silver were made from the silver that was brought into the house of the LORD,* 14for that was given to the workers who were repairing the house of the LORD with it. 15They did not ask an accounting from those into whose hand they delivered the silver to pay out to the workers, for they dealt honestly.* 16The silver from the guilt offerings and the silver from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.*

HAZAEL THREATENS JERUSALEM

17 At that time King Hazael of Aram went up, fought against Gath, and took it. But when Hazael set his face to go up against Jerusalem,* 18King Jehoash of Judah took all the votive gifts that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his ancestors, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, as well as his own votive gifts, all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent these to King Hazael of Aram. Then Hazael withdrew from Jerusalem.*

DEATH OF JOASH

19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? 20His servants arose, devised a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla.* 21It was Jozacar son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer, his servants, who struck him down, so that he died. He was buried with his ancestors in the city of David; then his son Amaziah succeeded him.*

2 Kings 13

JEHOAHAZ REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

1 In the twenty-third year of King Joash son of Ahaziah of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned seventeen years. [2]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin; he did not depart from them.* [3]The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, so he gave them repeatedly into the hand of King Hazael of Aram, then into the hand of Ben-hadad son of Hazael.* [4]But Jehoahaz entreated the LORD, and the LORD heeded him, for he saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them.* [5]Therefore the LORD gave Israel a savior, so they escaped from the hand of the Arameans, and the people of Israel lived in their homes as formerly.* [6]Nevertheless, they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam that he caused Israel to sin but walked[h] in them; the sacred pole[i] also remained in Samaria.* [7]So Jehoahaz was left with an army of not more than fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.* [8]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did, including his might, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel? [9]So Jehoahaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in Samaria; then his son Joash succeeded him.*

JEHOASH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

10 In the thirty-seventh year of King Joash of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned sixteen years.
[11]He also did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin, but he walked in them. [12]Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, as well as the might with which he fought against King Amaziah of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?* [13]So Joash slept with his ancestors, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne; Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

DEATH OF ELISHA

14 Now when Elisha had fallen sick with the illness of which he was to die, King Joash of Israel went down to him and wept before him, crying, "My father, my father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"* [15]Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows," so he took a bow and arrows. [16]Then he said to the king of Israel, "Draw the bow," and he drew it. Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands. [17]Then he said, "Open the window eastward," and he opened it. Elisha said, "Shoot," and he shot. Then he said, "The LORD's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram! For you shall fight the Arameans in Aphek until you have made an end of them."* [18]He continued, "Take the arrows," and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground with them"; he struck three times and stopped.
[19]Then the man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Aram until you had made an end of it, but now you will strike down Aram only three times."*

20 So Elisha died, and they buried him. Now bands of Moabites used to invade the land in the spring of the year.* [21]As a man was being buried, a marauding band was seen and the man was thrown into the grave of Elisha; as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he came to life and stood on his feet.

ISRAEL RECAPTURES CITIES FROM ARAM

22 Now King Hazael of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.*
[23]But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them; he turned toward them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and would not destroy them, nor has he banished them from his presence until now.*

24 When King Hazael of Aram died, his son Ben-hadad succeeded him.
[25]Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz took again from Ben-hadad son of Hazael the towns that he had taken from his father Jehoahaz in war. Three times Joash defeated him and recovered the towns of Israel.*

2 Kings 14

AMAZIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 In the second year of King Joash son of Joahaz of Israel, King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah began to reign.* [2]He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. [3]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his ancestor David; in all things he did as his father Joash had done. [4]But the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places.* [5]As soon as the royal power was firmly in his hand, he killed his servants who had murdered his father the king.* [6]But he did not put to death the children of the murderers, according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "The parents shall not be put to death for the children or the children be put to death for the parents, but all shall be put to death for their own sins."*

7 He killed ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and took Sela by storm; he called it Jokthe-el, which is its name to this day.*

8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."* [9]King Jehoash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, "A thornbush on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife,' but a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thornbush.* [10]You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Be content with your glory and stay at home, for why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"*

11 But Amaziah would not listen. So King Jehoash of Israel went up; he and King Amaziah of Judah faced one another in battle at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.* [12]Judah was defeated by Israel; everyone fled home.* [13]King Jehoash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah son of Jehoash son of Ahaziah at Beth-shemesh; he came to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a distance of four hundred cubits.* [14]He seized all the gold and silver and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, as well as hostages; then he returned to Samaria.*

15 Now the rest of the acts that Jehoash did, his might, and how he fought with King Amaziah of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?* [16]Jehoash slept with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; then his son Jeroboam succeeded him.

17 King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of King Jehoash son of Jehoahaz of Israel.* [18]Now the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? [19]They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.* [20]They brought him on horses; he was buried in Jerusalem with his ancestors in the city of David. [21]All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king to succeed his father Amaziah. [22]He rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah, after King Amaziah[j] slept with his ancestors.*

JEROBOAM II REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

23 In the fifteenth year of King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah, King Jeroboam son of Joash of Israel began to reign in Samaria; he reigned forty-one years. [24]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin. [25]He restored the border of Israel from Lebo-hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet who was from Gath-hepher.* [26]For the LORD saw that the distress of Israel was very bitter; there was no one left, bond or free, and no one to help Israel.* [27]But the LORD had not said that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, so he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Joash.*

28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam and all that he did, and his might, how he fought, and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel?* [29]Jeroboam slept with his ancestors, the kings of Israel; his son Zechariah succeeded him.*

2 Kings 15

AZARIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 In the twenty-seventh year of King Jeroboam of Israel, King Azariah son of Amaziah of Judah began to reign.* [2]He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.* [3]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done. [4]Nevertheless, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places.* [5]The LORD struck the king so that he had a defiling skin disease to the day of his death and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was in charge of the palace, governing the people of the land.*
[6]Now the rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? [7]Azariah slept with his ancestors; they buried him with his ancestors in the city of David; his son Jotham succeeded him.*

ZECHARIAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

8 In the thirty-eighth year of King Azariah of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. [9]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his ancestors had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin. [10]Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against him and struck him down in Ibleam[k] and killed him and reigned in place of him.* [11]Now the rest of the deeds of Zechariah are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.
[12]This was the promise of the LORD that he gave to Jehu, "Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." And so it happened.*

SHALLUM REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

13 Shallum son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of King Uzziah of Judah; he reigned one month in Samaria.* [14]Then Menahem son of Gadi came up from Tirzah and came to Samaria; he struck down Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him; he reigned in place of him.* 15Now the rest of the deeds of Shallum, including the conspiracy that he made, are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel. 16At that time Menahem sacked Tiphsah, all who were in it and its territory from Tirzah on; because they did not open it to him, he sacked it. He ripped open all the pregnant women in it.*

MENAHEM REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

17 In the thirty-ninth year of King Azariah of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi began to reign over Israel; he reigned ten years in Samaria.* 18He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin. 19King Pul of Assyria came against the land; Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, so that he might help him confirm his hold on the royal power.* 20Menahem exacted the silver from Israel, that is, from all the wealthy, fifty shekels of silver from each one, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land. 21Now the rest of the deeds of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel? 22Menahem slept with his ancestors, and his son Pekahiah succeeded him.

PEKAHIAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

23 In the fiftieth year of King Azariah of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned two years.* 24He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin. 25Pekah son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him with fifty of the Gileadites and attacked him in Samaria, in the citadel of the palace along with Argob and Arieh; he killed him and reigned in place of him.* 26Now the rest of the deeds of Pekahiah and all that he did are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

PEKAH REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

27 In the fifty-second year of King Azariah of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twenty years.* [28]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat that he caused Israel to sin.

29 In the days of King Pekah of Israel, King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and he carried the people captive to Assyria.* [30]Then Hoshea son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah, attacked him, and killed him; he reigned in place of him, in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah. [31]Now the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did are written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

JOTHAM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

32 In the second year of King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel, King Jotham son of Uzziah of Judah began to reign.* [33]He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. [34]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done.* [35]Nevertheless, the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.* [36]Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? [37]In those days the LORD began to send King Rezin of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.* [38]Jotham slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David, his ancestor; his son Ahaz succeeded him.

2 Kings 16

AHAZ REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, King Ahaz son of Jotham of Judah began to reign.* [2]Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his ancestor David had done, [3]but he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. He even made his son pass through fire, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the people of Israel.* [4]He sacrificed and made offerings on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.*

5 Then King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel came up to wage war on Jerusalem; they besieged Ahaz but could not conquer him.* [6]At that time King Rezin of Aram recovered Elath for Edom[1] and drove the Judeans from Elath, and the Edomites came to Elath, where they live to this day.* [7]Ahaz sent messengers to King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and rescue me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are attacking me."* [8]Ahaz also took the silver and gold found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house and sent a present to the king of Assyria.* [9]The king of Assyria listened to him; the king of Assyria marched up against Damascus and took it, carrying its people captive to Kir; then he killed Rezin.*

10 When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria, he saw the altar that was at Damascus. King Ahaz sent to the priest Uriah a model of the altar and its pattern exact in all its details.* [11]The priest Uriah built the altar; in accordance with all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did the priest Uriah build it, before King Ahaz arrived from Damascus. [12]When the king came from Damascus, the king viewed the altar. Then the king drew near to the altar, went up on it, [13]and offered his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured his drink offering, and dashed the blood of his offerings of well-being against the altar. [14]The bronze altar that was before the LORD he removed from the front of the house, from the place between his altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of his altar.* 15King Ahaz commanded the priest Uriah, saying, "Upon the great altar offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering and the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offering; then dash against it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice, but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."* 16The priest Uriah did everything that King Ahaz commanded.

17 Then King Ahaz cut off the frames of the stands and removed the laver from them; he removed the sea from the bronze oxen that were under it and put it on a pediment of stone.* 18The covered portal for use on the Sabbath that had been built inside the palace and the outer entrance for the king he removed from[m] the house of the LORD. He did this because of the king of Assyria. 19Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? 20Ahaz slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David; his son Hezekiah succeeded him.*

2 Kings 17

HOSHEA REIGNS OVER ISRAEL

1 In the twelfth year of King Ahaz of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel; he reigned nine years.* [2]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, yet not like the kings of Israel who were before him. [3]King Shalmaneser of Assyria came up against him; Hoshea became his vassal and paid him tribute.* [4]But the king of Assyria found treachery in Hoshea, for he had sent messengers to King So of Egypt and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; therefore the king of Assyria confined him and imprisoned him.

ISRAEL CARRIED CAPTIVE TO ASSYRIA

5 Then the king of Assyria invaded all the land and came to Samaria; for three years he besieged it. [6]In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria captured Samaria; he carried the Israelites away to Assyria. He placed them in Halah, on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.*

7 This occurred because the people of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They had worshiped other gods* [8]and walked in the customs of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the people of Israel and in the customs that the kings of Israel had introduced.[n],* [9]The people of Israel did[o] things that were not right against the LORD their God. They built for themselves high places at all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city;* [10]they set up for themselves pillars and sacred poles[p] on every high hill and under every green tree;* [11]there they made offerings on all the high places, as the nations did whom the LORD had carried away before them. They did wicked things, provoking the LORD to anger; [12]they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this."* [13]Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, in accordance with all the law that I commanded your ancestors and that I sent to you by my servants the prophets."* [14]They would not listen but were stubborn, as their ancestors had been, who did not believe in the LORD their God.* 15They despised his statutes and his covenant that he had made with their ancestors and the warnings that he had given them. They went after false idols and became false; they followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do as they did.* 16They rejected all the commandments of the LORD their God and made for themselves cast images of two calves; they made a sacred pole,[q] worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.* 17They made their sons and their daughters pass through fire, used divination and augury, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.* 18Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them out of his sight; none was left but the tribe of Judah alone.*

19 Judah also did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God but walked in the customs that Israel had introduced. 20The LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel; he punished them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until he had banished them from his presence.*

21 When he had torn Israel from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD and made them commit great sin.* 22The people of Israel continued in all the sins that Jeroboam committed; they did not depart from them 23until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had foretold through all his servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their own land to Assyria until this day.

ASSYRIA RESETTLES SAMARIA

24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim and placed them in the cities of Samaria in place of the people of Israel; they took possession of Samaria and settled in its cities.* 25When they first settled there, they did not worship the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them that killed some of them. 26So the king of Assyria was told, "The nations that you have carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of the land; therefore he has sent lions among them; they are killing them because they do not know the law of the god of the land." 27Then the king of Assyria commanded, “Send there one of the priests whom you carried away from there; let him[r] go and live there and teach them the law of the god of the land.”* 28So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel; he taught them how they should worship the LORD.

29 But every nation still made gods of its own and put them in the shrines of the high places that the people of Samaria had made, every nation in the cities in which they lived; 30the people of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the people of Cuth made Nergal, the people of Hamath made Ashima;* 31the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.* 32They also worshiped the LORD and appointed from among themselves all sorts of people as priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places.* 33So they worshiped the LORD but also served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.* 34To this day they continue to practice their former customs.

They do not worship the LORD, and they do not follow the statutes or the ordinances or the law or the commandment that the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel.* 35The LORD had made a covenant with them and commanded them, “You shall not worship other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them,* 36but you shall worship the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm; you shall bow yourselves to him, and to him you shall sacrifice.* 37The statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment that he wrote for you, you shall always be careful to observe. You shall not worship other gods;* 38you shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you. You shall not worship other gods,* 39but you shall worship the LORD your God; he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.” 40They would not listen, however, but continued to practice their former custom.

41 So these nations worshiped the LORD but also served their carved images; to this day their children and their children’s children continue to do as their ancestors did.*

2 Kings 18

HEZEKIAH'S REIGN OVER JUDAH

1 In the third year of King Hoshea son of Elah of Israel, Hezekiah son of King Ahaz of Judah began to reign.* [2]He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi daughter of Zechariah.* [3]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his ancestor David had done. [4]He removed the high places, broke down the pillars, and cut down the sacred pole.[s] He broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the people of Israel had made offerings to it; it was called Nehushtan.* [5]He relied on the LORD, the God of Israel, so that there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah after him or among those who were before him.* [6]For he held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following him but kept the commandments that the LORD had commanded Moses.* [7]The LORD was with him; wherever he went, he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and would not serve him.* [8]He attacked the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.*

9 In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of King Hoshea son of Elah of Israel, King Shalmaneser of Assyria came up against Samaria, besieged it,* [10]and at the end of three years took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of King Hoshea of Israel, Samaria was taken.* [11]The king of Assyria carried the Israelites away to Assyria and settled them in Halah, on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,* [12]because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God but transgressed his covenant—all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; they neither listened nor obeyed.

SENNACHERIB INVADES JUDAH

13 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, King Sennacherib of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.* [14]King Hezekiah of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong; withdraw from me; whatever you impose on me I will bear."

The king of Assyria demanded of King Hezekiah of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. [15]Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house.* [16]At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD and from the doorposts that King Hezekiah of Judah had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria. [17]The king of Assyria sent the Tartan, the Rabsaris, and the Rabshakeh with a great army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they arrived, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway to the fuller's field.* [18]When they called for the king, there came out to them Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebnah the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder.*

19 The Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah: Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you base this reliance of yours?* [20]Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me? [21]See, you are relying now on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.* [22]But if you say to me, 'We rely on the LORD our God,' is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem'?* [23]Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. [24]How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants when you rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?* [25]Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.' "

26 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebnah, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall."* [27]But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you and not to the people sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and to drink their own urine?"

28 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah, “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria: 29 Thus says the king: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you out of my hand.* 30 Do not let Hezekiah make you rely on the LORD by saying, ‘The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’ 31 Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria: Make your peace with me and come out to me; then every one of you will eat from your own vine and your own fig tree and drink water from your own cistern,* 32 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey, that you may live and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you by saying, ‘The LORD will deliver us.’* 33 Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered its land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?* 34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?* 35 Who among all the gods of the countries have delivered their countries out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?”

36 But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king’s command was, “Do not answer him.” 37 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.*

2 Kings 19

HEZEKIAH CONSULTS ISAIAH

1 When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.* 2And he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.* 3They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth. 4It may be that the LORD your God heard all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words that the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left."* 5When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, 6Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master: Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled me.* 7I myself will put a spirit in him so that he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land; I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."*

SENNACHERIB'S THREAT

8 The Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.* 9When the king[t] heard concerning King Tirhakah of Cush, "See, he has set out to fight against you," he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, 10"Thus shall you speak to King Hezekiah of Judah: Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.* 11See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? 12Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my predecessors destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?* 13Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?”*

HEZEKIAH’S PRAYER

14 Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.* 15And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, “O LORD the God of Israel, who are enthroned above the cherubim, you are God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.* 16Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.* 17Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands 18and have hurled their gods into the fire, though they were no gods but the work of human hands—wood and stone—and so they were destroyed.* 19So now, O LORD our God, save us, I pray you, from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O LORD, are God alone.”*

20 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I have heard your prayer to me about King Sennacherib of Assyria.* 21This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him:

She despises you; she scorns you—virgin daughter Zion;
she tosses her head—behind your back, daughter Jerusalem.*

22Whom have you mocked and reviled?
Against whom have you raised your voice and haughtily lifted your eyes?
Against the Holy One of Israel!*
23By your messengers you have mocked the Lord, and you have said, ‘With my many chariots I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon; I felled its tallest cedars, its choicest cypresses; I entered its farthest retreat, its densest forest.*

24I dug wells
and drank foreign waters, I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.'*

25Have you not heard that I determined it long ago?
I planned from days of old what now I bring to pass, that you should make fortified cities crash into heaps of ruins,* 26while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded; they have become like plants of the field and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops that is scorched before the east wind.u,* 27But I know your sitting and your going out and your coming in and your raging against me.

28Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back on the way by which you came.*

29 "And this shall be the sign for you: This year you shall eat what grows of itself and in the second year what springs from that; then in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.* 30The surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward,* 31for from Jerusalem a remnant shall go out and from Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.*

32 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city, shoot an arrow there, come before it with a shield, or cast up a siege ramp against it. 33By the way that he came, by the same he shall return; he shall not come into this city, says the LORD.* 34For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David."*

SENNACHERIB'S DEFEAT AND DEATH

35 That very night the angel of the LORD set out and struck down one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians; when morning dawned, they were all dead bodies.* 36Then King Sennacherib of Assyria left, went home, and lived at Nineveh.* 37As he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. His son Esar-haddon succeeded him.*

2 Kings 20

HEZEKIAH'S ILLNESS

1 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you shall die; you shall not recover."* 2Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, 3"Remember now, O LORD, I implore you, how I have walked before you in faithfulness with a whole heart and have done what is good in your sight." Hezekiah wept bitterly.* 4Before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him, 5"Turn back and say to Hezekiah prince of my people: Thus says the LORD, the God of your ancestor David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; indeed, I will heal you; on the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.* 6I will add fifteen years to your life. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David's sake."* 7Then Isaiah said, "Bring a lump of figs. Let them take it and apply it to the boil, so that he may recover."*

8 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?" 9Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has promised: Shall the shadow advance[v] ten intervals, or shall it retreat ten intervals?" 10Hezekiah answered, "It is normal for the shadow to lengthen ten intervals; rather, let the shadow retreat ten intervals." 11The prophet Isaiah cried to the LORD, and he brought the shadow back the ten intervals, by which the sun[w] had declined on the dial of Ahaz.*

ENVOYS FROM BABYLON

12 At that time King Merodach-baladan son of Baladan of Babylon sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.* 13Hezekiah welcomed them;[x] he showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his armory, all that was found in his storehouses; there was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.* 14Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?" Hezekiah answered, "They have come from a far country, from Babylon." 15He said, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."*

16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD: 17Days are coming when all that is in your house and that which your ancestors have stored up until this day shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, says the LORD.* 18Some of your own sons who are born to you shall be taken away; they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."* 19Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good." For he thought, "Why not, if there will be peace and security in my days?"*

DEATH OF HEZEKIAH

20 The rest of the deeds of Hezekiah, all his power, how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?* 21Hezekiah slept with his ancestors, and his son Manasseh succeeded him.*

2 Kings 21

MANASSEH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.* [2]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, following the abominable practices of the nations that the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.* [3]For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he erected altars for Baal, made a sacred pole,[y] as King Ahab of Israel had done, worshiped all the host of heaven and served them.* [4]He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put my name."* [5]He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. [6]He made his son pass through fire; he practiced soothsaying and augury and dealt with mediums and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.* [7]The carved image of Asherah that he had made he set in the house of which the LORD said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever;* [8]I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land that I gave to their ancestors, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them."* [9]But they did not listen; Manasseh misled them to do more evil than the nations had done that the LORD destroyed before the people of Israel.*

10 The LORD said by his servants the prophets, [11]"Because King Manasseh of Judah has committed these abominations, has done things more wicked than all that the Amorites who were before him did, and has caused Judah also to sin with his idols,* [12]therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I am bringing upon Jerusalem and Judah such evil that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.* [13]I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line for Samaria and the plummet for the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.* [14]I will cast off the remnant of my heritage and give them into the hand of their enemies; they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies [15]because they have done what is evil in my sight and have provoked me to anger, since the day their ancestors came out of Egypt even to this day."

16 Moreover, Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides the sin that he caused Judah to sin so that they did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.*

17 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, all that he did and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?* [18]Manasseh slept with his ancestors and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza. His son Amon succeeded him.*

AMON REIGNS OVER JUDAH

19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.* [20]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.* [21]He walked in all the way in which his father walked, served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them; [22]he abandoned the LORD, the God of his ancestors, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.* [23]The servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his house.* [24]But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in place of him. [25]Now the rest of the acts of Amon that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? [26]He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza; then his son Josiah succeeded him.*

2 Kings 22

JOSIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath.* [2]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD and walked in all the way of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right or to the left.*

HILKIAH FINDS THE BOOK OF THE LAW

3 In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan son of Azaliah son of Meshullam, the secretary, to the house of the LORD, saying,* [4]"Go up to the high priest Hilkiah and have him add up the entire sum of the silver that has been brought into the house of the LORD that the keepers of the threshold have collected from the people;* [5]let it be given into the hand of the workers who have the oversight of the house of the LORD; let them give it to the workers who are at the house of the LORD repairing the house,* [6]that is, to the carpenters, to the builders, to the masons; and let them use it to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the house. [7]But no accounting shall be asked from them for the silver that is delivered into their hand, for they deal honestly."*

8 The high priest Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." When Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, he read it.* [9]Then Shaphan the secretary came to the king and reported to the king, "Your servants have melted down the silver that was found in the house and have delivered it into the hand of the workers who have oversight of the house of the LORD." [10]Shaphan the secretary informed the king, "The priest Hilkiah has given me a book." Shaphan then read it aloud to the king.

11 When the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes. [12]Then the king commanded the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary, and the king's servant Asaiah, saying,* [13]"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found, for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our ancestors did not obey the words of this book to do according to all that is written concerning us."*

14 So the priest Hilkiah, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to the prophet Huldah the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; she resided in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter, where they consulted her.* 15She declared to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me: 16'Thus says the LORD: I will indeed bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants—all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read. 17Because they have abandoned me and have made offerings to other gods, so that they have provoked me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched.'* 18But as to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him: 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Regarding the words that you have heard, 19because your heart was penitent and you humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard how I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the LORD.* 20Therefore, I will gather you to your ancestors, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring on this place.' " They took the message back to the king.

2 Kings 23

JOSIAH'S REFORMATION

1 Then the king directed that all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem should be gathered to him.* 2The king went up to the house of the LORD, and with him went all the people of Judah, all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the prophets, and all the people, both small and great; he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the house of the LORD.* 3The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, keeping his commandments, his decrees, and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. All the people joined in the covenant.*

4 The king commanded the high priest Hilkiah, the priests of the second order, and the guardians of the threshold to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron and carried their ashes to Bethel.* 5He deposed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to make offerings in the high places at the cities of Judah and around Jerusalem, those also who made offerings to Baal, to the sun, the moon, the constellations, and all the host of the heavens. 6He brought out the image of[z] Asherah from the house of the LORD, outside Jerusalem, to the Wadi Kidron, burned it at the Wadi Kidron, beat it to dust, and threw the dust of it upon the graves of the common people.* 7He broke down the houses of the illicit priests who were in the house of the LORD, where the women did weaving for Asherah.* 8He brought all the priests out of the towns of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests had made offerings, from Geba to Beer-sheba; he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on the left at the gate of the city.* 9The priests of the high places, however, did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem but ate unleavened bread among their kindred.* 10He defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of Ben-hinnom, so that no one would make a son or a daughter pass through fire as an offering to Molech.*

[11]He removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of the eunuch Nathan-melech, which was in the precincts;[a] then he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. [12]The altars on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz that the kings of Judah had made and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD he pulled down from there and broke in pieces and threw the rubble into the Wadi Kidron.* [13]The king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, to the south of the Mount of Destruction, which King Solomon of Israel had built for Astarte the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.* [14]He broke the pillars in pieces, cut down the sacred poles,[b] and covered the sites with human bones.*

15 Moreover, the altar at Bethel, the high place erected by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin—he pulled down that altar along with the high place. He burned the high place, crushing it to dust; he also burned the sacred pole.[c,] [16]As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs there on the mount, and he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD that the man of God proclaimed when Jeroboam stood by the altar at the festival; he turned and looked up at the tomb of the man of God who had proclaimed these things.[d,] [17]Then he said, "What is that monument that I see?" The people of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar at Bethel."* [18]He said, "Let him rest; let no one move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria.* [19]Moreover, Josiah removed all the shrines of the high places that were in the towns of Samaria that kings of Israel had made, provoking the LORD to anger; he did to them just as he had done at Bethel.* [20]He slaughtered on the altars all the priests of the high places who were there and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.*

THE PASSOVER CELEBRATED

21 The king commanded all the people, "Keep the Passover to the LORD your God as prescribed in this book of the covenant."* [22]No such Passover had been kept since the days of the judges who judged Israel, even during all the days of the kings of Israel and of the kings of Judah,* 23but in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was kept to the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 Moreover, Josiah put away the mediums, wizards, teraphim,e idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he established the words of the law that were written in the book that the priest Hilkiah had found in the house of the LORD.* 25Before him there was no king like him who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses, nor did any like him arise after him.*

26 Still the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath by which his anger was kindled against Judah because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked him.* 27The LORD said, "I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will reject this city that I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My name shall be there.' "*

JOSIAH DIES IN BATTLE

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? 29In his days Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the River Euphrates. King Josiah went to meet him, but when Pharaoh Neco met him at Megiddo, he killed him.* 30His servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.*

REIGN AND CAPTIVITY OF JEHOAHAZ

31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.* 32He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his ancestors had done. 33Pharaoh Neco confined him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and imposed tribute on the land of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.* 34Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away; he came to Egypt and died there.* 35Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land in order to meet Pharaoh's demand for money. He exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, from all according to their assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.*

JEHOIAKIM REIGNS OVER JUDAH

36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.* 37He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as all his ancestors had done.

2 Kings 24

JUDAH OVERRUN BY ENEMIES

1 In his days King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up; Jehoiakim became his servant for three years, then turned and rebelled against him.* [2]He[f] sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, bands of the Arameans, bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites; he sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD that he spoke by his servants the prophets.* [3]Surely this came upon Judah at the command of the LORD, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, for all that he had committed,* [4]and also for the innocent blood that he had shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to pardon.*
[5]Now the rest of the deeds of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah? [6]So Jehoiakim slept with his ancestors; then his son Jehoiachin succeeded him.* [7]The king of Egypt did not come again out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken over all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Wadi of Egypt to the River Euphrates.*

REIGN AND CAPTIVITY OF JEHOIACHIN

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.* [9]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as his father had done.

10 At that time the servants of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.* [11]King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to the city while his servants were besieging it; [12]King Jehoiachin of Judah gave himself up to the king of Babylon: himself, his mother, his servants, his officers, and his palace officials. The king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign.*

CAPTURE OF JERUSALEM

13 He carried off all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he cut in pieces all the vessels of gold in the temple of the LORD that King Solomon of Israel had made, all this as the LORD had foretold.* 14He carried away all Jerusalem, all the officials, all the warriors, ten thousand captives, all the artisans and the smiths; no one remained except the poorest people of the land.* 15He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; the king's mother, the king's wives, his officials, and the elite of the land, he took into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.*
16The king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon all the men of valor, seven thousand, the artisans and the smiths, one thousand, all of them strong and fit for war.* 17The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.*

ZEDEKIAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.* 19He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.* 20Indeed, Jerusalem and Judah so angered the LORD that he expelled them from his presence.

THE FALL AND CAPTIVITY OF JUDAH

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.*

2 Kings 25

1 And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem and laid siege to it; they built siegeworks against it all around.* 2So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. 3On the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine became so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.* 4Then a breach was made in the city wall;[g] the king with all the soldiers fled[h] by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the King's Garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They went in the direction of the Arabah.* 5But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; all his army was scattered, deserting him.
6Then they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who passed sentence on him.* 7They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah; they bound him in fetters and took him to Babylon.*

8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month—which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon—Nebuzaradan, the captain of the bodyguard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.* 9He burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down.* 10All the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls around Jerusalem.* 11Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon—all the rest of the multitude.* 12But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest people of the land to be vinedressers and tillers of the soil.*

13 The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, as well as the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and carried the bronze to Babylon.* 14They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the dishes for incense, and all the bronze vessels used in the temple service,* 15as well as the firepans and the basins.

What was made of gold the captain of the guard took away for the gold and what was made of silver for the silver. 16As for the two pillars, the one sea, and the stands that Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weighing.* 17The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and on it was a bronze capital; the height of the capital was three cubits; latticework and pomegranates, all of bronze, were on the capital all around. The second pillar had the same, with the latticework.*

18 The captain of the guard took the chief priest Seraiah, the second priest Zephaniah, and the three guardians of the threshold;* 19from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the soldiers and five men of the king's council who were found in the city; the secretary who was the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city. 20Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 21The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah went into exile out of its land.*

GEDALIAH MADE GOVERNOR OF JUDAH

22 He appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan as governor over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had left.* 23Now when all the captains of the forces and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah, namely, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite.* 24Gedaliah swore to them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid because of the Chaldean officials; live in the land, serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you." 25But in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men; they struck down Gedaliah so that he died, along with the Judeans and Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.* 26Then all the people, high and low,[i] and the captains of the forces set out and went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.*

JEHOIACHIN RELEASED FROM PRISON

27 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, King Evil-merodach of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, released King Jehoiachin of Judah from prison;* 28he spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat above the other seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon. 29So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes. Every day of his life he dined regularly in the king's presence.* 30For his allowance, a regular allowance was given him by the king, a portion every day, as long as he lived.

(they were heads of ancestral houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon who put to flight the inhabitants of Gath),* 14and Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth.
15Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, 16Michael, Ishpah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah. 17Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, 18Ishmerai, Izliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal. 19Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, 20Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, 21Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.* 22Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, 23Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, 24Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, 25Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak. 26Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, 27Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham. 28These were the heads of ancestral houses, according to their generations, chiefs. These lived in Jerusalem.

29 Jeiel[q] the father of Gibeon lived in Gibeon, and the name of his wife was Maacah.* 30His firstborn son: Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, 31Gedor, Ahio, Zecher, 32and Mikloth, who became the father of Shimeah.
Now these also lived opposite their kindred in Jerusalem, with their kindred. 33Ner became the father of Kish, Kish of Saul,[r] Saul[s] of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-baal;* 34and the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal became the father of Micah.[*] [35]The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. [36]Ahaz became the father of Jehoaddah; and Jehoaddah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; Zimri became the father of Moza. [37]Moza became the father of Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. [38]Azel had six sons, and these are their names: Azrikam, Bocheru,[t] Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; all these were the sons of Azel. [39]The sons of his brother Eshek: Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third. [40]The sons of Ulam were mighty warriors, archers, having many children and grandchildren, one hundred fifty. All these were Benjaminites.

1 Chronicles 9

1 So all Israel was enrolled by genealogies, and these are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And Judah was taken into exile in Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.* [2]Now the first to live again in their possessions in their towns were Israelites, priests, Levites, and temple servants.*

INHABITANTS OF JERUSALEM AFTER THE EXILE

3 And some of the people of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh lived in Jerusalem:* [4]Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, from the sons of Perez son of Judah. [5]And of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons. [6]Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel and their kin, six hundred ninety. [7]Of the Benjaminites: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah, [8]Ibneiah son of Jeroham, Elah son of Uzzi, son of Michri, and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibnijah; [9]and their kindred according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six. All these were heads of families according to their ancestral houses.

PRIESTLY FAMILIES

10 Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin,* [11]and Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the chief officer of the house of God; [12]and Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah, and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer; [13]besides their kindred, heads of their ancestral houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty, qualified for the work of the service of the house of God.

LEVITICAL FAMILIES

14 Of the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;* [15]and Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of Asaph; [16]and Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 The gatekeepers were: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman; and their kinsman Shallum was the chief, [18]stationed previously in the king's gate on the east side. These were the gatekeepers of the camp of the Levites.* [19]Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his kindred of his ancestral house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, guardians of the thresholds of the tent, as their ancestors had been in charge of the camp of the LORD, guardians of the entrance. [20]And Phinehas son of Eleazar was chief over them in former times; the LORD was with him.* [21]Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper at the entrance of the tent of meeting.* [22]All these who were chosen as gatekeepers at the thresholds were two hundred twelve. They were enrolled by genealogies in their villages. David and the seer Samuel established them in their office of trust.* [23]So they and their descendants were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, that is, the house of the tent, as guards. [24]The gatekeepers were on the four sides: east, west, north, and south; [25]and their kindred who were in their villages were obliged to come in every seven days, in turn, to be with them,* [26]for the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were in charge of the chambers and the treasures of the house of God. [27]And they would spend the night near the house of God, for on them lay the duty of watching, and they had charge of opening it every morning.*

28 Some of them had charge of the utensils of service, for they were required to count them when they were brought in and taken out. [29]Others of them were appointed over the furniture and over all the holy utensils, also over the choice flour, the wine, the oil, the incense, and the spices.* [30]Others of the sons of the priests prepared the mixing of the spices,* [31]and Mattithiah, one of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was in charge of making the flat cakes. [32]Also some of their kindred of the Kohathites had charge of the rows of bread, to prepare them for each Sabbath.*

33 Now these are the singers, the heads of ancestral houses of the Levites, living in the chambers of the temple free from other service, for they were on duty day and night.* [34]These were heads of ancestral houses of the Levites, according to their generations; these leaders lived in Jerusalem.

THE FAMILY OF KING SAUL

35 In Gibeon lived the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, and the name of his wife was Maacah.* [36]His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, [37]Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth; [38]and Mikloth became the father of Shimeam; and these also lived opposite their kindred in Jerusalem, with their kindred. [39]Ner became the father of Kish, Kish of Saul, Saul of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-baal;* [40]and the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal became the father of Micah. [41]The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz;[u,*] [42]and Ahaz became the father of Jarah, and Jarah of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza. [43]Moza became the father of Binea; and Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. [44]Azel had six sons, and these are their names: Azrikam, Bocheru,[v] Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10

DEATH OF SAUL AND HIS SONS

1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.* [2]The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons, and the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. [3]The battle pressed hard on Saul, and the archers found him, and he was wounded by the archers. [4]Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, so that these uncircumcised may not come and make sport of me." But his armor-bearer was unwilling, for he was terrified. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.* [5]When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died. [6]Thus Saul died; he and his three sons and all his house died together. [7]When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that the army[w] had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled, and the Philistines came and occupied them.

8 The next day when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. [9]They stripped him and took his head and his armor and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to their idols and to the people. [10]They put his armor in the temple of their gods and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.* [11]But when all Jabesh-gilead heard everything that the Philistines had done to Saul, [12]all the valiant warriors got up and took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh.
Then they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh and fasted seven days.

13 So Saul died for his unfaithfulness; he was unfaithful to the LORD in that he did not keep the command of the LORD; moreover, he had consulted a medium, seeking guidance,* [14]and did not seek guidance from the LORD.
Therefore the LORD[x] put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.*

1 Chronicles 11

DAVID ANOINTED KING OF ALL ISRAEL

1 Then all Israel gathered together to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your bone and flesh.* 2For some time now, even while Saul was king, it was you who commanded the army of Israel. The LORD your God said to you, ‘It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over my people Israel.’ ”* 3So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.*

JERUSALEM CAPTURED

4 David and all Israel marched to Jerusalem, that is, Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.* 5The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, “You will not come in here.” Nevertheless, David took the stronghold of Zion, now the city of David. 6David had said, “Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and commander.” And Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.* 7David resided in the stronghold; therefore it was called the city of David. 8He built the city all around, from the Millo in complete circuit, and Joab repaired the rest of the city. 9And David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him.*

DAVID’S MIGHTY MEN AND THEIR EXPLOITS

10 Now these are the chiefs of David’s warriors, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.* 11This is an account of David’s mighty warriors: Jashobeam, son of Hachmoni,[y] was chief of the Three;[z] he wielded his spear against three hundred whom he killed at one time.*

12 And next to him among the three warriors was Eleazar son of Dodo, the Ahohite. [13]He was with David at Pas-dammim when the Philistines were gathered there for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley.
Now the people had fled from the Philistines,* [14]but he and David took their stand in the middle of the plot, defended it, and killed the Philistines, and the LORD saved them by a great victory.

15 Three of the thirty chiefs went down to the rock to David at the cave of Adullam while the army of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.* [16]David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem. [17]David said longingly, "Oh, that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!" [18]Then the Three broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and they brought it to David. But David would not drink of it; he poured it out to the LORD [19]and said, "My God forbid that I should do this. Can I drink the blood of these men? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. The three warriors did these things.

20 Now Abishai,[a] the brother of Joab, was chief of the Thirty.[b] With his spear he fought against three hundred and killed them and won a name[c] beside the Three.* [21]He was the most renowned[d] of the Thirty[e] and became their commander, but he did not attain to the Three.*

22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant man[f] of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds; he struck down two sons of[g] Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.* [23]And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits tall. The Egyptian had in his hand a spear like a weaver's beam, but Benaiah went against him with a staff, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.* [24]Such were the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did, and he won a name beside the three warriors. [25]He was renowned among the Thirty, but he did not attain to the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

26 The warriors of the armies were Asahel brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem,* [27]Shammoth of Harod,[h] Helez the Pelonite, [28]Ira son of Ikkesh of Tekoa, Abiezer of Anathoth, [29]Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, [30]Maharai of Netophah, Heled son of Baanah of Netophah, [31]Ithai son of Ribai of Gibeah of the Benjaminites, Benaiah of Pirathon, [32]Hurai of the wadis of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, [33]Azmaveth of Bahurim, Eliahba of Shaalbon, [34]Hashem[i] the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite, [35]Ahiam son of Sachar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur, [36]Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, [37]Hezro of Carmel, Naarai son of Ezbai, [38]Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Hagri, [39]Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai of Beeroth (the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah),[*] [40]Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, [41]Uriah the Hittite, Zabad son of Ahlai, [42]Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, a leader of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, [43]Hanan son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, [44]Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham the Aroerite, [45]Jediael son of Shimri and his brother Joha the Tizite, [46]Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai and Joshaviah sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, [47]Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Chronicles 12

DAVID'S FOLLOWERS IN THE WILDERNESS

1 The following are those who came to David at Ziklag, while he could not move about freely because of Saul son of Kish; they were among the mighty warriors who helped him in war.* [2]They were archers and could shoot arrows and sling stones with either the right hand or the left; they were Benjaminites, Saul's kindred.* [3]The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, both sons of Shemaah of Gibeah; also Jeziel and Pelet sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu of Anathoth, [4]Ishmaiah of Gibeon, a warrior among the Thirty and a leader over the Thirty; Jeremiah,[j] Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad of Gederah, [5]Eluzai,[k] Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Haruphite; [6]Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites; [7]and Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 From the Gadites there went over to David at the stronghold in the wilderness mighty and experienced warriors, expert with shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions and who were swift as gazelles on the mountains:* [9]Ezer the chief, Obadiah second, Eliab third, [10]Mishmannah fourth, Jeremiah fifth, [11]Attai sixth, Eliel seventh, [12]Johanan eighth, Elzabad ninth, [13]Jeremiah tenth, Machbannai eleventh. [14]These Gadites were officers of the army, the least equal to a hundred and the greatest to a thousand. [15]These are the men who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it was overflowing all its banks, and put to flight all those in the valleys to the east and to the west.*

16 Some Benjaminites and Judahites came to the stronghold to David.
[17]David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come to me in friendship, to help me, then my heart will be knit to you, but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, though my hands have done no wrong, then may the God of our ancestors see and give judgment." [18]Then the spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said,[l]

"We are yours, O David, and with you, O son of Jesse!

Peace, peace to you, and peace to the one who helps you!
For your God is the one who helps you."

Then David received them and made them officers of his troops.*

19 Some of the Manassites deserted to David when he came with the Philistines for the battle against Saul. (Yet he did not help them, for the rulers of the Philistines took counsel and sent him away, saying, "He will desert to his master Saul at the cost of our heads.")* 20As he went to Ziklag these Manassites deserted to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, chiefs of the thousands in Manasseh. 21They helped David against the band of raiders,[m] for they were all warriors and commanders in the army.* 22Indeed, from day to day people kept coming to David to help him until there was a great army, like an army of God.

DAVID'S ARMY AT HEBRON

23 These are the numbers of the divisions of the armed troops who came to David in Hebron to turn the kingdom of Saul over to him, according to the word of the LORD.* 24The people of Judah bearing shield and spear numbered six thousand eight hundred armed troops. 25Of the Simeonites, mighty warriors, seven thousand one hundred. 26Of the Levites four thousand six hundred. 27Jehoiada, leader of the house of[n] Aaron, and with him three thousand seven hundred. 28Zadok, a young warrior, and twenty-two commanders from his own ancestral house.* 29Of the Benjaminites, the kindred of Saul, three thousand, of whom the majority had continued to keep their allegiance to the house of Saul.* 30Of the Ephraimites, twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty warriors, notables in their ancestral houses. 31Of the half-tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand, who were expressly named to come and make David king. 32Of Issachar, those who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, two hundred chiefs, and all their kindred under their command.* 33Of Zebulun, fifty thousand seasoned troops equipped for battle with all the weapons of war to help David[o] with singleness of purpose.* 34Of Naphtali, a thousand commanders, with whom there were thirty-seven thousand armed with shield and spear. [35]Of the Danites, twenty-eight thousand six hundred equipped for battle. [36]Of Asher, forty thousand seasoned troops ready for battle. [37]Of the Reubenites and Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh from beyond the Jordan, one hundred twenty thousand armed with all the weapons of war.

38 All these, warriors arrayed in battle order, came to Hebron with full intent to make David king over all Israel; likewise all the rest of Israel were of a single mind to make David king.* [39]They were there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their kindred had provided for them. [40]And also their neighbors from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen—abundant provisions of meal, cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.*

1 Chronicles 13

THE ARK BROUGHT FROM KIRIATH-JEARIM

1 David consulted with the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, with every leader. 2David said to the whole assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send abroad to our kindred who remain in all the land of Israel, including the priests and Levites in the cities that have pasturelands, that they may come together to us.* 3Then let us bring again the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it in the days of Saul."* 4The whole assembly agreed to do so, for the thing pleased all the people.

5 So David assembled all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt to Lebo-hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.* 6And David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD, who is enthroned on the cherubim, which is called by his[p] name.* 7They carried the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzzah and Ahio[q] were driving the cart.* 8David and all Israel were dancing before God with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and cymbals and trumpets.*

9 When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzzah put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen lurched.* 10The anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; he struck him down because he put out his hand to the ark, and he died there before God.* 11David was angry because the LORD had burst out against Uzzah, so that place is called Perez-uzzah[r] to this day.
12David was afraid of God that day; he said, "How can I bring the ark of God into my care?" 13So David did not take the ark into his care into the city of David; he took it instead to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
14The ark of God remained with the household of Obed-edom in his house three months, and the LORD blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that he had.*

1 Chronicles 14

DAVID ESTABLISHED AT JERUSALEM

1 King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs and masons and carpenters to build a house for him.* [2]David then perceived that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

3 David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David became the father of more sons and daughters. [4]These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, and Nathan; Solomon,* [5]Ibhar, Elishua, and Elpelet; [6]Nogah, Nepheg, and Japhia; [7]Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

DEFEAT OF THE PHILISTINES

8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David, but David heard about it and went out against them.* [9]Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.* [10]David inquired of God, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you give them into my hand?" The LORD said to him, "Go up, and I will give them into your hand." [11]So they went up to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there. David said, "God has burst forth against my enemies by my hand, like a bursting flood." Therefore that place is called Baal-perazim.s [12]They abandoned their gods there, and at David's command they were burned.

13 Once again the Philistines made a raid in the valley.* [14]When David again inquired of God, God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; go around and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.* [15]When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines." [16]David did as God had commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.* [17]The fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD brought the fear of him on all nations.*

1 Chronicles 15

THE ARK BROUGHT TO JERUSALEM

1 David[t] built houses for himself in the city of David, and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.* [2]Then David commanded that no one but the Levites were to carry the ark of God, for the LORD had chosen them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister to him forever.*
[3]David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it.* [4]Then David gathered together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites: [5]of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, with one hundred twenty of his kindred; [6]of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, with two hundred twenty of his kindred; [7]of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, with one hundred thirty of his kindred; [8]of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, with two hundred of his kindred;* [9]of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, with eighty of his kindred;* [10]of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, with one hundred twelve of his kindred.

11 David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.* [12]He said to them, "You are the heads of families of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your kindred, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it.* [13]Because you did not carry it[u] the first time,[v] the LORD our God burst out against us because we did not give it proper care."* [14]So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel.* [15]And the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles, as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.*

16 David also commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their kindred as singers to raise loud sounds of joy on musical instruments, on harps and lyres and cymbals.* [17]So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; and of his kindred Asaph son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari, their kindred, Ethan son of Kushaiah;* [18]and with them their kindred of the second order, Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel. [19]The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound bronze cymbals; [20]Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play harps according to Alamoth, [21]but Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah were to lead with lyres according to the Sheminith.[w] [22]Chenaniah, leader of the Levites in music, was to direct the music, for he understood it. [23]Berechiah and Elkanah were to be gatekeepers for the ark. [24]Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah also were to be gatekeepers for the ark.[*]

25 So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of the thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-edom with rejoicing.[] [26]And because God helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. [27]David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as also were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the leader of the music of the singers, and David wore a linen ephod. [28]So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, to the sound of the horn, trumpets, and cymbals, and made loud music on harps and lyres.[]

29 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing, and she despised him in her heart.[*]

1 Chronicles 16

THE ARK PLACED IN THE TENT

1 They brought in the ark of God and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before God.* [2]When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD, [3]and he distributed to every person in Israel—man and woman alike—to each a loaf of bread, a portion of meat,[x] and a cake of raisins.

4 He appointed certain of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, to invoke, to thank, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel. [5]Asaph was the chief, and second to him was Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, with harps and lyres; Asaph was to sound the cymbals,* [6]and the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel were to blow trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.

DAVID'S PSALM OF THANKSGIVING

7 Then on that day David first appointed the singing of praises to the LORD by Asaph and his kindred.*

[8]O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples.*
[9]Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wonderful works.
[10]Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
[11]Seek the LORD and his strength; seek his presence continually.*
[12]Remember the wonderful works he has done, his miracles and the judgments he uttered,*

13 O offspring of his servant Israel, children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.*
15 Remember his covenant forever, the word that he commanded for a thousand generations, 16 the covenant that he made with Abraham, his sworn promise to Isaac,* 17 which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant,* 18 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance."

19 When they were few in number, of little account, and strangers in the land,y,* 20 wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, 21 he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account,* 22 saying, "Do not touch my anointed ones; do my prophets no harm."

23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth.
Tell of his salvation from day to day.*
24 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples.
25 For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised; he is to be revered above all gods.*
26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.*

27 Honor and majesty are before him; strength and joy are in his place.

28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.*
29 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering and come before him.
Worship the LORD in holy splendor; 30 tremble before him, all the earth.
The world is firmly established; it shall never be moved.
31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice, and let them say among the nations, "The LORD is king!"* 32 Let the sea roar and all that fills it; let the field exult and everything in it.*
33 Then shall the trees of the forest sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.
34 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.*

35 Say also,
"Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather and rescue us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise.*
36 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting." Then all the people said "Amen!" and praised the LORD.*

REGULAR WORSHIP MAINTAINED

37 David[z] left Asaph and his kinsfolk there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister regularly before the ark as each day required,* [38]and also Obed-edom and his[a] sixty-eight kinsfolk, while Obed-edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were to be gatekeepers.* [39]And he left the priest Zadok and his kindred the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,* [40]to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, according to all that is written in the law of the LORD that he commanded Israel.* [41]With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen and expressly named to render thanks to the LORD, for his steadfast love endures forever.* [42]Heman and Jeduthun had with them trumpets and cymbals for the music and instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were appointed to the gate.

43 Then all the people departed to their homes, and David went home to bless his household.

1 Chronicles 17

GOD'S COVENANT WITH DAVID

1 Now when David settled in his house, David said to the prophet Nathan,
"I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent."* [2]Nathan said to David, "Do all that you have in mind, for God is with you."

3 But that same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying, [4]"Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the LORD: You shall not build me a house to live in.* [5]For I have not lived in a house since the day I brought out Israel to this very day, but I have lived in a tent and a tabernacle.[b,] [6]Wherever I have moved about among all Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?' [7]Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people Israel, [8]and I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies before you, and I will make for you a name like the name of the great ones of the earth. [9]I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place and be disturbed no more, and evildoers shall wear them down no more, as they did formerly, [10]from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel, and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover, I declare to you that the LORD will build you a house.* [11]When your days are fulfilled to go to be with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. [12]He shall build a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever. [13]I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from him who was before you,* [14]but I will confirm him in my house and in my kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forever."* [15]In accordance with all these words and all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

DAVID'S PRAYER

16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD and said, “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?*
17And even this was a small thing in your sight, O God; you have also spoken of your servant’s house into the distant future. You regard me as someone of high rank,[c] O LORD God! 18And what more can David say to you for honoring your servant? You know your servant. 19For your servant’s sake, O LORD, and according to your own heart, you have done all these great deeds, making known all these great things.* 20There is no one like you, O LORD, and there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 21Who is like your people Israel, one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem to be his people, making for yourself a name for great and awesome things, in driving out nations before your people whom you redeemed from Egypt? 22And you made your people Israel to be your people forever, and you, O LORD, became their God.*
23And now, O LORD, as for the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as you have promised. 24Thus your name will be established and magnified forever in the saying, ‘The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel’s God,’ and the house of your servant David will be established in your presence.*
25For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him; therefore your servant has found it possible to pray before you. 26And now, O LORD, you are God, and you have promised this good thing to your servant; 27therefore may it please you to bless the house of your servant so that it may continue forever before you. For you, O LORD, have blessed and are blessed[d] forever.”

1 Chronicles 18

DAVID'S KINGDOM ESTABLISHED AND EXTENDED

1 Some time afterward, David attacked the Philistines and subdued them; he took Gath and its villages from the Philistines.*

2 He defeated Moab, and the Moabites became subject to David and brought tribute.

3 David also struck down King Hadadezer of Zobah, toward Hamath,[e] as he went to set up a monument at the River Euphrates. [4]David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand cavalry, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. David hamstrung all the chariot horses but left one hundred of them. [5]When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand Arameans.* [6]Then David put garrisons[f] in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to David and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. [7]David took the gold shields that were carried by the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. [8]From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a vast quantity of bronze; with it Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the vessels of bronze.*

9 When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of King Hadadezer of Zobah, [10]he sent his son Hadoram to King David, to greet him and to congratulate him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him. Now Hadadezer had often been at war with Tou. He sent all sorts of articles of gold, of silver, and of bronze;* [11]these also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold that he had carried off from all the nations, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

12 Abishai son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.* [13]He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

DAVID'S ADMINISTRATION

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and he administered justice and equity to all his people. [15]Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;* [16]Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary; [17]Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were the chief officials in the service of the king.*

1 Chronicles 19

DEFEAT OF THE AMMONITES AND ARAMEANS

1 Some time afterward, King Nahash of the Ammonites died, and his son succeeded him.* [2]David said, "I will deal loyally with Hanun son of Nahash, for his father dealt loyally with me." So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. When David's servants came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to console him, [3]the officials of the Ammonites said to Hanun, "Do you think, because David has sent consolers to you, that he is honoring your father? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"* [4]So Hanun seized David's servants, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at their waists, and sent them away,* [5]and they departed. When David was told about the men, he sent messengers to them, for they felt greatly humiliated.
The king said, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown and then return."

6 When the Ammonites saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and cavalry from Aram-naharaim, from Aram-maacah, and from Zobah.* [7]They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and the king of Maacah with his army, who came and camped before Medeba. And the Ammonites were mustered from their cities and came to battle.* [8]When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the warriors.* [9]The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

10 When Joab saw that the line of battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he chose some of the picked men of Israel and arrayed them against the Arameans; [11]the rest of his troops he put in the charge of his brother Abishai, and they were arrayed against the Ammonites.* [12]He said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me, but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will help you.* [13]Be strong, and let us be courageous for our people and for the cities of our God, and may the LORD do what seems good to him." [14]So Joab and the troops who were with him advanced toward the Arameans for battle, and they fled before him.* 15When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, Joab's brother, and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 But when the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the River, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer at their head.* 17When David was informed, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan, came to them, and drew up his forces against them. When David set the battle in array against the Arameans, they fought with him.* 18The Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand Aramean charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers and also Shophach the commander of their army.* 19When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites any more.*

1 Chronicles 20

SIEGE AND CAPTURE OF RABBAH

1 In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, Joab led out the army, ravaged the country of the Ammonites, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and overthrew it.* 2David took the crown of Milcom[g] from his head; he found that it weighed a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone, and it was placed on David's head. He also brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.* 3He brought out the people who were in it and set them to work[h] with saws and iron picks and axes.[i] Thus David did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.*

EXPLOITS AGAINST THE PHILISTINES

4 After this, war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, who was one of the descendants of the giants, and the Philistines were subdued.* 5Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.* 6Again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great size who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; he also was descended from the giants.[j,*] 7When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him. 8These were descended from the giants[k] in Gath; they fell by the hand of David and his servants.

1 Chronicles 21

THE CENSUS AND PLAGUE

1 Satan stood up against Israel and incited David to count the people of Israel.* [2]So David said to Joab and the commanders of the army, "Go, number Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, and bring me a report, so that I may know their number."* [3]But Joab said, "May the LORD increase the number of his people a hundredfold! Are they not, my lord the king, all of them my lord's servants? Why then should my lord require this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"* [4]But the king's word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came back to Jerusalem. [5]Joab gave the total count of the people to David. In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and in Judah four hundred seventy thousand who drew the sword.* [6]But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, for the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.*

7 But God was displeased with this thing, and he struck Israel. [8]David said to God, "I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing. But now, please remove the guilt of your servant, for I have done very foolishly."* [9]The LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, [10]"Go and say to David: Thus says the LORD: Three things I offer you; choose one of them, so that I may do it to you."* [11]So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Take your choice: [12]either three years of famine; or three months of devastation by your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or three days of the sword of the LORD, pestilence on the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel. Now decide what answer I shall return to the one who sent me."* [13]Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress; let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is very great, but let me not fall into human hands."*

14 So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel, and seventy thousand persons fell in Israel.* [15]And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but when he was about to destroy it, the LORD took note and relented concerning the calamity; he said to the destroying angel, "Enough! Stay your hand." The angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.* 16David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven and in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.* 17And David said to God, "Was it not I who gave the command to count the people? It is I who have sinned and done very wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and against my father's house, but do not let your people be plagued!"*

DAVID'S ALTAR AND SACRIFICE

18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to tell David that he should go up and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.* 19So David went up following Gad's instructions, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD. 20Ornan turned and saw the king,[1] and while his four sons who were with him hid themselves, Ornan continued to thresh wheat. 21As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David; he went out from the threshing floor and prostrated himself before David with his face to the ground.* 22David said to Ornan, "Give me the site of the threshing floor that I may build on it an altar to the LORD—give it to me at its full price—so that the plague may be averted from the people." 23Then Ornan said to David, "Take it, and let my lord the king do what seems good to him; see, I present the oxen for burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for the wood and the wheat for a grain offering. I give it all." 24But King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will buy them for the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours nor offer burnt offerings that cost me nothing." 25So David paid Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the site.* 26David built there an altar to the LORD and presented burnt offerings and offerings of well-being. He called upon the LORD, and he answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.* 27Then the LORD commanded the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.

THE PLACE CHOSEN FOR THE TEMPLE

28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he made his sacrifices there. [29]For the tabernacle of the LORD that Moses had made in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon,* [30]but David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22

1 Then David said, “Here shall be the house of the LORD God and here the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”*

DAVID PREPARES TO BUILD THE TEMPLE

2 David gave orders to gather together the aliens who were residing in the land of Israel, and he set stonecutters to prepare dressed stones for building the house of God.* 3David also provided great stores of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps, as well as bronze in quantities beyond weighing,* 4and cedar logs without number—for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought great quantities of cedar to David.* 5For David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorified throughout all lands; I will therefore make preparation for it.” So David provided materials in great quantity before his death.*

DAVID’S CHARGE TO SOLOMON AND THE LEADERS

6 Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. 7David said to Solomon, “My son, I had planned to build a house to the name of the LORD my God.* 8But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house to my name because you have shed so much blood in my sight on the earth.* 9See, a son shall be born to you; he shall be a man of rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side; indeed, his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace[m] and quiet to Israel in his days.* 10He shall build a house for my name. He shall be a son to me, and I will be a father to him, and I will establish his royal throne in Israel forever.’* 11Now, my son, the LORD be with you, so that you may succeed in building the house of the LORD your God, as he has spoken concerning you.* 12Only, may the LORD grant you discretion and understanding, so that when he gives you charge over Israel you may keep the law of the LORD your God.* 13Then you will prosper, if you are careful to observe the statutes and the ordinances that the LORD commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid or dismayed.* 14With great pains I have provided for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing, for there is so much of it; timber and stone also I have provided. To these you must add more.* 15You have an abundance of workers: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and all kinds of artisans without number, skilled in working 16gold, silver, bronze, and iron. Now begin the work, and the LORD be with you."*

17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon, saying,* 18"Is not the LORD your God with you? Has he not given you rest on every side? For he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and his people.* 19Now set your mind and heart to seek the LORD your God. Go and build the sanctuary of the LORD God so that the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy vessels of God may be brought into the house built for the name of the LORD."*

1 Chronicles 23

FAMILIES OF THE LEVITES AND THEIR FUNCTIONS

1 When David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.*

2 David assembled all the leaders of Israel and the priests and the Levites. 3The Levites, thirty years old and up, were counted, and the total head count of men was thirty-eight thousand.* 4"Twenty-four thousand of these," David said, "shall have charge of the work in the house of the LORD, six thousand shall be officers and judges,* 5four thousand gatekeepers, and four thousand shall offer praises to the LORD with the instruments that I have made for praise."* 6And David organized them in divisions corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.*

7 The sons of Gershon[n] were Ladan and Shimei. 8The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, Zetham, and Joel, three. 9The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the heads of families of Ladan. 10And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. 11Jahath was the chief and Zizah the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were enrolled as a single family.

12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.* 13The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart to consecrate the most holy things, so that he and his sons forever should make offerings before the LORD and minister to him and pronounce blessings in his name forever,* 14but as for Moses the man of God, his sons were to be reckoned among the tribe of Levi. 15The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. 16The son of Gershom: Shebuel the chief.* 17The son of Eliezer: Rehabiah the chief; Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous. 18The son of Izhar: Shelomith the chief. 19The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. 20The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief and Isshiah the second.

21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.* 22Eleazar died having no sons but only daughters; their kindred, the sons of Kish, married them. [23]The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

24 These were the sons of Levi by their ancestral houses, the heads of families as they were enrolled according to the number of the names of the individuals from twenty years old and up who were to do the work for the service of the house of the LORD.* [25]For David said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people, and he resides in Jerusalem forever.* [26]And so the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the things for its service"—[27]for according to the last words of David these were the number of the Levites from twenty years old and up—[28]"but their duty shall be to assist the descendants of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, having the care of the courts and the chambers, the cleansing of all that is holy, and any work for the service of the house of God; [29]to assist also with the rows of bread, the choice flour for the grain offering, the wafers of unleavened bread, the baked offering, the offering mixed with oil, and all measures of quantity or size. [30]And they shall stand every morning thanking and praising the LORD, and likewise at evening, [31]and whenever burnt offerings are offered to the LORD on Sabbaths, new moons, and appointed festivals, according to the number required of them, regularly before the LORD.* [32]Thus they shall keep charge of the tent of meeting and the sanctuary and shall attend the descendants of Aaron, their kindred, for the service of the house of the LORD."*

1 Chronicles 24

DIVISIONS OF THE PRIESTS

1 The divisions of the descendants of Aaron were these. The sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.* [2]But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no sons, so Eleazar and Ithamar became the priests.*
[3]Along with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, David organized them according to the appointed duties in their service. [4]Since more chief men were found among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar, they organized them under sixteen heads of ancestral houses of the sons of Eleazar and eight of the sons of Ithamar.
[5]They organized them by lot, all alike, for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God among both the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar.* [6]The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded them in the presence of the king, and the officers, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the heads of ancestral houses of the priests and of the Levites—one ancestral house being chosen for Eleazar and one chosen for Ithamar.

7 The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, [8]the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, [9]the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, [10]the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,* [11]the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, [12]the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, [13]the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, [14]the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, [15]the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez, [16]the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, [17]the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, [18]the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. [19]These had as their appointed duty in their service to enter the house of the LORD according to the procedure established for them by their ancestor Aaron, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.*

OTHER LEVITES

20 And of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. [21]Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the chief.* [22]Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath. [23]The sons of Hebron:[o] Jeriah the chief,[p] Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.* [24]The sons of Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of Micah, Shamir. [25]The brother of Micah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah. [26]The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Jaaziah: Beno.[q,] [27]The sons of Merari: of Jaaziah, Beno,[r] Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri. [28]Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons. [29]Of Kish, the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel. [30]The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their ancestral houses. [31]These also cast lots corresponding to their kindred, the descendants of Aaron, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of ancestral houses of the priests and of the Levites, the chief as well as the youngest brother.

1 Chronicles 25

THE TEMPLE MUSICIANS

1 David and the officers of the army also set apart for the service the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. The list of those who did the work and of their duties was:* [2]Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah, sons of Asaph, under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the direction of the king. [3]Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei,[s] Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father LORD.* [4]Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, of Heman the king's seer, according to the promise of God to exalt him, for God had given Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. [6]They were all under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the order of the king.* [7]They and their kindred, who were trained in singing to the LORD, all of whom were skillful, numbered two hundred eighty-eight. [8]And they cast lots for their duties, small and great, teacher and pupil alike.*

9 The first lot fell for Asaph to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, to him and his brothers and his sons, twelve;* [10]the third to Zaccur, his sons and his

1 Chronicles 26

THE GATEKEEPERS

1 As for the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.* [2]Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, [3]Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh. [4]Obed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sachar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,* [5]Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed him. [6]Also to his son Shemaiah sons were born who exercised authority in their ancestral houses, for they were men of great ability. [7]The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers were able men, Elihu and Semachiah. [8]All these, sons of Obed-edom with their sons and brothers, were able men qualified for the service; sixty-two of Obed-edom. [9]Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, able men, eighteen. [10]Hosah, of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him chief),* [11]Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brothers of Hosah totaled thirteen.

12 These divisions of the gatekeepers, corresponding to their leaders, had duties, just as their kindred did, ministering in the house of the LORD,* [13]and they cast lots by ancestral houses, small and great alike, for their gates.*
[14]The lot for the east fell to Shelemiah. They cast lots also for his son Zechariah, a prudent counselor, and his lot came out for the north. [15]Obed-edom's came out for the south, and to his sons was allotted the storehouse.
[16]For Shuppim and Hosah it came out for the west, at the gate of Shallecheth on the ascending road. Guard corresponded to guard. [17]On the east there were six Levites each day,[u] on the north four each day, on the south four each day, as well as two and two at the storehouse, [18]and for the colonnade[v] on the west there were four at the road and two at the colonnade.[w] [19]These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the Korahites and the sons of Merari.

THE TREASURERS, OFFICERS, AND JUDGES

20 And of the Levites, Ahijah had charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the treasuries of the dedicated gifts.* 21The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of families belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli.[x]

22 The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasuries of the house of the LORD. 23Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites: 24Shebuel son of Gershom, son of Moses, was chief officer in charge of the treasuries.* 25His brothers: from Eliezer were his son Rehabiah, his son Jeshaiah, his son Joram, his son Zichri, and his son Shelomoth.* 26This Shelomoth and his brothers were in charge of all the treasuries of the dedicated gifts that King David, and the heads of families, and the officers of the thousands and the hundreds, and the commanders of the army had dedicated.* 27From spoil won in battles they dedicated gifts for the maintenance of the house of the LORD. 28Also all that Samuel the seer, and Saul son of Kish, and Abner son of Ner, and Joab son of Zeruiah had dedicated—all dedicated gifts were in the care of Shelomoth[y] and his brothers.*

29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were appointed to outside duties for Israel, as officers and judges.* 30Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, one thousand seven hundred men of ability, had the oversight of Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of the LORD and for the service of the king.* 31Of the Hebronites, Jerijah was chief of the Hebronites. (In the fortieth year of David's reign search was made of whatever genealogy or family and men of great ability among them were found at Jazer in Gilead.)* 32King David appointed him and his brothers, two thousand seven hundred men of ability, heads of families, to have the oversight of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites for everything pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.*

1 Chronicles 27

THE MILITARY DIVISIONS

1 This is the list of the people of Israel, the heads of families, the commanders of the thousands and the hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters concerning the divisions that came and went, month after month throughout the year, each division numbering twenty-four thousand:

2 Jashobeam son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division in the first month; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 3He was a descendant of Perez and was chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month. 4Dodai the Ahohite was in charge of the division of the second month; Mikloth was the chief officer of his division. In his division were twenty-four thousand. 5The third commander, for the third month, was Benaiah son of the chief priest Jehoiada; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 6This is the Benaiah who was a mighty man of the Thirty and in command of the Thirty; his son Ammizabad was in charge of his division.z,* 7Asahel brother of Joab was fourth, for the fourth month, and his son Zebadiah after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 8The fifth commander, for the fifth month, was Shamhuth, the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 9Sixth, for the sixth month, was Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 10Seventh, for the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite, of the Ephraimites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 11Eighth, for the eighth month, was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 12Ninth, for the ninth month, was Abiezer of Anathoth, a Benjaminite; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 13Tenth, for the tenth month, was Maharai of Netophah, of the Zerahites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 14Eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah of Pirathon, of the Ephraimites; in his division were twenty-four thousand.* 15Twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

LEADERS OF TRIBES

16 Over the tribes of Israel, for the Reubenites, Eliezer son of Zichri was chief officer; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah son of Maacah; [17]for Levi, Hashabiah son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Zadok; [18]for Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers; for Issachar, Omri son of Michael; [19]for Zebulun, Ishmaiah son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jerimoth son of Azriel; [20]for the Ephraimites, Hoshea son of Azaziah; for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel son of Pedaiah; [21]for the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel son of Abner; [22]for Dan, Azarel son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.* [23]David did not count those below twenty years of age, for the LORD had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars of heaven.* [24]Joab son of Zeruiah began to count them but did not finish, yet wrath came upon Israel for this, and the number was not entered into the account of the Annals of King David.*

OTHER CIVIC OFFICIALS

25 Over the king's treasuries was Azmaveth son of Adiel. Over the treasuries in the country, in the cities, in the villages and in the towers was Jonathan son of Uzziah. [26]Over those who did the work of the field, tilling the soil, was Ezri son of Chelub. [27]Over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite. Over the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite. [28]Over the olive and sycamore trees in the Shephelah was Baal-hanan the Gederite. Over the stores of oil was Joash.* [29]Over the herds that pastured in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite. Over the herds in the valleys was Shaphat son of Adlai. [30]Over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite. Over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite. [31]Over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. All these were stewards of King David's property.

32 Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, being a man of understanding and a scribe; Jehiel son of Hachmoni attended the king's sons. [33]Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend.* [34]After Ahithophel came Jehoiada son of Benaiah and Abiathar. Joab was commander of the king's army.*

1 Chronicles 28

SOLOMON INSTRUCTED TO BUILD THE TEMPLE

1 David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the officials of the tribes, the officers of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of the thousands, the commanders of the hundreds, the stewards of all the property and cattle of the king, and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty warriors, and all the warriors.* [2]Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brothers and my people. I had planned to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the footstool of our God, and I made preparations for building.* [3]But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for my name, for you are a warrior and have shed blood.'* [4]Yet the LORD God of Israel chose me from all my ancestral house to be king over Israel forever, for he chose Judah as leader, and in the house of Judah my father's house, and among my father's sons he took delight in making me king over all Israel.* [5]And of all my sons, for the LORD has given me many, he has chosen my son Solomon to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.* [6]He said to me, 'It is your son Solomon who shall build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be a son to me, and I will be a father to him.* [7]I will establish his kingdom forever, if he continues resolute in keeping my commandments and my ordinances, as he is today.'* [8]Now therefore in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and search out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever.

9 "And you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve him with single mind and willing heart, for the LORD searches every mind and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will abandon you forever.* [10]Take heed, now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house as the sanctuary; be strong, and act."*

11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plan of the vestibule and of its houses, its treasuries, its upper rooms, and its inner chambers, and of the room for the cover,* 12and the plan of all that he had in mind for the courts of the house of the LORD, all the surrounding chambers, the treasuries of the house of God, and the treasuries for dedicated gifts;* 13for the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, and all the work of the service in the house of the LORD; for all the vessels for the service in the house of the LORD,* 14the weight of gold for all golden vessels for each service, the weight of silver vessels for each service, 15the weight of the golden lampstands and their lamps, the weight of gold for each lampstand and its lamps, the weight of silver for a lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each in the service,* 16the weight of gold for each table for the rows of bread, the silver for the silver tables, 17and pure gold for the forks, the basins, and the cups; for the golden bowls and the weight of each; for the silver bowls and the weight of each; 18for the altar of incense made of refined gold and its weight; also his plan for the golden chariot of the cherubim that spread their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.*

19 "All this, in writing at the LORD's direction, he made clear to me—the plan of all the works."*

20 David said further to his son Solomon, "Be strong and of good courage, and act. Do not be afraid or dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.* 21Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and with you in all the work will be every volunteer who has skill for any kind of service; also the officers and all the people will be wholly at your command."*

1 Chronicles 29

OFFERINGS FOR BUILDING THE TEMPLE

1 King David said to the whole assembly, "My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced, and the work is great, for the temple[a] will not be for mortals but for the LORD God.* [2]So I have provided for the house of my God, so far as I was able, the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, and the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, besides great quantities of onyx and stones for setting, antimony, colored stones, all sorts of precious stones, and marble in abundance.* [3]Moreover, in addition to all that I have provided for the holy house, I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, and because of my devotion to the house of my God I give it to the house of my God: [4]three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for overlaying the walls of the house,* [5]and for all the work to be done by artisans, gold for the things of gold and silver for the things of silver. Who then will offer willingly, consecrating themselves today to the LORD?"

6 Then the leaders of ancestral houses made their freewill offerings, as did also the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, and the officers over the king's work.* [7]They gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.* [8]Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.* [9]Then the people rejoiced because these had given willingly, for with single mind they had offered freely to the LORD; King David also rejoiced greatly.*

DAVID'S PRAISE TO GOD

10 Then David blessed the LORD in the presence of all the assembly; David said, "Blessed are you, O LORD, the God of our ancestor Israel, forever and ever. [11]Yours, O LORD, are the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and on the earth is yours; yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and you are exalted as head above all.* 12Riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all. In your hand are power and might, and it is in your hand to make great and to give strength to all.* 13And now, our God, we give thanks to you and praise your glorious name.

14 "But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to make this freewill offering? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. 15For we are aliens and transients before you, as were all our ancestors; our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope.* 16O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building you a house for your holy name comes from your hand and is all your own. 17I know, my God, that you search the heart and take pleasure in uprightness; in the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen your people who are present here offering freely and joyously to you.* 18O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our ancestors, keep forever such purposes and thoughts in the hearts of your people, and direct their hearts toward you. 19Grant to my son Solomon that with single mind he may keep your commandments, your decrees, and your statutes, performing all of them, and that he may build the temple[b] for which I have made provision."*

20 Then David said to the whole assembly, "Bless the LORD your God." And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king. 21On the next day they offered sacrifices and burnt offerings to the LORD, a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their libations, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel,* 22and they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great joy.

SOLOMON ANOINTED KING

They made David's son Solomon king a second time; they anointed him as the LORD's prince and Zadok as priest.* 23Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD, succeeding his father David as king; he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him. 24All the leaders and the mighty warriors and also all the sons of King David pledged their allegiance to King Solomon. 25The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.*

SUMMARY OF DAVID'S REIGN

26 Thus David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.* [27]The period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.* [28]He died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor, and his son Solomon succeeded him.* [29]Now the acts of King David, from first to last, are written in the records of the seer Samuel, and in the records of the prophet Nathan, and in the records of the seer Gad, [30]with accounts of all his rule and his might and of the events that befell him and Israel and all the kingdoms of the earth.*

2 Chronicles 1

SOLOMON REQUESTS WISDOM

1 Solomon son of David strengthened himself in his kingdom; the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.*

2 Solomon summoned all Israel, the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, the judges, and all the leaders of all Israel, the heads of families.* 3Then Solomon and the whole assembly with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon, for God's tent of meeting, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness, was there.* 4(But David had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath-jearim to the place that David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.)* 5Moreover, the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur had made was there in front of the tabernacle of the LORD. And Solomon and the assembly inquired at it.* 6Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.*

7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask what I should give you."* 8Solomon said to God, "You have shown great and steadfast love to my father David and have made me succeed him as king.* 9O LORD God, let your promise to my father David now be fulfilled, for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.* 10Give me now wisdom and knowledge to go out and come in before this people, for who can rule this great people of yours?"* 11God answered Solomon, "Because this was in your heart and you have not asked for possessions, wealth, honor, or the life of those who hate you and have not even asked for long life but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may rule my people over whom I have made you king,* 12wisdom and knowledge are granted to you. I will also give you riches, possessions, and honor, such as none of the kings had who were before you, and none after you shall have the like."* 13So Solomon came from[a] the high place at Gibeon, from the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem. And he reigned over Israel.

SOLOMON'S MILITARY AND COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY

14 Solomon gathered together chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.* 15The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stone, and he made cedar as plentiful as the sycamores of the Shephelah.* 16Solomon's import of horses was from Egypt and Kue; the king's traders received them from Kue at the prevailing price.* 17They imported from Egypt (and then exported) a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver and a horse for one hundred fifty, so through them these were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

2 Chronicles 2

PREPARATIONS FOR BUILDING THE TEMPLE

1 [b]Solomon decided to build a temple for the name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.* [2c]Solomon conscripted seventy thousand laborers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hill country, with three thousand six hundred to oversee them.*

ALLIANCE WITH HURAM OF TYRE

3 Solomon sent word to King Huram of Tyre, "Once you dealt with my father David and sent him cedar to build himself a house to live in.* [4]I am now about to build a house for the name of the LORD my God and dedicate it to him for offering fragrant incense before him, and for the regular offering of the rows of bread, and for burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths and the new moons and the appointed festivals of the LORD our God, as ordained forever for Israel.* [5]The house that I am about to build will be great, for our God is greater than other gods.* [6]But who is able to build him a house, since heaven, even highest heaven, cannot contain him?
Who am I to build a house for him except as a place to make offerings before him?* [7]So now send me an artisan skilled to work in gold, silver, bronze, and iron and in purple, crimson, and blue fabrics, trained also in engraving, to join the skilled workers who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my father David provided.* [8]Send me also cedar, cypress, and algum timber from Lebanon, for I know that your servants are skilled in cutting Lebanon timber. My servants will work with your servants* [9]to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the house I am about to build will be great and wonderful. [10]I will provide for your servants, those who cut the timber, twenty thousand cors of crushed wheat, twenty thousand cors of barley, twenty thousand baths[d] of wine, and twenty thousand baths[e] of oil."*

11 Then King Huram of Tyre answered in a letter that he sent to Solomon, "Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you king over them."* [12]Huram also said, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son endowed with discretion and understanding who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal palace for himself.*

13 "I have dispatched Huram-abi, a skilled artisan endowed with understanding, [14]the son of one of the Danite women, his father a Tyrian. He is trained to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood and in purple, blue, and crimson fabrics and fine linen and to do all sorts of engraving and execute any design that may be assigned him, with your artisans, the artisans of my lord, your father David.* [15]Now, as for the wheat, barley, oil, and wine of which my lord has spoken, let him send them to his servants.* [16]We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you as rafts by sea to Joppa; you will take it up to Jerusalem."*

17 Then Solomon took a census of all the aliens who were residing in the land of Israel, after the census that his father David had taken, and there were found to be one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred.* [18]Seventy thousand of them he assigned as laborers, eighty thousand as stonecutters in the hill country, and three thousand six hundred as overseers to make the people work.*

2 Chronicles 3

SOLOMON BUILDS THE TEMPLE

1 Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had designated, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.* [2]He began to build on the second day of the second month of the fourth year of his reign. [3]These are Solomon's measurements[f] for building the house of God: the length, in cubits of the old standard, was sixty cubits and the width twenty cubits. [4]The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits long, across the width of the house,[g] and its height was one hundred twenty cubits. He overlaid it on the inside with pure gold. [5]The great hall he lined with cypress, covered it with fine gold, and made palms and chains on it.* [6]He adorned the house with settings of precious stones. The gold was gold from Parvaim. [7]So he lined the house with gold: its beams, its thresholds, its walls, and its doors; and he carved cherubim on the walls.*

8 He made the most holy place; its length, corresponding to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; he overlaid it with six hundred talents of fine gold.* [9]The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 In the most holy place he made two carved cherubim and overlaid[h] them with gold.* [11]The wings of the cherubim together extended twenty cubits: one wing of the one, five cubits long, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub; [12]and of this cherub, one wing, five cubits long, touched the wall of the house, and the other wing, also five cubits long, was joined to the wing of the first cherub. [13]The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits; the cherubim[i] stood on their feet facing the main hall. [14]And Solomon[j] made the curtain of blue and purple and crimson fabrics and fine linen and worked cherubim into it.*

15 In front of the house he made two pillars thirty-five cubits high, each with a capital of five cubits on its top.* [16]He made encircling[k] chains and put them on the tops of the pillars, and he made one hundred pomegranates and put them on the chains. [17]He set up the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right, the other on the left; the one on the right he called Jachin, and the one on the left, Boaz.*

2 Chronicles 4

FURNISHINGS OF THE TEMPLE

1 He made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high.* 2Then he made the molten sea; it was round, ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits high. A line of thirty cubits would encircle it completely.* 3Under it were figures of bulls all around, each of ten cubits, surrounding the sea; there were two rows of bulls, cast when it was cast.* 4It stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; the sea was set on them. The hindquarters of each were toward the inside. 5Its thickness was a handbreadth; its rim was made like the rim of a cup, like the flower of a lily; it held three thousand baths.[1,] 6He also made ten basins in which to wash and set five on the right side and five on the left. In these they were to rinse what was used for the burnt offering. The sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 He made ten golden lampstands as prescribed and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.* 8He also made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left.
And he made one hundred basins of gold.* 9He made the court of the priests and the great court and doors for the court; he overlaid their doors with bronze.* 10He set the sea at the southeast corner of the house.*

11 And Huram made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. Thus Huram finished the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of God:* 12the two pillars, the bowls, and the two capitals on the top of the pillars; and the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;* 13the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars.* 14He made the stands, the basins on the stands,* 15the one sea, and the twelve bulls underneath it. 16The pots, the shovels, the forks, and all the equipment for these Huram-abi made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.* 17In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.* 18Solomon made all these things in great quantities, so that the weight of the bronze was not determined.*

19 So Solomon made all the things that were in the house of God: the golden altar, the tables for the bread of the Presence,* 20the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold to burn before the inner sanctuary, as prescribed;* 21the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of purest gold; 22the snuffers, basins, ladles, and firepans, of pure gold. As for the entrance to the temple: the inner doors to the most holy place and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

2 Chronicles 5

1 Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated and stored the silver, the gold, and all the vessels in the treasuries of the house of God.*

THE ARK BROUGHT INTO THE TEMPLE

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the ancestral houses of the people of Israel, in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.* [3]And all the Israelites assembled before the king at the festival that is in the seventh month. [4]And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites carried the ark.* [5]So they brought up the ark, the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up. [6]King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be numbered or counted. [7]Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, in the inner sanctuary of the house, in the most holy place, underneath the wings of the cherubim. [8]For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim made a covering above the ark and its poles. [9]The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place[m] in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen from outside; they are there to this day.* [10]There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets that Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant[n] with the people of Israel when they came out of Egypt.*

11 Now when the priests came out of the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without regard to their divisions),* [12]all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, their sons and kindred, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, stood east of the altar with one hundred twenty priests who were trumpeters.* [13]It was the duty of the trumpeters and singers together to make themselves heard in unison in praise and thanksgiving to the LORD, and when the song was raised, with trumpets and cymbals and other musical instruments, in praise to the LORD,

"For he is good,

for his steadfast love endures forever," the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud,* 14so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.*

2 Chronicles 6

DEDICATION OF THE TEMPLE

1 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would reside in thick darkness.* 2I have built you an exalted house, a place for you to dwell forever."

3 Then the king turned around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood. 4And he said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hand has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David, saying, 5'Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city from any of the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, so that my name might be there, and I chose no one as ruler over my people Israel, 6but I have chosen Jerusalem in order that my name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.'* 7My father David had it in mind to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.* 8But the LORD said to my father David, 'You did well to consider building a house for my name; 9nevertheless, you shall not build the house, but your son who shall be born to you shall build the house for my name.' 10Now the LORD has fulfilled his promise that he made, for I have succeeded my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. 11There I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with the people of Israel."*

SOLOMON'S PRAYER OF DEDICATION

12 Then Solomon[o] stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.* 13Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high and had set it in the court, and he stood on it. Then he knelt on his knees in the presence of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven.* 14He said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth, keeping covenant and steadfast love with your servants who walk before you with all their heart*—15you who have kept for your servant, my father David, what you promised to him. Indeed, you promised with your mouth and this day have fulfilled with your hand.* 16Therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant my father David that which you promised him, saying, 'There shall never fail you a successor before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children keep to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.'* 17Therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, let your word be confirmed that you promised to your servant David.

18 "But will God indeed dwell with mortals on earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built!* 19Regard your servant's prayer and his plea, O LORD my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you. 20May your eyes be open day and night toward this house, the place where you promised to set your name, and may you heed the prayer that your servant prays toward this place. 21And hear the plea of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place; may you hear from heaven your dwelling place; hear and forgive.*

22 "If someone sins against a neighbor and is required to take an oath and comes and swears before your altar in this house,* 23may you hear from heaven, and act, and judge your servants, repaying the guilty by bringing their conduct on their own heads and vindicating the righteous by rewarding them according to their righteousness.

24 "When your people Israel, having sinned against you, are defeated before an enemy but turn again to you, confess your name, pray and plead with you in this house,* 25then hear from heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land that you gave to them and to their ancestors.

26 "When heaven is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against you and then they pray toward this place, confess your name, and turn from their sin because you punish them,* 27then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk, and grant rain on your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance.

28 "If there is famine in the land, if there is plague, blight, mildew, locust, or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in any of the settlements of the lands; whatever suffering, whatever sickness there is;* 29whatever prayer, whatever plea there is from any individual or from all your people Israel, all knowing their own suffering and their own sorrows so that they stretch out their hands toward this house; 30then hear from heaven, your dwelling place, forgive, and render to all whose hearts you know, according to all their ways, for only you know the human heart.* 31Thus may they fear you and walk in your ways all the days that they live in the land that you gave to our ancestors.

32 "Likewise when foreigners, who are not of your people Israel, come from a distant land because of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this house,* 33then hear from heaven your dwelling place and do whatever the foreigners ask of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and so they may know that your name has been invoked on this house that I have built.*

34 "If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city that you have chosen and the house that I have built for your name, 35then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea and maintain their cause.

36 "If they sin against you—for there is no one who does not sin—and you are angry with them and give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to a land far off or near,* 37then if they come to their senses in the land to which they have been taken captive and repent and plead with you in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned and have done wrong; we have acted wickedly,'* 38if they repent with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity, to which they were taken captive, and pray toward their land that you gave to their ancestors, the city that you have chosen, and the house that I have built for your name, 39then hear from heaven your dwelling place their prayer and their pleas, maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you. 40Now, O my God, let your eyes be open and your ears attentive to prayer from this place.*

41Now rise up, O LORD God, and go to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.
Let your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let your faithful rejoice in your goodness.*

42O LORD God, do not reject your anointed one.
Remember your steadfast love for your servant David.”

2 Chronicles 7

SOLOMON DEDICATES THE TEMPLE

1 When Solomon had ended his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.* [2]The priests could not enter the house of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD's house. [3]When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground and worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying,

"For he is good,

for his steadfast love endures forever."*

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.* [5]King Solomon offered as a sacrifice twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. [6]The priests stood at their posts, the Levites also, with the instruments for music to the LORD that King David had made for giving thanks to the LORD—for his steadfast love endures forever—whenever David offered praises through their playing. Opposite them the priests sounded trumpets, and all Israel stood.*

7 Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD, for there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the offerings of well-being because the bronze altar Solomon had made could not hold the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat parts.*

8 At that time Solomon held the festival for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from Lebo-hamath to the Wadi of Egypt.* [9]On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for they had observed the dedication of the altar seven days and the festival seven days.* [10]On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their homes, joyful and in good spirits because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David and to Solomon and to his people Israel.*

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; all that Solomon had planned to do in the house of the LORD and in his own house he successfully accomplished.*

GOD'S SECOND APPEARANCE TO SOLOMON

12 Then the LORD appeared to Solomon in the night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.* 13When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain or command the locust to devour the land or send pestilence among my people,* 14if my people who are called by my name humble themselves, pray, seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.* 15Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.* 16For now I have chosen and consecrated this house so that my name may be there forever; my eyes and my heart will be there for all time.* 17As for you, if you walk before me as your father David walked, doing according to all that I have commanded you and keeping my statutes and my ordinances,* 18then I will establish your royal throne, as I made a covenant[p] with your father David saying, 'You shall never lack a successor to rule over Israel.'*

19 "But if you[q] turn aside and forsake my statutes and my commandments that I have set before you and go and serve other gods and worship them,* 20then I will pluck you[r] up from the land that I have given you,[s] and this house, which I have consecrated for my name, I will cast out of my sight and will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.* 21And regarding this house, now exalted, everyone passing by will be astonished and say, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this house?'* 22Then they will say, 'Because they abandoned the LORD the God of their ancestors who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they embraced other gods and worshiped them and served them; therefore he has brought all this calamity upon them.' "

2 Chronicles 8

VARIOUS ACTIVITIES OF SOLOMON

1 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house,* 2Solomon rebuilt the cities that Huram had given to him and settled the people of Israel in them.

3 Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and captured it. 4He built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage towns that he built in Hamath. 5He also built Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars,* 6and Baalath, as well as all Solomon's storage towns, and all the towns for his chariots, the towns for his cavalry, and whatever Solomon desired to build, in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. 7All the people who were left of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel, 8from their descendants who were still left in the land, whom the people of Israel had not destroyed—these Solomon conscripted for forced labor, as is still the case today.* 9But of the people of Israel Solomon made no slaves for his work; they were soldiers and his officers, the commanders of his chariotry and cavalry. 10These were the chief officers of King Solomon, two hundred fifty of them, who exercised authority over the people.

11 Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter from the city of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not live in the house of King David of Israel, for the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."*

12 Then Solomon offered up burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD that he had built in front of the vestibule,* 13as the duty of each day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses for the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the three annual festivals: the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Booths.*
14According to the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their offices of praise and ministry alongside the priests as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers in their divisions for the several gates, for so David the man of God had commanded.* 15They did not turn away from what the king had commanded the priests and Levites regarding anything at all or regarding the treasuries.

16 Thus all the work of Solomon was accomplished, from[t] the day the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid until the house of the LORD was finished completely.

17 Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and Eloth on the shore of the sea, in the land of Edom.* 18Huram sent him, in the care of his servants, ships and servants familiar with the sea. They went to Ophir together with the servants of Solomon and imported from there four hundred fifty talents of gold and brought it to King Solomon.*

2 Chronicles 9

VISIT OF THE QUEEN OF SHEBA

1 When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test him with riddles, having a very great retinue and camels bearing spices and very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she discussed with him all that was on her mind.* [2]Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing hidden from Solomon that he could not explain to her. [3]When the queen of Sheba had observed the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,* [4]the food of his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, and their clothing, his valets, and their clothing, and his burnt offerings[u] that he offered at the house of the LORD, it took her breath away.

5 So she said to the king, "The report was true that I heard in my own land of your accomplishments and of your wisdom,* [6]but I did not believe the[v] reports until I came and my own eyes saw it. Not even half of the greatness of your wisdom had been told to me; you far surpass the report that I had heard. [7]Happy are your people! Happy are these your servants who continually attend you and hear your wisdom! [8]Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and set you on his throne as king for the LORD your God. Because your God loved Israel and would establish them forever, he has made you king over them, that you may execute justice and righteousness."* [9]Then she gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, a very great quantity of spices, and precious stones; there were no spices such as those that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.*

10 Moreover, the servants of Huram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir brought algum wood and precious stones.* [11]From the algum wood, the king made steps[w] for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers; there never was seen the like of them before in the land of Judah.

12 Meanwhile, King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba every desire that she expressed, well beyond what she had brought to the king. Then she returned to her own land with her servants.

SOLOMON'S GREAT WEALTH

13 The weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,* [14]besides that which the traders and merchants brought, and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon. [15]King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels[x] of beaten gold went into each large shield. [16]He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels[y] of gold went into each shield, and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon. [17]The king also made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. [18]The throne had six steps and a footstool of gold, which were attached to the throne, and on each side of the seat were arm rests and two lions standing beside the arm rests,* [19]while twelve lions were standing, one on each end of a step on the six steps. The like of it was never made in any kingdom.* [20]All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon.
[21]For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish used to come bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.[z,*]

22 Thus King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.* [23]All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put into his mind. [24]Every one of them brought a present, objects of silver and gold, garments, weaponry, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year. [25]Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.* [26]He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines and to the territory of Egypt.* [27]The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stone and cedar as plentiful as the sycamore of the Shephelah.* [28]Horses were imported for Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.*

DEATH OF SOLOMON

29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from first to last, are they not written in the history of the prophet Nathan and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite and in the visions of the seer Iddo concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat?* 30Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.* 31Solomon slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of his father David, and his son Rehoboam succeeded him.*

2 Chronicles 10

THE REVOLT AGAINST REHOBOAM

1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.* 2When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), then Jeroboam returned from Egypt.* 3They sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all Israel came and said to Rehoboam, 4"Your father made our yoke heavy. Now, therefore, lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke that he placed on us, and we will serve you." 5He said to them, "Come to me again in three days." So the people went away.

6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the older men who had attended his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?"* 7They answered him, "If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever." 8But he rejected the advice that the older men gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and now attended him. 9He said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put on us'?"* 10The young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus should you speak to the people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you must lighten it for us'; tell them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. 11Now, whereas my father laid on you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.' "

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had said, "Come to me again the third day."* 13The king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the older men; 14he spoke to them in accordance with the advice of the young men, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions." 15So the king did not listen to the people because it was a turn of affairs brought about by God so that the LORD might fulfill his word that he had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.*

16 When all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king,

"What share do we have in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
Each of you to your tents, O Israel!
Look now to your own house, O David."

So all Israel departed to their tents.* [17]But Rehoboam reigned over the people of Israel who were living in the cities of Judah. [18]When King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was taskmaster over the forced labor, the people of Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam hurriedly mounted his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. [19]So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.*

2 Chronicles 11

JUDAH AND BENJAMIN FORTIFIED

1 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled one hundred eighty thousand chosen troops of the house of Judah and Benjamin to fight against Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.* [2]But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God:* [3]"Say to King Rehoboam of Judah, son of Solomon, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin: [4]Thus says the LORD: You shall not go up or fight against your kindred. Let everyone return home, for this thing is from me." So they heeded the word of the LORD and turned back from the expedition against Jeroboam.*

5 Rehoboam resided in Jerusalem, and he built cities for defense in Judah. [6]He built up Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, [7]Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam, [8]Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, [9]Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, [10]Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, fortified cities that are in Judah and in Benjamin. [11]He made the fortresses strong and put commanders in them and stores of food, oil, and wine. [12]He also put large shields and spears in all the cities and made them very strong. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

PRIESTS AND LEVITES SUPPORT REHOBOAM

13 The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel presented themselves to him from all their territories. [14]The Levites had left their pasturelands and possessions and had come to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had prevented them from serving as priests of the LORD* [15]and had appointed his own priests for the high places and for the goat-demons and for the calves that he had made.* [16]Those who had set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came after them from all the tribes of Israel to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.* [17]They strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and for three years they made Rehoboam son of Solomon secure, for they walked for three years in the way of David and Solomon.*

REHOBOAM'S MARRIAGES

18 Rehoboam took as his wife Mahalath daughter of Jerimoth son of David and of Abihail daughter of Eliab son of Jesse.* [19]She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham. [20]After her he took Maacah daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. [21]Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than all his other wives and concubines (he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters).* [22]Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah as chief prince among his brothers, for he intended to make him king.* [23]He dealt wisely and distributed some of his sons through all the districts of Judah and Benjamin, in all the fortified cities; he gave them abundant provisions and found many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12

EGYPT ATTACKS JUDAH

1 When the rule of Rehoboam was established and he grew strong, he abandoned the law of the LORD, he and all Israel with him.* [2]In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem* [3]with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand cavalry. A countless army came with him from Egypt: Libyans, Sukkiim, and Cushites.* [4]He took the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem. [5]Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and to the officers of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak and said to them, "Thus says the LORD: You abandoned me, so I have abandoned you to the hand of Shishak."* [6]Then the officers of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is in the right."* [7]When the LORD saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.*
[8]Nevertheless, they shall be his servants, so that they may know the difference between serving me and serving the kingdoms of other lands."*

9 So King Shishak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. He also took away the shields of gold that Solomon had made,* [10]but King Rehoboam made in place of them shields of bronze and committed them to the hands of the officers of the guard who kept the door of the king's house. [11]Whenever the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard would come along bearing them and would then bring them back to the guardroom. [12]Because he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy them completely; moreover, conditions were good in Judah.*

DEATH OF REHOBOAM

13 So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite.* [14]He did evil, for he did not set his heart to seek the LORD.*

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, from first to last, are they not written in the records of the prophet Shemaiah and of the seer Iddo, recorded by genealogy? There were continual wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.* [16]Rehoboam slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David, and his son Abijah succeeded him.*

2 Chronicles 13

ABIJAH REIGNS OVER JUDAH

1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah.* [2]He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

Now there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.* [3]Abijah engaged in battle, having an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand picked men; and Jeroboam drew up his line of battle against him with eight hundred thousand picked mighty warriors. [4]Then Abijah stood on the slope of Mount Zemaraim that is in the hill country of Ephraim and said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel!* [5]Do you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingship over Israel forever to David and his sons by a covenant of salt?* [6]Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord,* [7]and certain worthless scoundrels gathered around him and defied Rehoboam son of Solomon when Rehoboam was young and irresolute and could not withstand them.

8 "And now you think that you can withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David, because you are a great multitude and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made as gods for you.* [9]Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the descendants of Aaron, and the Levites and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of other lands?
Whoever comes to be consecrated with a young bull or seven rams becomes a priest of what are no gods.* [10]But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not abandoned him. We have priests ministering to the LORD who are descendants of Aaron and Levites for their service. [11]They offer to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt offerings and fragrant incense, set out the rows of bread on the table of pure gold, and care for the golden lampstand so that its lamps may burn every evening, for we keep the charge of the LORD our God, but you have abandoned him.* [12]See, God is with us at our head, and his priests have their battle trumpets to sound the call to battle against you. O Israelites, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your ancestors, for you cannot succeed."*

13 Jeroboam had sent an ambush around to come on them from behind; thus his troops[a] were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.
[14]When Judah turned, the battle was in front of them and behind them.
They cried out to the LORD, and the priests blew the trumpets.* [15]Then the people of Judah raised the battle shout. And when the people of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.*
[16]The Israelites fled before Judah, and God gave them into their hands.*
[17]Abijah and his army defeated them with great slaughter; five hundred thousand picked men of Israel fell slain. [18]Thus the Israelites were subdued at that time, and the people of Judah prevailed because they relied on the LORD, the God of their ancestors.* [19]Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages and Jeshanah with its villages and Ephron[b] with its villages. [20]Jeroboam did not recover his power in the days of Abijah; the LORD struck him down, and he died.* [21]But Abijah strengthened himself. He took fourteen wives and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. [22]The rest of the acts of Abijah, his behavior and his deeds, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.*

2 Chronicles 14

ASA REIGNS

1 [c]So Abijah slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David. His son Asa succeeded him. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.* [2][d]Asa did what was good and right in the sight of the LORD his God.
[3]He took away the foreign altars and the high places, broke down the pillars, cut down the sacred poles,[e,]* [4]and commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and to keep the law and the commandment. [5]He also removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense altars. And the kingdom was quiet under him.* [6]He built fortified cities in Judah while the land was quiet. He had no war in those years, for the LORD gave him rest.* [7]He said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars; the land is still ours because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered.
[8]Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah armed with large shields and spears and two hundred eighty thousand troops from Benjamin who carried shields and drew bows; all these were mighty warriors.

ETHIOPIAN INVASION REPULSED

9 Zerah the Cushite came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots and came as far as Mareshah.* [10]Asa went out to meet him, and they drew up their lines of battle in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. [11]Asa cried to the LORD his God, "O LORD, there is no difference for you between helping the mighty and the weak. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this multitude. O LORD, you are our God; let no mortal prevail against you."* [12]So the LORD defeated the Cushites before Asa and before Judah, and the Cushites fled.* [13]Asa and the army with him pursued them as far as Gerar, and the Cushites fell until no one remained alive, for they were broken before the LORD and his army. The people of Judah[f] carried away a great quantity of spoil.* [14]They defeated all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of the LORD was on them. They plundered all the cities, for there was much plunder in them.* 15They also attacked the tents of those who had livestock[g] and carried away sheep and goats in abundance and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15

1 The spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded.* [2]He went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD is with you while you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you abandon him, he will abandon you.* [3]For a long time Israel was without the true God and without a teaching priest and without law,* [4]but when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.* [5]In those times it was not safe for anyone to go or come, for great disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands.* [6]They were broken in pieces, nation against nation and city against city, for God troubled them with every sort of distress.* [7]But you, take courage! Do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded.”*

8 When Asa heard these words, the prophecy of Azariah son of Oded,[h] he took courage and put away the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns that he had taken in the hill country of Ephraim. He repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the vestibule of the house of the LORD.[i,]* [9]He gathered all Judah and Benjamin and those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who were residing as aliens with them, for great numbers had deserted to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.* [10]They were gathered at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. [11]They sacrificed to the LORD on that day, from the spoil that they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.* [12]They entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their ancestors, with all their heart and with all their soul,* [13]and whoever would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, was to be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman.* [14]They took an oath to the LORD with a loud voice and with shouting and with trumpets and with horns. [15]All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and had sought him with their whole desire, and he was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.*

16 King Asa even removed his mother Maacah from being queen mother because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her image, crushed it, and burned it at the Wadi Kidron.* [17]But the high places were not taken out of Israel. Nevertheless, the heart of Asa was true all his days. [18]He brought into the house of God the votive gifts of his father and his own votive gifts: silver, gold, and utensils. [19]And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

2 Chronicles 16

ALLIANCE WITH ARAM CONDEMNED

1 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, King Baasha of Israel went up against Judah and built Ramah to prevent anyone from going out or coming into the territory of[j] King Asa of Judah.* 2Then Asa took silver and gold from the treasures of the house of the LORD and the king's house and sent them to King Ben-hadad of Aram, who resided in Damascus, saying, 3"Let there be an alliance between me and you, like that between my father and your father; I am sending to you silver and gold; go, break your alliance with King Baasha of Israel, so that he may withdraw from me." 4Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.* 5When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah and let his work cease. 6Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building, and with them he built up Geba and Mizpah.

7 At that time the seer Hanani came to King Asa of Judah and said to him, "Because you relied on the king of Aram and did not rely on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped you.* 8Were not the Cushites and the Libyans a huge army with exceedingly many chariots and cavalry? Yet because you relied on the LORD, he gave them into your hand.*
9For the eyes of the LORD range throughout the entire earth to strengthen those whose heart is true to him. You have done foolishly in this, for from now on you will have wars."* 10Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in the stocks, in prison, for he was in a rage with him because of this.
And Asa inflicted cruelties on some of the people at the same time.

ASA'S DISEASE AND DEATH

11 The acts of Asa, from first to last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.* 12In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet, and his disease became severe; yet even in his disease he did not seek the LORD but sought help from physicians.* 13Then Asa slept with his ancestors, dying in the forty-first year of his reign.* 14They buried him in the tomb that he had cut out for himself in the city of David. They laid him on a bier that had been filled with various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumer's art, and they made a very great fire in his honor.*

2 Chronicles 17

JEHOSHAPHAT'S REIGN

1 His son Jehoshaphat succeeded him and strengthened himself against Israel.* [2]He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had taken.* [3]The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the earlier ways of his father;[k] he did not seek the Baals [4]but sought the God of his father and walked in his commandments and not according to the ways of Israel.* [5]Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand. All Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great riches and honor.* [6]His heart was courageous in the ways of the LORD; furthermore, he removed the high places and the sacred poles[l] from Judah.*

7 In the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah to teach in the cities of Judah.* [8]With them were the Levites Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah; and with these Levites the priests Elishama and Jehoram.* [9]They taught in Judah, having the book of the law of the LORD with them; they went around through all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.*

10 The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah, and they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.* [11]Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute, and the Arabs also brought him seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.* [12]Jehoshaphat grew steadily greater.
He built fortresses and storage cities in Judah. [13]He carried out great works in the cities of Judah. He had soldiers, mighty warriors, in Jerusalem. [14]This was the muster of them by ancestral houses: Of Judah, the commanders of the thousands: Adnah the commander, with three hundred thousand mighty warriors, [15]and next to him Jehohanan the commander, with two hundred eighty thousand, [16]and next to him Amasiah son of Zichri, a volunteer for the service of the LORD, with two hundred thousand mighty warriors.* [17]Of Benjamin: Eliada, a mighty warrior, with two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield, [18]and next to him Jehozabad with one hundred eighty thousand armed for war. [19]These were in the service of the king, besides those whom the king had placed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

2 Chronicles 18

MICAIAH PREDICTS FAILURE

1 Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor, and he made a marriage alliance with Ahab.* [2]After some years he went down to Ahab in Samaria.
Ahab slaughtered an abundance of sheep and oxen for him and for the people who were with him and induced him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.* [3]King Ahab of Israel said to King Jehoshaphat of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead?" He answered him, "I am as you are; my people are your people. We will be with you in the war."

4 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, "Inquire first for the word of the LORD."* [5]Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred of them, and said to them, "Shall we go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?" They said, "Go up, for God will give it into the hand of the king." [6]But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no other prophet of the LORD here of whom we may inquire?" [7]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one other by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah son of Imlah, but I hate him, for he never prophesies anything favorable about me but only disaster." Jehoshaphat said, "Let the king not say such a thing."* [8]Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring quickly Micaiah son of Imlah." [9]Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them.* [10]Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, "Thus says the LORD: With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are destroyed." [11]All the prophets were prophesying the same and saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and triumph; the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."*

12 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, the words of the prophets with one accord are favorable to the king; let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably." [13]But Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that I will speak."*

14 When he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" He answered, "Go up and triumph; they will be given into your hand." [15]But the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?" [16]Then Micaiah[m] said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, 'These have no master; let each one go home in peace.' "* [17]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything favorable about me but only disaster?"

18 Then Micaiah[n] said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, with all the host of heaven standing to the right and to the left of him. [19]And the LORD said, 'Who will entice King Ahab of Israel, so that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' Then one said one thing, and another said another, [20]until a certain spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, saying, 'I will entice him.' The LORD asked him, 'How?'* [21]He replied, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then the LORD[o] said, 'You are to entice him, and you shall succeed; go out and do it.' [22]So you see, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; the LORD has decreed disaster for you."*

23 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up to Micaiah, slapped him on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?"* [24]Micaiah replied, "You will find out on that day when you go in to hide in an inner chamber." [25]The king of Israel then ordered, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son,* [26]and say: Thus says the king: Put this fellow in prison, and feed him on reduced rations of bread and water until I return in peace."* [27]Micaiah said, "If you return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me."
And he said, "Hear, you peoples, all of you!"*

DEFEAT AND DEATH OF AHAB

28 So the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead. [29]The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle. [30]Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, “Fight with no one small or great but only with the king of Israel.” 31When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “It is the king of Israel.” So they turned to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him,* 32for when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. 33But a certain man drew his bow and unknowingly struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate, so he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around, and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded.”* 34The battle grew hot that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening; then at sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19

1 King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned in peace to his house in Jerusalem.
[2]Jehu son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath has gone out against you from the LORD.*
[3]Nevertheless, some good is found in you, for you destroyed the sacred poles[p] out of the land and have set your heart to seek God."*

THE REFORMS OF JEHOSHAPHAT

4 Jehoshaphat resided at Jerusalem; then he went out again among the people, from Beer-sheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their ancestors.* [5]He appointed judges in the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, [6]and said to the judges, "Consider what you are doing, for you judge not on behalf of humans but on the LORD's behalf; he is with you in giving judgment.* [7]Now, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care what you do, for there is no perversion of justice with the LORD our God or partiality or taking of bribes."*

8 Moreover, in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed certain Levites and priests and heads of families of Israel to give judgment for the LORD and to decide disputed cases. They had their seat at Jerusalem.* [9]He charged them, "This is how you shall act: in the fear of the LORD, in faithfulness, and with your whole heart;* [10]whenever a case comes to you from your kindred who live in their cities concerning bloodshed, law or commandment, statutes or ordinances, then you shall instruct them, so that they may not incur guilt before the LORD and wrath may not come on you and your kindred. Do so, and you will not incur guilt.* [11]See, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the governor of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters; and the Levites will serve you as officers. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the good!"*

2 Chronicles 20

INVASION FROM THE EAST

1 After this the Moabites and Ammonites, and with them some of the Meunites,[q] came against Jehoshaphat for battle. [2]Messengers[r] came and told Jehoshaphat, "A great multitude is coming against you from Edom,[s] from beyond the sea; already they are at Hazazon-tamar" (that is, En-gedi).*
[3]Jehoshaphat was afraid; he set himself to seek the LORD and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.* [4]Judah assembled to seek help from the LORD; from all the towns of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

JEHOSHAPHAT'S PRAYER AND VICTORY

5 Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, [6]and said, "O LORD, God of our ancestors, are you not God in heaven? Do you not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? In your hand are power and might, so that no one is able to withstand you.* [7]Did you not, O our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and give it forever to the descendants of your friend Abraham?* [8]They have lived in it and in it have built you a sanctuary for your name, saying, [9]'If disaster comes upon us, the sword, judgment,[t] or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house and before you, for your name is in this house, and cry to you in our distress, and you will hear and save.'* [10]See now, the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade when they came from the land of Egypt and whom they avoided and did not destroy,* [11]they reward us by coming to drive us out of your possession that you have given us to inherit.* [12]O our God, will you not execute judgment upon them? For we are powerless against this great multitude that is coming against us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you."*

13 Meanwhile, all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children. [14]Then the spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the middle of the assembly.* 15He said, "Listen, all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat: Thus says the LORD to you: Do not fear or be dismayed at this great multitude, for the battle is not yours but God's.* 16Tomorrow go down against them; they will come up by the ascent of Ziz; you will find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. 17This battle is not for you to fight; take your position, stand still, and see the victory of the LORD on your behalf, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, and the LORD will be with you."*

18 Then Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD, worshiping the LORD.* 19And the Levites of the Kohathites and the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

20 They rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa, and as they went out Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in the LORD your God and you will be established; believe his prophets and you will succeed."* 21When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who were to sing to the LORD and praise him in holy splendor, as they went before the army, saying,

"Give thanks to the LORD,

for his steadfast love endures forever."*

22As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set an ambush against the Ammonites, Moab, and Mount Seir who had come against Judah, so that they were routed.* 23For the Ammonites and Moab attacked the inhabitants of Mount Seir, destroying them utterly, and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they all helped to destroy one another.*

24 When Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; they were corpses lying on the ground; no one had escaped. 25When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take the spoil from them, they found livestock[u] in great numbers, goods, clothing, and precious things, which they took for themselves until they could carry no more. They spent three days taking the spoil because of its abundance. 26On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore that place has been called the Valley of Beracah[v] to this day. 27Then all the people of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat at their head, returned to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had enabled them to rejoice over their enemies.* 28They came to Jerusalem with harps and lyres and trumpets to the house of the LORD. 29The fear of God came on all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.* 30And the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God gave him rest all around.*

THE END OF JEHOSHAPHAT'S REIGN

31 So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.* 32He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD. 33Yet the high places were not removed; the people had not yet set their hearts upon the God of their ancestors.*

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from first to last, are written in the Annals of Jehu son of Hanani, which are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.*

35 After this King Jehoshaphat of Judah joined with King Ahaziah of Israel, who did wickedly.* 36He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish; they built the ships in Ezion-geber. 37Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have joined with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made." And the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.*

2 Chronicles 21

JEHORAM'S REIGN

1 Jehoshaphat slept with his ancestors and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David; his son Jehoram succeeded him.* [2]He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of King Jehoshaphat of Judah.w [3]Their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold, and valuable possessions, together with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.* [4]Jehoram ascended the throne of his father, and he strengthened himself, and he put all his brothers to the sword, as well as some of the officials of Israel. [5]Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.* [6]He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. [7]Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David because of the covenant that he had made with David and since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his descendants forever.*

REVOLT OF EDOM

8 In his days Edom revolted against the rule of Judah and set up a king of their own.* [9]Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots. He set out by night and attacked the Edomites, who had surrounded him and his chariot commanders. [10]So Edom has been in revolt against the rule of Judah to this day. At that time Libnah also revolted against his rule because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his ancestors.

ELIJAH'S LETTER

11 Moreover he made high places in the hill country of Judah and led the inhabitants of Jerusalem into unfaithfulness and made Judah go astray.* [12]A letter came to him from the prophet Elijah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of your father David: Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or in the ways of King Asa of Judah* 13but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel and have led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into unfaithfulness, as the house of Ahab led Israel into unfaithfulness, and because you also have killed your brothers, members of your father's house, who were better than you,* 14see, the LORD will bring a great plague on your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions, 15and you yourself will have a severe sickness with a disease of your bowels until your bowels come out, day after day, because of the disease."*

16 The LORD aroused against Jehoram the anger of the Philistines and of the Arabs who are near the Cushites.* 17They came up against Judah, invaded it, and carried away all the possessions they found that belonged to the king's house, along with his sons and his wives, so that no son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest son.*

DISEASE AND DEATH OF JEHORAM

18 After all this the LORD struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease.* 19In the course of time, at the end of two years, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great agony. His people made no fire in his honor like the fires made for his ancestors.* 20He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. He departed with no one's regret. They buried him in the city of David but not in the tombs of the kings.*

2 Chronicles 22

AHAZIAH'S REIGN

1 The inhabitants of Jerusalem made his youngest son Ahaziah king as his successor, for the troops who came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram reigned as king of Judah.*
[2]Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.* [3]He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor in doing wickedly. [4]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab, for after the death of his father they were his counselors, to his ruin. [5]He even followed their advice and went with Jehoram son of King Ahab of Israel to make war against King Hazael of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram,* [6]and he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that he had received at Ramah, when he fought King Hazael of Aram. And Ahaziah son of King Jehoram of Judah went down to see Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was sick.*

7 But it was ordained by God that the downfall of Ahaziah should come about through his going to visit Joram. For when he came there he went out with Jehoram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.* [8]When Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he met the officials of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers, who attended Ahaziah, and he killed them.* [9]He searched for Ahaziah, who was captured while hiding in Samaria and was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, "He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." And the house of Ahaziah had no one able to rule the kingdom.*

ATHALIAH SEIZES THE THRONE

10 Now when Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she set about to destroy all the royal family of the house of Judah.*
[11]But Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king's children who were about to be killed; she put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Thus Jehoshabeath daughter of King Jehoram and wife of the priest Jehoiada—because she was a sister of Ahaziah—hid him from Athaliah, so that she did not kill him; [12]he remained with them six years hidden in the house of God, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles 23

1 But in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself and entered into a compact with the commanders of the hundreds, Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri.* [2]They went around through Judah and gathered the Levites from all the towns of Judah and the heads of families of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. [3]Then the whole assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. Jehoiada[x] said to them, "Here is the king's son! Let him reign, as the LORD promised concerning the sons of David.* [4]This is what you are to do: one-third of you, priests and Levites, who come on duty on the Sabbath shall be gatekeepers,* [5]one-third shall be at the king's house, and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation, and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. [6]Do not let anyone enter the house of the LORD except the priests and ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy, but all the other[y] people shall observe the instructions of the LORD. [7]The Levites shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand, and whoever enters the house shall be killed. Stay with the king in his comings and goings."*

JOASH CROWNED KING

8 The Levites and all Judah did according to all that the priest Jehoiada commanded; each brought his men who were to come on duty on the Sabbath with those who were to go off duty on the Sabbath, for the priest Jehoiada did not dismiss the divisions.* [9]The priest Jehoiada delivered to the captains the spears and the large and small shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of God,* [10]and he set all the people as a guard for the king, everyone with weapon in hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, around the altar and the house.
[11]Then he brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant; they proclaimed him king, and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and they shouted, "Long live the king!"*

DEATH OF ATHALIAH

12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she went into the house of the LORD to the people;* [13]when she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments leading in the celebration. Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason! Treason!" [14]Then the priest Jehoiada brought out the captains who were set over the army, saying to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; anyone who follows her is to be put to the sword." For the priest said, "Do not put her to death in the house of the LORD." [15]So they laid hands on her; she went into the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king's house, and there they put her to death.*

16 Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they should be the LORD's people. [17]Then all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down; his altars and his images they broke in pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.* [18]Jehoiada assigned the care of the house of the LORD to the Levitical priests whom David had organized to be in charge of the house of the LORD, to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David.* [19]He stationed the gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD so that no one should enter who was in any way unclean.* [20]And he took the captains, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, marching through the upper gate to the king's house. They set the king on the royal throne.* [21]So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet after Athaliah had been killed with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24

JOASH REPAIRS THE TEMPLE

1 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.* [2]Joash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of the priest Jehoiada.*
[3]Jehoiada got two wives for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

4 Some time afterward Joash decided to restore the house of the LORD.*
[5]He assembled the priests and the Levites and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and gather silver from all Israel to repair the house of your God, year by year, and see that you act quickly." But the Levites did not act quickly. [6]So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax levied by Moses, the servant of the LORD, on[z] the congregation of Israel for the tent of the covenant?"* [7]For the children of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God and had even used all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.*

8 So the king gave command, and they made a chest and set it outside the gate of the house of the LORD. [9]A proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness.* [10]All the leaders and all the people rejoiced and brought their tax and dropped it into the chest until it was full.
[11]Whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the Levites, when they saw that there was a large amount of silver in it, the king's secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and take it and return it to its place. So they did day after day and collected silver in abundance.* [12]The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who had charge of the work of the house of the LORD, and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of the LORD. [13]So those who were engaged in the work labored, and the repairing went forward at their hands, and they restored the house of God to its proper condition and strengthened it.*

14When they had finished, they brought the rest of the silver to the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made utensils for the house of the LORD, utensils for the service and for the burnt offerings, and ladles, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD regularly all the days of Jehoiada.

APOSTASY OF JOASH

15 But Jehoiada grew old and full of days and died; he was one hundred thirty years old at his death. 16And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel and for God and his house.*

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada the officials of Judah came and did obeisance to the king; then the king listened to them. 18They abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, and served the sacred poles[a] and the idols. And wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs.* 19Yet he sent prophets among them to bring them back to the LORD; they testified against them, but they would not listen.*

20 Then the spirit of God took possession of[b] Zechariah son of the priest Jehoiada; he stood above the people and said to them, "Thus says God: Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has also forsaken you."* 21But they conspired against him, and by command of the king they stoned him to death in the court of the house of the LORD.* 22King Joash did not remember the kindness that Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, had shown him but killed his son. As he was dying, he said, "May the LORD see and avenge!"*

DEATH OF JOASH

23 At the end of the year, the army of Aram came up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all the officials of the people from among them and sent all the spoil they took to the king of Damascus.* 24Although the army of Aram had come with few men, the LORD delivered into their hand a very great army because they had abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.*

25 When they had withdrawn, leaving him severely wounded, his servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son[c] of the priest Jehoiada, and they killed him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.* [26]Those who conspired against him were Zabad son of Shimeath the Ammonite and Jehozabad son of Shimrith the Moabite. [27]Accounts of his sons, and of the many oracles against him, and of the rebuilding[d] of the house of God are written in the Commentary on the Book of the Kings. And his son Amaziah succeeded him.*

2 Chronicles 25

REIGN OF AMAZIAH

1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.* [2]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not with a true heart.* [3]As soon as the royal power was firmly in his hand, he killed his servants who had murdered his father the king. [4]But he did not put their children to death, according to what is written in the law, in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "The parents shall not be put to death for the children or the children be put to death for the parents, but all shall be put to death for their own sins."*

SLAUGHTER OF THE EDOMITES

5 Amaziah assembled the people of Judah and set them by ancestral houses under commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those twenty years old and up and found that they were three hundred thousand picked troops fit for war, able to handle spear and shield.* [6]He also hired one hundred thousand mighty warriors from Israel for one hundred talents of silver. [7]But a man of God came to him and said, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—all these Ephraimites. [8]Rather, go by yourself and act; be strong in battle, or God will fling you down before the enemy, for God has power to help or to overthrow."* [9]Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents that I have given to the army of Israel?" The man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this." [10]Then Amaziah discharged the army that had come to him from Ephraim, letting them go home again. But they became very angry with Judah and returned home in fierce anger.

11 Amaziah strengthened himself and led out his people; he went to the Valley of Salt and struck down ten thousand men of Seir.* [12]The people of Judah captured another ten thousand alive, took them to the top of Sela, and threw them down from the top of Sela, so that all of them were dashed to pieces. 13But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, not letting them go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon; they killed three thousand people in them and took much plunder.

14 Now after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up as his gods, and worshiped them, making offerings to them.* 15The LORD was angry with Amaziah and sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have you resorted to a people's gods who could not deliver their own people from your hand?"* 16But as he was speaking, the king[e] said to him, "Have we made you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be put to death?" So the prophet stopped but said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you because you have done this and have not listened to my advice."

ISRAEL DEFEATS JUDAH

17 Then King Amaziah of Judah took counsel and sent to King Joash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."* 18King Joash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, "A thornbush on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife,' but a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thornbush.* 19You say, 'See, I[f] have defeated Edom,' and your heart has lifted you up in boastfulness. Now stay at home; why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"*

20 But Amaziah would not listen—it was God's doing, in order to hand them over because they had sought the gods of Edom.* 21So King Joash of Israel went up; he and King Amaziah of Judah faced one another in battle at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah. 22Judah was defeated by Israel; everyone fled home. 23King Joash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah son of Joash son of Ahaziah at Beth-shemesh; he brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a distance of four hundred cubits.* 24He seized all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God, and Obed-edom with them; he seized also the treasuries of the king's house, also hostages; then he returned to Samaria.

DEATH OF AMAZIAH

25 King Amaziah son of Joash of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of King Joash son of Jehoahaz of Israel.* [26]Now the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, from first to last, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel? [27]From the time that Amaziah turned away from the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there. [28]They brought him back on horses; he was buried with his ancestors in the city of David.

2 Chronicles 26

REIGN OF UZZIAH

1 Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king to succeed his father Amaziah.* [2]He rebuilt Eloth and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his ancestors. [3]Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. [4]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done. [5]He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear[g] of God, and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper.*

6 He went out and made war against the Philistines and broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod; he built cities in the territory of Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines.* [7]God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabs who lived in Gur-baal, and against the Meunites.* [8]The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread even to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.* [9]Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the Angle and fortified them.* [10]He built towers in the wilderness and dug out many cisterns, for he had large herds, both in the Shephelah and in the plain, and he had farmers and vinedressers in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil. [11]Moreover, Uzziah had an army of soldiers, fit for war, in divisions according to the numbers in the muster made by the secretary Jeiel and the officer Maaseiah, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders. [12]The whole number of the heads of ancestral houses of mighty warriors was two thousand six hundred. [13]Under their command was an army of three hundred seven thousand five hundred, who could make war with mighty power to help the king against the enemy.* [14]Uzziah provided for all the army the shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and stones for slinging. [15]In Jerusalem he set up machines, invented by skilled workers, on the towers and the corners for shooting arrows and large stones. And his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he became strong.

PRIDE AND APOSTASY

16 But when he had become strong he grew proud, to his destruction. For he acted unfaithfully toward the LORD his God and entered the temple of the LORD to make offering on the altar of incense.* 17But the priest Azariah went in after him, with eighty priests of the LORD who were men of valor;* 18they withstood King Uzziah and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to make offering to the LORD, but for the priests the descendants of Aaron, who are consecrated to make offering. Go out of the sanctuary, for you have acted unfaithfully, and it will bring you no honor from the LORD God."* 19Then Uzziah was enraged. Now he had a censer in his hand to make offering, and when he became enraged with the priests a defiling disease broke out on his forehead, in the presence of the priests in the house of the LORD, by the altar of incense.* 20When the chief priest Azariah, and all the priests, looked at him, he was diseased on his forehead. They hurried him out, and he himself hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.
21King Uzziah had a defiling disease to the day of his death, and being diseased lived in a separate house, for he was excluded from the house of the LORD. His son Jotham was in charge of the palace of the king, governing the people of the land.*

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz wrote.* 23Uzziah slept with his ancestors; they buried him near his ancestors in the burial field that belonged to the kings, for they said, "He had a defiling disease." His son Jotham succeeded him.*

2 Chronicles 27

REIGN OF JOTHAM

1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah daughter of Zadok.* [2]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD just as his father Uzziah had done—only he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people still followed corrupt practices.* [3]He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel.*
[4]Moreover, he built cities in the hill country of Judah and forts and towers on the wooded hills. [5]He fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. The Ammonites gave him that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand cors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites paid him the same amount in the second and the third years.
[6]So Jotham strengthened himself because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God.* [7]Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all his wars and his ways are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.* [8]He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.* [9]Jotham slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David, and his son Ahaz succeeded him.

2 Chronicles 28

REIGN OF AHAZ

1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his ancestor David had done,* 2but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel. He even made cast images for the Baals,* 3and he made offerings in the valley of the son of Hinnom and made his sons pass through fire, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the people of Israel.* 4He sacrificed and made offerings on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.*

ARAM AND ISRAEL DEFEAT JUDAH

5 Therefore the LORD his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram, who defeated him and took captive a great number of his people and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with great slaughter.* 6Pekah son of Remaliah killed one hundred twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all of them valiant warriors, because they had abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors.*
7And Zichri, a mighty warrior of Ephraim, killed the king's son Maaseiah, Azrikam the commander of the palace, and Elkanah the next in authority to the king.

INTERVENTION OF ODED

8 The people of Israel took captive two hundred thousand of their kin: women, sons, and daughters; they also took much spoil from them and brought the spoil to Samaria.* 9But a prophet of the LORD was there whose name was Oded; he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria and said to them, "Because the LORD, the God of your ancestors, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand, but you have killed them in a rage that has reached up to heaven.* 10Now you intend to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem, male and female, as your slaves. But what have you except sins against the LORD your God?* 11Now hear me, and send back the captives whom you have taken from your kindred, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you."* 12Moreover, certain chiefs of the Ephraimites, Azariah son of Johanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai, stood up against those who were coming from the war 13and said to them, "You shall not bring the captives in here, for you propose to bring on us guilt against the LORD in addition to our present sins and guilt. For our guilt is already great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel." 14So the warriors left the captives and the plunder before the officials and all the assembly. 15Then those who were mentioned by name got up and took the captives, and with the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them; they clothed them, gave them sandals, provided them with food and drink, and anointed them; and carrying all the feeble among them on donkeys, they brought them to their kindred at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.*

ASSYRIA REFUSES TO HELP JUDAH

16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the king[h] of Assyria for help.* 17For the Edomites had again invaded and defeated Judah and carried away captives. 18And the Philistines had made raids on the cities in the Shephelah and the Negeb of Judah and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages, and they settled there.* 19For the LORD brought Judah low because of King Ahaz of Israel, for he had behaved without restraint in Judah and had been faithless to the LORD.* 20So King Tiglath-pileser[i] of Assyria came against him and oppressed him instead of strengthening him.* 21For Ahaz plundered the house of the LORD and the houses of the king and of the officials and gave tribute to the king of Assyria, but it did not help him.

APOSTASY AND DEATH OF AHAZ

22 In the time of his distress he became yet more faithless to the LORD—this same King Ahaz. 23For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus that had defeated him and said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.* 24Ahaz gathered together the utensils of the house of God and cut in pieces the utensils of the house of God. He shut up the doors of the house of the LORD and made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.* 25In every city of Judah he made high places to make offerings to other gods, provoking to anger the LORD, the God of his ancestors. 26Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.* 27Ahaz slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. His son Hezekiah succeeded him.*

2 Chronicles 29

REIGN OF HEZEKIAH

1 Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.* [2]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, just as his ancestor David had done.*

THE TEMPLE CLEANSED

3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them.* [4]He brought in the priests and the Levites and assembled them in the square on the east. [5]He said to them, "Listen to me, Levites! Sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your ancestors, and carry out the filth from the holy place.* [6]For our ancestors have been unfaithful and have done what was evil in the sight of the LORD our God; they have forsaken him and have turned away their faces from the dwelling of the LORD and turned their backs.* [7]They also shut the doors of the vestibule and put out the lamps and have not offered incense or made burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. [8]Therefore the wrath of the LORD came upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he has made them an object of horror, of astonishment, and of hissing, as you see with your own eyes.* [9]Our fathers have fallen by the sword and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.* [10]Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger may turn away from us.* [11]My sons, do not now be negligent, for the LORD has chosen you to stand in his presence to minister to him and to be his ministers and offer incense."*

12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah;* [13]and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; [14]and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. 15They gathered their brothers, sanctified themselves, and went in as the king had commanded, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.* 16The priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and they brought out all the unclean things that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD, and the Levites took them and carried them out to the Wadi Kidron. 17They began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD; then for eight days they sanctified the house of the LORD, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.* 18Then they went inside to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table for the rows of bread and all its utensils. 19All the utensils that King Ahaz discarded during his reign when he was faithless, we have restored and sanctified; see, they are in front of the altar of the LORD."*

TEMPLE WORSHIP RESTORED

20 Then King Hezekiah rose early, assembled the officials of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. 21They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. He commanded the priests the descendants of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.* 22So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and dashed it against the altar; they slaughtered the rams, and their blood was dashed against the altar; they also slaughtered the lambs, and their blood was dashed against the altar.* 23Then the male goats for the sin offering were brought to the king and the assembly; they laid their hands on them,* 24and the priests slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood at the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.*

25 He stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres, according to the commandment of David and of Gad the king's seer and of the prophet Nathan, for the commandment was from the LORD through his prophets.* 26The Levites stood with the instruments of David and the priests with the trumpets.* 27Then Hezekiah commanded that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD began also, and the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of King David of Israel.* 28The whole assembly worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. 29When the offering was finished, the king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped.* 30King Hezekiah and the officials commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and of the seer Asaph. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed down and worshiped.

31 Then Hezekiah said, "You have now consecrated yourselves to the LORD; come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD." The assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.* 32The number of the burnt offerings that the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. 33The consecrated offerings were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep. 34But the priests were too few and could not skin all the burnt offerings, so, until other priests had sanctified themselves, their kindred, the Levites, helped them until the work was finished, for the Levites were more conscientious[j] than the priests in sanctifying themselves.* 35Besides the great number of burnt offerings there was the fat of the offerings of well-being, and there were the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was restored.* 36And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had done for the people, for the thing had come about suddenly.

2 Chronicles 30

THE GREAT PASSOVER

1 Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD the God of Israel. [2]For the king and his officials and all the assembly in Jerusalem had taken counsel to keep the Passover in the second month* [3](for they could not keep it at its proper time because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, nor had the people assembled in Jerusalem).* [4]The plan seemed right to the king and all the assembly. [5]So they decreed to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, that the people should come and keep the Passover to the LORD the God of Israel, at Jerusalem, for they had not kept it in great numbers as prescribed.* [6]So couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with letters from the king and his officials, as the king had commanded, saying, "O people of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that he may turn again to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.* [7]Do not be like your ancestors and your kindred, who were faithless to the LORD God of their ancestors, so that he made them a desolation, as you see.* [8]Do not now be stiff-necked as your ancestors were, but yield yourselves to the LORD and come to his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, so that his fierce anger may turn away from you.* [9]For as you return to the LORD, your kindred and your children will find compassion with their captors and return to this land.
For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him."*

10 So the couriers went from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun, but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.* [11]Only a few from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.* [12]The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the officials commanded by the word of the LORD.

13 Many people came together in Jerusalem to keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very large assembly.* 14They set to work and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for offering incense they took away and threw into the Wadi Kidron.* 15They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month.
The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and they sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.* 16They took their accustomed posts according to the law of Moses the man of God; the priests dashed the blood that they received[k] from the hands of the Levites.* 17For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites had to slaughter the Passover lamb for everyone who was not clean, to make it holy to the LORD.* 18For a multitude of the people, many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was prescribed. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon all* 19who set their hearts to seek God, the LORD the God of their ancestors, even though not in accordance with the sanctuary's rules of cleanness."* 20The LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people. 21The people of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, accompanied by loud instruments for the LORD.* 22Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good skill in the service of the LORD. So the people ate the food of the festival for seven days, sacrificing offerings of well-being and giving thanks to the LORD the God of their ancestors.*

23 Then the whole assembly agreed together to keep the festival for another seven days, so they kept it for another seven days with gladness.*
24For King Hezekiah of Judah gave the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep for offerings, and the officials gave the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. The priests sanctified themselves in great numbers.* 25The whole assembly of Judah, the priests and the Levites, and the whole assembly that came out of Israel, and the resident aliens who came out of the land of Israel, and the resident aliens who lived in Judah rejoiced. 26There was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon son of King David of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

[27]Then the priests and the Levites stood up and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; their prayer came to his holy dwelling in heaven.*

2 Chronicles 31

PAGAN SHRINES DESTROYED

1 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke down the pillars, cut down the sacred poles,[1] and pulled down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the people of Israel returned to their cities, all to their individual properties.*

2 Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, division by division, everyone according to his service, the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and offerings of well-being, to minister in the gates of the camp of the LORD and to give thanks and praise.* 3The contribution of the king from his own possessions was for the burnt offerings: the burnt offerings of morning and evening, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the appointed festivals, as it is written in the law of the LORD.* 4He commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, so that they might devote themselves to the law of the LORD.* 5As soon as the word spread, the people of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field, and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.* 6The people of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep and the tithe of the dedicated things that had been consecrated to the LORD their God and laid them in heaps.* 7In the third month they began to pile up the heaps and finished them in the seventh month. 8When Hezekiah and the officials came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and his people Israel. 9Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps. 10The chief priest Azariah, who was of the house of Zadok, answered him, "Since they began to bring the contributions into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty to spare, for the LORD has blessed his people, so that we have this great supply left over."*

REORGANIZATION OF PRIESTS AND LEVITES

11 Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare store chambers in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them. [12]Faithfully they brought in the contributions, the tithes, and the dedicated things. The chief officer in charge of them was Conaniah the Levite, with his brother Shimei as second; [13]while Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers assisting Conaniah and his brother Shimei, by the appointment of King Hezekiah and of Azariah the chief officer of the house of God.* [14]Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the east gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings to God, to apportion the contribution reserved for the LORD and the most holy offerings. [15]Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah were faithfully assisting him in the cities of the priests, to distribute the portions to their kindred, old and young alike, by divisions,* [16]except those enrolled by genealogy, males from three years old and up, all who entered the house of the LORD as the duty of each day required, for their service according to their offices, by their divisions.* [17]The enrollment of the priests was according to their ancestral houses; that of the Levites from twenty years old and up was according to their offices, by their divisions.* [18]They were enrolled with all their little children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, the whole multitude, for they were faithful in keeping themselves holy. [19]And for the descendants of Aaron, the priests, who were in the fields of pastureland belonging to their towns, town by town, the people designated by name were to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone among the Levites who was enrolled.*

20 Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah; he did what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God.* [21]And every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, to seek his God, he did with all his heart, and he prospered.

2 Chronicles 32

SENNACHERIB'S INVASION

1 After these things and these acts of faithfulness, King Sennacherib of Assyria came and invaded Judah and encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them for himself.* [2]When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to fight against Jerusalem, [3]he planned with his officers and his warriors to stop the flow of the springs that were outside the city, and they helped him. [4]A great many people were gathered, and they stopped all the springs and the wadi that flowed through the land, saying, "Why should the Assyrian kings come and find water in abundance?"* [5]Hezekiah[m] strengthened himself and built up the entire wall that was broken down and raised towers on it,[n] and outside it he built another wall; he also strengthened the Millo in the city of David and made weapons and shields in abundance.* [6]He appointed combat commanders over the people and gathered them together to him in the square at the gate of the city and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,* [7]"Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid or dismayed before the king of Assyria and all the horde that is with him, for there is one greater with us than with him.* [8]With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." The people were encouraged by the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.*

9 After this, while King Sennacherib of Assyria was at Lachish with all his forces, he sent his servants to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah of Judah and to all the people of Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying, [10]"Thus says King Sennacherib of Assyria: On what are you relying, that you undergo the siege of Jerusalem? [11]Is not Hezekiah misleading you, handing you over to die by famine and by thirst, when he tells you, 'The LORD our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria'?* [12]Was it not this same Hezekiah who took away his high places and his altars and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, 'Before one altar you shall worship, and upon it you shall make your offerings'?* [13]Do you not know what I and my ancestors have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to save their lands out of my hand?* 14Who among all the gods of those nations that my ancestors utterly destroyed was able to save his people from my hand, that your God should be able to save you from my hand?* 15Now, therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you in this fashion, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to save his people from my hand or from the hand of my ancestors. How much less will your God save you out of my hand!"*

16 His servants said still more against the Lord GOD and against his servant Hezekiah. 17He also wrote letters to throw contempt on the LORD the God of Israel and to speak against him, saying, "Just as the gods of the nations in other lands did not rescue their people from my hands, so the God of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand."* 18They shouted it with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, in order that they might take the city.* 19They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as if he were like the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of human hands.*

SENNACHERIB'S DEFEAT AND DEATH

20 Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed because of this and cried to heaven.* 21And the LORD sent an angel who cut off all the mighty warriors and commanders and officers in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned in disgrace to his own land. When he came into the house of his god, some of his own sons struck him down there with the sword.* 22So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of King Sennacherib of Assyria and from the hand of all his enemies; he gave them rest[o] on every side. 23Many brought gifts to the LORD in Jerusalem and precious things to King Hezekiah of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from that time onward.*

HEZEKIAH'S SICKNESS

24 In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD, and he answered him and gave him a sign.* 25But Hezekiah did not respond according to the benefit done to him, for his heart was proud. Therefore wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem.* 26Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.*

HEZEKIAH'S PROSPERITY AND ACHIEVEMENTS

27 Hezekiah had very great riches and honor, and he made for himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of costly objects; 28storehouses also for the yield of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of cattle and sheepfolds.p 29He likewise provided cities for himself and flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very great possessions.* 30This same Hezekiah closed the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them down to the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.* 31So also in the matter of the envoys of the officials of Babylon, who had been sent to him to inquire about the sign that had been done in the land, God left him to himself, in order to test him and to know all that was in his heart.*

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. 33Hezekiah slept with his ancestors, and they buried him on the ascent to the tombs of the descendants of David, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. His son Manasseh succeeded him.*

2 Chronicles 33

REIGN OF MANASSEH

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.* [2]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominable practices of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the people of Israel.* [3]For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had pulled down and erected altars to the Baals, made sacred poles,[q] worshiped all the host of heaven, and served them.* [4]He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem shall my name be forever."* [5]He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.* [6]He made his son pass through fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom, practiced soothsaying and augury and sorcery, and dealt with mediums and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.* [7]The carved image of the idol that he had made he set in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever;* [8]I will never again remove the feet of Israel from the land that I appointed for your ancestors, if only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them, all the law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses."* [9]Manasseh misled Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the people of Israel.

MANASSEH RESTORED AFTER REPENTANCE

10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they gave no heed. [11]Therefore the LORD brought against them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh captive in manacles, bound him with fetters, and brought him to Babylon.* [12]While he was in distress, he entreated the favor of the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his ancestors.* [13]He prayed to him, and God received his entreaty, heard his plea, and restored him again to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD indeed was God.*

14 Afterward he built an outer wall for the city of David west of Gihon, in the valley, reaching the entrance at the Fish Gate; he carried it around Ophel and raised it to a very great height. He also put commanders of the army in all the fortified cities in Judah.* [15]He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD and all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and he threw them out of the city.* [16]He also restored the altar of the LORD and offered on it sacrifices of well-being and of thanksgiving, and he commanded Judah to serve the LORD the God of Israel. [17]The people, however, still sacrificed at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.*

DEATH OF MANASSEH

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, these are in the Annals of the Kings of Israel.* [19]His prayer, and how God received his entreaty, all his sin and his faithlessness, the sites on which he built high places and set up the sacred poles[r] and the images, before he humbled himself, these are written in the records of the seers.[s,] [20]So Manasseh slept with his ancestors, and they buried him in his house. His son Amon succeeded him.

AMON'S REIGN AND DEATH

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned two years in Jerusalem.* [22]He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the images that his father Manasseh had made and served them.* [23]He did not humble himself before the LORD, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself, but this Amon incurred more and more guilt.* [24]His servants conspired against him and killed him in his house.* [25]But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king to succeed him.

2 Chronicles 34

REIGN OF JOSIAH

1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.* [2]He did what was right in the sight of the LORD and walked in the ways of his ancestor David; he did not turn aside to the right or to the left. [3]For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still a boy, he began to seek the God of his ancestor David, and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the sacred poles,[t] and the carved and the cast images.* [4]In his presence they pulled down the altars of the Baals; he demolished the incense altars that stood above them.
He broke down the sacred poles[u] and the carved and the cast images; he made dust of them and scattered it over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.* [5]He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.* [6]In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their ruins[v] all around,* [7]he broke down the altars, beat the sacred poles[w] and the images into powder, and demolished all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.*

DISCOVERY OF THE BOOK OF THE LAW

8 In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had cleansed the land and the house, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.* [9]They came to the high priest Hilkiah and delivered the silver that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim and from all the remnant of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem.* [10]They delivered it to the workers who had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and the workers who were working in the house of the LORD gave it for repairing and restoring the house. [11]They gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone, and timber for binders, and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.*

12The people did the work faithfully. Over them were appointed the Levites Jahath and Obadiah, of the sons of Merari, along with Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to have oversight. Other Levites, all skillful with instruments of music,* 13were over the burden bearers and directed all who did work in every kind of service, and some of the Levites were scribes, and officials, and gatekeepers.*

14 While they were bringing out the silver that had been brought into the house of the LORD, the priest Hilkiah found the book of the law of the LORD given through Moses.* 15Hilkiah said to the secretary Shaphan, "I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD," and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan. 16Shaphan brought the book to the king and further reported to the king, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.* 17They have emptied out the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workers." 18The secretary Shaphan informed the king, "The priest Hilkiah has given me a book." Shaphan then read it aloud to the king.

19 When the king heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes.* 20Then the king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, the secretary Shaphan, and the king's servant Asaiah, 21"Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found, for the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us is great, because our ancestors did not keep the word of the LORD, to act in accordance with all that is written in this book."*

THE PROPHET HULDAH CONSULTED

22 So Hilkiah and those whom the king had sent went to the prophet Huldah, the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (who lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter) and spoke to her to that effect.* 23She declared to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me: 24'Thus says the LORD: I will indeed bring disaster upon this place and upon its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book that was read before the king of Judah.*
25Because they have forsaken me and have made offerings to other gods, so that they have provoked me to anger with all the works of their hands, my wrath will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.'* 26But as to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him: Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Regarding the words that you have heard, 27because your heart was penitent and you humbled yourself before God when you heard his words against this place and its inhabitants, and you have humbled yourself before me and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard you, says the LORD.* 28I will gather you to your ancestors and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.' " They took the message back to the king.

THE COVENANT RENEWED

29 Then the king sent word and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.* 30The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites, all the people both great and small; he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the house of the LORD.* 31The king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, keeping his commandments, his decrees, and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.* 32Then he made all who were present in Jerusalem and in Benjamin pledge themselves to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted according to the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors. 33Josiah took away all the abominations from all the territory that belonged to the people of Israel and made all who were in Israel serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not turn away from following the LORD the God of their ancestors.*

2 Chronicles 35

CELEBRATION OF THE PASSOVER

1 Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem; they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month.* [2]He appointed the priests to their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD.* [3]He said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house that Solomon son of David, king of Israel, built; you need no longer carry it on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.* [4]Make preparations by your ancestral houses by your divisions, following the written directions of King David of Israel and the written directions of his son Solomon.* [5]Take position in the holy place according to the groupings of the ancestral houses of your kindred the people, and let there be Levites for each division of an ancestral house.[x,] [6]Slaughter the Passover lamb, sanctify yourselves, and on behalf of your kindred make preparations, acting according to the word of the LORD by Moses."

7 Then Josiah contributed to the people, as Passover offerings for all who were present, lambs and kids from the flock to the number of thirty thousand and three thousand bulls; these were from the king's possessions.*
[8]His officials contributed willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the chief officers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred lambs and kids and three hundred bulls. [9]Conaniah also, and his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand lambs and kids and five hundred bulls.*

10 When the service had been prepared, the priests stood in their place and the Levites in their divisions according to the king's command.* [11]They slaughtered the Passover lamb, and the priests dashed the blood that they received[y] from them, while the Levites did the skinning.* [12]They set aside the burnt offerings so that they might distribute them according to the groupings of the ancestral houses of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And they did the same with the bulls. [13]They roasted the Passover lamb with fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled the holy offerings in pots, in caldrons, and in pans and carried them quickly to all the people.* [14]Afterward they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests the descendants of Aaron were occupied in offering the burnt offerings and the fat parts until night, so the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron. [15]The singers, the descendants of Asaph, were in their place according to the command of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and the king's seer Jeduthun. The gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not need to interrupt their service, for their kindred the Levites made preparations for them.*

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared that day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah. [17]The people of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time and the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days.* [18]No Passover like it had been kept in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as was kept by Josiah, by the priests and the Levites, by all Judah and Israel who were present, and by the inhabitants of Jerusalem.* [19]In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah, this Passover was kept.

DEFEAT BY PHARAOH NECO AND DEATH OF JOSIAH

20 After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, King Neco of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out against him.* [21]But Neco[z] sent envoys to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I am not coming against you today but against the house with which I am at war, and God has commanded me to hurry. Cease opposing God, who is with me, so that he will not destroy you." [22]But Josiah would not turn away from him but disguised himself in order to fight with him. He did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God but joined battle in the plain of Megiddo.* [23]The archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am badly wounded." [24]So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in his second chariot[a] and brought him to Jerusalem. There he died and was buried in the tombs of his ancestors. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.* [25]Jeremiah also uttered a lament for Josiah, and all the singing men and singing women have spoken of Josiah in their laments to this day. They made these a custom in Israel; they are recorded in the Laments.* [26]Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his faithful deeds in accordance with what is written in the law of the LORD [27]and his acts, first and last, are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36

REIGN OF JEHOAHAZ

1 The people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king to succeed his father in Jerusalem.* [2]Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months in Jerusalem. [3]Then the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and laid on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. [4]The king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Jehoiakim, but Neco took his brother Jehoahaz and carried him to Egypt.

REIGN AND CAPTIVITY OF JEHOIAKIM

5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.* [6]Against him King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up and bound him with fetters to take him to Babylon.* [7]Nebuchadnezzar also carried some of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his palace in Babylon.* [8]Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and the abominations that he did and what was found against him are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah, and his son Jehoiachin succeeded him.*

REIGN AND CAPTIVITY OF JEHOIACHIN

9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.* [10]In the spring of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, along with the precious vessels of the house of the LORD, and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.*
